SERIES RECORD

■ Saturday's football game between Middle Tennessee and Arkansas State will be the seventh meeting on the gridiron between the two schools. Middle Tennessee leads the overall series, which began in 1948, 5-1. MT defeated ASU in 1948 and 1949, then did not meet again unti 2001 when both played as members of the Sun Belt. MT won that game at home, 54-6 before ASU answered back the following year with a 13-7 win in Jonesboro. The Blue Raiders have won the past two games with a win in Jonesboro in 2003 and a victory last year at Floyd Stadium.

BLUE RAIDERS IN SBC

■ Middle Tennessee has an overall mark of 16-14 in Sun Belt action all-time, including an 11-5 mark at home and a 5-9 record on the road. The 16-13 mark equals the second most wins in league history behind North Texas' 27.

BLUE RAIDERS AT FLOYD

■ Since Floyd Stadium opened in 1933, the Blue Raiders have compiled an overall mark of 247-96-13 (.712), including a record 31-game win streak from 1987-94. MT is 24-14 at Floyd since the renovation in 1998 and has won 20 of its last 30. Under Andy McCollum, the Blue Raiders are 22-12; 11-5 at home.

MT-ASU NOTES

■ In the four meetings as league members, the Indians have scored just seven points against MT in the fourth quarter and have only managed 10 points in the second quarter.

■ Arkansas State is averaging 151.5 yards a game passing in the four SBC contests, while the Blue Raiders are averaging 255.2 yards through the air. MT threw for 447 yards in last year's meeting.

■ Middle Tennessee has not commited a turnover at home against ASU in two games but have turned it over six times on the road.

■ The team to score first has won three of the four meetings.

■ The Blue Raider offense has averaged 423.7 yards of total offense in the four meetings while the Indians have averaged 299.8 yards.

■ First Downs in the four meetings read: MT 91, ASU 64.

■ In the last two meetings, Middle Tennessee has picked off seven Indian passes.

■ In two home games against ASU, the Blue Raiders have averaged 49.5 points while getting just 18.5 per game in two contests at ASU.

SAINTIL HAS CAREER DAY

■ Middle Tennessee senior wide receiver Cleannord Saintil, who has been the team's most consistent pass catcher this year, turned in his best game as a collegian in the loss to ULL last week. Saintil hauled in a career-high 11 receptions for a personal-best 141 yards with both totals being Sun Belt Conference highs for the year. The 11 grabs by Saintil went down as a tie for the third most in school history. Entering play against FIU this week, Saintil now leads the league in receptions with 34 and receiving yards per game at 71.33.

BIG DAY FOR SMITH

■ Junior Colby Smith is coming off his best game as a punter when he boomed six punts for a 47.0-yard average against ULL. Smith, who also placed two punts inside the 20-yard line, has put nine of his last 17 punts inside the oppositions 20-yard line. Following his effort against ULL, Smith moved to 30th nationally in punting average at 42.39 per kick. That average would go down as the fourth-best in a single-season at Middle Tennessee if the season ended today.

MARKS TOPS 200 ... FINALLY

■ After setting a school record in 2004 with eight 200-yard passing games, junior Clint Marks topped the 200-yard mark for the first time this year in the loss to ULL. Marks completed 19 of 24 passes for 218 yards and no interceptions last week versus ULL. The Fort Myers, Fla., native now has 10 200-yard passing games to rank fourth in school history and stands two behind Jonathan Quinn and Kelly Holcomb who are tied for second with 12.

PENALITES HURTING MT

start has been the penalty department. In last week's setback to ULL, the Blue Raiders were flagged 11 times for 112 yards and numerous calls negated first downs and positive plays. Over the past two weeks, Middle Tennessee has been called for 22 penalties for 202 yards. On the season, Middle Tennessee is averaging 77.5 yards in penalties per game, which ranks as the 10th most in the NCAA.

DEFENSE PLAYING STRONG

■ After struggling most of the I-A era on the defensive side of the ball, Middle Tennessee has found the right formula for stopping opponents in 2005. Entering the ASU game, the Blue Raiders lead the Sun Belt Conference in virtually every defensive statistical category while ranking 28th nationally in total defense and 13th in scoring defense. Those rankings are the highest by the Blue Raiders this deep into the season during their I-A existence. Middle Tennessee is allowing just 327 yards a game and 16.5 points per contest while forcing two turnovers a game. In conference action, the Blue Raiders are allowing only 283.7 yards and 13.7 points per game (actually 11.3 because 7 points came on an interception return).

GROSS IN TOP 10

■ Junior running back Eugene Gross continues to have a nose for the endzone. With a career-best four rushing touchdowns in the win over FAU, Gross ran his career total to 23 rushing scores to surpass Kelverrick Green for 10th place on the all-time list and tie Ricky Martin for ninth place. Gross, who has six rushing scores this year, needs just

MT'S TOLBERT NO. 2

Longtime Middle Tennessee public address announcer Larry Tolbert has witnessed a lot of Blue Raider football in his time. The legendary Blue Raider announcer, who doubles as a lawyer during the week, has announced 181 consecutive games entering the 2005 season. Tolbert's streak ranks second in the state of Tennessee behind the Vols' Bobby Denton. Here is a look at the complete list entering 2005:

1.) 246 - Bobby Denton (UT); 1967-2004 (38 yrs.)
2.) 181 - Larry Tolbert (MT); 1970-2004 (35 yrs.)
3.) 153 - Tim Barrington (UTM); 1977-2004 (28 yrs.)
4.) 100 - Ernie Allen (TSU): 1985-2004 (20 yrs.)
5.) 90 - Dave Gelinas (Sewanee); 1986-2004 (19 yrs.)
6.) 88 - Philip Gibbons (TTU); 1990-2004 (15 yrs.)
7.) 58 - Steve Willard (APSU); 1993-2004 (12 yrs.)
8.) 42 - Chuck Roberts (Memphis); 1998-2004 (7 yrs.)
9t.) 20 - Brady Palmer (Cumberland); 2001-2004 (4 yrs.)
9t.) 20 - Alden Starnes (C-Newman) 2001-2004 (4 yrs)
11t.) 15 - Richard Donnell (Lane); 2002-2004 (3 yrs.)
11t.) 15 - Greg Judkins (Maryville); 2001-2004 (4 yrs.)
13.) 14 - Mike Maggert (Tusculum); 2002-2004 (3 yrs.)
14.) 12 - Chip Hoback (Vanderbilt); 2003-2004 (2 yrs.)
15.) 5 - David Wade (Lambuth); 2003-04 (2 yrs.)
16.) 3 - Ralph Hatley (Rhodes); 2004 (1 yr.)
17) 2 - Jeff Lewis (UT-Chattanooga); 2004 (part of 1 yr.)

one more rushing score to tie Mike Moore for eighth.

PICKIN' AND A GRINNIN'

■ With three interceptions against Florida Atlantic, Middle Tennessee ran its season total to eight, one more than the interception total the Blue Raiders had all of last season. Six of the interceptions have been by defensive backs and two by linebackers. Overall, seven of the eight interceptions have come in the last four games.

MARKS MOVING UP

■ Quarterback Clint Marks is among the school's all-time leaders in the passing department. Six games into his junior season, Marks has passed for 4,274 yards to rank fifth on the all-time list. The southpaw, who is 8-10 as a starter, needs 526 yards passing to surpass Teddy Morris for third place on the all-time list.

HENRY LOST FOR YEAR

■ Senior wide receiver Chris Henry was lost for the season when he suffered a dislocated fractured left ankle in the loss to North Texas. Henry, who sustained the injury in the second half, finished the game with six receptions. For the year, Henry collected seven receptions to run his career total to 100 and become the eighth player in school history to reach triple figures.

MT-NT CROWD NO. 6

■ The estimated announced crowd of 20,806 at the home opener against North Texas went down as the sixth largest in school history. It was also the largest crowd at Floyd Stadium since the Blue Raiders drew 23,261 against Florida Atlantic in 2003.

LOOKING FOR MORE

■ Coming off its best season in school history with 28 quarterback sacks, Middle Tennessee is focusing on bettering that total in 2005. With four of the top five sack leaders back, MT is poised to improve on that mark. Redshirt sophomore Erik Walden led the Blue Raiders in 2004 with six sacks, while Devarick Scandrett and Sean Mosley each recorded three. The Blue Raiders had just one sack in the opener at Alabama (Walden) and added one against North Texas (Littlejohn), Akron (Perry), and Vanderbilt (Mosley). The team had their best output of the year against FAU with four sacks and Walden added one versus ULL to run the season total to nine.

BLOCKED KICKS

■ Under McCollum, the Blue Raiders have blocked a total of 17 kicks with four being punts (Michael Woods vs Louisiana Tech in 2000, Chris Johnson vs ASU in 2001; Joey Montalbano vs ULM in 2002; Thomas Johnson vs UNT in 2002), six being extra points (Kareem Bland vs UL-Monroe in 2001 and two vs UNT in 2002; Pierre Ingram vs Clemson and Missouri in 2003; Thomas Johnson vs Troy State in 2003) and seven field goals (Kareem Bland vs UConn in 2001; Jerry Vanderpool vs Tennessee in 2002 and Akron in 2004; Sean Mosley vs FAU in 2004, Pierre Ingram vs ULL in 2004, Jeff Littlejohn vs UNT in 2005, and Jeremiah Weaver vs Vanderbilt in 2005). The first multiple block game for MT came against North Texas in 2002 with three.

GOING OVERTIME

■ Middle Tennessee enters the ASU game having competed in four overtime games as a member of I-A and is 2-2 in those contests. The Blue Raiders had one overtime contest in 2000 and played three in 2003. In 2003, the Blue Raiders lost in one overtime at No. 23 Missouri, then bounced back to take an overtime win at Idaho before losing a four overtime game at home against Louisiana-Lafayette. The four overtime loss to the Ragin' Cajuns was the longest game in the history of Blue Raider football and was the longest in the history of the SBC.

LIGHTNING BOLT

A lightning bolt will be presented to a player following each game when he has fulfilled one of the requirements to earn such an honor. The bolt will then be added to the back of the player's helmet. The Bolt is defined as a flash of "Blue" light conceived as a dart hurled from the heavens and one that acts with sudden and destructive fury. It represents a glorious and fearsome majesty. This tradition started in 2003. Following is a breakdown of the three different types of lightning bolts that can be earned by the Blue Raider players:

BLUE BOLT:
Offensive and Defensive Players
Big Play, Great Effort Play, Big Hit, Gamebreaker, Unselfish Play

BLACK BOLT:
Special Teams
Big Play, Great Effort Play, Big Hit, Gamebreaker, Unselfish Play

SILVER BOLT:
Entire Team
Putting Team First, An Extraordinary Play, Beyond the Normal

- Seen his offense score 30 or more points 30 times in 74 games
- 2002 Preseason Associated Press poll saw the Blue Raiders receive one vote, which was their first vote in school history

WEAVER COMES UP BIG

■ Senior Jeremiah Weaver added to the Middle Tennessee ledger of blocked kicks but none was bigger for the Blue Raiders than the one he registered at Vanderbilt. Weaver blocked a 36-yard field goal attempt on the game's final play to preserve Middle Tennessee's 17-15 win. The block was the first of Weaver's career and the 17th blocked kick under head coach Andy McCollum. Middle Tennessee has now blocked seven field goals in the I-A era, including two this season (Jeff Littlejohn vs. North Texas).

STRONG IN THE BLUE ZONE

■ Over the past 63 games, the Blue Raider offense has performed admirably in the blue zone. During that span, the offense has appeared inside the opponents' 20-yard line 237 times and has come away with points on 196 occasions. That works out to 83 percent. Of the 196 scores, 156 have been touchdowns. In 2004, the Blue Raiders were 34-for-39 in the blue zone and are 12-for-15 in 2005.

100-YD RECEIVING GAMES

■ Under Andy McCollum, MT has had 34 100-yard receiving games with 33 of those coming from wide receivers and one from a running back. WR Chris Henry (1) and WR Cleannord Saintil are the only current Blue Raiders to own a 100-yard receiving game.

LOOKING FOR 20

■ Under Andy McCollum, the Blue Raiders have compiled a mark of 31-16 when scoring 20 or more points. On the flip side, Middle Tennessee stands 1-26 when scoring less than 20 points for McCollum and Co.

QUICK HITTERS

■ Middle Tennessee's time of possession of 41:15 against FAU went down as the most in the I-A era to surpass the mark of 39:55 set against Vanderbilt in 2001.

■ Offensive tackle Germayle Franklin leads the Blue Raiders with 23 consecutive starts while DL Quinton Staton and OL Willie Hall are next in line with 17 straight starts. QB Clint Marks owns 16 starts in a row.

■ WR Cleannord Saintil has caught at least one pass in 17 straight games to pace the Blue Raiders.

■ As a I-A member (74 games), the Blue Raiders have scored 50 or more points nine times.

■ The Blue Raiders are 26-5 under Andy McCollum when leading at the half and are 29-4 when leading a game entering the 4th quarter.

■ When trailing at the half, the Blue Raiders are just 5-35 under McCollum and two of those wins came in 2001.

■ The Blue Raiders have scored in 102 of their last 104 games, including 61 in a row. The two miscues were a 10-0 shutout on the road against UL-Monroe in 1999 and a 55-0 loss in 2000 at Florida. MT has scored in 48 straight home games.

■ Under McCollum, the Blue Raiders are 23-16 on turf, 8-24 on natural grass (11 of the losses came on road to SEC teams) and 1-2 on FieldTurf.

■ Under McCollum, the Blue Raiders have scored 70 or more points on two occasions.

■ Largest Margin of Victory in the I-A era: 56 points vs UConn 11/4/00 (66-10) ... Largest Margin of Defeat in the I-A era: 55 points vs Florida 9/9/00 (55-0).

STORY IDEAS FOR 2005

■ QB Clint Marks: In 2002, Clint Marks arrived on campus at 163 pounds and many people never gave him a chance at seeing much time under center. Three years later, Marks is 203 pounds and on the Davey O'Brien Watch List.

■ New AD: Chris Massaro took over as MT's new Director of Athletics on May 1 and in his first 100 days a number of highlights have occured. Massaro inked a five-year deal with the University of Memphis to play football, while also adding Virginia to the home schedule in 2007. The long-time South Carolina associate AD also worked out a deal with WB 58 TV to become the new "Home of the Blue Raiders" and added local radio station WGNS 1450 to the Blue Raider Network.

■ Summer GPA: Middle Tennessee's football team put 64 players through summer school in 2005 and registered a cumulative GPA of 3.10. The team took a combined 422 hours.

■ Double Duty: Lou Groza Award candidate Colby Smith is one of the rare players in college football that handles both the placekicking and punting jobs.

■ Hosting SBC Hoops: The city of Murfreesboro at MT will play a part in March Madness this spring when the Blue Raiders play host to the SBC men's and women's basketball tournament March 2-7.

■ All-Sports Champs: The Blue Raiders have been a member of the Sun Belt Conference for only five years, but during that span they have won the All-Sports trophy three times. MT has won the honor two years in a row.

■ Graduates: Jason Elam, Jerrin Holt, Nick McAfee, and Paul Wheeler all have their degrees entering the 2005 season.

■ Palmer Stepping Down: Longtime play-by-play announcer Dick Palmer is in his 25th and final season of calling Blue Raider football. Palmer, who co-hosted the first call-in show in Nashville during the mid-70s, is also very active in Little League baseball.

MEDIA INFORMATION

ON THE AIR

■ In 2005, the Blue Raider Network welcomes WVRY FM 105.1 as its flagship station in Nashville, Tenn., while local stations WGNS 1450 AM and WMOT FM 89.5 will be the Blue Raiders' hometown carriers. The combination of the three stations will provide coverage in a 93-mile radius of Murfreesboro. WVRY and WGNS will carry all Blue Raider football and men's basketball games, along with the Andy Mac LIVE and Kermit Davis radio shows. Dick Palmer is in his 25th season as the Blue Raiders' play-by-play announcer, while MT graduate Chip Walters is handling the color analysis for the third year in a row. The Blue Raider Network also features six affiliate stations throughout the mid-state area.

ON THE NET

■ All Blue Raider football games can be heard over the internet by clicking on GoBlueRaiders.com. A link will be made available on the front page over on the righthand side.

ANDY MAC LIVE

■ Coach Andy McCollum's weekly call-in show, Andy Mac LIVE, airs each Thursday night from 7 to 8 PM from Corky's Restaurant in Murfreesboro. The show will be aired on WVRY FM 105.1 and WGNS 1450 AM, locally. The call-in number is 888-643-8366.

MCCOLLUM TV SHOW

■ The Andy McCollum television show can be seen each Sunday night at 10:30 PM on WB 58 (channel 18 on comcast cable) and each Monday (6:30 AM) and Wednesday (3:30 PM) on CSS. The show can also be seen each Monday at 7:30 PM on CSN 49 and Wednesday's at 2 PM on Fox College Sports. The show, which is taped each Sunday night, is hosted by Blake Fulton from 106.7 The Fan. Fulton is in his third year doing the show.

ALABAMA 26, MIDDLE TENNESSEE 7

Sept. 3, 2005 • Bryant-Denny Stadium • Tuscaloosa, AL

by Adam Sparks, Daily News Journal

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. - Consider MTSU a loser by technical knockout to Alabama Saturday.

The Blue Raiders went toe-to-toe for 12 rounds with a heavy hitter amid 81,018 at Bryant-Denny Stadium.

They just couldn't deliver a blow to the Crimson Tide's chin, and they couldn't withstand Alabama's body shots in the late rounds.

"Our kids played their butts off and fought one of the best teams in the SEC toe-to-toe," said MTSU head coach Andy McCollum, whose squad lost 26-7 to Alabama in its season opener.

"There are not a lot of negatives I have to say on our team. They fought the whole game, and there was still fire in their eyes in the fourth quarter."

MTSU hung around with a team some have picked to win the SEC West, but Alabama's sheer numbers eventually overwhelmed the Blue Raiders.

The Tide produced 345 hard-fought yards on the night but were outgained by MTSU in the first half.

Incidentally, everything that makes Alabama an SEC power showed in the second half, where the Tide outscored the Blue Raiders 17-0.

"We came out of that locker room at halftime with some fire, so our feelings were a little hurt in that second half because we felt good about ourselves," McCollum said.

Alabama quarterback Brodie Croyle completed 16-of-24 passes for 210 yards, while tailback Kenneth Darby rushed for 90 yards on 17 carries.

However, neither seemed too much for MTSU to handle.

The Blue Raider defense made a habit of bottling up the Tide on key third-down plays, including holding Alabama to no points when an MTSU fumble turned the ball over 20 yards shy of the end zone.

"We competed the whole game, and we're proud of that," said MTSU senior defensive lineman Jeff Littlejohn.

While MTSU uncharacteristically relied on its defense to keep the game close, the offense struggled against the Tide's speedy veteran stop squad.

Alabama's offense finally broke MTSU's resolve, putting together three quick-hit scoring drives in the second half.

On the flip side, MTSU made only one first down and gained just 22 yards in the second half, leaving its defense on the field late in the game.

Coming off a record-setting sophomore season, quarterback Clint Marks couldn't solve Alabama's No. 1-rated secondary from a year ago or its relentless pass rush.

Marks was sacked five times and limited to only 117 yards on 12-of-18 passing.

"They just have a great defense, and they're so fast at every position," Marks said. "We tried to do a few different things against them, and they didn't do much different than we thought they would.

MTSU's lone score came by marching 80 yards to paydirt in the second quarter, mostly with the ball in two true freshmen's hands.

Alex Suber had four touches (three rushes, one reception) for 24 yards on the scoring drive, and Bobby Williams hauled in a key 14-yard catch on third down.

Marks tossed a 14-yard touchdown pass to senior fullback Nick McAfee, only the 10th catch of his career.

"It was a play-action, and we faked the reverse. Nick McAfee just found that corner and got open," Marks said. "I guess that's exactly how you draw it up."

Alabama took an early but unimpressive 9-0 lead on MTSU miscues and a short scoring drive.

The Tide sacked Marks for a safety when the Blue Raider quarterback hesitated to throw the pass away. On the previous snap, MTSU tackle Germayle Franklin was penalized for holding, negating a 16-yard pass play and backing up the Blue Raiders to their own 7-yard line.

Alabama's next drive was halted by an MTSU interception by sophomore Bradley Robinson.

But the Tide soon answered with a 10-play, 51-yard drive, ending with a 1-yard dive into the end zone by Tim Castille to take a 9-0 lead. Castille later scored on another 1-yard run in the third quarter.

Alabama also scored on a Tyrone Prothro's 13-yard catch in the third quarter and Ryan Saxby's 32-yard field goal in the fourth quarter.

Senior Cleannord Saintil led MTSU with five receptions for 64 yards, as eight different Blue Raiders caught at least one pass.

Junior Eugene Gross and Suber combined for 59 yards on 19 rushes against a stacked defensive front.

Robinson and linebacker Jonathan Bonner, a Birmingham, Ala., native, led MTSU with nine tackles apiece.

MTSU stretched its road losing streak to six games, with its last road win coming in the 2004 season opener at Akron.

It was only the second all-time meeting between the schools. The last staged a near upset for MTSU, which lost 39-34 in 2002.

"Obviously this was a struggle for us, and we already knew that Middle Tennessee is a good football team," said Alabama coach Mike Shula. "They did a great job of hanging in there. You could tell they were not awed or intimidated by anything. They're obviously a very well-coached football team."

Game Notes

- Eugene Gross rushed for 129 yards on a career-high 28 attempts. It marked Gross' fourth career 100-yard game and his second against the Mean Green. The junior's 28 attempts were the most by a Blue Raider back since Dwone Hicks carried 37 times against Vanderbilt in 2001.

- LB J.K. Sabb recorded a school record five tackles for loss.

- Senior Jeff Littlejohn's sack in the third quarter was Middle Tennessee's first-ever sack against North Texas in five meetings.

- Jeff Littlejohn blocked a field goal in the third quarter. It was the first of his career and the 16th under Andy McCollum.

- Senior wide receiver Cleannord Saintil had five receptions for a career-high 94 yards. Saintil's previous yardage high was 75 yards against Florida Atlantic in 2004.

- With 195 yards passing against UNT, Clint Marks moved all the way to seventh on the all-time passing yardage list. Marks passed Andrico Hines and Phil Ironside and now has 3,654 career passing yards.

- A record five NFL scouts attended the MT-North Texas game.

- The 99-yard interception return by North Texas was the longest in school history against the Blue Raiders.

- RB Ralph King played in his first collegiate game against MT.

- WR Chris Henry ran his streak to 19 straight games with at least one reception.

NORTH TEXAS 14, MIDDLE TENNESSEE 7

Sept. 10, 2005 • Floyd Stadium • Murfreesboro, TN

by Adam Sparks, Daily News Journal

MURFREESBORO, Tenn. - There was little more than silence in MTSU's Floyd Stadium.

No stirring from an estimated crowd of 20,806, no victory parade from a historic win and certainly no tectonic shift of the Sun Belt Conference's landscape.

MTSU lost 14-7 to four-time defending Sun Belt champion North Texas to extend the Mean Green's league winning streak to 26 games. It dropped MTSU to 0-5 against North Texas (1-0, 1-0 in Sun Belt) all-time, and the Blue Raiders (0-2, 0-1) also suffered their fourth straight defeat in a home opener.

"This has nothing to do with a lack of effort or a lack of desire," said MTSU coach Andy McCollum. "What hurts is that it wasn't a matter of them stopping us. It was a matter of us stopping ourselves.

"We had every chance to put ourselves in a great position because I really believe that if we could have got up 10-0 or 14-0, I don't think they could've scored twice on our defense."

MTSU committed a long list of miscues with the football in its hands, including five turnovers and two missed field goals.

The tide-turning error came when MTSU quarterback Clint Marks was intercepted just shy of the goal line by Maurice Holman, who rumbled 99 yards to tie the score at 7 midway through the third quarter.

From there, North Texas put together what little offense it could muster on the night, punching in a third-quarter score on Patrick Cobbs' four-yard touchdown run after MTSU fumbled on its own 46-yard line to take a 14-7 lead.

"This is real tough. But put it on my shoulders. This all my fault," said Marks, who finished 21-of-27 passing for 195 yards and three interceptions. "On the three interceptions? The first one I had the guy, but I threw it too high. On the second one, it was pretty much a bad decision on my part.

"And on the third one, I kind of got hit in the back and the ball died on me, and there was a linebacker waiting right there for it."

Marks' last pick ended MTSU's hopes of a late rally when he was intercepted on the first play after the Blue Raiders took possession with 3:44 remaining in the game on their own 16-yard line.

However, several other blown offensive opportunities led to that final nail in the coffin.

MTSU squandered three scoring opportunities in the first half, with drives deep into North Texas territory ending with an interception, missed field goal and fumble.

Marks was picked off by Aaron Weathers after completing his first six passes of the night.

That ended a 55-yard drive in the first quarter that included a 27-yard reception by Cleannord Saintil.

The Blue Raiders marched 38 more yards on their next possession, but junior Colby Smith missed a 42-yard field goal on his first attempt of the year.

After taking a 7-0 lead, MTSU stopped North Texas on a fourth-and-1 run, traveled 34 yards, but fumbled when Chris Henry lost the handle after a 16-yard catch.

"There's no finger-pointing, and I hurt for them, ... but what hurts is that we moved it up and down the field on them. We just committed critical turnovers. We just did things you can't do," McCollum said. "It's just that five turnovers is tough to overcome, and we couldn't overcome it."

MTSU outgained North Texas 383 to 274, including 188 yards rushing yards.

Junior running back Eugene Gross had a career-high 28 carries for 129 yards and one touchdown.

Saintil led MTSU with five catches for 94 yards, and Henry had six receptions for 43 yards, but suffered a season-ending leg injury in the fourth quarter.

MTSU drew first blood with a steady 14-play, 65-yard drive that ended with Gross' six-yard touchdown run with 7:53 remaining in the second quarter. Marks completed 4-of-5 passes on the drive, and Gross added six rushes for 31 yards.

Meanwhile, the MTSU's defense shone throughout the night, holding North Texas' star running backs Jamario Thomas and Patrick Cobbs, the last two NCAA rushing champions, to a combined 161 rushing yards on 38 carries.

"But I'm not going to sit here and blame this on my offense. We're a whole team, and this is on all of us," said MTSU nose guard Jeff Littlejohn, who had a sack and blocked a North Texas field goal.

"We could've all done more. Defense wins championships, and the offense pleases the crowd. We all put a lot on ourselves for this game, and we didn't finish it off, and that goes for the whole team."

The Blue Raiders also held North Texas freshman quarterback Daniel Meager to 122 yards on 10-of-15 passing.

Meanwhile, linebacker J.K. Sabb led MTSU with seven tackles and set a school record with five tackles for loss.

Game Notes

- Middle Tennessee leading receiver Cleannord Saintil hauled in his first touchdown reception of the season and just the second of his career in the second quarter against Akron. The 43-yard reception was the longest of Saintil's career and the longest pass play of the season for the Blue Raiders.

- Middle Tennessee has scored just 21 points this season and all 21 have come in the second quarter.

- Freshman wide receiver Michael Cannon made his first collegiate start against Akron.

- Freshman Brandon Perry collected his first collegiate sack against the Zips.

- Sophomore Bradley Robinson recorded his team-leading second and third interceptions against Akron when he made a circus catch in the back of the endzone to stop a Zip scoring threat to go along with another one on the very next possession. It marks the second time in Robinson's career he has hauled in two interceptions in a single-game (2 vs Arkansas State in 2004). For his career, Robinson now has five interceptions.

- Safety Jeremiah Weaver picked up his first interception as a Blue Raider in the loss to Akron.

- The Blue Raiders are now 0-25 in the I-A era when scoring less than 20 points.

AKRON 17, MIDDLE TENNESSEE 7

Sept. 17, 2005 • Floyd Stadium • Murfreesboro, TN

by Adam Sparks, Daily News Journal

MURFREESBORO, Tenn. - It was the same old blues tune for the Blue Raiders Saturday.

The offense struggled, the defense was a few plays shy of a job well done and the result followed suit, as MTSU lost 17-7 to Akron amid 12,411 at Floyd Stadium.

"We're not playing very good. We're just not a very good offensive football team right now," said MTSU coach Andy McCollum. "We make too many mistakes, and we don't make plays. We can't do anything offensively, and it's very disappointing."

The defeat dropped MTSU to 0-3 on the year and marked the first time the Blue Raiders have lost home games in back-to-back weeks since 1980.

It was Akron's first non-conference road win in six years and the first victory over MTSU since 1982, a span of six meetings.

Furthermore, MTSU's offensive struggles reached nearly unprecedented lows on the scoreboard.

The Blue Raiders scored less than 10 points in a second straight home game for the first time in 36 years, spanning 201 home games over that period of consistent scoring.

It was also the third straight game that MTSU's offense scored only seven points, again coming in the second quarter.

"We know we're better than the offense that we're showing people out there," said junior quarterback Clint Marks. "We're hurting ourselves. We're not being consistent in anything.

"We show what we can do when we drive down the field, but we're not doing it enough, and we're not scoring. So that's a problem."

MTSU had only 211 total yards and eight first downs. Marks completed 19-of-32 passes for 139 yards, one touchdown and no interceptions.

The Blue Raiders didn't pick up their initial first down until the second play of the second quarter, and only one offensive drive traveled farther than 30 yards.

"We came out slow on offense, and you have to be focused when you're coming out playing at home," said running back Eugene Gross, who rushed for a season-low 29 yards on 11 carries.

"At the beginning of the game, we just couldn't get into a groove, and everything built up to the end of the game when it was too late to put anything together."

The Blue Raiders' lone score came when senior Cleannord Saintil snatched a reception at the 20-yard line, then spun and juked three defenders to score on a 43-yard touchdown pass from Marks.

"I settled in their zone, got the ball and tried to make a play. I spun off a couple of guys and used my instincts to get by and get to the end zone," said Saintil about his career-long reception. "But I should've made the other catch in the fourth (quarter), so I blame this loss on myself."

Saintil dropped an over-the-shoulder catch from backup quarterback Josh Harris when he broke wide open behind the Akron secondary with 10:12 remaining in the game. It would've been a 91-yard score to cut the Zips' lead to 17-14.

"That's what you want. It's your best receiver 25 yards behind their secondary, and we don't make the play," McCollum said.

Akron (1-1) finished one yard shy of doubling MTSU's offensive production, gaining 421 yards and 26 first downs.

Quarterback Luke Getsy completed 23-of-43 passes for 319 yards, two touchdowns and three interceptions.

However, the Blue Raiders' three picks — two by Bradley Robinson — were turned around for only two offensive first downs and no points.

"Sometimes the offense makes plays, and sometimes the defense makes plays," Robinson said. "It looks like we've just both got to make more to win right now."

For all of Akron's production, it squandered scoring opportunities early. The Zips reached MTSU territory on their first three possessions but came away with only one score.

Akron took the game's opening kickoff and drove 72 yards in just six plays and 1:59 to score on Getsy's pass to Brett Biggs.

Akron threatened to score on its next two drives but stalled on a dropped third-down pass and a failed fourth-down conversion.

Meanwhile, MTSU appeared to be playing in sand, picking up only 17 yards in its first three possessions.

The Blue Raiders wasted a prime opportunity to steal momentum when a second-quarter Akron scoring drive featured a third-and-28 conversion, a dropped interception and personal foul by MTSU and a Zips' touchdown catch between Blue Raider defenders.

After Akron holding penalties on back-to-back snaps, MTSU linebacker Jonathan Bonner dropped an interception that struck his hands with only the end zone in front of him 15 yards away.

On the next play, Akron converted on third-and-28 with a 43-yard pass to Domenik Hixon capped off by an MTSU face mask penalty — counting for a 63-yard gain.

Five plays later, Hixon made a sliding touchdown catch on third-and-seven to go ahead 14-7 with 2:19 remaining in the second quarter.

After MTSU's offense went three plays and out to start the second half, Akron took a 17-7 lead on Jason Swiger's 49-yard field goal to cap a 31-yard drive.

Game Notes

● Senior Jeremiah Weaver added to the Middle Tennessee ledger of blocked kicks, but none has been bigger for the Blue Raiders. Weaver blocked a final field goal try of the contest, preserving the 17-15 victory. The block was the first of Weaver's career and the 17th blocked kick under head coach Andy McCollum. Middle Tennessee has now blocked seven field goals in the I-A era, including two this season (Jeff Littlejohn vs. North Texas).

● Junior Colby Smith made his first field goal of the season and it came at a very good time for the Blue Raiders. After missing two field goals against North Texas, Smith nailed his first three-pointer of the season late in the fourth quarter from 29 yards out to put the Blue Raiders ahead, 17-15. It went down as the 16th made field goal of Smith's career, which ties him with Michael Robinson for ninth place on the all-time list.

● Sophomore defensive end Eric Mosley recorded a sack in the fourth quarter, the fourth of his career and the fourth for the Blue Raiders this season. Mosley collected three sacks in 2004, tying for third on the team in that category.

● ESPN2 broke in to cover the final minute of the contest, catching Jeremiah Weaver's game-saving blocked field goal.

● This marked the first game in the Andy McCollum era the Blue Raiders have won when scoring less than 20 points.

MIDDLE TENNESSEE 17, VANDERBILT 15

Oct. 1, 2005 • Vanderbilt Stadium • Nashville, TN

by Adam Sparks, Daily News Journal

NASHVILLE, Tenn. - MTSU took a familiar victory lap at a track called Vanderbilt Stadium.

After a spirited 17-15 win over Vanderbilt, the Blue Raiders strutted about the turf amid 37,257 as though conquering a castle — only for the third time.

"There's so much pride in playing this game on this field, and each time we've won here, we've let people know what we stand for," said MTSU senior Dennis Burke.

"There are so many fans that come into this stadium on the fence about who to root for. When they leave, we make sure they're not on the fence anymore.

"We proved our character to everybody, and this is just the best feeling I've ever had in my life."

MTSU (1-3) beat Vanderbilt (4-1) for the third straight time in a five-year span, only this victory meant a little more.

Vanderbilt entered the game 4-0 and almost tasting its first bowl berth in 23 years. MTSU came in winless and rabid for a victory.

"Our backs were against the wall, and these kids were hungry for a win," said MTSU coach Andy McCollum, who is now 3-0 versus the neighboring Commodores. "But this was something special. In the past, people have taken Vanderbilt for granted, but they won't take this one for granted because we beat an undefeated first-place SEC team.

"In the history of our school, I don't think we've ever beaten a first-place SEC team."

Living up to the drama of recent meetings, Saturday's game was decided on the last snap when MTSU senior Jeremiah Weaver blocked Vanderbilt's potential game-winning field goal, a 36-yard attempt as time expired.

"I just cut through the side and slapped the ball down," Weaver said. "It stung at first, but it felt so good after that.

"That's the kind of pain you dream about."

The victory mirrored MTSU's new defensive character, as the Blue Raiders won by scoring less than 20 points for the first time in McCollum's career — a series of 26 games.

Vanderbilt's offense, led by preseason All-SEC quarterback Jay Cutler, was held to a season-low 347 yards, and the Blue Raider defense dictated the game's tone wire-to-wire.

MTSU's defense held the Commodores to three field goals through three quarters, finally allowing a 43-yard touchdown drive capped by Cutler's 16-yard scoring toss to Erik Davis in the fourth quarter.

Vandy's two-point conversion attempt failed, and the Commodores took a 15-14 lead with 12:55 remaining in the game.

Though stifled much of the night, the Blue Raiders' offense answered with a 53-yard drive that ended on Colby Smith's 29-yard field goal to take a 17-15 lead.

Later in the fourth quarter, Smith landed a punt one foot shy of the end zone, pinning the Commodores down in the shadow of the MTSU cheering section.

Cutler drove Vandy 81 yards before Weaver batted down Bryant Hahnfeldt's field goal.

Early on, MTSU sucked the momentum from Vanderbilt Stadium in its most productive scoring flurry of the season, posting two scores in less than eight minutes.

Jonathan Harris intercepted Cutler's pass across the middle of the field for his first career pick, returning the football three yards shy of the end zone.

Three plays later, Marks sliced through on a quarterback draw for a three-yard score.

Marks then went to the air to set up MTSU's second touchdown with a 44-yard pass to freshman Bobby Williams, the longest pass play of the season for the Blue Raiders.

Stephen Chicola followed with a key third-down catch to keep the drive alive, and tailback Eugene Gross broke two tackles en route to an eight-yard touchdown.

The scoring drive covered 84 yards in just eight plays and put MTSU ahead 14-3.

"Our defense played great all game, and we weren't going to let them down," Marks said. "We knew we had to score on our own to win this game.

"We did what we had to, and that goes for everybody. I've never felt so satisfied in my lifetime as I did when that last kick got blocked."

After its offense's long scoring drive, the MTSU defense again stiffened its back to the Vanderbilt attack, making a goal line stand to take the momentum into halftime.

After Cutler connected on three straight passes for a combined 50 yards, the Blue Raiders kept Vandy from paydirt despite a first-and-goal from the 5-yard line.

Damon Nickson had a touchdown-saving shoestring tackle on second-and-goal, and Jeff Littlejohn made a tackle for a one-yard loss to force Hahnfeldt's 20-yard field goal to cut MTSU's lead to 14-6 at the half.

Vanderbilt struck first in the game on Hahnfeldt's 42-yard field goal to cap a 10-play, 40-yard drive late in the first quarter.

Marks went 14-of-22 passing for 147 yards, while Gross finished with 19 rushes for 72 yards.

Williams set two career highs with five catches for 80 yards.

Cutler was 26-of-44 passing for 245 yards, one touchdown and one interception.

Game Notes

- LB Dennis Burke recorded his third career interception on FAU's first offensive play of the game that led to a Blue Raider touchdown. All three of Burke's interceptions have come against Sun Belt teams.

- Middle Tennessee played a total of 55 players in the first half.

- RB Ralph King scored his first collegiate touchdown when he ran one in from 19 yards in the second quarter.

- MT rushed for 263 yards on 64 attempts and scored five rushing touchdowns. That rushing total went down as the most by a Blue Raider team since gaining 319 yards against Utah State in 2002 - a span of 28 games. The 64 rushing attempts was the second most in school history.

- RB Eugene Gross picked up his fifth career 100-yard rushing game with 131 yards on a career-best 30 carries. Gross also registered a personal-best four rushing touchdowns which equaled the second-most in a game at Middle Tennessee.

- The Middle Tennessee defense forced four turnovers, allowed just 14 points, and came away with a season-high four sacks.

MIDDLE TENNESSEE 35, FAU 14

Oct. 15, 2005 • Lockhart Stadium • Ft. Lauderdale, FL

by Adam Sparks, Daily News Journal

FT. LAUDERDALE, Fla. - The Sunshine State brightened MTSU's skies, as the Blue Raiders claimed a critical win in the rarest of places.

MTSU beat Florida Atlantic 35-14 amid 10,117 at Lockhart Stadium, marking the Blue Raiders' first win in the state of Florida in 38 years and the first road Sun Belt victory since 2003.

It also avenged a pair of FAU comeback wins over the Blue Raiders in back-to-back seasons on MTSU's home turf.

"This team can win big games on the road, and we believed that we would come down here to Florida and win this game," said MTSU quarterback Clint Marks, a Fort Myers, Fla. native. "This is an experienced team, a team with a lot of character, and everything's in our hands right now.

"We had lost to (FAU) in some tough games, but we went on the road to get back what we lost."

MTSU (2-3, 1-1 in Sun Belt) dominated the game beyond the scoreboard.

The Blue Raiders rushed for a season-high 263 yards and forced five FAU (1-6, 1-2) turnovers. They also controlled possession for nearly 70 percent of the game and took 29 more offensive snaps than the Owls.

Junior tailbacks Eugene Gross and Ralph King had the best games of their respective careers.

Gross rushed for a season-high 131 yards and a career-high four touchdowns. King, a former Riverdale High star, added a career-high 97 rushing yards and one score.

"I had some flashbacks of high school when I was running it so much (22 carries)," King said. "It felt great to be running the ball for Murfreesboro again."

MTSU's key drive came with FAU threatening to pull a third straight comeback in the second half.

FAU answered a 21-0 early deficit with two unanswered touchdowns, but the Blue Raiders marched 69 yards on 12 plays to put the game virtually out of reach in the fourth quarter.

Gross and King carried the ball a combined eight times for 46 yards on the drive, and Gross scored on an 11-yard run to take a 28-14 lead.

"That's when our offense got their confidence. They buckled down and got a big drive, and it was probably the drive of the game," said MTSU coach Andy McCollum. "(FAU) scored before the half and then scored after the half, but we settled down on offense and brought it right down the field."

But it was the defense that finished off the win.

After their pivotal scoring drive, the Blue Raiders made two interceptions on FAU's next four plays.

Keon Raymond picked off FAU quarterback Danny Embick, setting up Gross' one-yard touchdown run. Jonathan Bonner followed with an interception, and MTSU held on to an insurmountable 35-14 lead.

"Our defensive line put a lot of pressure on (Embick). We contained him from running a lot, we blitzed him, and we forced him into some bad throws," Raymond said.

FAU gained only 269 total yards, and Embick was sacked four times. MTSU's Quinton Staton had a team-high seven tackles and one sack.

Marks, meanwhile, was 11-of-18 passing for 116 yards and one interception.

MTSU burst out to a 21-0 lead in the second quarter, scoring three times on the ground.

MTSU linebacker Dennis Burke intercepted an Embick pass on FAU's first offensive snap, returning the ball six yards to the 2-yard line.

Gross scored on the next play, diving over left guard to give MTSU a 7-0 lead just 2:45 into the game.

The Blue Raiders' next two drives stalled, ending in a 47-yard missed field goal and a 38-yard blocked field.

Kicker Colby Smith also missed a 46-yard field goal.

But MTSU rebounded with consecutive scoring drives of 70 and 85 yards in the second quarter.

Among the 21 plays in the two drives, MTSU had 16 runs.

King broke three tackles on a 19-yard touchdown run with 12:14 remaining in the second quarter, and Gross capped the latter drive with a 5-yard scoring run from the shot-gun quarterback position.

"We played with heart, and we didn't panic," Marks said. "They gained a little momentum in the middle of the game, but we came right back at them. The defense never let up, and the offense took back the momentum for good.

"We won a big game, and we're in control of our season right now."

ULL 13, MIDDLE TENNESSEE 10

Oct. 22, 2005 • Floyd Stadium • Murfreesboro, TN

by Adam Sparks, Daily News Journal

MURFREESBORO, Tenn. - Saturday staged a snapshot of MTSU's season — so close, but so far away.

A routinely stern defense kept a crowd of 17,806 on its collective seat's edge for the better part of three hours, but the outcome left the stands in a familiar state — empty.

The Blue Raiders lost their third straight home game at Floyd Stadium, falling 13-10 to Louisiana-Lafayette and virtually dropping out of the Sun Belt race.

"This is so disappointing because we should win every game at home," said MTSU senior defensive tackle Quinton Staton. "But so far, we're winless at home, and we've won two games on the road.

"How does that happen? I don't know."

Well, one major factor was an offense that did an about face from the previous week's success.

MTSU (2-4, 1-2) posted 10 points in the first eight minutes of the game, but never visited the scoreboard again.

On the season, the Blue Raiders have yet to score in the second half at home.

"Once again, it seems like we're right back where we were at the beginning of the season. We're shooting ourselves in the foot and stopping drives, just things of that nature," said MTSU tailback Eugene Gross. "As an offense, I thought we were on the uphill where we could start putting it together.

"We had too many penalties and mistakes, and that (fourth-quarter) fumble I had cost us the game."

The Blue Raiders committed 11 penalties for 126 yards, and quarterback Clint Marks was sacked a season-high nine times.

The offense also only produced 263 yards, a season-low mark allowed by the conference's worst-rated defense.

But despite its offensive woes, the final body shot was delivered on the MTSU defense.

UL-Lafayette (2-5, 1-2) drove 71 yards in 11 plays late in the fourth quarter for the game-winning drive.

The Cajuns converted on a fourth-and-4 play, and fullback Booker Jenkins followed with a six-yard touchdown run off an option pitch.

Kicker Sean Comiskey missed the extra-point attempt, but the Blue Raiders could not take advantage of the ray of hope.

"With them going down and scoring on us late was not a good situation to put our offense in," said senior linebacker Dennis Burke. "We just panicked. Everybody just panicked, and we got away from what we worked on all week."

Marks was 19-of-24 passing for a season-high 218 yards, but he was sacked twice on MTSU's last-minute possession.

Senior receiver Cleannord Saintil had career highs of 11 catches for 141 yards.

"We moved the ball and made passes and made good runs, but we just made a lot of dumb mistakes," Saintil said. "You can't overcome that many dumb mistakes with yards."

MTSU was both precise and penalized on its first two drives of the afternoon.

The Blue Raiders overcame 30 yards in penalties on their opening possession to march 76 yards in 13 plays. Marks completed six straight passes on the drive, including back-to-back third-down connections to Taron Henry and Saintil.

Ralph King put MTSU on the board with a two-yard touchdown run over left guard.

The Cajuns' fumble on their ensuing possession was recovered by MTSU's Jeremiah Weaver at the UL-Lafayette 46-yard line.

Colby Smith made a 37-yard field goal seven plays later to put MTSU ahead 10-0.

UL-Lafayette answered with an 11-play, 81-yard drive highlighted by Josh Harrison's 27-yard scamper, 16-yard reception and two-yard touchdown run.

Desormeaux led the Cajuns with 138 yards passing and 30 rushing. He connected on 14-of-25 passes.

The loss ended MTSU's hopes of its first three-game winning streak since 2001.

Meanwhile, the Cajuns improved to only 3-21 on the road under coach Rickey Bustle, with two of those victories coming against the Blue Raiders.

"This win is a testament to this team never giving up," Bustle said. "It has been tough on everybody, and this really was a turning point for us."

It was only MTSU's second Homecoming loss in the past 18 years and the second under McCollum.

"We let our fans down," Saintil said. "Last year, we only lost one game at home. We go out trying to play hard, but it's not happening for us here at home. We're killing ourselves in these games."
