Opponents have scored 46, 45 and 41 points, respectively, in the last three outings, with Arkansas State's 55 points on January 15 the most allowed in SBC action. the team's success has been defense. The Lady Raiders are 57-11 when holding an opponent under 40 percent from the field during the four-plus-years stretch, including a 16-3 mark during last season's 24-8 campaign and a 10-1 record this season. Nine of the last 13 opponents this season have shot less than 40 percent from the floor, with Middle Tennessee winning eight of those nine contests. The Lady Raiders held New Mexico State to just 30 percent from the floor in a 65-41 triumph Saturday, the lowest percentage of the season by a Middle Tennessee opponent and the lowest since holding Arkansas State to just 27.1 percent on February 19, 2004 - a span of 27 games. In Sun Belt play, opponents are shooting just 35 percent from the floor, with Middle Tennessee allowing only 47.8 points per game. In the last 14 games, the Lady Raiders are allowing just 51.1 points per outing, winning 12 of the 14 contests.

Holmes Closes on Career Steals Mark

Middle Tennessee senior Patrice Holmes could add to her bevy accomplishments in Thursday's contest at Western Kentucky. The senior needs just three steals to become the all-time leader and pass Kim Webb (1984-87). Holmes has 292 career thefts and leads the Sun Belt this season with 67 steals, including 27 in six conference outings. The Bishopville, S.C., native ranks in the Top 10 in 12 different career categories at Middle Tennessee, including in the Top 5 in seven.

More on Holmes

Senior Patrice Holmes has started all 110 games in her Lady Raider career and continues to climb several all-time lists during her final season in the Blue and White. The Bishopville, S.C., native ranks seventh in scoring with 1,659 points and is 10th on the career rebounding list with 685. She ranks third on the all-time assists list with 406 and is second in steals with 292. Holmes is also fifth in 3-pointers made (156) and tied for third in 3-point attempts (502). A complete listing of the accomplishments of Holmes is on Page 7 of these notes.

Stretch Run Starts in February

Historically, Stephany Smith-coached teams have gotten better as the season has progressed, and that is never more evident than during the month of February. During Smith's seven-plus years at the helm of the program, the Lady Raiders are 40-12 (.769) during the month of February, including a perfect 10-0 during the 1999-00 season. Since joining the Sun Belt, Middle Tennessee stands 19-7 (.731) in February.

SBC Play Even Better for Givens

Sophomore Chrissy Givens has increased her intensity in Sun Belt play, upping her averages in both points and rebounds and displaying an all-around game in the six contests. Givens is averaging 9.6 points and 5.2 rebounds per contest this season, but the Monroe, La., native has raised those numbers even more in Sun Belt action. In SBC play, the guard has poured in 12.2 points, second on the squad and grabbed a team-best 6.2 boards. Givens also leads the Lady Raiders with 21 assists in the six outings and has 12 steals, as well. Holmes Displays Marksmanship of Old

Senior Patrice Holmes showed her deft stroke from the field at New Orleans on January 20, canning a career-high six three-pointers and tallying a season-high 28 points in the 59-51 victory. Holmes was 6-of-10 from behind the arc in the contest, including four treys in the first half. Her buzzer-beater from the wing gave the Lady Raiders a 32-30 edge at the half. The Bishopville, S.C., senior has struggled a bit from the field this season, but regained her form against the Privateers, tying for the team high in points this season with Tia Stovall (South Florida, 11/12/04). The 28 points were the most for Holmes since her career-high of 31 last season against Tennessee State (12/15/03) and her 26th career 20-point outing, including 13 against SBC competition.

Game Notes from New Mexico State

FRONT RUNNERS: Thanks to a stingy defense and getting off to solid starts, Middle Tennessee has only trailed 9:12 in its six conference games combined. In fact, the Lady Raiders have not trailed in a game since late in the first half at New Orleans on January 20. Following Saturday's wire-to-wire win, the Lady Raiders have not trailed in a game in 140:26 and counting.

HOME SWEET HOME: The Murphy Center was once again very kind to the Lady Raiders as they won their ninth of the season at the 'Glass House' to move their all-time mark to 275-86. Since joining the Sun Belt Conference in 2000-01, the Lady Raiders have a record of 26-7 at home against conference foes, tied with Western Kentucky for the best mark in the league during that stretch. With the victory over New Mexico State, the Lady Raiders have now won eight conference games in a row at Murphy Center.

HORTON SETS NEW MARK: Sophomore Krystle Horton has been racking up the steals over the past two games for the Lady Raiders. During that span, Horton has collected 12 steals, including a career-best of seven in the win over New Mexico State. It marks Horton's best two-game total in her young career. For the season, Horton now has 42 steals, a new single-season record for the Murfreesboro native.

INSIDE THE PAINT: Ditte Jakobsen equaled her career-high with two made three-pointers and also matched her personal-best with four assists ... The 41 points allowed by the Lady Raiders was the lowest total of the season and the third straight game they have set a new

In the Sun Belt

Middle Tennessee continues to lead the Sun Belt in steals and rebounding defense this week. The Lady Raiders are averaging 12.7 thefts per game and lead the SBC with 34.6 defensive boards an outing. The squad also ranks second in FG percentage and 3-point FG percentage defense, and is third in assists and turnover margin.

Individual SBC Stats

Senior Patrice Holmes leads the Lady Raiders in the individual conference statistics, ranking in the top 10 in seven different categories. Holmes heads into Thursday's meeting at Western Kentucky ninth in the SBC in scoring at 14.8 points per outing. She also leads the league in steals (3.47), ranks fourth in 3-point FG made (2.11), and is tied for fifth in FT percentage (.754). Holmes ranks sixth in 3-point FG percentage (.367), fifth in assist-to-turnover ratio (1.24), and is sixth in assists (3.58). Junior Tia Stovall is 10th in scoring this week at 13.5 per game, and ranks third in steals (2.21) and fifth in FG percentage (.510). Sophomores Krystle Horton and Chrissy Givens are right behind in FG percentage at sixth (.508) and seventh (.500), respectively, while Horton is fifth in steals (2.16).

National Statistics

Middle Tennessee moved into the Top 10 this week nationally in steals, ranking eighth at 12.7 per outing. The Lady Raiders lead the Sun Belt in thefts. Middle Tennessee also ranks 28th in the country in FG percentage (.449), 50th in scoring defense (57.0) and 78th in scoring margin (6.3). Individually, senior Patrice Holmes is 11th nationally in steals at 3.5 per contest.

On This Date

Middle Tennessee stands 7-2 all-time on February 3, with a 4-2 mark in conference play. The Lady Raiders have one victory each against Chattanooga, Vanderbilt, Tennessee Tech, Alabama-Huntsville, UT Martin, Eastern Kentucky and Florida International, and loss at against Tennessee Tech and Austin Peay. Five of the nine contests have been played on the road, with Middle Tennessee posting a 3-2 mark. The 1996 loss to Austin Peay ended the 8-0 OVC start to that season, a record the Lady Raiders are currently chasing for best conference start in school history.

Stovall on Pace for 1,000

Junior Tia Stovall is on pace to become the 17th Lady Raider in history to amass 1,000 career points. The Estill Springs, Tenn., native enters Thursday's game with 848 career points. With eight regular season games remaining, the forward would need to average 19.0 points per outing to reach the mark in the final regular season game of the season, February 26 versus Florida International. Stovall currently ranks second on the squad with 13.5 points per game.

Gray Returns to Squad

Senior guard Ciara Gray made a decision in the summer to sit out the 2004-05 season because of reoccurring injuries. But the LaVergne, Tenn., native changed her mind one month into the season and joined the Lady Raiders December 2 at Georgia State. Gray provides head coach Stephany Smith with depth and experience off the bench, an aspect the club is short on this season. Middle Tennessee has won 11 of the 13 contests since Gray returned, allowing just 51.8 points per game and getting off to the best conference start since 1995-96.

Horton Doubling Up

Sophomore Krystle Horton has posted the only two double-doubles for the Lady Raiders this season, registering 10 points and 10 rebounds against South Florida before tallying 19 points and 10 boards in a victory over Austin Peay just before Christmas. Horton owns eight double-doubles in 47 career outings and has half of the team's double-doubles in the last two seasons.

Horton Named Player of the Week

Sophomore Krystle Horton was named SBC Player of the Week on December 28 after recording a double-double in Middle Tennessee's win over Austin Peay. Horton had 19 points and 10 rebounds, including the final five points of the contest for the Lady Raiders, in the 57-55 come-from-behind victory. It was the eighth double-double of her career and the 16th for the Lady Raiders in the past two seasons.

Accolades Come Early for Lady Raiders

The Lady Raiders racked up with preseason awards from Sun Belt coaches during the preseason, claiming three all-conference spots, preseason player of the year honors and the top spot in the Eastern Division. Two-time Sun Belt Championships Most Outstanding Player Patrice Holmes was a First Team All-SBC selection, as was sophomore Krystle Horton. Holmes has been a First Team pick the last two seasons after earning Freshman of the Year in 2002. Horton was a First Team selection after her dynamite freshman campaign, while Tia Stovall was named Third Team in the preseason.

THE LAST TIME

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. -- Failure can oftentimes be the ticket to success. In MTSU's case, it turned out to be a ticket to the "Big Dance."

Forced to brood for an entire year after losing to Western Kentucky 86-83 in the Sun Belt Conference Tournament championship in 2003, the Lady Raiders turned the rematch into a mismatch Tuesday afternoon at E.A. Diddle Arena.

MTSU (23-7) jumped on Western Kentucky with an 11-0 run to start the game and carried the momentum to a convincing 79-57 whipping of the Lady Toppers on their home court before a crowd of 2,641.

"I think you draw a whole lot from (last year) when you talk about coming into this game today," MTSU sophomore forward Tia Stovall said. "We remember walking off the floor, us defeated, us crying, and we were determined to not let that happen again.

"Our confidence, not only for me, but for everybody else, was there. We have never experienced how it feels to be champions, and that motivated us a lot."

The victory assured MTSU its first NCAA Tournament appearance since 1998, Stephany Smith's first season as the Lady Raiders coach. The motivation was obvious from the opening tip, and it also was obvious it was going to be the Lady Raiders' day.

After taking the 11-0 lead, senior Jennifer Justice canned three straight 3-pointers after hitting only four all season to give MTSU a 20-7 lead.

"If I'm going to shoot it, hey, I'm going to shoot it," Justice said, "and they went in tonight. I felt it, and I'm glad we were able to get off to such a great start.

"Our goal for the whole tournament was to play 40 minutes. We didn't the first two games but won, but tonight we did accomplish what we set out to do."

"When J.J. hit those three 3s, I knew it was going to be a good night," MTSU junior point guard Patrice Holmes said with a grin.

Picked to finish second in the Sun Belt Conference's East Division, MTSU was the fourth seed entering the tournament. However, the Lady Raiders were hardly tested in disposing of North Texas, Denver and Western Kentucky.

"I can't tell you how rewarding it is because we are still a very young basketball team," Smith said. "We have seven brand new players.

"We just tried to do the things we do very well, and it is very rewarding to see these kids grow. Our coaching staff has done a great job developing these athletes into basketball players, and our players have done a tremendous job to put themselves in this position."

MTSU led 35-22 at halftime, but Western Kentucky scored six straight points to pull within seven with 17:52 remaining.

However, the Lady Raiders went on a 12-6 run to reclaim a 13-point advantage, 47-34, with 11:26 let.

Holmes all but provided the backbreaker when she canned a long 3-pointer that gave the Lady Raiders a 56-37 lead with nine minutes remaining.

"I was just telling (my teammates) that they're going to make runs but that we just needed to continue to play our game and take care of the basketball," Holmes said. "We came out today and did the things we needed to do and executed our game plan."

Western Kentucky coach Mary Taylor Cowles agreed.

"Middle just played an outstanding ballgame," she said. "They have so many different people who can score that Patrice Holmes doesn't have to shoulder the load. They deserved to win the game today."

Led by Holmes' 18, the Lady Raiders placed six players in double figures. She was named the tournament's most valuable player for the second straight year. Freshman reserve Chrissy Givens had 12 points, Justice and Stovall (All-Tournament) had 11 each, and Krystle Horton (All-Tournament) and Keisha McClinic added 10 apiece.

MTSU held Western Kentucky to just 38 percent shooting, including 28 percent in the first half.

"I think, to me, that was the most aggressive game that we've ever put together," Stovall said. "I think it's the best we've played for 40 minutes, and our defense was a big part of it."

Western Kentucky (18-13) won the two regular-season meetings and defeated the Lady Raiders four straight times.

"I was really proud of our character and maturity and not doing like times in the past; not necessarily falling apart, but getting that defeated look on their face that has carried over," Smith said. "It never carried over, and we showed some incredible poise and determination."

Western Kentucky was led by Tiffany Porter-Talbert and Charlotte Marshall with 14 points each. Senior guard Leslie Logsdon, who scored 32 points -- 30 in the first half of last year's championship game -- was limited to only two points on 1-of-11 shooting. MTSU will find out its NCAA Tournament destination Sunday when the field of 64 is announced.

Stephany Smith

Head Coach ● Harding, 1988 ● 8th Season ● 143-84 (.630)

Coach Stephany Smith is entering her eighth year at the helm of the Lady Raider basketball program with high expectations.

Smith made an appearance in the NCAA Tournament for the second time in her seven-year reign last season and is looking to repeat that feat in 2005. After garnering the first 20-win mark of her career in 2003-04, Smith led her athletic squad to a Sun Belt Tournament title in just the school's fourth year in the league. She also coached junior stand-out Patrice Holmes to her second straight Sun Belt Tournament Most Outstanding Player award.

For the first time in her career and the second time in school history, the team made it to the second round of the NCAA Tournament with a 67-62 win over No. 12 North Carolina. The win, by No. 13 seed Middle Tennessee, was just the third time in NCAA Tournament history a 13 seed knocked off a No. 4 seed.

The Brookhaven, Miss., native has established herself as one of college basketball's brightest young coaches and is looking forward to the season ahead.

Completing her seventh campaign, Smith's record stands as a testament to her hard work, excellent recruiting skills, and knowledge of the game. In seven seasons, Smith sports a 129-79 record and has not only the 2004 Sun Belt Tournament Title but an OVC regular season title and an OVC Tournament title to her credit. The NCAA berth in 2003-04 was the fourth team Smith has led into postseason play, with an NCAA berth in 1998 and WNIT bids in 1999 and 2001.

Smith did not enter into her first head coaching job blindly. She spent four years as an assistant at Middle Tennessee to former head coach Lewis Bivens, handling the team's recruiting efforts. Smith was promoted to associate head coach in her final season under Bivens.

The 1995-96 squad went 24-6, the second-most victories in school history, before falling to Kansas in the first round of the NCAA Tournament in Lawrence, Kan. The Lady Raiders were OVC Co-Champions in 1995 and 1996, compiling 64 wins in Smith's first three seasons on the staff. Fruits of her labors at Middle Tennessee were shown in 1996 when the Lady Raiders received votes in both collegiate polls, ranking as high as 26th. The school received its first at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament to further attest the program's growing stature.

Smith spent four years as an assistant at UAB before her arrival at Middle Tennessee, coordinating recruiting for the Blazers. UAB went 76-45 during her four seasons on the staff, winning or tying for the Sun Belt Conference crown twice (1990, '91) and sharing the Great Midwest Conference title in 1992. The Lady Blazers made two WNIT trips (1991, '92) during Smith's association with the UAB program.

She spent one year as a graduate assistant at her alma mater, Harding University, in 1989. Teams associated with Smith have a 255-158 record during her 14 years on the Division I level, including four 20-plus win seasons and two 19-win campaigns.

Smith's claim to fame is recruiting: as she has established a reputation as one of the game's top young coaches and as a top-flight recruiter. She is also a teacher of the game holding a coaching clinic over the summer to instruct other coaches on various offenses. Three of her former players have gone on to play in the professional ranks including former Lady Raider Joanne Aluka who played in Portugal and was a member of the Nigerian women's basketball team at the 2004 Summer Olympics in Athens.

Jacque Nero played six years overseas before being selected fourth by Nashville in the 1998 ABL draft. Shyronda Mifflin has played four seasons overseas and was on the Atlanta Glory's practice squad for part of the 1998 season before returning to Spain.

Her coaching philosophy stresses establishing fundamental knowledge of the game in practice. The repetition of fundamentals in practice allows her players the freedom to use that knowledge coupled with their athletic skills over the course of a game. An intense conditioning regimen also lends Smith's squad the opportunity to play an up-tempo style predicated on defensive intensity.

Smith graduated from Harding University in Searcy, Ark., with a B.A. in Physical Education in May of 1988 before receiving an M.S.E. in 1989 . She began her career at Copiah-Lincoln Community College in Wesson, Miss. She received an associate's degree from Co-Lin in May of 1986.

Smith competed in basketball at both Co-Lin and Harding and also spent a year as the head girls track coach at Searcy High School in 1989 while completing her Master's degree at Harding.

Smith is truly people-oriented. She has planned and directed numerous non-profit clinics at Middle Tennessee and UAB for girls to further promote the game of basketball. She now heads up one of the most successful camps in the country, the Middle Tennessee "Stars of Tomorrow" camp, each summer. She is the daughter of Ralph and Betsy Smith. She has three brothers (Ralph, Richard, Cameron) and one sister (Sydney).
