2002 Blue Raider Soccer

Blue Raiders (1-2) vs. Southern Miss/Drury (1-2/0-2)

SOCCER GAME NOTES ✍ SEPTEMBER 6, 2002

THIS WEEK FOR THE BLUE RAIDERS ...

Middle Tennessee opens the home schedule Friday with a 4 p.m. match against the Golden Eagles of Southern Miss at the Blue Raider Soccer Field. Middle Tennessee will also host Drury at 1 p.m. Sunday.

The Blue Raiders lost at Southern Miss in last year's season-opener, with USM scoring the only goal midway through the second half on a penalty kick in a match played on a very wet turf in the drizzle in Hattiesburg. The Golden Eagles enter the contest 1-2 on the season, same as the Blue Raiders, after picking up their first win at Mississippi State, 3-2, on Tuesday night.

Middle Tennessee and Drury have met twice previously, with both squads winning once. The Panthers took a 6-0 decision at home in 1998, and the Blue Raiders picked up a 1-0 victory at home in 2000. Drury plays host to Oklahoma Friday night before traveling to Murfreesboro for Sunday's tilt.

Three Blue Raiders will be gametime decisions this weekend as far as health. Senior Sheri Robbins and junior Emily Carter both have high ankle sprains, and junior Christina Mascaro sprained the MCL in right knee.

BLUE RAIDERS POST 4-1 WIN

Middle Tennessee scored twice in the first half and added two more goals late in the second half to post a 4-1 victory over Lipscomb Tuesday night.

The Blue Raiders played almost the entire first half on their offensive end of the field, outshooting LU, 13-1, in the opening 45 minutes. Emily Carter had the best shot in the first 15 minutes, hitting a left-footer that Lipscomb keeper Jennifer Brittingham saved.

But the Blue Raiders continued applying pressure early and often, and it paid off in the 17th minute when Christina Mascaro crossed into the box and Sarah Linder found the back of the net for the first goal of the season for Middle Tennessee.

Little more than a minute-and-a-half later, Laura Miguez crossed a hard, low ball to the back post that Emily Carter directed into the net for a 2-0 Blue Raider advantage.

Middle Tennessee controlled the ball the opening 10 minutes of the second half, but Lipscomb penetrated the Blue Raider defense in the 58th minute and cut the deficit in half. Kelley Wade got the score for the Lady Bisons, redirecting a bouncing ball in the six-yard box for a 2-1 Middle Tennessee lead.

But the Blue Raiders rebounded and took control of the match again 15 minutes later, as Jenny Cox fed Megan McGregor across the field and McGregor sailed a high shot from 30 yards into the back of the net for a 3-1 Blue Raider lead.

Freshman Brooke Ward tallied the final score for Middle Tennessee in the 84th minute. Cox took a shot from the top of the 18-yard box that was blocked. Ward pounced on it and fired it into the net for the 4-1 final score.

The Blue Raiders picked up their first win of the season and outshot the homestanding Lady Bisons, 26-5, in the match. But head coach Aston Rhoden knows his team must continue to improve and finish scoring opportunities.

"We played better and moved the ball around a lot more," Rhoden said. "We created many scoring opportunities, but we have to get better production from our forwards. Three midfielders and one defender scored for us tonight, and we need our forwards to be able to finish their chances, because they are getting them."

Senior Sheri Robbins had her 61-consecutive match playing streak snapped because of a high ankle sprain.

SOCCER LOSES 1-0 AT EASTERN ILLINOIS

Middle Tennessee dropped another 1-0 decision, this one at Eastern Illinois, as the Panthers scored in the first half and staved off the Blue Raiders to take the victory.

EIU's Rebecca Traen netted the only score of the match in the 30th minute on an assist from Kim Garkie, as Traen slid the ball past Middle Tennessee keeper Emily Shrum. Shrum made five saves in the first half before giving way to freshman Danielle Perreault in the second half. Eastern Illinois also missed a penalty kick in the second half.

The Blue Raiders had opportunities but could not convert, as Danielle LaDuke hit the post once and the team was called offsides after scoring a goal in the second half. A foul in the box on EIU was also called late in the second half, but the Blue Raiders were awarded an indirect free kick about seven yards from the net.

"We played much better today than Friday," head coach Aston Rhoden said. "We did a much better job of controlling the ball and the match, but unfortunately we weren't able to come out with a victory."

Emily Carter had five of Middle Tennessee's 13 shots in the match, while Laura Miguez added three. EIU outshot the Blue Raiders, 16-13 in the match.

The 0-2 start for Middle Tennessee is the first such start since the squad lost to Belmont and Eastern Illinois to begin the 1998 campaign.

BLUE RAIDERS DROP SEASON-OPENER 1-0 AT SMS

Middle Tennessee dropped a 1-0 decision to homestanding Southwest Missouri State in the season-opener for both squads in Springfield, Mo., with the Bears netting the match's only score in the 70th minute.

The Blue Raiders played an aggressive match, committing 16 fouls to eight for SMS, but the Bears outshot Middle Tennessee, 22-15, and had seven corners to five for the Blue Raiders.

Christel Poague netted the game-winner on an assist from Mary Litvan at 69:18 of the match for SMS. Middle Tennessee keeper Emily Shrum suffered the loss despite a career-high 11 saves on the night, seven in the second half. Alexis Stormo made eight saves for SMS to pick up the victory in goal.

Emily Carter had six shots, four on goal, and Christina Mascaro added four shots off the bench to lead Middle Tennessee's offensive attack, which started two true freshmen, defender Sarah Schmidt and Murfreesboro native Brooke Ward.

"We didn't play bad for our first game, but we probably should have won," MT head coach Aston Rhoden said. "We played hard but things didn't go our way. We tried a lot of different things to figure out good combinations. We didn't finish some opportunities we had and that was the difference."

NEWS AND NOTES...

✍ Senior Sarah Schulz did not play in the first two matches of the season for the Blue Raiders after missing some of the preseason due to illness, ending her 59-consecutive match playing streak.

✍ Senior Sheri Robbins ended her 61-consecutive match playing streak Tuesday night at Robbins when the defender missed the match due to a high ankle sprain.

✍ Junior Emily Carter's goal at Lipscomb Tuesday night moved her into a tie for third on the career points and goals list at Middle Tennessee. Carter has 30 career points, tying her with teammate Sheri Robbins on the points list. The Evansville, Ind., native has 13 career goals, tying her with Robbins and sophomore Danielle LaDuke on the goals list.

✍ Junior Jenny Cox picked up an assist on the third Blue Raider goal at Lipscomb Tuesday night, moving her into a tie for third with Shannon Broadwell and Hailee Walsh on the career assists list with eight.

✍ Sophomore Laura Miguez moved into second place on the career assist list with her assist Tuesday night at Lipscomb. Miguez trails senior Sarah Schulz by eight assists for tops on the career chart.

✍ With the 1-0 defeat at Southwest Missouri State on August 30, the Blue Raiders dropped to 2-5 all-time in season-openers, including 1-3 on the road.

✍ All seven season-openers in MT soccer history have been shutouts.

ROAD WARRIORS IN 2002

The Blue Raiders begin the 2002 season with three straight road games and eight of their first 11 away from home before finishing the campaign with six of the last nine matches at the Blue Raider Soccer Field. Included in the first 11 contests are matches at Southwest Missouri State, Eastern Illinois, Auburn, Alabama, and the conference opener against Florida International.

Last season's squad set a team-record with four road victories, ending the year 4-4 away from home. Middle Tennessee had never won more than three road matches in a season before 2001, winning three in four consecutive seasons from 1997-2000. The Blue Raiders ended the year with a 4-

3 road record in the regular season, the first winning road record in school history. The Blue Raiders set a school record last year by winning three straight road matches, defeating UT Martin (9/5), Arkansas-Little Rock (10/5) and Arkansas State (10/7).

YOUTH, NEWCOMERS A PLUS IN 2002

Once again the freshman class has shown considerable skill and knowledgable play during preseason camp, making playing time that much harder to come by for returning players.

Caroline McHugh, Sarah Schmidt and Brooke Ward have been the most impressive for the Blue Raiders in the eight-player freshman class, but all eight have shown flashes of consistency and skill in the weeks leading into the season opener. All three of the aforementioned entered camp in tremendous shape, and their play during two-a-days was evident of their offseason work.

Also, Megan Ziegler, Lindsay Estes and Melissa Wellman have grown more and more comfortable as preseason work has progressed. The other two freshmen, forward J'Keta Wilford and keeper Danielle Perreault, have shown tremendous skill in practice, but will find playing time hard to come by at their respective positions.

Three transfers have also made themselves right at home in the midfield for the Blue Raiders, as Christina Mascaro, Ashley Elliott and Melissa Funke have all helped the entire squad become more familiar with head coach Aston Rhoden's style of play. The trio played at North Alabama for Rhoden, with Mascaro and Funke logging two years in the system, and Elliott gaining playing time in 2001.

Ward and Schmidt have started the first three matches for the Blue Raiders, with Ward picking up her first goal of the season in the 4-1 win at Lipscomb on Tuesday. Wellman has started the last two matches, with Mascaro and McHugh picking up their first start at Lipscomb.

BLUE RAIDERS PICKED SIXTH IN COACHES POLL

The Sun Belt Conference women's soccer coaches have picked the University of Denver to win the Sun Belt Conference championship in 2002. In just the third year of league competition, the Sun Belt has crowned three different regular season champions - South Alabama and Florida International in 2000; and North Texas in 2001 - and two different tournament champions - FIU in 2000 and Denver in 2001.

Last season the Denver Pioneers, under 2001 Sun Belt Coach of the Year Jeff Hooker, became the first team to represent the league in the NCAA Women's Soccer National Tournament by earning an at-large bid. Denver welcomes back nine starters, including All-American defender Jamie Norwood and all-region goalkeeper Erica Izard. Norwood recorded a team-high nine assists, while pacing a defense that only allowed 13 goals last season. Izard is back for her final season in net after recording an impressive 14 shutouts last season. The Pioneers are ranked No. 7 in the 2002 Soccer Buzz Central Region preseason poll.

With the addition of an automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament, several teams will be pushing Denver for the top spot in the league. Perennial contenders North Texas and Florida International finished second and third in the preseason coaches poll.

With 10 starters returning, including Sun Belt Freshman of the Year Danielle LaDuke, and nine of the top 10 scorers from last season, the 2002 campaign begins with high expectations for Middle Tennessee and first-year head coach Aston Rhoden. LaDuke tied the Blue Raider record with 13 goals in 2001 and finished the season with 27 points, second-best single season record.

Middle Tennessee athletic director Boots Donnelly announced the hiring of Aston Rhoden as the Blue Raider soccer coach on February 4, 2002, as the third head coach in the program's history.

Rhoden comes to Middle Tennessee from North Alabama in Florence, Ala., where he served as the head coach for the past five seasons, compiling 39 wins during his tenure, including a pair of 11-win campaigns. He began the UNA program as a club team in 1996 before beginning varsity play the following season.

Rhoden was hired at UNA after serving as the staff coach for the Alabama Youth Soccer Association since 1993, and as an assistant soccer coach at Randolph High School. He also served as a volunteer assistant coach at Martin Methodist College in Pulaski, Tenn., and as the Director of Coaching for the Rocket City Kicks Soccer Club in Huntsville.

The Jamaica native received his bachelor's in Computer Science and Mathematics from the University of Alabama-Huntsville in 1989 and received a National "A" Coaching License from the United States Soccer Federation.

Rhoden played collegiately at Alabama-Huntsville, earning the Leadership Award in 1988 and was the school's Outstanding Student-Athlete for 1985-86. Following his four-year playing career at UAH, Rhoden served as a graduate teaching assistant at UAH for a year, and began coaching youth soccer teams in Huntsville in 1989.

In addition to his time at UAH, Rhoden's playing experience includes time on the Jamaican Youth National Team in 1980-81, playing on the Real Mona FC, Division I Major League team in Jamaica form 1981-84 and playing on the Shamrock FC, Division I Adult Soccer League team in Huntsville since 1990.
