2003 Blue Raider Soccer

Louisiana-Monroe (0-2-0)/Western Carolina (0-1-0)

SOCCER GAME NOTES ■ SEPTEMBER 5, 2003

FOR THE BLUE RAIDERS ...

The squad hosts the Middle Tennessee Classic this weekend, with Alabama A&M, Western Carolina and Louisiana-Monroe coming to town for the first-ever tournament at Blue Raider Field. Middle Tennessee takes on Louisiana-Monroe Friday and Western Carolina Sunday in the second match on both days.

The Blue Raiders won the only meeting against Louisiana-Monroe, defeating the Indians, 3-1, in Murfreesboro on September 5, 1999. Hailee Walsh scored twice and added an assist, while Sheri Robbins netted a goal and Sarah Schulz and Megan Holsten each had an assist.

Middle Tennessee has never played Western Carolina.

BLUE RAIDERS WIN OPENER, 1-0

Senior Emily Carter volleyed in a cross from freshman Rachel Holmes in the 32nd minute and Middle Tennessee tied a school-record with 44 shots in defeating Belmont, 1-0, in the season-opener for the Blue Raiders Sunday afternoon.

Middle Tennessee played on its offensive end of the field for essentially the entire 90 minutes, limiting the visiting Bruins to just one shot in the match. The Blue Raiders tied the school-record set last season with 44 shots in the match, but Belmont keeper Ali Young kept the match close with 20 saves.

On the goal, Holmes took control of the ball just past midfield, fed Laura Miguez and got the ball back down the sideline. The Conyers, Ga., native then hit a cross into the box and Carter half-volleyed it into the back of the net for the first goal of the season for the Blue Raiders and the 18th of Carter's career.

But Middle Tennessee could not find the back of the net again despite dominating play for the entire match, including 10 corners in each half to none in the match for the Bruins. The Blue Raiders took 20 shots in the opening half and 24 in the final 45 minutes, while Belmont's only shot came in the first half.

Miguez had nine shots in the contest, including four on goal, while Carter and freshman Rebecca Rodriguez each tallied three shots on goal.

Blue Raider head coach Aston Rhoden was pleased with the outcome but said there are things to be worked on this week in practice.

"One of the good things is that we won," Rhoden said. "It was good to start at home and win the first game. I am pleased with the result but not with the missed opportunities.

"We are generating scoring chances, just not converting. We had a lot of chances with corner kicks and shots on goals and did not put them away."

MIGUEZ SCORES TWICE, ADDS ASSIST IN 3-0 VICTORY

Laura Miguez scored the first and third goals and assisted on Emily Carter's goal, as the Blue Raiders defeated Louisville, 3-0, in Huntsville, Ala., at the Alabama Shootout, an exhibition tourney.

Louisville controlled play for the first 15 minutes before the Blue Raiders countered and got on the board.

Freshman Rebecca Rodriguez had two scoring chances before Claire Ward served a ball to Miguez and the junior found the back of the net in the 21st minute for a 1-0 lead.

Middle Tennessee did not muster much more offense in the opening 45 minutes, and keeper Danielle Perreault kept the Cardinals off the board with several good saves, including a point-blank stop against UL's Kim Jents in the 31st minute.

Rodriguez drew a yellow card from Amy Seng in the 39th minute, as Seng pulled down the Dallas, Texas, native at midfield and prevented a potential scoring opportunity.

Miguez fought for a ball outside the box and Carter blasted the deflection five minutes into the second half and into the back of the net for a 2-0 Blue Raider lead.

Louisville had several more scoring chances in the second half, hitting the post once and the crossbar three times in the final 45 minutes. Perreault and freshman Caroline Schuepbach also had good saves to keep the Cardinals off the board.

Lindsey Bopp played a long through-ball to Miguez midway through the second period, and the junior found the back of the net for the second time in the match and the final 3-0 tally.

Middle Tennessee started four freshmen and five newcomers in the match. All 24 healthy players saw significant minutes in the match, with only senior Jenny Cox missing the game. Cox injured her knee in practice on Friday, a similar injury to the one she suffered last season at Auburn. She will be evaluated this week to determine the extent of the injury and how long she will be out.

"I think it was important the way we got the win in that everyone played," Blue Raider head coach Aston Rhoden said. "We've been stressing quality over quantity in terms of minutes, and we saw that today.

"We made the decision to start the freshmen to give them some confidence. We knew the older players would be fine no matter when we put them in the game, and that proved to be true.

"I thought overall it was a good team effort and the players saw the difference. I was pleased with the team effort and the support they gave each other throughout the match."

SOCCER SET TO HOST FREE CLINICS

Middle Tennessee soccer will host three free Saturday clinics for kids ages 5 to 13 beginning September 6 at Blue Raider Field.

The clinics will feature one aspect of soccer using the Sunday home game as a point of reference. Clinics will focus on a particular position or strategy. The clinics are designed for boys and girls ages 5 through 13 who wish to enhance their soccer skills. Our experienced staff and players will serve as instructors for all clinics. All players must bring a soccer ball, water and proper soccer attire and be ready for a fun-filled 90 minutes of action.

Clinic I on September will focus on passing and receiving. Clinic II on September 20 will work on dribbling and heading, while Clinic III on October 18 will focus on shooting and goalkeeping.

All three clinics run from 3-4:30 p.m. To sign up, click on the Free Clinic icon at goblueraiders.com on the soccer page and print the flyer. A waiver at the bottom of the page must be signed and mailed back to the soccer office three days before the clinic.

For more information, please call Beth Acreman at 615/898-2160.

NEWS AND NOTES...

- Junior Laura Miguez was named Preseason All-Sun Belt in a poll of league coaches. The Dallas, Texas, native earned First Team All-SBC honors in 2002.
- Senior Emily Carter netted her 18th career goal in Sunday's victory over Belmont, giving the Evansville, Ind., native 41 career points, just one behind current teammate Danielle LaDuke for second on the all-time list. Carter's 18 goals also ties LaDuke for second on the career goals list, with the duo three behind Hailee Walsh for first place.
- Junior Laura Miguez assisted on Carter's goal Sunday, tallying her 12th career assist. Miguez stands second on the all-time assist list, six behind leader Sarah Schulz.
- Middle Tennessee tied a school-record with 44 shots in the victory over Belmont. The Blue Raiders also took 44 shots versus Austin Peay on October 20, 2002.
- The victory in the season-opener was the first for the Blue Raiders since 2000 (1-0, Tennessee Tech).
- The Blue Raiders started four freshmen and a sophomore, all newcomers, in the exhibition match against Louisville. Head coach Aston Rhoden added to the number with five freshmen (Rachel Holmes, Rebecca Rodriguez, Katy Rayburn, Beth Wade, Sara Wohlhueter) and one sophomore (Claire Ward) drawing starts in the season-opener versus Belmont. Wohlhueter was the only freshman who did not start versus Louisville.
- With the 1-0 win over Belmont, the Blue Raiders improved to 3-5 all-time in season-openers, including 2-2 at home. All eight season-openers in Middle Tennessee soccer history have been shutouts.

MIGUEZ NAMED PRESEASON ALL-SBC, BLUE RAIDERS PICKED FIFTH

Junior Laura Miguez has been named to the Preseason All-Sun Belt soccer team while Middle Tennessee was picked to finish fifth in a poll of the league's coaches.

Miguez, the Blue Raiders leading scorer in 2002 with nine goals and three assists for 21 points, was one of three forwards on the team, joining Marilyn Marin of North Texas and Mychael Movius of Denver up top.

"With Laura making First Team All-Conference last season, that really helped her earn this honor and it's great for her to be selected again," Blue Raider head coach Aston Rhoden said. "We're hoping she lives up to the expectations and it's a great award for Laura."

Denver's Melissa Behrent, Rebecca Kahn of South Alabama and Western Kentucky's Jocelyn Roach were voted to the team as midfielders, while Elena Esquibel of Arkansas-Little Rock, South Alabama's Melissa Moeschl, Jamie Norwood of Denver and Western Kentucky's Melissa Robinson were named as defenders. South Alabama's Amber Angermeier was voted the all-conference keeper, with Marin bagging Player of the Year honors.

Denver edged North Texas for the top spot in the predicted order of finish by the coaches, with the Pioneers garnering five first-place votes and 77 points to four first-place votes and 74 points for North Texas. Western Kentucky was third with 53 points, with South Alabama in fourth (48) and Middle Tennessee fifth (45). Florida International (41), Louisiana-Lafayette (31), Arkansas State (19) and Arkansas-Little Rock (17) round out the poll.

"Being picked fifth gives us a chance to work higher into the conference mix. We feel good about our team and our ability to improve as the season progresses, and this gives us something to shoot for, especially since third and fifth are so close."

Middle Tennessee athletic director Boots Donnelly announced the hiring of Aston Rhoden as the Blue Raider soccer coach on February 4, 2002, the third head coach in the program's history.

Rhoden became the head coach at Middle Tennessee after serving at North Alabama in Florence, Ala., in the same capacity for six seasons. At North Alabama, Rhoden started the program from scratch, playing the first season as a club team before moving to varsity status in his second year at the helm. He compiled 39 wins during his tenure at UNA, including a pair of 11-win campaigns.

Rhoden was hired at UNA after serving as the staff coach for the Alabama Youth Soccer Association since 1993 and as an assistant soccer coach at Randolph High School In Huntsville, Ala. He also served as the Director of Coaching for the Rocket City Kicks Soccer Club in Huntsville and is currently a staff coach for the Tennessee Olympic Development Program (ODP).

The Jamaica native received his bachelor's in Computer Science and Mathematics from the University of Alabama-Huntsville in 1989. Currently he holds a National "A" Coaching License from the United States Soccer Federation (USSF) as well as the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) Premier Diploma.

Rhoden played collegiately at Alabama-Huntsville, earning the Leadership Award in 1988 and was the school's Outstanding Student-Athlete for 1985-86. Following his four-year playing career at UAH, Rhoden served as a graduate teaching assistant at UAH for a year and began coaching youth soccer teams in Huntsville in 1989.

In addition to his time at UAH, Rhoden's playing experience includes time on the Jamaican Youth National Team in 1980-81, playing on the Real Mona FC, Division I Major League team in Jamaica form 1981-84 and playing on the Shamrock FC, Division I Adult Soccer League team in Huntsville since 1990.
