MIDDLE TENNESSEE

SOCCER GAME NOTES ■ OCTOBER 19-21, 2001 ■ VS. GEORGIA STATE

THIS WEEK FOR THE BLUE RAIDERS ...

Middle Tennessee hosts its final home match of the season Tuesday at 2 p.m. versus Georgia State. The Blue Raiders then hit the road for the weekend with a Friday match at South Alabama before concluding the regular season Sunday at Louisiana-Lafayette.

Tuesday's match against Georgia State will mark the final home match for four seniors, goalie Jessica Busey, defender Megan Holsten, and midfielders Tiffany Moore and Rachael Sulkers, who were honored at Senior Day activities before Sunday's 5-2 victory over Belmont. The Blue Raiders and Panthers have met three times, with GSU winning all three matches. The Panthers took identical 2-1 victories in 1997 and again last season.

MT and South Alabama have met each of the last two seasons, with the Jaguars winning both matches. USA took a 3-0 victory last season in Middle Tennessee's first year in the Sun Belt.

The Blue Raiders hold a 1-0 series advantage over Louisiana-Lafayette, defeating the Ragin' Cajuns 5-1 last season in Murfreesboro. Five different Blue Raiders scored in the victory, including goals from current team members Megan Holsten, Sheri Robbins and Emily Carter. Sarah Schulz and Jenny Cox each added two assists, while Holsten and Carter also tallied assists in the match.

LANGRISH GETS HAT TRICK IN 5-2 VICTORY

Middle Tennessee freshman Lisa Langrish scored three first-half goals, as the Blue Raider soccer team defeated Belmont, 5-2, Sunday during Senior Day activities at the Blue Raider Soccer Field.

Langrish scored exactly two minutes into the match on a header. Freshman Megan Schwanke took a free kick and crossed the ball deep into the 18-yard box, and Langrish found the corner of the goal for her fifth score of the season.

MT went up 2-0 in the 28th minute when Lindsey Bopp took a corner kick and again Langrish headed the ball into the back of the net. Langrish's final tally of the day came in the 34th minute after a scramble in front of the net. The Dorset, England, native redirected the bouncing ball past the Belmont goalie for Middle Tennessee's fourth hat trick of the season. Fellow freshman Danielle LaDuke has the other three hat tricks this season.

The Blue Raiders held a 4-0 halftime advantage after Jenny Cox scored in the 42nd minute after a long pass from defender Nicki Fell. Cox dribbled past Belmont keeper Mikell Lucus and found the back of the net for the third time this year.

Belmont got on the board in the 79th minute after a flurry of shots against MT senior goalie Jessica Busey. Busey saved two close-range shots before Brittney Kelly beat her, cutting the BU deficit to 4-1. Belmont's Hayley Alden made it 4-2 with a long scoring shot in the 89th minute.

But MT's Emily Carter scored with just eight seconds remaining in the match on an assist from Jessica Northcutt for the final score of the match.

Four seniors were honored prior to Sunday's contest: goalie Jessica Busey, defender Megan Holsten, and midfielders Tiffany Moore and Rachael Sulkers. The four have led the Middle Tennessee program to the most wins of any previous graduating class, posting now 36 victories during their four seasons after Sunday's win.

MT DROPS 1-0 DECISION AT WESTERN KENTUCKY

Homestanding Western Kentucky scored a goal in the 69th minute to defeat Middle Tennessee, 1-0, in a hard-fought, physical soccer match Friday evening.

The two teams played to a scoreless first half, but both squads had a couple of good scoring opportunities. WKU had a shot hit the crossbar in the 10th minute and another one hit the left post in the 17th minute.

The Blue Raiders' Laura Miguez had a good scoring chance in the 20th minute, but Lady Topper goalie Amy Uhlman tackled Miguez in the box. MT also had its only corner in the 43rd minute, with Emily Carter heading the Miguez cross toward an empty net, but WKU cleared the ball before it crossed the goal line.

The Blue Raiders had several chances in the opening minutes of the second half, but were unable to find the back of the net. Lisa Langrish had a shot on a loose ball in the 48th minute, but missed just to the left. Jenny Cox had a header that hit the crossbar in the 55th minute, but again the Lady Toppers cleared the ball.

WKU had a scoring opportunity in the 65th minute on a Kelly Frericks header, but MT goalie Emily Shrum made her fourth save of the match. Cox had another header that went just wide right on a restart in the 67th minute.

The Lady Toppers broke through for the first goal in the 69th minute when Frericks beat Shrum low and left from about 10 yards out for a 1-0 WKU advantage.

LaDuke had a one-on-one chance in the 75th minute, but Uhlman made the save to prevent a tying score. Cox's shot from about 30 yards out went just wide right in the 82nd minute, and the Blue Raiders last chance came after a corner created a scramble in front in the 88th minute, but another WKU clear secured the victory for the Lady Toppers.

Middle Tennessee outshot the Lady Toppers, 15-6, in the second half, and 19-14 for the match. Uhlman had seven saves in the second half for WKU and nine in the contest, while Shrum made two saves in each half for the Blue Raiders.

SEVEN BLUE RAIDERS IN TOP 10 OF CONFERENCE STATS

Freshman Laura Miguez stands tied for the lead in the Sun Belt Conference in assists this week, her fourth straight week in first place, joining six other MT players in the Top 10 in individual statistics.

Miguez has seven assists this season, including a school-record four in a 9-0 victory over Lipscomb on September 30. Teammate Megan McGregor is tied for eighth in the league in assists per game with four.

Fellow frosh Danielle LaDuke heads into this week's matches in the Top 10 in four categories, including second in goals per game, third in points per game and game-winning goals, and sixth in shots per game. She scored a trio of goals in three straight matches from September 30 through October 7, and netted her 12th goal of the season to tie the match against North Texas on October 14, moving the Liverpool, N.Y., native to within one goal of the MT single-season mark of 13 held by Makini Wall.

Sophomore Emily Carter moved up to fourth in the conference this week in shots per game, and teammate Lindsey Bopp made her first appearance in the statistics this week, standing 10th in shots per contest. Freshman Lisa Langrish also moved in the a tie for ninth in the goals per game list after scoring three times in Sunday's victory over Belmont.

Sophomore goalie Emily Shrum remained second in the league in saves per game at 4.67 per contest, tied with Monica Housden of North Texas. Shrum also stands fourth in the Sun Belt in goals-against-average at 1.48 per match.

LADUKE NAMED SBC PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Freshman Danielle LaDuke earned Sun Belt Conference Soccer Player of the Week honors for October 8 after scoring six goals and handing out an assist in league victories at Ark.-Little Rock and Arkansas State.

The freshman from Liverpool, N.Y., scored three goals in each match over the weekend, and has now scored nine goals in her last three matches. LaDuke also had an assist in Friday's 5-2 win at UALR.

For the season, the 5-7 forward has 12 goals, second in the conference and second on the single-season list at Middle Tennessee, just one behind the school record of 13 set by Hailee Walsh in 1998. The 12 goals also places LaDuke fourth on the career goals scored list at MT, just two goals from second-place.

BLUE RAIDERS SET THREE SCHOOL RECORDS IN TRIUMPH

Freshman Laura Miguez tallied four assists and fellow frosh Danielle LaDuke scored three first-half goals in a record-breaking 9-0 MT victory over Lipscomb Sunday afternoon at Blue Raider Soccer Field. The Blue Raiders broke school records for team goals and assists in a game, and individual assists in a match with four from Miguez.

MT wasted little time getting on the board, as LaDuke scored in the game's first minute on an assist from Miguez. Sophomore Megan McGregor assisted on LaDuke's next goal in the fourth minute, giving the Blue Raiders a 2-0 advantage.

In the 14th minute of the match, Lipscomb fouled in the box, giving the Blue Raiders a penalty kick. Freshman Lisa Langrish netted the goal, her third of the year, for a 3-0 MT lead.

LaDuke tallied her final goal of the match in the 19th minute. On a corner kick, Miguez crossed the ball into the box, where Emily Carter headed it toward the net. LaDuke redirected the bounding ball into the back of the net for her fifth goal of the season.

Miguez crossed another ball in the 18-yard box in the 20th minute to freshman Sarah Linder, who found the net for her first career goal and a 5-0 Blue Raider lead. Lindsey Bopp and Jenny Cox, seeing her first action of the season, teamed for the final goal of the first half, with Cox crossing to Bopp, who found the back of the net in the 44th minute of play.

Leigh Peacock then assisted on a Cox goal in the 67th minute, and Miguez added her final assist of the day on a goal by Ashley Hicks in the 70th minute. The final tally of the day came in the 82nd minute, when McGregor took the ball deep down the right side and found the net from a very difficult angle.

NEWS AND NOTES...

- Freshmen Megan Schwanke, Nicki Fell and Jessica Northcutt all assisted on goals in Sunday's 5-2 win over Belmont, all collecting their first point of the season.
- Freshman Lisa Langrish had a hat trick in the 5-2 victory Sunday, the fourth hat trick by a Middle Tennessee player this season. Fellow freshman Danielle LaDuke has the other three.
- Sunday's win evened MT's record at home this season at 5-5, including 5-2 in non-conference matches.
- With 41 goals for the season, the Blue Raiders have set a new school record for goals in a season. The previous high was 35, scored in both 1998 and 1999.
- Freshman Danielle LaDuke scored her 12th goal of the season Sunday versus North Texas, tying the game in the 87th minute to force overtime. LaDuke moved within one of tying the school record for goals in a season held by Hailee Walsh. LaDuke also moved into second place on the single-season points list with 25, trailing leader Walsh by five.
- Sunday's three-goal effort pushed MT's season total to 32, passing last season's scoring total of 30 with six regular season matches left to play. Ten Middle Tennessee players have at least one point this season, all freshmen and sophomores.
- The Blue Raiders are in the midst of five home matches in six contests, interrupted only by Friday's conference road trip to Western Kentucky. MT will play 11 home matches this season, the most in school history. MT had never played more than nine home matches in a season in the previous five seasons of soccer.
- Danielle LaDuke scored six goals in two matches at Arkansas-Little Rock and Arkansas State, giving her three straight matches with three goals. She pushed her season total to 11, just two shy of Hailee Walsh's school record of 13. She also has 23 points for the year, seven short of the school record. She has played in only eight of the 10 MT matches, missing two because of injury.

● Freshman Laura Miguez leads the team in assists with seven, moving her into second place on the single-season assist list. Junior Sarah Schulz holds the single-season record with 11 during her freshman campaign.

● Sunday's victory at Arkansas State was Middle Tennessee's third straight road win this season, setting a new school record. The Blue Raiders had previously won two consecutive road games on four different occasions.

● Ten different Blue Raiders have recorded points this season, including six freshmen and four sophomores.

● A youth movement is definitely in effect for the Blue Raiders. Six freshmen and three sophomores started in the win over Alabama, while five freshmen and four sophomores started versus Eastern Illinois. Over the last seven matches, no less than nine freshmen and sophomores have been in the starting lineup.

● The Blue Raiders set three school records in Sunday's 9-0 victory over Lipscomb, breaking team records for goals and assists (8) in a game. Freshman Laura Miguez also set an individual record with four assists in the match.

● Freshman Danielle LaDuke scored three times for the Blue Raiders in the 9-0 win against Lipscomb, the first hat trick for an MT player since Makini Wall's three goals against UT Martin on Nov. 1, 1998.

● Sophomore Emily Carter's two goals versus Murray State marked the second time this season a Blue Raider netted two goals in a match. Freshman Danielle LaDuke scored twice in a 3-2 victory at UT Martin on September 5.

● Freshman Danielle LaDuke injured her right leg near the end of the match versus Alabama. The injury caused a 35-minute delay in the match while emergency personnel stabilized what they thought was a broken femur. LaDuke was later given better news that she only bruised a nerve on the outside of her right knee, which caused her to lose feeling in the top of her leg.

● Saturday's 2-1 victory over Alabama was the first for the Blue Raiders over an SEC opponent in the five-plus seasons of soccer at MT. The Blue Raiders are now 1-5 all-time against the SEC.

● Sophomore Lindsey Bopp assisted on a goal against both Alabama and Eastern Illinois, the first two assists of her career.

● With the added games versus Alabama and Eastern Illinois, the Blue Raiders had a five-game homestand from September 22-30, the longest in school history. The longest previous stretch of home matches for MT was four, which has happened twice (1997, '99).

● After terrorist bombings in New York and Washington, D.C., on September 11 caused the sporting world to shut down for a week, the Blue Raiders scheduled matches at Appalachian State and East Tennessee were canceled. The two matches were the fourth and fifth lost for the season by MT after a two-game road trip was canceled before the season and rain caused the cancellation of another match on opening weekend at the Southern Miss Tournament.

● The 2-1 defeat to Jacksonville State dropped the Blue Raiders to 1-4-1 in home openers in the six-year history of the program. MT's only win came against Tennessee Tech to begin the 1999 campaign.

● The 3-2 victory over UT Martin improved the Blue Raiders all-time record to 5-0 against the Skyhawks.

● The two assists from Laura Miguez against UT Martin marked the first time since Allison Schulz had a pair of assists against East Tennessee on October 29, 2000, that an MT player had two assists in a match. It marked the first time since Jenny Cox had two assists versus Louisiana-Lafayette (10/15/00) that a freshmen had a hand in a pair of goals for the Blue Raiders.

● With the 1-0 defeat to Southern Miss, the Blue Raiders dropped to 2-4 all-time in season-openers, including 1-2 on the road. Second-year head coach Scott Ginn dropped his second straight season-opener after MT lost 3-0 to Southeastern Louisiana to begin the 2000 campaign.

● All six season-openers in MT soccer history have been shutouts.

● The Blue Raiders began the 2001 season with their longest road swing to begin a campaign in the school's six-year history, two matches. MT has never begun a season with more than one game away home.

● The shutout against Southern Miss was the first shutout against MT since a 2-0 loss at Southeast Missouri on October 21 of last season, a span of four matches.

GINN RAISES FITNESS LEVEL

Second-year head coach Scott Ginn instituted a fitness test for all players beginning this season, a grueling set of four short and four long runs. All eight drills have a time requirement, and no player shall receive a game jersey until the entire set is passed at one testing.

Heading into the opening weekend of play, 23 of MT's 25 players had passed the test, far ahead of Ginn's wildest expectations, especially with so many new faces in this year's program. The final healthy MT player passed the test before the September 30 match against Lipscomb.

MT PICKED FIFTH BY LEAGUE COACHES

The Middle Tennessee soccer team was chosen fifth in the 2001 Sun Belt Preseason Women's Soccer Poll announced last week by the league office, as voted on by league coaches.

Florida International is expected to pick up where it left off in Sun Belt Conference competition last season. The Golden Panthers were picked first, collecting 71 points and six first-place votes from the league's head coaches to edge out the Denver Pioneers in second place. North Texas was picked third, followed by South Alabama, Middle Tennessee and Arkansas State. Three new programs round out the poll - second-year program Arkansas-Little Rock and first-year program Western Kentucky tied for seventh place, with second-year program Louisiana-Lafayette picked ninth. 2001 will be the second season of championship women's soccer competition in the Sun Belt Conference.

The 2001 Sun Belt Conference Women's Soccer Championship Tournament will be Oct. 31-Nov. 3 at University Park on the campus of Florida International University in Miami.

Head coach Scott Ginn begins his second season at Middle Tennessee after serving four years as head coach at Barton College in Wilson, N.C.

Ginn became the second head coach at Middle Tennessee, inheriting a team that posted 10 wins the previous season and 30 victories in the program's four-year history. His first season at the helm of the MT program brought an 8-11-0 overall record, 3-4 in the Sun Belt Conference. The 2000 season marked the first year that Middle Tennessee competed in the Sun Belt in all sports, and for the soccer program it meant a step up in competition, now facing quality programs such as South Alabama, North Texas, Florida Interntational and Denver.

The 2000 squad had just four seniors and put together a three-match winning streak midway through the year before falling to Denver in the first round of the Sun Belt Tournament in Mobile, Ala. This year's squad returns eight starters and 10 letterwinners from last year's unit, and will feature 15 newcomers to the program.

Ginn posted a four-year record of 39-35-1 at Barton, and led the Bulldogs to several school records during his tenure, including wins in a season and winning percentage in a season.

During his final campaign at Barton, he led the Bulldogs to a 9-8-1 overall record with a 7-3-1 mark in the Carolinas-Virginia Athletics Conference. Ginn's charges ended their season on penalty kicks in the quarterfinals of the CVAC tournament after a 0-0 score could not determine the outcome of the game.

Ginn was a four-year letterman for the Barton men's team, serving as captain during his senior season of 1989. He went on to serve as an assistant coach for the men's team for the two seasons following his graduation.

Following his stint as an assistant at Barton, Ginn took on duties as a clinician and coach for the Stone Mountain Youth Soccer Association and assistant coach for the women's program at Berry College in Rome, Ga.

During his stay in Georgia, he led his 1993 U18 boys team to a second-place finish in the State Championships, and Berry College advanced to the NAIA national tournament after holding a ranking for the entire season.

Ginn continues to increase his knowledge base by being active in camps across the country. He has worked the All-Star Soccer Camp, Hall of Fame Soccer Camp, University of Florida Soccer Camp, and the Greensboro Dynamo Soccer Camp.

Interestingly enough, Ginn learned the game while living in Paraguay where his parents were missionaries for many years.

Prior to his college days, Ginn had already completed a four-year stint in the US Army. Ginn was a member of the 82nd Airborne Division from 1981-1985.

Ginn holds an "A" license from the United States Soccer Federation and an Advanced National Diploma from the National Soccer Coaches Association of America.

Ginn recently completed his master's degree in sports administration from East Carolina Univ.
