Middle Tennessee (4-5)

When: March 10-12, 2006
Site: Carbondale, Ill. (Abe Martin Field)
Radio None
Notes: Middle Tennessee continues a seven-game road swing with three games at Southern Illinois ... The meeting will be the first between the two clubs at Abe Martin Field on the SIU campus ... The two clubs have split four previous games in the series, all in Murfreesboro ... Middle Tennessee won, 10-3, and SIU, 7-5, respectively, on February 27-28, 1993. The Blue Raiders won, 6-1, and SIU, 10-8, on March 15-16, 2005 ... Middle Tennessee ends its seven-game road swing with a 6:30 p.m. contest at Austin Peay next Wednesday.

Middle Tennessee vs. Southern Illinois

The Blue Raiders and Salukis have met only four times in the last 30 years, with all four meetings taking place in Murfreesboro. The two clubs split a series on February 27-28, 1993, with the Blue Raiders winning 10-3, the first day and SIU taking the second contest, 7-5. It followed the same pattern last season, with Middle Tennessee taking a 6-1 triumph on March 15, including a towering home run from Michael McKenry, the first to clear the second deck of the football stadium since the stadium renovation in 1998. But the Salukis salvaged a split of the two games with a 10-8 victory the next day.

Six Games in Six Days, At Least on the Schedule

Middle Tennessee was scheduled to play six games in six days starting with Tuesday's contest at Memphis, but rain shortened the series to just two games. It marks the third time in four years rain has played havoc with games in Memphis. The two teams played only once in 2005 because of a Wednesday rainout and played a doubleheader in 2003 because of a Tuesday cancellation. Middle Tennessee now heads to Carbondale, Ill., for a three-game series against Southern Illinois. The Blue Raiders and Salukis have met just four times in the last 30 years, with the two teams splitting the series. The two clubs split two games in 1993 and then again last season, with both series' taking place in Murfreesboro. It will be Middle Tennessee's first-ever trip to Abe Martin Field on the Southern Illinois campus.

Raiders Road Warriors Until SBC Play

With the first three games of the season against IP-Fort Wayne snowed out, Middle Tennessee will play 14 of its first 18 games of the season away from home. The Blue Raiders hosted Missouri State in three games last weekend and take on UT Martin on March 16 at Reese Smith Field in the team's only other home game until opening Sun Belt Conference play at home against Arkansas-Little Rock on March 24-26. In the recent past, the 2004 squad played eight of its first 11 on the road, while the 2002 club played nine of its first 15 away from home. It has probably been since 1994 when the Blue Raiders played 11 of the first 14 on the road since a Middle Tennessee squad has been so much time on the road in February and March.

Raiders Struggling to Drive in Runs

Middle Tennessee has lost five of the last six contests, scoring just 18 runs in the five losses. The Blue Raiders have gone back-and-forth between managing few hits and not driving in runners when the opportunities present themselves. The club is just 9-for-48 (.188) in RBI chances and has stranded 44 runners in those five losses. Conversely, in the four wins the squad is hitting .548 (23-for-42) in RBI opportunities. In the two losses at Memphis this week, the Blue Raiders stranded 10 in Tuesday's 11-5 loss and then left 13 runners on base in Wednesday's 8-3 defeat despite collecting 14 hits. In the team's four victories, Middle Tennessee has averaged 12.3 hits and 7.8 runs a contest, while in the five losses the squad has averaged only 8.2 hits and 3.6 runs a game.

Copeland Solid at No. 2 Spot

Redshirt junior Tyler Copeland has taken the No. 2 spot in the weekend rotation and performed better than anyone on the staff, posting a pair of victories with a 1.64 ERA in 11.0 innings of work. Copeland allowed an unearned run on four hits, striking out two in a win at Jacksonville State on February 26. Last Saturday the lefthander gave up two runs on five hits in six innings of work, striking out three in a victory over Missouri State. Opponents are batting just .237 against the Lawrenceburg, Tenn., native, and he has allowed

Beachum Mr. Consistent at the Top

Senior Jeff Beachum has hit in the leadoff spot in all nine games thus far this season, the first time the Cordova, Tenn., native has hit No. 1 in the order since the final 27 games of his freshman season. Beachum carried an 11-game hitting streak to start the season and hit safely in the first four games of the 2006 campaign before an 0-for-4 performance on Friday against Missouri State. But the four-year starter at shortstop came back with three hits in eight at-bats and three runs scored in the final two games versus the Bears. For the season Beachum is third on the squad with a .359 batting average (.14-for-39) with three doubles, nine runs scored and three RBIs. He also has three walks and a .419 on-base percentage.

More on Beachum

The Cordova HS product has enjoyed a very successful career at Middle Tennessee, starting all but seven possible games in his four-year tenure. Beachum moved into fourth place this week in career hits with three in the two games at Memphis, giving him 239 career hits. He is 30 hits from tying career leader Clay Snellgrove (1994-97) at the top of the all-time list. Beachum also ranks eighth in career at-bats (726), third in career singles (188), tied for ninth in career doubles (42) and tied for fifth in sacrifices (19). He needs only seven singles to move past Snellgrove in that category and four doubles to move into sixth place past Marshall Nisbett (42, 2001-02), Jayhawk Owens (43, 1988-90), Nate Jaggers (44, 2002-05) and Doug Barner (45, 1993-96). A full listing appears on page seven of these notes.

Notes from Missouri State

Friday: Redshirt freshman Taylor Dennis made his first career start at second base ... Matt Scott allowed a two-run homer in the first inning. Scott did not allow a round-tripper at home last season in 53.2 innings of work and had not given up a homer at home since April 30, 2004, versus Western Kentucky ... Shay Horseman made his first appearance since June 4, 2004, at Georgia in the NCAA Regional. Horseman underwent Tommy John surgery in August 2004 ... The Blue Raiders managed just two hits in the game. The last time Middle Tennessee had only two hits in a game was in a 2-0 defeat to Memphis on April 3, 2002 ... Senior Jeff Beachum's career-high 15-game hitting streak dating to last season came to an end after an 0-for-4 effort ... Junior Matt Scott picked up the loss, ending his seven-game winning streak dating to last season. The righthander allowed a career-high two home runs and lost for the first time since April 8, 2005 … Junior Wayne Kendrick did not play, serving a one-game suspension after being thrown out of the game at Belmont on Tuesday.

Saturday: Jeff Beachum tied his career-high with two walks … Nathan Hines tied his career-high

Todd Martin and Matt Scott were both honored by the American Baseball Coaches Association and Rawlings, earning All-South Central Region honors for the 2005 season. Martin was also named Third Team All-America by the ABCA. Martin was named First Team All-Region and Third Team All-America as the designated hitter after battling injuries all season. He posted a .412 batting average, third best in school history among players with more than 100 at-bats. The Cookeville, Tenn., native had 13 doubles and eight home runs in 42 starts, and is the first Blue Raider All-American since Dewon Brazelton and Josh Renick in 2001. Scott was voted Second Team All-Region after posting a 10-1 mark with a 3.07 ERA in 14 starts. The righthander was 5-0 with a 1.77 ERA in his last five starts of the season, tossing three complete games and striking out 31 in 40.2 innings of work. The duo earned the first all-region selections for Middle Tennessee since Justin Sims in 2002.

Record-Setting Victory against Memphis

Middle Tennessee homered a school single-game record nine times in the April 20, 2005, 19-7 victory over Memphis, including six in the sixth inning. The nine homers bested the previous mark of eight in a game set in 2001 at Cumberland. The six round-trippers in an inning tied for the second most in a game in NCAA history with four other teams and had not been accomplished since 1988. The national record of seven home runs in an inning is held by Southern Utah, set April 22, 2001, against Western Illinois.

Scott, McKenry Earn Sun Belt Player of the Week Honors

Michael McKenry and Matt Scott combined to earn four Sun Belt Player of the Week honors in 2005, including three from Scott. Scott was the first to receive the accolade after his efforts at Arkansas-Little Rock in the conference opener, striking out a career-high 10 in 7.1 innings in a 12-2 victory. Scott earned his second Pitcher of the Week accolade May 9 after a complete-game win over Florida International in which he allowed one earned run and struck out seven. McKenry garnered the Player of the Week honor at the same time after eight hits in 14 at-bats in the three-game series versus FIU, including a three-homer, five RBI contest on Sunday in the series clincher. Scott received the last POW honor after the final conference weekend after shutting down New Mexico State, working seven shutout innings and striking out 10. The Blue Raiders have had two Player of the Week honors in each of the last three seasons and have garnered 11 Pitcher of the Week accolades in its five years in the league, including four each in 2001 and 2004.

Blue Raiders Set Four Offensive Records

The 2005 Blue Raiders broke four offensive records last season, including three records that dated to the mid-80s. Middle Tennessee broke the 2004 mark for hits in a season with 633 despite playing seven fewer games. The club also set a single-season mark for runs with 427, eclipsing the mark set by the 1986 squad. Last year's team broke the mark for RBIs in a year with 380 as well, a count held by both the 1986 and 2004 clubs, and the mark for walks in a season with 266, held previously by the 1985 and 2004 squads. In the last three years the Blue Raiders have set new single-season team highs in eight of the 14 categories.

McKenry Sets and Ties Single-Game Records

Catcher Michael McKenry set one and tied another single-game record at Middle Tennessee last May with a three-home run performance against Florida International. McKenry became only the fifth player in school history and the first since Justin Sims in 2002 (at New Mexico State) to homer three times in a game. His 14 total bases in the contest – McKenry also added a double – set a new single-game record, eclipsing the old mark of 13, also held by Sims.

Blue Raiders Rank in Top 30 Nationally

Middle Tennessee ended 2005 ranked in the Top 30 nationally in five team categories, including four in the Top 25. Middle Tennessee was 21st in the country in batting at .318 while ranking 23rd in both scoring (7.8 runs per game) and home runs per game (1.15). The club also was 24th in doubles per game (2.31) and 27th in slugging percentage (.481). Individually, Todd Martin ranked 15th in the nation in batting at .412, while Eric McNamee was fourth in the country in walks per game (0.96). Matt Scott tied for 28th in the nation in wins with 10, and Nate Jaggers (1.09) and Nathan Hines (1.02) were 49th and 77th, respectively, in RBIs per game. McNamee ranked 52nd in runs per game (1.11) and Martin was 57th in slugging percentage (.654). Jeff Beachum ranked 99th in the county in toughest to strikeout (12.2) and Scott was 137th in ERA (3.07).

Steve Peterson

Head Coach ● Jacksonville State/1973 ● 19th Season ● 578-454-2 (.559), 731-548-2 (.571) overall

There are many adjectives to describe the job Steve Peterson has done as Middle Tennessee's highly successful baseball coach since 1988. Coach, fundraiser, teacher, recruiter and architect are just a few, but if you are looking for one word to sum his contributions as the Blue Raiders' longtime skipper, try winner.

Peterson begins his 19th season heading the Blue Raider program as the school's all-time winningest coach with 574 victories and a stockpile of conference championships and NCAA Tournament berths to his credit, demonstrating the consistency with which the driven skipper has guided the club.

Middle Tennessee has been a model program on Peterson's watch and the proof is in the success the Blue Raiders have achieved. The veteran coach has led Middle Tennessee to 10 regular-season conference championships, eight conference tournament titles and seven NCAA Regional berths, including two at-large selections in the past five years. Peterson guided the Blue Raiders to seven consecutive championships – either regular-season or tournament – during one stretch, proving Middle Tennessee doesn't rebuild, it reloads.

Peterson, who enters the 2006 season with a sterling 574-449-2 mark, has produced 11 seasons with 30 or more wins, including a school-record 42 victories in 1990. He also has three campaigns of at least 40 wins, including 2004's 40-22 club.

The constant manner in which Middle Tennessee has enjoyed success during Peterson's tenure is a direct reflection on recruiting and developing talent, and the proof was never more evident than in 2001 – the Blue Raiders' first season as a member of the Sun Belt Conference after years of success in the Ohio Valley.

Asked how the move into the Sun Belt, rated one of the nation's Top 5 baseball leagues at the time and consistently a Top 10 conference, would change his recruiting philosophy, Peterson quickly responded, "none at all." The 2001 Blue Raiders then went out and shared the Sun Belt championship with South Alabama during their first year in the high-profile league and the majority of the chief contributors were the same performers who led Middle Tennessee to the 2000 Ohio Valley Conference championship.

The move to a higher-rated conference has not hurt Middle Tennessee's status. If anything, it has helped. In their first five years in the Sun Belt, Peterson's teams have won two regular-season championships, a tournament championship and earned three NCAA Regional berths, including two at-large selections for the first time in school history. The 2001 squad earned national acclaim for its pitching and hitting and the season concluded with pitcher Dewon Brazelton being selected as the No. 3 overall pick of the Tampa Bay Devil Rays in the Major League Baseball First-Year Amateur Player Draft. Brazelton was one of six players from the team to earn a spot on a professional baseball roster that season.

A program cannot enjoy consistent success without quality players and Peterson, a three-time Coach of the Year, has not only made a habit of making sure Middle Tennessee has its share of quality performers, but he's won by constantly signing prep players and developing them at the college level. The proof is in the fact Peterson has coached a Sun Belt Player of the Year and six OVC Players of the Year, a Sun Belt Pitcher of the Year and an OVC Pitcher of the Year, a First-Team All-American, five Third-Team All-Americans, four Freshman All-Americans, and 38 first-team All-Conference performers.

Players who have honed their skills under Peterson also have had an outstanding rate of continuing their careers at the professional level. Professional baseball has seen 47 former Peterson performers earning the chance to play at the game's highest level, with four making their way to the Major Leagues.

If that's not enough, Peterson's recruits have established most of the offensive records held at Middle Tennessee and four players he has developed have hit .400 or better in a season, along with the school's single-season and career home run record holders. His 1997 squad established the all-time record for batting average with a .323 clip.

Peterson's players not only have been solid on the field at the collegiate level and continued their careers professionally, but a large majority have taken the skills and fundamentals learned at Middle Tennessee and are earning a living as coaches at various levels. Thirty-four former Blue Raiders are currently coaching at the high school, college or professional levels.

Peterson's peers have recognized his achievements and contributions to the game by bestowing several honors on him. He was named the Tennessee Baseball Coaches Association College Coach of the Year in 1992 and again in 2000. He was also inducted into the Rutherford County Old Timers Baseball Hall of Fame in 2003. Fellow coaches have named Peterson Coach of the Year on three occasions – twice in the Ohio Valley and again in 2004, his first such honor in the Sun Belt.

Peterson's outgoing and personable style has made him a hit with fans, boosters, players and recruits, alike. Baseball enthusiasts throughout the Middle Tennessee community clearly appreciate his hard-nosed and aggressive style of play, as fans continue to flock to Reese Smith Field at a record pace. The Blue Raiders established a single-game attendance record in 2001 at Reese Smith Field with a crowd of 2,733 against South Alabama. The team went on to set the single-season attendance mark with 26,218 coming through the gates at Reese Smith Field. The 2001 squad saw 15 crowds of 1,000 or more during the season. Those numbers were surpassed in 2004 when the team set a single-game attendance record of 3,020 against Vanderbilt, as well as setting a new single-season attendance mark of 30,319, ranking 46th nationally in attendance for the season. Fifteen contests drew more than 1,000 patrons during the record-setting campaign.

Not only has Peterson been a winner on the field, but he's been a successful fundraiser during his career as well. Events such as the annual Chuck Taylor Golf Tournament, the Groundhog Day Luncheon and the Grand Slam Fish Fry in the fall have become mainstays on calendars of Blue Raider baseball supporters across middle Tennessee and have served to raise thousands of dollars for the improvement of Blue Raider baseball.

Peterson spearheaded the efforts to pay for the construction of the Stephen B. Smith Clubhouse and Indoor Training Facility, which opened its doors in 1998. One look inside the facility shows the time and effort spent toward this endeavor. It has become known as one of the finest collegiate clubhouses and training facilities in the country.

Reese Smith Field also has benefited from Peterson's fundraising abilities. He has helped transform the park into a fan-friendly area by expanding the seating area, putting up a new information center just inside the gate, and expanding the restroom and concession facilities.

Peterson guided efforts during the summer of 2001 to expand the dugouts at Reese Smith Field. He also is currently spearheading an effort that would totally renovate the stadium. The plans would call for a significant remodeling of the concession stand, improved and expanded restroom facilities and a modern press box that would accommodate radio and television, along with print media.

While Peterson has spent 18 seasons leading the Middle Tennessee baseball program, his tenure with the program is much longer. He took two separate tours with the Blue Raiders as an assistant coach under John Stanford prior to becoming the team's head coach. During his runs between 1976-78 and 1985-87, the Blue Raiders won two OVC titles and four southern division crowns.

During the interim, Peterson served as the head coach at Roane State Community College in Harriman, Tenn. During his tenure from 1979-84, Peterson's teams won a Tennessee state title in 1981 and he was twice named TJCAA Coach of the Year (1981, '84). While at Roane State, Peterson put together a sparkling record of 153-96, a .614 winning percentage.

A native of Huntsville, Ala., Peterson stood out as a catcher under the legendary Rudy Abbott at Jacksonville State. He earned his bachelor's from Jacksonville State in 1983 and later earned a master's from Middle Tennessee in 1977.

Peterson is married to the former Rita Albert and the couple has three children, Jill, Jenny and John, and one grandchild, Hayden Wright. Away from the diamond, Peterson enjoys fishing for smallmouth bass.
