Gameday Information

When:	Jan. 11, 2003 (7 PM)
Site:	Alltel Arena (10,563); Little Rock, AR
TV:	None
Radio:	WBOZ FM 104.9 & WMOT FM 89.5 (Dick Palmer & Jan Stauffer)
Series:	Series Tied 4-4
Last Meeting:	UALR 71, MT 52 (2/9/02)
Notes:	The Blue Raiders are completing a two-game swing through Arkansas tonight ... Tonight's game will break a 4-4 tie in the series ... MT has never won in Alltel arena and has only won one game in Little Rock in three tries.

MT vs. UALR

Middle Tennessee and Arkansas-Little Rock have met only eight times in basketball competition, with each team having won four times. The Blue Raiders and Trojans split the season series last year, with each team winning at home. Tonight, Middle Tennessee is looking for its first win in Little Rock since defeating the Trojans 61-60 here during the 1991-92 campaign. UALR took last year's contest in Alltel Arena 71-52.

MT Gets Road Win at ASU

The Blue Raiders got a big road win at Arkansas State on Thursday night, giving the squad its second-ever road win in the Sun Belt. Prior to the ASU game, Middle Tennessee's last league road win came at New Orleans on Dec. 30, 2001. The Blue Raiders are now 1-5 in road games this season. The team's only other win away from home came against IUPUI on a neutral court at Purdue.

Pippen Doubles Up ... Again

Senior William Pippen, playing in his home state of Arkansas, turned in his second straight double-double effort with 13 points and a career high 11 rebounds against Arkansas State on Thursday. The performance marked the third double-double in the Hamburg native's career, all of which have come this season. For good measure, Pippen also added a career best three blocks in the game. Pippen now ranks as the Blue Raiders top rebounder at 6.3 per game and is second in scoring with a 14.1 average. In conference play, however, Pippen is posting 17 points and 10.5 boards per contest.

Off to Hot League Start

Middle Tennessee is off to its best start in the Sun Belt with a perfect 2-0 record. The Blue Raiders had started each of their first two seasons with a 1-1 mark, losing their first SBC game on each occasion. Middle Tennessee's hot start in conference play is the best since the Blue Raiders were 2-0 in the Ohio Valley Conference to get the 1998-99 campaign underway.

Gunn Getting it Done

Junior Tommy Gunn continues to prove why he is one of the Sun Belt's top shooting guards. The Syracuse, NY, native netted 21 points against Arkansas State on Thursday night to lead all scorers. It was the third time this season that Gunn has posted 20 or more points. Gunn's play has elevated even more during the first two conference tilts. He is averaging 19.0 points and 4.5 rebounds during this stretch.

Media Information

Blue Raiders on Radio

✍ All Blue Raider basketball games can be heard on WBOZ FM 104.9 in Rutherford and Cannon counties and all across middle Tennessee on WMOT FM 89.5. WBOZ will be carrying Blue Raider basketball for the fourth straight season, while WMOT is back on board for the fourth straight year. Dick Palmer is in his 21st season as the Blue Raiders' play-by-play announcer, while Jan Stauffer is handling the color commentary for the 11th straight year. MT Marketing and Promotions director, Chip Walters, will be handling all postgame interviews.

Davis Radio Show

✍ Coach Kermit Davis' weekly radio show airs each week from Toot's Restaurant in Murfreesboro. The show will be aired on WBOZ 104.9 FM. The show, which is slated to start in January, is hosted by Chip Walters.

Davis Television Show

✍ Coach Kermit Davis' television show is aired each week on Comcast Sports Southeast. Davis and Chip Walters will review the previous week with commentary and highlights as well as preview the week ahead. The Davis show is also aired each week on MTTV Cable 10 Rutherford County.

Interview Protocol

✍ After a 10-minute cooling off period, requested players and head coach Kermit Davis will be available for members of the media The Blue Raider locker room is CLOSED both at home and on the road. At home, the interview area is located just off the northwest corner of the playing floor. On the road, requested players and Coach Davis will be brought to an area designated by the home team, or just outside the Blue Raiders' locker room facility. Player requests should be directed to assistant media relations director Ryan Simmons.

Gameday Media Services

✍ Pregame packets including notes, statistics, and programs will be available upon arrival. Statistics will be provided thoughout the game via courtside monitors. Final statistics, including a running play-by-play, postgame notes, and quotes will be made available immediately following the game. A phone line and fax machine is available in the media relations office for media use. Any other services required should be requested in advance.

Playing D in the League

Head Coach Kermit Davis has preached defense and rebounding since his arrival in Murfreesboro and his words seem to be taking root in the Blue Raiders. In their two Sun Belt games this season, the Blue Raiders are limiting the opposition to 36.5 percent shooting from the field while shooting a healthy 51.0 themselves. The team has also hit the boards hard, snaring an average of 35.8 boards in league play, while the opposition is pulling down 29.0 per game.

Pippen is SBC Player of the Week

Senior William Pippen garnered the second Sun Belt Player of the Week award of his career with his selection on Jan. 6. Pippen was honored for his performance during the Murray State and Western Kentucky games. He scored 21 points and pulled down 10 rebounds in the upset win over the Hilltoppers, putting him over the top for the award. Pippen averaged 13.5 points and 8.5 rebounds over this two-game stretch.

Glasper's Season Likely Over

Redshirt junior Derek Glasper has undergone successful ankle surgery and is likely through for the remainder of the season. The surgery is the second setback in Glasper's career, as he suffered a knee injury and subsequent surgery that limited him to only two games a year ago. This season, Glasper saw action in five games after sustaining a severe ankle sprain in the preseason that kept him out of action for the first five games of the year.

Next Up for MT

The Arkansas swing continues for Middle Tennessee on Saturday as the Blue Raiders travel to Little Rock to take on UALR. The Blue Raiders will then return home for conference action next weekend as South Alabama visits the Murphy Center on Thursday and New Orleans comes calling on Saturday.

Briefly ...

William Pippen has led the Blue Raiders in rebounding in eight straight games ... The starting combination of Keith Connor, Tommy Gunn, John Humphrey, William Pippen, and Napoleon Rhodes is the most successful of the year at 4-2 ... MT's win at Arkansas State is the first of the year in which it shot less than 50 percent ... Tommy Gunn is only four points away from 800 in his career ...

Davis Reaches Milestone

Head Coach Kermit Davis picked up a milestone win in his career with the Blue Raiders comeback win over Kennesaw State. The victory is the 75th for Davis as a Division I head coach. He now owns an overall record of 77-57 (.575) as a DI bench boss. Davis' overall record is now 143-83, including his junior college coaching career.

Rivalries Continue

Of Middle Tennessee's 10 most extensive rivalries, the top four have found their way onto the Blue Raiders' schedule this season. The Blue Raiders came into the season having played 506 combined games against Tennessee Tech, Murray State, Austin Peay, and Western Kentucky through the years. The Golden Eagles hold the distinction of being the longest-standing of these series at 140 games. MT has played Murray State 133 times, Austin Peay 130 times, and Western Kentucky 103 times. These games make up 28.7 percent of the 1,762 games Middle Tennessee had played coming into this season.

Anniversary Season

Middle Tennessee celebrates 30 years of games inside the Murphy Center this season. The building opened with a game against Vanderbilt on Dec. 11, 1972. Since the Murphy Center opened, the Blue Raiders have compiled an overall record of 317-107, for a winning percentage of 74.8. The Blue Raiders have averaged 10.8 wins per season on the Monte Hale Arena playing floor. Middle Tennessee will hold its official celebration this year on Jan. 4 when Western Kentucky visits Murfreesboro.

Notable

Of the 23 possible opponents on this year's schedule, 13 have played MT five times or less and four have played MT 100 times or more.

The Blue Raiders' appearance in the Boilermaker Invitational this season marks the first such appearance since playing in the San Juan Shootout in the 1998-99 season.

Former OVC foes Tennessee Tech, Murray State, and Austin Peay are on the Blue Raider schedule for the first time since 1999-00.

Seven players on MT's roster began the season with less than 30 games of playing experience.

Kermit Davis is one of only two new coaches in the Sun Belt this season. John Pelphrey at South Alabama is the other.

Middle Tennessee is 43-29 all-time in overtime games (2-1 in double OT). The Blue Raiders are 8-5 in its last 13 overtime games.

The Blue Raiders have hit at least one three-pointer in 200 straight games. The last time MT failed to hit a shot from behind the arc was Jan. 20, 1996 at Morehead State.

Gunn Takes SBC Honor

Junior guard Tommy Gunn was named Third Team All-Sun Belt in the league's preseason awards presentation during October. Gunn, who averaged 12.5 points per contest as a sophomore, was named Honorable Mention All-SBC at the conclusion of last season.

Blue Raiders Picked Fourth

The Sun Belt Conference's coaches chose the Blue Raiders fourth in the East Division in the preseason coaches poll. The coaches predicted that Western Kentucky would win the division, followed by Arkansas-Little Rock and Florida International. Arkansas State rounded out the poll in fifth place in the East.

Kermit Davis

Head Coach ✍Mississippi State, 1982 ✍First Season ✍6-8 (.429)

The objective was clear when Middle Tennessee athletic director Boots Donnelly set out to hire the school's 19th men's basketball coach – find the person that could lead the program back to its past glory and once again contend for conference titles and NCAA appearances.

On April 12, 2002, Donnelly introduced Kermit Davis, Jr., as the man to do just that.

"I wanted to bring someone in here that wanted to be here, not just to be a head coach, but who wanted to take over our program," Donnelly stated. "I wanted a person that believed very, very strongly in discipline, because that's the process that gets it all started. I wanted a heck of a recruiter, and I also wanted a teacher. I think we fulfilled every one of those things with Kemit Davis, Jr."

Davis brings the credentials that Donnelly was seeking along with him to Middle Tennessee. He has shown throughout his career the ability to rebuild programs and put them on the national map in a hurry. He has displayed success at every stop along his career track and has done so with a hard-nosed style of defense, uptempo offensive play, and a work ethic that is second-to-none.

"One thing our team will do is play with a great deal of energy," Davis stated. "We would like to play a hard-nosed, aggressive style that our fans will enjoy watching night in and night out. We're going to share and value the basketball, rebound on both ends, and attempt to get a quality shot on each possession."

Davis' strategic knowledge isn't his only weapon in building a competitive program. The Blue Raider skipper has long been known as an outstanding recruiter that is willing to go after the nation's top talent. His recruits value character, have a high level of toughness, and have a desire to obtain a college degree. He is committed to landing the state's top prospects as well as reaching out to the best players in the region and in the country.

"Our state has produced some outstanding players over the years, and we are going to be very aggressive in our approach to keeping those players at home," said Davis. "The quality of high school and junior college coaching in our state is excellent and we would like to be an extension of the parents and the coach when those student-athletes come to our campus."

Davis comes to Middle Tennessee after spending the past five seasons as the associate head coach at Louisiana State University under head coach John Brady. Prior to Davis' arrival with Brady at LSU, the Tigers had been languishing near the bottom of the Southeastern Conference.

It didn't take long for the team's fortunes to change. After two seasons of putting the pieces together, the Tigers captured the SEC title in 2000 and went on to an appearance in the NCAA Tournament's Sweet 16. The Tigers returned to the post season in 2002 with a trip to the National Invitational Tournament. In the three years immediately preceeding Davis' arrival in Murfreesboro, LSU averaged 20-plus wins per season.

Davis said of his time with the Tigers, "I enjoyed five years at LSU working with a close friend and one of the outstanding coaches in college basketball in John Brady."

Prior to coming to LSU, Davis spent one season as the head coach at the University of Idaho. However, his stint with the Vandals was his second tour of duty in Moscow. He also served as the school's head coach from 1988-1990. During his three years as the head coach at Idaho, he compiled a record of 63-29, the best three-year total in the program's history. Davis posted two of the best single season tallies in school history during his first two seasons at Idaho as well, turning in 25-6 marks in both of those seasons.

His Idaho squad won the Big Sky championship in 1989 and went on to capture the league's tournament crown and a berth into the NCAA Tournament as well. For his efforts Davis was named the Big Sky Coach of the Year at the conclusion of the season.

History repeated itself in 1990 when Davis once again led the Vandals to the Big Sky title in both the regular season and tournament, garnering another NCAA berth.

In fact, Davis himself made history when he became the Vandals' head coach in 1988. Upon his hiring, Davis became the youngest Division I head coach in the nation at age 28.

However, it was not the first time that Davis had been the youngest coach in the country. When Davis took the head coaching position at Southwest Mississippi Junior College in 1984, he became the youngest junior college coach in the nation at age 24. His youth served him well at Southwest Mississippi, putting together a 39-20 record in two seasons. His 1986 squad won 22 games, posting the school's first 20-win season in 17 years.

His success at the junior college level landed him a spot on Tim Floyd's staff at Idaho, where he served as an assistant for two years prior to taking the reigns of the Vandal program.

After spending the 1988-89 and 1989-90 seasons at Idaho, Davis went on to become the head coach at Texas A&M for the 1990-91 campaign.

From Texas A&M, Davis moved to serve as the associate head coach at Chipola Junior College for two seasons before ascending to the top spot for the 1993-94 campaign.

During his season as the team's head coach, Chipola finished the season ranked #4 in the national polls and posted a 27-5 record, giving the team the second-most wins in school history.

Davis headed to Utah State as the team's associate head coach from 1994-96. At Utah State, Davis coached under current Iowa State head coach Larry Eustachy and the pair combined to win the Big West Championship in 1995.

His Utah State tenure ended with his return to Idaho as the Vandals' head coach and the rest is history.

Davis' rapid ascent up the coaching ladder is no coincidence. Davis has been around the game for his entire life as he grew up watching one of the preeminent coaches in the country operate on a daily basis.

Kermit Davis, Sr., Davis' father, was one of the most respected college coaches in the nation and the younger Davis spent many hours around his dad in the gym and even on the bench during games.

Upon the completion of his playing career, Davis began his coaching career at his alma mater. He served as a graduate assistant on Bob Boyd's staff at Mississippi State from 1982-84.

Davis earned his bachelor's degree from Mississippi State in 1982 and went on to receive his master's degree from Mississippi State in 1984.

Davis, a native of Leakesville, Miss., and his wife Betty have two daughters, Ally (14) and Claire (10).

Noting Davis
