Stephany Smith

Middle Tennessee Head Coach
Seventh Season/11th at MT

Middle Tennessee head women's basketball coach Stephany Smith begins her seventh season with a squad who got a taste of their first Sun Belt Conference Tournament Finals, and is hungry for more. The Lady Raiders fell in the finals to Western Kentucky, so the 2003-04 squad is anxious to hit the court and take the conference title this season.

The Brookhaven, Miss., native has established herself as one of college basketball's brightest young coaches, and is looking forward to the season ahead.

As she prepares to begin her seventh campaign, Smith's record stands as a testament to her hard work, excellent recruiting skills and knowledge of the game.

Smith enters her seventh season 105-71 and has both an OVC regular season title and an OVC Tournament title to her credit. Three of Smith's teams have competed in postseason play, with an NCAA berth in 1998 and WNIT bids in 1999 and 2001.

Smith did not enter into her first head coaching job blindly. She spent four years as an assistant at Middle Tennessee to former head coach Lewis Bivens, heading up the team's recruiting efforts during that time. Smith was promoted to associate head coach in her final season under Bivens.

The 1995-96 squad went 24-6, the second-most victories in school history, before falling to Kansas in the first round of the NCAA Tournament in Lawrence, Kan. The Lady Raiders were OVC Co-Champions in 1994-95 and 1995-96, compiling 64 wins in Smith's first three seasons on the MT staff. Fruits of her labors at Middle Tennessee were shown in 1996 when the Lady Raiders received votes in both collegiate polls, ranking as high as 26th. The school received its first at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament to further attest the program's growing stature.

Smith spent four years as an assistant at UAB before her arrival at Middle Tennessee, coordinating recruiting for the Blazers. UAB went 76-45 during her four seasons on the staff, winning or tying for the Sun Belt Conference crown twice (1990, 91) and sharing the Great Midwest Conference title in 1992. The Lady Blazers made two WNIT trips (1991, 92) during Smith's association with the UAB program.

She spent one year as a graduate assistant at her alma mater, Harding University, in 1989. Teams associated with Smith have a 255-158 record during her 14 years on the Division I level, including four 20-plus win seasons and two 19-win seasons.

Smith's claim to fame is recruiting, as she has established a reputation as one of the game's top young coaches and as a top-flight recruiter. She is also a teacher of the game as she held a coaching clinic over the summer to instruct other coaches on various offenses. Three of her former players have gone on to play in the professional ranks including former Lady Raider Joanne Aluka who is playing in Portugal.

Jacque Nero played six years overseas before being selected fourth by Nashville in the 1998 ABL draft. Shyronda Mifflin has played four seasons overseas and was on the Atlanta Glory's practice squad for part of the 1998 season before returning to Spain.

Her coaching philosophy stresses establishing fundamental knowledge of the game in practice. The repitition of fundamentals in practice allows her players the freedom to use that knowledge coupled with their athletic skills over the course of a game. An intense conditioning regimen also lends Smith's squad the opportunity to play an up-tempo style predicated on defensive intensity.

Smith graduated from Harding University in Searcy, Ark. with a B.A. in Physical Education in May of 1988 before receiving an M.S.E. with the University of Mississippi before transferring to Copiah-Lincoln Community College in Wesson, Miss. She received an associate's degree from Co-Lin in May of 1986.

Smith competed in basketball at both Co-Lin and Harding, and also spent a year as the Head Girls Track Coach at Searcy High School in 1989 while completing her Master's degree at Harding.

The personable Smith is truly a people-oriented person. She has planned and directed numerous non-profit clinics at Middle Tennessee and UAB for girls to further promote the game of basketball. She now heads up one of the most successful camps in the country, the Middle Tennessee "Stars of Tomorrow" camp, each summer.

She is the daughter of Ralph and Betsy Smith. She has three brothers (Ralph, Richard, Cameron) and one sister (Sydney).

Melanie Walls
Kim Rosamond
Chavonne Hammond-Taylor
Drew Clinton
