For his efforts, Davis also brought the first SBC Basketball Coach of the Year trophy to Murfreesboro.

Next Up for MT

Middle Tennessee will embark on a lengthy road trip to Laramie, WY, to take on Wyoming. The meeting will be the first between the two schools. Wyoming returns the favor on Jan. 8 by visiting the Murphy Center. Wyoming is one of six schools on the Blue Raiders schedule that participated in post season play last year.

Pippen with Globetrotters

Former Blue Raider William Pippen is continuing his playing career with the famous Harlem Globetrotters. Pippen began the fall in camp with the Phoenix Suns, but was waived. Pippen then signed a contract with the Globetrotters to play with their competitive squad that tours the country playing exhibition games against college teams. Pippen and the Globetrotters will tour overseas when the team's college tour is completed. Pippen was a Third Team All-Sun Belt performer for the Blue Raiders last year.

Kermit Davis

Head Coach ◆ Mississippi State, 1982 ◆ 2nd Season ◆ 16-14 (.533)

When Kermit Davis came to Middle Tennessee, he had the reputation of turning programs around quickly. It didn't take long for Davis to prove the rumor true.

He took a Blue Raider team that was picked fourth in the Sun Belt's East Division and eighth out of the team's 11 teams and put them in the thick of a division title race that didn't end until the final week of the season. For his efforts, Davis was named the Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year, marking the second time in five years as a Division I head coach he has been so honored.

Davis didn't stop there. He took his team to the finals of the Sun Belt Tournament, put together the most wins for a Blue Raider squad since the 1997-98 campaign, and mentored two All-Sun Belt players.

Davis' reputation as a top-flight recruiter was certainly upheld as well. The Blue Raider coach hauled in three of Tennessee's top 20 players, one player ranked in the top 55 nationally, and a transfer from Georgia who was one of the nation's top shooting guards out of high school. The team's recruiting class was ranked #32 nationally and #1 in the Sun Belt by Hoop Scoop magazine. Ron Briscoe's Southeast Regional Basketball Report ranked the MT recruits as #23 nationally and #10 in the Southeast.

Davis has displayed success at every stop along his career track and has done so with a hard-nosed style of defense, uptempo offensive play, and a strong work ethic.

Davis comes to Middle Tennessee after spending the past five seasons as the associate head coach at Louisiana State University under head coach John Brady.

Prior to LSU, Davis spent one season as head coach at the University of Idaho. However, his stint with the Vandals was his second tour of duty in Moscow. He also served as the school's head coach from 1988-1990. During his three years as the head coach at Idaho, he compiled a record of 63-29, the best three-year total in the program's history. Davis posted two of the best single-season tallies in school history during his first stint at Idaho as well, turning in 25-6 marks in both years.

During his first two seasons at Idaho, Davis compiled a 50-12 overall mark, captured two Big West titles, and earned consecutive trips to the NCAA Tournament. He was also named the league's Coach of the Year in 1989.

Davis' first head coaching job came at Southwest Mississippi, where he put together a 39-20 record in two seasons. His 1986 squad won 22 games, the school's first 20-win season in 17 years.

His success landed him a spot on Tim Floyd's staff at Idaho, where he served as an assistant for two years prior to taking over the Vandal team.

After spending the 1988-89 and 1989-90 seasons at Idaho, Davis went on to become the head coach at Texas A&M from 1990 to 1991.

From Texas A&M, Davis moved Chipola Junior College to serve as the associate head coach at for two seasons before ascending to the top spot for the 1993-94 campaign.

During Davis' season as the team's head coach, Chipola finished the season ranked #4 in the national polls and posted a 27-5 record, the second-most wins in school history.

Davis headed to Utah State as the team's associate head coach from 1994-96. At Utah State, Davis coached under former Iowa State head coach Larry Eustachy and the pair combined to win the Big West Championship in 1995.

His Utah State tenure ended with a return to Idaho as the Vandals' head coach and the rest is history.

Davis, a native of Leakesville, Miss., and his wife Betty have two daughters, Ally (14) and Claire (10).
