Middle Tennessee (18-8, 10-3) vs. Florida International (17-8, 7-5)

When: February 26, 2005
Site: Murfreesboro, Tenn.(Murphy Center)
TV: None
Radio: WMTS 88.3 (Neil Price, play-by-play)
Series: Florida International leads, 5-4
Last Meeting: Florida International 66, Middle Tennessee 55 -- Miami, Fla. (02/07/05)
Notes: Middle Tennessee celebrates Senior Day with the home finale against Florida International ... The Lady Raiders have won 23 straight contests on Senior Day, with the last loss coming in 1981 to Western Kentucky ... Middle Tennessee is 3-1 all-time against FIU at home, with all nine previous meetings taking place since the Lady Raiders joined the Sun Belt.

Middle Tennessee vs. Florida International
Middle Tennessee trails in the series, 5-4, after a 66-55 Florida International victory earlier this month in Miami. The Golden Panthers shot 57 percent in the contest in what was one of the worst performances of the season by the Lady Raiders. Middle Tennessee is 3-1 all-time at Murphy Center against FIU, including two straight victories.

Stovall Returns to Early-Season Form
Junior Tia Stovall was Middle Tennessee's most consistent player through the first 15 games of the season, averaging a team-leading 14.7 points and 5.9 rebounds per contest. But Sun Belt play has been a bit of an enigma with the Estill Springs, Tenn., native, as Stovall scored more than 12 points just once in the first 10 league outings, and that came in the first game against Arkansas-Little Rock. But Stovall has returned to her early-season form in the last three contests, averaging 18.0 points and 6.7 rebounds per game, including her first double-double this season with 21 points and 10 rebounds in the win over Western Kentucky Thursday. She netted 18 points at Arkansas-Little Rock on February 17 and had 15 points and eight rebounds last Saturday at Arkansas State despite missing most of the second half with foul trouble. She ranks second on the squad in points (13.6) and tied for first in rebounding (5.7) heading into Saturday's home finale against Florida International.

Gray Has Career Night
Senior Ciara Gray has struggled through a myriad of injuries throughout her Lady Raider career and did not return to this year's team until the end of November. Getting back into the flow of the game has been a slow process, but the LaVergne, Tenn., native has found a groove in the last four games. Gray scored a then season-high 11 points at North Texas on February 12 and netted a career-high 17 last Saturday at Arkansas State. Gray set career-highs with 17 points, seven FG made, 12 FG attempts and three 3-point FG made at ASU. Gray also tied her career-high of six 3-

Media Information

Lady Raiders on the Radio

All Lady Raider basketball games can be heard on WMTS 88.3. Neil Price is in his second full season as play-by-play announcer for the Lady Raiders. All contests may also be heard at GoBlueRaiders.com.

Interview Protocol

After a 10-minute cooling off period, requested players and head coach Stephany Smith will be available for members of the media. At home, the interview area is located just off the northwest corner of the playing floor. On the road, requested players and Coach Smith will be in an area designated by the home team, or just outside the Lady Raiders' locker room facility. Player requests should be directed to assistant media relations director Jo Jo Freeman.

Credentials

Media credentials for the 2004-05 basketball season should be directed to the Athletic Media Relations Office. Requests by accredited media members should be made in writing and submitted on company letterhead to Jo Jo Freeman. Priority issuance of credentials will be given to daily newspapers and television stations that cover Middle Tennessee basketball on a regular basis. Other credential requests will be fulfilled on a space available basis.

GoBlueRaiders.com

Middle Tennessee basketball statistics and notes are available 24 hours a day, seven days a week at GoBlueRaiders.com. Media are invited to use the official web site for Middle Tennessee athletics for information regarding all Blue Raider athletic teams.

Sun Belt Championships

The Sun Belt Conference Tournament is slated for March 5-8 at The Super Pit in Denton, Texas. The event combines the men's and women's tournament at one site. Ticket packages are available through the North Texas ticket office.

point attempts. It was just the sixth double-digit scoring game of her career and second in the last three contests, and it marked the first time in her career she led the Lady Raiders in scoring in a game. In the last four outings, she has averaged 10.5 points per outing, helping the Lady Raiders win three of the four contests.

Givens Production Continues to Rise

Sophomore Chrissy Givens has continued her assault on the Sun Belt conference, averaging 2.4 points and 0.8 rebounds more per game in league play versus overall games. Givens posted 16 points on a career-high eight field goals last Saturday at Arkansas State, mostly on backdoor cuts and fast-break layups, helping the Lady Raiders erase an 11-point halftime deficit. The Monroe, La., native is averaging 13.1 points, second best on the club, and a team-leading 6.5 rebounds in Sun Belt action, while also tying for the team lead in assists (44) and ranking second in steals (33) in league contests. She has scored in double figures in 11 of the 13 SBC contests, as well.

Horton Hitting the Boards

Sophomore Krystle Horton has been resurgent on the glass, grabbing nine rebounds in both contests last weekend to raise her season average to 5.6 per game, third on the club. The Murfreesboro, Tenn., native grabbed nine boards at Arkansas-Little Rock on February 17, her most rebounds since grabbing 10 caroms versus Austin Peay on December 21, a stretch of 15 outings. Horton added 13 points in the contest, as she and frontline mate Tia Stovall combined for 31 points and 11 rebounds in the game. Horton then added nine more boards at Arkansas State last Saturday, only her fourth outing this season with at least nine rebounds. The Riverdale HS product scored 13 points against Western Kentucky on Thursday despite playing just 16 minutes before fouling out.

Holmes Outside Shooting Markedly Off

Senior Patrice Holmes has always been a deadly three-point shooter, especially in clutch situations, and has worked throughout her career to become a more consistent threat from the perimeter. But the Bishopville, S.C., native's jumper has been markedly off in the last nine outings. Since going 6-for-10 from behind the arc at New Orleans on January 20, Holmes is shooting just 17 percent from three-point range (7-for-42), with no trifecta makes in four of the 10 outings. She has not been to the free throw line, a usual trademark for her, having gone just 6-for-10 from the foul line in the 10 games, including no attempts in five of the last six contests.

Horton Named Second Team Academic All-District

Middle Tennessee sophomore Krystle Horton was named to the 2005 ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District IV team announced February 17 by the College Sports Information Directors of America. Horton was named to the Second Team and will now enter the pool of candidates for Academic All-America honors announced in March. The Murfreesboro, Tenn., native owns a 3.83 grade-point-average in Elementary Education and also is third in scoring for the Lady Raiders at 11.2 per game this season. Horton was a First Team Preseason All-Sun Belt selection this season after helping Middle Tennessee reach the second round of the NCAA Tournament in 2004.

Home Sweet Home

Middle Tennessee has posted a stellar 28-7 home record against Sun Belt opponents since 2000-01 and are 277-86 all-time at Murphy Center, a winning percentage of .763. This season the Lady Raiders are 11-2 at home, including wins over South Carolina, Austin Peay, Cincinnati, Xavier, Louisiana-Lafayette and Western Kentucky. Since the start of the 2002-03 season, the Lady Raiders are 18-2 in Sun Belt action at Murphy Center, going 6-1 in each of the last two campaigns and 6-0 this season. The 28-7 mark since 2000-01 ties for the best in the league with Western Kentucky, with the top three records all in the East Division.

Givens Goes Back-to-Back

Sophomore Chrissy Givens recorded back-to-back double-doubles on February 10 and 12 for the Lady Raiders, the first double-doubles of her career. Givens tied her season-high with 17 points and had a career-high 12 rebounds against Denver, then followed that up with 15 points and 11 boards at North Texas. Givens has tied or led the Lady Raiders in rebounding 11 times overall this season. Back-to-back double-doubles has not been accomplished by a Lady Raider since 2000 when Jamie Thomatis recorded the feat on February 22 and 24 against Belmont and Murray State, respectively. Givens leads the Lady Raiders in rebounding at 5.7 per contest and is scoring 10.7 points per outing, fourth best on the squad.

Holmes Sets Career Steals Mark

Senior Patrice Holmes recorded three steals in the first half of the February 3 contest at Western Kentucky, moving her past Kim Webb and in to first place on the all-time list at Middle Tennessee. Holmes posted five steals in the contest and has 317 career thefts heading into Saturday's home finale against Florida International. Holmes leads the Sun Belt in steals this season with 91 and has 51 in 13 league outings. The Bishopville, S.C., native ranks in the Top 10 in 14 different career categories at Middle Tennessee, including in the Top 5 in nine.

More on Holmes

Senior Patrice Holmes has started all 117 games in her Lady Raider career, moving into first place on the career starts list Thursday against Western Kentucky. She also continues to climb several all-time lists during her final season in the Blue and White. The Bishopville, S.C., native ranks seventh in scoring with 1,748 points and moved past Kim Webb into seventh on the career rebounding list (714) versus Denver on February 10. She moved into second on the all-time assists list with 435 after recording six dimes at Arkansas State last Saturday, and is also fifth in 3-pointers made (158) and second in 3-point attempts (529). Lady Raiders Keep Opponents Off the Board

Defense has been a point of emphasis for the Lady Raiders all season, with the squad clamping down on league opponents by allowing just 53.8 points in Sun Belt outings, best in the conference. Middle Tennessee has held an opponent under 50 points eight times this season, all wins, including six in SBC action, and kept opposing teams under 60 points in 11 of 13 league outings. Opponents have also shot less than 40 percent from the field in 12 contests this season, posting an 11-1 mark, including 6-0 in SBC action.

Stretch Run Starts in February

Historically, Stephany Smith-coached teams have gotten better as the season has progressed, and that is never more evident than during the month of February. During Smith's seven-plus years at the helm of the program, the Lady Raiders are 44-15 (.746) during the month of February, including a perfect 10-0 during the 1999-00 season. Since joining the Sun Belt, Middle Tennessee stands 23-10 (.697) in February.

Back-to-Back Losses a Rarity in February

Middle Tennessee dropped two straight to begin the month of February, a rarity for the Lady Raiders over the years and certainly since joining the Sun Belt. The Lady Raiders suffered consecutive losses for the first time this season and the first time since January 15-17, 2004, at Arkansas State and Arkansas-Little Rock, a span of 38 games. Only one other time in the last five seasons have the Lady Raiders dropped two straight in the month of February, at Denver (2/16/02, 75-66) and at Western Kentucky (2/22/02, 66-62).

Thefts a Team Effort

Middle Tennessee headed into Thursday's outing with Western Kentucky leading the Sun Belt and ranking ninth nationally in steals at 12.8 per contest. Senior Patrice Holmes leads the charge when it comes to thefts, ranking first in the SBC with 91 steals, including 51 in conference play. Krystle Horton and Tia Stovall are tied for second on the club with 56 steals, while Chrissy Givens has 51. The Lady Raiders are on course to challenge the single-season record of 367 steals set last season, as the team has 341 heading into Saturday's home finale against Florida International.

Tidbits

The Lady Raiders are 13-2 this season when outrebounding their opponents. Middle Tennessee has won the battle of the boards in seven of the last 11 outings and is winning the rebounding margin by 2.8 in conference play ... The Lady Raiders are allowing just 53.7 points in the last 21 contests, holding opponents to just 40 percent from the floor. The squad is 16-5 in the 21 outings, including 10-3 in Sun Belt play ... The Lady Raiders' bench has outscored the opponent nine times this season, with the squad posting an 8-1 mark in those outings. Middle Tennessee has outscored the opposing bench in nine of the last 13 games ... Middle Tennessee has held an opponent under 50 points eight times this season, all wins, and ranks first in the Sun Belt in opponent scoring average in league games at 53.8.

Scouting the Golden Panthers

Florida International heads into their final weekend of the season 17-8 overall and 7-5 in Sun Belt play. The Golden Panthers have won three straight and four of the last five, starting with a 66-55 victory over Middle Tennessee earlier this month. Milena Tomova continues to lead the Sun Belt in scoring at 19.9 points per game, while Eva Makela is netting 10.7 points per outing, the only other FIU player averaging double figures. Lasma Jekabsone leads coach Cindy Russo's club in rebounding with 8.9 per contest, while Tomova grabs 8.0 boards per outing. Point guard Faeza Bouderra leads the league in assists this week at 5.8 per game.

Game Notes from Western Kentucky

STEALS 'R' US: Middle Tennessee collected a season-high 21 steals in the win over Western Kentucky to run its season total to 341, just 26 off the single-season record. The 21 thefts against WKU marked the most in a game by a Lady Raider team since the 2002-03 squad recorded 21 in a victory at South Carolina State on Dec. 14, 2002 - a span of 82 games.

HOLMES NOW ALL-TIME LEADER: Senior Patrice Holmes set a new Middle Tennessee record in the Western Kentucky contest, starting her 117th career game to break the record established by Lady Raider great Kim Webb. Holmes' 117 games played tied Cortney Neeley for the third most in school history behind co-leaders Natalie Sneed and Jonelda Buck (118).

HOT IN FEBRUARY: Under Stephany Smith,

On This Date - February 26

1977	Western Kentucky	W, 89-81
1979	at Vanderbilt	W, 74-70
1981	at Memphis	W, 70-66
1983	at Austin Peay	W, 87-73
1987	Tennessee State	W, 111-64
1994	Morehead State	W, 83-60
1995	at Eastern Kentucky	L, 82-73
1996	at UT Martin	W, 76-70
2000	UT Martin	W, 78-77
2004	at Western Kentucky	L, 79-71

the Lady Raiders are now an impressive 44-15 (.746) in the month of February.

DOUBLE DIGIT SBC WINS: The win over Western Kentucky was the 10th Sun Belt victory of the season for Middle Tennessee. It marks the second straight season the Lady Raiders have won 10 SBC games as the team went 10-4 in 2003-04. A victory over FIU on Saturday would give the Lady Raiders their most conference wins since picking up 11 in their final year of the Ohio Valley Conference (1999-00).

INSIDE THE PAINT: Middle Tennessee won its seventh straight game at home ... Ditte Jakobsen recorded a career-high four steals ... The 24-point margin of victory over Western Kentucky was the largest for Middle Tennessee over the Lady 'Toppers in the history of the rivalry ... Tia Stovall's 10 rebounds marked her most in a game since collecting 10 against Wisconsin in the fourth game of the year ... Chrissy Givens, with four steals against WKU, now has at least three steals in five straight games.

National Statistics

Middle Tennessee remained fifth nationally this week in steals per game while continuing to lead the Sun Belt in thefts. Senior Patrice Holmes is ninth individually in steals, while junior Tia Stovall ranks 39th in the country in FG percentage. As a team the Lady Raiders are 22nd in the nation in FG percentage, and rank 55th in scoring defense, 84th in scoring margin and 93rd in assists per game.

Stovall on Pace for 1,000

Junior Tia Stovall is on pace to become the 17th Lady Raider in history to amass 1,000 career points. The Estill Springs, Tenn., native enters Thursday's game with 946 career points. Stovall currently ranks second on the squad with 13.6 points per game. She would join current teammate Patrice Holmes in the 1,000-point club.

Gray Returns to Squad

Senior guard Ciara Gray made a decision in the summer to sit out the 2004-05 season because of reoccurring injuries. But the LaVergne, Tenn., native changed her mind one month into the season and joined the Lady Raiders December 2 at Georgia State. Gray provides head coach Stephany Smith with depth and experience off the bench, an aspect the club is short on this season. Middle Tennessee has won 16 of the 21 contests since Gray returned, allowing just 53.7 points per game and getting off to the best conference start since 1995-96.

Horton Doubling Up

Sophomore Krystle Horton has posted two of the four double-doubles for the Lady Raiders this season, registering 10 points and 10 rebounds against South Florida before tallying 19 points and 10 boards in a victory over Austin Peay just before Christmas. Horton owns eight double-doubles in 56 career outings and has eight of the team's 18 double-doubles in the last two seasons.

Horton Named Player of the Week

Sophomore Krystle Horton was named SBC Player of the Week on December 28 after recording a double-double in Middle Tennessee's win over Austin Peay. Horton had 19 points and 10 rebounds, including the final five points of the contest for the Lady Raiders, in the 57-55 come-from-behind victory. It was the eighth double-double of her career and the 16th for the Lady Raiders in the past two seasons.

Accolades Come Early for Lady Raiders

The Lady Raiders racked up with preseason awards from Sun Belt coaches during the preseason, claiming three all-conference spots, preseason player of the year honors and the top spot in the Eastern Division. Two-time Sun Belt Championships Most Outstanding Player Patrice Holmes was a First Team All-SBC selection, as was sophomore Krystle Horton. Holmes has been a First Team pick the last two seasons after earning Freshman of the Year in 2002. Horton was a First Team selection after her dynamite freshman campaign, while Tia Stovall was named Third Team in the preseason.

SBC Tournament Tickets on Sale

The Middle Tennessee Ticket Office has announced that ticket packages for the upcoming Sun Belt Tournament in Denton, Texas, are on sale for $75. The packages are good for every game of the tournament. Middle Tennessee students will be admitted free with their student ID. The 2005 tournament is scheduled for March 4-8 with North Texas serving as this year's host. Middle Tennessee will play as host to the 2006 SBC Tournaments at Murphy Center on March 4-7. It will mark the first time since 1987 that the Blue Raiders have hosted a conference tournament. Single session tickets for this year's tournament will be available only on game day and prices for those sessions have not yet been announced. Fans interested in purchasing tournament packages should call the Middle Tennessee Ticket Office at 1-888-YES-MTSU.

THE LAST TIME

MIAMI, Fla. - Florida International's LaQuetta Ferguson scored a career-high 19 points off the bench, leading the Golden Panthers to a 66-55 win over Middle Tennessee in Sun Belt women's basketball action Monday night at Pharmed Arena.

FIU (14-7, 4-4 SBC) shot lights out from the floor in the game, including 67 percent in the first half, and dominated the glass in handing the Lady Raiders their second straight loss. The Golden Panthers used a 16-8 run in the second half to expand a three-point halftime lead, ending a three-game losing streak to Middle Tennessee in the process.

The Lady Raiders (14-7, 6-2) cut a 10-point deficit to six with 4:33 to play on a short jumper from Lakira Boyd, but FIU answered on three straight trips, getting a layup and a pair of 15-footers to open their biggest margin of the contest at 62-50 with less than three minutes to play. Middle Tennessee was never able to get enough defensive stops against the Golden Panthers, as the home team shot 57 percent from the floor for the game. The two teams traded baskets in the first half, but the Lady Raiders were just 6-for-26 from the field in the second half, allowing the home team to expand a three-point halftime edge.

FIU took advantage of the cold shooting and executed offensively with the help of point guard Faeza Bonderra, who dished out a game-high six assists.

Ferguson was one of three Golden Panthers in double figures, with Milena Tomova adding 17 and Eva Makela scoring 11. FIU also blocked seven shots in the contest and outrebounded the Lady Raiders, 33-25.

Chrissy Givens led Middle Tennessee with 17 points, five rebounds and four assists. Krystle Horton added 12 points, all in the first half, with Tia Stovall scoring 10.

Middle Tennessee head coach Stephany Smith was not pleased with her team's effort, especially on the defensive end of the floor.

"We were very lethargic and our defense, which we have been hanging our hat on since the start of conference play, was bad throughout the game," Smith said. "[FIU] had a ton of dribble penetration, and we were very lackadaisical.

"Our body language was bad, and [FIU] made a lot of great shots. They knocked down every open shot, and they got a lot of open looks. Smith said her team did not play well in just about every aspect, and it showed on the final box score.

"It's a very disappointing loss. Our effort, leadership and execution were all poor, and there's not much positive to look at from tonight's game."

The Lady Raiders host Denver Thursday at 5:30 p.m. at Murphy Center in a doubleheader with the men.

GAME NOTES

The Lady Raiders have used the same starting lineup - forwards Krystle Horton and Tia Stovall and guards Patrice Holmes, Chrissy Givens and Ditte Jakobsen - in 12 games this season, including five in a row ... The 38 points allowed in the first half is the second most this season, with Houston scoring 40 on November 28 ... Florida International shot 57 percent from the floor, the best for an opponent this season ... The Lady Raiders suffered consecutive losses for the first time this season and the first time since January 15-17, 2004, a span of 38 games ... Givens tied her season-high with 17 points in the contest, her second straight game and the third time in the last five contests the sophomore has tallied 17 points. Givens also set a career-high with 16 shot attempts and seven free throw attempts in the outing, and tied her career-high by making five free throws. She also played all 40 minutes for the second straight game ... Givens led the Lady Raiders in both points, rebounds and assists in the game, her fifth consecutive game to lead the squad in rebounds ... Senior Ciara Gray tied her season-high with four rebounds ... The loss ended a three-game winning streak for Middle Tennessee against FIU, dating to the 2002-03 season.

Stephany Smith

Head Coach ● Harding, 1988 ● 8th Season ● 147-87 (.628)

Coach Stephany Smith is entering her eighth year at the helm of the Lady Raider basketball program with high expectations.

Smith made an appearance in the NCAA Tournament for the second time in her seven-year reign last season and is looking to repeat that feat in 2005. After garnering the first 20-win mark of her career in 2003-04, Smith led her athletic squad to a Sun Belt Tournament title in just the school's fourth year in the league. She also coached junior stand-out Patrice Holmes to her second straight Sun Belt Tournament Most Outstanding Player award.

For the first time in her career and the second time in school history, the team made it to the second round of the NCAA Tournament with a 67-62 win over No. 12 North Carolina. The win, by No. 13 seed Middle Tennessee, was just the third time in NCAA Tournament history a 13 seed knocked off a No. 4 seed.

The Brookhaven, Miss., native has established herself as one of college basketball's brightest young coaches and is looking forward to the season ahead.

Completing her seventh campaign, Smith's record stands as a testament to her hard work, excellent recruiting skills, and knowledge of the game. In seven seasons, Smith sports a 129-79 record and has not only the 2004 Sun Belt Tournament Title but an OVC regular season title and an OVC Tournament title to her credit. The NCAA berth in 2003-04 was the fourth team Smith has led into postseason play, with an NCAA berth in 1998 and WNIT bids in 1999 and 2001.

Smith did not enter into her first head coaching job blindly. She spent four years as an assistant at Middle Tennessee to former head coach Lewis Bivens, handling the team's recruiting efforts. Smith was promoted to associate head coach in her final season under Bivens.

The 1995-96 squad went 24-6, the second-most victories in school history, before falling to Kansas in the first round of the NCAA Tournament in Lawrence, Kan. The Lady Raiders were OVC Co-Champions in 1995 and 1996, compiling 64 wins in Smith's first three seasons on the staff. Fruits of her labors at Middle Tennessee were shown in 1996 when the Lady Raiders received votes in both collegiate polls, ranking as high as 26th. The school received its first at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament to further attest the program's growing stature.

Smith spent four years as an assistant at UAB before her arrival at Middle Tennessee, coordinating recruiting for the Blazers. UAB went 76-45 during her four seasons on the staff, winning or tying for the Sun Belt Conference crown twice (1990, '91) and sharing the Great Midwest Conference title in 1992. The Lady Blazers made two WNIT trips (1991, '92) during Smith's association with the UAB program.

She spent one year as a graduate assistant at her alma mater, Harding University, in 1989. Teams associated with Smith have a 255-158 record during her 14 years on the Division I level, including four 20-plus win seasons and two 19-win campaigns.

Smith's claim to fame is recruiting: as she has established a reputation as one of the game's top young coaches and as a top-flight recruiter. She is also a teacher of the game holding a coaching clinic over the summer to instruct other coaches on various offenses. Three of her former players have gone on to play in the professional ranks including former Lady Raider Joanne Aluka who played in Portugal and was a member of the Nigerian women's basketball team at the 2004 Summer Olympics in Athens.

Jacque Nero played six years overseas before being selected fourth by Nashville in the 1998 ABL draft. Shyronda Mifflin has played four seasons overseas and was on the Atlanta Glory's practice squad for part of the 1998 season before returning to Spain.

Her coaching philosophy stresses establishing fundamental knowledge of the game in practice. The repetition of fundamentals in practice allows her players the freedom to use that knowledge coupled with their athletic skills over the course of a game. An intense conditioning regimen also lends Smith's squad the opportunity to play an up-tempo style predicated on defensive intensity.

Smith graduated from Harding University in Searcy, Ark., with a B.A. in Physical Education in May of 1988 before receiving an M.S.E. in 1989 . She began her career at Copiah-Lincoln Community College in Wesson, Miss. She received an associate's degree from Co-Lin in May of 1986.

Smith competed in basketball at both Co-Lin and Harding and also spent a year as the head girls track coach at Searcy High School in 1989 while completing her Master's degree at Harding.

Smith is truly people-oriented. She has planned and directed numerous non-profit clinics at Middle Tennessee and UAB for girls to further promote the game of basketball. She now heads up one of the most successful camps in the country, the Middle Tennessee "Stars of Tomorrow" camp, each summer. She is the daughter of Ralph and Betsy Smith. She has three brothers (Ralph, Richard, Cameron) and one sister (Sydney).

Smith Goes for 150

Lady Raider head coach Stephany Smith is approaching her 150th career victory at Middle Tennessee, and will do so as the second fastest coach to reach the milestone in the storied program's history. Smith has 147 wins in 234 games heading into Saturday's contest versus Florida International. She trails only Larry Inman as the fastest to reach 150 wins in Middle Tennessee history. Smith will also become just the third head coach in Lady Raider history to reach 150 victories.
