MT vs. UNC-Greensboro

Tonight marks the rubber game in the series, so to speak, as the ledger is tied at one game each for tonight's participants. The Blue Raiders bested the Spartans in Murfreesboro last season 74-58, while UNCG posted its win in the series on Nov. 27, 1993 with a 70-56 triumph in Murfreesboro. Tonight's game mark the first time the teams have played in Greensboro.

Homecoming for Humphrey

Senior John Humphrey hails from Swansboro, NC, giving him a holiday homecoming tonight. Humphrey's hometown is approximately 212 miles of driving distance away from Greensboro. Tonight's game marks the second time in his career that he has played a game in his home state, after playing in Greenville against East Carolina last season.

What's Next?

The Blue Raiders will play in one of the more talked about games in the Midstate on Wednesday as the Tennessee Tech Golden Eagles come calling. The Blue Raiders will renew their longest-standing rivalry after the series has been on a two-year hiatus. TTU leads the series 81-59, but the Blue Raiders knocked off the Golden Eagles in their last meeting 87-70.

Gunn-ing for a Career High

Junior guard Tommy Gunn was off to a good start in the Blue Raiders' first two games, but he kicked it into another gear against UT Martin. The Syracuse, NY, native netted a career-high 29 points in the game while also setting a career high in field goals with 10. Gunn's five treys in the game also set a new personal best. Gunn connected on his last eight shots in the game, including five attempts from behind the arc. Gunn also posted three assists and three steals.

Humphrey on the Boards

Senior John Humphrey is utilizing his amazing leaping ability so far this season. The Swansboro, NC, native has led the team in rebounding twice in the team's three games this year, including a career-high eight against UT Martin on Wednesday. Humphrey currently ranks second on the squad with a 6.3 boards per game average. Humphrey also used his athletic ability on the offensive end in the game. He netted 13 points, including two of his signature dunks. In fact, Humphrey's first half slam was the first for the Blue Raiders this season.

Rebounding Raiders

Kermit Davis has emphasized rebounding and defense since taking the MT reins. His message seems to be taking hold with the team. The Blue Raiders outrebounded #4 Alabama 42-34 on Monday night, including a 17-10 advantage on the offensive glass. The team then dominated the glass against UT Martin, taking a 43-34 margin against the Skyhawks. For the week, the Blue Raiders have a rebounding margin of +8.5. For the year, MT holds a +5 advantage.

Taking Advantage of Charity

Middle Tennessee has taken advantage of its opportunities at the free throw line so far this season. The team is shooting an impressive 74.5 percent (41-of-55) from the charity stripe through the first three games. The good work at the line has paid off for the team so far. Despite having six less attempts at the line during the year, the Blue Raiders have connected on only one fewer free throw than the opposition. Wednesday night saw the Blue Raiders with the edge at the free throw line for the first time this season, attempting 26 free throws while the Skyhawks shot only 13.

Gunn Headed for Milestone

Junior Tommy Gunn's quest to become the 27th MT player to net 1,000 points is off to a good start. Gunn's 14 point scoring average has thrust him over the 600 point mark for his career with 644. Gunn, who started the year with 587 career points, would have to average 14.2 points per game for the rest of the season to reach the 1,000-point milestone as a junior.

Briefly ...

Junior Tommy Gunn needs only six points to reach 650 in his career ... If the season ended today, the Blue Raiders would rank second all-time in free throw percentage ... Gunn brings a streak of eight straight field goals and five straight treys into tonight's game ... Middle Tennessee has played a team from North Carolina in seven straight seasons and eight of the last nine ... The Spartans are the lone Southern Conference team on the MT slate this season.

Seven players on MT's roster began the season with less than 30 games of playing experience.

Kermit Davis is one of only two new coaches in the Sun Belt this season. John Pelphrey at South Alabama is the other.

Middle Tennessee is 43-28 all-time in overtime games (2-1 in double OT). The Blue Raiders are 8-4 in its last 12 overtime games.

The Blue Raiders have hit at least one three-pointer in 190 straight games. The last time MT failed to hit a shot from behind the arc was Jan. 20, 1996 at Morehead State.

Kermit Davis

Head Coach ✍Mississippi State, 1982 ✍First Season ✍1-2 (.000)

The objective was clear when Middle Tennessee athletic director Boots Donnelly set out to hire the school's 19th men's basketball coach – find the person that could lead the program back to its past glory and once again contend for conference titles and NCAA appearances.

On April 12, 2002, Donnelly introduced Kermit Davis, Jr., as the man to do just that.

"I wanted to bring someone in here that wanted to be here, not just to be a head coach, but who wanted to take over our program," Donnelly stated. "I wanted a person that believed very, very strongly in discipline, because that's the process that gets it all started. I wanted a heck of a recruiter, and I also wanted a teacher. I think we fulfilled every one of those things with Kemit Davis, Jr."

Davis brings the credentials that Donnelly was seeking along with him to Middle Tennessee. He has shown throughout his career the ability to rebuild programs and put them on the national map in a hurry. He has displayed success at every stop along his career track and has done so with a hard-nosed style of defense, uptempo offensive play, and a work ethic that is second-to-none.

"One thing our team will do is play with a great deal of energy," Davis stated. "We would like to play a hard-nosed, aggressive style that our fans will enjoy watching night in and night out. We're going to share and value the basketball, rebound on both ends, and attempt to get a quality shot on each possession."

Davis' strategic knowledge isn't his only weapon in building a competitive program. The Blue Raider skipper has long been known as an outstanding recruiter that is willing to go after the nation's top talent. His recruits value character, have a high level of toughness, and have a desire to obtain a college degree. He is committed to landing the state's top prospects as well as reaching out to the best players in the region and in the country.

"Our state has produced some outstanding players over the years, and we are going to be very aggressive in our approach to keeping those players at home," said Davis. "The quality of high school and junior college coaching in our state is excellent and we would like to be an extension of the parents and the coach when those student-athletes come to our campus."

Davis comes to Middle Tennessee after spending the past five seasons as the associate head coach at Louisiana State University under head coach John Brady. Prior to Davis' arrival with Brady at LSU, the Tigers had been languishing near the bottom of the Southeastern Conference.

It didn't take long for the team's fortunes to change. After two seasons of putting the pieces together, the Tigers captured the SEC title in 2000 and went on to an appearance in the NCAA Tournament's Sweet 16. The Tigers returned to the post season in 2002 with a trip to the National Invitational Tournament. In the three years immediately preceeding Davis' arrival in Murfreesboro, LSU averaged 20-plus wins per season.

Davis said of his time with the Tigers, "I enjoyed five years at LSU working with a close friend and one of the outstanding coaches in college basketball in John Brady."

Prior to coming to LSU, Davis spent one season as the head coach at the University of Idaho. However, his stint with the Vandals was his second tour of duty in Moscow. He also served as the school's head coach from 1988-1990. During his three years as the head coach at Idaho, he compiled a record of 63-29, the best three-year total in the program's history. Davis posted two of the best single season tallies in school history during his first two seasons at Idaho as well, turning in 25-6 marks in both of those seasons.

His Idaho squad won the Big Sky championship in 1989 and went on to capture the league's tournament crown and a berth into the NCAA Tournament as well. For his efforts Davis was named the Big Sky Coach of the Year at the conclusion of the season.

History repeated itself in 1990 when Davis once again led the Vandals to the Big Sky title in both the regular season and tournament, garnering another NCAA berth.

In fact, Davis himself made history when he became the Vandals' head coach in 1988. Upon his hiring, Davis became the youngest Division I head coach in the nation at age 28.

However, it was not the first time that Davis had been the youngest coach in the country. When Davis took the head coaching position at Southwest Mississippi Junior College in 1984, he became the youngest junior college coach in the nation at age 24. His youth served him well at Southwest Mississippi, putting together a 39-20 record in two seasons. His 1986 squad won 22 games, posting the school's first 20-win season in 17 years.

His success at the junior college level landed him a spot on Tim Floyd's staff at Idaho, where he served as an assistant for two years prior to taking the reigns of the Vandal program.

After spending the 1988-89 and 1989-90 seasons at Idaho, Davis went on to become the head coach at Texas A&M for the 1990-91 campaign.

From Texas A&M, Davis moved to serve as the associate head coach at Chipola Junior College for two seasons before ascending to the top spot for the 1993-94 campaign.

During his season as the team's head coach, Chipola finished the season ranked #4 in the national polls and posted a 27-5 record, giving the team the second-most wins in school history.

Davis headed to Utah State as the team's associate head coach from 1994-96. At Utah State, Davis coached under current Iowa State head coach Larry Eustachy and the pair combined to win the Big West Championship in 1995.

His Utah State tenure ended with his return to Idaho as the Vandals' head coach and the rest is history.

Davis' rapid ascent up the coaching ladder is no coincidence. Davis has been around the game for his entire life as he grew up watching one of the preeminent coaches in the country operate on a daily basis.

Kermit Davis, Sr., Davis' father, was one of the most respected college coaches in the nation and the younger Davis spent many hours around his dad in the gym and even on the bench during games.

Upon the completion of his playing career, Davis began his coaching career at his alma mater. He served as a graduate assistant on Bob Boyd's staff at Mississippi State from 1982-84.

Davis earned his bachelor's degree from Mississippi State in 1982 and went on to receive his master's degree from Mississippi State in 1984.

Davis, a native of Leakesville, Miss., and his wife Betty have two daughters, Ally (14) and Claire (10).
