THREE-PEAT: Middle Tennessee won its third straight Sun Belt Tournament title with an 84-73 victory over Western Kentucky. The Blue Raiders join Old Dominion (1983-85), Western Kentucky (1991-93) and Louisiana Tech (1996-2001) as the only programs to win three straight Sun Belt Conference Women's Tournament titles. This also marks just the second time in school history the Blue Raiders have advanced to the NCAA's three years in a row.

IN THE NCAA: Middle Tennessee made its 10th appearance in the NCAA Tournament. The Blue Raiders faced No. 5 seed Utah in the first round of the NCAA Tournament in the Albuquerque Regional. Middle Tennessee fell 76-71 to the Utes in Tucson, Arizona on the University of Arizona campus.

GIVENS MAKES MARK: Junior Chrissy Givens became just the second player in the history of the Sun Belt Conference to win Player of the Year, Defensive Player of the Year, and Tournament Most Outstanding Player awards in the same season. The other SBC player to accomplish this feat was Louisiana Tech's Amanda Wilson in 1998. In the three tournament games, Givens averaged 23.1 points per game and scored a total of 71 points. She was just three points away from tying the Sun Belt Tournament record for most points in the tournament which was set by former Blue Raider player Patrice Holmes in 2003. She did set the single game record with 36 points against Louisiana-Lafayette.

TRIO FOR THREE: Tia Stovall, Krystle Horton and Chrissy Givens became the first trio of teammates in Middle Tennessee women's basketball history to win a conference tournament title three years in a row.

HOME COURT ADVANTAGE: Middle Tennessee played the Sun Belt Tournament in the friendly confines of the Murphy Center in Murfreesboro, Tenn. … The Blue Raiders have won 21 consecutive home games over Sun Belt Conference opponents dating back to 2004. Overall, the Blue Raiders ended the season 15-1 at home with its lone loss to then No. 17 Georgia on November 30.

GIVENS PLAYER OF THE YEAR: For the first time in 14 years, Middle Tennessee women's basketball has a conference player of the year. Junior guard Chrissy Givens capped her phenomenal regular season run by being voted Sun Belt Player of the Year in a near unanimous vote. It is the first time since Middle Tennessee has joined the Sun Belt Conference the Blue Raider club has had a conference player of the year. Prior to Givens, Priscilla Robinson was named Player of the Year for the Blue Raiders in 1992.

GIVENS ALSO DEFENSIVE POY: Chrissy Givens not only scores with the basketball, but she also takes it away, averaging 3.40 steals per game with 85 steals, she is leading the Sun Belt … Givens keeps the Defensive Player of the Year award in the Blue Raider family as she becomes the fourth consecutive Middle Tennessee Player to be named Sun Belt Defensive Player of the Year ... Former Blue Raider standouts Patrice Holmes, who received the award twice, and Keisha McClinic were also named Defensive Player of the Year.

Rick Insell made a huge splash in his first year at the helm of the Middle Tennessee women's basketball program.

Insell can now drop the title "former high school coach" and add Head Coach of the 2006 Sun Belt Tournament champions, as he led the Blue Raiders to their third consecutive tournament title. He directed one of the most thrilling comebacks in Sun Belt Tournament history, leading Middle Tennessee to an 84-73 win over Western Kentucky after being down by as much as 14 in the first half.

His first year also saw Insell bring in a Top-10 recruiting class for the 2006-07 season, and lead Middle Tennessee to an unprecedented third consecutive trip to the NCAA Tournament. Insell also developed one of the most prolific scorers for a single season in school history as Chrissy Givens exploded for 667 points, which ranks her second in the all-time scoring list for a season, and makes her just one of five players to score 600 or more points as Blue Raider. Entering the 2005-06 season, Givens had 480 points in her two previous seasons – combined.

The 2005-06 campaign also saw another first in program history as three players – Givens, Tia Stovall and Krystle Horton - on the squad all were part of the 1,000-point club. This marks the first time in school history three current players all were represented on the prestigious list, and the Blue Raiders were one of only four teams in the 2006 NCAA Tournament to boast such an honor.

Middle Tennessee notched one of its biggest wins of the season when the Blue Raiders shocked Big 10 powerhouse Penn State 79-65 in the UAB Blaze Tournament. The Blue Raiders also saw a huge increase in attendance in Insell's first year as Middle Tennessee averaged 2,558 per game - an increase of 300 percent from the 2004-05 season.

The legendary Insell, a 1977 graduate of Middle Tennessee, built a dynasty at nearby Shelbyville Central High School, where he guided the Golden Eaglettes to a record 10 TSSAA Class AAA state championships and two USA Today National Championships (1989, 1991) as he compiled a sparkling 775-148 worksheet during his 28-year tenure. Insell was named USA Today National High School Coach of the Year in 1989 and 1991, and he also has been named Converse National High School Coach of the Year on two occasions (1990, 1992).

Insell called the women's basketball position at Middle Tennessee his "dream job."

"Dreams do come true," Insell said. "It's something you think about. I'm a coach and it's all I've ever done, from elementary to junior high to junior pro, AAU, and high school. To be able to come on board at Middle Tennessee, a Division I school, that's a dream come true, not only for me but for all of the high school coaches and junior high coaches across the country and it says if you stay in there long enough and dream big enough, one day it will eventually happen."

Insell said Middle Tennessee will be a pressing basketball team on defense and force the issue, and he added that the Blue Raiders would back down from no one on the recruiting trail.

"We are going after the best players in the state of Tennessee every year," Insell said. "If Tennessee or Vanderbilt is after them then Middle Tennessee is going to be after them, too. We will recruit alongside of them. We are not going to be intimidated, nor will we back down because they are in the Southeastern Conference. We are Division I and they are Division I. We are going to use all of our contacts."

A name synonymous with high school girl's basketball in Tennessee, Insell's teams hold the Tennessee state records for consecutive wins with 110, consecutive state titles with four (1989-1992), most state championships for a coach with 10 (1986, 1989, 1990, 1991, 1992, 1995, 2000, 2001, 2003, and 2004), and his 1990 Golden Eaglette squad was named the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame Team of the Year, the first high school team so honored.

Under Insell's guidance, Shelbyville Central High School won 23 district championships 16 regional championships and appeared in the Class AAA state championship game a remarkable 15 times, winning 10. Insell developed six Tennessee Class AAA Miss Basketball Award recipients, 15 high school All-Americans and 57 of his players have received either athletic or academic scholarships to continue their careers at the collegiate level.

While Insell built a basketball dynasty at Shelbyville, he also made sure his players got the job done in the classroom. His teams received the TSSAA Distinguished Award for Academic Success from 1989-2000, an award based on team GPA. The lowest cumulative GPA at Shelbyville during that stretch was 3.4 and the highest was 3.98.

Additionally, Insell's Shelbyville team received a special invitation to the Oval Office by President George Bush for academic and athletic achievement and his teams were also honored in the United States Senate and House of Representatives and the Tennessee State House and Senate and by two Tennessee governors.

Insell is married to Deb and the couple have three sons, Tom, Kyle, and Matt.

INSELL'S INS AND OUTS

Appeared on Dateline on December 26, 2004. The program produced a one hour segment on Insell, focusing on him and his Shelbyville Eaglettes. The program was shown internationally.

March 22, 2003, Rick Insell was inducted into the Tennessee Secondary School Athletic Association Hall of Fame.

Insell and his Shelbyville Eaglettes received a special invitation to the Oval Office by President George Bush for academic and athletic achievement.

In 1989, ESPN did a feature story on the Shelbyville Eaglettes that aired nationally several times. The story won the National Television Journalism Award later that year. It was the first of several stories ESPN did on Insell and his team.

In 1992, Rick Insell was named Head Coach of the Girls High School All-American Game and from 1992-96 he was a member of the All-American Selection Committee. He became the chairman of the All-American Selection Committee in 1996 and began serving as an advisor in 1999.

Insell was named to the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) Board of Directors as High School Representative in 2001.
