Holmes Comes Up Big vs North Texas

Like she has done so many times in her storied Lady Raider career, senior Patrice Holmes stepped up when her team needed her most. Holmes, who had a monster statistical game Sunday against North Texas, hit a spinning five-footer in the lane with a defender draped all over her with 12 seconds left to give the Lady Raiders a come-from-behind win. Holmes finished with her 12th career double-double by registering 24 points and 11 boards to go along with four blocks and four steals. Holmes' 24 points marked the 28th time in her career she has topped the 20-point plateau and the sixth time this season.

Cream Rises to the Top

Senior Patrice Holmes, a two-time winner of the league's Most Outstanding Tournament Player award, has scored 20 or more points in SBC tournament action five times in 10 games. Overall, Holmes is averaging 19.4 points and 8.1 rebounds all-time in the SBC Tournament.

Lady Raiders won for just the third time this season when trailing at the half (3-5 overall) … Middle Tennessee's bench was outscored 19-3 … Tia Stovall's five blocked shots equaled the ninth most in a single-game at Middle Tennessee and was her career-best.

Defense Has Keyed Two SBC Wins

Middle Tennessee's two wins in this year's SBC Tournament have come about due to some tenacious defense. This year's team is already the all-time leader in steals with 381, but it has been solid in limiting field goals in this year's tourney. In the two games combined, Middle Tennessee has held the opposition to just 29.2 (33-113) percent shooting from the field, while forcing an average of 25.0 turnovers. Against North Texas, the Lady Raiders allowed just one field goal in overtime and collected two straight steals to erase a five-point deficit.

Team Ball Keys Round One Victory

Middle Tennessee has shared the basketball well all season and it was never more evident than in Friday's opening round win over New Orleans. The Lady Raiders dished out 20 assists (equaled season-high) on 30 field goals for a 66.7 percentage. For the year, Middle Tennessee has had an assist on 58.1 percent of their field goals which is up nearly four percent over last season.

Big Victory for Lady Raiders

Middle Tennessee's resounding 73-30 victory over New Orleans on Friday marked the largest margin of victory by the Lady Raiders since downing Morris Brown, 90-39, back on January 28, 2002. The 43-point margin was the largest for Middle Tennessee in conference tournament action all-time besting the previous mark of 31 points set against Louisiana-Lafayette in 2002.

Lady Raiders Set Steals Record

With 18 steals in the win over New Orleans on Friday, Middle Tennessee broke the all-time steals record by running its season total to 368. The Lady Raiders broke the previous mark of 367 established by the 2003-04 team that went on to win the SBC Tournament and advanced to the round of 32 in the NCAA Tourney. MT now has 381 steals on the season entering the WKU game.

Holmes Owns Record Out-right

Senior Patrice Holmes played in her school record 119th game as a Lady Raider when MT downed UNO in the first round of the SBC Tournament. Holmes broke the mark of 118 games originally shared by Natalie Sneed and Jonelda Buck. Holmes, who has now played in 120 total games, has also started all 120 contests, which is also a Lady Raider record.

Defense Keys Win Over UNO

Middle Tennessee has been solid on the defensive end of the court all season, but the defending league champions stepped it up a notch on Friday in round one of the SBC Tournament. The Lady Raiders forced UNO into 29 turnovers, held them to just 26.7 percent shooting, collected 18 steals, and allowed just 12 first half points. In fact, Middle Tennessee held the Lady Privateers to only 30 points which went down as the fewest points scored by a team in the history of the Sun Belt Tournament. The 30 points also went down as the fewest given up by the Lady Raiders since holding Arkansas-Little Rock to 29 points on January 11, 2003.

Stovall Comes Up Big

Junior Tia Stovall, who has earned all-tournament honors every year, paced the Lady Raiders against New Orleans with 17 points. It marked her third-highest point total in tournament action behind 23 points in a win over UNO in 2003 and 22 points in the 2003 title game against WKU. Against UNO on Friday, Stovall also added six rebounds, four assists and five steals in just 23 minutes of action. Over her last seven games, Stovall is shooting an impressive 60.0 (45-75) percent from the field.

Lady Raiders Find March Success of Late

Middle Tennessee owns a 43-33 all-time record in the month of March, and are 12-9 under head coach Stephany Smith. The past three seasons the Lady Raiders have posted a 9-3 mark in the month, which includes back-to-back trips to the Sun Belt Tournament championship game and a first-round NCAA Tournament victory over 12th-ranked North Carolina last season.

Stovall Returns to Early-Season Form

Junior Tia Stovall was Middle Tennessee's most consistent player through the first 15 games of the season, averaging a team-leading 14.7 points and 5.9 rebounds per contest. But Sun Belt regular season play was a bit of an enigma with the Estill Springs, Tenn., native, as Stovall scored more than 12 points just once in the first 10 league outings, and that came in the first game against Arkansas-Little Rock. But Stovall returned to her early-season form in the last four regular season contests, averaging 17.0 points and 6.5 rebounds per game, including her first double-double this season with 21 points and 10 rebounds in the win over Western Kentucky on February 24. She ranks second on the squad in points (13.7) and leads the team in rebounding (5.8) heading into Sunday's tournament game against North Texas.

National Statistics

Middle Tennessee moved up one spot to fourth nationally this week in steals per game while continuing to lead the Sun Belt in thefts. Senior Patrice Holmes is ninth individually in steals, while junior Tia Stovall ranks 36th in the country in FG percentage. As a team the Lady Raiders are 16th in the nation in FG percentage, and rank 50th in scoring defense, 70th in scoring margin and 74th in assists per game.

Stovall on Pace for 1,000

Junior Tia Stovall is on pace to become the 17th Lady Raider in history to amass 1,000 career points. The Estill Springs, Tenn., native enters Monday's Sun Belt Tournament game against WKU with 983 career points. Stovall currently ranks second on the squad with 13.7 points per game. She would join current teammate Patrice Holmes in the 1,000-point club.

Holmes Sets Career Steals Mark

Senior Patrice Holmes recorded three steals in the first half of the February 3 contest at Western Kentucky, moving her past Kim Webb and in to first place on the all-time list at Middle Tennessee. Holmes posted five steals in the contest and has 327 career thefts heading into Monday's Sun Belt Tournament game against Western Kentucky. Holmes leads the Sun Belt in steals this season with 101 and had 55 in 14 league outings, and ranks ninth nationally in the category. The Bishopville, S.C., native ranks in the Top 10 in 14 different career categories at Middle Tennessee, including in the Top 5 in nine.

More on Holmes

Senior Patrice Holmes has started all 120 games in her Lady Raider career, moving into first place on the career starts list on February 24 against Western Kentucky. She took over the career games played list against New Orleans on Friday, and continues to climb several all-time lists during her final season in the Blue and White. The Bishopville, S.C., native ranks seventh in scoring with 1,805 points and moved past Kim Webb into seventh on the career rebounding list (728) versus Denver on February 10. She moved into second on the all-time assists list with 446 after recording six dimes at Arkansas State, and is also fifth in 3-pointers made (163) and second in 3-point attempts (546).

Gray Has Career Night

Senior Ciara Gray has struggled through a myriad of injuries throughout her Lady Raider career and did not return to this year's team until the end of November. Getting back into the flow of the game has been a slow process, but the LaVergne, Tenn., native has found a groove in the last five games. Gray scored a then season-high 11 points at North Texas on February 12 and netted a career-high 17 at Arkansas State on February 19. Gray set career-highs with 17 points, seven FG made, 12 FG attempts and three 3-point FG made at ASU. Gray also tied her career-high of six 3-point attempts. It was just the sixth double-digit scoring game of her career and second in a three-game stretch, and it marked the first time in her career she led the Lady Raiders in scoring in a game. In the last five outings, she has averaged 9.2 points per outing and is shooting 41 percent (7-for-17) from three-point range, helping the Lady Raiders win four of the five contests.

The Murfreesboro, Tenn., native owns a 3.83 grade-point-average in Elementary Education and also is third in scoring for the Lady Raiders at 11.3 per game this season. Horton was a First Team Preseason All-Sun Belt selection this season after helping Middle Tennessee reach the second round of the NCAA Tournament in 2004.

Home Sweet Home

Middle Tennessee has posted a stellar 29-7 home record against Sun Belt opponents since 2000-01 and are 278-86 all-time at Murphy Center, a winning percentage of .764. The Lady Raiders finished 12-2 at home, including a perfect 7-0 against the Sun Belt, including wins over South Carolina, Austin Peay, Cincinnati, Xavier, Louisiana-Lafayette and Western Kentucky. Since the start of the 2002-03 season, the Lady Raiders are 19-2 in Sun Belt action at Murphy Center, going 6-1 in each of the last two campaigns. The 29-7 mark since 2000-01 ties for the best in the league with Western Kentucky, with the top three records all in the East Division

More on Home Record

The 12-2 home mark ties for the second most victories at Murphy Center in school history, one behind the all-time mark of 13-2 set in 1984-85. Three other squads posted 12 home triumphs, including those from 1976-77, 1985-86 and 1995-96. The Lady Raiders have previously gone undefeated in conference play at home on nine occasions, but only one other time since 1988 (9-0, 1998-99). Middle Tennessee put together eight undefeated league slates at home from 1979-80 to 1987-88, including a 45-game winning streak from January 14, 1982-January 21, 1989.

Givens Goes Back-to-Back

Sophomore Chrissy Givens recorded back-to-back double-doubles on February 10 and 12 for the Lady Raiders, the first double-doubles of her career. Givens tied her season-high with 17 points and had a career-high 12 rebounds against Denver, then followed that up with 15 points and 11 boards at North Texas. Givens has tied or led the Lady Raiders in rebounding 11 times overall this season. Back-to-back double-doubles has not been accomplished by a Lady Raider since 2000 when Jamie Thomatis recorded the feat on February 22 and 24 against Belmont and Murray State, respectively. Givens leads the Lady Raiders in rebounding at 5.7 per contest and is scoring 10.7 points per outing, fourth best on the squad.

Stretch Run Starts in February

Historically, Stephany Smith-coached teams have gotten better as the season has progressed, and that is never more evident than during the month of February. During Smith's seven-plus years at the helm of the program, the Lady Raiders are 45-15 (.750) during the month of February, including a perfect 10-0 during the 1999-00 season. Since joining the Sun Belt, Middle Tennessee stands 24-10 (.706) in February. The Lady Raiders were 5-3 in February in 2004-05, but won five of their last six contests heading into this week's Sun Belt Championships.

Tidbits

The Lady Raiders are 14-2 this season when outrebounding their opponents. Middle Tennessee has won the battle of the boards in eight of the last 14 outings ... The Lady Raiders are allowing just 53.0 points in the last 24 contests, holding opponents to just 37 percent from the floor. The squad is 19-5 in the 24 outings, including 11-3 in Sun Belt regular season play ... The Lady Raiders' bench has outscored the opponent 10 times this season, with the squad posting an 9-1 mark in those outings. Middle Tennessee has outscored the opposing bench in 10 of the last 16 games ... Middle Tennessee has held an opponent under 50 points nine times this season - all wins.

Lady Raiders Ink Four Players

Middle Tennesee signed four players to national letters-of-intent during the early signing period in November, including forward Brittany Pittman and guards LaCondra Mason, Ashley Hayes and Jessica Graves. Pittman, 6-2, hails from Tates Creek HS in Lexington, Ky., and is the first Lady Raider signee from the state of Kentucky under head coach Stephany Smith. Mason is a 5-9 guard from Chattanooga Christian School in Chattanooga, Tenn., while Hayes and Graves both hail from Humboldt HS in Humboldt, Tenn.

THE LAST TIME

By Monte Hale Jr.
DNJ Sports Editor

MURFREESBORO, Tenn. -- MTSU's Lady Raiders used an explosive second half, highlighted by a 20-4 run, to hand Sun Belt Conference rival Western Kentucky its worst loss of the season, 79-55, Thursday night at Murphy Center.

However, the key to the lopsided victory might have been the Lady Raiders' play in the first half.

Playing with a patchwork lineup because of foul trouble and an off-court injury to reserve Starr Orr, the Lady Raiders (18-8, 10-3) nevertheless summoned the wherewithal to build a seven-point advantage, 34-27, at halftime.

"I thought that was a pretty large key, and I think it is a testament to how tenacious we were on the defensive end," said MTSU coach Stephany Smith.

"Even when we had a very inexperienced crew in we still held it together enough to have a lead going into the half, and I really did think that was big."

MTSU starting forward Krystle Horton played just five minutes due to three fouls, starting forward Tia Stovall was whistled for two fouls in the first half, starting guard Ciara Gray picked up two quick first-half fouls, and Orr missed the game due to burns suffered in a cooking accident.

"You've got two of your starting post players in foul trouble, so you've got Ditte Jakobsen and Lakira Boyd in there," Smith said. "They have played, but they aren't as physical, but they really held it together."

Western Kentucky (18-8, 11-2) did put a dent into the MTSU lead, which was as big as 14 in the first half, but the Lady Toppers felt they missed an opportunity to capitalize on the Lady Raiders' foul woes.

"I'm not surprised their players stepped up, but what I was surprised about is we didn't capitalize on that opportunity," said Western Kentucky coach Mary Taylor-Cowles. "That was not the same Western Kentucky basketball team I coached a month ago against Middle Tennessee. On a scale of one to 10, their intensity level was a 12."

Western Kentucky pulled within 41-39 with 15:14 remaining, but MTSU reeled off 14 unanswered points, and Horton capped off an 20-4 spurt by scoring eight straight points to give the Lady Raiders a 61-43 lead with 8:22 left.

"That run was 100 percent on the defensive end," Smith said. "All year our defense has outscored our offense, and tonight we were tenacious."

Western Kentucky got as close as 67-52 with 4:24 left, but the Lady Raiders scored 11 unanswered points to thwart the comeback attempt.

The Lady Raiders held the Lady Toppers to a season low in points, and they forced 30 turnovers and recorded a season-high 21 steals.

"We were determined not to lose this game," said Stovall, who led the Lady Raiders with 21 points and 10 rebounds. "The loss at Arkansas (State) made us realize that it doesn't matter what everyone else is doing. We just have to concentrate on ourselves and get ourselves prepared for the tournament."

Senior guard Patrice Holmes had 14 points, six rebounds, five assists, four steals and two blocks and gave the Lady Raiders a calming effect in the first half when they were playing shorthanded.

"I was a little worried, but being the leader on the team I knew I had to take over the game," she said. "I had to make sure everybody was in the right spot and keep everybody calm.

"This is a great rivalry. Whenever we play them, I know I have to bring my 'A' game."

Chrissy Givens added 13 points and four steals for the Lady Raiders, while Horton had 13 points despite playing just 16 minutes. Gray added nine points.

Western Kentucky was led by Crystal Kelly with 15 points, while Ashley Butler had 11.

Stephany Smith

Head Coach ● Harding, 1988 ● 8th Season ● 150-87 (.633)

Coach Stephany Smith is entering her eighth year at the helm of the Lady Raider basketball program with high expectations.

Smith made an appearance in the NCAA Tournament for the second time in her seven-year reign last season and is looking to repeat that feat in 2005. After garnering the first 20-win mark of her career in 2003-04, Smith led her athletic squad to a Sun Belt Tournament title in just the school's fourth year in the league. She also coached junior stand-out Patrice Holmes to her second straight Sun Belt Tournament Most Outstanding Player award.

For the first time in her career and the second time in school history, the team made it to the second round of the NCAA Tournament with a 67-62 win over No. 12 North Carolina. The win, by No. 13 seed Middle Tennessee, was just the third time in NCAA Tournament history a 13 seed knocked off a No. 4 seed.

The Brookhaven, Miss., native has established herself as one of college basketball's brightest young coaches and is looking forward to the season ahead.

Completing her seventh campaign, Smith's record stands as a testament to her hard work, excellent recruiting skills, and knowledge of the game. In seven seasons, Smith sports a 129-79 record and has not only the 2004 Sun Belt Tournament Title but an OVC regular season title and an OVC Tournament title to her credit. The NCAA berth in 2003-04 was the fourth team Smith has led into postseason play, with an NCAA berth in 1998 and WNIT bids in 1999 and 2001.

Smith did not enter into her first head coaching job blindly. She spent four years as an assistant at Middle Tennessee to former head coach Lewis Bivens, handling the team's recruiting efforts. Smith was promoted to associate head coach in her final season under Bivens.

The 1995-96 squad went 24-6, the second-most victories in school history, before falling to Kansas in the first round of the NCAA Tournament in Lawrence, Kan. The Lady Raiders were OVC Co-Champions in 1995 and 1996, compiling 64 wins in Smith's first three seasons on the staff. Fruits of her labors at Middle Tennessee were shown in 1996 when the Lady Raiders received votes in both collegiate polls, ranking as high as 26th. The school received its first at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament to further attest the program's growing stature.

Smith spent four years as an assistant at UAB before her arrival at Middle Tennessee, coordinating recruiting for the Blazers. UAB went 76-45 during her four seasons on the staff, winning or tying for the Sun Belt Conference crown twice (1990, '91) and sharing the Great Midwest Conference title in 1992. The Lady Blazers made two WNIT trips (1991, '92) during Smith's association with the UAB program.

She spent one year as a graduate assistant at her alma mater, Harding University, in 1989. Teams associated with Smith have a 255-158 record during her 14 years on the Division I level, including four 20-plus win seasons and two 19-win campaigns.

Smith's claim to fame is recruiting: as she has established a reputation as one of the game's top young coaches and as a top-flight recruiter. She is also a teacher of the game holding a coaching clinic over the summer to instruct other coaches on various offenses. Three of her former players have gone on to play in the professional ranks including former Lady Raider Joanne Aluka who played in Portugal and was a member of the Nigerian women's basketball team at the 2004 Summer Olympics in Athens.

Jacque Nero played six years overseas before being selected fourth by Nashville in the 1998 ABL draft. Shyronda Mifflin has played four seasons overseas and was on the Atlanta Glory's practice squad for part of the 1998 season before returning to Spain.

Her coaching philosophy stresses establishing fundamental knowledge of the game in practice. The repetition of fundamentals in practice allows her players the freedom to use that knowledge coupled with their athletic skills over the course of a game. An intense conditioning regimen also lends Smith's squad the opportunity to play an up-tempo style predicated on defensive intensity.

Smith graduated from Harding University in Searcy, Ark., with a B.A. in Physical Education in May of 1988 before receiving an M.S.E. in 1989 . She began her career at Copiah-Lincoln Community College in Wesson, Miss. She received an associate's degree from Co-Lin in May of 1986.

Smith competed in basketball at both Co-Lin and Harding and also spent a year as the head girls track coach at Searcy High School in 1989 while completing her Master's degree at Harding.

Smith is truly people-oriented. She has planned and directed numerous non-profit clinics at Middle Tennessee and UAB for girls to further promote the game of basketball. She now heads up one of the most successful camps in the country, the Middle Tennessee "Stars of Tomorrow" camp, each summer. She is the daughter of Ralph and Betsy Smith. She has three brothers (Ralph, Richard, Cameron) and one sister (Sydney).
