Baseball Game Set for TV

The April 24 Sun Belt Conference baseball game between South Alabama and Middle Tennessee will be televised by Comcast Sports Southeast/Charter Sports Southeast (CSS), as announced by the University of South Alabama Athletics Department. The game has been rescheduled for a 2:30 p.m. start to accommodate the live telecast. The contest was originally slated for 4 p.m. The three-game series between the two Sun Belt powers is scheduled for April 23-25 in Mobile. CSS has approximately four million subscribers across 11 Southeastern states. Viewers in the middle Tennessee area may view the contest on cable Channel 27. South Alabama and Middle Tennessee have played some memorable games in recent years. During the 2001 campaign, Middle Tennessee's John Williams pitched a complete-game on the final day of the regular season, as the two teams shared the conference crown.

Mobley Gets Fifth Victory with Another Strong Outing

Junior righthander Chris Mobley won his fifth game of the season Friday night at Florida International, allowing three earned runs in six-plus innings, striking out seven. With seven strikeouts in the contest, junior righthander Chris Mobley moved into seventh place on the all-time strikeout list with 182. Mobley passed Greg Johnson (1985-87, 177) and Jack Laverty (1971-74, 181) in the game. Mobley moved to 5-2 on the season with a 2.29 ERA and 62 strikeouts in 51.0 innings of work, all team-highs. Opponents are hitting just .215 against the Kingsport, Tenn., native in eight starts. Mobley has given up just 40 hits and walked only 21 this year, tying his career-high for wins in a season after posting a 5-5 mark as a freshman. His eight starts equal the total from his first two seasons as a Blue Raider. The Dobyns-Bennett is one pitch from being 6-1 for the year and has just one bad outing thus far, at New Mexico State. He has solidified his position as the Friday starter, working at least five innings in seven of his eight starts and six-plus frames in four of his last five outings. Mobley's 10 strikeouts against Louisiana-Lafayette on April 2 were his most against a Sun Belt opponent in his career, besting the nine punchouts he recorded versus South Alabama in the 2002 Sun Belt Championships. Minus the one bad start at New Mexico State, Mobley has a 5-1 record with a 1.32 ERA.

Williams Suffering Tough-Luck Losses

Senior John Williams took the loss Saturday at Florida International despite a terrific performance on the mound. The Murfreesboro, Tenn., native worked 7.2 innings, allowing two runs on six hits with five strikeouts. The Blue Raiders were shutout for the first time in 61 games in the contest, a 12-0 defeat to FIU on April 6, 2003, in Murfreesboro. Williams fell to 4-3 with the loss but lowered his ERA to 2.94 for the season with 58 strikeouts in 49.0 innings. The lefthander has lost three of his last four decisions despite a .255 opponent batting average and 29 strikeouts in 27.1 innings of work, allowing 27 hits and 18 runs. The Oakland HS product moved into a tie for third on the all-time starts list Saturday with 43, tying former Blue Raider great Dewon Brazelton. Williams also stands fourth in career strikeouts (243), fifth in innings pitched (270.1) and tied for sixth in wins (19).

Trio Steady Out of the Pen

Juniors Travis Horschel and Danny Borne and redshirt freshman Matt Scott have proven to be the most consistent performers for the Blue Raiders out of the bullpen this season, posting a combined 4-1 record with one save and 2.16 ERA in 58.1 innings of work. The trio has 35 appearances among them this season and has allowed only nine of 28 inherited runners to score and posted 49 strikeouts while allowing 55 hits. Borne is 1-0 with a 1.29 ERA and has won four straight decisions dating to last season. The lefthander has given up just two earned runs and struck out 16 in 14.0 innings. Horschel has allowed only five earned runs in 19.0 innings, posting one save and a 2.37 ERA. The righthander worked two scoreless innings to get the victory Sunday at Florida International. Matt Scott has been used in longer situations, with seven outings of at least 2.0 innings. The righthander has a 2-1 mark and a 2.49 ERA in 25.1 innings of work, giving up seven earned runs with 19 strikeouts. Scott got the win at Austin Peay, working two innings and striking out four.

Akers Likes Two-Hole Better

Senior Chuck Akers has struggled to hit for average this season, hitting almost exclusively in the leadoff and nine holes in the lineup until the last week. The Murfreesboro,

Tenn., native has batted second in his last five starts, collecting six hits in 20 at-bats (.300), including a pair of two-hit games versus Louisiana-Lafayette. He also put down a perfect bunt at Austin Peay. He carries a three-game hitting streak into Tuesday's meeting with Belmont.

Church Strong Again in Second Start

Sophomore BJ Church missed the first three weeks of the season for disciplinary reasons, returning to throw a pair of relief outings before getting his first start of the year on Sunday versus Louisiana-Lafayette. The Soddy Daisy HS product tossed 5.2 innings against the Ragin' Cajuns, allowing three runs on three hits with 10 strikeouts, his most against an SBC opponent. The righthander worked a season-long 6.1 innings at Florida International this past Sunday, allowing four runs, three earned, on four hits with five strikeouts. He did not figure in the decision, a 5-4, 10-inning victory, but deserved better. In his last three starts against SBC opponents, the Hixson, Tenn., native is 2-0 in 18.0 innings of work, striking out 21 and allowing just nine hits.

Streaks

Junior Brett Carroll is currently on a career-high nine-game hitting streak, batting .359 (14-for-39) during the stretch with four doubles, two home runs, seven RBIs and five runs scored. In the four games last week, Carroll was 7-for-16 (.438) with two home runs, four RBIs and a slugging percentage of .875. The Bearden HS product has three hitting streaks this season of at least eight games, including the current nine-game stretch. Seniors Troy Harp and Chuck Akers carry a three-game hitting streak into Tuesday's meeting with Belmont. Harp has hit safely in 11 of his last 13 games. During the 13-game stretch, the Pleasure Ridge Park HS product is batting .311 (14-for-45) with four doubles and nine RBIs, including a two-run homer in the 5-4, extra-inning victory Sunday at Florida International. Harp also has a .422 on-base percentage during the stretch. Akers is 4-for-12 (.333) in his last three starts with one run and one RBI.

Phillips Taking Advantage of Opportunities … Again

Senior Derek Phillips has hit safely in 14 of his 18 starts this season, hitting .349 (22-for-63) with six doubles. His one home run this season came in a pinch-hitting role, a two-run shot at Jacksonville State on February 29. Phillips has served as the designated hitter most of the year until drawing his last three starts at first base. The Knoxville, Tenn., native tied his career-high with three hits on both Friday and Sunday at Florida International, going 6-for-10 in two games in the series. In three games last week for the Halls HS product, Phillips batted .462 (6-for-13) with two doubles, one RBI and three runs scored. Last season during a 16-game stretch when Troy Harp broke his hand, Phillips caught 16 games in a row, batting .302 (16-for-53) with two doubles, two homers, eight RBIs and seven runs scored. The stretch was his most extensive playing time in his career behind the plate.

Junior Brett Carroll has hit safely in 27 of 32 games this season, including four consecutive two-hit games from March 6-10. The third baseman's three-run homer at Florida International on Friday was his first round-tripper since March 16 at Samford, a span of 16 games. Carroll blasted his second homer of the weekend at FIU on Sunday, a leadoff solo shot in the 10th to provide the margin of victory in a 5-4 triumph. The Knoxville, Tenn., native is currently on a career-high nine-game hitting streak, batting .359 (14-for-39) during the stretch with four doubles, two home runs, seven RBIs and five runs scored. In the four games last week, Carroll was 7-for-16 (.438) with two home runs, four RBIs and a slugging percentage of .875. The Bearden HS product has three hitting streaks this season of at least eight games, including the current nine-game stretch. Carroll moved into 10th on the all-time home run list with 31 and collected career RBIs 100-103 over the weekend at FIU. He also moved into a tie for sixth on the all-time doubles list with Jayhawk Owens (1988-90) with 43 two-baggers.

Kemp Posting Big Power Numbers in Second Season

Senior Shane Kemp posted a dozen multi-hit and three multi-RBI games last season in his first as a Blue Raider. The Paris, Tenn., native already has 12 multi-hit and seven multi-RBI games in 2004 and leads the Blue Raiders with 30 RBIs. Kemp started hot as a firecracker but quickly cooled at the plate. The Columbia State CC transfer's batting average has leveled off and the versatile outfielder continues to hit for power, leading the Blue Raiders with nine home runs, including a three-run shot this past Friday at Florida International. Kemp also showed his versatility over the weekend at FIU, making two starts in centerfield and one in right, and also played leftfield in the late innings of two contests. For the season the Henry County HS product has made 13 starts each in left and rightfield and six more in center.

Harp's Plate Maturation Continues

Troy Harp has hit safely in 11 of his last 13 games dating to March 16 at Samford, including a career-long eight-game hitting streak. The Louisville, Ky., native shared playing time with freshman Michael McKenry early in the season but has played almost exclusively in the last month. During the 13-game stretch, the Pleasure Ridge Park HS product is batting .311 (14-for-45) with four doubles and nine RBIs, including a two-run homer in the 5-4, extra-inning victory Sunday at Florida International. Harp also has a .422 on-base percentage during the stretch. Harp is currently on a three-game hitting streak.

Jaggers Finally Getting in the Lineup

Junior Nate Jaggers has enjoyed a recent surge in playing time, starting the last five games as the designated hitter. Jaggers went 8-for-16 in the first four starts before an 0-for-5 outing Sunday at Florida International. Nonetheless, the Louisville, Ky., native has upped his average almost 100 points during the five games from .172 to the current .260. He has two runs scored and two RBIs in the five contests, hitting in the two-hole in the lineup on Saturday and Sunday at FIU, and he drove in the game-winning run last week at Austin Peay.

Tidbits

Sophomore shortstop Jeff Beachum has 11 multi-hit contests this season, including a pair of four-hit games and two three-hit outings. Beachum has belted four home runs after recording no home runs during the 2003 campaign. The Cordova, Tenn., native also leads the club in stolen bases with seven after just two thefts last season … Junior second baseman Eric McNamee has 18 multi-hit games and 12 multi-run outings this year, including six three-hit contests. McNamee leads the team with a .455 (10-for-22) batting average with runners in scoring position. Sophomore Marcus Taylor is next among regulars at .360 (9-for-25), while senior Shane Kemp bats .343 (12-for-35) and junior Brett Carroll is 13-for-40 (.325). McNamee also leads the club with an astronomical .567 (34-for-60) average when batting as a leadoff hitter in an inning. Freshman Michael McKenry made his first two starts of the year in the outfield over the weekend, getting the starting nod in rightfield on Saturday and leftfield on Sunday.

Notes from Last Week: Versus Austin Peay, Florida International

Sophomore Jeff Beachum collected four hits Wednesday at Austin Peay, tying his career high. It was Beachum's 11th multi-hit game of the year and second four-hit contest of the season ... Brett Carroll's home runs Friday and Sunday at Florida International moved the junior into 10th on the all-time list at Middle Tennessee with 31 home runs. It also gave Carroll career RBIs 100-103 ... Senior Derek Phillips tied his career high with three hits in the game, the third three-hit game of his career. Phillips' last three-hit contest was April 18 of last year versus South Alabama ... With seven strikeouts in the contest, junior righthander Chris Mobley moved into seventh place on the all-time strikeout list with 182. Mobley passed Greg Johnson (1985-87, 177) and Jack Laverty (1971-74, 181) in the game ... Senior John Williams made his 43rd career start on Saturday, tying for third all-time at Middle Tennessee with Dewon Brazelton (1999-01) ... Carroll extended his hitting streak to a career-high nine games with a single in the third on Sunday. The junior has three hitting streaks of at least eight games this season. During his current streak, the Knoxville, Tenn., native is 14-for-39 (.359) with four doubles, two home runs, seven RBIs and five runs scored ... Junior Eric McNamee collected two hits in the contest, his 18th mulit-hit game of the year ... Derek Phillips had three hits in the Sunday outing and has now hit safely in 14 of 18 starts this year. The senior went 6-for-10 in the series, playing in two games ... Sophomore righthander BJ Church worked a season-long 6.1 innings in the contest ... Junior Eric McNamee has hit safely in 27 of the 32 games this season and reached base in all but two contests.

Williams Named National Pitcher of the Week

Senior John Williams earned Collegiate Baseball National Pitcher of the Week honors last Monday after striking out 12 batters in six innings and combining with Chase Swing for the third no-hitter in school history. Williams and Swing combined to throw just the third no-hitter in school history in a 4-0 win over IP-Fort Wayne on February 24. Williams struck out 12 and walked one in six innings. He was so dominant that he fanned 10 of the first 13 hitters in the game and a dozen of the 19 batters he faced before leaving the game with 90 pitches after six innings. Swing then got the final nine outs for his first save of the year and 12th of his career. It was the fifth career double-digit strikeout performance by Williams and his most since last season versus New Mexico State.

Williams Earns SBC Pitcher of the Week

Middle Tennessee senior lefthander John Williams picked up another award last week after combining for the third no-hitter in school history, this one the Sun Belt Conference Pitcher of the Week. Williams tossed six no-hit innings, striking out 12 and facing just one batter over the minimum. He combined with teammate Chase Swing for only the third no-hitter in school history. The Murfreesboro native struck out 10 of the first 13 batters of the game. His strikeout total was his fifth career double-digit strikeout contest and most since striking out 12 versus New Mexico State last season.

Blue Raider skipper Steve Peterson picked up his 500th coaching victory at Middle Tennessee in the second game of the 2003 Sun Belt Championships, a 6-5 triumph over Arkansas-Little Rock. Peterson got the 650th win of his career as a head coach at Vanderbilt on May 13, 2003, and is the winningest coach in Blue Raider history. Peterson's teams have won eight conference tournaments and have made seven NCAA Tournament appearances in his 16 years at the helm of the Blue Raider program.

FORMER BLUE RAIDERS HEAD TO SPRING TRAINING

Nine former Middle Tennessee baseball players took part in spring training this year, including three former standouts in Major League camp:

● Tullahoma, Tenn., native and 2001 first-round draft pick Dewon Brazelton was in camp with the Tampa Bay Devil Rays after pitching at every level in the club's organization last year and performing very well in the Arizona Fall League. He spent most of his offseason working out at a training center in the Phoenix area.

● Jason Maxwell was also in camp with the Devil Rays after spending the last two seasons in the Cincinnati Reds organization at Class AAA Louisville (KY). Maxwell played for the Blue Raiders for three seasons from 1991-93 and has since spent time in the Chicago Cubs, Detroit Tigers, Minnesota Twins and Texas Rangers organizations. Both Brazelton and Maxwell will start the year in AAA Durham (NC).

● The third former Blue Raider in major league camp, Jeremy Owens, joined the Boston Red Sox as a Rule V draft choice during the winter of 2002. Owens spent last season at Class AA Portland (ME) before getting called up to Class AAA Pawtucket (RI) for the International League playoffs. Owens was previously in major league camp with the organization that drafted the Johnson City, Tenn., native, the San Diego Padres. Owens will start the 2004 season in Pawtucket.

● Sun Belt Conference Player of the Year in 2001, Josh Renick joined the Houston Astros organization after spending three seasons with the Minnesota Twins. Renick was cut by the Houston Astros but will sign a contract with the St. Paul (MN) Saints of the independent Northern League.

● Renick teammate Jason Moates returns for his fourth season in the Detroit Tigers organization after spending last season at Class A Lakeland (FL). Moates will start the 2004 season at Lakeland.

● Bryan Peck starts his fifth season in the Colorado Rockies organization. Peck started 2003 in Class A at Visalia Oaks (CA) before a season-ending shoulder injury in May. Peck will begin 2004 in Visalia.

● A Blue Raider for one season, Adam Larson enters his third year with the Chicago White Sox after playing all of 2003 with the Class A Kannapolis (NC) Intimidators. Larson will start the 2004 season with Kannapolis, as well.

● Perhaps the most valuable player on last year's NCAA Tournament team, Chad Cooper starts his second year with the Devil Rays. Cooper spent last season at Rookie League Princeton (WV) before getting a late-season call-up to Hudson Valley (NY). Cooper will start 2004 with the Hudson Valley and will spend the next two months in extended spring training.

● Former Blue Raider Jerry Knox has been traded to the Brockton (MA) Rox of the independent Northeast Professional Baseball League. Knox will report to Brockton in mid-May for the season.

● More information may be found on all of these players at mlb.com or minorleaguebaseball.com.

Steve Peterson

Head Coach ● Jacksonville State/1973 ● 17th Season ● 522-416-2 (.555), 675-512-2 (.568) overall

Steve Peterson begins his 17th season as the Middle Tennessee skipper as the winningest coach in program history.

Peterson has produced nine seasons with 30 or more wins, including a school record 42 victories during the 1990 slate.

Peterson teaches a hard-nosed and aggressive style of baseball. His personable demeanor has made him a big hit among fans, boosters, players and recruits alike.

Peterson also adheres to the philosophy that defense and pitching wins championships. He has long been known for outstanding defensive teams, and the Blue Raiders have featured some of the area's most feared hurlers throughout the years.

Peterson has seen three of his pitchers earn All-America honors, including the only First Team All-American in school history, Dewon Brazelton. Under his watch, the Blue Raiders have seen nine single-season and eight career pitching records established.

The offensive output of the team has not been ignored under Peterson, as his recruits established most of the offensive records held at Middle Tennessee. Peterson has developed three players who hit .400 or better in a season along with the school's single-season and career home run records. His 1997 squad established the all-time record for batting average with a .323 clip.

Aside from wins and losses, Peterson has been instrumental in leaving the Blue Raiders' mark on college baseball in other ways. He brought home seven consecutive conference championships (either regular season or tournament) during one stretch and has guided his team to an NCAA Regional on seven different occasions. During his tenure, Peterson has captured one Sun Belt crown, a Sun Belt tournament title, eight OVC titles and seven OVC tournament crowns. For his efforts, Peterson has twice been named OVC Coach of the Year. He brought national attention to the program in the 2001 season, as his team found itself in the national rankings for the first time since 1982.

His efforts were clearly in evidence during the magical 2001 season. The Blue Raiders established the single-game attendance record at Reese Smith Field with a crowd of 2,733 on hand to witness the Blue Raiders' Friday night tilt against South Alabama. The team went on to set the single-season attendance mark with 26,218 coming through the gates at Reese Smith Field. His squad saw 10 crowds of 1,000 or more during the season.

If the team accolades and accomplishments aren't enough, consider that Peterson has coached a Sun Belt Player of the Year and six OVC Players of the Year, a Sun Belt Pitcher of the Year and an OVC Pitcher of the Year, a First Team All-American, four Third-Team All-Americans, four Freshman All-Americans, and 35 First Team All-Conference players.

Professional baseball has seen 46 former Peterson protégés pass through the ranks with four players logging time in the Major Leagues.

Aside from playing baseball for a living, numerous former players have entered the coaching profession. Currently 24 former players are coaching at the high school, college or professional level.

Peterson was named the Tennessee Baseball Coaches Association College Coach of the Year, in 1992 and again in 2000. He was also inducted into the Rutherford County Old Timers Baseball Hall of Fame in 2003.

He has also been responsible for the tremendous growth of Blue Raider baseball camps. Since taking over the camp program in 1984, Peterson has developed one of the area's premier camps with most sessions sold out.

Peterson took two separate tours with the Blue Raiders as an assistant coach under John Stanford prior to becoming the team's skipper. During his runs between 1976-78 and 1985-87, the Blue Raiders won two OVC titles and four southern division crowns.

During the interim, Peterson served as the head coach at Roane State Community College in Harriman, Tenn. During his tenure from 1979-1984, Peterson's teams won a Tennessee state title in 1981 and he was twice named TJCAA Coach of the Year (1981, '84). While at Roane State, Peterson put together a sparkling record of 153-96, a .614 winning percentage.

His expertise also ranges away from on-the-field coaching. He is known as one of the top recruiters in the region and has a knack for keeping local talent close to home.

Peterson's reputation extends into fundraising as well. Events such as the annual Chuck Taylor Golf Tournament have become mainstays on the calendars of baseball supporters across middle Tennessee and have served to raise thousands of dollars for the improvement of Blue Raider baseball.

He spearheaded the effort to pay for the construction of the Stephen B. Smith Clubhouse and Indoor Training Facility, which opened its doors in 1998. One look inside the facility shows the amount of time and effort spent toward this endeavor. It has become known as one of the finest collegiate clubhouses and training facilities in the entire country.

Reese Smith Field has also benefited from Peterson's fundraising abilities. He has helped transform the park into a fan-friendly area by expanding the seating area, putting up a new information center just inside the gate, and expanding the restroom and concession facilities.

Peterson guided efforts during the summer of 2001 to expand the dugouts at Reese Smith Field. He is also currently spearheading an effort that would totally renovate the current stadium. The plans would call for a significant remodeling of the concession stand, improved and expanded restroom facilities, and a modern press box that would accommodate radio and television along with print media.

A native of Huntsville, Ala., Peterson stood out as a catcher under the legendary Rudy Abbott at Jacksonville State. He earned his bachelor's from Jacksonville State in 1973 and later earned a master's from Middle Tennessee in 1977.

Peterson is married to the former Rita Albert and the couple has three children, Jill, Jenny and John. Away from the diamond, he enjoys fishing for smallmouth bass.
