Q & A With Freshman Forward Laura Miguez

Q. In your first couple of months as a Blue Raider, what has been your best experience?
A. My best experience since I've gotten here has been meeting all the new girls on the team and bonding with new people. It's been fun meeting girls from all over the United States and remembering playing against some of them in past games and tournaments. Everyone here is really friendly and helps each other out a lot, especially cooking. My roommate and I [Danielle LaDuke] have cooked meals every once in a while.

Q. What has been the biggest adjustment to the college soccer game?
A. I think right now the hardest thing for me has been playing a totally new position. Since I was 11 years old I had been playing outside defender. I had an idea that I might be playing outside midfielder this year, but I really wasn't expecting to be playing forward. I keep trying to think of the things that forwards did that beat me as a defender to try and outsmart the other team now. I'm on the other side of the spectrum, instead of pushing the forwards around I'm the one trying to be pushed around. I love it, and I really was open to playing any position they needed me to as long as I was contributing something to the team.

Q. With so many newcomers like yourself, how has the adjustment to your teammates been?
A. It's been hard for everyone to gel together as a unit because of the fact that half of us have never played together before. Things like that can only come with time and I think every day we are getting closer and playing better together. The upperclassmen have really tried to make us feel like we belong and it helps so much. In order to be successful and play at the highest level, you have to trust each and every one of your teammates.

Q. Why did you choose MT and what are your feelings playing so far from home?
A. I decided to come to MT because I loved the school and the girls were so close, almost like sisters, and if I was going to be this far away from home, I was going to need close friends. I miss my family a lot, but I'm having a great time here and the girls on the team have become my second family and made the adjustment a lot easier.

Q. Is there any one thing you can point to that has caused the team to play so much better in the last three weeks?
A. The one thing that has made this team step up our level of play is the fact that we are bonding and finally putting those last pieces of the puzzle together. At the beginning of the season we all new what a talented team we were capable of being, it was just a matter of figuring out each player's style of play and making adjustments. We were just missing one link that was throwing our game off and I think now we've finally filled in the gaps. We are communicating better on the field and everyone, including many of the freshmen, have stepped up to be leaders, and that makes a big difference.

Q. What are your feelings on the midseason adjustment from midfielder to forward?
A. It's a lot different from any position I've ever played before, but I like it a lot. I'm just trying to get used to the new position right now, and my teammates have helped direct me on what I'm supposed to do when certain things happen, and they have really helped me out a lot. Everyone has been really patient with me up top and supportive even when I make mistakes. I like the position a lot because you have to be more creative and you have more space to make things happen. It's difficult to adjust to new positions, but everyone that's been moved around has really given a great effort and elevated their level of play.
