Middle Tennessee (9-11)

When: March 28-29, 2006
Site: Murfreesboro, Tenn. (Reese Smith Field)
Radio 88.3 FM WMTS -- David Reed
Notes: Middle Tennessee ends a five-game homestand with a two-game series against Samford ... The Blue Raiders lead the series, 4-3, since 1976, including 2-1 at home ... Middle Tennessee has won two straight in the series, taking both games in Birmingham in 2004 ... The Blue Raiders will not play for six days following Wednesday's contest. Because of the odd number of teams in the Sun Belt, each team receives a bye week and this weekend is Middle Tennessee's bye. The Blue Raiders return to action April 4 at Lipscomb.

Middle Tennessee vs. Samford

The Blue Raiders lead the all-time series, 4-3, since 1976, including 2-1 in Murfreesboro. Middle Tennessee and Samford split two games at Reese Smith Field in 2003, with the Blue Raiders winning, 7-6, and Samford coming back with a 14-6 triumph the following day. The only other meeting in Murfreesboro was an 8-2 Blue Raider win in 2001. Middle Tennessee has won two straight in the series, taking both games in Birmingham in 2004.

Beachum Named Player of the Week

Senior Jeff Beachum was named Sun Belt Player of the Week on Tuesday, Middle Tennessee's first POW honor this season. Beachum went 10-for-20 (.500) in four games last week, leading Middle Tennessee to a 3-1 mark and a series win over the weekend against Arkansas-Little Rock to start conference play. He had three doubles, a triple, scored four times and drove in four other runs as well as stealing a base. In Wednesday's win at Tennessee Tech the four-year starter was 2-for-5 with a run and one RBI. He was 8-for-15 (.533) in the three games against UALR, collecting multi-hits in all three outings. On Friday Beachum was 3-for-6 with a double and two RBIs and came back with a 2-for-4 effort on Saturday with a double, triple, run scored and one RBI. In Sunday's finale the shortstop had three hits, including a double, stole a base and scored twice, including the tying run in the bottom of the eighth. For the season Beachum leads the Blue Raiders with a .374 batting average, collecting seven doubles (team high) with 10 RBIs and a team-high 19 runs scored. He also leads Middle Tennessee with 34 hits and has three stolen bases.

Beachum Climbing Career Lists

Senior Jeff Beachum has enjoyed a very successful career at Middle Tennessee, starting all but seven possible games in his four-year tenure. Beachum moved past former teammate Nate Jaggers (2002-05) into second place on the career hits list over the weekend against Arkansas-Little Rock. The Cordova, Tenn., native now has 259 career hits heading into midweek games against Samford. Beachum is only 10 hits from tying career leader Clay Snellgrove (1994-97) at the top of the all-time list. The Cordova HS product also moved past Jayhawk Owens (43, 1988-90), Jaggers (44, 2002-05) and Doug Barner (45, 1993-96) into sixth on the career doubles list with 46. He is only five away from second place in that category as well and would pass Bryan Peck (48, 1999-00), Brett Carroll (50, 2002-04), George Zimmerman (51, 1986-89) and Mudcat Brewer (51, 1991-94). Beachum also ranks fourth in career at-bats (778) and moved into first against UT Martin on March 16 on the career singles list (203). A full listing appears on page seven of these notes.

More on Beachum

Senior Jeff Beachum has been Middle Tennessee's hottest hitter in the last five games and for most of the season. Beachum is 11-for-25 (.440) during his current five-game hitting streak with five runs scored, four RBIs, two doubles and a triple. In four games last week the Cordova, Tenn., native batted .500 (10-for-20) with three doubles, a triple, four RBIs and four runs scored, helping the Blue Raiders to a 3-1 mark. In the weekend series against Arkansas-Little Rock, he was even better with a .533 batting average (8-for-15) with three doubles, a triple, three RBIs and three runs scored. Beachum has hit safely in 17 of the team's 20 games this season. For the season Beachum leads the Blue Raiders with a .374 batting average, collecting seven doubles (team high) with 10 RBIs and a team-high 19 runs scored. McKenry Named to Bench Award Watch List

Junior catcher Michael McKenry was one of 26 players named to the Coleman Company – Johnny Bench Award Watch List announced this week. The Johnny Bench Award is given annually to the nation's top catcher, with the award sponsored by the Coleman Company and the Greater Wichita (KS) Area Sports Commission. McKenry was a First Team All-Sun Belt selection last season in his first year as the team's starter behind the plate. He currently leads the Blue Raiders with a .422 batting average with three doubles, two triples, two home runs and 15 RBIs in 12 games. The 2006 Johnny Bench Award Watch List includes: Michael Ambort, Jr., Lamar; J.P. Arencibia, So., Tennessee; Brian Baisley, Sr., South Florida; Ryan Bono, Sr., Central Florida; Justin Brashear, Jr., Ole Miss; Donald Cheney, Jr., Morehead State; John Curtis, Jr., Cal-State Fullerton; Ed Easley, So., Mississippi State; Sean Gaston, Jr., Notre Dame; Brian Hernandez, Sr., Vanderbilt; Robby Jacobsen, Sr., George Mason; Brian Jeroloman, Jr., Florida; Jeff Kunkel, Sr., Michigan; Matt Liuzza, Sr., LSU; Jonathan Lucroy, So., Louisiana-Lafayette; Nick Maragas, Jr., Cincinnati; Matt McBride, Jr., Lehigh; Jordan Newton, Jr., Western Kentucky; Preston Paramore, Fr., Arizona State; Kris Rochelle, Jr., Charlotte; Konrad Schmidt, Jr., Arizona; Bryan Towler, Sr., Marist; Chad Tracy, Jr., Pepperdine; Andrew Walker, So., TCU; Andy Wendle, Jr., Villanova. Because the award is given annually to the top Division I collegiate catcher, the list will be updated to include other candidates until May 1. The watch list will be narrowed to 10 semifinalists, who will be announced May 11. A comprehensive biography will be created on each of the semifinalists and sent to the national voting panel at the end of May for a vote to determine the three finalists. The finalists will be announced May 31 prior to the NCAA Regionals and Major League Baseball Draft. A final vote among the national committee will occur during the College World Series. All finalists will be brought to Wichita and the winner will be announced at the 9th Annual Greater Wichita Sports Banquet on June 28.

McKenry on Wallace Watch List

Junior Michael McKenry was named to the Preseason Wallace Watch List by the College Baseball Foundation in November, an award presented annually to the national college baseball player of the year. +McKenry, a 5-foot-10, 195-pound catcher, batted .328 with 13 home runs and 42 RBIs in 49 games in 2005, his first as a starter behind the plate. He showed tremendous power during the season, becoming the first Blue Raider to belt a home run into the football stadium during a game since Floyd Stadium's renovation in 1998. The Knoxville, Tenn., native also scored 44 runs, had 11 doubles and walked 20 times for the 32-23 club. His most impressive statistic may have been throwing out 38 percent of attempted base stealers. The Farragut High School product is one of only six catchers among the 130 nominees for the Brooks Wallace Award, while McKenry joins P.J. Walters (P, South Alabama), Taylor Fowler (P, Arkansas State) and Elih Villanueva (P, Florida International) as the only nominees from the Sun Belt Conference. The Wallace Watch will be trimmed to 12 semifinalists by late May. Then the selection committee will narrow the list to three finalists following the NCAA Super Regionals at a press conference in Omaha, Neb, at the College World Series. The finalists, their head coaches and their parents will be invited to Lubbock, Texas, for a schedule of special events tied to the award banquet, which will again be nationally televised by Fox Sports Network. The selection committee for the Wallace Award is comprised of a national panel of preeminent coaches, sports information directors, former winners and beat media who most closely follow the sport. Screening Committee members will evaluate the candidates and will continue their review throughout the entire baseball season. The list will expand and contract during the regular season and additional Wallace Watch candidates may be added as the season progresses. Voting for the three finalists and the Wallace Award winner will be conducted by confidential balloting, with totals tabulated by the J.W.Anderson & Associates accounting firm in Lubbock, Texas. A full list of the Wallace Watch Preseason List may be found at www.collegebaseballfoundation.org.

Martin, Scott Named All-Region

Todd Martin and Matt Scott were both honored by the American Baseball Coaches Association and Rawlings, earning All-South Central Region honors for the 2005 season. Martin was also named Third Team All-America by the ABCA. Martin was named First Team All-Region and Third Team All-America as the designated hitter after battling injuries all season. He posted a .412 batting average, third best in school history among players with more than 100 at-bats. The Cookeville, Tenn., native had 13 doubles and eight home runs in 42 starts, and is the first Blue Raider All-American since Dewon Brazelton and Josh Renick in 2001. Scott was voted Second Team All-Region after posting a 10-1 mark with a 3.07 ERA in 14 starts. The righthander was 5-0 with a 1.77 ERA in his last five starts of the season, tossing three complete games and striking out 31 in 40.2 innings of work. The duo earned the first all-region selections for Middle Tennessee since Justin Sims in 2002.

Blue Raiders Set Four Offensive Records

The 2005 Blue Raiders broke four offensive records last season, including three records that dated to the mid-80s. Middle Tennessee broke the 2004 mark for hits in a season with 633 despite playing seven fewer games. The club also set a single-season mark for runs with 427, eclipsing the mark set by the 1986 squad. Last year's team broke the mark for RBIs in a year with 380 as well, a count held by both the 1986 and 2004 clubs, and the mark for walks in a season with 266, held previously by the 1985 and 2004 squads. In the last three years the Blue Raiders have set new single-season team highs in eight of the 14 categories.

McKenry Sets and Ties Single-Game Records

Catcher Michael McKenry set one and tied another single-game record at Middle Tennessee last May with a three-home run performance against Florida International. McKenry became only the fifth player in school history and the first since Justin Sims in 2002 (at New Mexico State) to homer three times in a game. His 14 total bases in the contest – McKenry also added a double – set a new single-game record, eclipsing the old mark of 13, also held by Sims.

Record-Setting Victory against Memphis

Middle Tennessee homered a school single-game record nine times in the April 20, 2005, 19-7 victory over Memphis, including six in the sixth inning. The nine homers bested the previous mark of eight in a game set in 2001 at Cumberland. The six round-trippers in an inning tied for the second most in a game in NCAA history with four other teams and had not been accomplished since 1988. The national record of seven home runs in an inning is held by Southern Utah, set April 22, 2001, against Western Illinois.

Peterson Reaches 1,000 Mark

Middle Tennessee's Steve Peterson coached his 1,000th game as skipper of the Blue Raiders on April 16, 2005, at Western Kentucky after picking up his 700th career victory in a 9-2 win over Southeastern Louisiana on March 5 of last season and adding to his school-record total with his 550th win as head coach at Middle Tennessee in a 6-1 triumph on March 15, 2005, against Southern Illinois. Peterson has compiled a career mark of 731-546-2 as a head coach. He has accumulated a 578-452-2 record in 18-plus seasons at Middle Tennessee and posted a 153-96 record as head coach at Roane State CC in six seasons. Peterson is the winningest coach in Middle Tennessee history, ahead of former skipper and athletic director John Stanford (1974-87, 402-272-4).

Steve Peterson

Head Coach ● Jacksonville State/1973 ● 19th Season ● 583-460-2 (.558), 736-554-2 (.570) overall

There are many adjectives to describe the job Steve Peterson has done as Middle Tennessee's highly successful baseball coach since 1988. Coach, fundraiser, teacher, recruiter and architect are just a few, but if you are looking for one word to sum his contributions as the Blue Raiders' longtime skipper, try winner.

Peterson begins his 19th season heading the Blue Raider program as the school's all-time winningest coach with 574 victories and a stockpile of conference championships and NCAA Tournament berths to his credit, demonstrating the consistency with which the driven skipper has guided the club.

Middle Tennessee has been a model program on Peterson's watch and the proof is in the success the Blue Raiders have achieved. The veteran coach has led Middle Tennessee to 10 regular-season conference championships, eight conference tournament titles and seven NCAA Regional berths, including two at-large selections in the past five years. Peterson guided the Blue Raiders to seven consecutive championships – either regular-season or tournament – during one stretch, proving Middle Tennessee doesn't rebuild, it reloads.

Peterson, who enters the 2006 season with a sterling 574-449-2 mark, has produced 11 seasons with 30 or more wins, including a school-record 42 victories in 1990. He also has three campaigns of at least 40 wins, including 2004's 40-22 club.

The constant manner in which Middle Tennessee has enjoyed success during Peterson's tenure is a direct reflection on recruiting and developing talent, and the proof was never more evident than in 2001 – the Blue Raiders' first season as a member of the Sun Belt Conference after years of success in the Ohio Valley.

Asked how the move into the Sun Belt, rated one of the nation's Top 5 baseball leagues at the time and consistently a Top 10 conference, would change his recruiting philosophy, Peterson quickly responded, "none at all." The 2001 Blue Raiders then went out and shared the Sun Belt championship with South Alabama during their first year in the high-profile league and the majority of the chief contributors were the same performers who led Middle Tennessee to the 2000 Ohio Valley Conference championship.

The move to a higher-rated conference has not hurt Middle Tennessee's status. If anything, it has helped. In their first five years in the Sun Belt, Peterson's teams have won two regular-season championships, a tournament championship and earned three NCAA Regional berths, including two at-large selections for the first time in school history. The 2001 squad earned national acclaim for its pitching and hitting and the season concluded with pitcher Dewon Brazelton being selected as the No. 3 overall pick of the Tampa Bay Devil Rays in the Major League Baseball First-Year Amateur Player Draft. Brazelton was one of six players from the team to earn a spot on a professional baseball roster that season.

A program cannot enjoy consistent success without quality players and Peterson, a three-time Coach of the Year, has not only made a habit of making sure Middle Tennessee has its share of quality performers, but he's won by constantly signing prep players and developing them at the college level. The proof is in the fact Peterson has coached a Sun Belt Player of the Year and six OVC Players of the Year, a Sun Belt Pitcher of the Year and an OVC Pitcher of the Year, a First-Team All-American, five Third-Team All-Americans, four Freshman All-Americans, and 38 first-team All-Conference performers.

Players who have honed their skills under Peterson also have had an outstanding rate of continuing their careers at the professional level. Professional baseball has seen 47 former Peterson performers earning the chance to play at the game's highest level, with four making their way to the Major Leagues.

If that's not enough, Peterson's recruits have established most of the offensive records held at Middle Tennessee and four players he has developed have hit .400 or better in a season, along with the school's single-season and career home run record holders. His 1997 squad established the all-time record for batting average with a .323 clip.

Peterson's players not only have been solid on the field at the collegiate level and continued their careers professionally, but a large majority have taken the skills and fundamentals learned at Middle Tennessee and are earning a living as coaches at various levels. Thirty-four former Blue Raiders are currently coaching at the high school, college or professional levels.

Peterson's peers have recognized his achievements and contributions to the game by bestowing several honors on him. He was named the Tennessee Baseball Coaches Association College Coach of the Year in 1992 and again in 2000. He was also inducted into the Rutherford County Old Timers Baseball Hall of Fame in 2003. Fellow coaches have named Peterson Coach of the Year on three occasions – twice in the Ohio Valley and again in 2004, his first such honor in the Sun Belt.

Peterson's outgoing and personable style has made him a hit with fans, boosters, players and recruits, alike. Baseball enthusiasts throughout the Middle Tennessee community clearly appreciate his hard-nosed and aggressive style of play, as fans continue to flock to Reese Smith Field at a record pace. The Blue Raiders established a single-game attendance record in 2001 at Reese Smith Field with a crowd of 2,733 against South Alabama. The team went on to set the single-season attendance mark with 26,218 coming through the gates at Reese Smith Field. The 2001 squad saw 15 crowds of 1,000 or more during the season. Those numbers were surpassed in 2004 when the team set a single-game attendance record of 3,020 against Vanderbilt, as well as setting a new single-season attendance mark of 30,319, ranking 46th nationally in attendance for the season. Fifteen contests drew more than 1,000 patrons during the record-setting campaign.

Not only has Peterson been a winner on the field, but he's been a successful fundraiser during his career as well. Events such as the annual Chuck Taylor Golf Tournament, the Groundhog Day Luncheon and the Grand Slam Fish Fry in the fall have become mainstays on calendars of Blue Raider baseball supporters across middle Tennessee and have served to raise thousands of dollars for the improvement of Blue Raider baseball.

Peterson spearheaded the efforts to pay for the construction of the Stephen B. Smith Clubhouse and Indoor Training Facility, which opened its doors in 1998. One look inside the facility shows the time and effort spent toward this endeavor. It has become known as one of the finest collegiate clubhouses and training facilities in the country.

Reese Smith Field also has benefited from Peterson's fundraising abilities. He has helped transform the park into a fan-friendly area by expanding the seating area, putting up a new information center just inside the gate, and expanding the restroom and concession facilities.

Peterson guided efforts during the summer of 2001 to expand the dugouts at Reese Smith Field. He also is currently spearheading an effort that would totally renovate the stadium. The plans would call for a significant remodeling of the concession stand, improved and expanded restroom facilities and a modern press box that would accommodate radio and television, along with print media.

While Peterson has spent 18 seasons leading the Middle Tennessee baseball program, his tenure with the program is much longer. He took two separate tours with the Blue Raiders as an assistant coach under John Stanford prior to becoming the team's head coach. During his runs between 1976-78 and 1985-87, the Blue Raiders won two OVC titles and four southern division crowns.

During the interim, Peterson served as the head coach at Roane State Community College in Harriman, Tenn. During his tenure from 1979-84, Peterson's teams won a Tennessee state title in 1981 and he was twice named TJCAA Coach of the Year (1981, '84). While at Roane State, Peterson put together a sparkling record of 153-96, a .614 winning percentage.

A native of Huntsville, Ala., Peterson stood out as a catcher under the legendary Rudy Abbott at Jacksonville State. He earned his bachelor's from Jacksonville State in 1983 and later earned a master's from Middle Tennessee in 1977.

Peterson is married to the former Rita Albert and the couple has three children, Jill, Jenny and John, and one grandchild, Hayden Wright. Away from the diamond, Peterson enjoys fishing for smallmouth bass.
