Stovall (South Florida, 11/12/04). The 28 points were the most for Holmes since her career-high of 31 last season against Tennessee State (12/15/03) and her 26th career 20-point outing, including 13 against SBC competition. Holmes followed the UNO game with 16 points at South Alabama on Saturday, helping the Lady Raiders to their first 4-0 start in Sun Belt play and best conference start since the 1995-96 season. The Lee Central HS product has upped her game in SBC play, averaging 16.3 points per contest and has 19 steals and 12 assists in the four games. Holmes' previous high in Sun Belt play was 15.8 during her sophomore campaign.

Defense is the Key

Middle Tennessee has produced 87 victories since the start of the 2000-01 campaign, and the biggest key to the team's success has been defense. The Lady Raiders are 55-11 when holding an opponent under 40 percent from the field during the four-plus-years stretch, including a 16-3 mark during last season's 24-8 campaign and a 8-1 record this season. Seven of the last 11 opponents this season have shot less than 40 percent from the floor, with Middle Tennessee winning six of those contests. The Lady Raiders held New Orleans to 38 percent shooting Thursday night in a 59-51 victory, the team's seventh in the last eight outings, and only permitted South Alabama 41 percent from the floor in Saturday's 63-46 victory.

Givens Steps Up Her Play in SBC

Sophomore Chrissy Givens moved into the starting lineup this season and has continued to step up her level of play as the season has progressed. Givens is averaging 9.4 points and 5.1 rebounds per contest this season, but the Monroe, La., native has raised those numbers even more in Sun Belt action. In SBC play, the guard has poured in 12.8 points and grabbed 6.3 boards in the four wins for Middle Tennessee. She netted a season-high 17 points and handed out five assists in the win Thursday at New Orleans, and grabbed eight rebounds and four steals to go with her nine points in the victory at South Alabama on Saturday.

Gray Returns to Squad

Senior guard Ciara Gray made a decision in the summer to sit out the 2004-05 season because of reoccurring injuries. But the LaVergne, Tenn., native changed her mind one month into the season and joined the Lady Raiders December 2 at Georgia State. Gray provides head coach Stephany Smith with depth and experience off the bench, an aspect the club is short on this season. The senior has started four of the last five games, helping Middle Tennessee win five straight for the first time this season and 10 of 12 since joining the squad.

Tidbits

The Lady Raiders are 9-1 this season when outrebounding their opponents. Middle Tennessee has won the battle of the boards in the last five outings and are winning the rebounding margin by 6.7 in conference play ... Middle Tennessee began Thursday's game at New Orleans with its fourth different starting lineup this season ... The Lady Raiders are allowing just 52.5 points in the last 12 contests, holding opponents to just 38 percent from the floor. The squad is 10-2 in the 12 outings, including 4-0 in Sun Belt play ... The Lady Raiders have won six straight Sun Belt contests at Murphy Center, with the last defeat coming February 5, 2004, versus Western Kentucky, and 11 of the last 12, dating to February of 2003.

Holmes heads into Thursday's meeting with Louisiana-Lafayette seventh in the SBC in scoring at 15.5 points per outing. She also leads the league in steals (3.47), ranks second in 3-point FG made (2.18), and is third in FT percentage (.778). Holmes ranks third in 3-point FG percentage (.385), fifth in assist-to-turnover ratio (1.30), and is sixth in assists (3.82). Junior Tia Stovall is 10th in scoring this week at 13.8 per game, and ranks 15th in rebounding (5.9), third in steals (2.29) and fifth in FG percentage (.520). Sophomores Krystle Horton and Chrissy Givens are right behind in FG percentage at sixth (.515) and seventh (.489), respectively.

National Statistics

Middle Tennessee ranks 14th nationally in steals with 12.3 per game heading into this weekend's contests. The Lady Raiders are also 27th in FG percentage (.452) and 78th in scoring defense (58.6). Individually, Patrice Holmes ranks 14th nationally in steals with 3.5 per outing, and Tia Stovall is 47th in FG percentage at .520.

Holmes Climbing Career Lists

Senior Patrice Holmes has started all 108 games in her Lady Raider career and continues to climb several all-time lists during her final season in the Blue and White. The Bishopville, S.C., native ranks seventh in scoring with 1,641 points and is 10th on the career rebounding list with 677. She moved into a tie for third on the assists list with Sherry Smith (403, 1980-83) after recording four against South Alabama on Saturday. She needs 26 more assists to move into second-place all-time and pass Cortney Neeley (428, 1996-99). Holmes is also second in steals (285), needing 10 more to become the all-time leader, and is fifth in 3-pointers made (152) and fourth in 3-point attempts (497).

Stovall on Pace for 1,000

Junior Tia Stovall is on pace to become the 17th Lady Raider in history to amass 1,000 career points. The Estill Springs, Tenn., native enters Saturday's contest at South Alabama with 827 career points. With 10 regular season games remaining, the forward would need to average 17.3 points per outing to reach the mark in the final regular season game of the season, February 26 versus Florida International. Stovall currently ranks second on the squad with 13.8 points per game.

Horton Named Player of the Week

Sophomore Krystle Horton was named SBC Player of the Week on December 28 after recording a double-double in Middle Tennessee's win over Austin Peay. Horton had 19 points and 10 rebounds, including the final five points of the contest for the Lady Raiders, in the 57-55 come-from-behind victory. It was the eighth double-double of her career and the 16th for the Lady Raiders in the past two seasons.

Accolades Come Early for Lady Raiders

The Lady Raiders racked up with preseason awards from Sun Belt coaches during the preseason, claiming three all-conference spots, preseason player of the year honors and the top spot in the Eastern Division. Two-time Sun Belt Championships Most Outstanding Player Patrice Holmes was a First Team All-SBC selection, as was sophomore Krystle Horton. Holmes has been a First Team pick the last two seasons after earning Freshman of the Year in 2002. Horton was a First Team selection after her dynamite freshman campaign, while Tia Stovall was named Third Team in the preseason.

THE LAST TIME

LAFAYETTE, La. — Senior Keisha McClinic's fifth double-double of her career paced MTSU to a 72-57 victory over Louisiana-Lafayette Saturday at Earl K. Long Gym.

McClinic scored 19 points and pulled down a career-high 13 rebounds as she continued to impress midway through the season. She also had two steals and one assist.

"Keisha is playing with the heart of a warrior," said head coach Stephany Smith. "This is her senior season, and she knows this is it for her, and she will not be denied."

MTSU was scorching from behind the 3-point arch as it hit 8-of-14 for 57 percent — a definite advantage for the Lady Raiders as the Ragin' Cajuns were 4-of-16 from behind the 3-point line.

After getting off to a slow start, MTSU got a lift from Patrice Holmes as she scored 10 of her 23 points in the first 9 1/2 minutes of the contest. The Lady Raiders went on a 12-4 run midway through the first half, which proved to be a turning point for the Lady Raiders.

"We seemed to be playing passive offensively and defensively before the first media timeout," Smith said. "We switched to man-to-man and began to contest their shots after making that change."

The Lady Raiders opened the second half on a 5-0 run in the first three minutes to extend the lead. The Ragin' Cajuns fought back in the second half as Louisiana-Lafayette's leading scorer, Ana Petrovoka, scored 12 of her 16 points in the second half.

However, MTSU had an answer for almost every Ragin' Cajun basket.

MTSU continued to shine at the charity stripe as the Lady Raiders were 12-of-14 from the free throw line for 85.7 percent. The Lady Cajuns shot 42.6 percent from the field and 58.3 percent from the free throw line.

Holmes led all scorers with 23 points, the 19th time in her career that she scored 20 or more points and the fifth time this season. She was also 5-of-9 from behind the 3-point line.

Senior Jennifer Justice was the third Lady Raider to score in double figures with 12 points, the second straight game she has scored in double figures. Justice also hit a season-high two 3-pointers.

MTSU returns home on Thursday to begin a three-game home stand. The Lady Raiders play Sun Belt foe Western Kentucky at 7 p.m. in the Murphy Center.

Stephany Smith

Head Coach ● Harding, 1988 ● 8th Season ● 141-84 (.627)

Coach Stephany Smith is entering her eighth year at the helm of the Lady Raider basketball program with high expectations.

Smith made an appearance in the NCAA Tournament for the second time in her seven-year reign last season and is looking to repeat that feat in 2005. After garnering the first 20-win mark of her career in 2003-04, Smith led her athletic squad to a Sun Belt Tournament title in just the school's fourth year in the league. She also coached junior stand-out Patrice Holmes to her second straight Sun Belt Tournament Most Outstanding Player award.

For the first time in her career and the second time in school history, the team made it to the second round of the NCAA Tournament with a 67-62 win over No. 12 North Carolina. The win, by No. 13 seed Middle Tennessee, was just the third time in NCAA Tournament history a 13 seed knocked off a No. 4 seed.

The Brookhaven, Miss., native has established herself as one of college basketball's brightest young coaches and is looking forward to the season ahead.

Completing her seventh campaign, Smith's record stands as a testament to her hard work, excellent recruiting skills, and knowledge of the game. In seven seasons, Smith sports a 129-79 record and has not only the 2004 Sun Belt Tournament Title but an OVC regular season title and an OVC Tournament title to her credit. The NCAA berth in 2003-04 was the fourth team Smith has led into postseason play, with an NCAA berth in 1998 and WNIT bids in 1999 and 2001.

Smith did not enter into her first head coaching job blindly. She spent four years as an assistant at Middle Tennessee to former head coach Lewis Bivens, handling the team's recruiting efforts. Smith was promoted to associate head coach in her final season under Bivens.

The 1995-96 squad went 24-6, the second-most victories in school history, before falling to Kansas in the first round of the NCAA Tournament in Lawrence, Kan. The Lady Raiders were OVC Co-Champions in 1995 and 1996, compiling 64 wins in Smith's first three seasons on the staff. Fruits of her labors at Middle Tennessee were shown in 1996 when the Lady Raiders received votes in both collegiate polls, ranking as high as 26th. The school received its first at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament to further attest the program's growing stature.

Smith spent four years as an assistant at UAB before her arrival at Middle Tennessee, coordinating recruiting for the Blazers. UAB went 76-45 during her four seasons on the staff, winning or tying for the Sun Belt Conference crown twice (1990, '91) and sharing the Great Midwest Conference title in 1992. The Lady Blazers made two WNIT trips (1991, '92) during Smith's association with the UAB program.

She spent one year as a graduate assistant at her alma mater, Harding University, in 1989. Teams associated with Smith have a 255-158 record during her 14 years on the Division I level, including four 20-plus win seasons and two 19-win campaigns.

Smith's claim to fame is recruiting: as she has established a reputation as one of the game's top young coaches and as a top-flight recruiter. She is also a teacher of the game holding a coaching clinic over the summer to instruct other coaches on various offenses. Three of her former players have gone on to play in the professional ranks including former Lady Raider Joanne Aluka who played in Portugal and was a member of the Nigerian women's basketball team at the 2004 Summer Olympics in Athens.

Jacque Nero played six years overseas before being selected fourth by Nashville in the 1998 ABL draft. Shyronda Mifflin has played four seasons overseas and was on the Atlanta Glory's practice squad for part of the 1998 season before returning to Spain.

Her coaching philosophy stresses establishing fundamental knowledge of the game in practice. The repetition of fundamentals in practice allows her players the freedom to use that knowledge coupled with their athletic skills over the course of a game. An intense conditioning regimen also lends Smith's squad the opportunity to play an up-tempo style predicated on defensive intensity.

Smith graduated from Harding University in Searcy, Ark., with a B.A. in Physical Education in May of 1988 before receiving an M.S.E. in 1989 . She began her career at Copiah-Lincoln Community College in Wesson, Miss. She received an associate's degree from Co-Lin in May of 1986.

Smith competed in basketball at both Co-Lin and Harding and also spent a year as the head girls track coach at Searcy High School in 1989 while completing her Master's degree at Harding.

Smith is truly people-oriented. She has planned and directed numerous non-profit clinics at Middle Tennessee and UAB for girls to further promote the game of basketball. She now heads up one of the most successful camps in the country, the Middle Tennessee "Stars of Tomorrow" camp, each summer. She is the daughter of Ralph and Betsy Smith. She has three brothers (Ralph, Richard, Cameron) and one sister (Sydney).
