Middle Tennessee vs. New Mexico State

Middle Tennessee and New Mexico State are tied, 2-2, in the all-time series, with the Aggies winning, 73-63, in the only meeting in Murfreesboro. That loss was the only Sun Belt home defeat for the Lady Raiders in 2002. Last season Middle Tennessee used 18 points from Krystle Horton and 10 from Jennifer Justice in a 52-51 triumph in Las Cruces. The Lady Raiders are 2-1 against NMSU on the road in the series, with today's meeting the last before the Aggies move to the WAC next season.

Lady Raiders Move to 5-0 in SBC

Middle Tennessee ran its overall win streak to six and improved to 5-0 in Sun Belt play with Thursday night's 53-46 win over Louisiana-Lafayette in Murfreesboro. The start is the best for the program since entering the Sun Belt and the best since the 1995-96 squad began conference play 8-0. The five straight wins is the sixth best start to league play in school history and just one from tying the 1979-80 club for fifth place.

Givens Continues SBC Rise

Sophomore Chrissy Givens moved into the starting lineup this season and has continued to step up her level of play as the season has progressed. Givens is averaging 9.6 points and 5.2 rebounds per contest this season, but the Monroe, La., native has raised those numbers even more in Sun Belt action. In SBC play, the guard has poured in 12.6 points and grabbed 6.4 boards in the five wins for Middle Tennessee, leading the club in rebounds and ranking second behind Patrice Holmes in points. She netted a season-high 17 points and handed out five assists in a win at South Alabama and led the Lady Raiders with 12 points, seven boards and six assists in the 53-46 victory over Louisiana-Lafayette on Thursday. It was her team-leading sixth time to lead the club in rebounding this season and also her sixth time to lead in assists.

Sun Belt Championships

The Sun Belt Conference Tournament is slated for March 5-8 at The Super Pit in Denton, Texas. The event combines the men's and women's tournament at one site. Ticket packages are available through the North Texas ticket office.

Defense is the Key

Middle Tennessee has produced 88 victories since the start of the 2000-01 campaign, and the biggest key to the team's success has been defense. The Lady Raiders are 56-11 when holding an opponent under 40 percent from the field during the four-plus-years stretch, including a 16-3 mark during last season's 24-8 campaign and a 9-1 record this season. Eight of the last 12 opponents this season have shot less than 40 percent from the floor, with Middle Tennessee winning seven of those eight contests. The Lady Raiders held Louisiana-Lafayette to 23 percent from the floor in the first half and 30 percent for the game in a 53-46 win on Thursday. In Sun Belt play, opponents are shooting just 35 percent from the floor, with Middle Tennessee allowing only 49.2 points per game. In the last 13 games, the Lady Raiders are allowing just 51.8 points per outing, winning 11 of the 13 contests.

Holmes Displays Marksmanship of Old

Senior Patrice Holmes showed her deft stroke from the field at New Orleans on January 20, canning a career-high six three-pointers and tallying a season-high 28 points in the 59-51 victory. Holmes was 6-of-10 from behind the arc in the contest, including four treys in the first half. Her buzzer-beater from the wing gave the Lady Raiders a 32-30 edge at the half. The Bishopville, S.C., senior has struggled a bit from the field this season, but regained her form against the Privateers, tying for the team high in points this season with Tia Stovall (South Florida, 11/12/04). The 28 points were the most for Holmes since her career-high of 31 last season against Tennessee State (12/15/03) and her 26th career 20-point outing, including 13 against SBC competition.

Gray Returns to Squad

Senior guard Ciara Gray made a decision in the summer to sit out the 2004-05 season because of reoccurring injuries. But the LaVergne, Tenn., native changed her mind one month into the season and joined the Lady Raiders December 2 at Georgia State. Gray provides head coach Stephany Smith with depth and experience off the bench, an aspect the club is short on this season. Middle Tennessee has won 11 of the 13 contests since Gray returned, allowing just 51.8 points per game and getting off to the best conference start since 1995-96.

Home Sweet Home

Middle Tennessee has posted a stellar 25-7 home record against Sun Belt opponents since 2000-01 and are 274-86 all-time at Murphy Center, a winning percentage of .761. This season the Lady Raiders are 8-2 at home, including wins over South Carolina, Austin Peay, Cincinnati, Xavier and Louisiana-Lafayette. Since the start of the 2002-03 season, the Lady Raiders are 15-2 in Sun Belt action at Murphy Center, going 6-1 in each of the last two campaigns. The 25-7 mark since 2000-01 ties for the best in the Sun Belt in wins and winning percentage, with the top three teams in the East Division.

Horton Doubling Up

Sophomore Krystle Horton has posted the only two double-doubles for the Lady Raiders this season, registering 10 points and 10 rebounds against South Florida before tallying 19 points and 10 boards in a victory over Austin Peay just before Christmas. Horton owns eight double-doubles in 47 career outings and has half of the team's double-doubles in the last two seasons.

Scouting the Aggies

New Mexico State enters Saturday's contest 6-12 overall, 1-5 in Sun Belt play after an 83-64 loss at Western Kentucky on Thursday. Sherell Neeal led the Aggies in that contest with 19 points, going 9-of-13 from the field with six rebounds. Monique Bribiescas added 14 points and Cecilia Russell-Nava had 13 points. For the season, no Aggie player is averaging in double figures, with the squad scoring just 51.3 points per game. However, in SBC play, Russell-Nava leads the club with 11.3 points per game despite coming off the bench in all six outings. Neal has started all six SBC contests, averaging 10.8 points, and Bribiescas is scoring 10.3 points per game, starting 17 contests this season. Neal leads the club with 6.8 rebounds per game overall and 7.2 in league play. The Aggies have shot just 34 percent from the field and 61 percent from the foul line this season.

Game Notes from Louisiana-Lafayette

Givens Sets Career-High: Sophomore Chrissy Givens, who is playing the best basketball of any Lady Raider over the past couple of games, dished out a career-best six assists in the win over UL. Givens' previous high was five assists set against New Orleans and Austin Peay this year.

Horton Records Personal Best: Krystle Horton helped ignite Middle Tennessee's stingy defense against UL with a career-high five steals. Horton, who had 35 steals last year, equaled that mark after just 18 games. The Murfreesboro, Tenn., native's five steals bettered her previous mark of four established three times.

Home Sweet Home: The Murphy Center was once again very kind to the Lady Raiders as they won their eighth of the season at the 'Glass House' to move their all-time mark to 274-86. Since joining the Sun Belt Conference in 2000-01, the Lady Raiders have a record of 25-7 at home against conference foes to tie Western Kentucky with the best mark in the league during that stretch. With the victory over UL, the Lady Raiders have now won seven conference games in a row at the Murphy Center (last loss was a double overtime thriller against Western Kentucky on February 5, 2004).

Steals Machine: Senior sensation Patrice Holmes climbed a little closer to the all-time steals record with four thefts in the win over Louisiana-Lafayette. Holmes, who has 24 steals over her past five games, now has 289 career steals to stand just five behind current record holder Kim Webb. The All-America candidate also leads the Sun Belt in steals with 64 this season.

Defense Sparks Victory ... Again: Perhaps the biggest reason for Middle Tennessee's success the past five years has been its defense. Since 2000-01, the Lady Raiders have held the opposition under 40 percent shooting 67 times and are 56-11 in those games. The win over UL marked the 10th time this year Middle Tennessee has held the opposition under 40 percent with the Lady Raiders posting a 9-1 record in those contests. MT held UL to just 30.4 percent shooting, the lowest percentage of the season and the lowest since holding Arkansas State to just 27.1 percent on February 19, 2004 - a span of 26 games.

Inside the Paint: The 45 points scored by UL is the fewest allowed by the Lady Raiders since giving up just 41 against UL on January 25, 2003 - a span of 61 games ... Middle Tennessee was outrebounded, 45-31 for the first time in five games ... Krystle Horton connected on just her second career three-pointer and the first of the season when she drained one early in the second half ... Chrissy Givens now has 15 rebounds over her past two games ... Middle Tennessee is now 7-0 all-time against the Ragin' Cajuns ... The Lady Raiders are now 10-1 all-time on January 27 ... With nine three-point field goal attempts, Patrice Holmes moved into third place on the all-time list with 506 at-

The Lady Raider bench was outscored by UL's reserves, 20-9, only the fifth time Middle Tennessee has outscored an opponent this season ... Freshman Lakira Boyd collected a career-best two blocked shots in the win over UL.

The Bishopville, S.C., native ranks seventh in scoring with 1,653 points and is 10th on the career rebounding list with 681. She moved into third on the assists list with one against New Mexico State, passing Sherry Smith (403, 1980-83). She needs 25 more assists to move into second-place all-time and pass Cortney Neeley (428, 1996-99). Holmes is also second in steals (289), needing six more to become the all-time leader, and is fifth in 3-pointers made (154) and fourth in 3-point attempts (498). A complete listing of the accomplishments of Holmes is on Page 7 of these notes.

Stovall on Pace for 1,000

Junior Tia Stovall is on pace to become the 17th Lady Raider in history to amass 1,000 career points. The Estill Springs, Tenn., native enters Saturday's contest versus New Mexico State with 836 career points. With nine regular season games remaining, the forward would need to average 18.2 points per outing to reach the mark in the final regular season game of the season, February 26 versus Florida International. Stovall currently ranks second on the squad with 13.6 points per game.

Horton Named Player of the Week

Sophomore Krystle Horton was named SBC Player of the Week on December 28 after recording a double-double in Middle Tennessee's win over Austin Peay. Horton had 19 points and 10 rebounds, including the final five points of the contest for the Lady Raiders, in the 57-55 come-from-behind victory. It was the eighth double-double of her career and the 16th for the Lady Raiders in the past two seasons.

Accolades Come Early for Lady Raiders

The Lady Raiders racked up with preseason awards from Sun Belt coaches during the preseason, claiming three all-conference spots, preseason player of the year honors and the top spot in the Eastern Division. Two-time Sun Belt Championships Most Outstanding Player Patrice Holmes was a First Team All-SBC selection, as was sophomore Krystle Horton. Holmes has been a First Team pick the last two seasons after earning Freshman of the Year in 2002. Horton was a First Team selection after her dynamite freshman campaign, while Tia Stovall was named Third Team in the preseason.

THE LAST TIME

LAS CRUCES, N.M. – Middle Tennessee survived a barn-burner, 52-51, against New Mexico State Thursday in the Pan American Center.

MTSU had the possession arrow point its way with 3.1 seconds left in the game after New Mexico State's Orphee Cherizard missed an attempt under the basket and was tied up by two Lady Raider players.

Coach Stephany Smith called a timeout and then the Lady Raiders inbounded the ball on the baseline. New Mexico State intercepted a full court pass, but two Aggies collided in an attempt to catch the pass and Jennifer Justice came back and took the ball away and missed a lay-up as the buzzer sounded to end the game.

"I feel very fortunate to come out of here with a win," Smith said. "It wasn't a pretty game here tonight and (there were) times we failed."

The Lady Raiders led the game by four (52-48) with 1:08 left to play when Aggie Princess Moore drained a 3-pointer from the top of the key. The shot gave the Aggies a chance to win the game in the waning moments of the game after the Lady Raiders missed a bucket on their next possession.

MTSU tied the game with three minutes to go when Krystle Horton hit 1-of-2 free throws and took the lead when senior Keisha McClinic pulled down the rebound and hit a lay-up with 2:58 left to play. McClinic proved she wasn't done when she came back down after a missed New Mexico State basket to hit another bucket with 1:27 left to play. It proved to be the most important bucket in the game.

"I think in the last four minutes we fought really hard," Smith said. "We came in here after a long trip yesterday and came in here and just got the job done we had to."

Middle Tennessee was 43.1 percent from the field in the game and New Mexico State was 33.9 percent. The Lady Raiders were also 7-of-8 from the free-throw line for 87.5 percent.

New Mexico State attempted 25 three-point shots but only hit four for just 16 percent. The Lady Raiders only hit one three-pointer and took 11.

Horton led the Lady Raiders with 18 points, was 4-of-5 from the free throw line and had five rebounds. Senior Justice added 10 points and McClinic continued to play tenacious defense as she had five steals and nine rebounds. MTSU continues its cross-country road swing as the Lady Raiders take on Louisiana-Lafayette Saturday. Tip-off is set for 2 p.m.

Stephany Smith

Head Coach ● Harding, 1988 ● 8th Season ● 142-84 (.628)

Coach Stephany Smith is entering her eighth year at the helm of the Lady Raider basketball program with high expectations.

Smith made an appearance in the NCAA Tournament for the second time in her seven-year reign last season and is looking to repeat that feat in 2005. After garnering the first 20-win mark of her career in 2003-04, Smith led her athletic squad to a Sun Belt Tournament title in just the school's fourth year in the league. She also coached junior stand-out Patrice Holmes to her second straight Sun Belt Tournament Most Outstanding Player award.

For the first time in her career and the second time in school history, the team made it to the second round of the NCAA Tournament with a 67-62 win over No. 12 North Carolina. The win, by No. 13 seed Middle Tennessee, was just the third time in NCAA Tournament history a 13 seed knocked off a No. 4 seed.

The Brookhaven, Miss., native has established herself as one of college basketball's brightest young coaches and is looking forward to the season ahead.

Completing her seventh campaign, Smith's record stands as a testament to her hard work, excellent recruiting skills, and knowledge of the game. In seven seasons, Smith sports a 129-79 record and has not only the 2004 Sun Belt Tournament Title but an OVC regular season title and an OVC Tournament title to her credit. The NCAA berth in 2003-04 was the fourth team Smith has led into postseason play, with an NCAA berth in 1998 and WNIT bids in 1999 and 2001.

Smith did not enter into her first head coaching job blindly. She spent four years as an assistant at Middle Tennessee to former head coach Lewis Bivens, handling the team's recruiting efforts. Smith was promoted to associate head coach in her final season under Bivens.

The 1995-96 squad went 24-6, the second-most victories in school history, before falling to Kansas in the first round of the NCAA Tournament in Lawrence, Kan. The Lady Raiders were OVC Co-Champions in 1995 and 1996, compiling 64 wins in Smith's first three seasons on the staff. Fruits of her labors at Middle Tennessee were shown in 1996 when the Lady Raiders received votes in both collegiate polls, ranking as high as 26th. The school received its first at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament to further attest the program's growing stature.

Smith spent four years as an assistant at UAB before her arrival at Middle Tennessee, coordinating recruiting for the Blazers. UAB went 76-45 during her four seasons on the staff, winning or tying for the Sun Belt Conference crown twice (1990, '91) and sharing the Great Midwest Conference title in 1992. The Lady Blazers made two WNIT trips (1991, '92) during Smith's association with the UAB program.

She spent one year as a graduate assistant at her alma mater, Harding University, in 1989. Teams associated with Smith have a 255-158 record during her 14 years on the Division I level, including four 20-plus win seasons and two 19-win campaigns.

Smith's claim to fame is recruiting: as she has established a reputation as one of the game's top young coaches and as a top-flight recruiter. She is also a teacher of the game holding a coaching clinic over the summer to instruct other coaches on various offenses. Three of her former players have gone on to play in the professional ranks including former Lady Raider Joanne Aluka who played in Portugal and was a member of the Nigerian women's basketball team at the 2004 Summer Olympics in Athens.

Jacque Nero played six years overseas before being selected fourth by Nashville in the 1998 ABL draft. Shyronda Mifflin has played four seasons overseas and was on the Atlanta Glory's practice squad for part of the 1998 season before returning to Spain.

Her coaching philosophy stresses establishing fundamental knowledge of the game in practice. The repetition of fundamentals in practice allows her players the freedom to use that knowledge coupled with their athletic skills over the course of a game. An intense conditioning regimen also lends Smith's squad the opportunity to play an up-tempo style predicated on defensive intensity.

Smith graduated from Harding University in Searcy, Ark., with a B.A. in Physical Education in May of 1988 before receiving an M.S.E. in 1989 . She began her career at Copiah-Lincoln Community College in Wesson, Miss. She received an associate's degree from Co-Lin in May of 1986.

Smith competed in basketball at both Co-Lin and Harding and also spent a year as the head girls track coach at Searcy High School in 1989 while completing her Master's degree at Harding.

Smith is truly people-oriented. She has planned and directed numerous non-profit clinics at Middle Tennessee and UAB for girls to further promote the game of basketball. She now heads up one of the most successful camps in the country, the Middle Tennessee "Stars of Tomorrow" camp, each summer. She is the daughter of Ralph and Betsy Smith. She has three brothers (Ralph, Richard, Cameron) and one sister (Sydney).
