Notes: The Blue Raiders hit the road for theie second of four Sun Belt series' this season, taking on Arkansas State on Jonesboro. Middle Tennessee owns a 5-2 mark against the Indians since joining the conference two seasons ago, including sweeping ASU in Jonesboro in 2001. The Blue Raiders also defeated the Indians in the conference tournament later that season and won two-of-three games at Reese Smith Field last season.

Jaggers Returns to Lineup

Sophomore Nate Jaggers returned to the lineup April 1 at Lipscomb, drawing the start in the last seven games as the designated hitter. The Louisville, Ky., native has nine hits in seven games, including four doubles and two home runs, driving in seven runs and scoring four times. The second baseman hopes to return to the field as early as this weekend against Arkansas State, and at latest next week versus Belmont and Southeast Missouri.

Mobley Impressive Out of the Pen

Sophomore Chris Mobley leads the Blue Raiders in appearances again this season with 15 after leading the club as a freshman with 25. The righthander was very impressive in a five-inning relief effort against Florida International Sunday, striking out eight and allowing just one run on five hits, stopping the bleeding in the finale of the three-game series. Head coach Steve Peterson indicated the Kingsport, Tenn., native would get his first start of the season and just the third of his career this coming Sunday at Arkansas State. The Blue Raiders have been searching for a Sunday starter all season, using both Travis Horschel and Jerry Knox in the spot with few positive results. Mobley had two starts as a freshman in 2002, versus East Tennessee and Vanderbilt. He took the loss against the Commodores and did not get a decision in the return to his hometown.

Archer at the Front in SBC Play Again

Josh Archer was the leading returning hitter in Sun Belt play for the Blue Raiders, and the sophomore continues to find his stroke this season and has done exceptionally well against SBC opposition. Archer carries a team-leading .353 average after the first three conference series, including three doubles, two home runs and five RBIs. Archer's 12-game hitting streak came to an end in Sunday's loss to Florida International. The first baseman batted .385 (20-for-52) during the stretch with six doubles, four home runs, 10 RBIs and 11 runs scored. The Paris, Tenn., native was batting .182 for the season when he started his hitting streak and raised his season average almost 100 points to the current .276. He had four home runs in three games during a stretch last week, homering once at Lipscomb and Austin Peay before belting two round-trippers against FIU on Friday.

This 'N That

John Williams went all nine innings in the Saturday victory over FIU, his first complete game this season and the first nine-inning complete game for the Blue Raiders this year. It was also Williams' first complete game since striking out 16 against Austin Peay in March 23 of last year ... Middle Tennessee played without Chad Cooper for the first time this season on Saturday against FIU and will for at least the next 10 days. Cooper dislocated the pinky finger and strained ligaments in his left (non-throwing) hand while sliding into second base in the first inning of Friday night's game ... Freshman BJ Church made his third straight midweek start and second against Memphis on Tuesday ... Derek Phillips recorded the first stolen base of his career in the fourth ... Jeff Beachum (11) and Brett Carroll (7) both had their hitting streaks stopped Tuesday night against the Tigers, combining to go 0-for-6 in the contest ... Shay Horseman made his second straight midweek start and third of the season on Wednesday against Memphis ... Brett Carroll batted cleanup in the lineup Wednesday, the second time this season the sophomore hit in the fourth spot ... Troy Harp's right (throwing) hand was X-rayed again Wednesday and the prognosis was a broken bone. Harp will be in a cast 10 days but should be available to play at home against South Alabama next weekend ... Marcus Taylor left the game in the fourth, reinjuring his right rotator cuff. He will be in a sling for two days and then reevaluated.

Streaks ...

Marcus Taylor has a five-game hitting streak and Troy Harp has hit in his last four games, but neither of those players will be available this weekend at Arkansas State. Nate Jaggers is the only Blue Raiders with a current streak of longer than two games, with the sophomore having hit in three straight outings.

Versus ...

Middle Tennessee owns a 5-2 mark against the Indians since joining the conference two seasons ago, including sweeping ASU in Jonesboro in 2001. The Blue Raiders also defeated the Indians in the conference tournament later that season and won two-of-three games at Reese Smith Field last season.

Trio Out for Season

A trio of freshman Middle Tennessee baseball players have undergone season-ending surgery. Pitcher Matt Scott went under the knife in mid-January to repair a partially torn meniscus in his left knee. Scott first suffered the injury last March but continued to play through the high school and summer seasons and then again this fall at Middle Tennessee. Infielder Matt Campbell also played through the fall with a shoulder injury, limiting his defensive abilities. Campbell underwent surgery in mid-December to repair a torn rotator cuff and will also miss the 2003 campaign. Robert Toline, a redshirt freshman transfer, underwent shoulder surgery in late February and will also miss the entire campaign.

Blue Raiders Picked Fifth By Coaches

The 2003 Blue Raiders were picked to finish fifth by league coaches in a poll released by the conference office in January. South Alabama received seven first-place votes and 79 points to top the Preseason Poll. Florida International and Louisiana-Lafayette follow in a tight race for second place in the coaches poll. New Orleans ended up fourth in the preseason poll with 49 points, followed by the Blue Raiders with 38 points. New Mexico State and Western Kentucky tied for sixth place with 33 points each. Arkansas-Little Rock and Arkansas State round out the poll with 25 and 18 points, respectively. New Mexico State will defend its Sun Belt Conference Championship Tournament title on May 21-24 at M.L. 'Tigue' Moore Field in Lafayette, La. Middle Tennessee was picked fifth in 2001 when the Blue Raiders joined the Sun Belt and went on to win the conference championship that season.

Sun Belt Tournament

The 2003 Sun Belt Conference tournament will take place at M.L. 'Tigue' Moore Field in Lafayette, La. The event is slated for May 21-24 and will determine the league's automatic qualifier into the NCAA Tournament. Tickets may be purchased by calling the Louisiana-Lafayette Ticket Office.

Steve Peterson

Head Coach ● Jacksonville State/1973 ● 16th Season ● 483-395-2 (.549)

Steve Peterson is the personification of Middle Tennessee baseball.

In his 16th season as the team's skipper, Peterson has become the program's winningest coach with a record of 483-395-2. In fact, Peterson has produced eight seasons with 30 or more wins, including a school record 42 victories during the 1990 slate.

Long known for his keen managerial mind, Peterson teaches a hard-nosed and aggressive style of baseball. His personable demeanor has made him a big hit among fans, boosters, players and recruits alike.

Peterson also adheres to the philosophy that defense and pitching wins championships. He has long been known for outstanding defensive teams, and the Blue Raiders have featured some of the area's most feared hurlers throughout the years. Peterson has seen three of his pitchers earn All-America honors, including the only First Team All-American in school history, Dewon Brazelton. Under his watch, the Blue Raiders have seen eight single-season and eight career pitching records established.

The offensive output of the team has not been ignored under Peterson, as his recruits established most of the offensive records held at Middle Tennessee. Peterson has developed three players that have hit .400 or better in a season along with the school's season and career home run records. His 1997 squad established the all-time record for batting average with a .323 clip.

However, aside from wins and losses, Peterson has been instrumental in leaving the Blue Raiders' mark on college baseball in other ways. He brought home seven consecutive conference championships (either regular season or tournament) during one stretch and has guided his team to an NCAA Regional on six different occasions. During his tenure, Peterson has captured one Sun Belt crown, eight OVC titles and seven OVC tournament titles. For his efforts, Peterson has twice been named OVC Coach of the Year. He brought national attention to the program in the 2001 season as his team found itself in the national rankings for the first time since 1982.

His efforts were clearly in evidence during the magical 2001 season. The Blue Raiders established the single-game attendance record at Reese Smith Field with a crowd of 2,733 on hand to witness the Blue Raiders' Friday night tilt against South Alabama. The team went on to set the season attendance mark as well with 26,218 coming through the gate at Reese Smith Field. Peterson's squad saw 10 crowds of 1,000 or more during the season.

If the team accolades and accomplishments aren't enough, consider that Peterson has coached a Sun Belt Player of the Year and six OVC Players of the Year, a Sun Belt Pitcher of the Year and an OVC Pitcher of the Year, a First Team All-American, four Third-Team All-Americans, three Freshman All-Americans, and 33 First Team All-Conference players.

In terms of sending players to the next level, Peterson is second to none. Professional baseball has seen 44 former Peterson protégés pass through the ranks with four players logging time in the Major Leagues.

Aside from playing baseball for a living, numerous former players have entered the coaching profession. Currently 25 former Blue Raiders are coaching at the high school, college or professional level.

He has also been responsible for the tremendous growth of Blue Raider baseball camps. Since taking over the camp program in 1984, Peterson has developed one of the area's premier camps with most sessions becoming sold out.

Peterson took two separate tours with the Blue Raiders as an assistant coach under John Stanford prior to becoming the team's skipper. During his runs between 1976-78 and 1984-87, the Blue Raiders won two OVC titles and four southern division crowns.

During the interim, Peterson served as the head coach at Roane State Community College in Harriman, Tenn. During his tenure from 1978-1984, Peterson took his team to a Tennessee Junior College title in 1981 and was twice named TJCAA Coach of the Year (1981, '84). While at Roane State, Peterson put together a sparkling record of 153-96, a .614 winning percentage.

His expertise also ranges away from on-the-field coaching. He is known as one of the top recruiters in the region and has a knack for keeping local talent close to home.

Peterson's reputation extends into fundraising as well. Events such as the annual Chuck Taylor Golf Tournament have become mainstays on the calendars of baseball supporters across middle Tennessee and have served to raise thousands of dollars for the improvement of Blue Raider baseball.

He spearheaded the effort to pay for the construction of the Stephen B. Smith Clubhouse and Indoor Training Facility, which opened its doors in 1998. One look inside the facility shows the amount of time and effort spent toward this endeavor. It has become known as one of the finest collegiate clubhouses and training facilities in the entire country.

Reese Smith Field has also benefited from Peterson's fundraising abilities. He has helped transform the park into a fan-friendly area by expanding the seating area, putting up a new information center just inside the gate, and expanding the restroom and concessions facilities.

Peterson guided efforts during the summer of 2001 to expand the dugouts at Reese Smith Field. He is also currently spearheading an effort that would totally renovate the current stadium. The plans would call for a significant remodeling of the concession stand, improved and expanded restroom facilities, and a modern press box that would accommodate radio and television along with print media.

Peterson, a native of Huntsville, Ala., spent his playing days at Jacksonville State under the legendary Rudy Abbott, where he stood out as a catcher. He earned his bachelor's from Jacksonville State in 1973 and later earned a master's degree from Middle Tennessee in 1977.

Peterson is married to the former Rita Albert and the couple has three children, Jill, Jenny and John. Away from the diamond, he enjoys fishing for small mouth bass.
