Notes: The Blue Raiders will open the season with six straight contests at Reese Smith Field, the first of 33 home games on the slate in 2003 ... The six-game homestand is the second longest to start a campaign under Steve Peterson for the Blue Raiders, topped only by a nine-game homestand to begin the 2001 season ... Peterson begins his 16th season at the helm of the Blue Raider program, having compiled 469 wins at Middle Tennessee.

Jaggers, Archer Earn Freshman All-America Recognition

Freshmen Nate Jaggers and Josh Archer were both recognized as Freshman All-Americans by Collegiate Baseball. Jaggers earned First Team honors and Archer was named Honorable Mention. The honors marked the fourth straight season in which the Blue Raiders had at least one All-American, and the second straight season with a Freshman All-American after John Williams garnered the honor following the 2001 campaign.

Williams Breaks Hand

Sophomore hurler John Williams was in the midst of another terrific season when he broke his left (throwing) hand on April 12. Williams' season ended with the injury, as the Murfreesboro native had compiled a 5-2 record with a 3.53 ERA. The Blue Raiders struggled down the stretch without Williams, going 6-16 the rest of the way.

Peterson Gets Historic Wins

Head Coach Steve Peterson picked up a pair of historic victories during the 2002 campaign, getting his 600th career coaching victory in the February 28 doubleheader against Eastern Michigan. Peterson then picked up his 450th win at Middle Tennessee on March 27 in a 4-3 triumph at home over Troy State.

Four Sign Professional Contracts

Four Blue Raiders signed professional contracts following the 2002 season, including three seniors and one junior. Pitcher Adam Larson was a 15th-round selection by the Chicago White Sox. Junior outfielder Justin Sims was the other Blue Raider drafted, taken in the 22nd round by the Minnesota Twins. Infielder Jason Howarth (Twins) and outfielder Marshall Nisbett (Seattle Mariners) later signed free agent contracts.

Williams, Akers Honored by CoSIDA

Sophomores John Williams and Chuck Akers were honored by the College Sports Information Directors of America as members of the Verizon Academic All-District IV Team. Akers carries a 3.96 grade-point-average in Business Education and was selected to the First Team. Williams earned Second Team recognition and has a 3.43 GPA in Concrete Industry Management.

Opening Day Record

The Blue Raiders have been a part of several records over the past few years, and one more came the team's way on opening day of 2002. The largest crowd to ever see an opening day game packed Reese Smith Field, 2,317 strong. The announced attendance was the third-largest crowd to ever gather at the Blue Raiders' home park and watched a 6-5 triumph over former OVC-foe Austin Peay.

Injury Slows Harp

Sophomore catcher Troy Harp broke his right (throwing) wrist over the Christmas holidays and was slow to return to the Blue Raider lineup. The Louisville, Ky., native entered as a defensive replacement on March 13 at Memphis and got his first start of the year at home three days later versus Southwest Missouri State.

Cooper, Mobley Finish Strong

Junior infielder Chad Cooper and freshman hurler Chris Mobley both had strong finishes to the 2002 campaign. Cooper went 11-for-31 (.355) over the final eight games of the season, scoring six runs with nine RBIs and six extra-base hits. The Picture Rocks, Pa., native also stole four bases. In Mobley's final seven appearances of the year, he did not allow a run. His final appearance of the season came during the conference tournament against South Alabama, where he came on in relief in the second inning and worked seven-plus frames, striking out nine and allowing just two runs.

Akers, Williams Participate in Cape Cod League

Sophomores Chuck Akers and John Williams both participated in the Cape Cod League over the summer, playing for the Harwich Mariners. Akers stole 11 bases in 42 games while batting a very respectable .232 in the pitching-dominated league. Williams played the final weeks of the season after recovering from his broken hand. The Murfreesboro native went 2-0 with a 2.31 ERA in 11.2 innings of work, striking out 10 in four appearances with one start.

Archer Continues Improvement

Consistency is a trademark of all good baseball players, and sophomore Josh Archer proved her could live up to that standard in his first campaign as a Blue Raider. The Paris, Tenn., native never went more than two games without a hit in 2002, and had three hits in a game nine times. Archer batted .345 overall, and was even better in conference action, hitting at a .358 clip, the highest average on the squad.

LeGuenec Makes Most of Chances

Chris LeGuenec made the most of his limited opportunities in 2002, drawing all nine of his starts in the final 10 games of the season. The Jackson, Tenn., native had eight hits in those 10 contests, driving in seven runs and belting both of his home runs. LeGuenec also had a trio of two-hit games during the stretch.

Scott, Campbell Out for Season

A pair of freshman Middle Tennessee baseball players have undergone season-ending surgery. Pitcher Matt Scott went under the knife in mid-January to repair a partially torn meniscus in his left knee. Scott first suffered the injury last March but continued to play through the high school and summer seasons and then again this fall at Middle Tennessee. Infielder Matt Campbell also played through the fall with a shoulder injury, limiting his defensive abilities. Campbell underwent surgery in mid-December to repair of torn rotator cuff and will also miss the 2003 campaign.

This and That

The Blue Raiders were 5-4 in their last three Sun Belt series in 2002 ... The squad lost its final six contests of the season and 16 of its final 22 ... Pitchers Travis Horschel (3), John Williams (2) and Steven Kines (1) all ended last season on losing streaks.

Versus ...

The Blue Raiders stand 9-2 against Jacksonville State under head coach Steve Peterson, winning both ends of a home-and-home series with Peterson's alma mater in 2001. Chuck Akers, Troy Harp, Derek Phillips and Steve Kline are the only Blue Raiders to ever face JSU.

Blue Raiders Picked Fifth By Coaches

The 2003 Blue Raiders were picked to finish fifth by league coaches in a poll released by the conference office in January. South Alabama received seven first-place votes and 79 points to top the Preseason Poll. Florida International and Louisiana-Lafayette follow in a tight race for second place in the coaches poll. New Orleans ended up fourth in the preseason poll with 49 points, followed by the Blue Raiders with 38 points. New Mexico State and Western Kentucky tied for sixth place with 33 points each. Arkansas-Little Rock and Arkansas State round out the poll with 25 and 18 points, respectively. New Mexico State will defend its Sun Belt Conference Championship Tournament title on May 21-24 at M.L. 'Tigue' Moore Field in Lafayette, La. Middle Tennessee was picked fifth in 2001 when the Blue Raiders joined the Sun Belt and went on to win the conference championship that season.

Jacksonville State Gamecocks

The Gamecocks enter the contest 1-3 overall after winning their home opener on Tuesday against Tennessee Tech, 4-3, in 13 innings. JSU, under second-year head coach Jim Case, were swept at Northwestern State last weekend to begin the season and have not played well defensively to start the year. The Gamecocks have committed 16 errors in their four outings. Brian Haskins leads the regulars for JSU with a .333 average and is the only regular with a batting average above .300. The pitching staff enters with a 5.79 ERA and opponents hitting .248.

Sun Belt Tournament

The 2003 Sun Belt Conference tournament will take place at M.L. 'Tigue' Moore Field in Lafayette, La. The event is slated for May 21-24 and will determine the league's automatic qualifier into the NCAA Tournament. Tickets may be purchased by calling the Louisiana-Lafayette Ticket Office.

Steve Peterson

Head Coach ✍ Jacksonville State/1973 ✍ 16th Season ✍ 469-377-2 (.553)

Steve Peterson is the personification of Middle Tennessee baseball.

After 15 seasons as the team's skipper, Peterson has become the program's winningest coach with a record of 469-377-2. In fact, Peterson has produced eight seasons with 30 or more wins, including a school record 42 victories during the 1990 slate.

Long known for his keen managerial mind, Peterson teaches a hard-nosed and aggressive style of baseball. His personable demeanor has made him a big hit among fans, boosters, players and recruits alike.

Peterson also adheres to the philosophy that defense and pitching wins championships. He has long been known for outstanding defensive teams, and the Blue Raiders have featured some of the area's most feared hurlers throughout the years. Peterson has seen three of his pitchers earn All-America honors, including the only First Team All-American in school history, Dewon Brazelton. Under his watch, the Blue Raiders have seen eight single-season and eight career pitching records established.

The offensive output of the team has not been ignored under Peterson, as his recruits established most of the offensive records held at Middle Tennessee. Peterson has developed three players that have hit .400 or better in a season along with the school's season and career home run records. His 1997 squad established the all-time record for batting average with a .323 clip.

However, aside from wins and losses, Peterson has been instrumental in leaving the Blue Raiders' mark on college baseball in other ways. He brought home seven consecutive conference championships (either regular season or tournament) during one stretch and has guided his team to an NCAA Regional on six different occasions. During his tenure, Peterson has captured one Sun Belt crown, eight OVC titles and seven OVC tournament titles. For his efforts, Peterson has twice been named OVC Coach of the Year. He brought national attention to the program in the 2001 season as his team found itself in the national rankings for the first time since 1982.

His efforts were clearly in evidence during the magical 2001 season. The Blue Raiders established the single-game attendance record at Reese Smith Field with a crowd of 2,733 on hand to witness the Blue Raiders' Friday night tilt against South Alabama. The team went on to set the season attendance mark as well with 26,218 coming through the gate at Reese Smith Field. Peterson's squad saw 10 crowds of 1,000 or more during the season.

If the team accolades and accomplishments aren't enough, consider that Peterson has coached a Sun Belt Player of the Year and six OVC Players of the Year, a Sun Belt Pitcher of the Year and an OVC Pitcher of the Year, a First Team All-American, four Third-Team All-Americans, three Freshman All-Americans, and 33 First Team All-Conference players.

In terms of sending players to the next level, Peterson is second to none. Professional baseball has seen 44 former Peterson protégés pass through the ranks with four players logging time in the Major Leagues.

Aside from playing baseball for a living, numerous former players have entered the coaching profession. Currently 25 former Blue Raiders are coaching at the high school, college or professional level.

He has also been responsible for the tremendous growth of Blue Raider baseball camps. Since taking over the camp program in 1984, Peterson has developed one of the area's premier camps with most sessions becoming sold out.

Peterson took two separate tours with the Blue Raiders as an assistant coach under John Stanford prior to becoming the team's skipper. During his runs between 1976-78 and 1984-87, the Blue Raiders won two OVC titles and four southern division crowns.

During the interim, Peterson served as the head coach at Roane State Community College in Harriman, Tenn. During his tenure from 1978-1984, Peterson took his team to a Tennessee Junior College title in 1981 and was twice named TJCAA Coach of the Year (1981, '84). While at Roane State, Peterson put together a sparkling record of 153-96, a .614 winning percentage.

His expertise also ranges away from on-the-field coaching. He is known as one of the top recruiters in the region and has a knack for keeping local talent close to home.

Peterson's reputation extends into fundraising as well. Events such as the annual Chuck Taylor Golf Tournament have become mainstays on the calendars of baseball supporters across middle Tennessee and have served to raise thousands of dollars for the improvement of Blue Raider baseball.

He spearheaded the effort to pay for the construction of the Stephen B. Smith Clubhouse and Indoor Training Facility, which opened its doors in 1998. One look inside the facility shows the amount of time and effort spent toward this endeavor. It has become known as one of the finest collegiate clubhouses and training facilities in the entire country.

Reese Smith Field has also benefited from Peterson's fundraising abilities. He has helped transform the park into a fan-friendly area by expanding the seating area, putting up a new information center just inside the gate, and expanding the restroom and concessions facilities.

Peterson guided efforts during the summer of 2001 to expand the dugouts at Reese Smith Field. He is also currently spearheading an effort that would totally renovate the current stadium. The plans would call for a significant remodeling of the concession stand, improved and expanded restroom facilities, and a modern press box that would accommodate radio and television along with print media.

Peterson, a native of Huntsville, Ala., spent his playing days at Jacksonville State under the legendary Rudy Abbott, where he stood out as a catcher. He earned his bachelor's from Jacksonville State in 1973 and later earned a master's degree from Middle Tennessee in 1977.

Peterson is married to the former Rita Albert and the couple has three children, Jill, Jenny and John. Away from the diamond, he enjoys fishing for small mouth bass.

Blue Raiders on Radio

✍ Selected Blue Raider baseball games will be broadcast on radio this season on WMTS 88.3 FM, the student-run radio station at Middle Tennessee. This season each conference game as well as selected midweek contests will be broadcast. The pregame show begins 10 minutes prior to the first pitch of each game. Chip Walters and Neil Price will handle the play-by-play duties during the 2003 campaign.

Interview Protocol

✍ The Blue Raider clubhouse is open for interviews at the conclusion of each home contest. Media members wishing to contact Coach Peterson or any of the Blue Raider players should notify Baseball Media Relations Director Jo Jo Freeman to establish a mutually agreeable time for the interview. Interviews prior to games are prohibited and player home phone numbers will not be given to media members under any circumstances.

Media Services

✍ Game notes, media guides, statistics and lineup cards will be available prior to each game. A final box score will be provided immediately following the conclusion of the game. A fax machine and telephone will be available on request. Please contact a MRD staff member to use these services.
