Western Kentucy leads the series 13-11, but at home the Lady Raiders are 8-4 against the Toppers. Middle Tennessee is on a two game winning streak against WKU as they defeated them 75-70 on Feb. 25, 2001.

Middle Tennessee and North Texas have never met in Murfreesboro. The Lady Eagles lead the series 2-0 and last defeated MT on March 3, 2001 at the Sun Belt Conference Championships by a score of 72-54.

LADY RAIDERS RAIDERS VICTIM OF NEW MEXICO STATE'S 88-67 AERIAL ASSAULT

A three-point aerial assault by New Mexico State (7-8, 3-2 Sun Belt) in the second half, put the game out of reach for the Middle Tennessee Lady Raiders (8-7, 1-2 Sun Belt) as the dropped their second Sun Belt Conference game in a row with a 88-67 loss on Thursday.

New Mexico State hit nine three-point shots in the second half and was led by Jenia Dimitrova, who accounted for five and had six for the game. The Aggies had 13 three pointers in the game, which is a new school record, while the Lady Raiders put up seven.

"New Mexico State leads the conference in three point shooting," said head coach Stephany Smith. "It was a key part of our game plan to stop their perimeter shooting, and obviously we didn't get it done."

Junior guard Mia Parviainen had a big night for the Lady Raiders as she scored a season high 15 points, which also ties her career record. Senior Jamie Thomatis led Middle Tennessee with 19 points.

LADY RAIDERS FALL TO FIU 82-72

The Middle Tennessee Lady Raider basketball (8-6, 1-1 Sun Belt) dropped its first Sun Belt Conference game with a 82-72 loss to Florida International (14-4, 3-0 SBC) Saturday in Murphy Center.

With 3:38 left in the game, Middle Tennessee was down by two to the Golden Panthers, but a 13-4 run by FIU put the game out of reach for the Lady Raiders. Middle Tennessee's only two buckets in that span came in the final minute of the game, and both were from senior guard Jessica McClure.

Senior forward Gergana Slavtcheva who had 24 points and was 10-14 from the free throw line and had one blocked shot led FIU. Of the seven Golden Panthers who saw minutes in the game, five finished the game in double figure scoring.

Senior forward Jamie Thomatis led the Lady Raiders with 20 points and five defensive rebounds. It is the 16th time in 25 games she has scored 20 or more points in a game.

The only other Lady Raider in double figure scoring was Patrice Holmes who scored 13 points. It is the sixth game in a row that Holmes has finished the game with double figure scoring.

MCCLURE HITS BUZZER-BEATER FOR OT WIN AT MEMPHIS

Senior Jessica McClure hit a leaner off the glass at the buzzer to give Middle Tennessee an 82-80 overtime victory over Memphis at the Elma Roane Fieldhouse Tuesday evening.

With the score tied at 80 and time winding down in the extra period, freshman Patrice Holmes drove toward the lane. Holmes lost the ball on her dribble, but got on the floor after the loose ball, gathered it and fed McClure from her posterior. The 5-6 guard took one dribble and banked a short jumper for the game-winner.

The Lady Raiders trailed the game near the end of regulation with UM's Shannon Hamp going to the foul line for a one-plus-one with 18.8 seconds remaining. Hamp missed the free throw, McClure grabbed a long rebound and headed the other direction, driving to the basket for a lay-up that knotted the score at 73 with 13.3 seconds. The bucket was McClure's first points of the game, and she scored six of Middle Tennessee's nine points in overtime.

The contest had 17 lead changes and eight ties and neither team held more than a five-point lead in the final 35 minutes of the game. Memphis started fast and led 20-12 eight minutes into the game. But the Lady Raiders went on a 13-4 run over the next five minutes that included a pair of three-pointers from freshman Tiffany Fisher, who netted a team-high 19 points that included five trifectas.

Neither team led by more than three the rest of the half, and the Lady Raiders held a 39-38 edge at the break thanks in large part to 12 points from Fisher off the bench. Both squads had 11 assists and 11 turnovers in the opening 20 minutes, and both shot 56 percent or better from the field.

The Lady Tigers took a quick one-point lead to open the second half on a lay-up by Melissa Abraham, but Fisher put Middle Tennessee back into the lead with a baseline jumper. Keisha McClinic's three-pointer from the corner gave the Lady Raiders a 48-43 advantage at the 17:14 mark of the half, the biggest lead for either team the rest of the way.

The Lady Raiders had the lead almost the entire second half until Hamp, who had a game-high 26 points that included 19 after halftime, hit a short jumper in the lane with 1:57 to play in the contest, giving Memphis a 73-71 lead. Neither team scored again until McClure's lay-up in the final seconds sent the game into overtime.

In the extra period, McClure made all four free throw attempts and Fisher added one foul shot to give Middle Tennessee a five-point edge midway through the overtime. Abraham and Hamp each had buckets on back-to-back possessions and Aesha Carter made one-of-two foul shots with 52 seconds remaining to tie the game again.

Jamie Thomatis made two free throws before Raven Rogers made a nice move down the baseline for her only points of the game to knot the game at 80 with 26.5 ticks on the clock.

Holmes then took her drive to the basket before McClure's game-winning shot.

Fisher's 19 led four players in double figures for the Lady Raiders, with Thomatis adding 16, Joanne Aluka 14 and Holmes 12. Fisher also grabbed a team-high seven rebounds, four on the offensive end, while Thomatis added five boards.

Hamp scored a game-high 26 on 11-for-17 shooting from the floor, as the Lady Tigers shot 56 percent from the field, the first team this season to shoot better than 50 percent against the Lady Raiders. Abraham had 12 points and 12 rebounds, while Carter added 10 points off the

The win was Middle Tennessee's first against the Lady Tigers since January of 1994 and the first on the road against Memphis since December of 1992.

BAILEY GOES UNDER KNIFE

Freshman guard Cartia Bailey had minor knee surgery December 18 performed by the Middle Tennessee team doctors. Rehabilitation will begin immediately but should take almost three months, meaning the Fayetteville, Tenn., native will redshirt this season.

Bailey played in the opening game of the season at Tennessee State, scoring four points in four minutes of action. The Lincoln County HS product did not see action in any other games this year.

THOMATIS NAMED SBC PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Middle Tennessee senior Jamie Thomatis was named Sun Belt Conference Player of the Week after the Lady Raiders defeated Austin Peay and Ole Miss on November 27 and December 1, respectively.

The 5-11 forward averaged 22.0 points in the two victories, including scoring 31 points and grabbing 10 rebounds in a 74-64 win over Ole Miss. It was her first double-double of the season and the 10th of her career.

It marked the 18th straight double-figure game for the Destrehan, La., native, and the 12th 20-plus point game in her last 16 contests dating to last season. It was the seventh 30-plus point game of her career and the first since scoring 30 against Indiana on March 14, 2001, in the first round of the WNIT.

Thomatis went 9-of-18 from the field and made three of Middle Tennessee's five three-pointers in the contest, and was a perfect 10-for-10 from the foul line, including eight in the final four minutes of the game against the Lady Rebels.

Thomatis won the Player of the Week award three times last season in the Sun Belt, and was named POW twice during her sophomore campaign in the OVC.

THOMATIS EARNS PRESEASON ALL-CONFERENCE

Senior forward Jamie Thomatis was a unanimous selection to the Preseason All-Sun Belt team announced at the conference media days October 23-24 in New Orleans. The New Orleans area native, from Destrehan, La., finished second in the league and 12th in the nation in scoring last season and 10th in the conference in rebounding, leading the Lady Raiders to a 17-13 mark and a WNIT appearance. She enters her senior campaign eighth on the career points list at Middle Tennessee, just 21 points from fifth place. Thomatis is averaging 17.4 ppg in her career coming into the 2001-02 season, the fourth highest average in school history.

Thomatis has been named First Team All-Conference the past two seasons, earning All-Sun Belt honors last year after receiving All-OVC recognition after her sophomore season.

EIGHT NEWCOMERS HIGHLIGHT 2001-02 ROSTER

Eight newcomers joined six returnees for coach Stephany Smith in the season opener against Tennessee State on Nov. 16 at the Gentry Center in Nashville.

After beginning last season with only nine scholarship players and one walk-on, Smith starts the 2001-02 campaign with 14 players on the roster, including seven true freshmen.

The roster additions give the Lady Raiders needed depth and will allow Smith to mix and match lineups throughout games and the entire season.

ALUKA JOINS MILLENNIUM CLUB

Senior forward Joanne Aluka scored 16 points and grabbed five rebounds in the 10-point victory over Ole Miss on December 1, becoming the 15th member of the Middle Tennessee Millennium Club in school history. Aluka joined teammate Jamie Thomatis in the club as 1,000-point scorers in Lady Raider history.

Aluka has led the squad in field goal percentage the past two seasons and enters her senior year with a career .513 field goal percentage.

MCCLURE MOVES INTO SIXTH ON CAREER STEALS LIST

Senior point guard Jessica McClure stands fifth on the all-time assists list and sixth on the career steals list at Middle Tennessee during this, her final season in the Blue and White.

McClure moved into fifth on the all-time assists list at Middle Tennessee with three assists against Houston on December 20. The Paris, Tenn., native had 103 assists last season and is only 51 assists from second place behind all-time leader Heather Prater (605). McClure's three assists against UH moved her past Julie Morrison (1990-93) and into fifth place. The senior stands at 378 career assists heading into Saturday's conference tilt against Florida International.

McClure has 195 steals in her career at Middle Tennessee after making two thefts at Memphis, passing Priscilla Robinson (1991-94). McClure is now just 27 from second place on the all-time list behind leader Kim Webb (294).

ALUKA, THOMATIS CLIMB REBOUNDING LIST

Senior Joanne Aluka grabbed four rebounds in the victory at Memphis, giving her 609 rebounds in her three-plus seasons at Middle Tennessee, placing her 12th on the Lady Raider career rebounding list. Aluka's 195 rebounds last year were second on the squad behind Jamie Thomatis.

Aluka could easily end her career in the Top 5 with another good season, needing 192 to tie Holly Hoover (1982-84) for fifth on the all-time list.

The five rebounds by Jamie Thomatis at Memphis moved her past Sherry Tucker (1992-95) and into 13th place on the all-time rebounding list. The Destrehan, La., native has 584 career boards heading into Saturday's contest against Florida International.

THOMATIS NEAR TOP OF MANY CAREER CATEGORIES

Senior Jamie Thomatis stands in the Top 10 of 11 Lady Raider career records heading into her final season at Middle Tennessee.

Thomatis moved into fifth on the career scoring list with 24 points at Georgia and now has 1,685 points, 284 points behind second-place Priscilla Robinson (1991-94, 1,969 points). Thomatis netted 639 points last year for 21.3 ppg, second best in the Sun Belt and 12th nationally.

Her 17.6 ppg average for a career is fourth highest in school history behind Kim Webb (18.5 ppg), Robinson (18.2) and Robin Hendrix (17.7).

Thomatis heads into Thursday's conference game against Florida International in the Top 10 in steals (9th), FG made (5th), FG attempted (8th), FG percentage (1st), FT made (3rd), FT attempted (4th), FT percentage (3rd), 3-pt. FG percentage (3rd) and double-figure scoring (5th).

LADY RAIDERS INK RIVERDALE STANDOUT

The Middle Tennessee Lady Raiders inked a national letter of intent from Riverdale (Murfreesboro) High School's Melissa Weiland during the early signing period in November.

Weiland, a 5-10 guard, averaged 13.1 points per game for the Lady Warriors last season, leading them to an 18-10 final record. The left-handed shooting Weiland made 25 three-pointers last season and shot 78.3 percent from the foul line.

"Melissa is a player we are very excited about adding to our program here at Middle Tennessee," Smith said. "She is a guard with great size and a tremendous outside shot. Where she really caught my eye was with her work ethic over the last 10 months. I really believe her best days are ahead of her."

Stephany Smith

Middle Tennessee Head Coach

Fifth Season/Ninth at Middle Tennessee

Middle Tennessee head women's basketball coach Stephany Smith begins her fifth season at the helm of the Lady Raiders in 2001-02, and her ninth in the MT program. The Brookhaven, Miss., native has established herself as one of college basketball's brightest young coaches, compiling a 71-46 mark in her four seasons as the head coach in Murfreesboro.

As she prepares to begin her fifth campaign, Smith's record stands as a testament to her hard work, excellent recruiting skills and knowledge of the game.

During her tenure in Murfreesboro, Smith has both an OVC regular season title and an OVC Tournament title to her credit. Three of Smith's teams have competed in postseason play, with an NCAA berth in 1998 and WNIT bids in 1999 and 2001.

Smith did not enter into her first head coaching job blindly. She spent four years as an assistant at MT to former head coach Lewis Bivens, heading up the team's recruiting efforts during that time. Smith was promoted to associate head coach in her final season under Bivens.

The 1995-96 squad went 24-6, the second-most victories in school history, before falling to Kansas in the first round of the NCAA Tournament in Lawrence, Kan. The Lady Raiders were OVC Co-Champions in 1994-95 and 1995-96, compiling 64 wins in Smith's first three seasons on the MT staff. Fruits of her labors at Middle Tennessee were shown in 1996 when the Lady Raiders received votes in both collegiate polls, ranking as high as 26th. The school received its first at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament to further attest the program's growing stature.

Smith spent four years as an assistant at UAB coordinating recruiting for the Blazers before her arrival at Middle Tennessee. UAB went 76-45 during her four seasons on the staff, winning or tying for the Sun Belt Conference crown twice (1990, 91) and sharing the Great Midwest Conference title in 1992. The Lady Blazers made two WNIT trips (1991, 92) during Smith's association with the UAB program.

She spent one year as a graduate assistant at her alma mater, Harding University, in 1989.

Teams associated with Smith have a 221-133 record during her 12 years on the Division I level, including four 20-plus win seasons and two 19-win seasons.

Smith's claim to fame is recruiting, and she has established a reputation as one of the game's top young coaches and as a top-flight recruiter. Two of her former players at UAB have gone on to the professional ranks.

Jacque Nero played six years overseas before being selected fourth by Nashville in the 1998 ABL draft. Shyronda Mifflin has played four seasons overseas and was on the Atlanta Glory's practice squad for part of the 1998 season before returning to Spain.

Her coaching philosophy stresses establishing fundamental knowledge of the game in practice. The repetition of fundamentals in practice allows her players the freedom to use that knowledge coupled with their athletic skills over the course of a game. An intense conditioning regimen also lends Smith's squad the opportunity to play an up-tempo style predicated on defensive intensity.

Smith graduated from Harding University in Searcy, Ark. with a B.A. in Physical Education in May of 1988 before receiving an M.S.E. with an emphasis in Physical Education in August 1989.

Smith began her collegiate experience at the University of Mississippi before transferring to Copiah-Lincoln Community College in Wesson, Miss. She received an associate's degree from Co-Lin in May of 1986.

Smith competed in basketball at both Co-Lin and Harding, and also spent a year as the Head Girls Track Coach at Searcy High School in 1989 while completing her Master's degree at Harding.

The personable Smith is truly people-oriented. She has planned and directed numerous non-profit clinics at Middle Tennessee and UAB for girls to further promote the game of basketball. She now heads up one of the most successful summer camps in the country, the Middle Tennessee "Stars of Tomorrow."

She is the daughter of Ralph and Betsy Smith. She has three brothers (Ralph, Richard, Cameron) and one sister (Sydney).

Smith's father will be inducted into the Mississippi Sports Hall of Fame in 2002. Ralph "Catfish" Smith won two national championships as a member of the Ole Miss football team in 1959 and 1960, and played 10 years in the NFL.
