Harp Maturing at the Plate

Senior Troy Harp put together a seven-game hitting streak that ended Tuesday this week, by far the longest streak of his career. The Louisville, Ky., backstop batted .357 (10-for-28) with three doubles and seven RBIs during the streak. Harp had a good weekend at New Mexico State, going 4-for-10 (.400) with two doubles and three RBIs in the three contests. For the season the Pleasure Ridge Park HS product is batting .288 with four doubles, two homers and 13 RBIs with 11 runs scored. The three-year starter is also second on the club in two-out RBIs with 10.

McNamee Still at his Best

Junior Eric McNamee continues to hit above the .400 mark through 25 games this season after collecting four hits in 10 at-bats last weekend at New Mexico State and four more hits in the two games versus Tennessee Tech this week. The Columbia State CC transfer had a pair of doubles in the thin air of Las Cruces, scoring twice with four walks. For the season McNamee is batting .418 with six doubles, two triples, one home run and 11 RBIs. He has drawn 22 walks and scored 37 runs and has just seven strikeouts in 98 at-bats. Since taking over in the leadoff spot four games into the season, the Father Ryan HS product has scored 29 runs and walked 17 times for a .490 on-base percentage. McNamee is 28-for-48 (.583) as a leadoff hitter this season, as well.

Baseball Reunion Day Upcoming

Saturday, April 17th will be Blue Raider Old Timers Day at Reese Smith Field. The Blue Raider baseball team will take on Arkansas State at 2 p.m. All former Blue Raider baseball players, coaches, trainers and managers will be our special guests. Old Timers in attendance will range from members of the class of '49 to the class of 2003, and everyone will be recognized on the field prior to the game. A cookout will also take place for the guests at noon. While they last, posters will be available for alumni autographs during the game. As part of Old Timers Day, fans can turn back the clock by enjoying ice-cold coca-cola and popcorn for only 25 cents each from BRAA Concessions. For more information on how you can participate in all of the weekend's festivities, contact Varsity Club Director Jim Simpson at 898-5632. "We always look forward to seeing our former players and coaches at these reunions and the fans love seeing them, also," Simpson said. "We want our alumni to be involved with their alma mater and they always seem to enjoy reuniting with their teammates. To them, this should always be home."

Williams Steps Up ... Again

Senior hurler John Williams once again showed his dominance as a starting pitcher with a complete-game, 14-strikeout performance, a big win in a huge situation for the Blue Raiders. Williams tossed more than 150 pitches in the sixth complete game of his career, tallying his seventh career double-digit strikeout performance. The win ended a four-game losing streak for the Blue Raiders and also saved a bullpen that has been overworked in the last 10 days because of inconsistent starting pitching. Williams has now tallied 46 career strikeouts in four outings against New Mexico State, running his record to 2-1 against the Aggies.

Williams, Mobley Leading Pitching Staff

Senior John Williams and junior Chris Mobley have anchored the pitching staff this season, combining for an 8-3 record with a 2.15 ERA. The duos numbers are eerily similar all the way across as evidenced by the graphic below:

	IP	H	R	ER	BB	SO	B/Avg.
Mobley	38.0	27	13	9	14	45	.196
Williams	37.1	25	12	9	11	49	.185

Mobley had his first rough outing of the season on Friday at New Mexico State, but Williams picked up the slack with a complete-game, 14-strikeout performance on Saturday to give the Blue Raiders an opportunity to win the opening conference series for both clubs.

Taylor More Feast than Famine

Sophomore Marcus Taylor, characterized by head coach Steve Peterson as "either feast or famine" at the plate this season, was much more on the positive side last weekend at New Mexico State, including providing the game-winning homer in Saturday's victory. The Lexington, Ky., native was 4-for-8 (.500) with four walks, three runs scored and three RBIs in the three games. The biggest accomplishment may have been Taylor's one strikeout, a far cry from the norm this season. The Henry Clay HS product tied his career-high with three hits in Sunday's outing and provided a two-out, two-run home run in the eighth inning on Saturday to put the Raiders ahead for good in a 6-5 victory. For the season Taylor has six home runs, tied for the team lead, and is second in RBIs with 21 in just 17 games after battling injuries the last month. He has upped his batting average to .314 (16-for-51) with 12 runs scored and a team-leading slugging percentage of .745. He also leads the Blue Raiders with a .382 (13-for-34) batting average with runners on base.

Odds and Ends

Senior Shane Kemp continues to hit for power despite his overall batting average falling off over the past three weeks. The outfielder is tied for the club lead with six homers and leads the Blue Raiders with 22 RBIs … After collecting a hit in 18 of the team's first 20 games of the season, junior third baseman Brett Carroll had one of the worst weekends of his career at New Mexico State, going 0-for-10 with one run and one RBI in the three games. Carroll had not gone hitless in a Sun Belt series since April 26-28, 2002, versus Louisiana-Lafayette during his freshman season. The Knoxville, Tenn., native collected one hit in each of the two games versus Tennessee Tech this week … With last weekend's series loss at New Mexico State, Middle Tennessee has now won just one of the last nine road Sun Belt series. The only series victory was April 11-13, 2003, at Arkansas State. The Blue Raiders won all four of their road series in 2001, their first year in the Sun Belt, but have not been as tough to beat away from Reese Smith Field since … Junior Josh Archer leads the club with 11 two-out RBIs this season. Archer has 15 RBIs for the year in 19 games … Senior Derek Phillips has hit safely in 10 of his 13 starts this season ... Despite batting just .185 overall, senior Chuck Akers has done well with runners in scoring position, batting .389 (7-for-18), third among regulars. Junior Eric McNamee leads the team with a .500 (9-for-18) batting average with runners in scoring position, while Marcus Taylor is right behind McNamee at .409 (9-for-22) … The Blue Raiders have struggled to score runs when chances have presented themselves over the last eight games, but especially in the last two games of the weekend at New Mexico State and this week versus Tennessee Tech. Middle Tennessee was just 7-for-34 (.206) with runners on base on Saturday and Sunday and 3-for-19 (.158) with two outs in the final two contests at NMSU. Against Tennessee Tech, the Blue Raiders were 4-for-23 (.174) with runners on base and 3-for-19 (.158) with two outs.

Tidbits

Junior Brett Carroll has hit safely in 20 of 25 games this season, including four consecutive two-hit games from March 6-10 ... Senior Shane Kemp posted a dozen multi-hit and three multi-RBI games last season in his first as a Blue Raider. The Paris, Tenn., native already has nine multi-hit and five multi-RBI games in 2004 and leads the Blue Raiders with 22 RBIs ... Junior second baseman Eric McNamee has 15 multi-hit games and 11 multi-run outings this year, including six three-hit contests ... Former Blue Raider Jerry Knox has been traded to the Brockton (MA) Rox of the independent Northeast Professional Baseball League. Knox will report to Brockton in mid-May for the season. Also, former Blue Raider Josh Renick was cut on Sunday by the Houston Astros but will sign a contract next week with the St. Paul (MN) Saints of the independent Northern League.

Notes from the Series with Tennessee Tech

Tuesday: Sophomore Jeff Kasser made his first career start, going a career-long five innings to get his first win of the season. Kasser now has two career victories on the mound, both against Tennessee Tech ... The double in the first by junior Brett Carroll broke an 0-for-11 slump that dated to March 23 versus Troy State ... Sophomore Jeff Beachum extended his hitting streak to five games with a single in the third ... Senior Derek Phillips extended his hitting streak to four games with a single in the sixth ... Senior Troy Harp's seven-game hitting streak came to an end with an 0-for-3 effort ... Wednesday: Sophomore Shay Horseman made his second career start against Tennessee Tech on Wednesday, both in Cookeville ... Junior Eric Blevins was scheduled to make the start but did not make the trip due to sickness ... Beachum's (five games) and Phillips' (four games) hitting streaks both came to an end in the contest after combining to go 0-for-6 ... With the defeat, the Blue Raiders have now lost three straight to the Golden Eagles in Cookeville.

Notes from the Series at New Mexico State

Friday's loss at New Mexico State was the first Sun Belt opening defeat for the Blue Raiders since joining the league in 2001 … Saturday's win was the second of John Williams career against New Mexico State with 14 strikeouts against the Aggies, the most in his career against NMSU. The strikeout total was also the most in Williams' career against a Sun Belt opponent. The Murfreesboro, Tenn., senior recorded 13 strikeouts against NMSU two years ago in Las Cruces and now has 46 career strikeouts in four outings … The complete game was the first for Williams this season and the sixth of his career … Sunday's stint ties for the shortest in Steve Kline's career as a starter, as he also went two-plus innings against Mississippi State in last year's NCAA Regional … Senior Troy Harp extended his hitting streak to seven games with a double in the fourth. The seven-game streak is the longest of Harp's career. His previous long hitting streak before this season was four games … Junior Eric McNamee has hit safely in 18 of the 23 games this season and reached base in all but one game … The Blue Raiders have lost five of six after winning 10 of 11 outings … Middle Tennessee has allowed 18 unearned runs in the past six games after giving up only nine unearned runs in the first 17 contests of the season … Middle Tennessee and New Mexico State have played a rubber game in all four years of the series in the Sun Belt, with the Aggies taking the last three Sunday wins for series victories.

Former Blue Raiders Head to Spring Training

Eight former Middle Tennessee baseball players took part in spring training this year, including three former standouts in Major League camp:

- Tullahoma, Tenn., native and 2001 first-round draft pick Dewon Brazelton was in camp with the Tampa Bay Devil Rays after pitching at every level in the club's organization last year and performing very well in the Arizona Fall League. He spent most of his offseason working out at a training center in the Phoenix area.

- Jason Maxwell was also in camp with the Devil Rays after spending the last two seasons in the Cincinnati Reds organization at Class AAA Louisville (KY). Maxwell played for the Blue Raiders for three seasons from 1991-93 and has since spent time in the Chicago Cubs, Detroit Tigers, Minnesota Twins and Texas Rangers organizations. Both Brazelton and Maxwell will start the year in AAA Durham (NC).

- The third former Blue Raider in major league camp, Jeremy Owens, joined the Boston Red Sox as a Rule V draft choice during the winter of 2002. Owens spent last season at Class AA Portland (ME) before getting called up to Class AAA Pawtucket (RI) for the International League playoffs. Owens was previously in major league camp with the organization that drafted the Johnson City, Tenn., native, the San Diego Padres. Owens will start the 2004 season in Pawtucket.

Five other former standouts took part in spring training in minor league camp:

- Sun Belt Conference Player of the Year in 2001, Josh Renick joined the Houston Astros organization after spending three seasons with the Minnesota Twins. Renick was cut by the Houston Astros but will sign a contract with the St. Paul (MN) Saints of the independent Northern League.

- Renick teammate Jason Moates returns for his fourth season in the Detroit Tigers organization after spending last season at Class A Lakeland (FL). Moates is tentatively scheduled to start the 2004 season at Lakeland.

- Bryan Peck starts his fifth season in the Colorado Rockies organization. Peck started 2003 in Class A at Visalia Oaks (CA) before a season-ending shoulder injury in May.

- A Blue Raider for one season, Adam Larson enters his third year with the Chicago White Sox after playing all of 2003 with the Class A Kannapolis (NC) Intimidators.

- Perhaps the most valuable player on last year's NCAA Tournament team, Chad Cooper starts his second year with the Devil Rays. Cooper spent last season at Rookie League Princeton (WV) before getting a late-season call-up to Hudson Valley (NY). Cooper will start the 2004 campaign with the A Charleston (SC) RiverDogs in the South Atlantic League.

- More information may be found on all of these players at mlb.com or minorleaguebaseball.com.

Williams Named National Pitcher of the Week

Senior John Williams earned Collegiate Baseball National Pitcher of the Week honors last Monday after striking out 12 batters in six innings and combining with Chase Swing for the third no-hitter in school history. Williams and Swing combined to throw just the third no-hitter in school history in a 4-0 win over IP-Fort Wayne on February 24. Williams struck out 12 and walked one in six innings. He was so dominant that he fanned 10 of the first 13 hitters in the game and a dozen of the 19 batters he faced before leaving the game with 90 pitches after six innings. Swing then got the final nine outs for his first save of the year and 12th of his career. It was the fifth career double-digit strikeout performance by Williams and his most since last season versus New Mexico State.

Williams Earns SBC Pitcher of the Week

Middle Tennessee senior lefthander John Williams picked up another award last week after combining for the third no-hitter in school history, this one the Sun Belt Conference Pitcher of the Week. Williams tossed six no-hit innings, striking out 12 and facing just one batter over the minimum. He combined with teammate Chase Swing for only the third no-hitter in school history. The Murfreesboro native struck out 10 of the first 13 batters of the game. His strikeout total was his fifth career double-digit strikeout contest and most since striking out 12 versus New Mexico State last season. Williams was named a National Pitcher of the Week on Monday by Collegiate Baseball.

Peterson Gets No. 500

Blue Raider skipper Steve Peterson picked up his 500th coaching victory at Middle Tennessee in the second game of the 2003 Sun Belt Championships, a 6-5 triumph over Arkansas-Little Rock. Peterson got the 650th win of his career as a head coach at Vanderbilt on May 13, 2003, and is the winningest coach in Blue Raider history. Peterson's teams have won eight conference tournaments and have made seven NCAA Tournament appearances in his 16 years at the helm of the Blue Raider program.

Carroll, Swing Preseason All-Americans

Blue Raider juniors Brett Carroll and Chase Swing each garnered Preseason All-America selections for 2004 after their spectacular performances a year ago. Carroll was named to the Third Team by both the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA) and Louisville Slugger/Collegiate Baseball. He also earned Honorable Mention accolades from CollegeBaseballInsider.com. Swing joined Carroll as a Third Team pick by the NCBWA.

Steve Peterson

Head Coach ● Jacksonville State/1973 ● 17th Season ● 518-413-2 (.555), 671-509-2 (.568) overall

Steve Peterson begins his 17th season as the Middle Tennessee skipper as the winningest coach in program history.

Peterson has produced nine seasons with 30 or more wins, including a school record 42 victories during the 1990 slate.

Peterson teaches a hard-nosed and aggressive style of baseball. His personable demeanor has made him a big hit among fans, boosters, players and recruits alike.

Peterson also adheres to the philosophy that defense and pitching wins championships. He has long been known for outstanding defensive teams, and the Blue Raiders have featured some of the area's most feared hurlers throughout the years.

Peterson has seen three of his pitchers earn All-America honors, including the only First Team All-American in school history, Dewon Brazelton. Under his watch, the Blue Raiders have seen nine single-season and eight career pitching records established.

The offensive output of the team has not been ignored under Peterson, as his recruits established most of the offensive records held at Middle Tennessee. Peterson has developed three players who hit .400 or better in a season along with the school's single-season and career home run records. His 1997 squad established the all-time record for batting average with a .323 clip.

Aside from wins and losses, Peterson has been instrumental in leaving the Blue Raiders' mark on college baseball in other ways. He brought home seven consecutive conference championships (either regular season or tournament) during one stretch and has guided his team to an NCAA Regional on seven different occasions. During his tenure, Peterson has captured one Sun Belt crown, a Sun Belt tournament title, eight OVC titles and seven OVC tournament crowns. For his efforts, Peterson has twice been named OVC Coach of the Year. He brought national attention to the program in the 2001 season, as his team found itself in the national rankings for the first time since 1982.

His efforts were clearly in evidence during the magical 2001 season. The Blue Raiders established the single-game attendance record at Reese Smith Field with a crowd of 2,733 on hand to witness the Blue Raiders' Friday night tilt against South Alabama. The team went on to set the single-season attendance mark with 26,218 coming through the gates at Reese Smith Field. His squad saw 10 crowds of 1,000 or more during the season.

If the team accolades and accomplishments aren't enough, consider that Peterson has coached a Sun Belt Player of the Year and six OVC Players of the Year, a Sun Belt Pitcher of the Year and an OVC Pitcher of the Year, a First Team All-American, four Third-Team All-Americans, four Freshman All-Americans, and 35 First Team All-Conference players.

Professional baseball has seen 46 former Peterson protégés pass through the ranks with four players logging time in the Major Leagues.

Aside from playing baseball for a living, numerous former players have entered the coaching profession. Currently 24 former players are coaching at the high school, college or professional level.

Peterson was named the Tennessee Baseball Coaches Association College Coach of the Year, in 1992 and again in 2000. He was also inducted into the Rutherford County Old Timers Baseball Hall of Fame in 2003.

He has also been responsible for the tremendous growth of Blue Raider baseball camps. Since taking over the camp program in 1984, Peterson has developed one of the area's premier camps with most sessions sold out.

Peterson took two separate tours with the Blue Raiders as an assistant coach under John Stanford prior to becoming the team's skipper. During his runs between 1976-78 and 1985-87, the Blue Raiders won two OVC titles and four southern division crowns.

During the interim, Peterson served as the head coach at Roane State Community College in Harriman, Tenn. During his tenure from 1979-1984, Peterson's teams won a Tennessee state title in 1981 and he was twice named TJCAA Coach of the Year (1981, '84). While at Roane State, Peterson put together a sparkling record of 153-96, a .614 winning percentage.

His expertise also ranges away from on-the-field coaching. He is known as one of the top recruiters in the region and has a knack for keeping local talent close to home.

Peterson's reputation extends into fundraising as well. Events such as the annual Chuck Taylor Golf Tournament have become mainstays on the calendars of baseball supporters across middle Tennessee and have served to raise thousands of dollars for the improvement of Blue Raider baseball.

He spearheaded the effort to pay for the construction of the Stephen B. Smith Clubhouse and Indoor Training Facility, which opened its doors in 1998. One look inside the facility shows the amount of time and effort spent toward this endeavor. It has become known as one of the finest collegiate clubhouses and training facilities in the entire country.

Reese Smith Field has also benefited from Peterson's fundraising abilities. He has helped transform the park into a fan-friendly area by expanding the seating area, putting up a new information center just inside the gate, and expanding the restroom and concession facilities.

Peterson guided efforts during the summer of 2001 to expand the dugouts at Reese Smith Field. He is also currently spearheading an effort that would totally renovate the current stadium. The plans would call for a significant remodeling of the concession stand, improved and expanded restroom facilities, and a modern press box that would accommodate radio and television along with print media.

A native of Huntsville, Ala., Peterson stood out as a catcher under the legendary Rudy Abbott at Jacksonville State. He earned his bachelor's from Jacksonville State in 1973 and later earned a master's from Middle Tennessee in 1977.

Peterson is married to the former Rita Albert and the couple has three children, Jill, Jenny and John. Away from the diamond, he enjoys fishing for smallmouth bass.
