Last Meeting:	First Meeting
Notes:	The Blue Raiders and the Buccaneers are meeting for the first time ever tonight ... MT is looking for its second home win of the year ... The Blue Raiders will face Austin Peay on Saturday in the team's last game prior to a short holiday break.

MT vs. Christian Brothers

Tonight's game marks the first time that the Blue Raiders and Buccaneers have ever faced each other in men's basketball. The Buccaneers will become the second first-time opponent for the Blue Raiders this season. MT's game against Purdue on Dec. 6 was also a first meeting.

Gunn Leads MT Attack

Junior guard Tommy Gunn led the Blue Raider scoring attack against Murray State on Monday night. The Syracuse, NY, native bucketed 19 points in the game on 7-of-12 shooting, including 3-of-6 from behind the arc. The game gives Gunn 38 career contests in which he has scored 10 or more points. It also marks the second time this season and 14th time in his career that he has paced the Blue Raiders in scoring. Gunn is now averaging 14.4 points per game on the year.

Watson Sighting

Redshirt senior Demario Watson made his season debut on Monday night against Murray State. Watson missed the first seven games of the year due to a knee injury and subsequent surgery. Watson netted four points and grabbed two rebounds in eight minutes of court time against the Racers.

Parham Responds to First Start

Senior point guard Eric Parham made the most of his first start of the year against Murray State. The Nashville product scored a season-best 14 points against the Racers and led the team with four assists. Parham also logged a season-high 29 minutes in the contest. The scoring tally earned Parham his seventh career double-figure scoring game.

Nominations Accepted

The Middle Tennessee athletic department is currently accepting nominations for fans' favorite Blue Raiders and Lady Raiders in Murphy Center history along with their favorite Murphy Center moments. The nominations can be made via the GoBlueRaiders.com website by clicking on the 30 YEARS icon at the top of the home page. The nominations will be considered when the All-Time Murphy Center Teams and Top Murphy Center Moments are announced at the Murphy Center 30 Year Anniversary Celebration on Jan. 4 when the Blue Raiders and Lady Raiders play Western Kentucky in a double-header beginning at 4:30 PM.

Next Up for MT

The Blue Raiders' nostalgia tour of the Ohio Valley Conference continues with a game in Clarksville against Austin Peay on Saturday night. The Blue Raiders and the Governors haven't met since MT left the OVC after the 1999-2000 season. The Blue Raiders will then take a short holiday break before returning to the Murphy Center to face Kennesaw State on Dec. 27 at 7 PM.

Robinson Gets Career High

Junior Marcus Robinson set a new career high against Murray State on Monday night with 11 points. The Newnan, GA, native went 4-of-6 from the floor in the contest, including canning one of two attempts from 3-point range. Robinson also snared two rebounds and dished out two assists during the game. He is now posting 5.6 points per game.

Holiday Camp

Kermit Davis and the Blue Raiders will host a special Holiday Camp from 9 am - 4 pm on Dec. 23. The camp costs $49 and is an excellent gift for any youngster from age 5 to 8th grade. Anyone wishing to obtain more information about the Kermit Davis Holiday Camp should call (615) 898-2916.

Briefly ...

MT and Murray State waited 1,390 days to play each other prior to Monday's game, but will only have to wait 15 days before playing again in Murray, KY, on New Year's Day ... The Blue Raiders were outrebounded for only the third time this season against Murray State ... Austin Peay will become the fourth former OVC foe on the Blue Raiders' slate on Saturday night ... The Blue Raiders have used four different starting combinations this year ... Tommy Gunn and Napoleon Rhodes are the only Blue Raiders to have started every game this year.

Rivalries Continue

Of Middle Tennessee's 10 most extensive rivalries, the top four have found their way onto the Blue Raiders' schedule this season. The Blue Raiders came into the season having played 506 combined games against Tennessee Tech, Murray State, Austin Peay, and Western Kentucky through the years. The Golden Eagles hold the distinction of being the longest-standing of these series at 140 games. MT has played Murray State 133 times, Austin Peay 130 times, and Western Kentucky 103 times. These games make up 28.7 percent of the 1,762 games Middle Tennessee had played coming into this season.

Anniversary Season

Middle Tennessee will celebrate 30 years of games inside the Murphy Center this season. The building opened with a game against Vanderbilt on Dec. 11, 1972. Since the Murphy Center opened, the Blue Raiders have compiled an overall record of 313-104, for a winning percentage of 75.1. The Blue Raiders have averaged 10.8 wins per season on the Monte Hale Arena playing floor. Middle Tennessee will hold its official celebration this year on Jan. 4 when Western Kentucky visits Murfreesboro.

Notable

d Purdue and Christian Brothers are on the MT schedule for the first time ever this season and San Diego, a possible opponent, would also be a first timer.

d Of the 23 possible opponents on this year's schedule, 13 have played MT five times or less and four have played MT 100 times or more.

Kermit Davis

Head Coach ◆ Mississippi State, 1982 ◆ First Season ◆ 2-6 (.250)

The objective was clear when Middle Tennessee athletic director Boots Donnelly set out to hire the school's 19th men's basketball coach – find the person that could lead the program back to its past glory and once again contend for conference titles and NCAA appearances.

On April 12, 2002, Donnelly introduced Kermit Davis, Jr., as the man to do just that.

"I wanted to bring someone in here that wanted to be here, not just to be a head coach, but who wanted to take over our program," Donnelly stated. "I wanted a person that believed very, very strongly in discipline, because that's the process that gets it all started. I wanted a heck of a recruiter, and I also wanted a teacher. I think we fulfilled every one of those things with Kemit Davis, Jr."

Davis brings the credentials that Donnelly was seeking along with him to Middle Tennessee. He has shown throughout his career the ability to rebuild programs and put them on the national map in a hurry. He has displayed success at every stop along his career track and has done so with a hard-nosed style of defense, uptempo offensive play, and a work ethic that is second-to-none.

"One thing our team will do is play with a great deal of energy," Davis stated. "We would like to play a hard-nosed, aggressive style that our fans will enjoy watching night in and night out. We're going to share and value the basketball, rebound on both ends, and attempt to get a quality shot on each possession."

Davis' strategic knowledge isn't his only weapon in building a competitive program. The Blue Raider skipper has long been known as an outstanding recruiter that is willing to go after the nation's top talent. His recruits value character, have a high level of toughness, and have a desire to obtain a college degree. He is committed to landing the state's top prospects as well as reaching out to the best players in the region and in the country.

"Our state has produced some outstanding players over the years, and we are going to be very aggressive in our approach to keeping those players at home," said Davis. "The quality of high school and junior college coaching in our state is excellent and we would like to be an extension of the parents and the coach when those student-athletes come to our campus."

Davis comes to Middle Tennessee after spending the past five seasons as the associate head coach at Louisiana State University under head coach John Brady. Prior to Davis' arrival with Brady at LSU, the Tigers had been languishing near the bottom of the Southeastern Conference.

It didn't take long for the team's fortunes to change. After two seasons of putting the pieces together, the Tigers captured the SEC title in 2000 and went on to an appearance in the NCAA Tournament's Sweet 16. The Tigers returned to the post season in 2002 with a trip to the National Invitational Tournament. In the three years immediately preceeding Davis' arrival in Murfreesboro, LSU averaged 20-plus wins per season.

Davis said of his time with the Tigers, "I enjoyed five years at LSU working with a close friend and one of the outstanding coaches in college basketball in John Brady."

Prior to coming to LSU, Davis spent one season as the head coach at the University of Idaho. However, his stint with the Vandals was his second tour of duty in Moscow. He also served as the school's head coach from 1988-1990. During his three years as the head coach at Idaho, he compiled a record of 63-29, the best three-year total in the program's history. Davis posted two of the best single season tallies in school history during his first two seasons at Idaho as well, turning in 25-6 marks in both of those seasons.

His Idaho squad won the Big Sky championship in 1989 and went on to capture the league's tournament crown and a berth into the NCAA Tournament as well. For his efforts Davis was named the Big Sky Coach of the Year at the conclusion of the season.

History repeated itself in 1990 when Davis once again led the Vandals to the Big Sky title in both the regular season and tournament, garnering another NCAA berth.

In fact, Davis himself made history when he became the Vandals' head coach in 1988. Upon his hiring, Davis became the youngest Division I head coach in the nation at age 28.

However, it was not the first time that Davis had been the youngest coach in the country. When Davis took the head coaching position at Southwest Mississippi Junior College in 1984, he became the youngest junior college coach in the nation at age 24. His youth served him well at Southwest Mississippi, putting together a 39-20 record in two seasons. His 1986 squad won 22 games, posting the school's first 20-win season in 17 years.

His success at the junior college level landed him a spot on Tim Floyd's staff at Idaho, where he served as an assistant for two years prior to taking the reigns of the Vandal program.

After spending the 1988-89 and 1989-90 seasons at Idaho, Davis went on to become the head coach at Texas A&M for the 1990-91 campaign.

From Texas A&M, Davis moved to serve as the associate head coach at Chipola Junior College for two seasons before ascending to the top spot for the 1993-94 campaign.

During his season as the team's head coach, Chipola finished the season ranked #4 in the national polls and posted a 27-5 record, giving the team the second-most wins in school history.

Davis headed to Utah State as the team's associate head coach from 1994-96. At Utah State, Davis coached under current Iowa State head coach Larry Eustachy and the pair combined to win the Big West Championship in 1995.

His Utah State tenure ended with his return to Idaho as the Vandals' head coach and the rest is history.

Davis' rapid ascent up the coaching ladder is no coincidence. Davis has been around the game for his entire life as he grew up watching one of the preeminent coaches in the country operate on a daily basis.

Kermit Davis, Sr., Davis' father, was one of the most respected college coaches in the nation and the younger Davis spent many hours around his dad in the gym and even on the bench during games.

Upon the completion of his playing career, Davis began his coaching career at his alma mater. He served as a graduate assistant on Bob Boyd's staff at Mississippi State from 1982-84.

Davis earned his bachelor's degree from Mississippi State in 1982 and went on to receive his master's degree from Mississippi State in 1984.

Davis, a native of Leakesville, Miss., and his wife Betty have two daughters, Ally (14) and Claire (10).
