LADY RAIDERS LOSE ANOTHER CLOSE ONE, 54-53

Paula Penttila's three-pointer at the buzzer fell short, giving the visiting Kansas State Wildcats a 54-53 victory over Middle Tennessee Monday evening at the Murphy Center.

The Lady Raiders held a two-point edge until freshman Laurie Koehn nailed a three-pointer for the visitors with 36 seconds remaining in the contest, giving KSU a 54-53 edge. Middle Tennessee got a shot from senior Jamie Thomatis that was partially blocked, and Kendra Wecker grabbed the rebound for the Wildcats.

Kristin Rethman was fouled and missed the front end of a one-and-one with 15 seconds left, giving the Lady Raiders one last chance. The ball ended up in Penttila's hands for a decent look at a trifecta, but the shot fell short, Middle Tennessee's fourth loss of the season by a combined 12 points.

The Lady Raiders held a 28-24 lead at halftime but watched the visitors open the half with a 17-4 run, including seven points by Wecker and five from Koehn. The Wildcats opened the lead to as many as 10 points with 11:01 remaining in the contest.

But the Lady Raiders mounted a 16-4 run over the next eight minutes, led by six points from Patrice Holmes and four by Keisha McClinic. A pair of free throws by McClinic knotted the game at 51 with 3:42 left, and Thomatis gave Middle Tennessee the lead with two more foul shots just 28 seconds later.

But the Lady Raiders went 0-for-6 from the floor the rest of the way and shot just 29 percent from the floor for the game, their lowest of the season.

Thomatis led the Lady Raiders with 15 points and 10 rebounds, her third double-double of the season and 12th of her career. McClinic added 12 and Holmes 11 to go along with six rebounds. Koehn led the Wildcats in double-digits with 17 points, while Nicole Ohlde had 14 and Wecker added 12. All three Wildcats tied for the team lead with six rebounds.

Thomatis scored 11 of her 15 points in the first half to lead the Lady Raiders to a four-point lead at the break. Middle Tennessee committed just six turnovers in the first 20 minutes, helping to build the lead despite shooting only 31 percent from the field in the half.

MT DROPS LIPSCOMB 75-63

Jamie Thomatis led the Lady Raiders with 19 points and Jennifer Justice netted a career-high 15 as Middle Tennessee knocked off homestanding Lipscomb, 75-63, Friday night in Nashville.

Thomatis scored 15 of her 19 in the second half, and Justice had a terrific all-around game in her second start of the season, handing out six assists, grabbing seven rebounds and making three steals.

The Lady Raiders used a 12-2 run late in the opening half to open an 18-point advantage just before halftime. Thomatis scored four points and had one assist during the stretch, while Keisha McClinic added five of her 13 points in the game.

Lipscomb carefully sliced into the lead in the second half and got as close as eight at 56-48 with 7:36 remaining in the game when Angie Ester made a pair of free throws. But the Lady Raiders answered with a 12-3 run over the next five minutes to put the game away.

Lipscomb's Renee Logan came off the bench to lead all scorers with 20 points, while Ester added 16 and Courtney Boynton had 14 for the Lady Bisons.

after the Lady Raiders defeated Austin Peay and Ole Miss on November 27 and December 1, respectively.

The 5-11 forward averaged 22.0 points in the two victories, including scoring 31 points and grabbing 10 rebounds in a 74-64 win over Ole Miss this past Saturday. It was her first double-double of the season and the 10th of her career.

It marked the 18th straight double-figure game for the Destrehan, La., native, and the 12th 20-plus point game in her last 16 contests dating to last season. It was the seventh 30-plus point game of her career and the first since scoring 30 against Indiana on March 14, 2001, in the first round of the WNIT.

Thomatis went 9-of-18 from the field and made three of Middle Tennessee's five three-pointers in the contest, and was a perfect 10-for-10 from the foul line, including eight in the final four minutes of the game against the Lady Rebels.

Thomatis won the Player of the Week award three times last season in the Sun Belt, and was named POW twice during her sophomore campaign.

THOMATIS EARNS PRESEASON ALL-CONFERENCE

Senior forward Jamie Thomatis was a unanimous selection to the Preseason All-Sun Belt team announced at the conference media days October 23-24 in New Orleans. The New Orleans area native, from Destrehan, La., finished second in the league and 12th in the nation in scoring last season and 10th in the conference in rebounding, leading the Lady Raiders to a 17-13 mark and a WNIT appearance. She enters her senior campaign eighth on the career points list at Middle Tennessee, just 21 points from fifth place. Thomatis is averaging 17.4 ppg in her career coming into the 2001-02 season, the fourth highest average in school history.

Thomatis has been named First Team All-Conference the past two seasons, earning All-Sun Belt honors last year after receiving All-OVC recognition after her sophomore season.

EIGHT NEWCOMERS HIGHLIGHT 2001-02 ROSTER

Eight newcomers joined six returnees for coach Stephany Smith in the season opener against Tennessee State on November 16 at the Gentry Center.

After beginning last season with only nine scholarship players and one walk-on, Smith starts the 2001-02 campaign with 14 players on the roster, including seven true freshmen.

The roster additions give the Lady Raiders needed depth and will allow Smith to mix and match lineups throughout games and the entire season.

ALUKA JOINS MILLENNIUM CLUB

Senior forward Joanne Aluka scored 16 points and grabbed five rebounds in the 10-point victory over Ole Miss on December 1, becoming the 15th member of the Middle Tennessee Millennium Club in school history. Aluka joined teammate Jamie Thomatis in the club as 1,000-point scorers in Lady Raider history.

Aluka has led the squad in field goal percentage the past two seasons and enters her senior year with a career .513 field goal percentage.

MCCLURE CLIMBING ASSIST LIST

Senior point guard Jessica McClure stands sixth on the all-time assists list and seventh on the career steals list at Middle Tennessee during this, her final season in the Blue and White.

McClure moved into sixth on the all-time assists list at Middle Tennessee with three assists against Ole Miss on December 1. The Paris, Tenn., native had 103 assists last season and is only 60 assists from second place behind all-time leader Heather Prater (605). McClure needs just two more dimes to move past Julie Morrison (1990-93) and into fifth place.

McClure has 188 steals in her career at Middle Tennessee after making four steals against UT Martin, and is now just 34 from second place on the all-time list behind leader Kim Webb (294). All-time listings are on page 6 of this notes package.

ALUKA CLIMBS REBOUNDING LIST

Senior Joanne Aluka grabbed four rebounds in the loss to Kansas State, giving her 596 rebounds in her three-plus seasons at Middle Tennessee, placing her 12th on the Lady Raider career rebounding list. Aluka's 195 rebounds last year were second on the squad behind Jamie Thomatis.

Aluka could easily end her career in the Top 5 with another good season, needing 192 to tie Holly Hoover (1982-84) for fifth on the all-time list.

THOMATIS NEAR TOP OF MANY CAREER CATEGORIES

Senior Jamie Thomatis stands in the Top 10 of 11 Lady Raider career records heading into her final season at Middle Tennessee.

Thomatis moved into fifth on the career scoring list with 24 points at Georgia and now has 1,616 points, 353 points behind second-place Priscilla Robinson (1991-94, 1,969 points). Thomatis netted 639 points last year for 21.3 ppg, second best in the Sun Belt and 12th nationally.

Her 17.6 ppg average for a career is fourth highest in school history behind Kim Webb (18.5 ppg), Robinson (18.2) and Robin Hendrix (17.7).

Thomatis heads into Thursday's contest versus Houston in the Top 10 in steals (10th), FG made (6th), FG attempted (8th), FG percentage (1st), FT made (4th), FT attempted (6th), FT percentage (4th), 3-pt. FG percentage (3rd) and double-figure scoring (6th).

LADY RAIDERS INK RIVERDALE STANDOUT

The Middle Tennessee Lady Raiders inked a national letter of intent from Riverdale (Murfreesboro) High School's Melissa Weiland during the early signing period in November.

Weiland, a 5-10 guard, averaged 13.1 points per game for the Lady Warriors last season, leading them to an 18-10 final record. The left-handed shooting Weiland made 25 three-pointers last season and shot 78.3 percent from the foul line.

"Melissa is a player we are very excited about adding to our program here at Middle Tennessee," Smith said. "She is a guard with great size and a tremendous outside shot. Where she really caught my eye was with her work ethic over the last 10 months. I really believe her best days are ahead of her."

LADY RAIDERS NEWS & NOTES

● Four Lady Raiders set a career-high for minutes played in the overtime loss at Georgia: Keisha McClinic and Jamie Thomatis (41 minutes), Joanne Aluka (38) and Paula Penttila (37).

● The November 20 overtime loss at Georgia was the first overtime game for the Lady Raiders since a January 26, 1998, contest at Eastern Kentucky.

● Neither Middle Tennessee nor Tennessee State made a three-point basket in the season opener on November 16. That ended a streak of 55 straight games with a three-pointer for the Lady Raiders, dating to a December 4, 1999, contest against Eastern Illinois. The last Middle Tennessee opponent to go without a three-pointer in a contest was Memphis on March 11, 1999, in the first round of the WNIT.

● Jamie Thomatis scored in double figures in her 22nd straight game dating to last season with 15 versus Kansas State. She has scored 20+ points in 13 of the last 20 games dating to 2000-01.

● Jamie Thomatis was the only Lady Raider to start every game last season, and has started 47 straight games dating to the 1999-00 season.

● MT head coach Stephany Smith now stands 3-2 in season openers during her five seasons at the helm of the Lady Raider program. The November 16 matchup against Tennessee State was the first season opener on the road for a Smith-coached squad.

● The Lady Raiders are scheduled to play 14 home games this season at the Murphy Center, a friendly place to the home team. MT is 240-75 (.762) in 26-plus seasons at the Murphy Center, including 42-13 under head coach Stephany Smith.

● The Lady Raiders began the 2001-02 season with 483 wins in the program's history in 26 seasons, just 17 wins shy of reaching the 500-win milestone in Lady Raider basketball history.

LADY RAIDERS PICKED THIRD BY LEAGUE COACHES

The Lady Raiders were chosen third in the Eastern Division behind Florida International and Western Kentucky in the Sun Belt preseason coaches poll, announced during the conference media days October 23-24 in New Orleans.

Denver edged out league newcomer North Texas by two points in the West Division Preseason Poll with 61 points and six first-place votes. The Lady Eagles, a conference tourney semifinalist last season, picked up 59 points and five first-place votes. South Alabama was tabbed third in the West, followed by New Orleans, New Mexico State and Louisiana-Lafayette.

FIU received nine first-place votes in the East Division, with Western Kentucky receiving the other two. Middle Tennessee was voted third, followed by Arkansas State and Arkansas-Little Rock.

Western Kentucky's Natalie Powers was voted the Preseason Player of the Year. Powers finished last season sixth in the nation in scoring at 22.3 points per game, leading the Sun Belt in the process. She was also ninth in the country in three-point shooting at 44.2 percent. Powers is one of three unanimous picks to the 2001-02 Preseason All-Sun Belt Team, along with Middle Tennessee's Jamie Thomatis and Florida International's Gergana Slavtcheva.

Stephany Smith

Middle Tennessee Head Coach

Fifth Season/Ninth at Middle Tennessee

Middle Tennessee head women's basketball coach Stephany Smith begins her fifth season at the helm of the Lady Raiders in 2001-02, and her ninth in the MT program. The Brookhaven, Miss., native has established herself as one of college basketball's brightest young coaches, compiling a 71-46 mark in her four seasons as the head coach in Murfreesboro.

As she prepares to begin her fifth campaign, Smith's record stands as a testament to her hard work, excellent recruiting skills and knowledge of the game.

During her tenure in Murfreesboro, Smith has both an OVC regular season title and an OVC Tournament title to her credit. Three of Smith's teams have competed in postseason play, with an NCAA berth in 1998 and WNIT bids in 1999 and 2001.

Smith did not enter into her first head coaching job blindly. She spent four years as an assistant at MT to former head coach Lewis Bivens, heading up the team's recruiting efforts during that time. Smith was promoted to associate head coach in her final season under Bivens.

The 1995-96 squad went 24-6, the second-most victories in school history, before falling to Kansas in the first round of the NCAA Tournament in Lawrence, Kan. The Lady Raiders were OVC Co-Champions in 1994-95 and 1995-96, compiling 64 wins in Smith's first three seasons on the MT staff. Fruits of her labors at Middle Tennessee were shown in 1996 when the Lady Raiders received votes in both collegiate polls, ranking as high as 26th. The school received its first at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament to further attest the program's growing stature.

Smith spent four years as an assistant at UAB coordinating recruiting for the Blazers before her arrival at Middle Tennessee. UAB went 76-45 during her four seasons on the staff, winning or tying for the Sun Belt Conference crown twice (1990, 91) and sharing the Great Midwest Conference title in 1992. The Lady Blazers made two WNIT trips (1991, 92) during Smith's association with the UAB program.

She spent one year as a graduate assistant at her alma mater, Harding University, in 1989.

Teams associated with Smith have a 221-133 record during her 12 years on the Division I level, including four 20-plus win seasons and two 19-win seasons.

Smith's claim to fame is recruiting, and she has established a reputation as one of the game's top young coaches and as a top-flight recruiter. Two of her former players at UAB have gone on to the professional ranks.

Jacque Nero played six years overseas before being selected fourth by Nashville in the 1998 ABL draft. Shyronda Mifflin has played four seasons overseas and was on the Atlanta Glory's practice squad for part of the 1998 season before returning to Spain.

Her coaching philosophy stresses establishing fundamental knowledge of the game in practice. The repetition of fundamentals in practice allows her players the freedom to use that knowledge coupled with their athletic skills over the course of a game. An intense conditioning regimen also lends Smith's squad the opportunity to play an up-tempo style predicated on defensive intensity.

Smith graduated from Harding University in Searcy, Ark. with a B.A. in Physical Education in May of 1988 before receiving an M.S.E. with an emphasis in Physical Education in August 1989.

Smith began her collegiate experience at the University of Mississippi before transferring to Copiah-Lincoln Community College in Wesson, Miss. She received an associate's degree from Co-Lin in May of 1986.

Smith competed in basketball at both Co-Lin and Harding, and also spent a year as the Head Girls Track Coach at Searcy High School in 1989 while completing her Master's degree at Harding.

The personable Smith is truly people-oriented. She has planned and directed numerous non-profit clinics at Middle Tennessee and UAB for girls to further promote the game of basketball. She now heads up one of the most successful summer camps in the country, the Middle Tennessee "Stars of Tomorrow."

She is the daughter of Ralph and Betsy Smith. She has three brothers (Ralph, Richard, Cameron) and one sister (Sydney).

Smith's father will be inducted into the Mississippi Sports Hall of Fame in 2002. Ralph "Catfish" Smith won two national championships as a member of the Ole Miss football team in 1959 and 1960, and played 10 years in the NFL.
