LADY RAIDERS OPEN HOME SCHEDULE VERSUS CINCINNATI

Middle Tennessee opens home action this Saturday with a 2 p.m. contest against Cincinnati at the Murphy Center on the MTSU campus. The game is part of the doubleheader with the Blue Raider men.

The Lady Raiders have never defeated the Bearcats in three previous meetings, including a 63-54 loss on December 29, 1999, in the last meeting.

The 1999 meeting was the only contest of the three in Murfreesboro. The two squads also met during the 1997-98 season (81-61 UC) and the 1984-85 campaign (98-91 UC).

The Cincinnati contest begins a stretch of six home games in eight contests for the Lady Raiders over the next three-plus weeks, with games versus Ole Miss, UT Martin, Tennessee Tech, Houston and Kansas State during that stretch. The Lady Raiders are scheduled to play 14 home games this season at the Murphy Center, where they have a 238-72 mark over 26 seasons. MT is 40-10 in four seasons under head coach Stephany Smith at home.

The Bearcats are led by guard Valerie King and center Tamara Douglass, who are both averaging 16.0 ppg. Douglass is the team's leading rebounder at 9.5 per contest, and K.B. Sharp is dishing out 9.5 assists per game thus far this season.

LOOKING AHEAD …

The Lady Raiders travel to Clarksville, Tenn., on Tuesday for a 7 p.m. meeting against former OVC-foe Austin Peay.

The two teams met in Murfreesboro on December 3 of last year, a 91-62 MT victory. Chrissy Davenport had a team-high 17 points to lead four double-digit scorers, while Keisha McClinic had a double-double with 14 points and 11 boards.

Middle Tennessee leads the all-time series, 47-7, winning the first 41 games in the series from 1977 to 1996. The two squads have split the last four games in the series, and MT head coach Stephany Smith is 5-3 all-time against the Lady Govs.

MT FALLS 77-72 IN OT AT #16 GEORGIA

Senior Jamie Thomatis and freshman Patrice Holmes combined for 47 points, but it wasn't enough as Middle Tennessee dropped a hard-fought 77-72 decision to No. 16 Georgia in overtime in Athens.

UGA's Ebony Felder scored five of her 14 points in overtime to lead the Lady Bulldogs to victory, including the first three on a putback and free throw.

Thomatis answered for Middle Tennessee with a jumper from the corner. The Lady Raiders then took their first lead since the 16:51 mark of the first half when Paula Penttila hit a long jumper for a 66-65 edge with 3:28 left in overtime.

A steal by Felder set up a running jumper by Camille Murphy that put Georgia ahead to stay 67-66 with 2:15 to go.

Georgia led 36-30 at halftime and built a 50-38 lead with 11:46 left on a turnaround by Kara Braxton.

MT then went on an 18-6 run over the next 6:38, highlighted by five points from Penttila and four each from Holmes and Thomatis. Keisha McClinic knotted the score at 56 with 5:08 remaining on a short jumper, and the two teams traded baskets over the final five minutes of the contest.

Kara Braxton gave the Lady Bulldogs a 62-60 advantage with 21.4 seconds left in the contest on a putback, but Holmes split the middle of the Georgia zone, used the jump-stop and made a short jumper in the lane with 10.6 seconds remaining in the game. Georgia's last-second shot was no good, sending the game to OT.

Georgia played six players taller than Middle Tennessee's tallest, 5-11 Aluka and Thomatis, but the Lady Dogs outrebounded the Lady Raiders by just three, 46-43.

"They have so much size, and also strength," said Middle Tennessee coach Stephany Smith. "They will be larger than most teams they play this year. They are going to cause teams a lot of trouble. They caused us a lot of trouble tonight. But I am proud of our team for the way they hung in there all night. This is a game we can build on and one that will only help us as we continue our season."

LADY RAIDERS MOVING UP RECORDS LISTS

A pair of Lady Raider seniors and one junior continued their climb toward the top of the MT career records in the overtime loss at Georgia on Tuesday.

Senior Jamie Thomatis moved into fifth place all-time on the Lady Raider scoring list. She also moved into seventh in field goals made and fourth in free throws made.

Senior Joanne Aluka moved eight points closer to joining the Millennium Club, standing just 33 shy of the 1,000-point barrier heading into Saturday's contest against Cincinnati.

Junior Paula Penttila moved into ninth place all-time on the 3-pt. field goals attempted list in the Georgia contest, and stands just two three-pointers shy of tying for 10th in the 3-pt. field goals made category.

LADY RAIDERS OPEN WITH 77-57 WIN

Middle Tennessee's Jamie Thomatis led three double-digit scorers with 16 points and the Lady Raiders forced 33 turnovers in a 77-57 victory over homestanding Tennessee State at the Gentry Center in the season opener for both squads on November 16.

Thomatis scored eight points in each half, while freshmen Patrice Holmes and Eboni Kirby both chipped in with 10 points in the win.

Neither team shot the ball well from the floor and there were 61 turnovers in the contest. The Lady Raiders shot just 38 percent from the field, while TSU made only 32 percent of its shots, and went 6:59 without a basket late in the first half.

Neither team made a three-point basket in the contest, as well. That ended a streak of 55 straight games with a three-pointer for the Lady Raiders, dating to a December 4, 1999, contest against Eastern Illinois. The last opponent to go without a three-pointer in a contest was the University of Memphis on March 11, 1999, in the first round of the WNIT.

During TSU's long dry spell at the end of the opening 20 minutes, the Lady Raiders expanded the lead to as many as 15 points at 33-18 after Kirby made a pair of free throws. Kirby went 6-of-6 from the foul line in the contest, as MT made 17-of-20 from the charity stripe in the triumph.

The lead was 12 at halftime for the Lady Raiders, and the Blue and White scored the first 10 points of the second half, with Thomatis hitting a pair of buckets and senior Jessica McClure netting the other six points during the run.

Twelve of the 14 players who saw action scored for the Lady Raiders. McClure led the way with five assists, while freshman Tiffany Fisher added four assists in the game.

LaRissa Thomas led TSU with 12 points and a game-high 15 rebounds, while Tristin Johnson added 10 for the Tigers.

THOMATIS NAMED PRESEASON ALL-CONFERENCE

Senior forward Jamie Thomatis was a unanimous selection to the Preseason All-Sun Belt team announced at the conference media days October 23-24 in New Orleans. The New Orleans area native, from Destrehan, La., finished second in the league and 12th in the nation in scoring last season and 10th in the conference in rebounding, leading the Lady Raiders to a 17-13 mark and a WNIT appearance. She enters her senior campaign eighth on the career points list at Middle Tennessee, just 21 points from fifth place. Thomatis is averaging 17.4 ppg in her career coming into the 2001-02 season, the fourth highest average in school history.

Thomatis has been named First Team All-Conference the past two seasons, earning All-Sun Belt honors last year after receiving All-OVC recognition after her sophomore season.

EIGHT NEWCOMERS HIGHLIGHT 2001-02 ROSTER

Eight newcomers joined six returnees for coach Stephany Smith in the season opener against Tennessee State on November 16 at the Gentry Center.

After beginning last season with only nine scholarship players and one walk-on, Smith starts the 2001-02 campaign with 14 players on the roster, including seven true freshmen.

The roster additions give the Lady Raiders needed depth and will allow Smith to mix and match lineups throughout games and the entire season.

ALUKA NEARS MILLENNIUM CLUB

Senior forward Joanne Aluka netted eight points and grabbed 10 rebounds in the overtime loss at Georgia and now stands only 33 points shy of joining the Middle Tennessee Millennium Club as the 15th member in school history. Aluka would join teammate Jamie Thomatis in the club as 1,000-point scorers in Lady Raider history.

Aluka has led the squad in field goal percentage the past two seasons and enters her senior year with a career .558 field goal percentage.

MCCLURE CLIMBING ASSIST LIST

Senior point guard Jessica McClure stands seventh on the career steals list and eighth on the all-time assists list at Middle Tennessee during this, her final season in the Blue and White.

McClure has 181 steals in her career at Middle Tennessee after making two thefts against Tennessee State, and is now just 40 from second place on the all-time list behind leader Kim Webb (294).

McClure stands eighth on the all-time assists list at Middle Tennessee. The Paris, Tenn., native had 103 assists last season and is only 79 assists from second place behind all-time leader Heather Prater (605). All-time listings are on page 6.

ALUKA CLIMBS REBOUNDING LIST

Senior Joanne Aluka grabbled a team-high 10 rebounds in the OT defeat at Georgia, giving her 574 rebounds in her three-plus season at Middle Tennessee, good for 13th on the Lady Raider career rebounding list. The Augusta, Ga., native needs just six more rebounds to pass Sherry Tucker (1992-95) for 12th on the all-time list. Aluka's 195 rebounds last year were second on the squad behind Jamie Thomatis.

Aluka could easily end her career in the Top 5 with another good season, needing 192 to tie Holly Hoover (1982-84) for fifth on the all-time list.

THOMATIS NEAR TOP OF MANY CAREER CATEGORIES

Senior Jamie Thomatis stands in the Top 10 of 11 Lady Raider career records heading into her final season at Middle Tennessee.

Thomatis moved into fifth on the career scoring list with 24 points at Georgia and now has 1,484 points, 485 points behind second-place Priscilla Robinson (1991-94, 1,969 points). Thomatis netted 639 points last year for 21.3 ppg, second best in the Sun Belt and 12th nationally.

Her 17.5 ppg average for a career is fourth highest in school history behind Kim Webb (18.5 ppg), Robinson (18.2) and Robin Hendrix (17.7).

Thomatis heads into Saturday's home opener versus Cincinnati in the Top 10 in steals (10th), FG made (7th), FG attempted (8th), FG percentage (1st), FT made (4th), FT attempted (6th), FT percentage (4th), 3-pt. FG percentage (3rd) and double-figure scoring (6th).

LADY RAIDERS INK RIVERDALE STANDOUT

The Middle Tennessee Lady Raiders inked a national letter of intent from Riverdale (Murfreesboro) High School's Melissa Weiland during the early signing period in November.

Weiland, a 5-10 guard, averaged 13.1 points per game for the Lady Warriors last season, leading them to an 18-10 final record. The left-handed shooting Weiland made 25 three-pointers last season and shot 78.3 percent from the foul line.

"Melissa is a player we are very excited about adding to our program here at Middle Tennessee," Smith said. "She is a guard with great size and a tremendous outside shot. Where she really caught my eye was with her work ethic over the last 10 months. I really believe her best days are ahead of her."

● The November 20 overtime loss at Georgia was the first overtime game for the Lady Raiders since a January 26, 1998, contest at Eastern Kentucky.

● Junior Paula Penttila moved into ninth place all-time on the 3-pt. field goals attempted list in the Georgia contest, and stands just two three-pointers shy of tying for 10th in the 3-pt. field goals made category.

● Neither Middle Tennessee nor Tennessee State made a three-point basket in the season opener on November 16. That ended a streak of 55 straight games with a three-pointer for the Lady Raiders, dating to a December 4, 1999, contest against Eastern Illinois. The last Middle Tennessee opponent to go without a three-pointer in a contest was Memphis on March 11, 1999, in the first round of the WNIT.

● The Lady Raiders began the 2001-02 campaign with two straight road games for the first time since the 1992-93 season. That year MT began the year with three straight games away from Murfreesboro. The last time the Lady Raiders opened the year on the road was the 1996-97 season when MT started the season at Ole Miss.

● Dating to last season, the Lady Raiders have won eight of their last 10 regular season games, with losses to No. 8 Louisiana Tech and 16th-ranked Georgia the only blemishes.

● Jamie Thomatis scored in double figures in her 15th straight game dating to last season with her 24 points at Georgia. She has scored 20+ points in 11 of the last 13 games dating to 2000-01.

● Jamie Thomatis was the only Lady Raider to start every game last season, and has started 40 straight games dating to the 1999-00 season.

● Senior Joanne Aluka did not start in the season-opener at Tennessee State but was back in the starting five at Georgia. The UGA start was the 56th in her last 58 contests dating to the 1999-00 season.

● Sophomore Keisha McClinic led the Lady Raiders in scoring in both exhibitions, netting 13 points versus Life University and 15 against West Alabama.

● The Lady Raiders outscored West Alabama, 54-20, in the second half to win the final exhibition game of the year.

● Jamie Thomatis sat out the exhibition opener versus Life University on November 6 due to a violation of team rules.

● The season-opener against Tennessee State on November 16 marked the third time in school history the Lady Raiders opened a season against the Tigers. MT improved to 3-0 against TSU in season openers. The Lady Raiders upped their all-time mark to 6-2 in season openers on the road.

● MT head coach Stephany Smith now stands 3-2 in season openers during her five seasons at the helm of the Lady Raider program. The November 16 matchup against Tennessee State was the first season opener on the road for a Smith-coached squad.

● The Lady Raiders are scheduled to play 14 home games this season at the Murphy Center, a friendly place to the home team over the years. MT is 238-72 (.768) in 26 seasons at the Murphy Center, including 40-10 under head coach Stephany Smith.

● The Lady Raiders head into the 2001-02 season with 481 wins in the program's history in 26 seasons. MT needs just 19 wins to reach the 500-win milestone in Lady Raider basketball history.

LADY RAIDERS PICKED THIRD BY LEAGUE COACHES

The Lady Raiders were chosen third in the Eastern Division behind Florida International and Western Kentucky in the Sun Belt preseason coaches poll, announced during the conference media days October 23-24 in New Orleans.

Denver edged out league newcomer North Texas by two points in the West Division Preseason Poll with 61 points and six first-place votes. The Lady Eagles, a conference tourney semifinalist last season, picked up 59 points and five first-place votes. South Alabama was tabbed third in the West, followed by New Orleans, New Mexico State and Louisiana-Lafayette.

FIU received nine first-place votes in the East Division, with Western Kentucky receiving the other two. Middle Tennessee was voted third, followed by Arkansas State and Arkansas-Little Rock.

Western Kentucky's Natalie Powers was voted the Preseason Player of the Year. Powers finished last season sixth in the nation in scoring at 22.3 points per game, leading the Sun Belt in the process. She was also ninth in the country in three-point shooting at 44.2 percent. Powers is one of three unanimous picks to the 2001-02 Preseason All-Sun Belt Team, along with Middle Tennessee's Jamie Thomatis and Florida International's Gergana Slavtcheva.

Stephany Smith

Middle Tennessee Head Coach

Fifth Season/Ninth at Middle Tennessee

Middle Tennessee head women's basketball coach Stephany Smith begins her fifth season at the helm of the Lady Raiders in 2001-02, and her ninth in the MT program. The Brookhaven, Miss., native has established herself as one of college basketball's brightest young coaches, compiling a 71-46 mark in her four seasons as the head coach in Murfreesboro.

As she prepares to begin her fifth campaign, Smith's record stands as a testament to her hard work, excellent recruiting skills and knowledge of the game.

During her tenure in Murfreesboro, Smith has both an OVC regular season title and an OVC Tournament title to her credit. Three of Smith's teams have competed in postseason play, with an NCAA berth in 1998 and WNIT bids in 1999 and 2001.

Smith did not enter into her first head coaching job blindly. She spent four years as an assistant at MT to former head coach Lewis Bivens, heading up the team's recruiting efforts during that time. Smith was promoted to associate head coach in her final season under Bivens.

The 1995-96 squad went 24-6, the second-most victories in school history, before falling to Kansas in the first round of the NCAA Tournament in Lawrence, Kan. The Lady Raiders were OVC Co-Champions in 1994-95 and 1995-96, compiling 64 wins in Smith's first three seasons on the MT staff. Fruits of her labors at Middle Tennessee were shown in 1996 when the Lady Raiders received votes in both collegiate polls, ranking as high as 26th. The school received its first at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament to further attest the program's growing stature.

Smith spent four years as an assistant at UAB coordinating recruiting for the Blazers before her arrival at Middle Tennessee. UAB went 76-45 during her four seasons on the staff, winning or tying for the Sun Belt Conference crown twice (1990, 91) and sharing the Great Midwest Conference title in 1992. The Lady Blazers made two WNIT trips (1991, 92) during Smith's association with the UAB program.

She spent one year as a graduate assistant at her alma mater, Harding University, in 1989.

Teams associated with Smith have a 221-133 record during her 12 years on the Division I level, including four 20-plus win seasons and two 19-win seasons.

Smith's claim to fame is recruiting, and she has established a reputation as one of the game's top young coaches and as a top-flight recruiter. Two of her former players at UAB have gone on to the professional ranks.

Jacque Nero played six years overseas before being selected fourth by Nashville in the 1998 ABL draft. Shyronda Mifflin has played four seasons overseas and was on the Atlanta Glory's practice squad for part of the 1998 season before returning to Spain.

Her coaching philosophy stresses establishing fundamental knowledge of the game in practice. The repetition of fundamentals in practice allows her players the freedom to use that knowledge coupled with their athletic skills over the course of a game. An intense conditioning regimen also lends Smith's squad the opportunity to play an up-tempo style predicated on defensive intensity.

Smith graduated from Harding University in Searcy, Ark. with a B.A. in Physical Education in May of 1988 before receiving an M.S.E. with an emphasis in Physical Education in August 1989.

Smith began her collegiate experience at the University of Mississippi before transferring to Copiah-Lincoln Community College in Wesson, Miss. She received an associate's degree from Co-Lin in May of 1986.

Smith competed in basketball at both Co-Lin and Harding, and also spent a year as the Head Girls Track Coach at Searcy High School in 1989 while completing her Master's degree at Harding.

The personable Smith is truly people-oriented. She has planned and directed numerous non-profit clinics at Middle Tennessee and UAB for girls to further promote the game of basketball. She now heads up one of the most successful summer camps in the country, the Middle Tennessee "Stars of Tomorrow."

She is the daughter of Ralph and Betsy Smith. She has three brothers (Ralph, Richard, Cameron) and one sister (Sydney).

Smith's father will be inducted into the Mississippi Sports Hall of Fame in 2002. Ralph "Catfish" Smith won two national championships as a member of the Ole Miss football team in 1959 and 1960, and played 10 years in the NFL.
