MIDDLE TENNESSEE

SOCCER GAME NOTES ■ SEPTEMBER 22-23, 2001 ■ VS. ALABAMA/EASTERN ILLINOIS

THIS WEEK FOR THE BLUE RAIDERS ...

The Middle Tennessee Blue Raiders host the Alabama Crimson Tide and Eastern Illinois Panthers in a pair of games added to the schedule after MT lost two contests last week. Saturday's match with Alabama begins at 1 p.m., with Sunday's contest versus Eastern Illinois kicking off at Noon.

The Blue Raiders and Crimson Tide have met just once, an October 9, 1996, outing in which MT lost by forfeit. Alabama comes into the match 5-0 after defeating Arkansas State on the road Tuesday and Birmingham Southern on Thursday. Alabama was scheduled to make a trip West this weekend to take on Northern Arizona and New Mexico, but that trip was canceled late last week.

Sunday the Blue Raiders face former OVC foe Eastern Illinois. MT won its only meeting in five tries against the Panthers last season, defeating EIU, 5-0, at home. Jenny Cox and Sarah Schulz each had two assists and now assistant coach Kenya Hickey netted two goals in the victory.

The Panthers come into the match 4-1 after defeating DePaul Tuesday afternoon. EIU won its first three matches of the year before dropping a 2-0 decision to Eastern Michigan. The Panthers were scheduled to play in the Outrigger Invitational this weekend in Honolulu, Hawaii, but that trip was also canceled late last week.

BLUE RAIDERS LOSE MATCHES AT APPALACHIAN STATE, EAST TENNESSEE

Due to the terrorist attacks in New York City and Washington, D.C., and decisions by conferences around the country to suspend athletic action through the weekend, the Middle Tennessee soccer matches scheduled for Sept. 14 and 16 at Appalachian State and East Tennessee, respectively, were canceled.

East Tennessee decided to cancel the Sunday match late Thursday afternoon, and Appalachian State made a decision late Thursday night to cancel Friday's match at Kidd Brewer Stadium on the Mountaineers campus. The lost matches were the fourth and fifth of the season for Middle Tennessee, after a two-game road trip was canceled and losing a game to rain during the opening weekend of the season at the Southern Miss Tournament.

LADUKE, SHRUM, MIGUEZ NEAR TOP IN SUN BELT STATISTICS

Freshman forward Danielle LaDuke and sophomore goalie Emily Shrum along with freshman midfielder Laura Miguez each rank in the Top 10 in this week's Sun Belt Conference Individual Statistics.

LaDuke, who leads the Blue Raiders in goals (2), points (4), shots (7) and shots on goal (5), is tied for fourth in points per game and goals per game in the league, and stands fifth in shots per game. Miguez, who assisted on both of LaDuke's goals in a 3-2 victory at UT-Martin on September 5, ranks second in the conference in assists per game.

Shrum stands fourth in the SBC in saves per game with 4.67, and ranks ninth in goals against average after the first three matches of the year.

As a team the Blue Raiders rank third in the conference in shots per game, and stand in the middle of the pack in every other category, including goals, assists and points per game.

MT DROPS 2-1 DECISION AT HOME

Middle Tennessee dropped a 2-1 decision to Jacksonville State Saturday afternoon at Lady Raider Soccer Field, as the visiting Gamecocks jumped out to a two-goal lead and weathered a late surge by the homestanding Blue Raiders.

The Gamecocks tallied the first goal of the match in the eighth minute when the Blue Raiders headed down a ball in the 18-yard box and JSU's Jane Little sailed a shot over the outstretched arms of MT goalie Emily Shrum for a 1-0 lead. JSU outshot the Blue Raiders, 8-6, in the first half, but neither team could scratch across another goal before halftime.

In the second half the Gamecocks played a perfect game of give-and-go between Krista Miller and Angela Tribble, with Tribble chipping an easy ball over Shrum for a 2-0 advantage.

The Blue Raiders (1-2) had several excellent chances in the second half, including shots on goal near the six-yard box from Laura Miguez and Danielle LaDuke, but JSU goalie Adriana Fenelli was up to the challenge, making saves each time and four saves overall in the match.

Lisa Langrish, a freshman from Dorset, England, got Middle Tennessee on the board on a restart in the 70th minute. Langrish laced a ball into the upper right corner, cutting the deficit to 2-1. But the Blue Raiders ran out of time, with the Gamecocks picking up their first win of the campaign.

"We didn't play well today at all," MT second-year head coach Scott Ginn said. "We just didn't come out and accept the challenge.

"We played passive in the first half, but we did play a little better in the second half. We gave the ball away too much and we didn't put enough pressure on the ball defensively."

The Gamecocks outshot MT, 13-10, in the contest. Shrum had five saves in the loss for the Blue Raiders.

NEWS AND NOTES...

- With the 1-0 defeat to Southern Miss, the Blue Raiders dropped to 2-4 all-time in season-openers, including 1-2 on the road. Second-year head coach Scott Ginn dropped his second straight season-opener after MT lost 3-0 to St. Louis to begin the 2000 campaign.
- All six season-openers in MT soccer history have been shutouts.
- The Blue Raiders begin the 2001 season with their longest road swing to begin a campaign in the school's six-year history. MT has never begun a season with more than one game away from home before the home opener.
- The shutout against the Blue Raiders was the first shutout against MT since a 2-0 loss at Southeast Missouri on October 21 of last season, a span of four matches.
- The 3-2 victory over UT-Martin on Wednesday improved the Blue Raiders all-time record to 5-0 against the Skyhawks, including 2-0 on the road.
- Freshman Danielle LaDuke's two goals against UT-Martin was the first time since October 23, 2000, that an MT player scored twice in a match. Freshman Jenny Cox had two goals in a 4-2 win over Arkansas State on that day.
- The two assists from Laura Miguez against UT-Martin marked the first time since Allison Schulz had a pair of assists against East Tennessee on October 29, 2000, that an MT player had two assists in a match. It marked the first time since Jenny Cox had two assists versus Louisiana-Lafayette (10/15/00) that a freshmen had a hand in a pair of goals for the Blue Raiders.
- Saturday's 2-1 defeat to Jacksonville State dropped the Blue Raiders to 1-4-1 in home openers in the six-year history of the program. MT's only win came against Tennessee Tech to begin the 1999 campaign.
- All four goals scored by MT this season have come from new players to the squad. Freshmen Danielle LaDuke (two goals) and Lisa Langrish (one goal) have each contributed, and redshirt sophomore Megan McGregor, who sat out last season after tearing her ACL during the summer, scored the other goal.
- After terrorist bombings in New York and Washington, D.C., on September 11 caused the sporting world to shut down for a week, the Blue Raiders scheduled matches at Appalachian State and East Tennessee were canceled. The two matches were the fourth and fifth lost for the season by MT after a two-game road trip was canceled before the season and rain caused the cancellation of another match on opening weekend at the Southern Miss Tourn.

GINN RAISES FITNESS LEVEL

Second-year head coach Scott Ginn instituted a fitness test for all players beginning this season, a grueling set of four short and four long runs. All eight drills have a time requirement, and no player shall receive a game jersey until the entire set is passed at one testing.

Heading into the opening weekend of play, 24 of MT's 26 players have passed the test, far ahead of Ginn's wildest expectations, especially with so many new faces in this year's program.

MT PICKED FIFTH BY LEAGUE COACHES

The Middle Tennessee soccer team was chosen fifth in the 2001 Sun Belt Preseason Women's Soccer Poll announced last week by the league office, as voted on by league coaches.

Florida International is expected to pick up where it left off in Sun Belt Conference competition last season. The Golden Panthers were picked first, collecting 71 points and six first-place votes from the league's head coaches to edge out the Denver Pioneers in second place. North Texas was picked third, followed by South Alabama, Middle Tennessee and Arkansas State. Three new programs round out the poll - second-year program Arkansas-Little Rock and first-year program Western Kentucky tied for seventh place, with second-year program Louisiana-Lafayette picked ninth. 2001 will be the second season of championship women's soccer competition in the Sun Belt Conference.

While last year's leading scorer for Middle Tennessee, Kenya Hickey, won't be on the field, she will be on the sideline as a graduate assistant for the Lady Raiders. Junior Sarah Schulz now holds a school-record 17 career assists, including six last season, and provides support in the offense. Sophomore Jenny Cox, a First Team All-Sun Belt honoree, finished the 2000 campaign scoring 15 points on five goals and five assists. Junior defender Sheri Robbins contributed nine points last season on three goals and three assists. In the net, senior Jessica Busey and sophomore Emily Shrum will challenge for the spot vacated by Jennifer Robb.

The 2001 Sun Belt Conference Women's Soccer Championship Tournament will be Oct. 31-Nov. 3 at University Park on the campus of Florida International University in Miami.

Head Coach: Scott Ginn
Assistant Coach: Beth Acreman
Graduate Assistant: Kenya Hickey
Athletic Trainers: Jessica Hanson, Brittany Bozeman
Manager: Justin Scott

Head coach Scott Ginn begins his second season at Middle Tennessee after serving four years as head coach at Barton College in Wilson, N.C.

Ginn became the second head coach at Middle Tennessee, inheriting a team that posted 10 wins the previous season and 30 victories in the program's four-year history. His first season at the helm of the MT program brought an 8-11-0 overall record, 3-4 in the Sun Belt Conference. The 2000 season marked the first year that Middle Tennessee competed in the Sun Belt in all sports, and for the soccer program it meant a step up in competition, now facing quality programs such as South Alabama, North Texas, Florida Interntational and Denver.

The 2000 squad had just four seniors and put together a three-match winning streak midway through the year before falling to Denver in the first round of the Sun Belt Tournament in Mobile, Ala. This year's squad returns eight starters and 10 letterwinners from last year's unit, and will feature 15 newcomers to the program.

Ginn posted a four-year record of 39-35-1 at Barton, and led the Bulldogs to several school records during his tenure, including wins in a season and winning percentage in a season.

During his final campaign at Barton, he led the Bulldogs to a 9-8-1 overall record with a 7-3-1 mark in the Carolinas-Virginia Athletics Conference. Ginn's charges ended their season on penalty kicks in the quarterfinals of the CVAC tournament after a 0-0 score could not determine the outcome of the game.

Ginn was a four-year letterman for the Barton men's team, serving as captain during his senior season of 1989. He went on to serve as an assistant coach for the men's team for the two seasons following his graduation.

Following his stint as an assistant at Barton, Ginn took on duties as a clinician and coach for the Stone Mountain Youth Soccer Association and assistant coach for the women's program at Berry College in Rome, Ga.

During his stay in Georgia, he led his 1993 U18 boys team to a second-place finish in the State Championships, and Berry College advanced to the NAIA national tournament after holding a ranking for the entire season.

Ginn continues to increase his knowledge base by being active in camps across the country. He has worked the All-Star Soccer Camp, Hall of Fame Soccer Camp, University of Florida Soccer Camp, and the Greensboro Dynamo Soccer Camp.

Interestingly enough, Ginn learned the game while living in Paraguay where his parents were missionaries for many years.

Prior to his college days, Ginn had already completed a four-year stint in the US Army. Ginn was a member of the 82nd Airborne Division from 1981-1985.

Ginn holds an "A" license from the United States Soccer Federation and an Advanced National Diploma from the National Soccer Coaches Association of America.

Ginn recently completed his master's degree in sports administration from East Carolina Univ.
