Gameday Information

Site: Reese Smith Field (Murfreesboro, Tenn.)
Time (s): 7 p.m., 7 p.m.
Radio: 88.3 FM, Ryan Simmons & Dick Palmer
Notes: The Blue Raiders finish their current seven-game homestand against Belmont and Austin Peay at 7 p.m Tuesday and Wednesday, respectively. Middle Tennessee defeated Belmont, 13-3, on March 18 at Greer Stadium in Nashville and also won 16-7 over Austin Peay in Clarksville on April 2. The Blue Raiders are 8-2 against the Bruins but just 2-2 at home, and 33-18 versus the Govs, 17-7 at home, under head coach Steve Peterson.

Cooper All-Out After Injury

Senior Chad Cooper returned from injury last week and was better than ever, racing all over the field to catch fly balls while running into the wall or chasing after foul balls and tumbling into the visiting bullpen. The Picture Rocks, Pa, native went 7-for-13 in four games with eight runs scored, three doubles, two home runs and three RBIs as the Blue Raiders won two of the four contests. Cooper played leftfield in three of the outings and shortstop on Saturday against South Alabama. The natural infielder made a terrific catch crashing into the wall on Wednesday against Southeast Missouri and went tumbling into the visitor's bullpen later in the contest chasing after a foul ball. He returned after missing eight games, an injury suffered on April 4 against Florida International.

Phillips Stellar in Extended Playing Time

Junior Derek Phillips had his nine-game hitting streak come to an end Sunday against South Alabama. Phillips continues to swing the bat well during his extended playing time because of an injury to starter Troy Harp. Phillips has started 14 of the last 15 contests and played in all 15, batting safely in a dozen games. The Knoxville, Tenn., native is 19-for-52 (.365) during the stretch with 10 runs scored, eight RBIs, three doubles, two home runs and six walks. His flair for the dramatic was evident in Middle Tennessee's win over conference leader South Alabama on Friday night, as the lefthanded swinging Phillips blasted a three-run homer in the eighth to seal the 7-3 victory for the Blue Raiders. It was his second straight game with a round-tripper. Phillips was 3-for-3 with three RBIs in the game, tying career-highs for hits and RBIs in a contest.

Injury Bug Hits Again

Sophomore Josh Archer missed Sunday's game against South Alabama after suffering an injury in Saturday's contest versus the Jaguars. Archer is the fifth starter to miss time this season with an injury, and that follows the Blue Raiders losing three freshmen to season-ending injuries. All told, Middle Tennessee has lost 44 games due to injury by five players this season. Another, Marcus Taylor, who has missed the past 8 games, could not play outfield and was limited to the designated hitter role for 20 games earlier in the year.

This 'N That

The Blue Raiders did not have an error in the game against Vanderbilt, only their fifth errorless game of the season ... Chase Swing pitched for the fourth time in seven days in the game, earning his third save this season. In the four games, Swing has earned two saves and allowed just two runs in seven innings with six strikeouts ... Freshman Shay Horseman is 2-0 with a no decision in his last three starts, striking out 21 in 15.2 innings pitched. The Blue Raiders are 3-0 in those starts and 3-1 in Horseman's four starts this season ... Josh Archer's home run in the fourth inning of Friday's game against South Alabama was his 10th of the season and seventh in the month of April. It also marks his career high for homers in a season, as the sophomore hit nine last season ... Chuck Akers extended his hitting streak to seven games with a single in the fifth ... The win for Middle Tennessee snapped a five-game losing streak dating to May 13, 2001. It also improved the Blue Raiders to 3-1 all-time against South Alabama in Murfreesboro ... Jeff Beachum was not in the starting lineup for the first time in 28 games, dating to March 9 at Southwest Missouri State, on Saturday against South Alabama ... Chad Cooper drew the start at shortstop for the first time since suffering an injury against Florida International on April 4 ... Jarrett England was the designated hitter on Saturday, his first start of the year ... The Blue Raiders used their 34th different batting order in 40 games on Sunday against South Alabama ... Kevin Suba made his start of the season at first base and the Blue Raiders had four lefthanded bats in the lineup for the first time this season.

Streaks ...

Derek Phillips had his nine-game hitting streak come to an end Sunday against South Alabama. Chad Cooper, Nate Jaggers and Jeff Beachum all have four-game hitting streaks for the Blue Raiders, longest among non-injured members of the squad.

Versus ...

Middle Tennessee stands 8-2 against Belmont under coach Steve Peterson after a 13-3 victory against the Bruins earlier this season in Nashville. Chad Cooper was 4-for-5 with a home run in that game, and Jerry Knox threw five strong innings in his first start to get the win and hit a towering home run to right field to lead the way for the Blue Raiders. Middle Tennessee is just 2-2 against the Bruins at home. The Blue Raiders are 33-18 versus Austin Peay under Peterson after a 16-7 triumph three weeks ago in Clarksville. Middle Tennessee scored 12 runs in the fourth inning of that game and had a season-high 19 hits, as seven players had multiple hits, including three each from Josh Archer, Chuck Akers and Derek Phillips.

Trio Out for Season

A trio of freshman Middle Tennessee baseball players have undergone season-ending surgery. Pitcher Matt Scott went under the knife in mid-January to repair a partially torn meniscus in his left knee. Scott first suffered the injury last March but continued to play through the high school and summer seasons and then again this fall at Middle Tennessee. Infielder Matt Campbell also played through the fall with a shoulder injury, limiting his defensive abilities. Campbell underwent surgery in mid-December to repair a torn rotator cuff and will also miss the 2003 campaign. Robert Toline, a redshirt freshman transfer, underwent shoulder surgery in late February and will also miss the entire campaign.

Blue Raiders Picked Fifth By Coaches

The 2003 Blue Raiders were picked to finish fifth by league coaches in a poll released by the conference office in January. South Alabama received seven first-place votes and 79 points to top the Preseason Poll. Florida International and Louisiana-Lafayette follow in a tight race for second place in the coaches poll. New Orleans ended up fourth in the preseason poll with 49 points, followed by the Blue Raiders with 38 points. New Mexico State and Western Kentucky tied for sixth place with 33 points each. Arkansas-Little Rock and Arkansas State round out the poll with 25 and 18 points, respectively. New Mexico State will defend its Sun Belt Conference Championship Tournament title on May 21-24 at M.L. 'Tigue' Moore Field in Lafayette, La. Middle Tennessee was picked fifth in 2001 when the Blue Raiders joined the Sun Belt and went on to win the conference championship that season.

Sun Belt Tournament

The 2003 Sun Belt Conference tournament will take place at M.L. 'Tigue' Moore Field in Lafayette, La. The event is slated for May 21-24 and will determine the league's automatic qualifier into the NCAA Tournament. Tickets may be purchased by calling the Louisiana-Lafayette Ticket Office.

Steve Peterson

Head Coach ● Jacksonville State/1973 ● 16th Season ● 488-398-2 (.550)

Steve Peterson is the personification of Middle Tennessee baseball.

In his 16th season as the team's skipper, Peterson has become the program's winningest coach with a record of 488-398-2. In fact, Peterson has produced eight seasons with 30 or more wins, including a school record 42 victories during the 1990 slate.

Long known for his keen managerial mind, Peterson teaches a hard-nosed and aggressive style of baseball. His personable demeanor has made him a big hit among fans, boosters, players and recruits alike.

Peterson also adheres to the philosophy that defense and pitching wins championships. He has long been known for outstanding defensive teams, and the Blue Raiders have featured some of the area's most feared hurlers throughout the years. Peterson has seen three of his pitchers earn All-America honors, including the only First Team All-American in school history, Dewon Brazelton. Under his watch, the Blue Raiders have seen eight single-season and eight career pitching records established.

The offensive output of the team has not been ignored under Peterson, as his recruits established most of the offensive records held at Middle Tennessee. Peterson has developed three players that have hit .400 or better in a season along with the school's season and career home run records. His 1997 squad established the all-time record for batting average with a .323 clip.

However, aside from wins and losses, Peterson has been instrumental in leaving the Blue Raiders' mark on college baseball in other ways. He brought home seven consecutive conference championships (either regular season or tournament) during one stretch and has guided his team to an NCAA Regional on six different occasions. During his tenure, Peterson has captured one Sun Belt crown, eight OVC titles and seven OVC tournament titles. For his efforts, Peterson has twice been named OVC Coach of the Year. He brought national attention to the program in the 2001 season as his team found itself in the national rankings for the first time since 1982.

His efforts were clearly in evidence during the magical 2001 season. The Blue Raiders established the single-game attendance record at Reese Smith Field with a crowd of 2,733 on hand to witness the Blue Raiders' Friday night tilt against South Alabama. The team went on to set the season attendance mark as well with 26,218 coming through the gate at Reese Smith Field. Peterson's squad saw 10 crowds of 1,000 or more during the season.

If the team accolades and accomplishments aren't enough, consider that Peterson has coached a Sun Belt Player of the Year and six OVC Players of the Year, a Sun Belt Pitcher of the Year and an OVC Pitcher of the Year, a First Team All-American, four Third-Team All-Americans, three Freshman All-Americans, and 33 First Team All-Conference players.

In terms of sending players to the next level, Peterson is second to none. Professional baseball has seen 44 former Peterson protégés pass through the ranks with four players logging time in the Major Leagues.

Aside from playing baseball for a living, numerous former players have entered the coaching profession. Currently 25 former Blue Raiders are coaching at the high school, college or professional level.

He has also been responsible for the tremendous growth of Blue Raider baseball camps. Since taking over the camp program in 1984, Peterson has developed one of the area's premier camps with most sessions becoming sold out.

Peterson took two separate tours with the Blue Raiders as an assistant coach under John Stanford prior to becoming the team's skipper. During his runs between 1976-78 and 1984-87, the Blue Raiders won two OVC titles and four southern division crowns.

During the interim, Peterson served as the head coach at Roane State Community College in Harriman, Tenn. During his tenure from 1978-1984, Peterson took his team to a Tennessee Junior College title in 1981 and was twice named TJCAA Coach of the Year (1981, '84). While at Roane State, Peterson put together a sparkling record of 153-96, a .614 winning percentage.

His expertise also ranges away from on-the-field coaching. He is known as one of the top recruiters in the region and has a knack for keeping local talent close to home.

Peterson's reputation extends into fundraising as well. Events such as the annual Chuck Taylor Golf Tournament have become mainstays on the calendars of baseball supporters across middle Tennessee and have served to raise thousands of dollars for the improvement of Blue Raider baseball.

He spearheaded the effort to pay for the construction of the Stephen B. Smith Clubhouse and Indoor Training Facility, which opened its doors in 1998. One look inside the facility shows the amount of time and effort spent toward this endeavor. It has become known as one of the finest collegiate clubhouses and training facilities in the entire country.

Reese Smith Field has also benefited from Peterson's fundraising abilities. He has helped transform the park into a fan-friendly area by expanding the seating area, putting up a new information center just inside the gate, and expanding the restroom and concessions facilities.

Peterson guided efforts during the summer of 2001 to expand the dugouts at Reese Smith Field. He is also currently spearheading an effort that would totally renovate the current stadium. The plans would call for a significant remodeling of the concession stand, improved and expanded restroom facilities, and a modern press box that would accommodate radio and television along with print media.

Peterson, a native of Huntsville, Ala., spent his playing days at Jacksonville State under the legendary Rudy Abbott, where he stood out as a catcher. He earned his bachelor's from Jacksonville State in 1973 and later earned a master's degree from Middle Tennessee in 1977.

Peterson is married to the former Rita Albert and the couple has three children, Jill, Jenny and John. Away from the diamond, he enjoys fishing for small mouth bass.
