When: February 25-27, 2005
Site: Dothan, Ala. (Westgate Park)
Radio: None
Series: Ohio State leads 1-0; Iowa - First Meeting; Troy leads 10-8
Last Meeting: Ohio State - 03/15/74; Iowa - First Meeting; Troy - 3/23/04
Notes: Middle Tennessee heads to the ScreenTech Wiregrass Classic in Dothan, Ala., for the weekend, the first in-season tournament for the Blue Raiders since 2002 in Clarksville, Tenn. ... Middle Tennessee has played Ohio State just once since 1974 and has never met Iowa ... The Blue Raiders were swept in a two-game midweek set at Reese Smith Field last year by Troy.

Blue Raiders Head to WireGrass Classic

Middle Tennessee will participate in this weekend's ScreenTech Wiregrass Classic at Westgate Park in Dothan, Ala., hosted by Troy University and presented by The Dothan Eagle. The Blue Raiders have played Ohio State just once since 1974, a 3-1 OSU victory in Macon, Ga., while Middle Tennessee and Iowa have never met. The Blue Raiders have a long history with Troy, dating to 1992, with the Trojans leading the series, 10-8. Troy won both games last year in Murfreesboro, 2-1 and 18-3, while the Blue Raiders won 3-of-5 in 2002. Middle Tennessee is 4-5 against Troy both at home and on the road.

Scott Outstanding in First Start

Redshirt sophomore Matt Scott made his first collegiate start on Saturday against Ball State, picking up a win and tossing six innings. Scott allowed one earned run and just three hits with four strikeouts to pick up the win, Middle Tennessee's first of the season. Scott took a no-hitter into the fourth inning before giving up a double. Scott led the Blue Raiders in appearances last season, recording a 3-1 mark with one save in 22 appearances, all in relief.

Eakes Makes Strong Showing as DH

Junior Chase Eakes was 4-for-8 in the two games against Ball State, blasting his second career home run on Saturday and equaling his career-high with three RBIs in the same game against the Cardinals. Eakes was 3-for-4 with three RBIs and two runs scored in Saturday's 11-2 victory, belting a two-run homer and an RBI single. Saturday marked the fourth multi-hit game of Eakes' career. The junior was the designated hitter in both contests, just the third and fourth times he has been the DH in his career as a Blue Raider.

Notes from the Ball State Series

The Blue Raiders dropped to 7-11 on opening day under Steve Peterson with Friday's 7-4 loss ... It was the first-ever meeting on the diamond between Middle Tennessee and Ball State ... True freshman Nathan Hines and junior transfer Todd Martin made their first career starts as Blue Raiders Friday against Ball State ... Nate Jaggers' third inning home run on Friday was the 17th of his career ... Michael McKenry homered twice on Friday for the Blue Raiders, a pair of solo shots. It was the first two homers of McKenry's career that were not grand slams, as both round-trippers during his freshman season came with the bases loaded ... Jaggers recorded his 49th career multi-hit game Saturday with two hits against the Cardinals ... Jeff Beachum recorded his 42nd career multi-hit game ... Pitcher Aaron Wallus, a senior transfer, made his first Blue Raider appearance Saturday, working the final three innings to pick up a save and striking out five ... The number nine spot in the Blue Raider order went a combined 5-for-8 with three home runs and five RBIs in the two games.

four wins shy of 700 for his career, owning a 696-523-2 overall mark as a head coach. Peterson has accumulated a 543-427-2 mark in 17-plus seasons at Middle Tennessee and posted a 153-96 record as head coach at Roane State CC in six seasons.

Streaks

The Blue Raiders have six players who hit safely in both games of the opening series versus Ball State, including Chase Eakes, Eric McNamee, Nathan Hines, Marcus Taylor, Jeff Beachum and Nate Jaggers. Dating to the end of the 2004 campaign, Jaggers carries a six-game hitting streak into Friday's contest versus Ohio State, while McNamee has hit safely in five straight and Taylor in three consecutive outings.

Senior Josh Archer has enjoyed a good deal of success against Troy in six career games, batting .348 (8-for-23) with two home runs and five RBIs. Archer was 2-for-5 in one game in 2004 versus the Trojans and 6-for-18 in four contests during 2002. Nate Jaggers did not play in either game last season but was 7-for-14 (.500) in four outings in 2002. Eric McNamee went 3-for-9 in the two meetings last season, while Jeff Beachum also was 3-for-9 with three runs scored in 2004. No other Blue Raider has played more than one game against the Trojans. The only three pitchers who have faced Troy are Eric Blevins, Tyler Copeland and Jeff Kasser. Blevins was roughed up in the 18-13 loss last season, allowing seven runs in 2.2 innings, while Copeland pitched just 1/3 of an inning and Kasser tossed three innings last season.

Blue Raiders Add Six Fall Signees

Middle Tennessee inked six players to national letters-of-intent during the early signing period, the largest fall class for the Blue Raiders in 15 years. The six include: righthander Brett Smalley from Hixson HS in Hixson, Tenn.; infielder Myles Ervin from Notre Dame HS in Chattanooga, Tenn.; righthander Allan Woodward from Maple Woods CC and Columbia, Mo.; Brandon Brokaw from Fort Zumwalt South HS in St. Peters, Mo.; Dillon Heath from Davidson Academy in Nashville, Tenn.; and Brett Reilley from Olney Central JC and Fort Wayne, Ind. Ervin plays for former Blue Raider George Oleksik at Notre Dame, while Woodward enrolled in January and will be a member of this season's pitching staff.

Old Faces Around the Infield

Middle Tennessee has question marks in a couple of areas as it embarks on the 2005 season, but the infield is not one of them. With three seniors and a junior around the infield, head coach Steve Peterson

Seniors Josh Archer (1B), Eric McNamee (2B) and Nate Jaggers (3B) join junior Jeff Beachum (SS) for one of the most experienced infields in the nation. The foursome has combined for 570 career hits along with 49 home runs and 281 RBIs during their tenure.

Questions on the Mound

The biggest question mark entering the season has to be pitching, where the Blue Raiders lost seven players seven different ways between the end of 2004 and January. Middle Tennessee led the Sun Belt in team ERA last season and produced a pair of 100-strikeout performers (Chris Mobley, John Williams). Williams was the only senior, but certainly not the only one to depart: Chris Mobley (draft); Danny Borne (transfer), Travis Horschel (did not return); Shay Horseman (Tommy John surgery); BJ Church (dismissal for violation of team rules); and Steve Kline (academically ineligible). The Blue Raiders head into the season with 13 pitchers on the roster, but only three who have seen significant action in their careers.

2004 End of Season Notes

The Blue Raiders made their 13th trip to the NCAA Tournament, including the fourth in the past five years, after posting just the third 40-win season in Middle Tennessee history. Middle Tennessee is now 7-24 all-time in the NCAA Tournament, picking up one win in 1981, 1988 and 1995, and two victories each in 1982 and 2000. The Blue Raiders made their eighth NCAA appearance under head coach Steve Peterson after winning their 16th conference championship and second in four years in the Sun Belt.

Four Players Selected in MLB Draft

Four Middle Tennessee players were picked in the Major League Baseball First-Year Amateur Player Draft in June 2004, including two juniors and two seniors. The four players selected in the MLB draft matches a record for the Blue Raiders, also set in 1990 and 2001. During the first 18 rounds of selections, senior and Murfreesboro, Tenn., native John Williams went to the Minnesota Twins in the seventh round and the 211th pick overall. Williams is the third Blue Raider selected by the Twins organization in the last four years, including Josh Renick (2001) and Justin Sims (2002). The lefthander was 8-4 with a 3.06 ERA in 2004 for Middle Tennessee, striking out 109 in 100.0 innings. Williams finished his career second in school history in innings pitched (305.2) and strikeouts (294), and fourth in wins (23). Junior third baseman Brett Carroll was selected in the 10th round with the 308th overall selection by the Florida Marlins, the first Blue Raider ever picked by the Marlins. Carroll belted 14 home runs in 2004, tying for the team lead, and led the Blue Raiders with 52 RBIs. The Knoxville, Tenn., native had career numbers of 39 home runs, 50 doubles and 133 RBIs, all ranking in the Top 8 in Blue Raider history. The Bearden High School product signed a professional contract about a week after the draft, forfeiting his senior year of eligibility.

On the second day of the draft a pair of Blue Raiders were selected just three picks apart. Junior righthander Chris Mobley was taken by the Marlins in the 22nd round. The Kingsport, Tenn., native was 7-5 with a 3.95 ERA in 2004, striking out 122 in 95.2 innings of work. Senior catcher Troy Harp was selected three spots later by the Atlanta Braves, also in the 22nd round. Harp batted .277 with eight doubles, four home runs and 26 RBIs in 2004, starting 51 games. He also threw out 19 of 55 base runners attempting to steal, a very good 35 percent.

Blue Raiders End 2004 in National Statistics

Eight Blue Raiders finished 2004 ranked in the Top 101 in national statistics, including Eric McNamee ranking in the Top 30 in a pair of categories. McNamee finished the year 21st nationally in walks per game (0.82) and 27th in runs per contest (1.16). Chris Mobley was 15th in the country in strikeouts per outing with 11.5. Offensively, Derek Phillips ranked 79th in batting average (.380), while Chuck Akers was 75th in sacrifice bunts (0.18). Jeff Beachum finished 87th in the toughest-to-strikeout category, striking out once every 11.8 at-bats. Lefthander John Williams ended his career 61st nationally in strikeouts per game with 9.8 and 101st in ERA at 3.06.

Hot Start, Hot Finish

Middle Tennessee began the 2004 campaign with 14 wins in the first 17 games, including a three-game sweep at Southeastern Louisiana and winning two-of-three from Southwest Missouri State at home, a 2003 CWS participant. But the squad struggled from March 21-April 30, compiling a 13-14 mark. The Blue Raiders rebounded to win their final eight conference games and 13 of the final 16, claiming a share of the Sun Belt regular season championship and reaching the title game of the Sun Belt Tournament.

Five Earn All-Sun Belt Honors

Five Blue Raiders were honored on the All-Sun Belt Conference team after the program captured its 16th conference championship. Earning All-SBC first-team accommodation were shortstop Jeff Beachum, second baseman Eric McNamee, pitcher Chris Mobley and first baseman Derek Phillips, who was honored as the league's top utility player. Senior pitcher John Williams was named to the second team. The five all-league players equaled the most in a single season for the Blue Raiders and each player was a first-time honoree.

Peterson Named SBC Coach of the Year

Blue Raider head coach Steve Peterson was voted Sun Belt Coach of the Year by his peers after guiding the Blue Raiders to their 10th conference title during his 17-year tenure at Middle Tennessee. Middle Tennessee finished the season 40-22, the third 40-win campaign in school history, all under Peterson. The 1990 squad posted a 42-15 mark while the 2001 team was 41-17. It is the third Coach of the Year honor for the veteran skipper, but his first since the Blue Raiders joined the Sun Belt in 2001. Middle Tennessee got out to a quick start, posting a 14-3 mark to begin the campaign. But Peterson's squad weathered a 13-14 record in the middle of the year, dropping their first two conference series before winning the final six. The club posted a 13-3 mark in May to share the league title and make it to the finals of the SBC Tournament.

McNamee Assaults Single-Season Lists

Junior Eric McNamee made an immediate impact at the top of the Blue Raider lineup last season and climbed to the top of the single-season batting lists at Middle Tennessee. The Columbia State CC transfer led the club in hits (86), runs (71), walks (50) and on-base percentage (.474). McNamee ranked first in a season in walks, third in runs, tied for sixth in hits and second in singles (68). He served as the leadoff hitter in 57 of the team's 62 games, missing only one contest despite a myriad of injuries throughout the year. His 26 multi-hit games rank as the seventh-most in the last six years:

By the Numbers ...

The Blue Raiders were 13-3 in the month of May in 2004 and 24-7 in May the last two seasons … Middle Tennessee was 34-2 when leading after the seventh … Middle Tennessee was 27-6 in 2004 when scoring first ... The Blue Raider pitching staff had 30 double-digit strikeout games, including 14 in Sun Belt games ... Eric McNamee was 58-for-109 (.532) as a leadoff hitter.

Attendance at a Record for the Season

Middle Tennessee enjoyed a championship season in more ways than one in 2004, claiming the conference title and also setting single-game and single-season attendance records. The April 20 contest versus Vanderbilt drew a single-game record 3,020 on "Pack the Park" Night at Reese Smith Field. The Blue Raiders ended the home schedule with an announced attendance of 1,123, pushing the single-season total to 30,319, almost 3,000 more fans than in 2001 during the previous record season.

Steve Peterson

Head Coach ● Jacksonville State/1973 ● 17th Season ● 543-427-2 (.559), 696-523-2 (.570) overall

There are many adjectives to describe the job Steve Peterson has done as Middle Tennessee's highly successful baseball coach since 1988. Coach, fundraiser, teacher, recruiter and architect are just a few, but if you are looking for one word to sum his contributions as the Blue Raiders' longtime skipper, try winner.

Peterson begins his 18th season heading the Blue Raider program as the school's all-time winningest coach with 542 victories and a stockpile of conference championships and NCAA Tournament berths to his credit, demonstrating the consistency with which the driven skipper has guided the club.

Middle Tennessee has been a model program on Peterson's watch and the proof is in the success the Blue Raiders have achieved. The veteran coach has led Middle Tennessee to 10 regular-season conference championships, eight conference tournament titles and seven NCAA Regional berths, including two at-large selections in the past four years. Peterson guided the Blue Raiders to seven consecutive championships – either regular-season or tournament – during one stretch, proving Middle Tennessee doesn't rebuild, it reloads.

Peterson, who enters the 2005 season with a sterling 542-426-2 mark, has produced 10 seasons with 30 or more wins, including a school-record 42 victories in 1990. He also has three campaigns of at least 40 wins, including last season's 40-22 club.

The constant manner in which Middle Tennessee has enjoyed success during Peterson's tenure is a direct reflection on recruiting and developing talent and the proof was never more evident than in 2001 – the Blue Raiders' first season as a member of the Sun Belt Conference after years of success in the Ohio Valley.

Asked how the move into the Sun Belt, rated one of the nation's Top 5 baseball leagues at the time and consistently a Top 10 conference, would change his recruiting philosophy, Peterson quickly responded, "none at all." The 2001 Blue Raiders then went out and shared the Sun Belt championship with South Alabama during their first year in the high-profile league and the majority of the chief contributors were the same performers who led Middle Tennessee to the 2000 Ohio Valley Conference championship.

The move to a higher-rated conference has not hurt Middle Tennessee's status. If anything, it has helped. In its first four years in the Sun Belt, Peterson's teams have won two regular-season championships, a tournament championship and earned three NCAA Regional berths, including two at-large selections for the first time in school history. The 2001 squad earned national acclaim for its pitching and hitting and the season concluded with pitcher Dewon Brazelton being selected as the No. 3 overall pick of the Tampa Bay Devil Rays in the Major League Baseball First-Year Amateur Player Draft. Brazelton was one of six players from the team to earn a spot on a professional baseball roster that season.

A program cannot enjoy consistent success without quality players and Peterson, a three-time Coach of the Year, has not only made a habit of making sure Middle Tennessee has its share of quality performers, but he's won by constantly signing prep players and developing them at the college level. The proof is in the fact Peterson has coached a Sun Belt Player of the Year and six OVC Players of the Year, a Sun Belt Pitcher of the Year and an OVC Pitcher of the Year, a First-Team All-American, four Third-Team All-Americans, four Freshman All-Americans, and 35 first-team All-Conference performers.

Players who have honed their skills under Peterson also have had an outstanding rate of continuing their careers at the professional level. Professional baseball has seen 46 former Peterson performers earning the chance to play at the game's highest level, with four making their way to the Major Leagues.

If that's not enough, Peterson's recruits have established most of the offensive records held at Middle Tennessee and three players he has developed have hit .400 or better in a season, along with the school's single-season and career home run record holders. His 1997 squad established the all-time record for batting average with a .323 clip.

Peterson's players not only have been solid on the field at the collegiate level and continued their careers professionally, but a large majority have taken the skills and fundamentals learned at Middle Tennessee and are earning a living as coaches at various levels. Twenty-five former Blue Raiders are currently coaching at the high school, college or professional levels.

Peterson's peers have recognized his achievements and contributions to the game by bestowing several honors on him. He was named the Tennessee Baseball Coaches Association College Coach of the Year in 1992 and again in 2000. He was also inducted into the Rutherford County Old Timers Baseball Hall of Fame in 2003. Fellow coaches have named Peterson Coach of the Year on three occasions – twice in the Ohio Valley and again in 2004, his first such honor in the Sun Belt.

Peterson's outgoing and personable personality has made him a hit with fans, boosters, players and recruits, alike. Baseball enthusiasts throughout the Middle Tennessee community clearly appreciate his hard-nosed and aggressive style of play, as fans continue to flock to Reese Smith Field at a record pace. The Blue Raiders established a single-game attendance record in 2001 at Reese Smith Field with a crowd of 2,733 against South Alabama. The team went on to set the single-season attendance mark with 26,218 coming through the gates at Reese Smith Field. The 2004 squad saw 15 crowds of 1,000 or more during the season. Those numbers were surpassed in 2004 when the team set a single-game attendance record of 3,020 against Vanderbilt, as well as setting a new single-season attendance mark of 30,319, ranking 46th nationally in attendance for the season. Fifteen contests drew more than 1,000 patrons during the record-setting campaign.

Not only has Peterson been a winner on the field, but he's been a successful fundraiser during his career as well. Events such as the annual Chuck Taylor Golf Tournament, the Groundhog Day Luncheon and the Grand Slam Fish Fry in the fall have become mainstays on calendars of Blue Raider baseball supporters across middle Tennessee and have served to raise thousands of dollars for the improvement of Blue Raider baseball.

Peterson spearheaded the efforts to pay for the construction of the Stephen B. Smith Clubhouse and Indoor Training Facility, which opened its doors in 1998. One look inside the facility shows the time and effort spent toward this endeavor. It has become known as one of the finest collegiate clubhouses and training facilities in the country.

Reese Smith Field also has benefited from Peterson's fundraising abilities. He has helped transform the park into a fan-friendly area by expanding the seating area, putting up a new information center just inside the gate, and expanding the restroom and concession facilities.

Peterson guided efforts during the summer of 2001 to expand the dugouts at Reese Smith Field. He also is currently spearheading an effort that would totally renovate the stadium. The plans would call for a significant remodeling of the concession stand, improve and expanded restroom facilities and a modern press box that would accommodate radio and television, along with print media.

While Peterson has spent 18 seasons leading the Middle Tennessee baseball program, his tenure with the program is much longer. He took two separate tours with the Blue Raiders as an assistant coach under John Stanford prior to becoming the team's head coach. During his runs between 1976-78 and 1985-87, the Blue Raiders won two OVC titles and four southern division crowns.

During the interim, Peterson served as the head coach at Roane State Community College in Harriman, Tenn. During his tenure from 1979-84, Peterson's teams won a Tennessee state title in 1981 and he was twice named TJCAA Coach of the Year (1981, '84). While at Roane State, Peterson put together a sparkling record of 153-96, a .614 winning percentage.

A native of Huntsville, Ala., Peterson stood out as a catcher under the legendary Rudy Abbott at Jacksonville State. He earned his bachelor's from Jacksonville State in 1983 and later earned a master's from Middle Tennessee in 1977.

Peterson is married to the former Rita Albert and the couple has three children, Jill, Jenny and John, and one grandchild, Hayden Wright. Away from the diamond, Peterson enjoys fishing for smallmouth bass.
