Site: Murfreesboro, Tenn. (Reese Smith Field)
Radio 88.3 FM WMTS -- David Reed
Notes: Middle Tennessee hosts Western Kentucky in a three-game series beginning Friday as part of a season-high six-game homestand ... The Blue Raiders are fourth in the Sun Belt at 3-3 heading into the weekend while the Hilltoppers are in last place in the league at 2-7 ... Middle Tennessee leads the all-time series, 43-40, since 1976, and the teams have met at least once in every season except 1981 since 1976 ... The Blue Raiders are 11-8 versus WKU since joining the Sun Belt, including 3-3 at home and 2-1 in the Sun Belt Championships.

Middle Tennessee vs. Western Kentucky
The Blue Raiders lead the overall series, 43-40, since 1976, including 20-12 at Reese Smith Field. The teams have met at least one time in every season since 1976 except 1981. Head coach Steve Peterson is 26-17 all-time against the Hilltoppers. Since joining the Sun Belt, Middle Tennessee is 11-8 versus WKU, including 3-3 at home. The two teams have met three times in the Sun Belt Championships (2001, W 9-4; 2003, W, 8-5; 2004, L, 11-4), with the meetings in 2003 and 2004 in the tournament championship game.

Beachum Breaks Hits Record
Senior Jeff Beachum became the all-time hits leader at Middle Tennessee on Tuesday against Austin Peay, doubling in the third inning to tie the record and then homering, his first of the season, in the fourth inning to pass Clay Snellgrove (269, 1994-97) for the career record. Beachum enters the weekend against Western Kentucky with 273 career hits. He also ranks in the Top 10 in six other categories, including runs scored (148, t6th), at-bats (813, 3rd), singles (1st, 214), doubles (48, t5th), total bases (350, t8th) and sacrifices (23, 3rd). The Cordova, Tenn., native should also enter the Top 10 in games played (198) this weekend against WKU and is only 12 RBIs from tying Jayhawk Owens (129, 1988-90) for 10th on the all-time list. For the season Beachum is second on the club in batting average (.381), first in hits (48), doubles (9) and runs scored (31), and second in on-base percentage (.428). He also has just seven strikeouts in 126 at-bats, ranking 32nd nationally in toughest-to-strikeout category. A full listing of the career lists appears on page 9 of these notes.

Kendrick Taking Advantage of Starting Role
Junior Wayne Kendrick has stepped into the second base role vacated by departed senior Eric McNamee and picked right up where McNamee left off, hitting for average, drawing walks and most importantly, scoring runs for the Blue Raiders. The Murfreesboro, Tenn., native ranks second on the club with 30 runs scored heading into the weekend against Western Kentucky and is also third on the squad with 15 walks. His .444 on-base percentage is second-best on the team. For the season the Riverdale HS product ranks third for the Blue Raiders in batting average (.352), hits (38) and stolen bases (5), starting all but one game at second base. Kendrick also enters the series against WKU with a career-long and team season-best 10-game hitting streak, collecting 16 hits in 43 at-bats (.372) with five extra-base hits, six RBIs, six walks and 14 runs scored during the stretch. A full listing of double-digit hitting streaks since the start of the 1999 season is on page 5 of these notes.

McKenry Dialed In at the Plate
Junior Michael McKenry has added to a good sophomore year with a terrific beginning to his junior season. In this week's first national statistics, the Knoxville, Tenn., native ranks in the Top 55 in batting average (54th), home runs per game (41st) and slugging percentage (9th). McKenry and teammate Todd Martin are tied with Troy's Josh Dew with eight home runs heading into the weekend against Western Kentucky. McKenry had an eight-game hitting streak come to an end on Wednesday against Belmont, but during the eight-game stretch the Farragut HS product was 13-for-27 (.481) with four doubles, a triple, five home runs, nine walks, 10 RBIs and 12 runs scored. He homered in four straight games – three at New Orleans last weekend and then Tuesday versus Austin Peay – and did not strikeout in 36 plate appearances. McKenry went through one other torrid stretch this season, putting together a seven-game hitting streak from March 4-12, batting .517 (15-for-29) with three doubles, a triple, two home runs, 11 RBIs and three runs scored along with four walks. he ranks first for the Blue Raiders in batting average (.412), RBIs (34), slugging percentage (.784), walks (22) and on-base percentage (.531). Power Stroke Returns for Martin

Senior Todd Martin was limited last season because of elbow and knee injuries, keeping the Cookeville, Tenn., native from displaying the expected power numbers when he transferred from the University of Tennessee. During the offseason Martin had surgery for both ailments and has come into form during 2006. The Cookeville HS product is tied for the team and Sun Belt lead with teammate Michael McKenry and Troy's Josh Dew with eight home runs. Martin belted two home runs Wednesday against Belmont, the first two-homer game of his career. It was his first round-trippers since collecting home runs in three straight games from March 16-18 (UT Martin, at Birmingham Southern). He already has 14 extra-base hits this season after recording 21 in 2005. In his last four games Martin has seven hits in 17 at-bats (.412) and has driven in 11 runs, including a career-high five against Belmont. For the season Martin ranks fourth on the club in batting average (.324), second in RBIs (32) and slugging percentage (.611) and walks (16) and is fourth in runs scored (23).

McKenry Named Player of the Week

Michael McKenry was voted the Sun Belt Conference Player of the Week on Monday after homering in all three games over the weekend at New Orleans. McKenry went 9-for-15 (.600) in four games last week, doing most of his damage over the weekend at New Orleans. In Tuesday's win at Lipscomb, the junior doubled, walked twice, scored a run and drove in another in a 12-7 victory. Over the weekend at UNO, the Knoxville, Tenn., native was 8-for-13 (.615) with two doubles, three home runs, six RBIs and six runs scored, posting a 1.462 slugging percentage in the series. In Friday's victory the catcher doubled, homered and had three hits, driving in three runs and scoring twice. On Saturday McKenry tied his career-high with four hits, including another double and homer, driving in two runs and scoring twice. On Sunday he played rightfield for the first time since April 10-11, 2004, at Florida International, running into the rightcenter field wall to make a catch as well as going 1-for-3 with a walk and two runs scored. For the season raised his batting average to a team-best .406 with eight doubles, seven home runs and 30 RBIs in 26 games. He has also scored 22 runs, walked 19 times and added three triples.

Junior Adam Warren has hit safely in four consecutive outings, going 5-for-19 (.263) with five RBIs.

Beachum Named Player of the Week

Senior Jeff Beachum was named Sun Belt Player of the Week on March 28, Middle Tennessee's first POW honor this season. Beachum went 10-for-20 (.500) in four games last week, leading Middle Tennessee to a 3-1 mark and a series win over the weekend against Arkansas-Little Rock to start conference play. He had three doubles, a triple, scored four times and drove in four other runs as well as stealing a base. In Wednesday's win at Tennessee Tech the four-year starter was 2-for-5 with a run and one RBI. He was 8-for-15 (.533) in the three games against UALR, collecting multi-hits in all three outings. On Friday Beachum was 3-for-6 with a double and two RBIs and came back with a 2-for-4 effort on Saturday with a double, triple, run scored and one RBI. In Sunday's finale the shortstop had three hits, including a double, stole a base and scored twice, including the tying run in the bottom of the eighth. The honor was the third of Beachum's career (May 10, 2004; May 9, 2005) and the eighth Player of the Week honor since Middle Tennessee joined the Sun Belt in 2001.

McKenry Named NSCA All-American

Junior Michael McKenry was honored on March 17 by the National Strength and Conditioning Association with its annual All-American Strength and Conditioning Athlete of the Year award, recognizing student-athletes' dedication to strength training and conditioning. This year the NSCA awarded 242 collegiate athletes from 160 schools with the esteemed award. McKenry was nominated by Assistant Athletic Director for Strength and Conditioning as well as baseball strength coach Matt Riley. McKenry is one of only 12 Division I baseball players in the country honored by the NSCA, including: Jon Polston - Air Force Academy, Justin Smucker - Binghamton, Michael Cowgill - James Madison, Anthony Gressick - Ohio, Dallas Buck - Oregon State, Justin Cassel - UC-Irvine, Chase Christianson - South Alabama, Aaron George - South Alabama, Marc Maddox - Southern Miss, Anthony Jackson - Pacific, and Charles Schultz - Youngstown State. The All-American Athlete of the Year Award program is in its 27th year and is made possible by a grant from Power Systems, Inc., a Knoxville, Tenn., fitness product leader.

McKenry Named to Bench Award Watch List

Junior catcher Michael McKenry was one of 26 players named to the Coleman Company – Johnny Bench Award Watch List announced March 14. The Johnny Bench Award is given annually to the nation's top catcher, with the award sponsored by the Coleman Company and the Greater Wichita (KS) Area Sports Commission. McKenry was a First Team All-Sun Belt selection last season in his first year as the team's starter behind the plate. The 2006 Johnny Bench Award Watch List includes: Michael Ambort, Jr., Lamar; J.P. Arencibia, So., Tennessee; Brian Baisley, Sr., South Florida; Ryan Bono, Sr., Central Florida; Justin Brashear, Jr., Ole Miss; Donald Cheney, Jr., Morehead State; John Curtis, Jr., Cal-State Fullerton; Ed Easley, So., Mississippi State; Sean Gaston, Jr., Notre Dame; Brian Hernandez, Sr., Vanderbilt; Robby Jacobsen, Sr., George Mason; Brian Jeroloman, Jr., Florida; Jeff Kunkel, Sr., Michigan; Matt Liuzza, Sr., LSU; Jonathan Lucroy, So., Louisiana-Lafayette; Nick Maragas, Jr., Cincinnati; Matt McBride, Jr., Lehigh; Jordan Newton, Jr., Western Kentucky; Preston Paramore, Fr., Arizona State; Kris Rochelle, Jr., Charlotte; Konrad Schmidt, Jr., Arizona; Bryan Towler, Sr., Marist; Chad Tracy, Jr., Pepperdine; Andrew Walker, So., TCU; Andy Wendle, Jr., Villanova. Because the award is given annually to the top Division I collegiate catcher, the list will be updated to include other candidates until May 1. The watch list will be narrowed to 10 semi-finalists, who will be announced May 11. A comprehensive biography will be created on each of the semifinalists and sent to the national voting panel at the end of May for a vote to determine the three finalists. The finalists will be announced May 31 prior to the NCAA Regionals and Major League Baseball Draft. A final vote among the national committee will occur during the College World Series. All finalists will be brought to Wichita and the winner will be announced at the 9th Annual Greater Wichita Sports Banquet on June 28.

McKenry on Wallace Watch List

Junior Michael McKenry was named to the Preseason Wallace Watch List by the College Baseball Foundation in November, an award presented annually to the national college baseball player of the year. McKenry, a 5-foot-10, 195-pound catcher, batted .328 with 13 home runs and 42 RBIs in 49 games in 2005, his first as a starter behind the plate. He showed tremendous power during the season, becoming the first Blue Raider to belt a home run into the football stadium during a game since Floyd Stadium's renovation in 1998. The Knoxville, Tenn., native also scored 44 runs, had 11 doubles and walked 20 times for the 32-23 club. His most impressive statistic may have been throwing out 38 percent of attempted base stealers. The Farragut High School product is one of only six catchers among the 130 nominees for the Brooks Wallace Award, while McKenry joins P.J. Walters (P, South Alabama), Taylor Fowler (P, Arkansas State) and Elih Villanueva (P, Florida International) as the only nominees from the Sun Belt Conference. The Wallace Watch will be trimmed to 12 semifinalists by late May. Then the selection committee will narrow the list to three finalists following the NCAA Super Regionals at a press conference in Omaha, Neb, at the College World Series. The finalists, their head coaches and their parents will be invited to Lubbock, Texas, for a schedule of special events tied to the award banquet, which will again be nationally televised by Fox Sports Network. The selection committee for the Wallace Award is comprised of a national panel of preeminent coaches, sports information directors, former winners and beat media who most closely follow the sport. Screening Committee members will evaluate the candidates and will continue their review throughout the entire baseball season. The list will expand and contract during the regular season and additional Wallace Watch candidates may be added as the season progresses. Voting for the three finalists and the Wallace Award winner will be conducted by confidential balloting, with totals tabulated by the J.W.Anderson & Associates accounting firm in Lubbock, Texas. A full list of the Wallace Watch Preseason List may be found at www.collegebaseballfoundation.org.

TIDBITS

Blue Raiders Ink Four in the Fall

Middle Tennessee signed four players to national letters-of-intent during the fall signing period in November, including three players from the state of Tennessee — Overton HS outfielder Zach Hudson, Ravenwood HS catcher Drew Robertson, Ooltewah HS first baseman Blake McDade and St. Louis, Mo., pitcher Tyler Hyde. Hudson's Overton team reached the state finals last season, with the 6-foot-2, 215-pounder batting .354 with 13 doubles and 38 RBIs along with 11 stolen bases. Hudson played mostly rightfield last season but should see some time in centerfield this year for coach Mike Morrison. Robertson is not the prototypical Blue Raider catcher under Peterson, standing 6-foot-2 and 170 pounds. Every catcher under Peterson has been drafted at the end of their career, and Robertson should add to the program's success behind the plate. McDade was an All-District and All-Region selection last season after batting .400 with three home runs, 42 RBIs and 15 doubles at OHS. He also added six home runs and 35 RBIs to go with a .390 average as a sophomore for the Owls. The 6-foot-1, 200-pounder is breaking with family tradition after his father played football at Tennessee. Hyde will be breaking from family tradition, as well, after his father was a quarterback at Missouri in the 1980's. The Chaminade Prepatory School product struck out 33 in 43 innings of work last season, posting a 2.93 ERA with opponents batting .195.

Record-Setting Victory against Memphis

Middle Tennessee homered a single-game record nine times in the April 20, 2005, victory over Memphis, including six in the sixth inning. The nine homers bested the previous mark of eight in a game set in 2001 at Cumberland. The six round-trippers in an inning tied for the second most in a game in NCAA history with four other teams and had not been accomplished since 1988. The national record of seven home runs in an inning is held by Southern Utah, set April 22, 2001, against Western Illinois.

Peterson Reaches 1,000 Mark

Middle Tennessee's Steve Peterson coached his 1,000th game as skipper of the Blue Raiders on April 16, 2005, at Western Kentucky after picking up his 700th career victory in a 9-2 win over Southeastern Louisiana on March 5 of last season and adding to his school-record total with his 550th win as head coach at Middle Tennessee in a 6-1 triumph on March 15, 2005, against Southern Illinois. Peterson has compiled a career mark of 731-546-2 as a head coach. He has accumulated a 578-452-2 record in 18-plus seasons at Middle Tennessee and posted a 153-96 record as head coach at Roane State CC in six seasons. Peterson is the winningest coach in Middle Tennessee history, ahead of former skipper and athletic director John Stanford (1974-87, 402-272-4).

Steve Peterson

Head Coach ● Jacksonville State/1973 ● 19th Season ● 589-462-2 (.559), 742-556-2 (.571) overall

There are many adjectives to describe the job Steve Peterson has done as Middle Tennessee's highly successful baseball coach since 1988. Coach, fundraiser, teacher, recruiter and architect are just a few, but if you are looking for one word to sum his contributions as the Blue Raiders' longtime skipper, try winner.

Peterson begins his 19th season heading the Blue Raider program as the school's all-time winningest coach with 574 victories and a stockpile of conference championships and NCAA Tournament berths to his credit, demonstrating the consistency with which the driven skipper has guided the club.

Middle Tennessee has been a model program on Peterson's watch and the proof is in the success the Blue Raiders have achieved. The veteran coach has led Middle Tennessee to 10 regular-season conference championships, eight conference tournament titles and seven NCAA Regional berths, including two at-large selections in the past five years. Peterson guided the Blue Raiders to seven consecutive championships – either regular-season or tournament – during one stretch, proving Middle Tennessee doesn't rebuild, it reloads.

Peterson, who enters the 2006 season with a sterling 574-449-2 mark, has produced 11 seasons with 30 or more wins, including a school-record 42 victories in 1990. He also has three campaigns of at least 40 wins, including 2004's 40-22 club.

The constant manner in which Middle Tennessee has enjoyed success during Peterson's tenure is a direct reflection on recruiting and developing talent, and the proof was never more evident than in 2001 – the Blue Raiders' first season as a member of the Sun Belt Conference after years of success in the Ohio Valley.

Asked how the move into the Sun Belt, rated one of the nation's Top 5 baseball leagues at the time and consistently a Top 10 conference, would change his recruiting philosophy, Peterson quickly responded, "none at all." The 2001 Blue Raiders then went out and shared the Sun Belt championship with South Alabama during their first year in the high-profile league and the majority of the chief contributors were the same performers who led Middle Tennessee to the 2000 Ohio Valley Conference championship.

The move to a higher-rated conference has not hurt Middle Tennessee's status. If anything, it has helped. In their first five years in the Sun Belt, Peterson's teams have won two regular-season championships, a tournament championship and earned three NCAA Regional berths, including two at-large selections for the first time in school history. The 2001 squad earned national acclaim for its pitching and hitting and the season concluded with pitcher Dewon Brazelton being selected as the No. 3 overall pick of the Tampa Bay Devil Rays in the Major League Baseball First-Year Amateur Player Draft. Brazelton was one of six players from the team to earn a spot on a professional baseball roster that season.

A program cannot enjoy consistent success without quality players and Peterson, a three-time Coach of the Year, has not only made a habit of making sure Middle Tennessee has its share of quality performers, but he's won by constantly signing prep players and developing them at the college level. The proof is in the fact Peterson has coached a Sun Belt Player of the Year and six OVC Players of the Year, a Sun Belt Pitcher of the Year and an OVC Pitcher of the Year, a First-Team All-American, five Third-Team All-Americans, four Freshman All-Americans, and 38 first-team All-Conference performers.

Players who have honed their skills under Peterson also have had an outstanding rate of continuing their careers at the professional level. Professional baseball has seen 47 former Peterson performers earning the chance to play at the game's highest level, with four making their way to the Major Leagues.

If that's not enough, Peterson's recruits have established most of the offensive records held at Middle Tennessee and four players he has developed have hit .400 or better in a season, along with the school's single-season and career home run record holders. His 1997 squad established the all-time record for batting average with a .323 clip.

Peterson's players not only have been solid on the field at the collegiate level and continued their careers professionally, but a large majority have taken the skills and fundamentals learned at Middle Tennessee and are earning a living as coaches at various levels. Thirty-four former Blue Raiders are currently coaching at the high school, college or professional levels.

Peterson's peers have recognized his achievements and contributions to the game by bestowing several honors on him. He was named the Tennessee Baseball Coaches Association College Coach of the Year in 1992 and again in 2000. He was also inducted into the Rutherford County Old Timers Baseball Hall of Fame in 2003. Fellow coaches have named Peterson Coach of the Year on three occasions – twice in the Ohio Valley and again in 2004, his first such honor in the Sun Belt.

Peterson's outgoing and personable style has made him a hit with fans, boosters, players and recruits, alike. Baseball enthusiasts throughout the Middle Tennessee community clearly appreciate his hard-nosed and aggressive style of play, as fans continue to flock to Reese Smith Field at a record pace. The Blue Raiders established a single-game attendance record in 2001 at Reese Smith Field with a crowd of 2,733 against South Alabama. The team went on to set the single-season attendance mark with 26,218 coming through the gates at Reese Smith Field. The 2001 squad saw 15 crowds of 1,000 or more during the season. Those numbers were surpassed in 2004 when the team set a single-game attendance record of 3,020 against Vanderbilt, as well as setting a new single-season attendance mark of 30,319, ranking 46th nationally in attendance for the season. Fifteen contests drew more than 1,000 patrons during the record-setting campaign.

Not only has Peterson been a winner on the field, but he's been a successful fundraiser during his career as well. Events such as the annual Chuck Taylor Golf Tournament, the Groundhog Day Luncheon and the Grand Slam Fish Fry in the fall have become mainstays on calendars of Blue Raider baseball supporters across middle Tennessee and have served to raise thousands of dollars for the improvement of Blue Raider baseball.

Peterson spearheaded the efforts to pay for the construction of the Stephen B. Smith Clubhouse and Indoor Training Facility, which opened its doors in 1998. One look inside the facility shows the time and effort spent toward this endeavor. It has become known as one of the finest collegiate clubhouses and training facilities in the country.

Reese Smith Field also has benefited from Peterson's fundraising abilities. He has helped transform the park into a fan-friendly area by expanding the seating area, putting up a new information center just inside the gate, and expanding the restroom and concession facilities.

Peterson guided efforts during the summer of 2001 to expand the dugouts at Reese Smith Field. He also is currently spearheading an effort that would totally renovate the stadium. The plans would call for a significant remodeling of the concession stand, improved and expanded restroom facilities and a modern press box that would accommodate radio and television, along with print media.

While Peterson has spent 18 seasons leading the Middle Tennessee baseball program, his tenure with the program is much longer. He took two separate tours with the Blue Raiders as an assistant coach under John Stanford prior to becoming the team's head coach. During his runs between 1976-78 and 1985-87, the Blue Raiders won two OVC titles and four southern division crowns.

During the interim, Peterson served as the head coach at Roane State Community College in Harriman, Tenn. During his tenure from 1979-84, Peterson's teams won a Tennessee state title in 1981 and he was twice named TJCAA Coach of the Year (1981, '84). While at Roane State, Peterson put together a sparkling record of 153-96, a .614 winning percentage.

A native of Huntsville, Ala., Peterson stood out as a catcher under the legendary Rudy Abbott at Jacksonville State. He earned his bachelor's from Jacksonville State in 1983 and later earned a master's from Middle Tennessee in 1977.

Peterson is married to the former Rita Albert and the couple has three children, Jill, Jenny and John, and one grandchild, Hayden Wright. Away from the diamond, Peterson enjoys fishing for smallmouth bass.
