Notes: The Blue Raiders opened the 2003 season on a Thursday night and will now close the year with a Thursday night contest ... This marks the first time in the McCollum era that MT has finished a regular season on the road ... WR Kerry Wright needs 38 more receiving yards to break the Sun Belt Conference single-season record ... Wright ranks fourth nationally in receiving yards per game ... PK Brian Kelly needs 13 more points to tie Garth Petrilli for the most points scored by a kicker in school history.

SERIES RECORD

■ Thursday's football game between Middle Tennessee and Arkansas State will be the fifth meeting on the gridiron. The Blue Raiders lead the series, which began in 1948, 3-1. The Blue Raiders are 2-0 against the Indians at home and 1-1 in Jonesboro. Last year, the Blue Raiders lost a tough 13-7 game that came down to the final series.

MT IN SBC PLAY

■ Middle Tennessee has a mark of 10-8 in Sun Belt action all-time, including a 7-3 mark at home and a 3-5 record on the road. The Blue Raiders are 1-1 in road SBC games this year.

SEASON FINALES

■ The Blue Raiders have a mark of 44-35-6 in regular season finales and have won 18 of their last 24. Under Head Coach Andy McCollum, Middle Tennessee is a perfect 4-0 in final regular season games.

GAME ON TV

■ The Middle Tennessee-Arkansas State game will be shown on ESPN Regional Television as part of the Sun Belt Conference Network. The game will reach nearly nine million homes, 18 states and nine different networks. Locally, fans can view the game on CSS or Channel 27 on Comcast cable.

THURSDAY NIGHT

■ The Middle Tennessee-Arkansas State game will mark the Blue Raiders' fourth Thursday night game in the modern era. The Blue Raiders have a mark of 2-2 on Thursday, including a 1-1 mark on the road. The last time Middle Tennessee played a Thursday night game on the road was the 2001 season opener at Vanderbilt that saw MT win, 38-29. The Blue Raiders opened the season on Thursday, Aug. 28 at home against Florida Atlantic.

NOTING MT-ASU

■ In the two games as league members, the Indians have failed to score against the Blue Raiders in the second and fourth quarter.

■ Arkansas State is averaging just 65.5 yards passing against the Blue Raiders in the two games, while MT is averaging only 134.0 passing yards.

■ Andrico Hines and Brian Kelly are the only current Blue Raiders to register a point against the Indians (Kelly 8, Hines 6).

■ Middle Tennessee has committed zero turnovers at home against ASU, but four on the road.

■ The Middle Tennessee defense has given up only one touchdown in eight quarters against ASU. The last time ASU scored an offensive touchdown against MT was during the third quarter of the 2001 contest - a span of five consecutive quarters.

■ The team to score first and to lead at the half has won both meetings.

■ The Blue Raider offense has averaged 381 yards of total offense in the last two meetings compared to 231 yards by ASU.

■ LB Randy Arnold collected his first collegiate interception against Arkansas State in 2001.

■ Neither team recorded a sack in last year's meeting.

■ First downs in the two meetings reads MT 44, ASU 22.

■ The average temperature at kickoff in the two previous meetings has been 71 degrees.

■ The Blue Raiders have had at least one 100-yard rusher in both meetings.

EXTRA FOOTBALL

■ Middle Tennessee entered the 2003 season having played only one overtime game during the I-A era. Last week's overtime loss to ULL was the Blue Raiders' third overtime game of the season. The four overtime loss to the Ragin' Cajuns was the longest game in the history of Blue Raider football and was the longest in the history of the Sun Belt Conference.

ALSUP HAS BIG GAME

■ Senior Wardell Alsup turned in a solid effort in his final home game against ULL. Alsup entered the contest with one career touchdown reception, but the Murfreesboro native hauled in two scores in the loss to the Ragin' Cajuns. Alsup ended the game with a career-high tying four receptions for 34 yards. On the year, Alsup has 22 catches, which is the most ever by the senior.

HARRIS HAS CAREER DAY

■ QB Josh Harris, the third signal-caller to see action against ULL, threw for a career-high 284 yards and four touchdowns against the Ragin' Cajuns. The four touchdown passes equalled the third most in a game in school history. Harris finished the contest by completing a personal-best 23 passes in 36 attempts. The Blue Raiders have now had three different quarterbacks throw for over 200 yards in a game this season.

WRIGHT HITS 1,000

■ WR Kerry Wright became the first receiver in school history to hit the 1,000-yard mark for a season when he reeled in four passes for 97 yards in a win over Troy State. The junior enters the ASU game with 1,161 receiving yards this year, which ranks as the second-most in a single season in the history of the Sun Belt Conference. Wright, whose yards per game total of 105.5 currently stands as an SBC record, needs 38 more yards to set a new Sun Belt Conference single-season receiving record.

OVER THE AIR WAVES

■ All Blue Raider football games can be heard on WBOZ FM 104.9 and all across middle Tennessee on WMOT FM 89.5. WBOZ will be carrying Blue Raider football for the eighth straight season, while WMOT is back for a sixth straight year on the network following a six-year absence. Dick Palmer is in his 23rd season as the Blue Raiders' play-by-play announcer, while MT graduate Chip Walters is handling the color analysis for the first year. Broadcast Director Neil Price will be handling sideline commentary during home games, while hosting the pregame and postgame shows. The Blue Raider Network also features six affiliate stations throughout the mid-state area.

INTERNET BROADCAST

■ All Blue Raider football games can be heard over the internet by going to the athletic web site (GoBlueRaiders.com) then clicking on the link located on the top righthand side of the front page.

MCCOLLUM RADIO SHOW

■ Coach Andy McCollum's weekly call-in show, Andy Mac LIVE, airs each Thursday night from 7 PM to 8 PM from the Bunganut Pig in Murfreesboro. The show will be aired on WBOZ FM 104.9 and WGNS 1450 AM, locally.

MCCOLLUM TV SHOW

■ The Andy McCollum television show can be seen each Thursday night at 10:30 PM on CSS (4.1 million homes) (Ch. 27). The show can also be seen Monday-Thursday on MT TV Cable 9 at 9 PM throughout Rutherford County. The show, which is taped each Sunday night, is hosted by Blake Fulton from WTN. Fulton is in his first year.

MT PRESS CONFERENCE

■ Middle Tennessee Head Coach Andy McCollum will hold a weekly football press conference on Mondays at 10:30 AM. The conference will be held in the meeting room at Floyd Stadium adjacent to the weight room. The conference, which will be available over the internet at GoBlueRaiders.com later in the day, will also include three players each week for media convenience.

SBC TELECONFERENCE

■ Middle Tennesee head coach Andy McCollum will appear on the weekly Sun Belt Conference Teleconference call each Monday from 11:15 AM - 11:25 AM. For the call-in number, please contact Mark Owens or the Sun Belt Conference.

MORE ON WRIGHT

■ Kerry Wright enters the ASU game with 65 receptions and nine touchdown grabs. His reception total is currently ranked as the third most in a single-season at MT, while his TD grabs are the most in a season. Wright needs 10 more catches to break Kendall Newson's single-season mark of 74 receptions.

KELLY SCORES 15

■ Placekicker Brian Kelly scored a career-high 15 points against ULL last week. Kelly was perfect on six extra points and connected on three of four field goals. His point total moved him to second all-time in scoring at MT by a kicker with 267 points and is just 13 points behind Garth Petrilli for the all-time record. Kelly also moved to fourth place on the all-time scoring list, just five points behind Joe Campbell for third place.

WALKER HAVING BIG YEAR

■ Senior Demetrios Walker, who ranks fifth among lineman in the SBC in tackles, is having his best year as a Blue Raider. Entering the ASU contest, Walker paces all Blue Raider linemen with 41 stops to go along with 6.5 tackles for loss, four sacks, two pass breakups and a fumble recovery. The most tackles by a lineman in the I-A era is 54 set by Terrance King in 2000.

KELLY MOVES TO SECOND

■ Senior Brian Kelly surpassed Garth Petrilli for second place on Middle Tennessee's all-time field goals list when he nailed three field goals against ULL last week. Kelly, who has made 12 of his last 14 field goals, now has connected on 39 career three-pointers.

WRIGHT TEARING UP SBC

■ WR Kerry Wright has had an outstanding year thus far, but he has really shone against the Sun Belt. In six games against league opponents, Wright has tallied 699 yards on 36 catches. Wright has also caught six TDs in league games. Against the Sun Belt, Wright is averaging 6.0 catches per game for 116.5 yards. In the six games against the SBC, Wright has had no fewer than 86 yards receiving.

SACKS CONTINUE TO IMPROVE

■ With one sack against ULL, Middle Tennessee ran its season total to 19. That figure ranks third in the Sun Belt Conference, but it is six more than the team had all of 2002. Thomas Johnson, Devarick Scandrett and Thomas Johnson are pacing the Blue Raiders with four sacks each.

LIFTER OF THE YEAR

■ The 2003 Lifter of the Year, which is voted on by teammates, was split for the first time with Joey Montalbano and Dominic Jones sharing the honor. Montalbano, a former walk-on, also won the award in 2001 and 2002, while Jones was also singled out as the team's most improved in the weight room. A defensive end, Jones owns the team's top bench press (415) and top safety squat (870). Montalbano finished in the top five in the bench press (410), safety squat (740) and power clean (352).

IRON MAN

■ Senior Brandon Westbrook, a back-to-back first team all-conference selection, is arguably the top lineman in the Sun Belt. The Cumming, GA, native enters the ASU game having played in 43 career games (out of a possible 44) and earning 42 starts, which is tops on the team among offensive and defensive players. Overall, Westbrook has played 2,632 snaps during his three-plus years for an average of 61.2 per game.

BILLINGS REMAINS ON TOP

■ Senior Robert Billings, who ranks first all-time at MT in punting average (41.23 yards per punt), is battling all-time Blue Raider leader Mike Shawen (41.00). In 2002, Billings averaged 42.6 yards a kick to rank 17th nationally and first in the Sun Belt Conference. That average went down as the second-best single-season mark in school history for the first team all-SBC selection. The Collierville, TN, native has 203 career punts and 53 of those have been placed inside the opposition's 20-yard line. In 2003, Billings is averaging a career-best 42.5 yards a kick.

BLOCK PARTY

■ The Blue Raiders enjoyed their best season in the I-A era in the blocked kicks department. Middle Tennessee rejected five kicks in 2002, including three extra points, a field goal and a punt. Under McCollum, the Blue Raiders have blocked a total of 12 kicks with four being punts (Michael Woods vs Louisiana Tech in 2000, Chris Johnson vs ASU in 2001; Joey Montalbano vs ULM in 2002; Thomas Johnson vs UNT in 2002), six being extra points (Kareem Bland vs UL-Monroe in 2001 and two vs UNT in 2002; Pierre Ingram vs Clemson and Missouri in 2003; Thomas Johnson vs Troy State in 2003) and two field goals (Kareem Bland vs UConn in 2001 and Jerry Vanderpool vs Tennessee in 2002). The first multiple block game for MT came against North Texas in 2002 with three.

STORY IDEAS

■ "Blue Raider Community Day" was established in 2003. The team delivered meals at the senior citizens home, assisted with small children at Project Help and talked with the people at the Adult Learning Center. The team also went throughout Murfreesboro handing out posters, schedule cards and season ticket information to over 300 businesses.

■ Junior Pedro Holiday transferred to MT in January of 2003 and went through spring practice. Following spring drills, Holiday practiced two days with the track team and eventually went on to become an All-American as part of the 4 x 100 relay team.

■ Wide receiver Jerrin Holt began his college career as a Vanderbilt signee.

■ Brandon Westbrook, the only two-time all-conference performer, was moved from tackle to center during fall camp. When Westbrook makes his first snap to start the year he will have played every position along the offensive line.

■ Brandon Parker tutored kids at Erma Siegal Elementary School during the summer on a volunteer basis.

■ Cornerback Chris Johnson is studying to be a minister. The Freeport, FL, native gave his first sermon during Middle Tennessee's open week on Sept. 15 of last year. Former running back Dwone Hicks was the best man in Johnson's wedding.

■ Defensive lineman Demetrios Walker had his leg broken in four places at the age of 14 when he was run over by a car. After learning how to walk all over again, it's amazing the Kansas City, MO, native is even playing football.

■ On January 29, 2002, lineman Josh Willoughby saved the life of a gentleman who was choking on some food at a local restaurant. After a lady had tried unsuccessfully to help the man, Willoughby grabbed him out of the booth and attempted the Heimlich maneuver about 10 times before freeing the lodged food from his throat. At the conclusion of the event, the guy asked Willoughby how he could repay him. Willoughby responded by saying, "just buy season tickets".

■ Senior running back Don Calloway has 16 brothers and sisters. His brother Selma was a running back at Georgia.

■ Former walk-on Joey Montalbano, who was the 2001, 2002 and 2003 Lifter of the Year for the Blue Raiders, has his own business called "Campus Times". The company publishes calendars.

■ Andy Mac's Kids is a group of kids who are invited to each home game by Coach McCollum. Coach McCollum purchases their ticket and goes by to say hello prior to the game.

KELLY IS 6TH ON LIST

■ Senior Brian Kelly enters the ASU game ranked fourth all-time in scoring at Middle Tennessee with 266 career points. The Woodstock, GA, native needs seven more points to take over third place from Joe Campbell (1988-91).

MORE ON KELLY

■ Brian Kelly has made 79.6 percent of his field goals during his career, which ranks as the best in school history. Kelly has made 39 of 49 attempts to rank over eight percentage points ahead of Gerald Robinson's (1978-80) mark of 71.4 percent.

STRONG IN THE RED ZONE

■ Over the past 45 games, the Blue Raider offense has performed admirably in the red zone. During that span, the offense has appeared inside the opponents' 20-yard line 177 times and has come away with points on 146 occasions. That works out to 82.5 percent. Of the 146 scores, 121 have been touchdowns.

100-YD RECEIVING GAMES

■ Under Andy McCollum, the Blue Raiders have had 26 100-yard receiving games with 25 of those coming from wide receivers and one from a running back. RB Don Calloway (1) and WR Kerry Wright (4) are the only current Blue Raiders to own a 100-yard receiving game.

LOOKING FOR 20

■ Under Andy McCollum, the Blue Raiders have compiled a mark of 24-13 when scoring 20 or more points. On the flip side, Middle Tennessee stands 0-18 when scoring less than 20 points for McCollum and Co.

BIGGEST COMEBACK EVER

■ In what was the biggest comeback win in school history, the Blue Raiders came from 24 points down in the fourth quarter to defeat New Mexico State at home in 2001. The Blue Raiders registered 289 total yards of offense in the fourth quarter and scored on four straight possessions (70, 88, 80 and 68 yards). QB Wes Counts completed 13 of 16 passes for 218 yards in the final quarter, while receiver Kendall Newson hauled in seven passes for 119 yards. Defensively, the Blue Raiders held the Aggies to just 47 yards of total offense. The 28 fourth-quarter points were the most ever scored in the final period by a McCollum-coached team and matched the most scored in any quarter under McCollum.

NOT SHYING AWAY

■ Middle Tennessee has never backed down from an opponent and it is evidenced by its schedule the past four plus years. During that span, the Blue Raiders have played 18 games against teams from BCS conferences, which works out to 33 percent of the 56 games played. The Blue Raiders have played four BCS teams in 2003.

QUICK HITTERS

■ Senior Chris Johnson tallied his first career interception last week against ULL.

■ Walk-on Walt Bell recorded his first collegiate reception against ULL.

■ Justin Rainey recorded a career-best 10 tackles against ULL.

■ Muhammad Rashada led the Blue Raiders with a career-best 13 tackles against ULL.

■ Joey Montalbano was selected as the team's special teams player of the game for his effort against Troy State.

■ After missing the North Texas game, senior Don Calloway bounced back to lead the ■ WR Chris Henry's nine-yard reception vs. Temple was his first of the 2003 season.

■ Senior Michael Woods recorded his first career sack at Clemson.

■ WR Ryan Edmiston hauled in his first collegiate receptions at Clemson. Edmiston, who finished with two catches, grabbed both passes during the third quarter.

■ PK Brian Kelly has connected on 19 of his last 22 field goals.

■ As a I-A member (56 games), the Blue Raiders have scored 50 or more points nine times.

■ The Blue Raiders are 20-2 under Andy McCollum when leading at the half and are 21-3 when leading a game entering the 4th quarter.

■ When trailing at the half, the Blue Raiders are just 4-29 under McCollum and two of those wins came in 2001.

■ The Blue Raiders have scored in 84 of their last 86 games. The two miscues were a 10-0 shutout on the road against UL-Monroe in 1999 and a 55-0 loss in 2000 at Florida. MT has scored in 42 straight home games.

■ Under McCollum, the Blue Raiders are 19-11 on turf, 5-20 on natural grass (10 of the losses came on road to SEC teams) and 0-1 on FieldTurf.

■ Under McCollum, the Blue Raiders have scored 70 or more points on two occasions.

THE BEGINNING OF THE BOLT

A lightning bolt will be presented to a player following each game when he has fulfilled one of the requirements to earn such an honor. The bolt will then be added to the back of the player's helmet. The Bolt is defined as a flash of "Blue" light conceived as a dart hurled from the heavens and one that acts with sudden and destructive fury. It represents a glorious and fearsome majesty. Following is a breakdown of the three different types of lightning bolts that can be earned by the Blue Raider players:

BLUE BOLT: Offensive and Defensive Players
Big Play, Great Effort Play, Big Hit, Gamebreaker, Unselfish Play

BLACK BOLT: Special Teams
Big Play, Great Effort Play, Big Hit, Gamebreaker, Unselfish Play

SILVER BOLT: Entire Team
Putting Team First, An Extraordinary Play, Beyond the Normal

FL ATLANTIC 20, MIDDLE TENNESSEE 19

Aug. 28, 2003 • Floyd Stadium • Murfreesboro, TN

by Tony Stinnett, Daily News Journal

MURFREESBORO, Tenn. - And you thought the Southeast Missouri setback in the 2002 home opener was demoralizing.

Shock, disbelief and dismay were apparent in the MTSU locker room -and throughout Floyd Stadium - after Florida Atlantic receiver Roosevelt Bynes went 62 yards for the game-winning touchdown with no time remaining to send the Blue Raiders to a stunning 20-19 setback in front of 23,261.

In the Florida Atlantic locker room, legendary coach Howard Schnellenberger was praising his upstart program's comeback win. The third-year Division I-AA opponent had gone on the road and came from behind to deal the Blue Raiders their most crushing setback since the program upgraded to Division I-A in 1999.

At the same time, the Owls recorded their first win against a I-A opponent in four tries over the past three-plus seasons.

"This was one of the most courageous wins I have ever been connected with," Schnellenberger said. "If we can play at this level or above it for the rest of the season, this game will go down in the annals of history for this team."

It may go down in the annals of history for the Blue Raiders, because for the second time in as many years MTSU suffered a setback in front of a record crowd - and against a Division I-AA team, at that.

More than 50,000 fans have attended the team's previous two season openers - both against I-AA foes - and each time the team has sent its fans away shaking their collective hands in disbelief.

"This will definitely break your spirit. It hurt, and rightfully so," MTSU football coach Andy McCollum said. "I still don't know what happened. That's the worst I've ever hurt, the worst I've ever hurt on a football field. But it shouldn't have come down to that last play."

That last play proved to be the biggest of the game.

On a night where the Blue Raiders killed themselves offensively and were shoddy on special teams, they still appeared to be in position to secure the victory when what had been a stellar defense stepped on the field to stop the Owls' final drive.

FAU, trailing 19-14, started at its 2 with only 1:42 and no timeouts remaining.

Eight plays later the Owls faced a fourth-and-9 with less than seven seconds remaining and the clock running.

Victory seemed within grasp, particularly after the manner in which MTSU's defense had dominated the game from start to finish.

That's when MTSU's opening night fell apart.

FAU quarterback Jared Allen dropped back and was under heavy duress from Devarick Scandrett and Bobby Payne, who batted the ball, but Allen was able to maintain the pigskin and threw a wobbly pass downfield.

As Bynes had to come back to make the play, corner Muhammad Rashada went for the interception, missed the tackle and Bynes was off to the races, sending the Owls to an improbable win and the Blue Raiders to a loss which was hard to absorb.

"We are just in shock right now," MTSU linebacker Alvin Fite said. "FAU made more plays then we did, and they played their butts off.

"On the last play, (Allen) broke containment and the receiver got open. The rest is history."

Despite being flagged for 120 yards in penalties, including seven holding calls, and having several breakdowns on special teams, MTSU still should have won the game, and it seemed the Blue Raiders had it in hand after going up 19-7 on Eugene Gross' first career touchdown with 6:11 remaining.

Had MTSU's offense taken care of business in the "blue zone" the game would have never come down to the final play.

The Blue Raiders had a first down at the FAU 11 in the third quarter and didn't score when quarterback Andrico Hines was stopped at the 2 on a fourth-and-1 play, and the offense later had to settle for a 25-yard Brian Kelly field goal after having first-and-goal at the 2 midway through the fourth quarter. Gross actually scored on the drive, but the score was called back when the Blue Raiders were called for holding.

"We just killed ourselves," Hines said. "We have to execute offensively and cut down on penalties because this game should have never come down to the last play. Our defense played too well for that to happen. You can't blame the defense for this one."

MTSU held FAU to 11 first downs and 257 yards total offense, much of which came on the Owls' final two drives - both resulting in touchdowns.

The defense, which was led by nine tackles each from Brandon Lynch and Fite, recorded six sacks and hauled in two interceptions.

MTSU, which was led by Gross' 86 yards rushing and 84 more from Don Calloway, scored first when Nick McAfee hauled in a 10-yard pass from Hines with 10:46 remaining in the first half, but Kelly's extra point was off the mark following a bad snap.

The Owls got on the board when Thomas Osborne blocked a MTSU punt in the end zone, but Kelly's 37-yard field goal with nine seconds remaining in the half sent the Blue Raiders into the break with a 9-7 lead.

#8 GEORGIA 29, MIDDLE TENNESSEE 10

Sept. 6, 2003 • Sanford Stadium • Athens, GA

by Tony Stinnett, Daily News Journal

ATHENS, Ga. - More than 92,000 fans - the vast majority clad in red and black - packed Sanford Stadium as No. 8 Georgia played its home opener as defending SEC champions for the first time since 1983.

The Bulldog faithful were frenzied as the SEC championship banner was lifted prior to kickoff, but the crowd noise steadily dropped to lower decibels throughout the first half as MTSU put up a strong fight and went into the locker room trailing 10-3 at intermission.

Georgia (2-0) flexed its muscle and slowly pulled away in the second half on the way to a 29-10 triumph in front of 92,058 - the largest crowd in school and state history - to win its seventh straight home opener.

"No one is more disappointed than our players with this loss," MTSU coach Andy McCollum said. "We know we have a good team - even though we are 0-2. We didn't come here to play close. We came here to win the football game, but there were positives, and we can build on those."

One such positive was an impressive 17-play, 64-yard drive on MTSU's second offensive series, capped by Brian Kelly's 41-yard field goal, which enabled the Blue Raiders to even the score at 3 with 10:30 remaining in the second quarter. The points were the first allowed by the Bulldogs in 2003 after blanking Clemson 30-0 a week earlier.

It proved to be the only points, however, until quarterback Andrico Hines connected with receiver Kerry Wright for a 71-yard scoring strike with 2:09 remaining, and Kelly added the point after to get the Blue Raiders within 29-10. The long bomb also resulted in the first touchdown allowed by the Georgia defense in two games.

"Our game plan was to take what the Georgia defense was giving us, and we were able to move the ball, especially in the first half," said Wright, who led MTSU with five receptions for a career-high 103 yards. "The touchdown was just a simple post route, and luckily I was able to run past the (defensive back) and make the catch."

The Blue Raiders (0-2) kept themselves in the game with an efficient offense, formidable defense and solid execution in the first half, as they won time of possession, moved the ball with consistency, demonstrated balance and converted four-of-six third downs.

"Middle Tennessee had some great athletes, and they executed well," Georgia coach Mark Richt said. "They really came to play and gave us all we wanted. I take my hat off to Andy and his football team. They were ready."

For all MTSU did to keep itself in the game in the first half, an inability to do much offensively in the third quarter weighed heavily in the Bulldogs seizing control and slowly pulling away.

The Blue Raiders, who got the ball to start the second half, managed just 16 yards (27 passing and minus 11 rushing) in the decisive third quarter as the Bulldogs increased their edge to 20-10.

"We came in here, played hard and gave ourselves a chance against one of the best teams in the country," Hines said. "We were able to move the ball, make some things happen and take their crowd out of the game (in the first half), but we still hurt ourselves too much at times, and we are not good enough to have setbacks, especially against a team as talented as Georgia."

Georgia was led by quarterback David Greene, who completed 21-of-28 passes for 267 yards, and tailback Michael Cooper, who rushed for 90 yards and two touchdowns on just 12 carries. The Bulldogs' offense piled up 467 yards total offense but killed itself by committing a school-record 18 penalties for 129 yards.

MTSU was led by Hines offensively.

The senior quarterback was responsible for 212 of the team's 240 yards total offense. Hines was 18-of-29 passing for 173 yards and led the Blue Raiders with 39 yards rushing.

"I feel like I missed a couple of reads that hurt us, but I thought we put forth a great effort on both sides of the ball," Hines said. "A loss is a loss, but we didn't play as bad as we did (in a 20-19 loss to Florida Atlantic in MTSU's season opener). It was really more a matter of us hurting ourselves with mistakes when we had breakdowns."

Georgia went on top 3-0 when Billy Bennett connected for a 35-yard field goal on the Bulldogs' opening drive, but those proved to be the only points in a fast-paced first quarter.

After Kelly's 41-yard kick evened the score at 3 in the second quarter, Georgia went back ahead 10-3 when Cooper scored on an 8-yard run, and Bennett added the point after. MTSU was trying to answer and had marched to the Bulldogs' 20, but tailback Don Calloway fumbled after catching a pass out of the backfield, and Georgia's Kedric Golston pounced on the pigskin to deny the Blue Raiders' scoring bid. It was their first turnover of the year.

MTSU's defense, led by Brandon Lynch's 11 tackles, rose to the occasion following the miscue and forced a 45-yard field-goal try, which Bennett missed.

"Defensively, we played pretty well (Saturday)," McCollum said. "Our defense has got to get better even though we did well (Saturday) holding Georgia to no big plays. One of our goals was not to allow Georgia a big play because they thrive on that."

GAME NOTES

- QB Andrico Hines and WR Kerry Wright hooked up on the longest career play for both players on a 71-yard TD strike in the fourth quarter. For Hines, it bested his career long of 69 yards, turned in last year against Utah State. The play also established a new career-high TD pass, topping a 63-yard TD pass in the USU game. On Wright's end, the play out-did his personal best catch of 58 yards registered against Idaho in 2001.

- The crowd of 92,058 was the second largest the Blue Raiders have ever played in front of, and it was the largest to ever see a game in the state of Georgia.

- DB Danny Tolbert and WR Jerrin Holt both made their first career starts against the Bulldogs.

- Middle Tennessee's 10 points against UGA marked the first points the Bulldogs had given up all season.

- Middle Tennessee's second quarter fumble was its first turnover of the season and kept the Blue Raiders out of what was looking like a scoring opportunity.

GAME NOTES

- WR Pierre Ingram came up with his first career blocked kick when he rejected Clemson's extra point following their first quarter touchdown to start the game. Under McCollum, the Blue Raiders have now blocked 10 kicks with four being punts, four extra points and two field goals.

- Redshirt freshman Kevin Davis was given his opportunity today and he seized the moment. The Pine Mountain, Ga., native rushed for 61 yards on six carries and added his first career touchdown when he scored on a one-yard run.

- Sophomore Josh Harris, a native of Union, SC, entered the game in the third quarter and promptly drove the Blue Raiders 78 yards in 10 plays for a touchdown. It was Harris' first collegiate touchdown drive at the helm of the offense. Harris finished the day 2-for-7 passing for 31 yards.

- Eugene Gross had 122 yards on kickoff returns today, which was good enough to place seventh on the all-time single-game list. Gross had a total of six returns, which tied for the sixth most in school history. Gross entered the day with just five returns for 89 yards on the season.

- Ryan Edmiston recorded his first career reception today when he hauled one in for 10 yards in the third quarter. Edmiston finished with two catches.

CLEMSON 37, MIDDLE TENNESSEE 14

Sept. 13, 2003 • Death Valley • Clemson, SC

by Tony Stinnett, Daily News Journal

CLEMSON, S.C. - MTSU players believed they had a legitimate shot to pull off a major upset against Clemson.

Instead, the Blue Raiders were administered an old-fashioned whipping in a 37-14 loss in front of 71,000 at Memorial Stadium.

"They just whipped us up front," MTSU football coach Andy McCollum said. "They outcoached us and outplayed us. We felt like our strength would be an ability to do some things up front, but their offensive line just whipped us. I thought it was the difference in the game. Charlie Whitehurst is a great quarterback and we gave him too much time."

Clemson rode the strong arm of Whitehurst and a dominant offensive front to punish the Blue Raiders who, despite dropping as many as five into coverage at times, couldn't find an answer for the sophomore passer.

Whitehurst riddled the MTSU defense by completing 23-of-28 passes for 298 yards and four touchdowns as Clemson voided the Blue Raiders' upset hopes by storming out to a 27-7 halftime lead and never looked back.

A defensive front which had been MTSU's strength in the first two games was unable to get consistent pressure and found its way to Whitehurst just once when Michael Woods finally took the sophomore quarterback down in the backfield in the third quarter.

Whitehurst took full advantage.

And while Clemson (2-1) played pitch and catch against a hapless MTSU defense, the Blue Raiders were called for two critical penalties that halted drives after they had driven deep into Tiger territory and the outcome still in doubt.

Those infractions not only killed momentum, but curtailed scoring situations and left the Blue Raiders in what proved to be an insurmountable hole.

"We have to eliminate the penalties and stop killing ourselves," said MTSU senior tailback Don Calloway, who was the game's leading rusher with 62 yards on 13 carries. "Offensively, we have to find ways to put points on the board and then there are times when we are driving to do that and then just kill ourselves. It's very frustrating."

The Tigers demonstrated balance on their way to piling up a season-high 481 yards total offense, getting 298 through the air and a season-high 183 on the ground. Receiver Airese Currie hauled in 12 catches, a Clemson single-game record, for 133 yards and a touchdown, to key the Tigers' aerial attack.

"To this point, we have played well defensively and (Saturday) we didn't," McCollum said. "We have to make sure we have the right people on the field. I think that their offensive line played better than we thought going into the game and, to me, that was the difference."

The Blue Raiders (0-3) managed 194 yards rushing and 364 yards total offense - both season highs - but they were only able to score two touchdowns. Aside from Calloway's game-high 62 yards rushing, Kevin Davis picked up 61 yards on just six carries and a touchdown, while Eugene Gross finished with 37 yards on eight carries, including a touchdown.

Quarterback Andrico Hines was 10-of-15 for 103 yards and was sacked twice.

"It's not like we are not getting the job done, but we make mistakes that just kill us at the wrong time," Hines said. "I just think we got beat by a better team when you get right down to it."

Clemson scored first when Derrick Hamilton hauled in the first of four Whitehurst scoring strikes, a 29-yarder with less than four minutes elapsed, but MTSU's Pierre Ingram blocked the extra point and the Tigers led 6-0.

After both teams went three-and-out, MTSU was driving for a potential go-ahead score and had the ball at the 14-yard-line following a Gross 14-yard-run, but the Blue Raiders were called for a holding penalty and were backed up to the 36. Three plays later they were facing fourth-and-23 and punting from the Clemson 42.

Clemson extended the lead to 13-0 when Duane Coleman caught a pass out of the backfield and went 34 yards after Woods missed a tackle along the sideline with 13:57 remaining in the half.

"They pretty much did whatever they wanted when they wanted," said MTSU sophomore linebacker Alvin Fite, who tied Jonathan Bonner for the team high in tackles with nine, including two for loss. "When they needed a big play, they got it and we were not able to get pressure on (Whitehurst). We couldn't get off the field and we didn't do our jobs. This one hurts."

Whitehurst completed 16-of-18 passes for 210 yards in the decisive first half.

MTSU showed signs of life by coming back and cutting into the score when Gross capped an impressive 10-play, 81-yard drive with his 4-yard burst through the middle of the line, but Clemson scored two touchdowns to close out the half and had the only score of the third quarter to pull away.

The Blue Raiders limited Clemson to the one touchdown and a 42-yard Aaron Hunt field goal in the second half, but MTSU's offense could muster just one score when Kevin Davis collected his first college touchdown - a 1-yard run with 14:03 remaining to cut the deficit to 34-14.

MISSOURI 41, MIDDLE TENNESSEE 40 OT

Sept. 20, 2003 • Memorial Stadium • Columbia, MO

by Tony Stinnett, Daily News Journal

COLUMBIA, MO - Within a matter of minutes, MTSU went from being on the brink of securing a win of historical perspective to being dealt a dose of misery against No. 23-ranked Missouri at Memorial Stadium.

Missouri place-kicker Michael Matheny's extra point was the decisive blow as the Tigers narrowly escaped MTSU's upset bid with a 41-40 overtime win in front of 55,075 at Faurot Field and prevented the Blue Raiders from notching their first win against a nationally ranked opponent - in seven tries - since becoming a Division I-A member in 1999.

"Close just doesn't get it done," MTSU senior defensive lineman Demetrios Walker said. "A lot of people doubted us, but nobody had doubts on our sideline. We knew we could do this, and we almost did, but almost isn't good enough. We are not trying to play these teams close. We are trying to win football games."

The Blue Raiders were on the threshold of history - leading 34-26 - when Missouri took over on its 27 with five minutes remaining, but the Tigers put the game in the hands of Brad Smith, their Heisman Trophy candidate, and the sophomore delivered.

Smith capped an 11-play, 73-yard drive when he connected with receiver Darius Outlaw on a flag pass for a 12-yard score to get the Tigers within 34-32 with 1:17 remaining.

The Tigers (4-0) still had to convert a two-point conversion to even the score, and there was little doubt who they would turn to with the game on the line.

"We knew Brad Smith was going to keep the ball in his hands with the game on the line because of the caliber athlete he is," MTSU senior safety Brandon Lynch said. "He's a difference maker, and he came through."

Smith ran in from 3 to even the slate at 34 with 1:17 remaining, and MTSU ran two plays before deciding to take its chances in overtime.

"If we are able to crack the first run and get some yards or get the kickoff return out in good field position, then we were going to try to get downfield, but with the ball at the 22 and just one timeout, we decided to play for overtime after we got just five yards on the first carry," MTSU head football coach Andy McCollum said. "Missouri executed, made plays and did what it had to do to find a way to win. When you are on the road against the Big 12 in a packed house and you've got your team a chance to win the game, it's all you can ask for."

The Blue Raiders, who fell to 0-4 with the gut-wrenching defeat, went on offense first in overtime and scored on their fourth play when quarterback Andrico Hines ran in from the 4 to put MTSU on top 40-34, but place-kicker Brian Kelly's extra-point attempt went off the left upright.

"Kelly missing the extra point had nothing to do with the loss because we still had a chance to go out there on defense and make (a) play, stop them or block their kick," McCollum said.

MTSU, however, was unable to stop the Tigers from getting into the end zone, and Missouri tied the game at 40 when Smith scored from the 3, setting up Matheny's decisive extra point.

The Tigers were penalized 15 yards for unsportsmanlike conduct following their score, forcing Matheny, who already had one extra point blocked by MTSU's Pierre Ingram, to kick from 36 yards away. He split the uprights to send the Tigers to their best start since 1981 and keep MTSU winless in 2003.

"It's a real disappointing loss because everybody knows we could have walked out of here with the win," Hines said. "We didn't lose because we missed an extra point. We lost because we had a couple of drives stall inside the 5 when we had to settle for field goals instead of touchdowns."

The loss overshadowed MTSU's best offensive game of the season as the Blue Raiders piled up 483 yards of total offense with a steady balance of run and pass plays that Missouri defenders could not seem to stop with any consistency.

MTSU, led by 77 yards from Eugene Gross and 71 more from Don Calloway, ran for 197 yards and three rushing touchdowns - one each from Gross, Davis and Hines.

MTSU also enjoyed success through the air as Hines completed 19-of-31 passes for 248 yards and a pair of scores - a 4-yard strike to Wardell Alsup to start the scoring in the first quarter, and he connected with Kerry Wright on a 21-yard post to pull the Blue Raiders within two at 23-21 at the half.

Wright had another sensational afternoon against a ranked team with seven catches for 144 yards, including the touchdown.

"We thought that if we could pick up the blitz and control the blitz, we could control the game," Hines said. "We watched some film that showed they like to blitz, so we figured if we picked up the blitz we could pretty much do what we wanted to do."

And the Blue Raiders did, particularly in the second half when they marched the ball downfield with consistency and scored on four of their five possessions.

MTSU's defense, meanwhile, held the Tigers to just a field goal on their first three second-half possessions before Smith took over on their final drive of regulation and again in overtime.

MTSU took a 24-23 lead when Kelly capped an impressive 13-play, 74-yard drive with his 19-yard field goal on MTSU's first possession of the second half, and Kevin Davis stretched the advantage to 31-23 when he scored from the 6 on the team's next possession.

After Matheny nailed a 25-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter, Kelly answered with a 21-yarder to keep the spread at eight points with 5:16 remaining.

TEMPLE 44, MIDDLE TENNESSEE 36

Oct. 4, 2003 • Floyd Stadium • Murfreesboro, TN

by Tony Stinnett, Daily News Journal

MURFREESBORO, TN - MTSU squandered an early 14-0 lead in the second quarter by giving up 41 unanswered points before coming off the deck and staging what would have been an improbable comeback against Temple.

In the end, however, it was too little, too late as the Blue Raiders suffered a 44-36 loss in front of 13,829 at Floyd Stadium to start the season 0-5 for the second straight year.

Temple, the first team from a BCS eligible conference (Big East) to play at Floyd Stadium, earned its first win in five games by turning back the Blue Raiders on four consecutive plays after they faced first-and-goal from the Owls' 8 with less than two minutes remaining, and MTSU needing a touchdown and two-point conversion to force overtime.

"It was just too little, too late," MTSU guard Julius Gant. "We fought back and had a chance, but we couldn't execute there at the end. We just didn't do enough earlier in the game when it would have made a difference."

Redshirt freshman quarterback Clint Marks, subbing for Andrico Hines, who suffered a back injury on the team's second possession, almost led a comeback for the ages, throwing for a pair of touchdowns and running for another in his most extensive action as a Blue Raider - and his first under center with the game on the line.

"To be honest, it really sucks," said Marks, who was 10-of-14 for 150 yards and one interception. "It doesn't matter that we got close. We play to win, and that's all that matters. We didn't win the game, so it's very disappointing."

After appearing to be blown out and trailing 41-14 with 11 minutes remaining, it was remarkable MTSU even had a chance, but when kickoff specialist Paul Wheeler's onside kick attempt went off a Temple player and was recovered by Wheeler, you got the feeling the Blue Raiders were onto something special with 4:21 remaining.

Marks calmly led the Blue Raiders downfield and had them at the 8 after a clutch 7-yard completion to Jerrin Holt on a third-and-6 play.

Kevin Davis, who rushed for a game-high 91 yards, picked up two yards to the 6 on first down, but he was dropped for an 8-yard loss on a shovel pass, and the Blue Raiders had two chances from the 14.

Marks' third-down pass - intended for Wardell Alsup at the 2 - was incomplete, and his final attempt in the direction of Kerry Wright in the end zone also was off the mark.

"Both of those passes were my fault," Marks said. "We had it, and I just threw the passes at their feet. I thought we had a good shot, and we got to a point there where we really believed we were going to do it."

The Blue Raiders piled up 432 yards total offense - including a season-high 227 on the ground - but they erupted for 225 of those yards in the fourth quarter after managing a meager eight yards and no first downs during the pivotal third quarter when Temple stretched its lead from 24-14 at the half to 41-14 entering the final frame.

In addition to Davis' big night on the ground, Eugene Gross ran for 80 yards and a pair of scores. Hines was 4-of-10 for 23 yards and his first interception of the season before leaving for good with the back injury.

Two quarters of dismal football spelled doom for MTSU in its pursuit of the first win.

After committing just two turnovers in the previous four games combined, MTSU was guilty of four against Temple - two interceptions and two fumbles - and those miscues not only afforded the Owls a short field, but the opposition converted the opportunities into 13 points.

"We really hurt ourselves with the turnovers, the interception(s)," MTSU football head coach Andy McCollum said. "The turnovers, that's the one thing we haven't done this year. We gave up some big plays, and they were on the short field a long time. We really put our defense in a bad situation."

The field position weighed in Temple's favor as the Owls had to go just 37, 24, 18 and 13 yards, respectively, to score on four straight third-quarter possessions and take a 24-14 lead into the half.

MTSU got on the board first when Marks connected with Wright on a screen pass, and Wright turned on the burners to go 71 yards for the score.

Gross, operating at quarterback and out of the shotgun, gave MTSU a 14-0 lead with his 24-yard run with 14:52 remaining in the first half, but MTSU surrendered 41 unanswered points before getting back into a groove.

Redshirt freshman quarterback Josh Harris led a fourth-quarter scoring drive that culminated with Gross' 4-yard run. Brian Kelly's point after cut the deficit to 41-21 with 10:12 remaining.

After MTSU's defense held Temple to three-and-out, Marks connected with Holt for a 36-yard scoring strike down the middle of the field to get MTSU within 41-28.

After recovering the Blue Raiders' onside kick, Temple went down and connected for a 42-yard field goal to stretch the lead to 44-28, but MTSU wasn't finished.

Marks capped a 65-yard drive with a 1-yard run and then connected with Wright for the two-point conversion to close the gap to 44-36 with 4:21 remaining, but the Blue Raiders still needed an onside kick, score and two-point conversion.

They got the first part when Wheeler recovered his own kick, but the stirring comeback bid ended 14 yards shy.

MIDDLE TENNESSEE 35, NEW MEX. ST. 18

Oct. 11, 2003 • Floyd Stadium • Murfreesboro, TN

by Tony Stinnett, Daily News Journal

MURFREESBORO, TN - If indeed MTSU's football season started with the conference opener, as players would lead you to believe, then the Blue Raiders secured their first win of the year in the game that mattered most to date.

Five weeks of frustration and ridicule were put to rest as MTSU used a patchwork offense and opportunistic defense to start the Sun Belt Conference portion of its schedule with a rousing 35-18 win against New Mexico State in front of 9,114 on homecoming at Floyd Stadium.

"Coming off 0-5, we never gave up and came in like a 5-0 team," MTSU sophomore linebacker Dennis Burke said. "We never got down and knew we needed a win, because our season started (Saturday)."

Redshirt freshman quarterback Clint Marks, making his first career start in place of injured starter Andrico Hines, completed 9-of-12 passes for 208 yards and three touchdowns, while dynamic receiver Kerry Wright continued to riddle opposing defenses with another monster game.

The Blue Raiders not only were without Hines, but starting tailback Don Calloway (broken bone in the right foot) also was out, and the backfield became even more thin when Kevin Davis, who suffered what was believed to be a broken femur, was injured midway through the first half and didn't return.

Wright made sure it didn't matter as he hauled five catches for 187 yards - third most in a single-game - and tied a single-game mark with three touchdown receptions as the Blue Raiders (1-5, 1-0 Sun Belt) jumped out to an early 7-0 lead on the game's first possession and never trailed.

A conservative offensive approach was more than enough because of a playmaking defense that gave up some yards but came away with four turnovers - three interceptions and a fumble - to keep the Aggies at bay.

Leading 21-10 at halftime, MTSU kept the Aggies (1-5, 0-2) out of the end zone in the third quarter and allowed just one second-half score to lead the victory.

"I was very proud of the defensive effort," MTSU football coach Andy McCollum said. "We gave up some yards, especially in the first half, but the defense came back and played very well in the second half. That was a big difference in the game, particularly against what can be an explosive offensive football team."

Michael Woods sealed the win with his 89-yard interception return for a touchdown with 4:34 remaining and the Aggies, trailing 28-18, driving for a potential score.

Woods' pick and return capped the scoring, and Randy Arnold put the finishing touches on the triumph with his first interception of the season a possession later.

"I was feeling I had to make a big play because a couple plays before I had messed up and missed a tackle so coach was on me," Woods said. "New Mexico State tried to run that same play on me in the first half and the receiver dropped the ball. I knew they were going to try and throw the out route so as soon as (Paul Dombrowski) threw the ball, I just broke on it and took it to the house."

New Mexico State dominated the statistical battle, racking up 525 yards total offense to MTSU's 293, but the Aggies scored on just three of six red-zone opportunities.

It went MTSU's way from the beginning when Shawn Allen took the opening kickoff - a sky kick - and returned it 35 yards to the Aggies' 32.

On the first play from scrimmage, Marks dropped back and connected with a wide open Wright in the end zone to stake the Blue Raiders to a 7-0 lead they wouldn't relinquish. It was one of three MTSU offensive touchdowns that covered 30 yards or more and Wright was on the receiving end of each one.

The Aggies trimmed the deficit to 7-3 on Dario Aguiniga's 27-yard field goal with 10:15 remaining in the first quarter and held MTSU to three-and-out and were driving again when Burke leveled Dombrowski, forcing an errant pass.

Danny Tolbert made the pick and MTSU converted it into a touchdown when Eugene Gross, who led the ground attack with 102 yards, scored from the 2 to giveMTSU a 14-3 lead, following Brian Kelly's point after.

The Aggies made it 14-10 when Dombrowski scored from the 1 on a quarterback keeper late in the first half and were driving for the go-ahead score when receiver Chris Lumpkin hauled in a pass at the 1, but was hit by Tolbert and fumbled the ball out of the end zone for a touchback.

MTSU again converted the turnover into points when Marks connected with Wright for a 39-yard score to put the Blue Raiders on top 21-10, which was the halftime score.

"The biggest play was the touchback when we were on the verge of scoring," Samuel said. "(MTSU) then took the ball downfield and scored, but I was still feeling pretty good going into the third quarter."

So was the MTSU defense.

The Blue Raiders defense set the tone at the outset of the third quarter by holding the Aggies to three-and-out three straight possessions, but MTSU's offense was unable to pull away.

Buck Pierce's 1-yard scoring run cut the deficit to 21-18 with 13:33 remaining and the third straight nail-biter between the two teams in as many years appeared to be on the horizon.

That's when MTSU's defense clamped down even more and Wright provided breathing room when he took a slant from Marks and turned it into a 61-yard scoring reception to stake the Blue Raiders to a 28-18 lead with 12:33 remaining.

The defense kept NMSU out of the end zone the remainder of the game and sealed it with opportunistic plays in the waning minutes to put the Blue Raiders in the win column when it mattered most.

GAME NOTES

- QB Clint Marks made his first collegiate start today and responded by throwing for a career-best 208 yards and three touchdowns.
- WR Kerry Wright hauled in five passes for a career-high 187 yards and three touchdowns. His yardage ranked as the third most in school history, while his three TD grabs equalled the school record.
- Eugene Gross recorded his first collegiate 100-yard rushing game when he tallied 102 yards on 25 carries against the Aggies. It was also the first 100-yard rushing game of the year for MT.
- The game deciding play came with less than five minutes to play when Michael Woods stepped in front of a Paul Dombroski pass and returned it 89 yards for a touchdown. The return ranked as the third longest in school history and the longest in the three years of the Sun Belt Conference.
- The Blue Raiders forced four turnovers against the Aggies and three were interceptions. It was the most pickoffs in a game since the Blue Raiders had four against Connecticut in 2000.
- Dennis Burke made his first start of the year and had a season-high eight tackles.

MIDDLE TENNESSEE 28, IDAHO 21 OT

Oct. 18, 2003 • Kibbie Dome • Moscow, ID

by Tony Stinnett, Daily News Journal

MOSCOW, ID - So this is what it feels like to win a Sun Belt Conference football game away from home?

MTSU football players had almost forgotten what it felt like to celebrate following conference road games, but they ended two seasons of frustration by securing a 28-21 overtime win against Idaho when redshirt freshman Kevin Copeland came up with his first career interception at the goal line on Idaho's first overtime possession.

The Blue Raiders, who had lost four previous conference road games by a combined 15 points dating back to the 2001 season, mobbed Copeland near midfield after he collected his first career interception to secure the victory in front of 9,752 at the Kibbie Dome.

"I'm very proud of my football team," MTSU football coach Andy McCollum said. "To come on the road in a tough place like this is to play and overcome some things to get a win, it just shows the character of these guys, and that was a big play (Copeland) made."

As a result, MTSU improved to 2-5 overall but, more importantly, 2-0 in the Sun Belt heading into a home game against two-time defending champion North Texas, while sending Idaho (1-7, 1-2) to another excruciating setback that all but eliminated it from title contention.

"In order to be champions you have to win big games on the road, and we did that today," said MTSU sophomore linebacker Dennis Burke, who finished with nine tackles. "We had opportunities, and we made the most of them. There is no quit in this team. We just kept fighting and found a way to win."

MTSU took its only lead of the game in overtime when Hines, who didn't start but came on to replace Clint Marks in the second quarter, scored on a quarterback keeper. The touchdown run - Hines' second of the game - followed a 25-yard completion to Chris Henry, and place-kicker Brian Kelly nailed the extra point to put the Blue Raiders in front 28-21, but Idaho still had a possession coming.

"I really don't think there was ever a doubt we were going to win this football game," said Hines, who threw for 227 yards and rushed for another 62. "We had some things go against us, but we kept fighting. It was a hard-fought game and one we knew we had to win."

The Vandals had just picked up a first down to the 14 on their overtime possession when they tried to fool MTSU with the halfback pass.

Idaho tailback Zach Gerstner took the handoff from quarterback Brian Lindgren, went to his right and threw back to the left.

Gerstner's pass was slightly underthrown and Lindgren, who was covered tight by Copeland, had to reach back for the ball.

Both Copeland and Lindgren actually had the ball in their grasp at one point, but Copeland wrestled the ball away and sent the Blue Raiders into a celebration.

"We were both battling for it," Copeland said.

"It was really a good call by. He made the call, and I just stayed at home."

Idaho coach Tom Cable said he believed the play was a safe call under the circumstances.

"We just got a first down, so it's a safe call," Cable said. "Either you're going to get it, or it's going to be incomplete. Unfortunately, two guys went up and got it, and they took it away from Brian. Brian had it, but (Copeland) took it away from him."

MTSU piled up 520 yards total offense - 298 passing and 222 on the ground - but it was fortunate to reach overtime because of three turnovers and an inability to score inside the 6-yard line.

The Blue Raiders had the ball inside the 6 three times and failed to score. They fumbled two balls out of the end zone at the 2 - returning possession to Idaho on touchbacks - and also failed to score when they had the ball first-and-goal at the 2, and they couldn't get in the end zone and then Kelly had his 18-yard field goal blocked.

"I've never seen anything like it," said MTSU tailback Eugene Gross, who rushed for a career-high 141 yards, including a 51-yard touchdown. "We just kept hurting ourselves, but we didn't let it keep us down."

Especially for a MTSU defense that put forth a stellar performance against a dangerous Idaho offense. Lindgren, who had thrown for more than 400 yards the previous two weeks, was held to 296 through the air, and the Blue Raiders allowed just 95 yards on the ground.

One of the three Idaho touchdowns occurred after the Vandals intercepted a Clint Marks pass and returned it to the 3.

"We put the defense in some bad situations, but they continued to rise to the occasion and make plays," MTSU receiver Kerry Wright said. "I have never seen that many things go wrong, but the defense just kept making plays. They never gave in."

After falling behind 14-0 in the first quarter, MTSU got on the board when Kelly boomed a 41-yard field goal with 14:48 remaining in the second quarter, and then Gross ripped off a 51-yard run with 5:16 to play before the half to narrow the deficit to 14-10.

Idaho increased its margin to 21-10 with 9:41 remaining in the third quarter, but Kelly answered with a 35-yard field goal to keep MTSU within eight.

With time starting to become a factor, MTSU put together its most important drive of the game and scored when Hines ran in from the 7 with 4:42 remaining in regulation, but the Blue Raiders still needed the two-point conversion.

That was accomplished when Hines hit Wright to tie the game at 21.

MTSU dodged two potential game-winning field goal attempts by Brian Pope in the final 2:36 of regulation to set up the overtime.

GAME NOTES

- The win over Idaho was the Blue Raiders' first road league victory since downing ULL on Sept. 29, 2001.
- The Blue Raider offense registered a season-high 520 total yards, which is their most in a game since gaining 520 yards against ULL in 2002.
- Freshman running back Eugene Gross rushed for a career-high 141 yards and a touchdown. Gross also had a personal long run of 51 yards.
- WR Chris Henry hauled in a personal-best five catches for 76 yards. Henry, who entered the game with only one reception on the year, had a crucial 25-yard grab in overtime to setup the game-winning TD.
- LB Jonathan Bonner recorded a personal-high 14 tackles to go along with a forced fumble.
- LB Dennis Burke had a career-best three tackles for loss.

NORTH TEXAS 33, MIDDLE TENNESSEE 28

Oct. 25, 2003 • Floyd Stadium • Murfreesboro, TN

by Tony Stinnett, Daily News Journal

MURFREESBORO, TN - It appears there will be no shift in power in the Sun Belt Conference for at least another season.

North Texas, the two-time defending Sun Belt Conference champs, moved one step closer to a three-peat by dealing MTSU a 33-28 loss in a showdown of the league's only remaining unbeaten teams in front of 9,049 at Floyd Stadium.

The Mean Green (5-3, 4-0 Sun Belt) jumped out to a 17-0 lead after the first 20 minutes and held off the Blue Raiders' second-half charge to win their 15th consecutive conference game, dating to the 2001 season.

"We are a hurting ball club," MTSU football coach Andy McCollum said. "This was a tough loss for us because I think the team was ready. We have to stay together because the kids really played hard. We just have to continue to try and get better and finish up strong."

MTSU (2-6, 2-1) pulled to within six on two occasions in the second half but each time the Blue Raiders got to within striking distance, North Texas quarterback Scott Hall had an answer. The junior signal-caller hit the Blue Raiders for a pair of long touchdown passes - a 63-yarder and a 46-yarder - both to Joel Nwigwe, to curtail MTSU's upset bid. Hall was an extremely efficient 10-of-13 for 230 yards.

"I am very proud of our players," North Texas coach Darrell Dickey said. "Middle Tennessee is a very good team. It was an excellent football game. We just made a couple more plays than they did. To their credit, Middle Tennessee never gave up and just kept fighting. Fortunately, we escaped here with a win because this is a tough place to play."

The final nail appeared to be hammered into MTSU's coffin when Nwigwe beat Muhammad Rashada for a 46-yard touchdown to give the Mean Green a 33-21 cushion with 8:16 remaining.

The long touchdown pass came one possession and four plays after corner Tony Sutton was beat for a 63-yard bomb on the final play of the third quarter.

"The secondary takes full blame for this one," said MTSU free safety Will Martin, who had a game-high 13 tackles, including 10 solo. "The (long) touchdown passes they got, 14 points is too much in the secondary, way too much. The coaches put us in position to make plays and we didn't. That's really all they can do, is put us in position, then it's on us to make the plays. I didn't think the deep ball would get us, but it did."

MTSU's comeback hopes appeared to take a hit when quarterback Andrico Hines was intercepted late in the fourth quarter, his second interception in 163 attempts this season, but the Blue Raiders got the ball back when Bobby Payne hit Patrick Cobbs and forced a fumble, which was recovered by Justin Rainey at the MTSU 18.

Nine plays later, Hines scored on a keeper and Brian Kelly added the point after to cut the margin to 33-28 with 1:31 remaining, but the Blue Raiders, who had just one timeout left, didn't get the onside kick and the Mean Green was able to run out the clock.

"You can't hurt yourself against a defense like North Texas has, and we did," said Hines, who completed 23-of-33 passes for 252 yards and a touchdown. He also ran for a pair of scored. The attempts and completions were career highs for the senior quarterback.

"Words can't describe how I feel right now," Hines continued. "I'm down on myself."

The Blue Raiders managed 327 yards total offense, but most all of the damage was down through the air as they were never able to establish a ground attack against the nation's No. 32-ranked run defense. Kerry Wright led the air attack with a career-high 10 receptions for 144 yards.

Eugene Gross was held to 50 yards on 14 carries as the Blue Raiders managed just 75 yards on the ground. Only Georgia had limited MTSU to fewer, holding them to 67 yards in the second game of the season.

"We came into the game wanting to throw the ball deep, stretch the field and loosen (North Texas) up so we could run the ball," Hines said. "That was the plan going in, but we had a hard time getting the (ground) game going."

North Texas, which managed 368 yards total offense, started the scoring when Cobbs capped an 80-yard drive with his 3-yard plunge. The bruising back finished with 133 yards on 32 carries.

The biggest blow of the first half occurred at the end of the first quarter when long snapper John Crawford's snap sailed over punter Robert Billings' head and was recovered in the end zone by James Mitchell to put the Mean Green on top 14-0. It was the first errant snap of Crawford's two-year career.

"We have to understand we can't give up the big play," McCollum said. "Two critical errors on special teams cost us 10 points. You just can't do that with a good football team like North Texas."

North Texas stretched its lead to 17-0 before the Blue Raiders got on the board when Hines connected with Jerrin Holt for a 9-yard scoring strike with 4:36 remaining before halftime, but Mean Green kicker Nick Bazaldua connected for a 25-yard field goal just before the half to stake his team to a 17-7 halftime advantage.

Hines capped a 12-play, 78-yard drive at the start of the third quarter to get MTSU within 20-14 but each time the team got within a touchdown, North Texas came up with a big play of its own.

After Nwigwe's 63-yard score stretched the lead to 26-14, sophomore tailback Kelvin German capped a 10-play drive with a 1-yard run, the first of his MTSU career.

- FS Will Martin collected a season and game-high 13 tackles.
- Eugene Gross equaled his career-high with three catches.
- Andrico Hines accounted for 281 yards and three touchdowns. He tallied 252 yards through the air and 29 on the ground. Hines finished 23-for-33 through the air with both totals being career highs.
- Kerry Wright had 144 yards in receptions and 53 of those yards were after the grab.
- RB Kelvin German registered his first career touchdown in the loss to the Mean Green.

UTAH STATE 41, MIDDLE TENNESSEE 20

Nov. 1, 2003 • Romney Stadium • Logan, UT

by Tony Stinnett, Daily News Journal

LOGAN, UT - Temperature at kickoff between MTSU and Utah State was a frosty 30 degrees and never got warmer.

The Blue Raiders also started cold and never heated up until it was much too late as they suffered a 41-20 setback in front of 6,988 at Romney Stadium — a loss that doomed MTSU (2-7, 2-2 Sun Belt Conference) to its second straight losing season with three games remaining.

"Starting with me, I didn't have them prepared well enough, the staff and everything else," said MTSU football coach Andy McCollum, obviously dejected following the team's most lopsided Sun Belt loss in three years. "I'm very disappointed because I thought we would play better. We just got whipped, and we didn't do anything well.

"I wish I could make (the weather) an excuse, but I can't. We just got beat by a team that outplayed us today."

Utah State outplayed the Blue Raiders in every facet, as a matter of fact.

More than 8 inches of snow had fallen in Logan Thursday and created sloppy field conditions, but Utah State (3-6, 3-1) had no problems executing its offense against a hapless Blue Raider defense, while the Aggies defense dominated MTSU's offense.

The Blue Raiders were held to 289 yards of total offense — the second-lowest total of the season. They couldn't run the football and never got into a rhythm passing until redshirt freshman quarterback Clint Marks engineered three fourth-quarter touchdowns after Utah State had employed several of its reserves.

"We were not able to run, and the passing game was not clicking," said MTSU junior receiver Kerry Wright, who had 89 yards on nine receptions to supplant former wideout Kendall Newson as the all-time, single-season leader in receiving yards with 968.

"We count on having balance, and we didn't have that. We came out flat and didn't get going until it was too late."

Led by senior Don Calloway's 50 yards on eight carries, MTSU was held to a meager 93 yards rushing and had just one first down in the first half. The offense was held to three-and-out on its four of its first five possessions and fumbled on the second play of the other possession. The Blue Raiders crossed midfield just once in the opening half.

"Middle Tennessee is a very talented team. They are as talented as any team in our league," Utah State coach Mick Dennehy said. "I really think our guys came out focused, and it seemed like they were almost a step ahead for three and a half quarters."

Utah State had its way against MTSU's defense after a sluggish start. The Aggies piled up 498 yards total offense and had two scoring plays of 59 yards or more.

"We just got our butts whipped," MTSU linebacker Jonathan Bonner said. "We didn't play well, and the weather really didn't have anything to do with it. (Utah State) had to play in the same conditions."

Utah State broke a scoreless deadlock in the first quarter without its offense on the field when MTSU quarterback Andrico Hines fumbled a snap at the 15-yard line. Hines tried to fall on the ball, but he couldn't get a grasp on the pigskin, and Michael Gates scooped it up at the 4 and ran it in for the touchdown.

"I should have got on the ball; it was my fault," Hines said. "The footing was rough early, and we got off to a slow start and just never recovered."

Bonner said the fumble return seemed to jump-start the Aggies.

"They made that big play, and it seemed to jump-start their offense," Bonner said. "We couldn't stop them. We didn't do our part. This one is tough to take."

The Aggies carried a 21-0 lead into the half after quarterback Travis Cox found his groove. The Sun Belt leader in total offense threw for 301 yards in three quarters of action, including three touchdown passes.

The Blue Raiders finally got on the board when Marks capped a 55-yard drive with a 7-yard strike to Pedro Holiday — his first career touchdown reception — but Utah State answered with a 69-yard touchdown run from Travis Davis.

"You have a deep ball thrown on you and you let them break a run up the middle late in the game, that's just very poor defense," McCollum said. "We didn't improve on the defensive side of the ball, and that bothers me. Defensively, I am as disappointed as I've ever been, and we have some things to get straightened out because that's enough."

Trailing 41-7 with fewer than seven minutes remaining, MTSU scored the final two times it had the ball — one score coming on a Calloway 2-yard plunge, his first score of the season — and the other coming on Wright's 1-yard reception from Marks.

GAME NOTES

- With 89 yards on nine receptions, Kerry Wright broke Kendall Newson's single-season receiving mark. Wright now has 969 yards on the year, which is 24 more yards better than Newson's 2000 record.
- This marked the coldest game (30 degrees) the Blue Raiders have played in the McCollum era.
- Eugene Gross hauled in a personal-best four receptions.
- Pedro Holiday's fourth quarter touchdown reception was his first collegiate score. Holiday finished with two catches to equal his personal-best.
- The Blue Raiders gained just 93 yards on the ground, which marked the second straight contest they have been helded under 100 yards.
- Don Calloway led the Blue Raiders with 50 rushing yards and scored his first TD of the season.

MIDDLE TENNESSEE 27, TROY STATE 20

Nov. 8, 2003 • Floyd Stadium • Murfreesboro, TN

by Adam Sparks, Daily News Journal

MURFREESBORO, TN - In case the rest of Middle Tennessee didn't realize it, the Blue Raiders still have a bit of football left in them.

With a 27-20 win over Troy State (4-6), MTSU (3-7, 3-2) made a flat denial that it had nothing left to play for after falling out of the Sun Belt title race and a chance at a winning season over the past few weeks.

"When we went into the season, we had something to play for and that hasn't changed," said MTSU head coach Andy McCollum. "Nobody here has ever thought that there was nothing to play for.

"When you get into tough times, it takes tough kids to get out of it."

And for a team that has suffered through the disappointment that accompanies bad timing, MTSU finally enjoyed the flip side of good timing and late breaks versus the Trojans.

"The team didn't let themselves get down when we made plays that hurt ourselves," said MTSU quarterback Andrico Hines. "We just kept fighting."

The Blue Raiders, who have suffered numerous defeats this year via late lapses, cleaned up a mediocre performance with a handful of clutch fourth-quarter plays on both sides of the ball.

Trailing 20-17 in the fourth quarter after the Trojans had stolen the game's momentum, MTSU found its go-to guy just in time.

With 9:33 left, Andrico Hines hit Kerry Wright for a 56-yard touchdown on a deep slant behind the Troy State secondary.

It was only Wright's third catch of the night after averaging more than six receptions through his first nine outings this season.

"You can't keep a great player down all night," Hines said. "And they couldn't keep (Wright) down. He's our playmaker, and they couldn't hold him down forever."

With the TD catch, Wright became the Blue Raiders' first single-season 1,000-yard receiver in school history and tied the single-season TD receiving record with his eighth trip to the end zone.

After holding the Trojans to three-plays-and-out on the ensuing possession, MTSU marched down to the TSU three-yard line and ultimately tacked on a 29-yard field goal to extend its lead to seven points.

With the memory of a few late lapses hovering over the MTSU sideline, the Blue Raider defense slammed the door on a Trojans' last-minute drive when Randy Arnold picked off a Troy State pass with 42 seconds remaining in the game.

"It could've been, 'Here we go again,'" McCollum said. "But we needed a break, and we made a break.

"That was just a big play, and I was just happy to see his hands on the ball."

Without a couple other big plays, the game could have slipped out of MTSU's hands earlier in the night.

MTSU first got on the board when it followed up three short gains with a 54-yard touchdown run by Robert Billings on a fake punt to cap its first possession.

"The kids have been on me all year to call it, but I'm not a real big fake punt caller," McCollum said. "But they gave us the numbers and Billings can run."

The gimmick play highlighted an otherwise lackluster showing by the Blue Raiders offense in the first half.

Tailbacks Eugene Gross and Don Calloway combined for just 18 yards in the first half and 46 yards on the night.

MTSU's only other notable run came from under center when Hines broke 40-yard option keeper early in the third quarter to put the Blue Raiders up 17-7.

Troy State, on the other hand, kept pace with MTSU via a straight forward running game.

DeWhitt Betterson rushed for a season-high 177 yards on 33 carries, including two touchdowns through the MTSU defensive front.

"I was disappointed how they ran the ball right through the middle of our defense," McCollum said. "But their tailback is very good, and we made enough plays in the fourth quarter to win the game."

UL-Lafay. 57, Middle Tennessee 51 (4OT)

Nov. 15, 2003 • Floyd Stadium • Murfreesboro, TN

by Tony Stinnett, Daily News Journal

MURFREESBORO, TN - Two factors favored MTSU in the home finale against UL-Lafayette at Floyd Stadium - the Blue Raiders had lost just once in 19 previous "Senior Days," including a perfect 4-0 during the Division I-A era, while the visiting Ragin' Cajuns had lost 14 straight road contests dating back to 2001.

So much for trendy bits of statistical information.

UL-Lafayette's offense - the lowest rated in the Sun Belt Conference at 313.8 per game - exposed the Blue Raider defense to the tune of 574 yards en route to a 57-51 win in four overtimes in front of a season-low announced attendance of 4,311.

It was not only the longest game in MTSU history - eclipsing the triple overtime win over Indiana State in the 1984 I-AA playoffs - but it also was the longest game in SBC history. The end result, however, was eerily familiar for a Blue Raider football team that has recently found ways to lose rather than win.

The Ragin' Cajuns (4-8, 4-3 Sun Belt) went on offense first in the fourth overtime and scored when quarterback Jerry Babb, who enjoyed a career day at the expense off MTSU, went in from the 1-yard line on a sneak, but the two-point conversion attempt failed when senior corner Chris Johnson deflected the pass away in the end zone to stake UL-Lafayette to a 57-51 lead.

MTSU, needing at least a touchdown to keep the game going and a two-point conversion to win, was denied on its third play of the fourth overtime when receiver Jerrin Holt bobbled a pass from quarterback Josh Harris, which was intercepted by David Prater to bring the game to an end.

"It was a good throw (by Harris), and (Prater) got his hand in there," MTSU football coach Andy McCollum said. "The game didn't come down to that play, I promise you. It came down to about 99 plays on defense. When you are on the field for 99 plays you think you can make one play, and we don't."

As a result, MTSU dipped to 3-8 with one game remaining and fell to a disappointing 3-3 in league play on a day when it scored 51 points despite playing with its No. 3 quarterback for most of the afternoon.

Harris was forced into action after the Blue Raiders lost starter Andrico Hines (concussion) and No. 2 quarterback Clint Marks (sprained hand) on the fourth series three plays apart, but the sophomore responded favorably, completing 23-of-36 passes for 284 yards and four touchdown passes. He also ran for another, but it wasn't enough.

"This is very disappointing because our offense started stepping up and making the big plays and scoring touchdowns," sophomore linebacker Dennis Burke said. "We weren't there (on defense) to make the big play. That's what we need on defense, and no one did that."

It was most obvious in the waning moments of regulation after Brian Kelly's 37-yard field goal staked the Blue Raiders to a 34-27 lead with 2:17 remaining, but the Cajuns went 84 yards in 10 plays and forced overtime when Bill Sampy reeled in 2-yard pass from Babb and Sean Comiskey connected for the extra point.

"Our defense did nothing. They did not give us a chance to win," McCollum said. "We let them march 86 yards, which is a credit to them, because it's tough to do that against air. We get up (seven) and just let them go (84 yards). We don't make plays when we have a chance to make plays; we miss tackles when we have a chance to make tackles. It wasn't very good. We just aren't very good over there."

Harris scored on a sneak from the 1 in the first overtime, and Kelly added the point after to put MTSU on top 41-34, but the Cajuns answered when receiver Fred Stamps, who hauled in 13 catches for 201 yards and three scores, caught a 12-yard pass from Babb and Comiskey added the point after.

It appeared the Cajuns were going for the win at the end of the first overtime when they lined up for a two-point conversion attempt, but they took a delay of game out of a timeout and then settled for the point after.

Dwight Lindon's 1-yard run in the first overtime - and Comiskey's kick - put the pressure on MTSU, but the Blue Raiders answered when Eugene Gross scored from the 3 and Kelly provided the extra point to knot the score at 48 and force triple overtime.

The Blue Raiders went on offense first in the fourth overtime and had to settle for a 47-yard field goal from Kelly, which tied a career high, putting the pressure on a defense that had found stops difficult.

However, the defense held and forced Comiskey to a 24-yard field goal to force the fourth and final overtime.

The Blue Raiders managed just 121 yards rushing against a Cajun run defense rated 112 (of 117 I-A teams) nationally and finished with 405 total yards.
