Gameday Information

Site: Reese Smith Field (Murfreesboro, Tenn.)
TV: None
Radio: None
Notes: The Blue Raiders will open the season with six straight contests at Reese Smith Field, the first of 33 home games on the slate in 2003 ... The six-game homestand is the second longest to start a campaign under Steve Peterson for the Blue Raiders, topped only by a nine-game homestand to begin the 2001 season ... Middle Tennessee will take on Kansas, Rutgers and Kent State this weekend at home in single games beginning Friday afternoon.

Jaggers Has Career Opening Day

Sophomore Nate Jaggers provided all of the Blue Raiders offense in an opening day loss to Jacksonville State, belting a pair of home runs and driving in all five runs. Jaggers hit a three-run homer in the first to give his team an early lead, then drove in the final runs of the contest with a two-run blast in the ninth.

Kline Returns With a Bang

Steve Kline made his first appearance for Middle Tennessee in the first game of a doubleheader against Jacksonville State on Sunday, tossing a complete-game three-hitter in his return after sitting out the 2002 season with academic difficulties. Kline made his first start for the Blue Raiders since May 8, 2001, at Vanderbilt, and had his first appearance since May 26 versus Wake Forest in the NCAA Regional in Knoxville. The Murfreesboro native got his first win as a Blue Raider after compiling a 0-0 mark in 2001. He went a career-high seven innings, allowing two runs with four strikeouts and no walks.

Cooper Continues to Swing It

Senior shortstop Chad Cooper ended the 2002 season on a roll with an eight-game hitting streak and continues to swing a hot bat at the start of 2003. Cooper had his hitting streak snapped in the season-opener against Jacksonville State but rebounded with three hits in the Sunday doubleheader against the Gamecocks. The Picture Rocks, Pa., native leads the club with a .375 average heading into the weekend with a run and one RBI.

Scott, Campbell Out for Season

A pair of freshman Middle Tennessee baseball players have undergone season-ending surgery. Pitcher Matt Scott went under the knife in mid-January to repair a partially torn meniscus in his left knee. Scott first suffered the injury last March but continued to play through the high school and summer seasons and then again this fall at Middle Tennessee. Infielder Matt Campbell also played through the fall with a shoulder injury, limiting his defensive abilities. Campbell underwent surgery in mid-December to repair of torn rotator cuff and will also miss the 2003 campaign.

This and That

The loss on opening day for Middle Tennessee was its first in a home opener since February 28, 1996, in an 8-1 defeat to Louisville … Losing in the season-opener was the first since a 10-5 loss at Southeastern Louisiana on February 18, 2000 … Chad Cooper went hitless in four at-bats in the opener to end his eight-game hitting streak … JSU's B.J. Burns had a straight steal of home in the fifth in the opener ... Chuck Akers had four stolen bases in the first game of the Sunday doubleheader, setting a new single-game record … Steve Kline made his first start for the Blue Raiders since May 8, 2001, at Vanderbilt, and had his first appearance since May 26 versus Wake Forest in the NCAA Regional in Knoxville … Kline got his first win as a Blue Raider after compiling a 0-0 mark in 2001 ... Kline went a career-best seven innings in the victory ... There was a 13-minute delay in the bottom of the first inning of the second game after JSU catcher Travis Suereth was hit in the head by a bat.

Streaks ...

Four Blue Raiders hit safely in both ends of Sunday's doubleheader against Jacksonville State, including freshman Marcus Taylor. Taylor doubled in the opener and homered in the second contest. Shane Kemp homered in the second game, as well, and Brett Carroll blasted a monster grand slam in the opener for the Blue Raiders. Chad Cooper also had hits in both contests. Regulars Troy Harp and Chuck Akers had hits in the second game of the twinbill, as did Derek Phillips, who had a pinch-hit single to lead off the final inning of the second contest.

Versus ...

The Blue Raiders have never faced Kansas, Rutgers or Kent State under 16th-year head coach Steve Peterson. In fact, Middle Tennessee has played just two members of the current Big 12 under Peterson, and those were in the same postseason. The Blue Raiders beat then top-ranked Texas A&M, 3-1, before dropping an 8-6 decision to Missouri, both in an NCAA Regional in Starkville, Miss. Middle Tennessee has faced just one member of the Mid-American Conference, defeating Eastern Michigan three times last season, and has never faced a member of the Big East Conference.

Blue Raiders Picked Fifth By Coaches

The 2003 Blue Raiders were picked to finish fifth by league coaches in a poll released by the conference office in January. South Alabama received seven first-place votes and 79 points to top the Preseason Poll. Florida International and Louisiana-Lafayette follow in a tight race for second place in the coaches poll. New Orleans ended up fourth in the preseason poll with 49 points, followed by the Blue Raiders with 38 points. New Mexico State and Western Kentucky tied for sixth place with 33 points each. Arkansas-Little Rock and Arkansas State round out the poll with 25 and 18 points, respectively. New Mexico State will defend its Sun Belt Conference Championship Tournament title on May 21-24 at M.L. 'Tigue' Moore Field in Lafayette, La. Middle Tennessee was picked fifth in 2001 when the Blue Raiders joined the Sun Belt and went on to win the conference championship that season.

Sun Belt Tournament

The 2003 Sun Belt Conference tournament will take place at M.L. 'Tigue' Moore Field in Lafayette, La. The event is slated for May 21-24 and will determine the league's automatic qualifier into the NCAA Tournament. Tickets may be purchased by calling the Louisiana-Lafayette Ticket Office.

Steve Peterson

Head Coach ✍ Jacksonville State/1973 ✍ 16th Season ✍ 469-377-2 (.553)

Steve Peterson is the personification of Middle Tennessee baseball.

After 15 seasons as the team's skipper, Peterson has become the program's winningest coach with a record of 469-377-2. In fact, Peterson has produced eight seasons with 30 or more wins, including a school record 42 victories during the 1990 slate.

Long known for his keen managerial mind, Peterson teaches a hard-nosed and aggressive style of baseball. His personable demeanor has made him a big hit among fans, boosters, players and recruits alike.

Peterson also adheres to the philosophy that defense and pitching wins championships. He has long been known for outstanding defensive teams, and the Blue Raiders have featured some of the area's most feared hurlers throughout the years. Peterson has seen three of his pitchers earn All-America honors, including the only First Team All-American in school history, Dewon Brazelton. Under his watch, the Blue Raiders have seen eight single-season and eight career pitching records established.

The offensive output of the team has not been ignored under Peterson, as his recruits established most of the offensive records held at Middle Tennessee. Peterson has developed three players that have hit .400 or better in a season along with the school's season and career home run records. His 1997 squad established the all-time record for batting average with a .323 clip.

However, aside from wins and losses, Peterson has been instrumental in leaving the Blue Raiders' mark on college baseball in other ways. He brought home seven consecutive conference championships (either regular season or tournament) during one stretch and has guided his team to an NCAA Regional on six different occasions. During his tenure, Peterson has captured one Sun Belt crown, eight OVC titles and seven OVC tournament titles. For his efforts, Peterson has twice been named OVC Coach of the Year. He brought national attention to the program in the 2001 season as his team found itself in the national rankings for the first time since 1982.

His efforts were clearly in evidence during the magical 2001 season. The Blue Raiders established the single-game attendance record at Reese Smith Field with a crowd of 2,733 on hand to witness the Blue Raiders' Friday night tilt against South Alabama. The team went on to set the season attendance mark as well with 26,218 coming through the gate at Reese Smith Field. Peterson's squad saw 10 crowds of 1,000 or more during the season.

If the team accolades and accomplishments aren't enough, consider that Peterson has coached a Sun Belt Player of the Year and six OVC Players of the Year, a Sun Belt Pitcher of the Year and an OVC Pitcher of the Year, a First Team All-American, four Third-Team All-Americans, three Freshman All-Americans, and 33 First Team All-Conference players.

In terms of sending players to the next level, Peterson is second to none. Professional baseball has seen 44 former Peterson protégés pass through the ranks with four players logging time in the Major Leagues.

Aside from playing baseball for a living, numerous former players have entered the coaching profession. Currently 25 former Blue Raiders are coaching at the high school, college or professional level.

He has also been responsible for the tremendous growth of Blue Raider baseball camps. Since taking over the camp program in 1984, Peterson has developed one of the area's premier camps with most sessions becoming sold out.

Peterson took two separate tours with the Blue Raiders as an assistant coach under John Stanford prior to becoming the team's skipper. During his runs between 1976-78 and 1984-87, the Blue Raiders won two OVC titles and four southern division crowns.

During the interim, Peterson served as the head coach at Roane State Community College in Harriman, Tenn. During his tenure from 1978-1984, Peterson took his team to a Tennessee Junior College title in 1981 and was twice named TJCAA Coach of the Year (1981, '84). While at Roane State, Peterson put together a sparkling record of 153-96, a .614 winning percentage.

His expertise also ranges away from on-the-field coaching. He is known as one of the top recruiters in the region and has a knack for keeping local talent close to home.

Peterson's reputation extends into fundraising as well. Events such as the annual Chuck Taylor Golf Tournament have become mainstays on the calendars of baseball supporters across middle Tennessee and have served to raise thousands of dollars for the improvement of Blue Raider baseball.

He spearheaded the effort to pay for the construction of the Stephen B. Smith Clubhouse and Indoor Training Facility, which opened its doors in 1998. One look inside the facility shows the amount of time and effort spent toward this endeavor. It has become known as one of the finest collegiate clubhouses and training facilities in the entire country.

Reese Smith Field has also benefited from Peterson's fundraising abilities. He has helped transform the park into a fan-friendly area by expanding the seating area, putting up a new information center just inside the gate, and expanding the restroom and concessions facilities.

Peterson guided efforts during the summer of 2001 to expand the dugouts at Reese Smith Field. He is also currently spearheading an effort that would totally renovate the current stadium. The plans would call for a significant remodeling of the concession stand, improved and expanded restroom facilities, and a modern press box that would accommodate radio and television along with print media.

Peterson, a native of Huntsville, Ala., spent his playing days at Jacksonville State under the legendary Rudy Abbott, where he stood out as a catcher. He earned his bachelor's from Jacksonville State in 1973 and later earned a master's degree from Middle Tennessee in 1977.

Peterson is married to the former Rita Albert and the couple has three children, Jill, Jenny and John. Away from the diamond, he enjoys fishing for small mouth bass.
