Site: Murfreesboro, Tenn. (Murphy Center)
TV: None
Radio: WMTS 88.3 (Neil Price, play-by-play)
Series: Series tied, 3-3
Last Meeting: Middle Tennessee 64, Denver 61 -- Bowling Green, Ky. (03/08/04)

Middle Tennessee is 1-0 in Murfreesboro, having played three times in Denver and twice more during the Sun Belt Championships, once in New Orleans, La., and again last year in Bowling Green, Ky.

Middle Tennessee vs. Denver

Middle Tennessee and Denver are tied, 3-3, in the all-time series, with both clubs winning three straight. The Lady Raiders currently own a three-game winning streak versus the Pioneers, including a 64-61 triumph in the semifinals of the Sun Belt Championships last season. Middle Tennessee won the regular season matchup in 2004, the team's first win in three tries on the road, and also defeated the Pioneers in the only meeting in the series in Murfreesboro, 67-65, in 2003.

Givens Setting the Pace

Sophomore Chrissy Givens has stepped up her play all season, but especially since the start of Sun Belt play a month ago. Givens has scored a season-high 17 points in three of the last five outings, and has scored in double figures in seven of the eight league contests. The Monroe, La., native has also hit the glass hard, leading the club in rebounding in the last five games and six SBC tilts overall. For the season Givens has upped her scoring average into double figures at 10.3 per game, fourth on the squad, but ranks second in Sun Belt games with a 13.4 scoring average. She leads the squad in rebounding in league games at 6.1, and also leads the Lady Raiders in assists in SBC outings with 26.

More on Givens

The sophomore's improved play shows up in the league statistics, as well, with Givens ranking in seven categories this week in Sun Belt games only. She is 11th in scoring and 16th in rebounding, as well as second in FG percentage (.532), sixth in FT percentage (.742) and assist-to-turnover ratio (0.93), seventh in assists (3.25) and 10th in steals (1.88). In all games the Ouachita HS product ranks in the Top 20 in scoring (19th) and rebounding (17th), and is seventh in FG and FT percentage and 11th in assists.

Holmes Sets Career Steals Mark

Senior Patrice Holmes recorded three steals in the first half of Thursday's contest at Western Kentucky, moving her past Kim Webb and in to first place on the all-time list at Middle Tennessee. Holmes posted five steals in the contest and has 299 career thefts heading into Thursday's tilt versus Denver. Holmes leads the Sun Belt in steals this season with 73 and has 33 in eight league outings. The Bishopville, S.C., native ranks in the Top 10 in 13 different career categories at Middle Tennessee, including in the Top 5 in seven.

More on Holmes

Senior Patrice Holmes has started all 112 games in her Lady Raider career and continues to climb several all-time lists during her final season in the Blue and White. The Bishopville, S.C., native ranks seventh in scoring with 1,684 points and moved up two spots to eighth in rebounding with five boards at Western Kentucky on Thursday. She ranks third on the all-time assists list with 411 and is also fifth in 3-pointers made (156) and tied for third in 3-point attempts (508). A complete listing of the accomplishments of Holmes is on Page 7 of these notes.

Defense Still the Key

Despite a subpar defensive effort at Florida International on Monday, Middle Tennessee continues to lead the Sun Belt in scoring defense in league play, allowing just 53.0 points per game. The Lady Raiders played very well defensively against the league's highest scoring team, Western Kentucky, last Thursday, holding the Lady 'Toppers to 10 points below their average in an overtime loss. Even with the pair of defeats, Middle Tennessee has allowed just 53.3 points per outing in the last 16 games, posting a 12-4 mark during the stretch and beginning Sun Belt play 6-0. The Lady Raiders lead the Sun Belt rebounding defense (34.8) and steals (12.4) this week heading into Thursday's outing against Denver.

Stretch Run Starts in February

Historically, Stephany Smith-coached teams have gotten better as the season has progressed, and that is never more evident than during the month of February. During Smith's seven-plus years at the helm of the program, the Lady Raiders are 40-14 (.741) during the month of February, including a perfect 10-0 during the 1999-00 season. Since joining the Sun Belt, Middle Tennessee stands 19-9 (.679) in February.

Pair of Losses a Rarity in February

Middle Tennessee has dropped two straight heading into Thursday's meeting with Denver, a rarity for the Lady Raiders over the years and certainly since joining the Sun Belt. The Lady Raiders suffered consecutive losses for the first time this season and the first time since January 15-17, 2004, at Arkansas State and Arkansas-Little Rock, a span of 38 games. Only one other time in the last five seasons have the Lady Raiders dropped two straight in the month of February, at Denver (2/16/02, 75-66) and at Western Kentucky (2/22/02, 66-62).

Thefts a Team Effort

Middle Tennessee heads into Thursday's outing versus Denver leading the Sun Belt and ranking 12th nationally in steals at 12.4 per contest. Senior Patrice Holmes leads the charge when it comes to thefts, ranking first in the SBC with 73 steals, including 33 in conference play. Sophomore Krystle Horton has gotten into the act this season, collecting 44 steals, while Tia Stovall has 42 and Chrissy Givens has 33. The Lady Raiders are on course to challenge the single-season

Middle Tennessee stands 4-1 all-time on February 10, all in league action. All four of the victories have come on the road, one each against Youngstown State, Morehead State, Tennessee State and Arkansas State. The lone loss was a 72-69 setback at home to Eastern Illinois in 1990.

Gray Returns to Squad

Senior guard Ciara Gray made a decision in the summer to sit out the 2004-05 season because of reoccurring injuries. But the LaVergne, Tenn., native changed her mind one month into the season and joined the Lady Raiders December 2 at Georgia State. Gray provides head coach Stephany Smith with depth and experience off the bench, an aspect the club is short on this season. Middle Tennessee has won 12 of the 16 contests since Gray returned, allowing just 53.3 points per game and getting off to the best conference start since 1995-96.

Horton Doubling Up

Sophomore Krystle Horton has posted the only two double-doubles for the Lady Raiders this season, registering 10 points and 10 rebounds against South Florida before tallying 19 points and 10 boards in a victory over Austin Peay just before Christmas. Horton owns eight double-doubles in 47 career outings and has half of the team's double-doubles in the last two seasons.

Horton Named Player of the Week

Sophomore Krystle Horton was named SBC Player of the Week on December 28 after recording a double-double in Middle Tennessee's win over Austin Peay. Horton had 19 points and 10 rebounds, including the final five points of the contest for the Lady Raiders, in the 57-55 come-from-behind victory. It was the eighth double-double of her career and the 16th for the Lady Raiders in the past two seasons.

Accolades Come Early for Lady Raiders

The Lady Raiders racked up with preseason awards from Sun Belt coaches during the preseason, claiming three all-conference spots, preseason player of the year honors and the top spot in the Eastern Division. Two-time Sun Belt Championships Most Outstanding Player Patrice Holmes was a First Team All-SBC selection, as was sophomore Krystle Horton. Holmes has been a First Team pick the last two seasons after earning Freshman of the Year in 2002. Horton was a First Team selection after her dynamite freshman campaign, while Tia Stovall was named Third Team in the preseason.

THE LAST TIME

By Monte Hale Jr.

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. -- Tears flowed a year ago as MTSU's Lady Raiders watched Western Kentucky cut down the nets after winning the Sun Belt Conference Tournament championship at E.A. Diddle Arena.

The 86-83 setback, however, fueled the Lady Raiders' fire this season, and they will get the opportunity to avenge that defeat today.

MTSU reached the Sun Belt Tournament finals for the second straight season Monday by holding off Denver 64-61 in the semifinals and will face Western Kentucky again for the championship this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

"To be in the Sun Belt finals last year and again this season is quite a feat," Lady Raider coach Stephany Smith said. "Going into last year I think they would have been excited to just be in the NIT, but this year they want to cut down those nets. They want that feeling."

The Lady Raiders improved to 22-7 with the victory and have won 12 of their last 14 games. Both losses, though, were against Western Kentucky -- 70-68 in double overtime at home and 79-71 at Diddle Arena.

"I think we came into the season with one goal, and that was to get back to the championship game," said MTSU senior guard Keisha McClinic, who had five points, six rebounds and two assists against Denver. "We started slower today, but we continued to play hard and push it, and we came out with the win, and we're back where we want to be."

Denver, the No. 8 seed which upset top-seeded South Alabama in the first round, hit seven of its first 12 shots against the Lady Raiders to build a 16-6 lead seven minutes into the game. MTSU struggled against the Pioneers' zone for much of the first half but hit nine of its last 18 attempts to rally for a 29-27 lead at halftime.

"They were playing zone, and we weren't getting to the right spaces," MTSU freshman forward Krystle Horton said. "We did a better job in the second half and starting attacking more."

Horton's offensive rebound and putback as time expired gave MTSU the 29-27 lead at intermission.

"Our entire conference, with the exception of (Louisiana) Lafayette, is a man-to-man league," Smith said. "We have played 95 percent against man-to-man. Not that it was unexpected, but we didn't do a real good job coming out strong, and we might have been a little rusty (against the zon defense).

"To be honest, we went to our man-to-man offense, and that got our juices going and got us attacking and getting some easy looks."

Denver's Sarah Cyran scored inside at the 13:24 mark of the second half to pull the Pioneers within 39-35, but MTSU junior point guard Patrice Holmes hit a 3-pointer and then recorded a steal that she turned into a layup and a nine-point lead with 12:52 remaining.

"I think it might have broke their back," Holmes said. "We weren't real patient against their zone at first, and we rushed some shots. We just had to settle down and start making better decisions."

MTSU built as big as a 14-point lead, 55-41, but the Pioneers scored nine points in less than a minute to pull within 57-53 with 1:03 left. However, Holmes hit two free throws and Horton added two with 11.9 seconds left to give MTSU a 64-58 lead and thwart Denver's comeback attempt.

Denver's Ragan Neblett hit a 3-pointer as time expired.

"The game is never over until the horn sounds, and they made a lot of shots against us," Horton said.

MTSU turned 17 Denver turnovers into 22 points and outrebounded the Pioneers 44-29. Holmes led the Lady Raiders with 23 points, while Horton had 16 points and 10 rebounds. Sophomore forward Tia Stovall had 10 points and seven rebounds.

"The one thing about Middle that is difficult is they have five people who can score the basketball," Denver coach Pam Tanner said. "There is not one person that you can concentrate on. They're hard to guard because they can score in all five spots, and that was the difficult thing. And they killed us on the boards."

Stephany Smith

Head Coach ● Harding, 1988 ● 8th Season ● 143-86 (.625)

Coach Stephany Smith is entering her eighth year at the helm of the Lady Raider basketball program with high expectations.

Smith made an appearance in the NCAA Tournament for the second time in her seven-year reign last season and is looking to repeat that feat in 2005. After garnering the first 20-win mark of her career in 2003-04, Smith led her athletic squad to a Sun Belt Tournament title in just the school's fourth year in the league. She also coached junior stand-out Patrice Holmes to her second straight Sun Belt Tournament Most Outstanding Player award.

For the first time in her career and the second time in school history, the team made it to the second round of the NCAA Tournament with a 67-62 win over No. 12 North Carolina. The win, by No. 13 seed Middle Tennessee, was just the third time in NCAA Tournament history a 13 seed knocked off a No. 4 seed.

The Brookhaven, Miss., native has established herself as one of college basketball's brightest young coaches and is looking forward to the season ahead.

Completing her seventh campaign, Smith's record stands as a testament to her hard work, excellent recruiting skills, and knowledge of the game. In seven seasons, Smith sports a 129-79 record and has not only the 2004 Sun Belt Tournament Title but an OVC regular season title and an OVC Tournament title to her credit. The NCAA berth in 2003-04 was the fourth team Smith has led into postseason play, with an NCAA berth in 1998 and WNIT bids in 1999 and 2001.

Smith did not enter into her first head coaching job blindly. She spent four years as an assistant at Middle Tennessee to former head coach Lewis Bivens, handling the team's recruiting efforts. Smith was promoted to associate head coach in her final season under Bivens.

The 1995-96 squad went 24-6, the second-most victories in school history, before falling to Kansas in the first round of the NCAA Tournament in Lawrence, Kan. The Lady Raiders were OVC Co-Champions in 1995 and 1996, compiling 64 wins in Smith's first three seasons on the staff. Fruits of her labors at Middle Tennessee were shown in 1996 when the Lady Raiders received votes in both collegiate polls, ranking as high as 26th. The school received its first at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament to further attest the program's growing stature.

Smith spent four years as an assistant at UAB before her arrival at Middle Tennessee, coordinating recruiting for the Blazers. UAB went 76-45 during her four seasons on the staff, winning or tying for the Sun Belt Conference crown twice (1990, '91) and sharing the Great Midwest Conference title in 1992. The Lady Blazers made two WNIT trips (1991, '92) during Smith's association with the UAB program.

She spent one year as a graduate assistant at her alma mater, Harding University, in 1989. Teams associated with Smith have a 255-158 record during her 14 years on the Division I level, including four 20-plus win seasons and two 19-win campaigns.

Smith's claim to fame is recruiting: as she has established a reputation as one of the game's top young coaches and as a top-flight recruiter. She is also a teacher of the game holding a coaching clinic over the summer to instruct other coaches on various offenses. Three of her former players have gone on to play in the professional ranks including former Lady Raider Joanne Aluka who played in Portugal and was a member of the Nigerian women's basketball team at the 2004 Summer Olympics in Athens.

Jacque Nero played six years overseas before being selected fourth by Nashville in the 1998 ABL draft. Shyronda Mifflin has played four seasons overseas and was on the Atlanta Glory's practice squad for part of the 1998 season before returning to Spain.

Her coaching philosophy stresses establishing fundamental knowledge of the game in practice. The repetition of fundamentals in practice allows her players the freedom to use that knowledge coupled with their athletic skills over the course of a game. An intense conditioning regimen also lends Smith's squad the opportunity to play an up-tempo style predicated on defensive intensity.

Smith graduated from Harding University in Searcy, Ark., with a B.A. in Physical Education in May of 1988 before receiving an M.S.E. in 1989 . She began her career at Copiah-Lincoln Community College in Wesson, Miss. She received an associate's degree from Co-Lin in May of 1986.

Smith competed in basketball at both Co-Lin and Harding and also spent a year as the head girls track coach at Searcy High School in 1989 while completing her Master's degree at Harding.

Smith is truly people-oriented. She has planned and directed numerous non-profit clinics at Middle Tennessee and UAB for girls to further promote the game of basketball. She now heads up one of the most successful camps in the country, the Middle Tennessee "Stars of Tomorrow" camp, each summer. She is the daughter of Ralph and Betsy Smith. She has three brothers (Ralph, Richard, Cameron) and one sister (Sydney).
