Middle Tennessee won the first meeting of the 2004-05 season, 70-68, in Jonesboro, Ark.

His status for Thursday's game against Middle Tennessee is uncertain. Win And They Will Come ...

Middle Tennessee needs one more win to be assured of three straight winning seasons under third-year Head Coach Kermit Davis. Prior to Davis' arrival, the Blue Raiders had endured losing seasons in back-to-back years and three of the previous four campaigns. Fans have taken a liking to the upswing of the Middle Tennessee program as evidenced by a 66 percent attendance increase the past two years. If Middle Tennessee averages 3,578 fans for its final two home games then the Blue Raiders will realize a season attendance increase for the third straight year under Davis. The Blue Raiders enter Thursday night's game against Arkansas State averaging 3,772 fans after averaging 3.772 in 2003-04. Middle Tennessee has enjoyed crowds of 3,500 or more for eight of their 12 homes games in 2004-05 and it has drawn 4,000-plus five times. SBC games also have been a big hit at Murphy Center, where the Blue Raiders are averaging 4.845 over their last 10 league games. They have drawn 3,900 or more for all six SBC home games this season and they have enjoyed crowds of 4,000-plus in four of the six conference games.

Closing In On A Milestone

Middle Tennessee is two wins shy of claiming the 950th overall victory in program history. The Blue Raiders are 948-894 all-time for a 52 percent winning percentage ... Blue Raider third-year Head Coach Kermit Davis also is two wins shy of notching his 50th career win at Middle Tennessee.

More Touches Means More Wins

Middle Tennessee Head Coach Kermit Davis preaches sharing the ball and making the extra pass to get players open shots and the result is in the team's success when this happens. Over the last two seasons, the Blue Raiders are 17-4 when four or more player score in double figures. Middle Tennessee is 8-3 in 2004-05 when placing four players in double figures with the only losses to Auburn (79-74), Arkansas-Little Rock (69-62) and Denver (83-71). Middle Tennessee was 9-1 in 2003-04 when four players scored in double figures with the only loss coming against Louisiana-Lafayette (74-64).

Blue Raiders Enjoy Sun Belt Success

ternational (02/05/05). The St. Petersburg, Fla., native turned in a career-best 26 points on 9-of-12 shooting, while connecting on all five his free throw attempts to help the Blue Raiders break a three-game home losing streak. The 26 points are the most by a Blue Raider this season in a game the most since Mike Dean had 26 in a loss to North Texas on Feb. 12, 2004.

Smithson Proving To Be A Playmaker

Bryan Smithson has improved his play for the Blue Raiders during the past five games. The sophomore point is averaging 7.2 points, 2.0 rebounds, and 3.2 assists during the recent five-game stretch. Smithson, who has led the team in assists in 14 of the 24 games he has played, has also been the team leader in that category in nine of the last 10 games.

Smithson Automatic From Charity Stripe

Bryan Smithson has been Mr. Automatic at the charity stripe since conference play started in early January. With four free throws against North Texas (02/10/05), Smithson has now connected on 14 straight free throws and he has hit 16-of-17 in SBC play this year (.941). For the season, Smithson is shooting a career-best 81.8 percent (45-for-55) at the free-throw line.

Smithson Comes Up Big Against Aggies

Sophomore point guard Bryan Smithson had his best game of the season and one of the top performances of his career against New Mexico State. The Kennesaw, Ga., native scored a season-high 16 points on 8-of-11 shooting, which tied for the second-most points of his career. Smithson's career high is 22 against Wyoming. He also scored 16 against Western Kentucky in the quarterfinals of the 2004 SBC Tournament in Bowling Green, Ky. The eight field goals Smithson canned against New Mexico State are a career high.

Middle Tennessee's "D" Has Been Stifling

Middle Tennessee put together two of its finest back-to-back defensive games on the road at New Mexico State and Louisiana-Lafayette on its most recent road trip. The Blue Raiders allowed an average of 52 points (50 vs. New Mexico State and 54 vs. Louisiana-Lafayette), but had only a split to show for their hard work because of offensive struggles against the Ragin' Cajuns. Middle Tennessee held Louisiana-Lafayette to 0-16 from 3-point range and a 32 percent shooting night from the field. The Cajuns managed just 17 field goals, five in the second half. The Blue Raiders were at New Mexico State, limiting the opposition to 34 percent from the field and 28 percent from 3-point range. Middle Tennessee followed its road success by holding Western Kentucky to 61 points - 17 below its average - but suffered a 61-56 setback. The Blue Raiders lead the Sun Belt in scoring defense at 63.4 points per game. They also lead the Sun Belt in field goal percentage defense (.415).

Defending The 3-Point Arc

Middle Tennessee had not allowed a 3-pointer in the last three halves and 62:24 overall entering the game against Western Kentucky (2/03/05). Louisiana-Lafayette was 0-of-16 from 3-point range against Middle Tennessee (1/29/05) and New Mexico State was 0-of-9 from beyond the arc in the second half of the previous game (1/27/05). Middle Tennessee opponents were 0-of-25 from 3-point range during the stretch. The Blue Raiders continued to defend the 3-point arc well against the Hilltoppers, allowing just 6-of-15 treys to fall, including 1-of-5 in the second half.

Gaining Momentum in February

The Blue Raiders have had a knack for playing their best basketball at the end of the season in each of Head Coach Kermit Davis' first two seasons. Middle Tennessee is 11-6 in the month of February under Davis.

Young Putting Forth Career-Best Effort

Sophomore forward Kyle Young has been the most consistent big man for the Blue Raiders this season and he's playing the best basketball of his Blue Raider career of late. The Lewisburg, Tenn., native scored a career-high 15 points on 5-of-7 shooting against New Mexico State and also established career marks for free throws made (5) and free throws attempted (5). Young, who had hit 6-of-17 free throws through the first 18 games of the season, has connected on eight straight entering the Arkansas State game.

Davis Has MT Winning At Historical Pace

When Middle Tennessee beat IP-Ft. Wayne (1/05/05) it accomplished two firsts in school history. With the win Middle Tennessee earned its 10th non-conference win of the season, marking the most wins prior to the start of league play in the program's 91-year history. It also marked the earliest date (Jan. 5) the Blue Raiders had reached 10 wins in school history. Overall, Middle Tennessee's 10 non-conference wins this season are the most since the 1990-91 Blue Raiders won 13 non-league games.

MT Enjoying Turn-Around Under Davis

Middle Tennessee had endured losing seasons in three of the four seasons prior to the hiring of Kermit Davis before the 2002-03 campaign but the program has enjoyed immediate success under the third-year coach's guidance. Middle Tennessee enjoyed consecutive winning seasons for the first time since the 1996-97, 1997-98 seasons in Davis' first two campaigns. Davis earned his 40th win at Middle Tennessee in his 69th game when the Blue Raiders beat Delaware, 73-69 in overtime, in the San Juan Shootout. Making the achievement more impressive is Middle Tennessee had just 46 wins combined in the four full seasons preceeding Davis' hiring prior to the 2002-03 season. Overall, Davis has won 58 percent (48-35) of his 83 games at Middle Tennessee.

Dean Making Move On Career Charts

With two 3-pointers against Denver (02/12/05), Mike Dean passed Richard Duncan to move into sixth place on the all-time 3-point goals made list at Middle Tennessee with 104. He needs three more to move into fifth place over Nod Carter. Dean became the fastest Blue Raider to reach 100 career treys when he connected on his first attempt against North Texas in his 44th career game. No Blue Raider has reached 80 treys faster than Dean, who needed only 31 games to reach the mark. The next fastest to 80 was Freddie Martinez, who did it in 38 games.Dean also became the fastest player in program history to reach 90 3-pointers when he connected on his first attempt against Arkansas-Little Rock (1/10/05) in his 37th career game.

Dean Returns To Form, Adds Spark

The offensive punch Middle Tennessee had been lacking in recent games returned against Florida International (02/05/05) and, not suprisingly, it coincided with a return to form by senior guard Mike Dean. The Rome, Ga., native has been battling a toe injury that caused him to miss two games and he has made just 14-of-60 shots (23 percent) entering the Florida International game. The Blue Raiders were 0-5 in those games, but Dean broke out with 18 points on 7-of-12 shooting against the Golden Panthers. It marked the first time Dean has hit more than 50 percent of his field goal attempts since making 6-of-10 against Arkansas-Little Rock (01/10/05). Dean's scoring prowess aided in an 82-point performance - marking just the third time this season the Blue Raiders have scored 80 or more in a game. Dean came back with 12 points against North Texas.

Cuffee Is A Rebounding Machine

Senior Michael Cuffee has led Middle Tennessee in rebounding in 14 of the 24 games this season, including a career-high 14 caroms against Tennessee Wesleyan. The Philadelphia, Pa., native has produced double-figure rebounding games five times. Cuffee is leading the Blue Raiders in rebounding with 7.4 per game, which is good for fourth in the Sun Belt. Cuffee has been a beast on the offensive glass. His 74 offensive rebounds are third in the Sun Belt and just three away from first.

Career Night For Cuffee, Cuyler

Middle Tennessee guardsMichael Cuffee and Fats Cuyler turned in career performances in Middle Tennessee's 70-68 win against Arkansas State (1/13/05). The duo combined for 41 of the team's points. Cuffee established a career high with 24 points and shot 7-of-10 for the second half to distance Middle Tennessee, while Cuyler carried the load in the first half. The junior guard established career highs in points (17) and 3-point field goals made (5) - all in the first 20 minutes. In fact, Cuyler was more than half of the Blue Raider offense in the first 20 minutes with 17 of the team's 32 points.

Young Stepping Up On Boards

Sophomore Kyle Young responded to being challenged to become more of a presence in the rebounding department by recording consecutive games of eight rebounds for the first time in his career against South Alabama and New Orleans. After starting most of the season, Young has come off the bench in the last two games and turned in solid efforts. In just 16 minutes of action against North Texas (02/10/05), Young added eight points on 3-of-5 shooting to go along with six rebounds and two assists. The Blue Raiders are 5-1 this season when Young scores eight or more points with the lone loss coming at the hands of South Alabama.

Cuffee Tops In Consecutive Starts At 46

Senior Michael Cuffee has the longest streak of consecutive starts at Middle Tennessee with 46. Cuffee has earned starts in 50 of the 51 games he has played at Middle Tennessee.

Morrison Gets Consecutive Double Doubles

Middle Tennessee junior newcomer Marcus Morrison became the first Blue Raider to register back-to-back double doubles (vs. Tenn. Wesleyan and Tennessee State) since William Pippen did it during the 2002-03 season - a span of 52 games. Morrison scored 15 points and pulled 10 rebounds against Tennessee Wesleyan and followed the performance with a 16-point, 11-rebound effort against Tennessee State. Pippen recorded his back-to-back double doubles against Western Kentucky (1/4/03) and Arkansas State (1/9/03). Michael Cuffee matched Morrison's performance by producing consecutive double doubles against Arkansas State (24 points, 10 rebounds) and Arkansas-Little Rock (15 points, 10 rebounds).

Cuffee, Morrison Combine For Rare Feat

Middle Tennessee went 201 games without having two players combine for a double-double in the same game before senior Michael Cuffee (11 pts., 14 reb.) and junior Marcus Morrison (15 points, 10 reb.) each enjoyed a double-double in the team's 81-46 win against Tennessee Wesleyan. It marked the first time a Blue Raider player recorded a double-double since Kyle Young (10 pts., 11 reb) did it against Tennessee Wesleyan (12/13/03). Aylton Tesch (10 pts., 11 reb.) and Mantia Callender (13 pts., 11 reb) were the last Blue Raider tandem to enjoy a double-double in the same game, a 67-48 win against Tennessee Tech, on Dec. 6, 1997.

Cuffee, Morrison Double Up ... Again

After going 201 games without having two players combine for a double double in the same game, the Blue Raiders have had two players accomplish the feat twice in a span of 11 games this season and it just happens to be the same two players. Michael Cuffee (24 pts., 10 reb.) and Marcus Morrison (10 pts., 11 reb.) recorded double doubles against Arkansas State (1/13/05). They also accomplished the feat against Tennessee Wesleyan. For the season, Cuffee and Morrison lead Middle Tennesssee with three double doubles.

Big Conference Opening Triumph

Middle Tennessee's 85-50 win over Arkansas-Little Rock marked the largest margin of victory for the Blue Raiders in Sun Belt Conference play. The Blue Raiders defeated the Trojans by 35 points to best the previous mark of 34 established against North Texas on Jan. 6, 2001 at Murphy Center. It also ranks as the largest margin of victory in conference play since the Blue Raiders downed Morehead State in OVC action by 40 points on Jan. 23, 1989 at Murphy Center.

Blue Raiders Share San Juan Shootout Title

Middle Tennessee went 2-1 in the San Juan Shootout to earn a share of the championship in the round-robin format. The Blue Raiders posted wins against Toledo (70-65) and Delaware (73-69, overtime), while losing to Auburn (79-73). Toledo beat Auburn to create a three-way tie at 2-1. The tournament share marked the second time Middle Tennessee either shared or won a holiday tournament. The only other title was in 1962 when the Blue Raiders won the Hatter Invitational in DeLand, Fla.

Cuffee Earns All-Tournament In San Juan

Michael Cuffee's strong and consistent performance in the San Juan Shootout not only helped Middle Tennessee to a 2-1 mark, but it also earned the Philadelphia, Pa., native All-Tournament honors. Cuffee averaged 13.7 points, 8.7 rebounds, 1.0 steal per game, shot 59 percent and averaged 37.7 minutes in the three games. Cuffee had 13 points and seven rebounds in Middle Tennessee's 70-65 win against Toledo, then posted his second double double of the season with 12 points and 13 rebounds in a 79-74 loss against Auburn. He led the Blue Raiders in scoring (16) and rebounds (6), while playing 42 of 45 minutes in an OT win against Delaware.

Chairmen Of The Boards

Middle Tennessee has been dominant on the boards so far this season, including a whopping 54 rebounds in its win against Tennessee Wesleyan, while allowing just 33. The 54 boards are the most ever recorded by a Kermit Davis-coached team at Middle Tennessee and also marked the first time the squad has pulled more than 50 boards since ripping down 52 against Tennessee Tech on Feb. 12, 2000.

Thomas Starts With A Bang

Senior center Steve Thomas started his Blue Raider career in fine fashion in the San Juan Shootout. Thomas sat out 18 months after transferring from Georgia in August, 2003, before becoming eligible for the San Juan Shootout. The 6-foot-9 center averaged 10.7 points, 5.3 rebounds and right at 22 minutes per game. Thomas scored four points and pulled down six rebounds in his debut against Toledo before turning in his strongest performance of the three games, a sparkling 17-point, five-rebound effort against Toledo. Thomas followed his tournament performance with 10 points and five rebounds against Villanova.

Davis Inks Four During Early Signing

Middle Tennessee Head Coach Kermit Davis announced the signing of four players to national letters-of-intent during the NCAA Early Signing Period, which concluded Nov. 17. The Blue Raiders signed four prep standouts during the week-long period, including Darren Avery, a 6-foot-3 guard from Corinth, Miss., Deno Hair, a 6-foot-8 power forward from Picayune, Miss., Uriah Hethington, a 6-foot-9 center from Cairo, Ga., and Kevin Kanaskie, a 6-foot-2 point guard from State College, Pa. Avery is the No. 6-rated prep prospect in Mississippi and averaged 14.4 points, 4.4 rebounds and 1.8 assists, while shooting 52 percent from the field and 30 percent from 3-point range as a junior. Hair averaged 12 points, eight rebounds, three blocks and three steals as a junior at Picayune Memorial High School as a junior. He has been named to the Mississippi "Dandy Dozen," which includes the 12 best prep players in the state. Hethington averaged 12 points and 10 rebounds for Cairo High School and is listed as a "Dandy Dozen" by the Atlanta-Journal Constitution in Georgia. Kanaskie brings tremendous skills to the Blue Raider program and is a point guard with a knack for making others better.

Middle Tennessee Picked To Win SBC East

Middle Tennessee has been picked as the preseason favorite to win the Sun Belt's East Division in a preseason poll of league coaches. It marks the first time the Blue Raiders have been picked first since joining the Sun Belt in 2001. Middle Tennessee received eight of a possible 11 first-place votes and 51 total points to finish ahead of defending East Division champion Arkansas-Little Rock (3 first-place votes, 44 points). Louisiana-Lafayette was a unanimous pick to win the West Division.

Blue Raiders Looking For A '3-Peat'

Middle Tennessee enters the 2004-05 basketball season in search of three straight winning seasons for the first time since the 1995-96 through 1998-99 seasons. In fact, the back-to-back winning seasons produced during the past two years under Head Coach Kermit Davis marked the first time Middle Tennessee had enjoyed consecutive winning seasons since the 1996-97, 1997-98 seasons.

Davis Enjoys Success Vs. In-State Foes

With its 74-70 win at Austin Peay (12/30/04), Middle Tennessee improved to 5-0 against opponents from Tennessee in 2004-05 and has posted a 10-4 mark against in-state opponents under Kermit Davis, including a 8-2 ledger against teams from the Volunteer State the past two years.

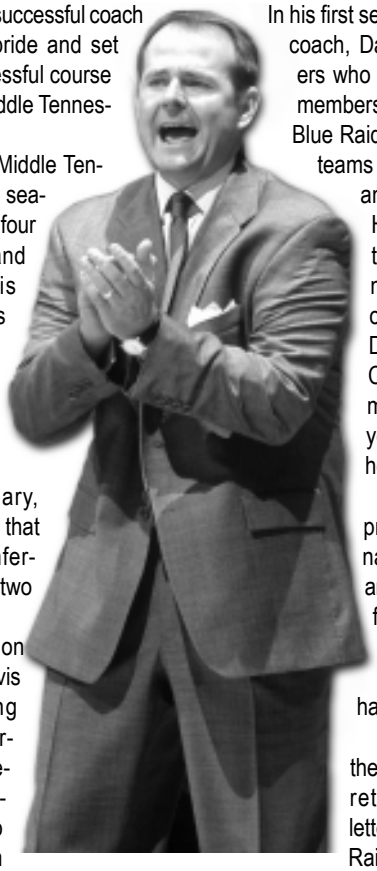
Kermit Davis

Head Coach ● Mississippi State, 1982 ● 3rd Season ● 48-36 (.571)

Toughness, accountability, intensity, defense, and hard work were intangibles on which Kermit Davis said he would build the Middle Tennessee program when he was hired as the 19th men's head basketball coach in April, 2002. It didn't take long for Davis' blueprint for success to unfold, as the successful coach has been able to restore pride and set the Blue Raiders on a successful course in his first two seasons at Middle Tennessee.

Prior to Davis' arrival, Middle Tennessee had endured losing seasons in three of the previous four years, but the energetic and highly-successful Davis quickly changed the fortunes and began a Blue Raider revival. He has produced a 33-26 mark in his first two seasons, including a 29-18 record since the start of Sun Belt play in January, 2003. Not bad for a program that had enjoyed just one conference tournament win in the two years prior to his arrival.

The Blue Raider Nation would have to be patient, Davis warned; because winning programs aren't built overnight. It takes time, solid recruiting classes, and the installation of a philosophy to ultimately reach long-term goals. But in two short years under Davis, Middle Tennessee has been in the Sun Belt championship hunt into the final week of each season. The Blue Raiders reached the Sun Belt Tournament title game in 2003, their first appearance in a conference tournament championship since 1989; and they missed the chance to make it two league title games in as many years when they dropped a 70-66 decision to Louisiana-Lafayette in 2004 in the semifinals.



In his first season as the Blue Raiders' head coach, Davis inherited a group of players who had never enjoyed success as members of the Sun Belt. The 2002-03 Blue Raiders were picked fourth (of five) teams in the Sun Belt's East Division, and eighth of 11 teams overall. Heading into the final week of the regular-season, Middle Tennessee remained in the championship hunt. For his efforts, Davis was named the Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year, marking the second time in five years as a Division I head coach he had been so honored.

While Davis' first team surprised many by reaching the finals of the Sun Belt Tournament and putting together the most wins for a Blue Raider squad (16) since the 1997-98 campaign, his second Blue Raider team had to be even more surprising.

Middle Tennessee entered the 2003-04 season with only one returning starter and four letterwinners from Davis' initial Blue Raider team, but the proven winner molded his squad into a championship contender by mid-season. The Blue Raiders increased their number of wins and had fans coming through the turnstiles in record numbers with an exciting style of play.

Davis' players not only have been winners on the court, but they have been successful in the classroom, as well. Nine of the 12 seniors in the Middle Tennessee program since Davis' hiring have received their degree. The other three are either playing professionally or are in NBA camps.

Like all successful coaches, Davis has been victorious by recruiting players who fit the personality of the team and take ownership of their squad. The previous two recruiting classes have been ranked No. 1 in the Sun Belt by Hoop Scoop magazine, and each has been rated among the Top 25 in the nation, including a No. 11 signing class in 2004.

Prior to being named the head coach at Middle Tennessee, Davis spent five seasons as the associate head coach at LSU under head coach John Brady. After two seasons of putting the pieces together, the Tigers captured the SEC title in 2000 and went on to an appearance in the NCAA Tournament's Sweet 16. The Tigers returned to the postseason in 2002 with a trip to the National Invitational Tournament. In the three years immediately preceding Davis' arrival in Murfreesboro, LSU averaged 20-plus wins per season.

Before LSU, Davis spent one season as the head coach at the University of Idaho; however, his stint with the Vandals was his second tour of duty in Moscow. He also served as the school's head coach from 1989-90. During his three years as the head coach at Idaho, Davis compiled a 63-29 record, the best three-year total in the program's history. Davis posted two of the best single-season tallies in school history during his first two seasons at Idaho as well, turning in 25-6 marks in both of those seasons (1988-89, 1989-90).

His Idaho squad won the Big Sky championship in 1989 and went on to capture the league's tournament crown and a berth into the NCAA Tournament, as well. For his efforts, Davis was named Big Sky Coach of the Year. History repeated itself in 1990 when Davis once again led the Vandals to the Big Sky title in both the regular season and tournament, garnering yet another NCAA Tournament berth. In fact, Davis himself made history when he became the Vandals' head coach in 1988. Upon his hiring, Davis was the youngest Division I head coach in the nation at age 28.

It was not the first time Davis had been the youngest head coach in the country. When he was hired as the head coach at Southwest Mississippi Junior College in 1984, he became the youngest junior college coach in the nation at age 24. His youth served him well at Southwest Mississippi, as he put together a 39-20 record in two seasons. His 1986 squad won 22 games, posting the school's first 20-win season in 17 years.

His success at the junior college level landed him a spot on Tim Floyd's staff at Idaho, where Davis served as an assistant for two years prior to being named the program's head coach.

After spending two seasons as the head coach at Idaho, Davis went on to become the head coach at Texas A&M for the 1990-91 campaign. From Texas A&M, Davis moved on to serve as associate head coach at Chipola Junior College for two seasons before ascending to the top spot for the 1993-94 campaign. During his season as the team's head coach, Chipola finished the season ranked No. 4 in the national polls and posted a 27-5 record, giving the team the second-most wins in school history.

From Chipola, Davis moved on to serve as associate head coach at Utah State from 1995-96. At Utah State, Davis coached under current Southern Mississippi coach Larry Eustachy, and the pair combined to win the Big West title in 1995.

Davis' rapid ascent up the coaching ladder is no coincidence. He has been around the game his entire life, growing up watching one of the preeminent coaches in the country operate on a daily basis. Kermit Davis, Sr., was one of the most respected college coaches in the nation, and the younger Davis spent many hours around his dad in the gym and even on the bench during games.
