Last Meeting:	UNT 85, MT 63 (1/19/02)
Notes:	Should the Blue Raiders win tonight it will mark the most consecutive wins this season with three ... MT has won three straight at home and six of its last seven ... Tonight's game will break a 1-1 tie in the series.

MT vs. North Texas

The Blue Raiders and Mean Green have only faced off on two occasions, both coming in the two seasons that both clubs have been a part of the Sun Belt Conference. The Blue Raiders scored the first win in the series at home two seasons ago, while UNT picked up an 85-63 victory in Denton last year.

Clutch at Crunch Time

The Blue Raiders squeaked out a 60-58 win over FIU on Saturday night, due in big part to key shooting at the line late in the game. The Blue Raiders knocked down 5-of-6 free throws with less than four minutes to go in the game, helping seal the win. The Blue Raiders have shown poise at the line in these situations all season, however. Currently, MT is shooting 72.6 percent (77-of-106) with less than four minutes to go and Tommy Gunn leads the way by connecting on 19-of-21 (90.5 percent).

Getting Better at Home

After starting the season 1-3 in the Murphy Center, the Blue Raiders have made a dramatic turnaround. MT has won its last three home contests and six of its last seven, with the only setback during this span coming against South Alabama on Jan. 16. The home revival is coming at a good time, considering that the Blue Raiders will play three of its next four games at home.

Rhodes Gets Double Figures

Junior Napoleon Rhodes snapped a long streak by scoring 10 points against FIU last Saturday. Rhodes posted double figures in scoring for the first time since netting 12 against Kennesaw State back on Dec. 27. Rhodes has scored double figures on four occasions this year, but only once has the Ocala, FL, native accomplished the feat in back-to-back games. That came on Nov. 30 against UNC-Greensboro and Dec. 3 against Tennessee Tech.

Gunn Continues Hot Shooting

Junior Tommy Gunn has been the Blue Raiders most consistent scorer this season, but he has also been extremely efficient in his duties. Gunn, who is averaging 16.4 points per game this year, has upped his game during the last nine games. Gunn, who has netted double figures in each of these contests, is averaging 19.3 points during this span. Gunn is also shooting a sizzling 60.5 percent (69-of-114) during this period. He has also utilized this hot streak to record his first career 30-point game against New Orleans.

At home, the interview area is located just off the northwest corner of the playing floor. On the road, requested players and Coach Davis will be brought to an area designated by the home team, or just outside the Blue Raiders' locker room facility. MT-UNT Connections

Middle Tennessee and North Texas share a few connections heading into tonight's contest. First, both head coaches have been on staff at LSU. Middle Tennessee's Kermit Davis was the associate head coach under John Brady for the five years prior to becoming the Blue Raiders' head coach. North Texas' Johnny Jones was with the Tigers from 1984-1997, serving under Head Coach Dale Brown. There are also a couple of indirect connections. MT assistant Jeff Walker was the head coach at Grayson County College just outside the Dallas area for two years prior to coming to MT. Walker coached current Blue Raider Marcus Robinson at Grayson. Blue Raider Keith Connor hails from Pflugerville, TX.

Gunn Just Shy of NCAA Ranking

Junior Tommy Gunn has had an outstanding year from behind the 3-point arc this season. His 47.3 percent clip from long distance is leading the way in the Sun Belt Conference, but you can't find his name among the national leaders. Gunn falls just short of the minimum requirement to make the NCAA list. NCAA minimums dictate that a player must make an average of 2.5 treys per game to be considered for the list, meaning that Gunn would have needed 53 three-point goals to make the list this week and he has connected on 52. If he was ranked nationally, Gunn would check in at #11 on the national list this week, just ahead of Georgia's Ezra Williams.

Recruiting Class Ranked High

Head Coach Kermit Davis and staff felt like their fall signing class was strong. Now those thoughts have been confirmed by at least two recruiting services. Ron Briscoe's Southeast Regional Basketball Report slotted the Blue Raiders with the #23 class in the nation and #10 in the Southeast. HoopScoop Magazine put the Blue Raiders at #32 nationally and #1 in the Sun Belt Conference. Neither service accounts for Mike Dean, who transferred from Georgia in January.

Briefly ...

A Blue Raider win tonight would be the team's third straight, marking the first time the team has won as many consecutively since winning five straight from 1/24/02 - 2/4/02 ... If the Blue Raiders limit the Mean Green to less than 100 points in tonight's game it will be 80 straight games that the Blue Raiders have accomplished the feat ... A win tonight will put the Blue Raiders at the .500 mark for the first time this year ... The Blue Raiders have outrebounded their opponent in three straight games, two of which resulted in wins ... The Blue Raiders have blocked more shots than the opposition on only five occasions this season ... The Blue Raiders are now 9-2 on the year when holding the opposition under 70 points.

Gunn Closing on 1,000

Junior guard Tommy Gunn is closing in on the 1,000-point mark for his career. The Syracuse, NY, native surpassed the 800 mark with his 16-point effort at UALR on Saturday night, giving him 916 career points. That tally leaves him only 86 points shy of the millennium club. To reach the 1,000-point plateau this season, Gunn needs to average about 10.8 points per contest in the team's remaining games. Should Gunn score his 1,000th point, he would become only the 26th player in Middle Tennessee history to do so.

Kermit Davis

Head Coach ✍Mississippi State, 1982 ✍First Season ✍10-11 (.476)

The objective was clear when Middle Tennessee athletic director Boots Donnelly set out to hire the school's 19th men's basketball coach – find the person that could lead the program back to its past glory and once again contend for conference titles and NCAA appearances.

On April 12, 2002, Donnelly introduced Kermit Davis, Jr., as the man to do just that.

"I wanted to bring someone in here that wanted to be here, not just to be a head coach, but who wanted to take over our program," Donnelly stated. "I wanted a person that believed very, very strongly in discipline, because that's the process that gets it all started. I wanted a heck of a recruiter, and I also wanted a teacher. I think we fulfilled every one of those things with Kemit Davis, Jr."

Davis brings the credentials that Donnelly was seeking along with him to Middle Tennessee. He has shown throughout his career the ability to rebuild programs and put them on the national map in a hurry. He has displayed success at every stop along his career track and has done so with a hard-nosed style of defense, uptempo offensive play, and a work ethic that is second-to-none.

"One thing our team will do is play with a great deal of energy," Davis stated. "We would like to play a hard-nosed, aggressive style that our fans will enjoy watching night in and night out. We're going to share and value the basketball, rebound on both ends, and attempt to get a quality shot on each possession."

Davis' strategic knowledge isn't his only weapon in building a competitive program. The Blue Raider skipper has long been known as an outstanding recruiter that is willing to go after the nation's top talent. His recruits value character, have a high level of toughness, and have a desire to obtain a college degree. He is committed to landing the state's top prospects as well as reaching out to the best players in the region and in the country.

"Our state has produced some outstanding players over the years, and we are going to be very aggressive in our approach to keeping those players at home," said Davis. "The quality of high school and junior college coaching in our state is excellent and we would like to be an extension of the parents and the coach when those student-athletes come to our campus."

Davis comes to Middle Tennessee after spending the past five seasons as the associate head coach at Louisiana State University under head coach John Brady. Prior to Davis' arrival with Brady at LSU, the Tigers had been languishing near the bottom of the Southeastern Conference.

It didn't take long for the team's fortunes to change. After two seasons of putting the pieces together, the Tigers captured the SEC title in 2000 and went on to an appearance in the NCAA Tournament's Sweet 16. The Tigers returned to the post season in 2002 with a trip to the National Invitational Tournament. In the three years immediately preceeding Davis' arrival in Murfreesboro, LSU averaged 20-plus wins per season.

Davis said of his time with the Tigers, "I enjoyed five years at LSU working with a close friend and one of the outstanding coaches in college basketball in John Brady."

Prior to coming to LSU, Davis spent one season as the head coach at the University of Idaho. However, his stint with the Vandals was his second tour of duty in Moscow. He also served as the school's head coach from 1988-1990. During his three years as the head coach at Idaho, he compiled a record of 63-29, the best three-year total in the program's history. Davis posted two of the best single season tallies in school history during his first two seasons at Idaho as well, turning in 25-6 marks in both of those seasons.

His Idaho squad won the Big Sky championship in 1989 and went on to capture the league's tournament crown and a berth into the NCAA Tournament as well. For his efforts Davis was named the Big Sky Coach of the Year at the conclusion of the season.

History repeated itself in 1990 when Davis once again led the Vandals to the Big Sky title in both the regular season and tournament, garnering another NCAA berth.

In fact, Davis himself made history when he became the Vandals' head coach in 1988. Upon his hiring, Davis became the youngest Division I head coach in the nation at age 28.

However, it was not the first time that Davis had been the youngest coach in the country. When Davis took the head coaching position at Southwest Mississippi Junior College in 1984, he became the youngest junior college coach in the nation at age 24. His youth served him well at Southwest Mississippi, putting together a 39-20 record in two seasons. His 1986 squad won 22 games, posting the school's first 20-win season in 17 years.

His success at the junior college level landed him a spot on Tim Floyd's staff at Idaho, where he served as an assistant for two years prior to taking the reigns of the Vandal program.

After spending the 1988-89 and 1989-90 seasons at Idaho, Davis went on to become the head coach at Texas A&M for the 1990-91 campaign.

From Texas A&M, Davis moved to serve as the associate head coach at Chipola Junior College for two seasons before ascending to the top spot for the 1993-94 campaign.

During his season as the team's head coach, Chipola finished the season ranked #4 in the national polls and posted a 27-5 record, giving the team the second-most wins in school history.

Davis headed to Utah State as the team's associate head coach from 1994-96. At Utah State, Davis coached under current Iowa State head coach Larry Eustachy and the pair combined to win the Big West Championship in 1995.

His Utah State tenure ended with his return to Idaho as the Vandals' head coach and the rest is history.

Davis' rapid ascent up the coaching ladder is no coincidence. Davis has been around the game for his entire life as he grew up watching one of the preeminent coaches in the country operate on a daily basis.

Kermit Davis, Sr., Davis' father, was one of the most respected college coaches in the nation and the younger Davis spent many hours around his dad in the gym and even on the bench during games.

Upon the completion of his playing career, Davis began his coaching career at his alma mater. He served as a graduate assistant on Bob Boyd's staff at Mississippi State from 1982-84.

Davis earned his bachelor's degree from Mississippi State in 1982 and went on to receive his master's degree from Mississippi State in 1984.

Davis, a native of Leakesville, Miss., and his wife Betty have two daughters, Ally (14) and Claire (10).
