Mobley Named Pitcher of the Week

Junior righthander Chris Mobley was named the Sun Belt Conference Pitcher of the Week on Tuesday after his complete-game, two-hit shutout last Friday. The Kingsport, Tenn., native set career-highs with nine innings pitched and 11 strikeouts in shutting out Southwest Missouri State last Friday, 4-0. Mobley has worked 16.0 innings in his last two starts, giving up two unearned runs and striking out 20. He leads the Blue Raiders with a 1.04 ERA and 36 strikeouts. Mobley is tied with John Williams with a 3-1 record, tossing 26.0 innings with opponents batting just .185. The honor is the second this season for a Blue Raider hurler after Williams won the award three weeks ago.

McNamee Helping Blue Raiders Strike First

Junior Eric McNamee has remained red hot in the leadoff spot of the Blue Raiders order, helping Middle Tennessee jump out to early leads in the team's first 16 games. Since taking over in the leadoff spot, McNamee has compiled a .380 (19-for-50) batting average and reached base 29 times in 60 plate appearances. The Blue Raiders are 10-2 during the 12 games and scored twice in the first inning in four straight games from March 9-13, giving the pitching staff breathing room at the start of each contest. McNamee leads the club with a .422 batting average, 27 hits, 29 runs scored and an on-base percentage of .525. He has 10 multi-hit games and eight multi-run outings this year.

Mobley Setting the Bar High on Friday

Junior Chris Mobley continued his excellent pitching in the first game of the weekend series this season, tossing a complete-game, two-hit shutout in Friday's 4-0 victory over Southwest Missouri State. The righthander set career-highs for innings pitched and strikeouts (11) in the win, limiting the Bears to a pair of singles, one in the first and another in the ninth, while walking one. The Kingsport, Tenn., native lowered his ERA by more than half a run to 1.04. He has 36 strikeouts in 26.0 innings of work this season, walking just seven with opponents batting .185 in his four starts. The Blue Raiders are 3-1 in those four outings, with a 2-1 loss at Jacksonville State the only blemish. In his last two outings, the Dobyns-Bennett HS product has 20 strikeouts in 16.0 innings, allowing no earned runs and just seven hits.

Kemp Continues to Produce

Senior Shane Kemp continues to drive in runs, moving to the middle of the order in the last eight games. The Columbia State CC transfer has 12 RBIs with two home runs and three doubles since moving to the No. 3 spot in the order eight games ago. The Blue Raiders are 7-1 in those contests. For the season, the Henry County HS product has four home runs and 18 RBIs and is batting .355, second best on the club. He also continues to excel with runners on base, batting .414 (12-for-29) and .474 (9-for-19) with runners in scoring position.

Mobley, Williams Leading Pitching Staff

The Blue Raider pitching staff has compiled a superb 2.47 team ERA through the first 14 games this season, a far cry from the club's ERA of 5.50 last season. Starters Chris Mobley and John Williams have been spectacular, posting a 6-2 combined mark with a 1.66 ERA in 54.1 innings pitched. The duo has struck out 71 and walked just 12, allowing just 35 hits. Opponents have batted just .182 against the pair with only six extra-base hits. The entire staff has 133 strikeouts and only 32 walks, with opponents batting just .219. The staff has allowed just 32 runs this season, just over three runs per game.

Fast Start, Strong Finish

The Blue Raiders have gotten off to a fast start this season, outscoring opponents, 18-4, in the first inning, including a pair of runs in four straight games last week. Middle Tennessee has scored first 10

The sophomore had a career-high four hits in Tuesday's 8-3 victory, including a game-tying two-run homer. Beachum is 10-for-28 (.357) with five runs scored in the six outings. Senior Derek Phillips has a five-game hitting streak after extending his streak with a single in his final at-bat on Tuesday at Samford.

Tidbits

He followed that with a 2-for-3 outing at Belmont on Wednesday with a double, triple, three RBIs and a run scored. But the Goodpasture HS product had only one hit in 10 at-bats against Southwest Missouri State over the weekend despite hitting the ball hard almost every time at the plate ... Senior Shane Kemp posted a dozen multi-hit and three multi-RBI games last season in his first as a Blue Raider. The Paris, Tenn., native already has seven multi-hit and four multi-RBI games in 2004 ... Junior second baseman Eric McNamee has eight multi-hit games and six multi-run outings this year, including four three-hit outings ... Senior Derek Phillips has stepped into the designated hitter role, going 6-for-13 (.462) in his last four contests. will take part in spring training this year, including three former standouts already in Major League camp. Tullahoma, Tenn., native and 2001 first-round draft pick Dewon Brazelton is in camp with the Tampa Bay Devil Rays. Brazelton started last season in Class AAA Durham (NC) before spending time in the majors. But he struggled mightily with the major league club before the organization sent the righthander to Class A Bakersfield (CA). Brazelton finished the year in Class AA Orlando (FL) before pitching very well in the Arizona Fall League. He spent most of his offseason working out at a training center in the Phoenix area. Jason Maxwell is also in camp with the Devil Rays after spending the last two seasons in the Cincinnati Reds organization at Class AAA Louisville (KY). Maxwell played for the Blue Raiders for three seasons from 1991-93 and has since spent time in the Chicago Cubs, Detroit Tigers, Minnesota Twins and Texas Rangers organizations. The third former Blue Raider in major league camp, Jeremy Owens, joined the Boston Red Sox as a Rule V draft choice during the winter of 2002. Owens spent last season at Class AA Portland (ME) before getting called up to Class AAA Pawtucket (RI) for the International League playoffs. Owens was previously in major league camp with the organization that drafted the Johnson City, Tenn., native, the San Diego Padres. Five other former standouts are just beginning spring training in minor league camp. Sun Belt Conference Player of the Year in 2001, Josh Renick has joined the Houston Astros organization after spending three seasons with the Minnesota Twins. Renick teammate Jason Moates returns for his fourth seasons in the Detroit Tigers organization after spending last season at Class A Lakeland (FL). Bryan Peck starts his fifth season in the Colorado Rockies organization. Peck started 2003 in Class A at Visalia Oaks (CA) before a season-ending shoulder injury in May. A Blue Raider for one season, Adam Larson enters his third year with the Chicago White Sox after playing all of last year with the Class A Kannapolis (NC) Intimidators. Perhaps the most valuable player on last year's NCAA Tournament team, Chad Cooper starts his second year with the Devil Rays. Cooper spent last season at Rookie League Princeton (WV) before getting a late-season call-up to Hudson Valley (NY). Former Oakland High School product Jerry Knox will continue his playing career next month with the Shreveport (LA) Sports, an independent team in the Central Baseball League. Knox played the final two months of last season for the Sports, pitching and occasionally serving as the designated hitter. More information may be found on all of these players at mlb.com or minorleaguebaseball.com.

Williams Named National Pitcher of the Week

Senior John Williams earned Collegiate Baseball

National Pitcher of the Week honors last Monday after striking out 12 batters in six innings and combining with Chase Swing for the third no-hitter in school history. Williams and Swing combined to throw just the third no-hitter in school history in a 4-0 win over IP-Fort Wayne on February 24. Williams struck out 12 and walked one in six innings. He was so dominant that he fanned 10 of the first 13 hitters in the game and a dozen of the 19 batters he faced before leaving the game with 90 pitches after six innings. Swing then got the final nine outs for his first save of the year and 12th of his career. It was the fifth career double-digit strikeout performance by Williams and his most since last season versus New Mexico State.

Williams Earns SBC Pitcher of the Week

Middle Tennessee senior lefthander John Williams picked up another award last week after combining for the third no-hitter in school history, this one the Sun Belt Conference Pitcher of the Week. Williams tossed six no-hit innings, striking out 12 and facing just one batter over the minimum. He combined with teammate Chase Swing for only the third no-hitter in school history. The Murfreesboro native struck out 10 of the first 13 batters of the game. His strikeout total was his fifth career double-digit strikeout contest and most since striking out 12 versus New Mexico State last season. Williams was named a National Pitcher of the Week on Monday by Collegiate Baseball.

Peterson Gets No. 500

Blue Raider skipper Steve Peterson picked up his 500th coaching victory at Middle Tennessee in the second game of the 2003 Sun Belt Championships, a 6-5 triumph over Arkansas-Little Rock. Peterson got the 650th win of his career as a head coach at Vanderbilt on May 13, 2003, and is the winningest coach in Blue Raider history. Peterson's teams have won eight conference tournaments and have made seven NCAA Tournament appearances in his 16 years at the helm of the Blue Raider program.

Carroll, Swing Preseason All-Americans

Blue Raider juniors Brett Carroll and Chase Swing each garnered Preseason All-America selections for 2004 after their spectacular performances a year ago. Carroll was named to the Third Team by both the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA) and Louisville Slugger/Collegiate Baseball. He also earned Honorable Mention accolades from CollegeBaseballInsider.com. Swing joined Carroll as a Third Team pick by the NCBWA.

Only a Few New Faces

The 2004 edition of the Blue Raiders will look very similar to last year's squad, with just two everyday players missing. Junior college transfer Eric McNamee started at second base to open the season, and the corner outfield spots will likely see a slew of faces in the opening weeks. Five position starters - Troy Harp (C), Josh Archer (1B), Jeff Beachum (SS), Brett Carroll (3B) and Chuck Akers (CF) will be in their familiar spots on the field, and Chris LeGuenec, Shane Kemp and Marcus Taylor will all see significant time in the outfield and at designated hitter. The only newcomer expected to see much action is freshman Michael McKenry, who will catch, DH, and may see some time in the outfield.

Baseball Reunion Set

Middle Tennessee will hold a cookout and reunion on Saturday, April 17, before the Arkansas State contest. The cookout will begin at noon. For more information, check the baseball page at GoBlueRaiders.com or call Jim Simpson at call 615/898-5632.

Stanky Field is currently undergoing a renovation project to enhance the facility. Information on the tournament as well as ticket prices are available by calling the SBC office at 504/299-9066.

Steve Peterson

Head Coach ● Jacksonville State/1973 ● 17th Season ● 515-407-2 (.557), 668-503-2 (.569) overall

Steve Peterson begins his 17th season as the Middle Tennessee skipper as the winningest coach in program history.

Peterson has produced nine seasons with 30 or more wins, including a school record 42 victories during the 1990 slate.

Peterson teaches a hard-nosed and aggressive style of baseball. His personable demeanor has made him a big hit among fans, boosters, players and recruits alike.

Peterson also adheres to the philosophy that defense and pitching wins championships. He has long been known for outstanding defensive teams, and the Blue Raiders have featured some of the area's most feared hurlers throughout the years.

Peterson has seen three of his pitchers earn All-America honors, including the only First Team All-American in school history, Dewon Brazelton. Under his watch, the Blue Raiders have seen nine single-season and eight career pitching records established.

The offensive output of the team has not been ignored under Peterson, as his recruits established most of the offensive records held at Middle Tennessee. Peterson has developed three players who hit .400 or better in a season along with the school's single-season and career home run records. His 1997 squad established the all-time record for batting average with a .323 clip.

Aside from wins and losses, Peterson has been instrumental in leaving the Blue Raiders' mark on college baseball in other ways. He brought home seven consecutive conference championships (either regular season or tournament) during one stretch and has guided his team to an NCAA Regional on seven different occasions. During his tenure, Peterson has captured one Sun Belt crown, a Sun Belt tournament title, eight OVC titles and seven OVC tournament crowns. For his efforts, Peterson has twice been named OVC Coach of the Year. He brought national attention to the program in the 2001 season, as his team found itself in the national rankings for the first time since 1982.

His efforts were clearly in evidence during the magical 2001 season. The Blue Raiders established the single-game attendance record at Reese Smith Field with a crowd of 2,733 on hand to witness the Blue Raiders' Friday night tilt against South Alabama. The team went on to set the single-season attendance mark with 26,218 coming through the gates at Reese Smith Field. His squad saw 10 crowds of 1,000 or more during the season.

If the team accolades and accomplishments aren't enough, consider that Peterson has coached a Sun Belt Player of the Year and six OVC Players of the Year, a Sun Belt Pitcher of the Year and an OVC Pitcher of the Year, a First Team All-American, four Third-Team All-Americans, four Freshman All-Americans, and 35 First Team All-Conference players.

Professional baseball has seen 46 former Peterson protégés pass through the ranks with four players logging time in the Major Leagues.

Aside from playing baseball for a living, numerous former players have entered the coaching profession. Currently 24 former players are coaching at the high school, college or professional level.

Peterson was named the Tennessee Baseball Coaches Association College Coach of the Year, in 1992 and again in 2000. He was also inducted into the Rutherford County Old Timers Baseball Hall of Fame in 2003.

He has also been responsible for the tremendous growth of Blue Raider baseball camps. Since taking over the camp program in 1984, Peterson has developed one of the area's premier camps with most sessions sold out.

Peterson took two separate tours with the Blue Raiders as an assistant coach under John Stanford prior to becoming the team's skipper. During his runs between 1976-78 and 1985-87, the Blue Raiders won two OVC titles and four southern division crowns.

During the interim, Peterson served as the head coach at Roane State Community College in Harriman, Tenn. During his tenure from 1979-1984, Peterson's teams won a Tennessee state title in 1981 and he was twice named TJCAA Coach of the Year (1981, '84). While at Roane State, Peterson put together a sparkling record of 153-96, a .614 winning percentage.

His expertise also ranges away from on-the-field coaching. He is known as one of the top recruiters in the region and has a knack for keeping local talent close to home.

Peterson's reputation extends into fundraising as well. Events such as the annual Chuck Taylor Golf Tournament have become mainstays on the calendars of baseball supporters across middle Tennessee and have served to raise thousands of dollars for the improvement of Blue Raider baseball.

He spearheaded the effort to pay for the construction of the Stephen B. Smith Clubhouse and Indoor Training Facility, which opened its doors in 1998. One look inside the facility shows the amount of time and effort spent toward this endeavor. It has become known as one of the finest collegiate clubhouses and training facilities in the entire country.

Reese Smith Field has also benefited from Peterson's fundraising abilities. He has helped transform the park into a fan-friendly area by expanding the seating area, putting up a new information center just inside the gate, and expanding the restroom and concession facilities.

Peterson guided efforts during the summer of 2001 to expand the dugouts at Reese Smith Field. He is also currently spearheading an effort that would totally renovate the current stadium. The plans would call for a significant remodeling of the concession stand, improved and expanded restroom facilities, and a modern press box that would accommodate radio and television along with print media.

A native of Huntsville, Ala., Peterson stood out as a catcher under the legendary Rudy Abbott at Jacksonville State. He earned his bachelor's from Jacksonville State in 1973 and later earned a master's from Middle Tennessee in 1977.

Peterson is married to the former Rita Albert and the couple has three children, Jill, Jenny and John. Away from the diamond, he enjoys fishing for smallmouth bass.
