THOMATIS NAMED PRESEASON ALL-CONFERENCE

Senior forward Jamie Thomatis was a unanimous selection to the Preseason All-Sun Belt team announced at the conference media days October 23-24 in New Orleans. The New Orleans area native, from Destrehan, La., finished second in the league and 12th in the nation in scoring last season and 10th in the conference in rebounding, leading the Lady Raiders to a 17-13 mark and a WNIT appearance. She enters her senior campaign eighth on the career points list at Middle Tennessee, just 21 points from fifth place. Thomatis is averaging 17.4 ppg in her career coming into the 2001-02 season, the fourth highest average in school history.

Thomatis has been named First Team All-Conference the past two seasons, earning All-Sun Belt honors last year after receiving All-OVC recognition after her sophomore season.

EIGHT NEWCOMERS HIGHLIGHT 2001-02 ROSTER

Eight newcomers will join six returnees for coach Stephany Smith in the season opener against Tennessee State on November 16 at the Gentry Center.

After beginning last season with only nine scholarship players and one walk-on, Smith starts the 2001-02 campaign with 14 players on the roster, including seven true freshmen.

The roster additions give the Lady Raiders needed depth and will allow Smith to mix and match lineups throughout games and the entire season.

ALUKA NEARS MILLENNIUM CLUB

Senior forward Joanne Aluka begins her final campaign in the Blue and White only 45 points shy of joining the Middle Tennessee Millennium Club as the 15th member in school history. Aluka would join teammate Jamie Thomatis in the club as 1,000-point scorers in Lady Raider history.

Aluka has led the squad in field goal percentage the past two seasons and enters her senior year with a career .558 field goal percentage.

BIG SECOND HALF LEADS LADY RAIDERS TO WIN

Middle Tennessee outscored visiting West Alabama, 54-20, after halftime, with five Lady Raiders hitting for double figures in a 91-50 exhibition victory Sunday afternoon at the Murphy Center.

The Lady Raiders held a 37-30 halftime advantage over the Lady Tigers of the Gulf South Conference, but MT turned up the defensive pressure in the final 20 minutes and shot 56 percent from the field in the second half compared to only 37 percent for West Alabama.

Middle Tennessee led by as many as a dozen points in the opening half, with Lady Raider Jamie Thomatis scoring 10 points on a perfect 3-of-3 shooting. But the visitors kept hanging around, cutting the deficit to as little as three with 1:37 to play in the half on a CaMeshia Pete jumper.

The Lady Raiders led 43-37 five minutes into the second half before going on a 25-2 run over the next nine minutes, holding UWA to just one field goal in the process and just seven fields goals in the second half. MT's Keisha McClinic poured in 11

The 5-9 freshman led four double-digit scorers for the White with 19 points, including 7-of-7 from the foul line. Holmes made two three-pointers in the two 15-minute half periods and played 26 minutes.

- The Lady Raiders head into the 2001-02 season with 481 wins in the program's history in 26 seasons. MT needs just 19 wins to reach the 500-win milestone in Lady Raider basketball history.

Middle Tennessee won seven of its final eight regular season games with a loss to eighth-ranked Louisiana Tech the only blemish. The Lady Raiders then split a pair of games in the Sun Belt Conference Tournament before earning a bid to the Women's NIT, the second WNIT berth for the program in three years.

Under head coach Stephany Smith, the Lady Raiders are now 27-6 in the month of February.

LADY RAIDERS PICKED THIRD BY LEAGUE COACHES

The Lady Raiders were chosen third in the Eastern Division behind Florida International and Western Kentucky in the Sun Belt preseason coaches poll, announced during the conference media days October 23-24 in New Orleans.

Denver was the coaches pick to win the Western Division, just head of North Texas. Denver, under two-time Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year Pam Tanner, advanced to the NCAA Tournament last season in only their third season of Division I competition with a 24-7 record. Florida International advanced to the 2001 Women's NIT with a 20-10 record and begins the 2001-02 season November 9 at home against Stephen F. Austin in the first round of the Preseason Women's NIT.

Denver edged out league newcomer North Texas by two points in the West Division Preseason Poll with 61 points and six first-place votes. The Lady Eagles, a conference tourney semifinalist last season, picked up 59 points and five first-place votes. South Alabama was tabbed third in the West, followed by New Orleans, New Mexico State and Louisiana-Lafayette.

FIU received nine first-place votes in the East Division, with Western Kentucky receiving the other two. Middle Tennessee was voted third, followed by Arkansas State and Arkansas-Little Rock.

Western Kentucky's Natalie Powers was voted the Preseason Player of the Year. Powers finished last season sixth in the nation in scoring at 22.3 points per game, leading the Sun Belt in the process. She was also ninth in the country in three-point shooting at 44.2 percent. Powers is one of three unanimous picks to the 2001-02 Preseason All-Sun Belt Team, along with Middle Tennessee's Jamie Thomatis and Florida International's Gergana Slavtcheva.

Stephany Smith

Middle Tennessee Head Coach

Fifth Season/Ninth at Middle Tennessee

Middle Tennessee head women's basketball coach Stephany Smith begins her fifth season at the helm of the Lady Raiders in 2001-02, and her ninth in the MT program. The Brookhaven, Miss., native has established herself as one of college basketball's brightest young coaches, compiling a 71-46 mark in her four seasons as the head coach in Murfreesboro.

As she prepares to begin her fifth campaign, Smith's record stands as a testament to her hard work, excellent recruiting skills and knowledge of the game.

During her tenure in Murfreesboro, Smith has both an OVC regular season title and an OVC Tournament title to her credit. Three of Smith's teams have competed in postseason play, with an NCAA berth in 1998 and WNIT bids in 1999 and 2001.

Smith did not enter into her first head coaching job blindly. She spent four years as an assistant at MT to former head coach Lewis Bivens, heading up the team's recruiting efforts during that time. Smith was promoted to associate head coach in her final season under Bivens.

The 1995-96 squad went 24-6, the second-most victories in school history, before falling to Kansas in the first round of the NCAA Tournament in Lawrence, Kan. The Lady Raiders were OVC Co-Champions in 1994-95 and 1995-96, compiling 64 wins in Smith's first three seasons on the MT staff. Fruits of her labors at Middle Tennessee were shown in 1996 when the Lady Raiders received votes in both collegiate polls, ranking as high as 26th. The school received its first at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament to further attest the program's growing stature.

Smith spent four years as an assistant at UAB coordinating recruiting for the Blazers before her arrival at Middle Tennessee. UAB went 76-45 during her four seasons on the staff, winning or tying for the Sun Belt Conference crown twice (1990, 91) and sharing the Great Midwest Conference title in 1992. The Lady Blazers made two WNIT trips (1991, 92) during Smith's association with the UAB program.

She spent one year as a graduate assistant at her alma mater, Harding University, in 1989.

Teams associated with Smith have a 221-133 record during her 12 years on the Division I level, including four 20-plus win seasons and two 19-win seasons.

Smith's claim to fame is recruiting, and she has established a reputation as one of the game's top young coaches and as a top-flight recruiter. Two of her former players at UAB have gone on to the professional ranks.

Jacque Nero played six years overseas before being selected fourth by Nashville in the 1998 ABL draft. Shyronda Mifflin has played four seasons overseas and was on the Atlanta Glory's practice squad for part of the 1998 season before returning to Spain.

Her coaching philosophy stresses establishing fundamental knowledge of the game in practice. The repetition of fundamentals in practice allows her players the freedom to use that knowledge coupled with their athletic skills over the course of a game. An intense conditioning regimen also lends Smith's squad the opportunity to play an up-tempo style predicated on defensive intensity.

Smith graduated from Harding University in Searcy, Ark. with a B.A. in Physical Education in May of 1988 before receiving an M.S.E. with an emphasis in Physical Education in August 1989.

Smith began her collegiate experience at the University of Mississippi before transferring to Copiah-Lincoln Community College in Wesson, Miss. She received an associate's degree from Co-Lin in May of 1986.

Smith competed in basketball at both Co-Lin and Harding, and also spent a year as the Head Girls Track Coach at Searcy High School in 1989 while completing her Master's degree at Harding.

The personable Smith is truly people-oriented. She has planned and directed numerous non-profit clinics at Middle Tennessee and UAB for girls to further promote the game of basketball. She now heads up one of the most successful summer camps in the country, the Middle Tennessee "Stars of Tomorrow."

She is the daughter of Ralph and Betsy Smith. She has three brothers (Ralph, Richard, Cameron) and one sister (Sydney).

Smith's father will be inducted into the Mississippi Sports Hall of Fame in 2002. Ralph "Catfish" Smith won two national championships as a member of the Ole Miss football team in 1959 and 1960, and played 10 years in the NFL.
