Middle Tennessee started a year 5-0 was also 1990. That year the Blue Raiders went 5-0 before losing at Eastern Kentucky.

STOPPING THE RUN

■ Over the past three games, the Blue Raider defense has done a good job of stopping the run. During that span, Middle Tennessee has held its opponents to an average of 83.3 yards on the ground. For the year, the Blue Raiders are allowing just 106.8 rushing yards per game and have given up just one rushing TD over the past 14 quarters. Nationally, the Blue Raiders are 26th in rushing defense.

MOVIN' ON UP

■ After going 3-8 in his first year as a head coach in 1999, Middle Tennessee head coach Andy McCollum has a chance to put his overall record over the .500 mark for the first time. McCollum enters the Idaho contest with a mark of 13-13 and has won 12 of his last 18 games. McCollum is the eighth winningest coach in school history and needs five more victories to surpass E.W. Midgett for seventh place.

SEVEN IN A ROW

■ The Blue Raiders enter the Idaho contest having won seven games in a row. Middle Tennessee will be trying to extend its win streak to eight straight for the first time since 1985.

COUNTS CHASING MORRIS

■ Senior signal-caller Wes Counts enters this week's game in second place on Middle Tennessee's all-time touchdown pass list. Counts, who has five scoring strikes on the season, has tossed 38 career touchdown passes to stand only three behind Teddy Morris. Morris collected his 41 TD passes for the Blue Raiders from 1962-65.

DEFENSE GETS TURNOVERS

■ The Middle Tennessee defense rose to the occasion last week against Louisiana-Lafayette by forcing four turnovers, which led to 14 points. The four takeaways were the most by a Blue Raider team since collecting five at Connecticut in 2000. Over the last two games, the Blue Raider defense has forced six turnovers.

BRADLEY OFF TO HOT START

■ Senior Jykine Bradley, who is sixth nationally in interceptions, continues to prove why he is one of the better corners in the Sun Belt Conference. In week one he was voted the SBC Defensive Player of the Week following a six-tackle performance, then took team MVP honors after his effort against Troy State. Bradley collected his conference leading third interception at UL-Monroe to go along with two pass deflections. In his last 12 games, Bradley has registered six interceptions and has eight for his career (needs two more to tie for sixth on the all-time list).

LEE TOPS 100 MARK

■ For the first time in his young career, running back Reshard Lee topped the 100-yard rushing mark when he registered 127 yards on eight carries at ULL. Lee enjoyed runs of 60 and 28 yards to spark the Blue Raiders. On the season, Lee is second on the team in rushing with 289 yards on 29 carries for an average of 10.0 per rush.

STREAKS END

■ Three impressive streaks came to an end

HEAD COACH ANDY MCCOLLUM

2000 TSWA Coach of the Year

One of the most fierce recruiters in the nation, Andy McCollum is in his third season as head coach at Middle Tennessee where he owns a mark of 13-13, including a 6-5 mark in 2000. After leading the Blue Raiders to a winning season last year in only the programs second campaign in I-A, McCollum was tabbed the 2000 Tennessee Sports Writers Association Coach of the Year.

A former coach and player under legendary Blue Raider coach Boots Donnelly, McCollum has brought with him an exciting offensive strategy and a defensive scheme predicated on speed. In his first year, the Blue Raiders set four team records and 15 single-game and/or single-season marks. The Middle Tennessee passing offense ranked 32nd in the nation, while two receivers were rated among the top 26 in catches per game. In his second season, the offense set a school record with five 40-plus point games, and then added three individual single-game marks, five individual single-season records, and five individual career marks.

McCollum, who was at Middle Tennessee in the mid '80s, made his way back to Murfreesboro after nine years as an assistant at Baylor and UTEP.

In 1989, McCollum, 42, left Middle Tennessee to become wide receivers coach under offensive coordinator David Culley at Texas-El Paso. That year, UTEP was rated 10th nationally in passing. From 1990-93, McCollum was in charge of the linebackers, while doubling as the special teams coordinator.

In 1993, McCollum joined Chuck Reedy's staff at Baylor as linebackers coach and immediately earned a reputation as an outstanding recruiter and top-flight tactician. In 1995 and 1996, McCollum was rated among the top ten recruiters in the nation by Max Emfinger.

In the spring of 1995, he left for the University of Tennessee to serve as linebacker coach but returned seven weeks later to take over the role of assistant head coach and defensive coordinator at Baylor.

As defensive coordinator in 1995, the Bears ranked No. 5 nationally in total defense, No. 5 in pass defense, No. 9 in scoring defense and No. 12 in rushing defense. As special teams coordinator that same season, the Bears were deemed as having the SWC's top unit after recording eight blocked punts and converting four of those into touchdowns.

McCollum, who was named Middle Tennessee's 13th head coach on Dec. 8, 1998, got his start in coaching when Donnelly picked up the phone in 1981 and asked him to be a graduate assistant. After just one year as a graduate assistant in which he was head coach of the junior varsity squad, McCollum was named full-time in 1982.

From 1981-84, McCollum served as an assistant coach working with wide receivers, tight ends and special teams. In 1985, MT was ranked No. 1 in I-AA going 11-0 in regular season play. In 1988, McCollum's Blue Raider secondary led the nation in pass defense and set three new NCAA records.

During his time as an assistant at Middle Tennessee, McCollum recruited or coached the likes of Dwight Stone, Tony Burse, David Little, Don Griffin, Vince Hall, Kenny Tippens, Marty Carter, Walter Dunson, Steve Dark and Ricky Martin. All of the above are former Blue Raider greats who are either playing in the NFL or did at one time.

McCollum, from Marietta, GA, graduated from Austin Peay in 1981, where he was a four-year letterman as an offensive guard and tight end and later earned his masters degree from MT in 1983.

McCollum, who has coached eight all-Americans, 29 all-conference picks and 24 players who have moved to the NFL, is married to the former Gwen Wilkinson. The couple has one son, Drew, and a daughter, Andrea.

In Just 2+ Years, McCollum Has ...

- Gone from 3 wins to 6 in the program's first two years of I-A football
- Been picked to win the Sun Belt Conference in its inaugural season
- Developed a 1,000-yard rusher (Dwone Hicks)
- Had the nation's 16th ranked offense (2000)
- Improved 31 spots in total defense from year one to year two
- Had the nation's third leading scorer (2000)
- Improved 70 spots in the national rankings in rushing offense
- Had a receiver ranked among the nation's top 20 both years
- Produced a first team Freshman All-American (Brandon Westbrook)
- Sent two coaches to the NFL
- Amassed an 9-2 record at home
- Gone 5-1 in the month of November
- Seen his offense score 30 or more points 13 times in 26 games

during last week's win over ULL. QB Wes Counts saw his streak of 98 consecutive passes without an interception come to a crashing halt when ULL's Daniel Taylor picked off his 99th attempt. WR Tyrone Calico saw his streak of having at least one reception in 25 straight games come to an end when he was shutout by the Ragin' Cajuns. The third stopped streak came when the Blue Raiders were held scoreless in the first quarter. That marked the first time in 14 quarters the Blue Raiders had failed to score at least three points.

FIRST PICKS

■ Linebacker Scotty Brown and defensive back Wardell Alsup both collected their first collegiate interceptions last week at ULL. Brown, the first MT LB to collect an INT since the South Florida game in 2000, stopped a Ragin' Cajun third quarter drive with his pick and returned it 14 yards, while Alsup's came late in the fourth quarter.

COMPLETION LEADER

■ Senior Wes Counts, who is fifth nationally in completion percentage (68.6), is the Blue Raiders' career leader in completions with 590. Entering this week's game against Idaho, Counts is 16th nationally in number of completions despite his 3 of 14 effort at ULL. Over his career, Counts has completed 21 or more passes in a game 12 times and eight times he has completed 26 or more passes.

BACK-TO-BACK 600

■ For the first time in school history, the Blue Raiders put together back-to-back games with over 600 yards of total offense when they accomplished the feat against Vanderbilt and Troy State. In all, the Blue Raiders have registered four 600-plus yard outings and three of those have come under head coach Andy McCollum. Against Troy State, Middle Tennessee racked up 641 yards, which was the second most in school history behind the 660 yards put up by the 1990 team versus UT-Martin.

YOUELL SETS CAREER-HIGH

■ Junior wide receiver David Youell hauled in a personal best seven receptions for a career-high 83 yards in the win over UL-Monroe. Youell's previous high was a six-catch game at Maryland last year. The Sevierville, TN, native is second on the team in receptions with 14.

NATION'S NO. 2 SCORER

■ With 12 total touchdowns to start the season, Dwone Hicks has run his career total to 36. That ranks third on the all-time touchdowns scored list and puts him only eight away from surpassing Kippy Bayless (1991-94) for second place. Ranked No. 2 nationally in scoring, Hicks has 74 points this season and is No. 5 on the school's career scoring list with 218 points. Hicks needs 43 more points to take over fourth place from Kippy Bayless.

200 FOR HICKS

■ All-America candidate Dwone Hicks has tallied two 200-yard rushing games in his career, which is only one shy of equalling the school record of three set by Joe Campbell. Hicks, who had a 311-yard game last year against Louisiana Tech, picked up his second 200+ outing in the season opener at Vanderbilt. Against the Commodores, Hicks rushed 37 times for 203 yards and four touchdowns.

COUNTS FOR 300

■ Senior quarterback Wes Counts tossed his fifth 300-yard passing game of his career when he rang up 308 yards in the win over Vanderbilt. Counts' five 300-yard games are the most by any signal-caller in Blue Raider history. The Murfreesboro native, who did not top the 300-yard mark in 2000, owns the single-game throwing mark with 362 yards set against Wofford in 1999.

THE LONGEST DRIVE ... EVER

■ In the second quarter at UL-Monroe on Sept. 22, Middle Tennessee put together a 14-play drive that covered 99 yards and 35 inches for a touchdown. It was the longest drive in Blue Raider history. The Blue Raiders were backed up to the one-inch line following a ULM punt that was perfectly downed just outside the goal line. The most interesting stat of the drive, however, was the fact MT was never faced with a third down.

NEWSON STREAK AMONG BEST

■ Senior Kendall Newson, who has nearly every receiving record, owns the 3rd longest active consecutive reception streak in the country. The Decatur, GA, native enters the Idaho game with at least one reception in 36 straight contests. His streak is also the longest in school history.

STORY IDEAS

■ The strength and conditioning staff charted Kendall Newson during a three-hour workout for a Position Demand Analysis. How many steps he walked, jogged, and ran were calculated and put into yards. They charted Newson during a morning practice in full pads. Newson walked 1,055 yards (87 reps), ran 1,505 yards (84 reps) and sprinted 1,415 yards (80 reps) for a total of 3,975 yards or 2.3 miles. Newson's longest run of the practice was 45 yards, while his shortest was five yards. Take into consideration that one football game works out to about 72 snaps.

■ Middle Tennessee's Band of Blue is now the largest college marching band in the state of Tennessee and is tied with Michigan for the sixth largest college marching band in the nation. The Band of Blue's 350 members is larger than the University of Tennessee's Pride of the Southland Band which has 330 members.

■ QB Wes Counts' father is an associate athletic director for Middle Tennessee and his mother is the academic advisor for the Blue Raider football program. Wes, who already has his degree, used to carry cable on the sidelines for current QB coach Alex Robins.

■ Newcomer Kerry Wright owns the team's top 40 time at 4.38 and the best vertical leap at 37 inches. The sophomore also turned in a time of 3.92 in the 5-10-5 short shuttle run, which would have been the third best time at the 2001 NFL Combines.

■ Sophomore running back Don Calloway has 16 brothers and sisters. His brother Selma was a running back at Georgia.

■ Former walk-on Joey Montalbano, who was the 2001 Lifter of the Year for the Blue Raiders, was put on scholarship during two-a-day camp which was a total surprise to the Nashville, TN native. Montalbano, who starts on MT's kickoff team, is 5-9, 200, but bench presses 390.

■ QB Jason Johnson was a receiver for Warwick High School in Newport News, VA, his junior year. The quarterback for Warwick that season was a guy by the name of Michael Vick, who was an all-American at Virginia Tech.

■ Starting linebacker Michael Woods, from Valdosta, GA, is the cousin of current Tennessee Titan linebacker Randall Godfrey.

■ The Blue Raider coaching staff hosts over 400 Boys and Girls Club kids each year for a free clinic at Floyd Stadium. During that same week, Andy McCollum puts on a golf tournament which raised nearly $100,000 in 2001 for the club.

HICKS OVER 100

■ Junior Dwone Hicks recorded his 10th 100-yard rushing game when he collected 203 against Vanderbilt. Hicks had eight 100-yard games in 2000 and one in 1999. Five of Hicks' 100-yard efforts have come at home.

NEWSON MOST PRODUCTIVE

■ Arguably the most productive wide receiver in school history is senior Kendall Newson. The Decatur, GA, native enters the Idaho game as Middle Tennessee's career leader in receptions, receiving yards and 100-yard games. The only career mark Newson does not hold is touchdowns where he is currently third with 16, but only five behind all-time leader Herbert Owenby (21).

100-YD RECEIVING GAMES

■ Under Andy McCollum, the Blue Raiders have had 16 100-yard receiving games with 15 of those coming from wide receivers and one from a running back. Kendall Newson, who owns the school record with 12, has had 10 under Coach Mac, while Tyrone Calico has registered four. Hansford Johnson also has one, while Don Calloway owns the other.

MR. VERSATILITY

■ Senior Hansford Johnson is the definition of Mr. Versatility. During his career, the wide receiver has completed 6 of 8 passes for 137 yards and three touchdowns, has returned 47 punts for 529 yards and brought back 21 kickoffs for 201 yards. All of this and he has still managed to register 100 catches for 1,043 yards and seven TDs. Last season alone, Johnson caught two touchdown passes, threw two scoring strikes and ran for a touchdown making him the first Blue Raider to pass, rush and receive a TD since Jonathan Quinn (1995). At UL-Lafayette, Johnson attempted his first pass of the year which was caught by quarterback Wes Counts for an eight-yard score.

BLUE RAIDERS GET BLOCK

■ In the win at UL-Monroe, the Blue Raiders collected their second blocked kick in the Andy McCollum era. In the third quarter, Kareem Bland blocked a ULM extra point attempt to stop the Indians momentum. The other block in the McCollum era came last year against Louisiana Tech when Michael Woods blocked a punt.

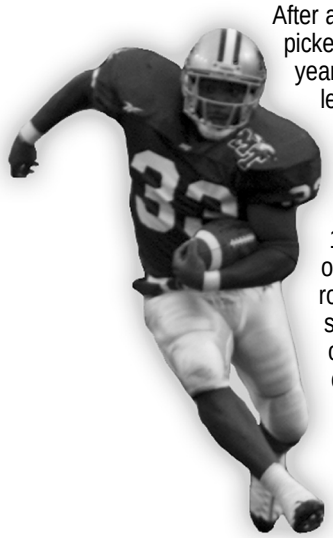
Doak Walker Candidate
All-America Candidate



After a record-breaking sophomore season, Dwone Hicks has picked up where he left off and is on pace for another brilliant year. Hicks enters this week's game as the nation's second leading scorer.

In 2000, Hicks earned national attention when he rushed for 1,277 yards and 19 touchdowns to lead Middle Tennessee's 16th rated offense. The Huntsville, AL, native also finished third nationally in scoring with 126 points, was 15th in rushing, and 30th in all-purpose yards. Hicks' eye-opening performance came against Louisiana Tech when he rolled over the Bulldogs for a school record 311 yards and six touchdowns. That effort earned him national recognition on ESPN and easily gave him Independent Football Player of the Week honors.

Hicks continued to rack up the awards and recognition as the 2001 season approached. He was named preseason Sun Belt Conference Offensive Player of the Year, making him the first-ever recipient of the honor.

Dwone Hicks, who had a year to remember in 2000, is the Sun Belt Conference's Preseason Offensive Player of the Year.

2001 SEASON RECAP AND BOXSCORES

Game 1

Middle Tennessee 37, Vanderbilt 28
Aug. 30, 2001; Nashville, TN

by Tony Stinnett
Daily News Journal

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — Middle Tennessee did what many thought couldn't be done in its opener at Vanderbilt.

Surely, this Division I-A infant couldn't go on the road and beat an established Southeastern Conference opponent, the players had heard constantly.

Too soon into their I-A voyage.

Guess what? The Blue Raiders did it, piling up 608 yards of total offense on their way to a 37-29 win in front of 39,885 at Vanderbilt Stadium.

It was the program's first win against a Southeastern Conference opponent and also MTSU's first against the Commodores in 13 tries.

It also is the biggest win in the program's rich football history, while the offensive avalanche almost was the greatest in school history. The 608 yards were second-most to the 660 put up against UT-Martin in 1990.

"I couldn't be more proud of my team," said MTSU third-year coach Andy McCollum. "I said before this game no matter what the outcome there was no other team in the nation I would want to take to Vanderbilt, and you see why. My team has worked very hard over the last two years and it has finally paid off.

"Vanderbilt should know they got beat by a very good team, and we beat a well-coached football team."

Seldom do games that receive so much pregame billing live up to the hype.

The opener between MTSU and Vanderbilt did.

And MTSU's offense was as good as advertised, maybe better.

The ground attack, led by junior tailback Dwone Hicks' game-high 203 yards and four touchdowns, accounted for 300 total yards, while the savvy senior quarterback went the distance and was 27-of-36 for 308 yards, no turnovers and sealing the win with a 9-yard scoring run on a fourth-and-7 play with 21 seconds remaining.

"I have no excuses," Vanderbilt coach Woody Widenhofer said. "MTSU came in and played very well and just plain beat us. They deserve to win. This is one of the toughest losses I have ever been a part of. I rank it right up there with the Kentucky loss that cost us a trip to a bowl.

"I thought (Wes) Counts had a great game for them. He made good decisions, made plays and, most importantly, didn't make mistakes."

While MTSU's offense came out smoking the defense wasn't holding up its end of the deal.

After stopping Vanderbilt on its first three possessions, the defense gave up with two big plays in the second quarter that helped spark a 28-point outburst and enabled the home team to take a 28-24 lead into the half.

That's when MTSU grew up, not only defensively, but as a team.

The Blue Raider defenders pitched a shutout in the second half, while the offense answered the call by picking up where it left off before the break.

Hicks' fourth touchdown, a 2-yard plunge, gave MTSU the lead for good, 30-28, with 4:20 remaining in the third quarter.

It would be enough.

"We've been wanting to beat a name (team) so bad that it hurt," said Hicks, who recorded his 10th 100-yard rushing game as a Blue Raider. "It feels good to get over the hump. This feels good because (Vanderbilt) is right down the street. Our fans were into it. (Our fans) knew we could do it. We knew we could do it, and we did."

Vanderbilt had a chance to regain the lead early in the fourth quarter but a botched snap prohibited the Commodores to get off what would have been a 23-yard field goal. From there, MTSU regained control.

The Commodores' final chance at coming from behind ended when Louis Kemp stopped Vanderbilt quarterback Greg Zolman one yard short of a first down on a fourth-and-2 play from the Vanderbilt 41.

Counts put the final touches on the riveting win eight plays later when he danced in untouched from seven yards out.

"It's big, it's big for the fans," Counts said. "It's just character and all the offseason work - that's when things started. This was a tremendous win, a team win, and that's what makes it special. We put up some numbers against a good defense tonight. We haven't even started to scratch the surface with our offense."

In addition to the big night turned in by Counts and Hicks, senior receiver Kendall Newson finished with nine receptions for 113 yards, while fellow receiver Tyrone Calico added six receptions for 83 yards.

The loss ruined an outstanding night for Vanderbilt receiver M.J. Garrett, who had eight catches for 219 yards and a touchdown.

Game 2

Middle Tennessee 54, Troy State 17
Sept. 8, 2001; Murfreesboro, TN

by Tony Stinnett
Daily News Journal

MURFREESBORO, Tenn. — Middle Tennessee feared a Troy State ambush in the home opener with the Blue Raiders coming off the emotional 37-28 win at Vanderbilt just nine days earlier.

There was an ambush, all right, but it was provided by the Blue Raiders as they waylaid Division I-A newcomer Troy State 54-17 in front of 21,723 at Floyd Stadium for their fifth straight win.

The Blue Raiders avenged a 48-31 home loss to the Trojans two years ago and started the season 2-0 for the first time since the 1990. It also was the seventh straight win for MTSU at Floyd Stadium.

"To come out and beat a team that whipped us two years ago shows the improvement we are trying to gain," MTSU coach Andy McCollum said. "We wanted to represent in our house. We don't want anyone dancing on our field like (Troy State) did here two years ago."

Troy State (0-2) had little chance to do a victory dance this time, as the Blue Raiders dominated every phase of the game in the impressive thrashing.

The Blue Raiders piled up 641 yards total offense one week after rolling up 608 at Vanderbilt. It's the first time in school history MTSU has produced more than 600 yards in consecutive games.

It got ugly for Troy State early as MTSU reached the end zone on five of its six first-half possessions to roll to a 33-3 halftime advantage.

So much for the possibility of a letdown.

"When you have to get up Friday morning and go to class at 8 following a big win after Vanderbilt, you get your feet back on the ground pretty fast," said MTSU quarterback Wes Counts. "(Players) weren't worried about a letdown. It really wasn't a big deal and we had nine days to get ready for it. We wanted to prove to a lot of people that last week wasn't a fluke."

Hard to argue.

Counts was clicking again, going 14-of-20 for 220 yards and hooking up with Dwone Hicks for one scoring pass and connecting with Kendall Newson on a 25-yard acrobatic, one-handed grab in the end zone to get the offensive highlights started.

Ten different MTSU players, led by Dwone Hicks' 74 yards on five receptions, had at least one catch.

Hicks also rushed for two touchdowns and had 55 yards on 12 carries.

MTSU's backfield had four backs with at least 55 yards. Sophomore Don Calloway led the way with 95 yards and two scores on 20 carries. Reshard Lee finished with 75 yards on six carries, all in the first half, and Jamison Palmer finished with 69 yards and two scores on just nine carries.

As a result, MTSU finished with 313 yards rushing and six touchdowns on the ground.

"It felt good to see everyone get in the game, and it felt good to get a little rest in the third and fourth quarters," said Hicks, who had a career-high 37 carries against Vanderbilt. "It felt good to beat a team that came in here and whipped us two years ago. We played as a complete unit."

And the defense was not to be ignored.

MTSU dominated Troy State's "Trojan Spread" offense, limiting it to 329 yards and only 61 yards rushing. Troy State was held out of the end zone until midway through the third quarter, when Heyward Skipper hauled in a 29-yard pass from Brock Nutter.

The Blue Raiders pass rush was strong out of the gate as evidenced by six sacks - the most for MTSU under McCollum.

"Last week we didn't have a strong pass rush," said defensive end Anthony Hood, who had two sacks and five tackles. "It didn't hurt us, but it didn't help us. Defensively, everything was clicking. We were challenged and we came out and performed."

Hood also had two tackles for loss, as did Louis Kemp. The Blue Raiders finished with seven tackles for loss and senior defensive back Jykine Bradley got into the act with a pair of interceptions and four passes defended.

"We wanted to see some (defensive) improvement," McCollum said. "We were able to get some turnovers and we had six sacks, which is good against a veteran quarterback. "The defensive front came out to play. Defensively you can see where we grew up in this game."

Game 3

Middle Tennessee 38, UL-Monroe 20
Sept. 22, 2001; Monroe, LA

by Tony Stinnett
Daily News Journal

MONROE, LA — Experts believe Middle Tennessee's powerful offense will spark a run at the first Sun Belt Conference championship.

Defense, however, is the reason the Blue Raiders sit atop the Sun Belt standings this morning after turning back UL-Monroe, 38-20, in the first conference game in league history in front of 9,730 at Malone Stadium on Saturday.

"It's a win and we just beat a good football team," MTSU coach Andy McCollum said. "We knew it was going to be tough coming in here and it was. It's great to get that first one, and I thought our defense did a tremendous job in the first half. They were the difference."

MTSU (3-0, 1-0) won its sixth straight and started 3-0 for the first time since 1990 with a stifling defense that not only hindered the Indians (0-3, 0-1) early, but set up two of the Blue Raiders' three first-half scores.

The Blue Raiders completely shut down the ground game, limiting the Indians to 84 yards rushing and tailback Ivory Brown to just 17 yards. UL-Monroe finished with 367 yards but more than 100 of those came in the fourth quarter after MTSU had built 31-6 lead.

"Defensive-wise we did what we were supposed to do," defensive end Tanaka Scott said. "We stuffed the run and made them throw it. I'm disappointed with the two touchdowns we gave up in the fourth quarter, but it was a good win."

Jykine Bradley's third interception of the season ended the Indians' first drive, and the offense converted the miscue into a 7-0 lead when quarterback Wes Counts connected with Kendall Newson for a 21-yard scoring strike.

UL-Monroe, trailing 14-0, was driving toward its first score when Michael Woods pounced on a fumble and returned possession to the Middle Tennessee offense.

Kicker Brian Kelly ripped a 42-yard field goal to put the Blue Raiders on top 17-0 eight plays later.

"We know our offense will put up points, and it's up to us to keep other teams from scoring," said linebacker Scotty Brown, who led MTSU with 11 tackles. "We knew coming into the game that for us to win the defense had to make plays. We gave up too much at the end and that must be corrected, but overall our defense played well."

It wasn't as if the offense didn't.

After all, the Blue Raiders had 509 yards total offense, led by Counts' 28-of-35 passing for 274 yards and two touchdowns, but losing three of four fumbles didn't sit well with the unit.

"It feels good to be 1-0 and have the first conference win," said receiver David Youell, who had a career-best seven receptions. "A win is always pleasing, but we have a lot to go back and work on. They gave us fits defensively."

In addition to Counts' big night, Newson had eight catches for 103 yards and running back Dwone Hicks scored four of the team's five touchdowns and finished with 74 yards rushing.

"They have the total package and we couldn't slow them up," UL-Monroe coach Bobby Keasler said. "Offensively, they are very strong. They have weapons and they use all of them."

MTSU went the distance on one of its drives - literally, when it marched 99 yards on 14 plays and never had to convert a third down.

The longest drive in school history concluded with Counts' 10-yard pass to Hicks and provided the Blue Raiders an early 14-0 lead.

"That was a humongous drive," McCollum said. "We were backed up on the inch line and Monroe was trying to get field position. I thought that was a big key early, but I want to give credit to the defense for what it did early."

LAFAYETTE, LA — It doesn't pay to call out the Middle Tennessee defense.

Just ask UL-Lafayette coach Jerry Baldwin, who said the Blue Raiders defense was "suspect" prior to the game.

That suspect defense came up with four turnovers, allowed one touchdown and blanked the Ragin' Cajuns in the second half to spark the Blue Raiders to a 26-9 win in front of 12,101 at Cajun Field.

And it was that same suspect defense that stepped up and carried MTSU to its seventh straight win, fourth in a row on the road, as the Blue Raiders improved to 4-0 overall and 2-0 in the Sun Belt Conference.

"Our defense got called," MTSU coach Andy McCollum said. "Everybody talked about the offense going into this game, and our defense came out and played as good as I've seen the defense play since I've been at Middle Tennessee.

"They were called suspect, and they wanted to take the challenge. I couldn't be more proud of how they came out and played."

With MTSU's offense limited to a season-low 342 yards and unable to get into a flow early, it was the defense that stepped to the forefront.

Brandon Lynch and Scotty Brown came away with defensive gems in the third quarter that turned the tide in MTSU's favor for good, and Sheldon Durham's fumble recovery early in the fourth quarter broke the spirit of the upset-minded Ragin' Cajuns.

Sophomore Wardell Alsup put the exclamation mark on the sterling defensive effort with his first career interception midway through the fourth quarter.

Not bad for a suspect defense.

"Coach told us about the newspaper articles and what was being said," Brown said. "We had to hear that all week, and we were determined to come in and prove we are not a suspect defense. We came together after halftime and really put together a strong effort."

MTSU's offense wasn't as efficient as it had been in previous games. Wes Counts threw two interceptions and Jason Johnson had a fumble. The passing game accounted for just 53 yards with Counts completing just three of 14 passes for 44 yards. Johnson was 1-of-2 for 1 yard, and receiver Hansford Johnson completed his only pass, an 8-yard scoring strike to Counts on a throwback.

The ground game, however, was a different story as eight different Blue Raider ball carriers combined for 289 yards. Reshard Lee led the way with 127 yards on just eight carries, his first 100-yard game as a collegian.

Dwone Hicks finished with 98 yards and a 1-yard scoring run.

"I felt like we would perform better (offensively)," McCollum said. "I haven't seen us perform like that, but UL-Lafayette's defense had something to do with some of that. They have a very good defense. The big thing is we finished when we had to. It's hard to complain when you score 26 points in a win. We are not that spoiled around here."

The Cajuns (1-3, 0-1) jumped out to a 9-0 lead early in the second quarter, but MTSU got on the board with Hicks' run with 9:26 remaining in the first half to pull to within 9-7. The scoring drive was accentuated by Lee's dynamic 60-yard run.

MTSU took the lead for good when Counts lateraled the ball to Hansford Johnson, who pulled up and threw a perfect strike back to Counts to put the Blue Raiders ahead 13-9 after the two-point conversion attempt failed.

The defense took it from there.

Lynch extended the lead when he scooped up a fumble and ran 50 yards for the score to give the Blue Raiders a 20-9 lead with 12:31 remaining in the third quarter.

The following possession ended in disaster for the Cajuns when Brown came up with his first career interception. Three plays later, Counts connected with receiver David Youell for a 34-yard scoring pass to cap the scoring.
