Middle Tennessee (3-2) vs. Southeastern Louisiana (5-6)

When: March 4-6, 2005
Site: Murfreesboro, Tenn. (Reese Smith Field)
Radio: Chip Walters -- 88.3 FM (Saturday only)
Series: Middle Tennessee leads 7-6
Last Meeting: Middle Tennessee 14, Southeastern Louisiana 8 (Hammond, La. - 3/07/04)
Notes: Middle Tennessee opens a three-game homestand against the Lions of Southeastern Louisiana ... The Blue Raiders swept a three-game series against SLU last season in Hammond, including a doubleheader on Saturday ... Middle Tennessee won 2-of-3 in the only meetings between the two teams in Murfreesboro, February 23-25, 2001.

Martin Catches Fire

Junior Todd Martin's hitting stroke came to life last weekend at the ScreenTech Wiregrass Classic in Dothan, Ala., with Martin going 6-for-7 in two games over the weekend against Big Ten foes, as the Blue Raiders split a pair of contests in the tournament. Martin was a perfect 4-for-4 with a solo homer against Ohio State, and went 2-for-3 with two walks and two runs scored in a victory over Iowa. He was 1-for-4 with two RBIs and two line drive outs at Belmont on Wednesday, as well. The University of Tennessee transfer has started all five games in centerfield in his first season as a Blue Raider and leads the club with a .444 batting average (8-for-18) heading into this weekend's series against Southeastern Louisiana.

Anderson's Relief Work Gets Victory

Redshirt sophomore Josh Anderson tossed 3.2 scoreless innings of relief on Saturday to pick up his first collegiate win in an 11-9 victory over Iowa. The lefthander had pitched to just two batters in his career before Saturday's outing, one in 2004 and one the first weekend of the season. Anderson allowed three hits and struck out three in getting the final 11 outs of the contest. The lefthander got six groundball outs, working ahead and making the Hawkeyes put the ball in play.

Eakes Continues to Produce as DH

Junior Chase Eakes had a strong showing during the opening weekend and continued to hit well in the two games last weekend in Dothan, Ala. Eakes had three more hits and drove in two runs in the two contests and ranks second on the club in batting average at .412 (7-for-17). He is second with five RBIs and has scored three runs. Eakes was 4-for-8 during the opening weekend against Ball State, blasting his second career home run on Saturday and equaling his career-high with three RBIs in the same game against the Cardinals. Eakes was 3-for-4 with three RBIs and two runs scored in Saturday's 11-2 victory, belting a two-run homer and an RBI single. Saturday marked the fourth multi-hit game of Eakes' career. The junior was the designated hitter in the first four games this season after serving as the DH just twice before this campaign. Eakes had minor surgery on Wednesday and will be out 10 days to two weeks.

Taylor Being More Consistent

Junior Marcus Taylor has never had a problem driving the baseball during his first two seasons as a Blue Raider. Taylor has posted slugging percentages of .451 and .500, respectively, during his two campaigns. His trouble has been more in the area of making contact, striking out 99 times in 259 career at-bats before this season. But the Lexington, Ky., native has worked hard during the offseason to drive the ball to all fields, and the work has paid off. Taylor is 6-for-16 (.375) through five games with two doubles, four RBIs and five runs scored. Even more important, he has just four strikeouts and has continued to show a patient eye at the plate, recording six walks after collecting 30 free passes last season.

Copeland Gets First Win

Redshirt sophomore Tyler Copeland finally got to make his first career start on Wednesday at Belmont after suffering through a pair of Sunday rainouts on the opening two weekends of the year. The lefthander allowed two runs in five innings to get his first collegiate victory. Copeland gave up six hits and walked three, but stranded six runners to keep the Bruins from getting back in the game.

Notes from Belmont

The same starting nine had been used in the first four games of the season until Wednesday's contest, with Adam Darby and Adam Warren drawing the starting nods, the first career starts for both players. Darby was the DH in place of Chase Eakes, who had minor surgery on Wednesday and should be back in 10 days to two weeks. Warren was playing for Nathan Hines, who was home sick with the flu ... Jeff Beachum stole his first base of the year after leading the squad with 14 in 2004 ... Marcus Taylor tied his career-high with three walks in the contest ... Middle Tennessee drew nine walks in the game, the most since taking 12 free passes at Vanderbilt on May 19, 2004 ... Starting pitcher Tyler Copeland tossed a career-high 5.0 innings and picked up his first career victory ... Sophomore Adam Warren set career-highs with four at-bats, two hits, two runs scored and collected the first double and the first two RBIs of his career ... Freshman Adam Darby went 1-for-3 with one RBI and two walks as well as a stolen base ... Junior Todd Martin registered his first double and the first two-RBI game of his career ... Junior Alan Woodward got the final six outs of the game, striking out four.

Notes from the ScreenTech Wiregrass Baseball Classic

Freshman Nathan Hines drove in his first career run with a groundout in the third inning against Ohio State ... Junior Alan Woodward made his first career appearance in the sixth inning ... Junior transfer Todd Martin hit his first home run as a Blue Raider, a solo shot in the ninth inning ... After making only 10 errors in more than 250 chances last season, senior Eric McNamee already has three miscues in the first four games in 2005 ... Middle Tennessee is off to a slow start, but that's nothing unusual under head coach Steve Peterson. Now in his 18th season, the Blue Raiders stand 41-46-1 in the month of February with this year's 2-2 start ... Lefthander Josh Anderson tossed 3.2 scoreless innings of relief to get the win over Iowa Sunday, his first collegiate victory in just his third appearance ... Outfielder Todd Martin was 6-for-7 in the two games over the weekend, including a perfect 4-for-4 with a solo homer on Friday versus Ohio State.

Peterson Nears 700

Middle Tennessee skipper Steve Peterson is just two wins shy of 700 for his career, owning a 698-524-2 overall mark as a head coach. Peterson has accumulated a 545-428-2 mark in 17-plus seasons at Middle Tennessee and posted a 153-96 record as head coach at Roane State CC in six seasons. Peterson is the winningest coach in Middle Tennessee history, ahead of former skipper and athletic director John Stanford (1974-87, 402-272-4).

Streaks

The Blue Raiders have a pair of players who have hit safely in all five games this season - senior Nate Jaggers and junior Jeff Beachum. Jaggers went 3-for-5 with three runs scored and four RBIs in the win over Belmont Wednesday and ranks third on the club in hitting at .409 (9-for-22). Dating to the end of 2004, Jaggers has hit in nine straight outings, posting a .371 average (13-for-35) during the stretch. Beachum is fourth in batting at .381 (8-for-21) on the club and has three two-hit outings so far this season. Junior Chase Eakes hit safely in the four first games of the season, but will miss the next 10 days to two weeks after minor surgery on Wednesday. Junior Todd Martin brings a four-game hitting streak into this weekend's series with Southeastern Louisiana, including a 4-for-4 effort against Ohio State last Friday.

Last Time Against the Lions

Pitching was the name of the game in the first two games last season in Hammond, with Chris Mobley and John Williams allowing just one earned run in 16 innings of work in a doubleheader. Mobley struck out nine and gave up two unearned runs, while Williams went 8.2 innings in the nightcap, giving up one run and striking out 11 in one of the best performances of his career. Marcus Taylor hit a two-run bomb to tie the game and had three hits, and Michael McKenry's grand slam broke in the eighth broke was the final blow in an eight-run eighth inning in a 10-5 win in the opener. The Raiders scraped together four runs on eight hits in the nightcap for a 4-1 victory. On Sunday the bats came to life for both teams, with Middle Tennessee pounding out 16 hits against six SLU hurlers in a 14-8 triumph.

Blue Raiders Add Six Fall Signees

Middle Tennessee inked six players to national letters-of-intent during the early signing period, the largest fall class for the Blue Raiders in 15 years. The six include: righthander Brett Smalley from Hixson HS in Hixson, Tenn.; infielder Myles Ervin from Notre Dame HS in Chattanooga, Tenn.; righthander Allan Woodward from Maple Woods CC and Columbia, Mo.; Brandon Brokaw from Fort Zumwalt South HS in St. Peters, Mo.; Dillon Heath from Davidson Academy in Nashville, Tenn.; and Brett Reilley from Olney Central JC and Fort Wayne, Ind. Ervin plays for former Blue Raider George Oleksik at Notre Dame, while Woodward enrolled in January and will be a member of this season's pitching staff.

Steve Peterson

Head Coach ● Jacksonville State/1973 ● 18th Season ● 545-428-2 (.559), 698-524-2 (.570) overall

There are many adjectives to describe the job Steve Peterson has done as Middle Tennessee's highly successful baseball coach since 1988. Coach, fundraiser, teacher, recruiter and architect are just a few, but if you are looking for one word to sum his contributions as the Blue Raiders' longtime skipper, try winner.

Peterson begins his 18th season heading the Blue Raider program as the school's all-time winningest coach with 542 victories and a stockpile of conference championships and NCAA Tournament berths to his credit, demonstrating the consistency with which the driven skipper has guided the club.

Middle Tennessee has been a model program on Peterson's watch and the proof is in the success the Blue Raiders have achieved. The veteran coach has led Middle Tennessee to 10 regular-season conference championships, eight conference tournament titles and seven NCAA Regional berths, including two at-large selections in the past four years. Peterson guided the Blue Raiders to seven consecutive championships – either regular-season or tournament – during one stretch, proving Middle Tennessee doesn't rebuild, it reloads.

Peterson, who enters the 2005 season with a sterling 542-426-2 mark, has produced 10 seasons with 30 or more wins, including a school-record 42 victories in 1990. He also has three campaigns of at least 40 wins, including last season's 40-22 club.

The constant manner in which Middle Tennessee has enjoyed success during Peterson's tenure is a direct reflection on recruiting and developing talent and the proof was never more evident than in 2001 – the Blue Raiders' first season as a member of the Sun Belt Conference after years of success in the Ohio Valley.

Asked how the move into the Sun Belt, rated one of the nation's Top 5 baseball leagues at the time and consistently a Top 10 conference, would change his recruiting philosophy, Peterson quickly responded, "none at all." The 2001 Blue Raiders then went out and shared the Sun Belt championship with South Alabama during their first year in the high-profile league and the majority of the chief contributors were the same performers who led Middle Tennessee to the 2000 Ohio Valley Conference championship.

The move to a higher-rated conference has not hurt Middle Tennessee's status. If anything, it has helped. In its first four years in the Sun Belt, Peterson's teams have won two regular-season championships, a tournament championship and earned three NCAA Regional berths, including two at-large selections for the first time in school history. The 2001 squad earned national acclaim for its pitching and hitting and the season concluded with pitcher Dewon Brazelton being selected as the No. 3 overall pick of the Tampa Bay Devil Rays in the Major League Baseball First-Year Amateur Player Draft. Brazelton was one of six players from the team to earn a spot on a professional baseball roster that season.

A program cannot enjoy consistent success without quality players and Peterson, a three-time Coach of the Year, has not only made a habit of making sure Middle Tennessee has its share of quality performers, but he's won by constantly signing prep players and developing them at the college level. The proof is in the fact Peterson has coached a Sun Belt Player of the Year and six OVC Players of the Year, a Sun Belt Pitcher of the Year and an OVC Pitcher of the Year, a First-Team All-American, four Third-Team All-Americans, four Freshman All-Americans, and 35 first-team All-Conference performers.

Players who have honed their skills under Peterson also have had an outstanding rate of continuing their careers at the professional level. Professional baseball has seen 46 former Peterson performers earning the chance to play at the game's highest level, with four making their way to the Major Leagues.

If that's not enough, Peterson's recruits have established most of the offensive records held at Middle Tennessee and three players he has developed have hit .400 or better in a season, along with the school's single-season and career home run record holders. His 1997 squad established the all-time record for batting average with a .323 clip.

Peterson's players not only have been solid on the field at the collegiate level and continued their careers professionally, but a large majority have taken the skills and fundamentals learned at Middle Tennessee and are earning a living as coaches at various levels. Twenty-five former Blue Raiders are currently coaching at the high school, college or professional levels.

Peterson's peers have recognized his achievements and contributions to the game by bestowing several honors on him. He was named the Tennessee Baseball Coaches Association College Coach of the Year in 1992 and again in 2000. He was also inducted into the Rutherford County Old Timers Baseball Hall of Fame in 2003. Fellow coaches have named Peterson Coach of the Year on three occasions – twice in the Ohio Valley and again in 2004, his first such honor in the Sun Belt.

Peterson's outgoing and personable personality has made him a hit with fans, boosters, players and recruits, alike. Baseball enthusiasts throughout the Middle Tennessee community clearly appreciate his hard-nosed and aggressive style of play, as fans continue to flock to Reese Smith Field at a record pace. The Blue Raiders established a single-game attendance record in 2001 at Reese Smith Field with a crowd of 2,733 against South Alabama. The team went on to set the single-season attendance mark with 26,218 coming through the gates at Reese Smith Field. The 2004 squad saw 15 crowds of 1,000 or more during the season. Those numbers were surpassed in 2004 when the team set a single-game attendance record of 3,020 against Vanderbilt, as well as setting a new single-season attendance mark of 30,319, ranking 46th nationally in attendance for the season. Fifteen contests drew more than 1,000 patrons during the record-setting campaign.

Not only has Peterson been a winner on the field, but he's been a successful fundraiser during his career as well. Events such as the annual Chuck Taylor Golf Tournament, the Groundhog Day Luncheon and the Grand Slam Fish Fry in the fall have become mainstays on calendars of Blue Raider baseball supporters across middle Tennessee and have served to raise thousands of dollars for the improvement of Blue Raider baseball.

Peterson spearheaded the efforts to pay for the construction of the Stephen B. Smith Clubhouse and Indoor Training Facility, which opened its doors in 1998. One look inside the facility shows the time and effort spent toward this endeavor. It has become known as one of the finest collegiate clubhouses and training facilities in the country.

Reese Smith Field also has benefited from Peterson's fundraising abilities. He has helped transform the park into a fan-friendly area by expanding the seating area, putting up a new information center just inside the gate, and expanding the restroom and concession facilities.

Peterson guided efforts during the summer of 2001 to expand the dugouts at Reese Smith Field. He also is currently spearheading an effort that would totally renovate the stadium. The plans would call for a significant remodeling of the concession stand, improve and expanded restroom facilities and a modern press box that would accommodate radio and television, along with print media.

While Peterson has spent 18 seasons leading the Middle Tennessee baseball program, his tenure with the program is much longer. He took two separate tours with the Blue Raiders as an assistant coach under John Stanford prior to becoming the team's head coach. During his runs between 1976-78 and 1985-87, the Blue Raiders won two OVC titles and four southern division crowns.

During the interim, Peterson served as the head coach at Roane State Community College in Harriman, Tenn. During his tenure from 1979-84, Peterson's teams won a Tennessee state title in 1981 and he was twice named TJCAA Coach of the Year (1981, '84). While at Roane State, Peterson put together a sparkling record of 153-96, a .614 winning percentage.

A native of Huntsville, Ala., Peterson stood out as a catcher under the legendary Rudy Abbott at Jacksonville State. He earned his bachelor's from Jacksonville State in 1983 and later earned a master's from Middle Tennessee in 1977.

Peterson is married to the former Rita Albert and the couple has three children, Jill, Jenny and John, and one grandchild, Hayden Wright. Away from the diamond, Peterson enjoys fishing for smallmouth bass.
