Middle Tennessee (27-21, 10-10)

When: May 18-20, 2006
Site: Troy, Ala. (Riddle-Pace Field)
Radio 88.3 FM WMTS -- David Reed
Notes: Middle Tennessee ends the regular season with a three-game series at Troy, the first Sun Belt series between the two schools with the Trojans entering the league this season ... Troy leads the all-time series, 10-8, since 1992 and have won four of seven between the two school since 2002 ... Middle Tennessee dropped a pair of games at home to Troy in 2004, 2-1 and 18-13 ... The Blue Raiders are fourth in the Sun Belt heading into the weekend and without any major changes will play Florida International in the first round of the conference tournament next week in Bowling Green, Ky.

Middle Tennessee vs. Troy

Middle Tennessee trails the all-time series, 10-8, since 1992, and is 4-5 in the series at Troy. The Trojans won 2-of-3 in the last meeting between the two clubs at Riddle-Pace Field, February 22-24, 2002. The Blue Raiders won 2-of-3 at Troy in 1993 but dropped 2-of-3 to the Trojans on the road in 1994.

Last Time Against the Troy

Brent Adcock, a Tullahoma, Tenn., native, allowed just two hits and an unearned run in eight innings and the Trojans scored twice in the first on their way to a 2-1 win on Tuesday. The next day was just the opposite, as the two clubs combined for 31 runs and 35 hits in an 18-13 Troy victory for a two-game sweep in Murfreesboro.

Tidbits

Middle Tennessee is 5-4 in the month of May this season and 41-17 in the month of May since the start of the 2003 season ... The Blue Raiders have recorded double-digit hits in a game 35 times this year, including 13 of the last 15 and 27 of the last 30. Middle Tennessee is 24-11 in 2006 when collecting more than 10 hits in a game … The current .328 team batting average is five points higher than the school record for team average in a season (.323, 1997) … The Blue Raiders have 64 home runs this season as a team, including 22 in the last 11 games. Middle Tennessee hit four against both Arkansas State and Memphis and 10 at Florida International before adding four in three games versus Louisiana-Lafayette.

Last Time in Troy

The two teams combined for 51 runs and 74 hits in a three-game series at Riddle-Pace Field. Troy won 16-6 on Friday and the rubber game on Sunday, 10-7. The Trojans scored seven times in their last two at-bats for the Sunday victory, erasing an early 5-1 lead by the Blue Raiders. On Friday Troy scored five times in the first two innings and then sent 15 batters to the plate in the fifth, plating nine runs in a 16-6 triumph. In Middle Tennessee's 8-4 win on Saturday, the Blue Raiders used a six-run fourth inning to break open a one-run game.

Against the Trojans

Jeff Beachum was 3-for-9 with a home run, two RBIs and three runs scored in the two games in 2004. No other player has more than three at-bats. Shay Horseman started the 2-1 loss, allowing both runs and striking out 10 in a career-high 6.1 innings. Jeff Kasser worked three innings of relief in the series, giving up one earned run.

Marrs Voted Player of the Week

Middle Tennessee's Nick Marrs was voted Sun Belt Pitcher of the Week on Monday after tossing eight-plus innings in his first career start in a 5-4 win over Louisiana-Lafayette on Sunday. Marrs drew the first start of his career on Sunday, working into the ninth and allowing only a solo homer while he was in the game. He left the contest with two runners on in the ninth and no one out. The Blue Raiders posted a 5-4 victory, their only win of the series against Louisiana-Lafayette. Marrs gave up just five hits, walked two and struck out six, tossing 108 pitches. The righthander had worked just 14 innings all season before Sunday's appearance, his 11th of the year. He also picked up his first win at Middle Tennessee in the game.

Peterson Picks up No. 600

Middle Tennessee head coach Steve Peterson posted his 600th career victory at Middle Tennessee in the May 10, 8-7, win over Memphis. Peterson is the winningest coach in Blue Raider baseball history and owns a career mark of 601-470-2 in his 19 seasons as head coach at Middle Tennessee. Peterson's overall mark of 754-564-2

McKenry Finally Hits Skid

Junior Michael McKenry finally hit a bit of a slump, dropping his batting average below the .400 mark to its lowest mark in 25 games - April 7 at New Orleans. In his last four games the Knoxville, Tenn., native is just 3-for-15 (.200) with no runs scored and one RBI. During a 21-game stretch from April 7-May 10, McKenry was 38-for-85 (.447) with five doubles, nine home runs, 25 runs scored and 35 RBIs. He also had 12 walks, was hit five times, had a .536 on-base percentage and an .824 slugging percentage during the stretch. He was hitless in the third, fourth and fifth games of the season and again April 26 and 28, the only consecutive games the Farragut HS product has been hitless all season. He ranks first or second on the club in batting average (.396), hits (72), doubles (12), home runs (13), RBIs (60), walks (32), slugging percentage (.705) and on-base percentage (.496).

Campbell Comes up with Big Hits

Junior Matt Campbell has played sparingly in his career but has taken advantage of his limited opportunities this season, delivering game-changing hits for the Blue Raiders in three of his six Sun Belt starts. Campbell hit a game-winning home run in the eighth inning against Western Kentucky on April 14, his first career start in a Sun Belt game and just the second start of his career in any game. The Murfreesboro, Tenn., native again took advantage of playing time last weekend against Louisiana-Lafayette, tying the game early with a solo homer in Saturday's 7-5 loss before hitting a two-run shot in Middle Tennessee's 5-4 triumph on Sunday. Campbell was 3-for-7 in two starts against UL and is batting .344 in 14 games this season, eight starts, with three home runs and seven RBIs.

Martin Voted Academic All-District

Middle Tennessee senior Todd Martin has been named to the ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District baseball team, earning Second Team honors. Martin carries a 3.25 grade-point-average in Business at Middle Tennessee. The Cookeville, Tenn., native earned Third Team All-America honors last season for the Blue Raiders after batting .412 with 13 doubles, eight home runs and 31 RBIs. This season Martin is batting .356 in 44 games, leading the Sun Belt with 15 home runs and driving in 53. Martin is the first Blue Raider baseball player named to the Academic All-District team since Chuck Akers earned Second Team honors in 2003.

Seven Current, Former Players Graduate

Seven current or former Middle Tennessee baseball players and managers graduated on May 6 in Commencement ceremonies. Former Blue Raiders John Williams (BS in Concrete Industry Management, Concentration in Production, Sales and Service, minor in Business Administration) and Eric

2006 Coleman Company-Johnny Bench Award Semifinalists Announced

The Greater Wichita Area Sports Commission announced May 11 the list of 10 semifinalists for the 2006 Coleman Company-Johnny Bench Award. This award is presented annually at the Greater Wichita Sports Banquet to the nation's top collegiate catcher, as voted on by the national voting committee, which is comprised of sportswriters, sportscasters, Division I coaches and scouts. A comprehensive biography will be created on each of the semifinalists and sent to the national voting committee at the end of May for a vote to determine the three finalists. The finalists will be announced June 1, 2006. A final vote among the national selection committee will occur during the College World Series. All three finalists and their coaches will be invited to Wichita for the 9th Annual Greater Wichita Sports Banquet on June 28, 2006, at the Hyatt Regency Hotel in downtown Wichita. Johnny Bench will present the award to the recipient. The Coleman Company-Johnny Bench Award semifinalists are (in alphabetical order): J.P. Arencibia, Tennessee; Ryan Bono, Central Florida; Zach Dillon, Baylor; Jeff Kunkel, Michigan; Matt McBride, Lehigh; Michael McKenry, Middle Tennessee; Jordan Newton, Western Kentucky; Eddy Rodriguez, Miami (FL); Jake Smith, East Carolina; and Chad Tracy, Pepperdine.

Beachum's Senior Year a Special One

Senior Jeff Beachum has always been a consistent player for Middle Tennessee, but the Cordova, Tenn., native is having by far the best season of his career in 2006. Beachum ranks first on the squad in batting average (.397), almost 70 points above his career average heading into this season. He is also first in doubles (15), hits (87) and second in stolen bases (10) and runs scored (51). Beachum is sixth in the Sun Belt in batting and fourth in hits. In Sun Belt games only, the Cordova HS product's .421 batting average ranks fourth and his 40 hits are tied for second-best in the league.

Beachum Also Rewriting Record Books

Senior Jeff Beachum is not only having his best season at the plate, but the four-year starter is rewriting the career record books at Middle Tennessee. The Cordova HS product set the all-time hits record April 11 against Austin Peay with his first home run of the season. Beachum has 312 career hits heading into the three-game series at Troy, ranking second on the all-time Sun Belt list behind only Ernie Carr (Jacksonville Univ., 318, 1985-88). Beachum has played in 218 career games at Middle Tennessee, the fifth most in school history, and also ranks second in runs scored (168), first in at-bats (906) and singles (246), second in doubles (54), second in total bases (398), ninth in RBIs

TIDBITS

Blue Raiders Picked Fifth in Preseason Poll; Five Members Voted to Preseason All-SBC Team: Middle Tennessee's baseball team was picked fifth in the Sun Belt Preseason Coaches Poll while five players were named to the first-ever Preseason All-SBC Team, released by the conference office in January. South Alabama received six of nine first-place votes in taking the top spot in the preseason poll with 78 points. The next four spots were separated by just seven points, with Louisiana-Lafayette, the defending regular season champion, claiming two first-place votes and 61 points. Florida International and Troy tied for third with 55 points, with the Blue Raiders receiving one first-place vote and 54 points in fifth. Middle Tennessee was also picked fifth by Collegiate Baseball and Baseball America. Arkansas State, New Orleans, Western Kentucky and Arkansas-Little Rock rounded out the vote. In the first-ever Preseason All-Sun Belt team, five Blue Raiders were voted to the team, including junior Matt Scott earning Preseason Sun Belt Pitcher of the Year honors. Also earning one of the two relief spots was senior Allan Woodward. Senior Todd Martin was voted to the designated hitter spot. Senior Jeff Beachum was voted the team's shortstop. Sophomore Nathan Hines earned one of the three outfield spots.

(134) and second in sacrifices (25). He is also tied for seventh on the Sun Belt doubles list with 54 (Tyrone Dixon, South Alabama, 1990-93). A full listing of Middle Tennessee career records appears on pages 17-18 of these notes.

Scott Continues to Rack up Wins

Junior righthander Matt Scott compiled a 10-1 mark in 2005 and thus far has recorded a 7-2 record with a 3.51 ERA in 74.1 innings of work, starting 11 games and striking out 44. In Sun Belt contests, the Smyrna, Tenn., native is 4-1 with a 4.10 ERA in 48.1 innings of work, striking out 33 in seven starts. For his career Scott is now 20-4 overall, tied for the best winning percentage (.833) in school history, and is seventh on the all-time wins list, passing Steve Sonneberger (1983-86) and Greg Johnson (1985-87) with a victory on May 5 at Florida International. In the Sun Belt, Scott ranks ninth overall in pitching and his seven wins are tied for third with four others.

Hitting Streak Ends at 14 for Hines

Sophomore Nathan Hines struggled with injuries and a lack of confidence at the plate early in the season and had only 24 at-bats in the month of March. Hines put together a career-high 14-game hitting streak April 12-May 9, raising his season average 110 points to its current .264. During the 14-game stretch the Murfreesboro, Tenn., native was 22-for-58 (.379) with four doubles, three home runs, 18 runs scored and 12 RBIs. Hines had five hits, including a double, and scored three times at Florida International. He is batting .288 (15-for-52) with 10 RBIs and 10 runs scored in 14 Sun Belt games.

More on Beachum

Senior Jeff Beachum had a 14-game hitting streak come to an end on April 26 against Tennessee Tech with a 0-for-4 effort, a career-long for Beachum during one season. He hit in 15 consecutive games spanning the end of 2005 and the first four games of this year. During the 14-game stretch, Beachum was 30-for-70 (.429) with five doubles, 13 RBIs and 19 runs scored. This season he has hit safely in 43 of the 48 contests and has 32 multi-hit games in 48 outings. In his career Beachum has 99 multi-hit outings in 218 career games. He also recorded a career-high five hits on May 9 against Memphis.

And Another Thing

Jeff Beachum is not only rewriting the career record books at Middle Tennessee, he along with Todd Martin and Michael McKenry are near the top in several single-season offensive categories. Beachum needs just eight hits to become the single-season leader and pass Bryan Peck (2000) and Josh Renick (2001) for first place. Beachum and McKenry are batting .397 and .393, respectively, heading into the three-game series at Troy, a number that rank sixth and tied for seventh in the single-season record books. McKenry's .496 on-base percentage would stand sixth in a season, while Beachum's 69 singles are only five from tying Craig Reavis (1995) for first place. Martin's 15 home runs is tied for ninth and the senior needs two more to tie Bryan Peck (1999, 2000) and Jayhawk Owens (1990) for sixth on the single-season list. McKenry's 60 RBIs ties Nate Jaggers (2005) for fifth and the junior needs six more to tie Owens (1990) and Justin Sims (2001) for third place. McKenry and Martin both have slugging percentages that would rank in the Top 10 as well, and McKenry needs only six total bases to enter the single-season list. Junior Wayne Kendrick's eight sacrifices are tied for fourth most in a season with Jason Howarth (1999) and Darryl Steakley (1988).

Kendrick's Hitting Slump Not Slowing His Scoring of Runs

Junior Wayne Kendrick has stepped into the second base role vacated by departed senior Eric McNamee and picked right up where McNamee left off, hitting for average, drawing walks and most importantly, scoring runs for the Blue Raiders. The Murfreesboro, Tenn., native leads the team with 53 runs scored heading into the three-game series at Troy and is second on the squad with 27 walks. Kendrick has struggled at the plate in the last 11 games, going 11-for-44 (.250), but he has scored 11 times in the 11 contests and showed signs of returning to form with a pair of hits in the finale on Sunday against Louisiana-Lafayette and two more on Tuesday at Vanderbilt. His .428 on-base percentage is fourth best on the club. Kendrick had a career-long 12-game hitting streak from March 25-April 15, batting .370 (20-for-54) with four doubles, nine walks, six RBIs and 17 runs scored. For the season the Riverdale HS product ranks fifth for the Blue Raiders in batting average (.330), fourth in hits (62) and third in stolen bases (8), starting all but one game at second base.

Martin Finding Hitting Stroke from Last Season; Continues to Belt Homers

Senior Todd Martin battled elbow and knee injuries last season, limiting his power production in home runs (8) and doubles (13). This season the Cookeville, Tenn., native has been healthier than in 2005 and his power numbers are both up. He has also found his hitting stroke from last season when the Cookeville HS product batted .412. Martin currently leads the Blue Raiders and the Sun Belt Conference with 15 home runs while adding eight doubles and 53 RBIs. He currently has a career-best 16-game hitting streak, batting .431 (28-for-65) during the stretch with seven home runs, 21 RBIs and 17 runs scored with an .800 slugging percentage. He has been the designated hitter and played both first base and centerfield this season, returning to the outfield midway through this season and drawing 15 starts in center. At Florida International on May 5-7, Martin was 7-for-14 (.500) with six runs scored and seven RBIs, homering in all three contests. He moved into a tie for ninth on the single-season home runs list with his 15th on May 10 against Memphis, tying Dwight Robinson (1990), Jamie Walker (1995) and Josh Archer (2003).

Taylor Finds Home Run Trot

Senior Marcus Taylor has been in and out of the lineup all season, starting 29 games and playing in 41 overall for the Blue Raiders. His talent and raw power have never been questioned, only his ability to put the ball in play with consistency. In his career the Louisville, Ky., native has 136 hits in 149 career starts, with 71 of the hits going for extra bases (37 doubles, 4 triples, 30 home runs), or 52 percent. But he has also struck out 188 times in 554 career at-bats (34 percent). Taylor took advantage of three straight starts at Florida International on May 5-7, homering in all three games, scoring five times and driving in four runs. He struck out only once in 13 at-bats. He continued the string of good plate appearances in games against Memphis on May 9-10, collecting three hits in seven at-bats, including another home run, and just one strikeout. He added his 11th home run of the season last weekend against Louisiana-Lafayette, a three-run shot on Saturday that pulled the Blue Raiders within 6-4 in a loss. The Henry Clay HS product now has 26 RBIs and a .610 slugging percentage for the season, with 21 of his 31 hits going for extra bases. He had an eight-game hitting streak end on Friday against UL, batting .400 (10-for-25) with four doubles, four home runs, seven RBIs, nine RBIs and more important, just two strikeouts, during the stretch. He has five home runs in the last nine games, going 10-for-34 (.294) in the nine contests.

Horn Consistent All Season

Senior Josh Horn, a first-year starter and walk-on, has been a consistent performer for the Blue Raiders all season at the hot corner and at the plate. The Shelbyville, Tenn., native has started every game at third base this season, making all of the routine plays and several outstanding grabs. At the plate is where Horn has made his biggest contribution, though, batting .337, fourth-best on the squad, with 12 doubles, six home runs and 34 RBIs. He has batted ninth in 32 of the 48 games this season, driving in runs and starting rallies, as he has also scored 35 times. His average has not fallen below .305 and the Columbia State CC transfer has batted .377 (26-for-69) over the past 17 contests with four doubles, three home runs, 19 RBIs and 17 runs scored. He had a career-best nine-game hitting streak come to an end Sunday against Louisiana-Lafayette. During the stretch, Horn batted .462 (18-for-39) with seven multi-hit outings, 12 runs scored and 14 RBIs.

Woodward Stellar at the End

Senior Allan Woodward stepped into the closer's role last season for Middle Tennessee, stabilizing the bullpen in the Blue Raiders run to the Sun Belt Tournament championship game. The righthander has been stellar in almost every appearance this season, though his 4.55 says otherwise. Subtract two appearances for Woodward this season – April 7 at New Orleans and April 23 at South Alabama – and the Columbia, Mo., native is 2-1 with four saves and a 1.93 ERA in 28.0 innings of work, striking out 37 with opponents batting only .228. In those 21 appearances, Woodward has allowed just 23 base hits, two for extra bases (both doubles), and six runs. Unfortunately Woodward twisted his ankle in the outfield during batting practice on Sunday against Louisiana-Lafayette when he stepped on a ball while running and is unavailable for Tuesday's game at Vanderbilt.

Streaks

Senior Todd Martin carries a career-best 16-game hitting streak heading into the three-game series at Troy. The 16-game stretch is the longest by a Blue Raider since the start of the 1999 season. During the 16 games, Martin is batting .431 (28-for-65) with seven home runs, 21 RBIs and 17 runs scored with an .800 slugging percentage. Senior Jeff Beachum has an 11-game hitting streak heading

Chuck Taylor Golf Tournament Set

Middle Tennessee head baseball coach Steve Peterson has announced the annual Chuck Taylor Golf Tournament will be played at Indian Hills Golf Course on Tuesday, June 6, 2006. As usual, the event will be a four-person scramble with prizes awarded for first through fifth place. Prizes will also be given for Closest-to-the-Pin and Longest Drive. A hole-in-one on any par 3 on the course will be awarded prizes as well. Each entry into the tournament will receive a barbecue lunch, a goody bag, free beverages on the course, a red tee and mulligan, and a chance for a big money prize for an ace on hole number seven. The entry fee is $115 per player. The tournament committee is also seeking hole sponsors for $100 each. Registration for the tournament is slated to begin at 11:30 a.m. with a shotgun start scheduled for 1 p.m. For further information or to obtain a registration form, please contact Tommy Wheeler at 615/890-3333 or 615/893-8498. Entries may be mailed to: Blue Raider Baseball, MTSU Box 90, Murfreesboro, TN 37132. When sending in an entry, please include the names and addresses of each player in the foursome along with your entry fee. Entry forms can be found on the baseball page at GoBlueRaiders.com.

Baseball Team Camp Dates Set

The Blue Raider baseball program will host its second annual Team Camp, July 10-13, at Reese Smith Field. The camp includes five games plus instruction, as well as a pro-style workout with area scouts on the first evening. Team coaches and players receive instruction each afternoon of the session from Middle Tennessee coaches, current and former players, as well as area high school and college coaches and scouts. Registration forms may be found at GoBlueRaiders.com on the baseball age or by calling Associate Head Coach Jim McGuire at 615/898-2961.

Other Summer Camp Dates

Three other summer baseball camps will be held in June, starting the 11th and running until the 22nd of the month. The Pitcher-Catcher Camp runs June 11-13 and the Hitting Camp is June 13-15, with both camps for ages 13-2006 High School senior. The Day Camp for ages 7-12 ONLY is June 19-22. For information on these camps please call the main athletic department number at 615/898-2450 or you may access a camp brochure on the baseball page at GoBlueRaiders.com.

into the Troy series, collecting 21 hits in 49 at-bats (.429) with seven RBIs and 12 runs scored. Sophomore Alex Watson has an eight-game hitting streak alive, going 11-for-21 (.524) in just four starts with two doubles, four RBIs and three runs scored. Junior Wayne Kendrick has a seven-game hitting streak heading into Thursday, collecting nine hits with five runs scored and six RBIs.

In the National Statistics

Middle Tennessee ranks in the Top 40 in six team categories and four players appear in the individual statistics. The Blue Raiders are seventh in slugging percentage, eighth in home runs per game and ninth in batting average in the team categories while also ranking 17th in scoring, 38th in doubles per game and 40th in triples per game. Individually, Jeff Beachum and Michael McKenry are both 30th nationally in batting average and Todd Martin ranks 14th in home runs per game. McKenry is 21st and Martin is 34th in RBIs per game, while the two are 18th and 48th, respectively, in the country in slugging percentage. Jeff Beachum ranks 15th in the toughest-to-strikeout category and Wayne Kendrick is 46th in runs per game.

In the Sun Belt Statistics

Seniors Jeff Beachum and Todd Martin and juniors Michael McKenry and Matt Scott all rank in the individual batting or pitching categories this week. Beachum is sixth in batting and fourth in hits, while McKenry ranks eighth in hitting and fourth in RBIs. Martin (15) and McKenry (13) rank first and tied for third, respectively, in home runs. Scott ranks ninth in pitching this week and his seven wins are tied for third best in the league. In Sun Belt games only, Beachum's .421 average is fifth best in the league and his 40 hits are tied for second. McKenry is tied for fourth with 25 RBIs and tied for second with six home runs. Junior Adam Warren is tied for fourth with eight stolen bases.

Warren Hits for the Cycle

Junior Adam Warren accomplished one of the rarest of feats in baseball, hitting for the cycle April 25 against Lipscomb. Warren singled and doubled in the fourth inning of the contest, homered in the seventh and completed the cycle with the toughest part, a triple in the eighth. It was Warren's fourth triple of the year and also his fourth home run of the season. The Jackson, Tenn., native had just two three-hit outings in 46 games in 2005 and four more three-hit contests this season before his career-high four hits against the Bisons. In the Sun Belt before this season, South Alabama's Jansen Rayborn achieved the feat in 2004 and USA's Tyler Jones did it earlier this year against Grambling.

Baseball Inks Three; Utility Player, Two Pitchers

Middle Tennessee head baseball coach Steve Peterson announced the signing of three players to national letters-of-intent on April 27, including Zach Barrett, Brad Robinson and Kenneth Roberts. Barrett is a 6-foot, 5-inch utility player at Olney Central Community College and was a teammate of current Blue Raider Brett Reilley last season at Olney. He also played with Middle Tennessee catcher Michael McKenry this past summer with the Fayetteville (NC) Swampdogs in the Coastal Plain League. He has been drafted twice by the Florida Marlins - in the 38th round out of high school as an outfielder and in the 43rd round last year as a third baseman. Robinson and Roberts are both from Murfreesboro, Robinson a former Oakland High School standout and Roberts a current Siegel High School hurler. Robinson, a righthander, currently attends Cleveland State Community College, compiling a 5-3 record with 75 strikeouts in 69.2 innings of work as of April 27. Roberts, a lefthander, was an All-District selection as a sophomore and junior and plays for former Blue Raider Craig Reavis at Siegel.

McKenry Named to Dick Howser Watch List

The National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association, working in conjunction with the St. Petersburg Area Chamber of Commerce, released the watch list of 64 candidates for the Dick Howser Trophy, given to the top player in collegiate baseball. Middle Tennessee junior Michael McKenry is one of the 64 candidates, the second national player of the year watch list recognizing the Knoxville, Tenn., native. McKenry ranks first or second for the Blue Raiders in batting average, home runs, RBIs, walks, slugging percentage and on-base percentage this season. New Orleans second baseman Jhonny Giovatella and Troy's Tom King are the only other players from the Sun Belt Conference on the watch list. The Dick Howser Trophy, given in memory of the former Florida State All-America shortstop and major league player and manager who died of brain cancer in 1987, is regarded by many as college baseball's most prestigious award. Criteria for consideration for the trophy include performance on the field, leadership, moral character and courage, qualities that were exemplified by Dick Howser's life.

McKenry Named Player of the Week

Michael McKenry was voted the Sun Belt Conference Player of the Week on April 10 after homering in all three games over the weekend at New Orleans. McKenry went 9-for-15 (.600) in four games, doing most of his damage over the weekend at UNO. In a win at Lipscomb, the junior doubled, walked twice, scored a run and drove in another in a 12-7 victory. Over the weekend at UNO, the Knoxville, Tenn., native was 8-for-13 (.615) with two doubles, three home runs, six RBIs and six runs scored, posting a 1.462 slugging percentage in the series. In Friday's victory the catcher doubled, homered and had three hits, driving in three runs and scoring twice. On Saturday McKenry tied his career-high with four hits, including another double and homer, driving in two runs and scoring twice. On Sunday he played rightfield for the first time since April 10-11, 2004, at Florida International, running into the rightcenter field wall to make a catch as well as going 1-for-3 with a walk and two runs scored.

Beachum Voted Player of the Week

Senior Jeff Beachum was named Sun Belt Player of the Week on March 28, Middle Tennessee's first POW honor this season. Beachum went 10-for-20 (.500) in four games, leading Middle Tennessee to a 3-1 mark and a series win over the weekend against Arkansas-Little Rock to start conference play. He had three doubles, a triple, scored four times and drove in four other runs as well as stealing a base. In a win at Tennessee Tech the four-year starter was 2-for-5 with a run and one RBI. He was 8-for-15 (.533) in the three games against UALR, collecting multi-hits in all three outings. On Friday Beachum was 3-for-6 with a double and two RBIs and came back with a 2-for-4 effort on Saturday with a double, triple, run scored and one RBI. In Sunday's finale the shortstop had three hits, including a double, stole a base and scored twice, including the tying run in the bottom of the eighth. The honor was the third of Beachum's career (May 10, 2004; May 9, 2005) and the eighth Player of the Week honor since Middle Tennessee joined the Sun Belt in 2001.

Blue Raiders Ink Five in the Fall

Middle Tennessee signed five players to national letters-of-intent during the fall signing period in November, including four players from the state of Tennessee - Overton HS outfielder Zach Hudson, Ravenwood HS catcher Drew Robertson, Ooltewah HS first baseman Blake McDade, Motlow State's Bobby Bratton and St. Louis, Mo., pitcher Tyler Hyde. Hudson's Overton team reached the state finals in 2005, with the 6-foot-2, 215-pounder batting .354 with 13 doubles and 38 RBIs along with 11 stolen bases. Robertson is not the prototypical Blue Raider catcher under Peterson, standing 6-foot-2 and 170 pounds. Every catcher under Peterson has been drafted at the end of their career, and Robertson should add to the program's success behind the plate. McDade was an All-District and All-Region selection last season after batting .400 with three home runs, 42 RBIs and 15 doubles at OHS. Hyde struck out 33 in 43 innings of work last season at Chaminade Prepatory School, posting a 2.93 ERA with opponents batting .195. Bratton earned National Junior College Athletic Association Third Team All-America honors last season as a freshman at Motlow State CC after batting .388 with 13 doubles, 20 home runs and 57 RBIs for the 38-18 Bucks. He tied for the national lead in home runs and led the Tennessee Junior and Community College Athletic Association in runs scored with 70 while ranking fifth in RBIs. He also tied for third in the TJCCAA in triples, was first in slugging percentage (.831) and ranked seventh in on-base percentage (.463). For his efforts the 6-foot-1, 190-pound infielder was voted TJCCAA Freshman and Player of the Year as well as First Team All-TJCCAA.

McKenry Named to Bench Award Watch List

Junior catcher Michael McKenry was one of 26 players named to the Coleman Company – Johnny Bench Award Watch List announced March 14. The Johnny Bench Award is given annually to the nation's top catcher, with the award sponsored by the Coleman Company and the Greater Wichita (KS) Area Sports Commission. McKenry was a First Team All-Sun Belt selection in 2005 in his first year as the team's starter behind the plate. The 2006 Johnny Bench Award Watch List includes: Michael Ambort, Jr., Lamar; J.P. Arencibia, So., Tennessee; Brian Baisley, Sr., South Florida; Ryan Bono, Sr., Central Florida; Justin Brashear, Jr., Ole Miss; Donald Cheney, Jr., Morehead State; John Curtis, Jr., Cal-State Fullerton; Ed Easley, So., Mississippi State; Sean Gaston, Jr., Notre Dame; Brian Hernandez, Sr., Vanderbilt; Robby Jacobsen, Sr., George Mason; Brian Jeroloman, Jr., Florida; Jeff Kunkel, Sr., Michigan; Matt Liuzza, Sr., LSU; Jonathan Lucroy, So., Louisiana-Lafayette; Nick Maragas, Jr., Cincinnati; Matt McBride, Jr., Lehigh; Jordan Newton, Jr., Western Kentucky; Preston Paramore, Fr., Arizona State; Kris Rochelle, Jr., Charlotte; Konrad Schmidt, Jr., Arizona; Bryan Towler, Sr., Marist; Chad Tracy, Jr., Pepperdine; Andrew Walker, So., TCU; and Andy Wendle, Jr., Villanova. Because the award is given annually to the top Division I collegiate catcher, the list will be updated to include other candidates until May 1. The finalists will be announced May 31 prior to the NCAA Regionals and Major League Baseball Draft.

Former Blue Raiders in the Minors

Three former Blue Raiders began their minor league seasons in April, including Jeremy Owens (Tampa Bay Devil Rays), Chris Mobley (Florida Marlins) and Brett Carroll (Florida Marlins). Owens is playing in AA for the Montgomery (AL) Biscuits in the Southern League, while Mobley will also be in the Southern League with the AA Carolina (NC) Mudcats. Carroll will begin the 2006 season with the Jupiter (FL) Marlins in the Florida State League. Chad Cooper, another former Blue Raider, went to spring training with the Colorado Rockies but was cut. Three other former Middle Tennessee players will participate in independent leagues. Adam Larson signed with the Somerset (NJ) Patriots for a second season in the Atlantic League, Josh Renick will play again for the St. Paul (MN) Saints in the American Association, and Eric McNamee will be with the Gary (IN) Southshore Railcats in the Northern League.

McKenry on Wallace Watch List

Junior Michael McKenry was named to the Preseason Wallace Watch List by the College Baseball Foundation in November, an award presented annually to the national college baseball player of the year. McKenry, a 5-foot-10, 195-pound catcher, showed tremendous power last season, becoming the first Blue Raider to belt a home run into the football stadium during a game since Floyd Stadium's renovation in 1998. His most impressive statistic may have been throwing out 38 percent of attempted base stealers. The Farragut High School product is one of only six catchers among the 130 nominees for the Brooks Wallace Award, while McKenry joins P.J. Walters (P, South Alabama), Taylor Fowler (P, Arkansas State) and Elih Villanueva (P, Florida International) as the only nominees from the Sun Belt Conference. The Wallace Watch will be trimmed to 12 semifinalists by late May. Then the selection committee will narrow the list to three finalists following the NCAA Super Regionals at a press conference in Omaha, Neb., at the College World Series. The finalists, their head coaches and their parents will be invited to Lubbock, Texas, for a schedule of special events tied to the award banquet, which will again be nationally televised by Fox Sports Network. The selection committee for the Wallace Award is comprised of a national panel of preeminent coaches, sports information directors, former winners and beat media who most closely follow the sport. Screening Committee members will evaluate the candidates and will continue their review throughout the entire baseball season. The list will expand and contract during the regular season and additional Wallace Watch candidates may be added as the season progresses. A full list of the Wallace Watch Preseason List may be found at collegebaseballfoundation.org.

McKenry Named NSCA All-American

Junior Michael McKenry was honored on March 17 by the National Strength and Conditioning Association with its annual All-American Strength and Conditioning Athlete of the Year award, recognizing student-athletes' dedication to strength training and conditioning. This year the NSCA awarded 242 collegiate athletes from 160 schools with the esteemed award. McKenry was nominated by Assistant AD for Strength & Conditioning and baseball strength coach Matt Riley. McKenry is one of only 12 Division I baseball players in the country honored by the NSCA, including: Jon Polston - Air Force, Justin Smucker - Binghamton, Michael Cowgill - James Madison, Anthony Gressick - Ohio, Dallas Buck - Oregon State, Justin Cassel - UC-Irvine, Chase Christianson - South Alabama, Aaron George - South Alabama, Marc Maddox - Southern Miss, Anthony Jackson - Pacific, and Charles Schultz - Youngstown State. The All-American Athlete of the Year Award program is in its 27th year and is made possible by a grant from Power Systems, Inc., a Knoxville, Tenn., fitness product leader.

Steve Peterson

Head Coach ● Jacksonville State/1973 ● 19th Season ● 601-470-2 (.560), 754-564-2 (.571) overall

There are many adjectives to describe the job Steve Peterson has done as Middle Tennessee's highly successful baseball coach since 1988. Coach, fundraiser, teacher, recruiter and architect are just a few, but if you are looking for one word to sum his contributions as the Blue Raiders' longtime skipper, try winner.

Peterson begins his 19th season heading the Blue Raider program as the school's all-time winningest coach with 574 victories and a stockpile of conference championships and NCAA Tournament berths to his credit, demonstrating the consistency with which the driven skipper has guided the club.

Middle Tennessee has been a model program on Peterson's watch and the proof is in the success the Blue Raiders have achieved. The veteran coach has led Middle Tennessee to 10 regular-season conference championships, eight conference tournament titles and seven NCAA Regional berths, including two at-large selections in the past five years. Peterson guided the Blue Raiders to seven consecutive championships – either regular-season or tournament – during one stretch, proving Middle Tennessee doesn't rebuild, it reloads.

Peterson, who enters the 2006 season with a sterling 574-449-2 mark, has produced 11 seasons with 30 or more wins, including a school-record 42 victories in 1990. He also has three campaigns of at least 40 wins, including 2004's 40-22 club.

The constant manner in which Middle Tennessee has enjoyed success during Peterson's tenure is a direct reflection on recruiting and developing talent, and the proof was never more evident than in 2001 – the Blue Raiders' first season as a member of the Sun Belt Conference after years of success in the Ohio Valley.

Asked how the move into the Sun Belt, rated one of the nation's Top 5 baseball leagues at the time and consistently a Top 10 conference, would change his recruiting philosophy, Peterson quickly responded, "none at all." The 2001 Blue Raiders then went out and shared the Sun Belt championship with South Alabama during their first year in the high-profile league and the majority of the chief contributors were the same performers who led Middle Tennessee to the 2000 Ohio Valley Conference championship.

The move to a higher-rated conference has not hurt Middle Tennessee's status. If anything, it has helped. In their first five years in the Sun Belt, Peterson's teams have won two regular-season championships, a tournament championship and earned three NCAA Regional berths, including two at-large selections for the first time in school history. The 2001 squad earned national acclaim for its pitching and hitting and the season concluded with pitcher Dewon Brazelton being selected as the No. 3 overall pick of the Tampa Bay Devil Rays in the Major League Baseball First-Year Amateur Player Draft. Brazelton was one of six players from the team to earn a spot on a professional baseball roster that season.

A program cannot enjoy consistent success without quality players and Peterson, a three-time Coach of the Year, has not only made a habit of making sure Middle Tennessee has its share of quality performers, but he's won by constantly signing prep players and developing them at the college level. The proof is in the fact Peterson has coached a Sun Belt Player of the Year and six OVC Players of the Year, a Sun Belt Pitcher of the Year and an OVC Pitcher of the Year, a First-Team All-American, five Third-Team All-Americans, four Freshman All-Americans, and 38 first-team All-Conference performers.

Players who have honed their skills under Peterson also have had an outstanding rate of continuing their careers at the professional level. Professional baseball has seen 47 former Peterson performers earning the chance to play at the game's highest level, with four making their way to the Major Leagues.

If that's not enough, Peterson's recruits have established most of the offensive records held at Middle Tennessee and four players he has developed have hit .400 or better in a season, along with the school's single-season and career home run record holders. His 1997 squad established the all-time record for batting average with a .323 clip.

Peterson's players not only have been solid on the field at the collegiate level and continued their careers professionally, but a large majority have taken the skills and fundamentals learned at Middle Tennessee and are earning a living as coaches at various levels. Thirty-four former Blue Raiders are currently coaching at the high school, college or professional levels.

Peterson's peers have recognized his achievements and contributions to the game by bestowing several honors on him. He was named the Tennessee Baseball Coaches Association College Coach of the Year in 1992 and again in 2000. He was also inducted into the Rutherford County Old Timers Baseball Hall of Fame in 2003. Fellow coaches have named Peterson Coach of the Year on three occasions – twice in the Ohio Valley and again in 2004, his first such honor in the Sun Belt.

Peterson's outgoing and personable style has made him a hit with fans, boosters, players and recruits, alike. Baseball enthusiasts throughout the Middle Tennessee community clearly appreciate his hard-nosed and aggressive style of play, as fans continue to flock to Reese Smith Field at a record pace. The Blue Raiders established a single-game attendance record in 2001 at Reese Smith Field with a crowd of 2,733 against South Alabama. The team went on to set the single-season attendance mark with 26,218 coming through the gates at Reese Smith Field. The 2001 squad saw 15 crowds of 1,000 or more during the season. Those numbers were surpassed in 2004 when the team set a single-game attendance record of 3,020 against Vanderbilt, as well as setting a new single-season attendance mark of 30,319, ranking 46th nationally in attendance for the season. Fifteen contests drew more than 1,000 patrons during the record-setting campaign.

Not only has Peterson been a winner on the field, but he's been a successful fundraiser during his career as well. Events such as the annual Chuck Taylor Golf Tournament, the Groundhog Day Luncheon and the Grand Slam Fish Fry in the fall have become mainstays on calendars of Blue Raider baseball supporters across middle Tennessee and have served to raise thousands of dollars for the improvement of Blue Raider baseball.

Peterson spearheaded the efforts to pay for the construction of the Stephen B. Smith Clubhouse and Indoor Training Facility, which opened its doors in 1998. One look inside the facility shows the time and effort spent toward this endeavor. It has become known as one of the finest collegiate clubhouses and training facilities in the country.

Reese Smith Field also has benefited from Peterson's fundraising abilities. He has helped transform the park into a fan-friendly area by expanding the seating area, putting up a new information center just inside the gate, and expanding the restroom and concession facilities.

Peterson guided efforts during the summer of 2001 to expand the dugouts at Reese Smith Field. He also is currently spearheading an effort that would totally renovate the stadium. The plans would call for a significant remodeling of the concession stand, improved and expanded restroom facilities and a modern press box that would accommodate radio and television, along with print media.

While Peterson has spent 18 seasons leading the Middle Tennessee baseball program, his tenure with the program is much longer. He took two separate tours with the Blue Raiders as an assistant coach under John Stanford prior to becoming the team's head coach. During his runs between 1976-78 and 1985-87, the Blue Raiders won two OVC titles and four southern division crowns.

During the interim, Peterson served as the head coach at Roane State Community College in Harriman, Tenn. During his tenure from 1979-84, Peterson's teams won a Tennessee state title in 1981 and he was twice named TJCAA Coach of the Year (1981, '84). While at Roane State, Peterson put together a sparkling record of 153-96, a .614 winning percentage.

A native of Huntsville, Ala., Peterson stood out as a catcher under the legendary Rudy Abbott at Jacksonville State. He earned his bachelor's from Jacksonville State in 1983 and later earned a master's from Middle Tennessee in 1977.

Peterson is married to the former Rita Albert and the couple has three children, Jill, Jenny and John, and one grandchild, Hayden Wright. Away from the diamond, Peterson enjoys fishing for smallmouth bass.

2006 Aéropostale Sun Belt Baseball Championships

May 24-27 • Bowling Green, Kentucky
Hosted by: Western Kentucky

 Game 13 will be necessary if the winner of Game 9 also wins Game 11.

* Game 14 will be necessary if the winner of Game 10 also wins Game 12.

 # If only one of the two early games is necessary on Saturday, the first one will be played at 12 p.m., and the Championship Game will start 45 minutes following the completion of the noon game.

+If both bracket winners are undefeated, the championship game will be played on Saturday at 12 p.m. If both "if necessary games" are played, the championship game will start 45 minutes after the second game.

All Times are central.
Western Kentucky reserves the right to choose the start time of its first game on Wednesday.

Media Credentials

Credentials for the 2006 Sun Belt Conference Tournament may be obtained by contacting Rob Broussard, Director of Media Relations (504-299-9066 x218).

Determination of Tournament Seeds

The final conference standings will determine seeded positions for the first round of the tournament. In the event of a two-way tie in the standings, the following tiebreaker system will be used — in order — until the tie is broken:

1. Results of each team in head-to-head competition.
2. Results of each team vs. the first-place team, or their composite records against any team tying for first place.
3. Records of each team vs. the second-place team, or their composite records against any team tying for second place.
4. This process continues with records vs. the third-place team, fourth-place team, etc., if necessary, until the tie is broken and seeding is complete.
5. If a tie still exists, a coin flip shall be conducted by the Conference office.

In the event of a three-way tie in the standings, the following tiebreaker system will be used — in order — until one team demonstrates a clearsuperiority or inferiority over the other two. When this occurs, that team will be seeded highest of the three teams, and the remaining tie between the other two will be broken by following the steps listed above.

1. Composite records of each team in competition vs. the other two teams involved in the three-way tie.
2. Records of each team vs. the first-place team, or their composite records against any teams tying for first place.
3. Records of each team vs. the second-place team, or their composite records against any teams tying for second place.
4. This process continues with the records vs. the third-place and fourth-place teams, etc., if necessary, until the tie is broken and seeding is complete.
5. If a tie still exists, a coin flip will be conducted by the Conference office.
