Middle Tennessee (5-7)

When: March 15-16, 2006
Site: Clarksville, Tenn. (Raymond Hand Park)/Murfreesboro, Tenn. (Reese Smith Field)
Radio 88.3 FM WMTS, Wednesday -- Duane Hickey/Thursday -- Jonathan Hutton
Notes: Middle Tennessee ends a seven-game road swing with Wednesday's contest at Austin Peay ... The Blue Raiders lead the all-time series, 73-34, including 33-19 in Clarksville ... Middle Tennessee has won three in a row and five of the last seven meetings in Clarksville, including 13-5 last season, 7-6 in 2004 and 16-7 in 2003 ... Middle Tennessee hosts UT Martin on Thursday, the first meetings between the two teams since the Blue Raiders left the OVC in 2000 ... Middle Tennessee leads the all-time series, 19-6, including 8-1 at home.

Middle Tennessee vs. Austin Peay/UT Martin
The Blue Raiders own a 73-34 all-time advantage in the series over Austin Peay, including a 33-19 mark in Clarksville. Middle Tennessee has won the last three meetings at Raymond C. Hand Park and five of the last seven. The two teams were longtime OVC rivals and met eight times in the OVC Tournament, with the Blue Raiders owning a 6-2 mark in those contests. Middle Tennessee and UT Martin have not met since the Blue Raiders left the OVC following the 2000 season. Middle Tennessee owns a 19-6 mark all-time in the series, including 8-1 in Murfreesboro. The Blue Raiders have won six of the last seven in the series, including the final two meetings in the OVC, a doubleheader in Murfreesboro on March 18, 2000.

Five Games in Five Days
The Blue Raiders will play five consecutive days this week after being scheduled to play six straight days last week, with 10 of those 11 contests on the road. Middle Tennessee was set to take on Memphis on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday last week, but the final game of the series was cancelled because of rain. The Blue Raiders then played a weekend series at Southern Illinois on Friday, Saturday and Sunday. This week Middle Tennessee heads to Austin Peay on Wednesday for a 6:30 p.m. outing and then hosts UT Martin Thursday at 3 p.m. at Reese Smith Field. The Blue Raiders will then head to Birmingham Southern for a three-game series Friday, Saturday and Sunday. It will be the first-ever three-game series against BSC and just the fifth meeting all-time against the Panthers.

McKenry Named to Bench Award Watch List
Junior catcher Michael McKenry was one of 26 players named to the Coleman Company – Johnny Bench Award Watch List announced this week. The Johnny Bench Award is given annually to the nation's top catcher, with the award sponsored by the Coleman Company and the Greater Wichita (KS) Area Sports Commission. McKenry was a First Team All-Sun Belt selection last season in his first year as the team's starter behind the plate. He currently leads the Blue Raiders with a .422 batting average with three doubles, two triples, two home runs and 15 RBIs in 12 games. The 2006 Johnny Bench Award Watch List includes: Michael Ambort, Jr., Lamar; J.P. Arencibia, So., Tennessee; Brian Baisley, Sr., South Florida; Ryan Bono, Sr., Central Florida; Justin Brashear, Jr., Ole Miss; Donald Cheney, Jr., Morehead State; John Curtis, Jr., Cal-State Fullerton; Ed Easley, So., Mississippi State; Sean Gaston, Jr., Notre Dame; Brian Hernandez, Sr., Vanderbilt; Robby Jacobsen, Sr., George Mason; Brian Jeroloman, Jr., Florida; Jeff Kunkel, Sr., Michigan; Matt Liuzza, Sr., LSU; Jonathan Lucroy, So., Louisiana-Lafayette; Nick Maragas, Jr., Cincinnati; Matt McBride, Jr., Lehigh; Jordan Newton, Jr., Western Kentucky; Preston Paramore, Fr., Arizona State; Kris Rochelle, Jr., Charlotte; Konrad Schmidt, Jr., Arizona; Bryan Towler, Sr., Marist; Chad Tracy, Jr., Pepperdine; Andrew Walker, So., TCU; Andy Wendle, Jr., Villanova. Because the award is given annually to the top Division I collegiate catcher, the list will be updated to include other candidates until May 1. The watch list will be narrowed to 10 semifinalists, who will be announced May 11. A comprehensive biography will be created on each of the semifinalists and sent to the national voting panel at the end of May for a vote to determine the three finalists. The finalists will be announced May 31 prior to the NCAA Regionals and Major League Baseball Draft. A final vote among the national committee will occur during the College World Series. All finalists will be brought to Wichita and the winner will be announced at the 9th Annual Greater Wichita Sports Banquet on June 28.

Raiders Road Warriors Until SBC Play
With the first three games of the season against IP-Fort Wayne snowed out, Middle Tennessee will play 14 of its first 18 games of the season away from home. The Blue Raiders hosted Missouri State in three games last weekend and take on UT Martin on March 16 at Reese Smith Field in the team's only other home game until opening Sun Belt Conference play at home against Arkansas-Little Rock on March 24-26. In the recent past, the 2004 squad played eight of its first 11 on the road, while the 2002 club played nine of its first 15 away from home. It has probably been since 1994 when the Blue Raiders played 11 of the first 14 on the road since a Middle Tennessee squad has been so much time on the road in February and March.

Scott Returns to Form

Junior Matt Scott looked like his old self Friday at Southern Illinois, tossing eight shutout innings while striking out six and allowing just six hits. He allowed only four runners to reach scoring position and only one made it to third base. The righthander improved to 2-0 with a 2.70 ERA in 20.0 innings of work. After giving up five runs in 5.1 innings to Missouri State on March 3, Scott worked on his mechanics and tossed a shutout inning of relief at Memphis last Tuesday. That got him back on track and it carried over to Friday, where the Smyrna, Tenn., native worked ahead in the count and got 12 fly balls on a pitcher's day at the park, cold with the wind blowing in. Scott is now 15-3 in his Blue Raider career, just two wins from reaching the Top 10 and tied for first all-time in winning percentage (.833).

Bullpen Less Than Stellar

The Middle Tennessee bullpen has struggled at times this season, and it was never more apparent than in last week's five games on the road. The unit was 0-3 with a 7.48 ERA in the five outings, including two games where the Blue Raiders were either tied or ahead entering the final inning and lost in that frame. There were bright spots along the way, including Tommy Sterritt tossing three shutout innings at Memphis and Brett Reilley allowing one run in 3.1 innings at Southern Illinois. Freshman Chad Edwards came back from a bad start at Memphis and got out of a jam at SIU on Saturday, tossing 2.0 innings overall. Allan Woodward gave up just one run in three innings of work, but it was the tying run in the eighth in Saturday's 9-8, 10-inning defeat. Langdon Stanley absorbed all three losses out of the bullpen and was not good in two of the three outings. The junior righthander was roughed up for six runs on Wednesday at Memphis, then hit two batters and threw a wild pitch in the 10th inning on Saturday at SIU. On Sunday he was the tough-luck loser despite tossing two-plus innings. The Middle Tennessee bullpen heads into this week's action with a 5.36 ERA as a unit, working 48.2 innings and striking out 52 while allowing 30 runs.

Can't Drive in McKenry

Junior Michael McKenry leads the Blue Raiders in five offensive categories, including batting average, RBIs and slugging percentage. The Farragut HS product also ranks first on the team in on-base percentage at .509, but has scored just three times this season. During Middle Tennessee's stretch of seven losses in nine games, McKenry has reached base 21 times, including nine singles, three doubles, a triple, two home runs, five walks and a hit batter. The Knoxville, Tenn., native has scored just twice in those 21 chances, both on the home runs. The Blue Raiders are just 35-for-115 (.304) with runners in scoring position during the nine games, but the players batting in the No. 5 spot in the lineup (the spot behind McKenry) are hitting only .257 (9-for-35) with four of those hits coming in one game from Marcus Taylor.

* - Leadoff Home Run

Beachum Mr. Consistent at the Top

Senior Jeff Beachum hit in the leadoff spot in the first nine games this season, the first time the Cordova, Tenn., native has hit No. 1 in the order since the final 27 games of his freshman season. Beachum carried an 11-game hitting streak to start the season and hit safely in the first four games of the 2006 campaign before an 0-for-4 performance on March 3 against Missouri State. But the four-year starter at shortstop came back with three hits in eight at-bats and three runs scored in the final two games versus the Bears. Beachum currently has a seven-game hitting streak and has hit safely in 11 of the 12 contests this season. He moved into the No. 3 hole over the weekend at Southern Illinois and collected six hits in 12 at-bats (.500) with four runs scored and three RBIs. For the season Beachum is third on the squad with a .392 batting average (20-for-51) with four doubles, 13 runs scored (tied for team high) and six RBIs. He also has seven walks, an unusually high number (just 36 in career heading into 2006) and a .466 on-base percentage.

More on Beachum

The Cordova HS product has enjoyed a very successful career at Middle Tennessee, starting all but seven possible games in his four-year tenure. Beachum moved into a tie for third with Mudcat Brewer (1991-94) in career hits after collecting six in the three games at Southern Illinois, giving Beachum 245 career hits. He is 24 hits from tying career leader Clay Snellgrove (1994-97) at the top of the all-time list. Beachum also ranks eighth in career at-bats (738), second in career singles (193), tied for eighth in career doubles (43) and tied for fourth in sacrifices (21). He needs only two singles to move past Snellgrove in that category and three doubles to move into sixth place past Jayhawk Owens (43, 1988-90), Nate Jaggers (44, 2002-05) and Doug Barner (45, 1993-96). A full listing appears on page seven of these notes.

collected his first career hit with a single in the ninth ... Tommy Sterritt pitched three shutout innings, striking out a career-high five ... Matt Scott tossed a shutout eighth inning for the Blue Raiders, his first relief appearance since June 5, 2004, versus Birmingham Southern in the NCAA Athens Regional ... The win for Memphis snaps a six-game Middle Tennessee winning streak in the series. The last UM win came on April 27, 2004, in Memphis.

Wednesday: Sophomore Doug Birkofer made his first start of the season, hitting second and playing centerfield ... Shay Horseman made his first start on the mound since May 24, 2004, against Western Kentucky in the Sun Belt Championships ... Jeff Beachum's double in the fourth inning moved the senior past Kyle Thomas and into a tie for ninth with Marshall Nisbett (2001-02) for career two-baggers with 42. Beachum also singled in the eighth, moving past Chuck Akers (2001-04) and into fourth place on the career hits list with 239 ... Horseman went five-plus innings, his longest outing since April 28, 2004, when he worked five innings against Memphis ... Michael McKenry tied his career-high with four hits in the contest, including his second triple of the season ... Chase Eakes tied his career-high with three hits, all singles.

Notes from Southern Illinois

Friday: Redshirt freshman Michael McSweeney made his first career start, hitting seventh and playing first base ... Doug Birkofer played centerfield for the second straight game and hit leadoff for the first time in his career. It was also the first time this season someone other than Jeff Beachum batted in the leadoff spot ... Birkofer went 2-for-6 in the contest, a career-high in at-bats and tied his career-high with two hits, his second career two-hit game and first since April 19, 2005, versus Memphis ... Chase Eakes tied his career-high with three RBIs, the third three-RBI game of his career and first since February 19, 2005, versus Ball State.

Saturday: Michael McSweeney collected his first career hit with an RBI single in the third ... Tyler Copeland last just 1.2 innings, the shortest start of his career. Twice last season (April 30 - at Arkansas State, May 14 - at Louisiana-Lafayette) the lefthander worked only two innings in a start ... Marcus Taylor extended his hitting streak to three games with a single in the second. Taylor recorded a career-high four hits in the game ... Doug Birkofer had his second straight two-hit game and third of his career ... Wayne Kendrick tied his career-high with three hits in the contest, his second three-hit game this season ... Josh Horn had his fourth straight two-hit game and sixth this season.

Sunday: Doug Birkofer extended his hitting streak to four games with a single in the first ... Wayne Kendrick extended his hitting streak to three games with a single in the first ... Jeff Beachum extended his hitting streak to seven games with a single in the first ... There was a 35-minute rain delay in the top of the second inning ... Josh Horn extended his hitting streak to five games with a double in the fourth ... Michael McKenry extended his hitting streak to seven games with a single in the seventh ... Birkofer recorded a career-high three hits and collected seven in the three-game series ... Kendrick tied his career-high for the second day in a row with three hits.

Streaks

Junior Michael McKenry and senior Jeff Beachum both carry seven-game hitting streaks into midweek games at Austin Peay and versus UT Martin. McKenry is 15-for-29 (.517) with three doubles, a triple, one home run and 11 RBIs during the seven-game stretch. He tied his career-high with four hits and also recorded his second triple of the season in last Wednesday's contest at Memphis and has four multi-hit outings during the streak. Beachum is 12-for-28 (.429) with two doubles, eight runs scored and five RBIs during the stretch, including five two-hit outings. The four-year starter has hit safely in all but one game this year. Senior Josh Horn has hit in five straight contests, including four two-hit games in a row before collecting a single in Sunday's outing at Southern Illinois. Horn is 11-for-20 (.550) during the five games with two doubles, two runs scored and one RBI. He has hit safely in 10 of the 12 games this season. Sophomore Doug Birkofer has hit in four straight contests with multi-hits in three of the four outings. Birkofer is 8-for-18 (.444) with two walks and four runs scored during the stretch. Junior Wayne Kendrick and senior Marcus Taylor have both hit safely in three straight games, while senior Todd Martin has a two-game hitting streak heading into Wednesday's contest.

McKenry on Wallace Watch List

Junior Michael McKenry was named to the Preseason Wallace Watch List by the College Baseball Foundation in November, an award presented annually to the national college baseball player of the year. +McKenry, a 5-foot-10, 195-pound catcher, batted .328 with 13 home runs and 42 RBIs in 49 games in 2005, his first as a starter behind the plate. He showed tremendous power during the season, becoming the first Blue Raider to belt a home run into the football stadium during a game since Floyd Stadium's renovation in 1998. The Knoxville, Tenn., native also scored 44 runs, had 11 doubles and walked 20 times for the 32-23 club. His most impressive statistic may have been throwing out 38 percent of attempted base stealers. The Farragut High School product is one of only six catchers among the 130 nominees for the Brooks Wallace Award, while McKenry joins P.J. Walters (P, South Alabama), Taylor Fowler (P, Arkansas State) and Elih Villanueva (P, Florida International) as the only nominees from the Sun Belt Conference. The Wallace Watch will be trimmed to 12 semifinalists by late May. Then the selection committee will narrow the list to three finalists following the NCAA Super Regionals at a press conference in Omaha, Neb, at the College World Series. The finalists, their head coaches and their parents will be invited to Lubbock, Texas, for a schedule of special events tied to the award banquet, which will again be nationally televised by Fox Sports Network. The selection committee for the Wallace Award is comprised of a national panel of preeminent coaches, sports information directors, former winners and beat media who most closely follow the sport. Screening Committee members will evaluate the candidates and will continue their review throughout the entire baseball season. The list will expand and contract during the regular season and additional Wallace Watch candidates may be added as the season progresses. Voting for the three finalists and the Wallace Award winner will be conducted by confidential balloting, with totals tabulated by the J.W.Anderson & Associates accounting firm in Lubbock, Texas. A full list of the Wallace Watch Preseason List may be found at www.collegebaseballfoundation.org.

Martin Voted All-American; Martin, Scott Named All-Region

Todd Martin and Matt Scott were both honored by the American Baseball Coaches Association and Rawlings, earning All-South Central Region honors for the 2005 season. Martin was also named Third Team All-America by the ABCA. Martin was named First Team All-Region and Third Team All-America as the designated hitter after battling injuries all season. He posted a .412 batting average, third best in school history among players with more than 100 at-bats. The Cookeville, Tenn., native had 13 doubles and eight home runs in 42 starts, and is the first Blue Raider All-American since Dewon Brazelton and Josh Renick in 2001. Scott was voted Second Team All-Region after posting a 10-1 mark with a 3.07 ERA in 14 starts. The righthander was 5-0 with a 1.77 ERA in his last five starts of the season, tossing three complete games and striking out 31 in 40.2 innings of work. The duo earned the first all-region selections for Middle Tennessee since Justin Sims in 2002.

Record-Setting Victory against Memphis

Middle Tennessee homered a school single-game record nine times in the April 20, 2005, 19-7 victory over Memphis, including six in the sixth inning. The nine homers bested the previous mark of eight in a game set in 2001 at Cumberland. The six round-trippers in an inning tied for the second most in a game in NCAA history with four other teams and had not been accomplished since 1988. The national record of seven home runs in an inning is held by Southern Utah, set April 22, 2001, against Western Illinois.

Scott, McKenry Earn Sun Belt Player of the Week Honors

Michael McKenry and Matt Scott combined to earn four Sun Belt Player of the Week honors in 2005, including three from Scott. Scott was the first to receive the accolade after his efforts at Arkansas-Little Rock in the conference opener, striking out a career-high 10 in 7.1 innings in a 12-2 victory. Scott earned his second Pitcher of the Week accolade May 9 after a complete-game win over Florida International in which he allowed one earned run and struck out seven. McKenry garnered the Player of the Week honor at the same time after eight hits in 14 at-bats in the three-game series versus FIU, including a three-homer, five RBI contest on Sunday in the series clincher. Scott received the last POW honor after the final conference weekend after shutting down New Mexico State, working seven shutout innings and striking out 10. The Blue Raiders have had two Player of the Week honors in each of the last three seasons and have garnered 11 Pitcher of the Week accolades in its five years in the league, including four each in 2001 and 2004.

Blue Raiders Set Four Offensive Records

The 2005 Blue Raiders broke four offensive records last season, including three records that dated to the mid-80s. Middle Tennessee broke the 2004 mark for hits in a season with 633 despite playing seven fewer games. The club also set a single-season mark for runs with 427, eclipsing the mark set by the 1986 squad. Last year's team broke the mark for RBIs in a year with 380 as well, a count held by both the 1986 and 2004 clubs, and the mark for walks in a season with 266, held previously by the 1985 and 2004 squads. In the last three years the Blue Raiders have set new single-season team highs in eight of the 14 categories.

McKenry Sets and Ties Single-Game Records

Catcher Michael McKenry set one and tied another single-game record at Middle Tennessee last May with a three-home run performance against Florida International. McKenry became only the fifth player in school history and the first since Justin Sims in 2002 (at New Mexico State) to homer three times in a game. His 14 total bases in the contest – McKenry also added a double – set a new single-game record, eclipsing the old mark of 13, also held by Sims.

Blue Raiders Rank in Top 30 Nationally

Middle Tennessee ended 2005 ranked in the Top 30 nationally in five team categories, including four in the Top 25. Middle Tennessee was 21st in the country in batting at .318 while ranking 23rd in both scoring (7.8 runs per game) and home runs per game (1.15). The club also was 24th in doubles per game (2.31) and 27th in slugging percentage (.481). Individually, Todd Martin ranked 15th in the nation in batting at .412, while Eric McNamee was fourth in the country in walks per game (0.96). Matt Scott tied for 28th in the nation in wins with 10, and Nate Jaggers (1.09) and Nathan Hines (1.02) were 49th and 77th, respectively, in RBIs per game. McNamee ranked 52nd in runs per game (1.11) and Martin was 57th in slugging percentage (.654). Jeff Beachum ranked 99th in the county in toughest to strikeout (12.2) and Scott was 137th in ERA (3.07).

Hines RBIs a Record

Nathan Hines ranked second on the club with 53 RBIs in 2005, finished just out of the Top 10 on the single-season list. But the Murfreesboro, Tenn., native was the first freshman to drive in more than 50 runs in a season since the late Chris Whitehead drove in 50 runs in 1986. Hines was second on the squad with 13 multi-RBI games last season, including five outings with two RBIs and five contests with three RBIs. The Oakland HS product also posted three games with more than five RBIs, including driving in six runs in a contest twice.

Peterson Reaches 1,000 Mark

Middle Tennessee's Steve Peterson coached his 1,000th game as skipper of the Blue Raiders on April 16, 2005, at Western Kentucky after picking up his 700th career victory in a 9-2 win over Southeastern Louisiana on March 5 of last season and adding to his school-record total with his 550th win as head coach at Middle Tennessee in a 6-1 triumph on March 15, 2005, against Southern Illinois. Peterson has compiled a career mark of 731-546-2 as a head coach. He has accumulated a 578-452-2 record in 18-plus seasons at Middle Tennessee and posted a 153-96 record as head coach at Roane State CC in six seasons. Peterson is the winningest coach in Middle Tennessee history, ahead of former skipper and athletic director John Stanford (1974-87, 402-272-4).

Steve Peterson

Head Coach ● Jacksonville State/1973 ● 19th Season ● 579-456-2 (.558), 732-550-2 (.570) overall

There are many adjectives to describe the job Steve Peterson has done as Middle Tennessee's highly successful baseball coach since 1988. Coach, fundraiser, teacher, recruiter and architect are just a few, but if you are looking for one word to sum his contributions as the Blue Raiders' longtime skipper, try winner.

Peterson begins his 19th season heading the Blue Raider program as the school's all-time winningest coach with 574 victories and a stockpile of conference championships and NCAA Tournament berths to his credit, demonstrating the consistency with which the driven skipper has guided the club.

Middle Tennessee has been a model program on Peterson's watch and the proof is in the success the Blue Raiders have achieved. The veteran coach has led Middle Tennessee to 10 regular-season conference championships, eight conference tournament titles and seven NCAA Regional berths, including two at-large selections in the past five years. Peterson guided the Blue Raiders to seven consecutive championships – either regular-season or tournament – during one stretch, proving Middle Tennessee doesn't rebuild, it reloads.

Peterson, who enters the 2006 season with a sterling 574-449-2 mark, has produced 11 seasons with 30 or more wins, including a school-record 42 victories in 1990. He also has three campaigns of at least 40 wins, including 2004's 40-22 club.

The constant manner in which Middle Tennessee has enjoyed success during Peterson's tenure is a direct reflection on recruiting and developing talent, and the proof was never more evident than in 2001 – the Blue Raiders' first season as a member of the Sun Belt Conference after years of success in the Ohio Valley.

Asked how the move into the Sun Belt, rated one of the nation's Top 5 baseball leagues at the time and consistently a Top 10 conference, would change his recruiting philosophy, Peterson quickly responded, "none at all." The 2001 Blue Raiders then went out and shared the Sun Belt championship with South Alabama during their first year in the high-profile league and the majority of the chief contributors were the same performers who led Middle Tennessee to the 2000 Ohio Valley Conference championship.

The move to a higher-rated conference has not hurt Middle Tennessee's status. If anything, it has helped. In their first five years in the Sun Belt, Peterson's teams have won two regular-season championships, a tournament championship and earned three NCAA Regional berths, including two at-large selections for the first time in school history. The 2001 squad earned national acclaim for its pitching and hitting and the season concluded with pitcher Dewon Brazelton being selected as the No. 3 overall pick of the Tampa Bay Devil Rays in the Major League Baseball First-Year Amateur Player Draft. Brazelton was one of six players from the team to earn a spot on a professional baseball roster that season.

A program cannot enjoy consistent success without quality players and Peterson, a three-time Coach of the Year, has not only made a habit of making sure Middle Tennessee has its share of quality performers, but he's won by constantly signing prep players and developing them at the college level. The proof is in the fact Peterson has coached a Sun Belt Player of the Year and six OVC Players of the Year, a Sun Belt Pitcher of the Year and an OVC Pitcher of the Year, a First-Team All-American, five Third-Team All-Americans, four Freshman All-Americans, and 38 first-team All-Conference performers.

Players who have honed their skills under Peterson also have had an outstanding rate of continuing their careers at the professional level. Professional baseball has seen 47 former Peterson performers earning the chance to play at the game's highest level, with four making their way to the Major Leagues.

If that's not enough, Peterson's recruits have established most of the offensive records held at Middle Tennessee and four players he has developed have hit .400 or better in a season, along with the school's single-season and career home run record holders. His 1997 squad established the all-time record for batting average with a .323 clip.

Peterson's players not only have been solid on the field at the collegiate level and continued their careers professionally, but a large majority have taken the skills and fundamentals learned at Middle Tennessee and are earning a living as coaches at various levels. Thirty-four former Blue Raiders are currently coaching at the high school, college or professional levels.

Peterson's peers have recognized his achievements and contributions to the game by bestowing several honors on him. He was named the Tennessee Baseball Coaches Association College Coach of the Year in 1992 and again in 2000. He was also inducted into the Rutherford County Old Timers Baseball Hall of Fame in 2003. Fellow coaches have named Peterson Coach of the Year on three occasions – twice in the Ohio Valley and again in 2004, his first such honor in the Sun Belt.

Peterson's outgoing and personable style has made him a hit with fans, boosters, players and recruits, alike. Baseball enthusiasts throughout the Middle Tennessee community clearly appreciate his hard-nosed and aggressive style of play, as fans continue to flock to Reese Smith Field at a record pace. The Blue Raiders established a single-game attendance record in 2001 at Reese Smith Field with a crowd of 2,733 against South Alabama. The team went on to set the single-season attendance mark with 26,218 coming through the gates at Reese Smith Field. The 2001 squad saw 15 crowds of 1,000 or more during the season. Those numbers were surpassed in 2004 when the team set a single-game attendance record of 3,020 against Vanderbilt, as well as setting a new single-season attendance mark of 30,319, ranking 46th nationally in attendance for the season. Fifteen contests drew more than 1,000 patrons during the record-setting campaign.

Not only has Peterson been a winner on the field, but he's been a successful fundraiser during his career as well. Events such as the annual Chuck Taylor Golf Tournament, the Groundhog Day Luncheon and the Grand Slam Fish Fry in the fall have become mainstays on calendars of Blue Raider baseball supporters across middle Tennessee and have served to raise thousands of dollars for the improvement of Blue Raider baseball.

Peterson spearheaded the efforts to pay for the construction of the Stephen B. Smith Clubhouse and Indoor Training Facility, which opened its doors in 1998. One look inside the facility shows the time and effort spent toward this endeavor. It has become known as one of the finest collegiate clubhouses and training facilities in the country.

Reese Smith Field also has benefited from Peterson's fundraising abilities. He has helped transform the park into a fan-friendly area by expanding the seating area, putting up a new information center just inside the gate, and expanding the restroom and concession facilities.

Peterson guided efforts during the summer of 2001 to expand the dugouts at Reese Smith Field. He also is currently spearheading an effort that would totally renovate the stadium. The plans would call for a significant remodeling of the concession stand, improved and expanded restroom facilities and a modern press box that would accommodate radio and television, along with print media.

While Peterson has spent 18 seasons leading the Middle Tennessee baseball program, his tenure with the program is much longer. He took two separate tours with the Blue Raiders as an assistant coach under John Stanford prior to becoming the team's head coach. During his runs between 1976-78 and 1985-87, the Blue Raiders won two OVC titles and four southern division crowns.

During the interim, Peterson served as the head coach at Roane State Community College in Harriman, Tenn. During his tenure from 1979-84, Peterson's teams won a Tennessee state title in 1981 and he was twice named TJCAA Coach of the Year (1981, '84). While at Roane State, Peterson put together a sparkling record of 153-96, a .614 winning percentage.

A native of Huntsville, Ala., Peterson stood out as a catcher under the legendary Rudy Abbott at Jacksonville State. He earned his bachelor's from Jacksonville State in 1983 and later earned a master's from Middle Tennessee in 1977.

Peterson is married to the former Rita Albert and the couple has three children, Jill, Jenny and John, and one grandchild, Hayden Wright. Away from the diamond, Peterson enjoys fishing for smallmouth bass.
