MIDDLE TENNESSEE

SOCCER GAME NOTES ■ SEPTEMBER 25, 2001 ■ VS. MURRAY STATE

THIS WEEK FOR THE BLUE RAIDERS ...

The Middle Tennessee Blue Raiders continue a school-record long five-game homestand when the Murray State Racers visit Blue Raider Soccer Field at 4 p.m. Tuesday. The match will be the final tune-up before the Blue Raiders begin Sun Belt action Friday of this week against Florida International.

MT hosts the Murray State Racers Tuesday afternoon at the Blue Raider Soccer Field on the MT campus. The Blue Raiders and Murray State have met just once previously, with MT taking a 3-0 victory on October 14, 2000. In that match, Megan Holsten assisted on the game's first goal in the fifth minute of action, and Sheri Robbins added MT's second goal just after halftime on the road against the Racers.

MT split a pair of matches over the weekend, defeating SEC foe Alabama, 2-1, on Saturday. Lisa Langrish got the Blue Raiders on the board, converting a penalty kick in the 29th minute. MT held a 2-0 halftime lead after Emily Carter scored her first goal of the season in the 39th minute. The Blue Raiders held off a late charge from the visiting Crimson Tide to take the victory, the program's first over an SEC opponent in six tries.

The Blue Raiders dropped Sunday's match to Eastern Illinois, 2-1, in a hard-fought struggle for both squads. EIU scored in the eighth minute of play and controlled most of the action for the match, but MT tied the score midway through the second half. Sophomore Lindsey Bopp, who tallied an assist in both games for the weekend, fed freshman Ashley Hicks with a cross and Hicks scored her first career goal. But the visiting Panthers netted the game-winner in the 81st minute to take the road victory.

MT TAKES OUT ALABAMA, 2-1

Middle Tennessee scored two first-half goals and hung on for a 2-1 victory over Alabama in soccer action Saturday afternoon at Blue Raider Soccer Field.

The Blue Raiders got on the board first when Alabama's Dawn Battle fouled Megan McGregor in the box. MT's Lisa Langrish took the penalty kick and placed it in the lower right corner, past UA keeper Courtney Rogers for a 1-0 Blue Raider lead in the 29th minute.

MT took a 2-0 advantage to halftime when midfielder Emily Carter received a pass from Lindsey Bopp and chipped a ball from just outside the 18-yard box over the head of Rogers for Carter's first goal of the campaign in the 39th minute.

The visiting Crimson Tide came out after intermission determined to make it a match, attacking from the kickoff. Alabama finally cracked the scoreboard in the 68th minute when Katie French broke free along the left side and chipped a ball over MT goalie Emily Shrum's head, into the back of the net.

Alabama continued firing at Shrum, who had seven saves in the match, but the sophomore was up for the challenge. The Crimson Tide outshot the Blue Raiders, 21-14, in the match, including 12-9 in the second half.

Blue Raider Danielle LaDuke broke free just inside two minutes left in the match, but Rogers was able to knock the ball away. In the collision, LaDuke went down, causing a 35-minute delay. Rogers then went down on the ensuing MT corner kick, causing another five-minute delay before the final 1:48 could be played in the match.

The Crimson Tide had one last chance on a corner kick, but the Blue Raiders were able to clear the ball away to preserve the victory. The Blue Raiders started six freshmen and three sophomores in the match, their first contest since September 8.

BLUE RAIDERS DROP 2-1 DECISION TO EASTERN ILLINOIS

The Blue Raiders knotted the game at one in the second half but watched the visiting Eastern Illinois Panthers net the game-winner in the final 10 minutes of the match to take a 2-1 victory

Sunday afternoon at Blue Raider Soccer Field.

The Panthers controlled the action in the first half for the entire 45 minutes, and scored early to take the momentum. Devon Bissell fed a long ball into the box to Beth Liesen, who beat her defender and found the back of the net in the eighth minute of the match. EIU had just six shots in the opening half, but made them count to take the 1-0 lead into halftime.

The Blue Raiders went more on the offensive in the second half, continuing to pepper the net with shots, 19 in the match with 11 after the intermission. MT tied the contest at one in the 64th minute when sophomore Lindsey Bopp crossed the ball into the six-yard box to freshman Ashley Hicks, who netted her first career goal.

Both squads had ample opportunities in the remaining 25 minutes, but it was the Panthers who were able to find the back of the net with a game-winner. Again Bissell fed a long ball into the box, this one on a restart near midfield, and after a short scramble in front of the net, Liesen flicked the ball into the upper corner of the net for a 2-1 lead in the 81st minute.

The Blue Raiders outshot EIU, 19-16, in the match, and MT goalie Emily Shrum kept her squad in the match with seven saves, her second straight match with seven saves. But the keeper combination of Lindsay Dechert and Lynne Goehler gave the Panthers the victory.

"We played well in spurts today," MT head coach Scott Ginn said. "We played much better in the second half than the first, and many of our youngsters played quality minutes. We just need to do a better job of finishing our chances and cut out the lapses we have on defense."

FOUR BLUE RAIDERS RANK NEAR TOP IN SUN BELT STATISTICS

Four Blue Raider players rank in the Top 10 in Sun Belt Individual Statistics this week, with freshman Danielle LaDuke in the Top 5 in three categories.

LaDuke stands fourth heading into Tuesday's match against Murray State in shots per game and tied for fourth in goals per game. She also is tied for fifth in points per game at 1.33 per game.

Redshirt sophomore Megan McGregor appears in the conference stats for the first time this season, ranking sixth in the league in shots per game. Fellow sophomore Lindsey Bopp also appears for the first time this year, standing tied for third with teammate Laura Miguez and two others in assists per game. Freshman Lisa Langrish ranks ninth in the SBC in goals per game.

Keeper Emily Shrum stands second in the conference this week in saves per game with 5.60. The sophomore from Hendersonville, Tenn., had seven saves in both matches this past weekend against Alabama and Eastern Illinois.

NEWS AND NOTES...

- With the 1-0 defeat to Southern Miss, the Blue Raiders dropped to 2-4 all-time in season-openers, including 1-2 on the road. Second-year head coach Scott Ginn dropped his second straight season-opener after MT lost 3-0 to St. Louis to begin the 2000 campaign.
- All six season-openers in MT soccer history have been shutouts.
- The Blue Raiders began the 2001 season with their longest road swing to begin a campaign in the school's six-year history, two matches. MT has never begun a season with more than one game away from Murfreesboro before the home opener.
- The shutout against Southern Miss was the first shutout against MT since a 2-0 loss at Southeast Missouri on October 21 of last season, a span of four matches.
- The 3-2 victory over UT Martin improved the Blue Raiders all-time record to 5-0 against the Skyhawks, including 2-0 on the road.
- Freshman Danielle LaDuke's two goals against UT Martin was the first time since October 23, 2000, that an MT player scored twice in a match. Freshman Jenny Cox had two goals in a 4-2 win over Arkansas State on that day.
- The two assists from Laura Miguez against UT Martin marked the first time since Allison Schulz had a pair of assists against East Tennessee on October 29, 2000, that an MT player had two assists in a match. It marked the first time since Jenny Cox had two assists versus Louisiana-Lafayette (10/15/00) that a freshmen had a hand in a pair of goals for the Blue Raiders.
- The 2-1 defeat to Jacksonville State dropped the Blue Raiders to 1-4-1 in home openers in the six-year history of the program. MT's only win came against Tennessee Tech to begin the 1999 campaign.
- Six of the seven goals scored by MT this season have come from new players to the squad. Freshmen Danielle LaDuke and Lisa Langrish have each contributed two goals, while redshirt sophomore Megan McGregor, who sat out last season after tearing her ACL during the summer, and freshman Ashley Hicks have each scored once.
- After terrorist bombings in New York and Washington, D.C., on September 11 caused the sporting world to shut down for a week, the Blue Raiders scheduled matches at Appalachian State and East Tennessee were canceled. The two matches were the fourth and fifth lost for the season by MT after a two-game road trip was canceled before the season and rain caused the cancellation of another match on opening weekend at the Southern Miss Tournament.
- Saturday's 2-1 victory over Alabama was the first for the Blue Raiders over an SEC opponent in the five-plus seasons of soccer at MT.

● Sophomore Lindsey Bopp assisted on a goal against both Alabama and Eastern Illinois, the first two assists of her career.

● With the added games this past weekend, the Blue Raiders are in the midst of a five-game homestand, the longest in school history. The longest previous stretch of home matches for MT was four, which has happened twice (1997, '99).

● A youth movement is definitely in effect for the Blue Raiders. Six freshmen and three sophomores started in the win over Alabama, while five freshmen and four sophomores started versus Eastern Illinois. For the weekend 11 freshmen saw action in the two contests.

● Freshman Danielle LaDuke injured her right leg near the end of the match Saturday versus Alabama. The injury caused a 35-minute delay in the match while emergency personnel stabilized what they thought was a broken femur. LaDuke was later given better news that she only bruised a nerve on the outside of her right knee, which caused her to lose feeling in the top of her leg.

GINN RAISES FITNESS LEVEL

Second-year head coach Scott Ginn instituted a fitness test for all players beginning this season, a grueling set of four short and four long runs. All eight drills have a time requirement, and no player shall receive a game jersey until the entire set is passed at one testing.

Heading into the opening weekend of play, 24 of MT's 26 players have passed the test, far ahead of Ginn's wildest expectations, especially with so many new faces in this year's program.

MT PICKED FIFTH BY LEAGUE COACHES

The Middle Tennessee soccer team was chosen fifth in the 2001 Sun Belt Preseason Women's Soccer Poll announced last week by the league office, as voted on by league coaches.

Florida International is expected to pick up where it left off in Sun Belt Conference competition last season. The Golden Panthers were picked first, collecting 71 points and six first-place votes from the league's head coaches to edge out the Denver Pioneers in second place. North Texas was picked third, followed by South Alabama, Middle Tennessee and Arkansas State. Three new programs round out the poll - second-year program Arkansas-Little Rock and first-year program Western Kentucky tied for seventh place, with second-year program Louisiana-Lafayette picked ninth. 2001 will be the second season of championship women's soccer competition in the Sun Belt Conference.

The 2001 Sun Belt Conference Women's Soccer Championship Tournament will be Oct. 31-Nov. 3 at University Park on the campus of Florida International University in Miami.

Head coach Scott Ginn begins his second season at Middle Tennessee after serving four years as head coach at Barton College in Wilson, N.C.

Ginn became the second head coach at Middle Tennessee, inheriting a team that posted 10 wins the previous season and 30 victories in the program's four-year history. His first season at the helm of the MT program brought an 8-11-0 overall record, 3-4 in the Sun Belt Conference. The 2000 season marked the first year that Middle Tennessee competed in the Sun Belt in all sports, and for the soccer program it meant a step up in competition, now facing quality programs such as South Alabama, North Texas, Florida Interntational and Denver.

The 2000 squad had just four seniors and put together a three-match winning streak midway through the year before falling to Denver in the first round of the Sun Belt Tournament in Mobile, Ala. This year's squad returns eight starters and 10 letterwinners from last year's unit, and will feature 15 newcomers to the program.

Ginn posted a four-year record of 39-35-1 at Barton, and led the Bulldogs to several school records during his tenure, including wins in a season and winning percentage in a season.

During his final campaign at Barton, he led the Bulldogs to a 9-8-1 overall record with a 7-3-1 mark in the Carolinas-Virginia Athletics Conference. Ginn's charges ended their season on penalty kicks in the quarterfinals of the CVAC tournament after a 0-0 score could not determine the outcome of the game.

Ginn was a four-year letterman for the Barton men's team, serving as captain during his senior season of 1989. He went on to serve as an assistant coach for the men's team for the two seasons following his graduation.

Following his stint as an assistant at Barton, Ginn took on duties as a clinician and coach for the Stone Mountain Youth Soccer Association and assistant coach for the women's program at Berry College in Rome, Ga.

During his stay in Georgia, he led his 1993 U18 boys team to a second-place finish in the State Championships, and Berry College advanced to the NAIA national tournament after holding a ranking for the entire season.

Ginn continues to increase his knowledge base by being active in camps across the country. He has worked the All-Star Soccer Camp, Hall of Fame Soccer Camp, University of Florida Soccer Camp, and the Greensboro Dynamo Soccer Camp.

Interestingly enough, Ginn learned the game while living in Paraguay where his parents were missionaries for many years.

Prior to his college days, Ginn had already completed a four-year stint in the US Army. Ginn was a member of the 82nd Airborne Division from 1981-1985.

Ginn holds an "A" license from the United States Soccer Federation and an Advanced National Diploma from the National Soccer Coaches Association of America.

Ginn recently completed his master's degree in sports administration from East Carolina Univ.
