Middle Tennessee vs. Arkansas-Little Rock
Middle Tennessee leads the all-time series, 8-1, including a 71-49 triumph earlier this season at home. The last meeting between the two clubs in Little Rock was the Trojans' only win in the series, the backend in a pair of road losses to start conference play last season for the Lady Raiders. UALR won, 68-54, behind 19 points from Jocelyn Love and 18 apiece by Alicia Cash and Heather Morris. The Lady Raiders are 3-1 all-time in Little Rock.

Givens Goes Back-to-Back
Sophomore Chrissy Givens recorded back-to-back double-doubles last week for the Lady Raiders, the first double-doubles of her career and just the third and fourth for Middle Tennessee this season (Krystle Horton has the other two). Givens tied her season-high with 17 points and had a career-high 12 rebounds against Denver, then followed that up with 15 points and 11 boards at North Texas. Givens has tied or led the Lady Raiders in rebounding in the last seven contests and 11 times overall this season. Back-to-back double-doubles has not been accomplished by a Lady Raider in at least five seasons, with Patrice Holmes coming the closest during that stretch but missing by just one point in the final two games of her freshman year. Givens now leads the Lady Raiders in rebounding at 5.8 per contest and is scoring 10.5 points per outing, fourth best on the squad.

More on Givens
The sophomore has raised her game as the season has progressed, and especially in Sun Belt play. Givens is tied with Patrice Holmes in scoring average in SBC contests at 13.3 per game, and leads the Lady Raiders with 7.2 rebounds per outing in league action. She also leads the club in assists (31) and ranks second in steals (22) in SBC play, as well as shooting a team-best 52 percent from the floor and 75 percent from the foul line.

Holmes Sets Career Steals Mark

Senior Patrice Holmes recorded three steals in the first half of the February 3 contest at Western Kentucky, moving her past Kim Webb and in to first place on the all-time list at Middle Tennessee. Holmes posted five steals in the contest and has 308 career thefts heading into Thursday's tilt at Arkansas-Little Rock. Holmes leads the Sun Belt in steals this season with 82 and has 42 in 10 league outings. The Bishopville, S.C., native ranks in the Top 10 in 14 different career categories at Middle Tennessee, including in the Top 5 in seven.

More on Holmes

Senior Patrice Holmes has started all 114 games in her Lady Raider career and continues to climb several all-time lists during her final season in the Blue and White. The Bishopville, S.C., native ranks seventh in scoring with 1,709 points and moved past Kim Webb into seventh on the career rebounding list (697) last Thursday versus Denver. She ranks third on the all-time assists list with 420 and is also fifth in 3-pointers made (157) and tied for third in 3-point attempts (519). A complete listing of the accomplishments of Holmes is on Page 7 of these notes.

Defense Shows Life in Last Two Outings

The Lady Raiders defense that stymied opponents for the first six conference games this season reappeared in the last two games, with Middle Tennessee holding Denver to 45 points and North Texas to 49. Middle Tennessee kept the league's highest scoring team, Western Kentucky, 10 points below their average in an overtime loss on February 3, but played a very subpar game defensively at Florida International on February 7. The Lady Raiders lowered their SBC-best opponent scoring average to 51.8 points after the wins over Denver and North Texas. Middle Tennessee has allowed just 52.6 points per outing in the last 18 games, posting a 14-4 mark during the stretch and beginning Sun Belt play 6-0. The Lady Raiders lead the Sun Belt in rebounding defense (34.4) and steals (12.9) this week heading into Thursday's outing at Arkansas-Little Rock.

Stretch Run Starts in February

Historically, Stephany Smith-coached teams have gotten better as the season has progressed, and that is never more evident than during the month of February. During Smith's seven-plus years at the helm of the program, the Lady Raiders are 42-14 (.750) during the month of February, including a perfect 10-0 during the 1999-00 season. Since joining the Sun Belt, Middle Tennessee stands 21-9 (.700) in February.

Pair of Losses a Rarity in February

Middle Tennessee dropped two straight before defeating Denver last Thursday, a rarity for the Lady Raiders over the years and certainly since joining the Sun Belt. The Lady Raiders suffered consecutive losses for the first time this season and the first time since January 15-17, 2004, at Arkansas State and Arkansas-Little Rock, a span of 38 games. Only one other time in the last five seasons have the Lady Raiders dropped two straight in the month of February, at Denver (2/16/02, 75-66) and at Western Kentucky (2/22/02, 66-62).

Thefts a Team Effort

Stovall on Pace for 1,000

Junior Tia Stovall is on pace to become the 17th Lady Raider in history to amass 1,000 career points. The Estill Springs, Tenn., native enters Thursday's game with 892 career points. Stovall currently ranks second on the squad with 13.0 points per game. She would join current teammate Patrice Holmes in the 1,000-point club.

On This Date

Middle Tennessee stands 9-2 on February 17 in school history with a current four-game winning streak. The mark includes a 7-2 record in conference play, 1-0 in Sun Belt action. The Lady Raiders have defeated Chattanooga, East Tennessee, Murray State, Tennessee State, Eastern Kentucky, Southeast Missouri and Louisiana-Lafayette once, and Austin Peay twice. Losses have come at Murray State and at Tennessee Tech. The last outing on this date was in 2001 against the Ragin' Cajuns, a 77-52 home win.

Gray Returns to Squad

Senior guard Ciara Gray made a decision in the summer to sit out the 2004-05 season because of reoccurring injuries. But the LaVergne, Tenn., native changed her mind one month into the season and joined the Lady Raiders December 2 at Georgia State. Gray provides head coach Stephany Smith with depth and experience off the bench, an aspect the club is short on this season. Middle Tennessee has won 14 of the 18 contests since Gray returned, allowing just 52.6 points per game and getting off to the best conference start since 1995-96.

Horton Doubling Up

Sophomore Krystle Horton has posted two of the four double-doubles for the Lady Raiders this season, registering 10 points and 10 rebounds against South Florida before tallying 19 points and 10 boards in a victory over Austin Peay just before Christmas. Horton owns eight double-doubles in 55 career outings and has eight of the team's 18 double-doubles in the last two seasons.

Horton Named Player of the Week

Sophomore Krystle Horton was named SBC Player of the Week on December 28 after recording a double-double in Middle Tennessee's win over Austin Peay. Horton had 19 points and 10 rebounds, including the final five points of the contest for the Lady Raiders, in the 57-55 come-from-behind victory. It was the eighth double-double of her career and the 16th for the Lady Raiders in the past two seasons.

Accolades Come Early for Lady Raiders

The Lady Raiders racked up with preseason awards from Sun Belt coaches during the preseason, claiming three all-conference spots, preseason player of the year honors and the top spot in the Eastern Division. Two-time Sun Belt Championships Most Outstanding Player Patrice Holmes was a First Team All-SBC selection, as was sophomore Krystle Horton. Holmes has been a First Team pick the last two seasons after earning Freshman of the Year in 2002. Horton was a First Team selection after her dynamite freshman campaign, while Tia Stovall was named Third Team in the preseason.

THE LAST TIME

By Monte Hale Jr.
DNJ Sports Editor

MTSU's Lady Raiders had a slow start but a resounding finish in their Sun Belt Conference opener against Arkansas-Little Rock Thursday night.

MTSU fought through an ugly first half en route to a nine-point lead at intermission and used a methodical second half - highlighted by a late 14-2 run - to whip the Trojans 71-49 at Murphy Center.

The Lady Raiders improved to 9-5 overall (1-0 in Sun Belt play) and won for the fifth time in six games. UALR dropped to 6-9 and 0-2.

"We are definitely pleased that we won the game, and I'm pleased with the way we finished the game," said MTSU coach Stephany Smith.

"But I didn't think we played in the ballpark like we did the five games leading up to this game."

Fortunately for MTSU, UALR's offensive woes far outweighed the Lady Raiders' woes in the first half as it managed just seven field goals. Fifteen Trojan turnovers also helped allow the Lady Raiders to take a 28-19 halftime lead.

"As the entire day laid itself out I was a little amiss in our emotion," Smith said. "We never got our jazz level up, and that includes pregame meal, shootaround, and it's just a surprise.

"If it takes a coach to motivate you, you're going to have a hard time winning a championship -- which is what this team wants to do."

While MTSU did struggle offensively in the first half, junior forward Tia Stovall did not as she hit 6-of-7 from the field and scored 13 of the Lady Raiders' 28 points.

"When you score inside you have to give credit to the guards that feed you the ball," Stovall said. "We just took what they gave us.

"I think it took us a while to get our chemistry and to get into the flow of the game, and if we start like we finished we'll be fine.

Added Smith: "Tia continues to be our most consistent player on both ends of the floor. She pretty much carried our inside game.

"The Lady Raiders quickly grabbed a 12-point lead in the second half, but UALR got within seven, 35-28, with 16:13 remaining.

However, MTSU shot a sizzling 64 percent in the second half (16-of-25) and used the late 14-2 spurt to put UALR away.

"We came out lethargic - is the word - coach said at halftime," said MTSU sophomore guard Chrissy Givens. "Personally, I didn't feel like I did my job pressuring the ball on the point, and I'm supposed to be the defensive leader, and when I sag the whole team sags.

"Going into the locker room we were saying they were holding us and fouling, but we had to play through it and fight through the physicality of thegame."

Smith agreed that UALR's overplaying defense caused the Lady Raiders problems, particularly in the first half.

"UALR was very athletic and more athletic than anticipated," she said. "They had very good strength combined with their athleticism.

"I was a little surprised about how we came out of the gates. At some point we need to understand that Little Rock is not the same team they used to be. They will be an unbelievably strong opponent in Little Rock."

Four Lady Raiders scored in double figures, led by Stovall's 22. Patrice Holmes had 12 points and seven steals, Krystle Horton had 12 points and seven rebounds, while Givens had 11 points and a team-high eight rebounds.

UALR, which shot just 39 percent, was led by the duo of Jocelyn Love and Alicia Cash, who had 18 and 17 points, respectively. The Trojans had 24 turnovers to MTSU's 14.

MTSU completes a seven-game homestand Saturday when it plays host to Sun Belt foe Arkansas State at 2 p.m.

Stephany Smith

Head Coach ● Harding, 1988 ● 8th Season ● 145-86 (.628)

Coach Stephany Smith is entering her eighth year at the helm of the Lady Raider basketball program with high expectations.

Smith made an appearance in the NCAA Tournament for the second time in her seven-year reign last season and is looking to repeat that feat in 2005. After garnering the first 20-win mark of her career in 2003-04, Smith led her athletic squad to a Sun Belt Tournament title in just the school's fourth year in the league. She also coached junior stand-out Patrice Holmes to her second straight Sun Belt Tournament Most Outstanding Player award.

For the first time in her career and the second time in school history, the team made it to the second round of the NCAA Tournament with a 67-62 win over No. 12 North Carolina. The win, by No. 13 seed Middle Tennessee, was just the third time in NCAA Tournament history a 13 seed knocked off a No. 4 seed.

The Brookhaven, Miss., native has established herself as one of college basketball's brightest young coaches and is looking forward to the season ahead.

Completing her seventh campaign, Smith's record stands as a testament to her hard work, excellent recruiting skills, and knowledge of the game. In seven seasons, Smith sports a 129-79 record and has not only the 2004 Sun Belt Tournament Title but an OVC regular season title and an OVC Tournament title to her credit. The NCAA berth in 2003-04 was the fourth team Smith has led into postseason play, with an NCAA berth in 1998 and WNIT bids in 1999 and 2001.

Smith did not enter into her first head coaching job blindly. She spent four years as an assistant at Middle Tennessee to former head coach Lewis Bivens, handling the team's recruiting efforts. Smith was promoted to associate head coach in her final season under Bivens.

The 1995-96 squad went 24-6, the second-most victories in school history, before falling to Kansas in the first round of the NCAA Tournament in Lawrence, Kan. The Lady Raiders were OVC Co-Champions in 1995 and 1996, compiling 64 wins in Smith's first three seasons on the staff. Fruits of her labors at Middle Tennessee were shown in 1996 when the Lady Raiders received votes in both collegiate polls, ranking as high as 26th. The school received its first at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament to further attest the program's growing stature.

Smith spent four years as an assistant at UAB before her arrival at Middle Tennessee, coordinating recruiting for the Blazers. UAB went 76-45 during her four seasons on the staff, winning or tying for the Sun Belt Conference crown twice (1990, '91) and sharing the Great Midwest Conference title in 1992. The Lady Blazers made two WNIT trips (1991, '92) during Smith's association with the UAB program.

She spent one year as a graduate assistant at her alma mater, Harding University, in 1989. Teams associated with Smith have a 255-158 record during her 14 years on the Division I level, including four 20-plus win seasons and two 19-win campaigns.

Smith's claim to fame is recruiting: as she has established a reputation as one of the game's top young coaches and as a top-flight recruiter. She is also a teacher of the game holding a coaching clinic over the summer to instruct other coaches on various offenses. Three of her former players have gone on to play in the professional ranks including former Lady Raider Joanne Aluka who played in Portugal and was a member of the Nigerian women's basketball team at the 2004 Summer Olympics in Athens.

Jacque Nero played six years overseas before being selected fourth by Nashville in the 1998 ABL draft. Shyronda Mifflin has played four seasons overseas and was on the Atlanta Glory's practice squad for part of the 1998 season before returning to Spain.

Her coaching philosophy stresses establishing fundamental knowledge of the game in practice. The repetition of fundamentals in practice allows her players the freedom to use that knowledge coupled with their athletic skills over the course of a game. An intense conditioning regimen also lends Smith's squad the opportunity to play an up-tempo style predicated on defensive intensity.

Smith graduated from Harding University in Searcy, Ark., with a B.A. in Physical Education in May of 1988 before receiving an M.S.E. in 1989 . She began her career at Copiah-Lincoln Community College in Wesson, Miss. She received an associate's degree from Co-Lin in May of 1986.

Smith competed in basketball at both Co-Lin and Harding and also spent a year as the head girls track coach at Searcy High School in 1989 while completing her Master's degree at Harding.

Smith is truly people-oriented. She has planned and directed numerous non-profit clinics at Middle Tennessee and UAB for girls to further promote the game of basketball. She now heads up one of the most successful camps in the country, the Middle Tennessee "Stars of Tomorrow" camp, each summer. She is the daughter of Ralph and Betsy Smith. She has three brothers (Ralph, Richard, Cameron) and one sister (Sydney).
