The next four spots were separated by just seven points, with Louisiana-Lafayette, the defending regular season champion, claiming two first-place votes and 61 points. Florida International and Troy tied for third with 55 points, with the Blue Raiders receiving one first-place vote and 54 points in fifth. Middle Tennessee was also picked fifth by Collegiate Baseball and Baseball America. Arkansas State, New Orleans, Western Kentucky and Arkansas-Little Rock rounded out the vote. In the first-ever Preseason All-Sun Belt team, five Blue Raiders were voted to the team, including junior Matt Scott earning Preseason Sun Belt Pitcher of the Year honors. Also earning one of the two relief spots was senior Allan Woodward. Senior Todd Martin was voted to the designated hitter spot. Senior Jeff Beachum was voted the team's shortstop. Sophomore Nathan Hines earned one of the three outfield spots.

season. He is also first in doubles (14), hits (81) and stolen bases (10) and second in runs (48). Beachum ranks sixth in the Sun Belt in batting and fourth in hits with 81. In Sun Belt games only, the Cordova HS product's .427 batting average and 35 hits both rank third in the league.

Beachum Also Rewriting Record Books

Senior Jeff Beachum is not only having his best season at the plate, but the four-year starter is rewriting the career record books at Middle Tennessee. The Cordova HS product set the all-time hits record April 11 against Austin Peay with his first home run of the season. Beachum has 306 career hits heading into the weekend series with Sun Belt co-leader Louisiana-Lafayette, ranking second on the all-time Sun Belt list behind only Ernie Carr (Jacksonville Univ., 318, 1985-88). Beachum has played in 214 career games at Middle Tennessee, sixth most in school history, and also ranks third in runs scored (165), first in at-bats (889) and singles (241), second in doubles (53), third in total bases (391), ninth in RBIs (134) and second in sacrifices (25). He is also tied for eighth on the Sun Belt doubles list with 53 (Chris Hayes, Jacksonville, 1992-95; Oswaldo Aguirre, Louisiana-Lafayette, 1994-97). A full listing of Middle Tennessee career records appears on pages 17-18 of these notes.

Scott Continues to Rack up Wins

Junior righthander Matt Scott compiled a 10-1 mark in 2005 and thus far has recorded a 7-1 record with a 2.97 ERA in 69.2 innings of work, starting 10 games and striking out 41. In Sun Belt contests, the Smyrna, Tenn., native is 4-0 with a 3.30 ERA in 43.2 innings of work, striking out 30 in six starts. For his career Scott is now 20-3 overall, the best winning percentage (.870) in school history, and is seventh on the all-time wins list, passing Steve Sonneberger (1983-86) and Greg Johnson (1985-87). His 2.97 career ERA also ranks 10th, just three-hundredths of a point behind current pitching coach Mike McLaury. In the Sun Belt, Scott ranks seventh overall in pitching and his seven wins are tied for third with four others.

Hitting Streak Ends at 14 for Hines

Sophomore Nathan Hines struggled with injuries and a lack of confidence at the plate early in the season and had only 24 at-bats in the month of March. Hines put together a career-high 14-game hitting streak April 12-May 9, raising his season average 115 points to its current .269. During the 14-game stretch the Murfreesboro, Tenn., native was 22-for-58 (.379) with four doubles, three home runs, 18 runs scored and 12 RBIs. Hines had five hits, including a double, and scored three times last weekend at Florida International. He is batting .300 (15-for-50) with 10 RBIs and 10 runs scored in 12 Sun Belt games.

More on Beachum

Senior Jeff Beachum had a 14-game hitting streak come to an end on April 26 against Tennessee Tech with a 0-for-4 effort, tied for the longest hitting streak by a Blue Raider this season and a career-long for Beachum during one season. He hit in 15 consecutive games spanning the end of 2005 and the first four games of this year. During the 14-game stretch, Beachum was 30-for-70 (.429) with five doubles, 13 RBIs and 19 runs scored. This season he has hit safely in 39 of the 44 contests and has 30 multi-hit games in 44 outings. In his career Beachum has 97 multi-hit outings in 214 career games. He also recorded a career-high five hits on Tuesday against Memphis.

Kendrick's Hitting Slump Not Slowing His Scoring of Runs

Junior Wayne Kendrick has stepped into the second base role vacated by departed senior Eric McNamee and picked right up where McNamee left off, hitting for average, drawing walks and most importantly, scoring runs for the Blue Raiders. The Murfreesboro, Tenn., native leads the team with 51 runs scored heading into the weekend series with Sun Belt co-leader Louisiana-Lafayette and is tied for second on the squad with 26 walks. Kendrick has struggled at the plate in the last seven games, going 5-for-27 (.185), but he has scored nine times in the seven contests. His .431 on-base percentage is fifth best on the club. Kendrick had a career-long 12-game hitting streak from March 25-April 15, batting .370 (20-for-54) with four doubles, nine walks, six RBIs and 17 runs scored. For the season the Riverdale HS product ranks seventh for the Blue Raiders in batting average (.327), tied for fourth in hits (56) and third in stolen bases (7), starting all but one game at second base.

Martin Finding Hitting Stroke from Last Season; Continues to Belt Homers

Senior Todd Martin battled elbow and knee injuries last season, limiting his power production in home runs (8) and doubles (13). This season the Cookeville, Tenn., native has been healthier than in 2005 and his power numbers are both up. He has also found his hitting stroke from last season when the Cookeville HS product batted .412. Martin currently leads the Blue Raiders and the Sun Belt Conference with 15 home runs while adding eight doubles and 51 RBIs. He currently has a career-best 12-game hitting streak, batting .458 (22-for-48) during the stretch with seven home runs, 19 RBIs and 16 runs scored with a .958 slugging percentage. He has been the designated hitter and played both first base and centerfield, returning to the outfield midway through this season and drawing 11 starts in center. Last weekend at Florida International, Martin was 7-for-14 (.500) with six runs scored and seven RBIs, homering in all three contests. He moved into a tie for ninth on the single-season home runs list with his 15th on Wednesday against Memphis, tying Dwight Robinson (1990), Jamie Walker (1995) and Josh Archer (2003).

Taylor Finds Home Run Trot

Senior Marcus Taylor has been in and out of the lineup all season, starting 25 games and playing in 37 overall for the Blue Raiders. His talent and raw power have never been questioned, only his ability to put the ball in play with consistency. Taylor took advantage of three straight starts at Florida International over the weekend, homering in all three games, scoring five times and driving in four runs. He struck out only once in 13 at-bats. He continued the string of good plate appearances in midweek games against Memphis, collecting three hits in seven at-bats, including another home run, and just one strikeout. The Henry Clay HS product now has 10 home runs and 23 RBIs for the season. He currently has an eight-game hitting streak heading into the weekend series with Sun Belt co-leader Louisiana-Lafayette, batting .400 (10-for-25) with four doubles, four home runs, seven RBIs, nine RBIs and more important, just two strikeouts. In his career the Louisville, Ky., native has 135 hits in 145 career starts, with 70 of the hits going for extra bases (37 doubles, 4 triples, 29 home runs), or 52 percent. But he has also struck out 185 times in 540 career at-bats (34 percent).

Copeland Stellar in Second Straight Start

Junior Tyler Copeland began the season as the Saturday starter for the Blue Raiders, picking up victories in his first two starts of the year (Jacksonville State, Missouri State). But the lefthander struggled in his next four outings before making a midweek start against Belmont on April 12. After two relief appearances, including three innings of work and a win against Vanderbilt, the Lawrenceburg, Tenn., native returned to the weekend rotation against Arkansas State on April 29, allowing three runs in a season-best 6.1 innings. Copeland topped that with one of the best outings of his career at Florida International last Saturday, scattering 10 hits and giving up one run with four strikeouts for his sixth win of the season. For the year he is 6-2 with a 3.52 ERA, ninth best in the Sun Belt, striking out 28 in 46.0 innings of work.

Horn Consistent All Season

Senior Josh Horn, a first-year starter and walk-on for the Blue Raiders, has been a consistent performer for the Blue Raiders all season at the hot corner and at the plate. The Shelbyville, Tenn., native has started every game at third base this season, making all of the routine plays and several outstanding grabs. At the plate is where Horn has made his biggest contribution, though, batting .337, fourth-best on the squad, with 11 doubles, five home runs and 31 RBIs. He has batted ninth in 29 of the 44 games this season. His average has not fallen below .305 and the Columbia State CC transfer has batted .386 (22-for-57) over the past 13 contests with three doubles, two home runs, 16 RBIs and 14 runs scored. During his current seven-game hitting streak, Horn is 15-for-33 (.455) with six multi-hit outings, nine runs scored and 13 RBIs.

Woodward Stellar at the End

Senior Allan Woodward stepped into the closer's role last season for Middle Tennessee, stabilizing the bullpen in the Blue Raiders run to the Sun Belt Tournament championship game. The righthander has been stellar in almost every appearance this season, though his 4.55 says otherwise. Subtract two appearances for Woodward this season – April 7 at New Orleans and April 23 at South Alabama – and the Columbia, Mo., native is 2-1 with four saves and a 1.93 ERA in 28.0 innings of work, striking out 37 with opponents batting only .228. In those 21 appearances, Woodward has allowed just 23 base hits, two for extra bases (both doubles), and six runs.

Streaks

Senior Todd Martin carries a career-long 12-game hitting streak into this weekend's series against Louisiana-Lafayette, the longest current streak for a Blue Raider. Martin is batting .458 (22-for-48) during the stretch with seven home runs, 19 RBIs and 16 runs scored with a .958 slugging percentage during the stretch. Senior Marcus Taylor has an eight-game hitting streak, batting .400 (10-for-25) with four doubles, four home runs, seven RBIs, nine RBIs and more important, just two strikeouts. Senior Josh Horn has hit in seven straight, going 15-for-33 (.455) with six multi-hit outings, nine runs scored and 13 RBIs, while senior Jeff Beachum also has a seven-game hitting streak, collecting 15 hits in 32 at-bats (.469) with nine runs scored and seven RBIs. Junior Michael McKenry has hit in six straight, going 13-for-27 (.481) with three home runs, nine runs scored and 13 RBIs.

In the National Statistics

Middle Tennessee ranks in the Top 30 in six categories as a team and four players appear in the individual statistics. As a team the Blue Raiders rank eighth nationally in slugging percentage, 11th in home runs per game, 13th in batting average and 16th in scoring. Middle Tennessee is also 28th in triples per game and 30th in doubles per game as a team. Individually, junior Michael McKenry is 31st in the country in batting, 43rd in home runs per game, 15th in RBIs per game and 18th in slugging percentage. Senior Jeff Beachum ranks 58th in the nation in batting and 18th in the toughest-to-strikeout category. Senior Todd Martin is 11th nationally in home runs per game, 23rd in RBIs per game and 45th in slugging percentage. Junior Wayne Kendrick is 33rd in the country in runs per game.

In the Sun Belt Statistics

Seniors Jeff Beachum, Marcus Taylor and Todd Martin and juniors Michael McKenry, Wayne Kendrick, Adam Warren, Matt Scott and Tyler Copeland all appear in the Sun Belt statistics through games of May 11. McKenry (.411) and Beachum (.401) rank fourth and sixth, respectively, in batting average, while Beachum is fourth in the league in hits with 81. McKenry is tied for second in home runs (13), fourth in both RBIs (59) and third in total bases (125). Martin leads the Sun Belt in home runs with 15. Kendrick is tied for fifth in runs scored with 51 and Warren is tied for third in triples with four. Taylor is tied for fourth in home runs with 10. Scott and Copeland are seventh and ninth, respectively, in individual pitching, combining for a 13-3 mark with a 3.19 ERA in 115.2 innings of work. In Sun Belt games only, Beachum is third in batting average (.427) while McKenry is ninth (.400), and Beachum's 35 hits are third best. McKenry's 24 RBIs are tied for second and his sixth home runs are tied for first. Scott's 4-0 mark and 3.30 ERA is seventh best in the league in SBC games only.

Warren Hits for the Cycle

Junior Adam Warren accomplished one of the rarest of feats in baseball, hitting for the cycle April 25 against Lipscomb. Warren singled and doubled in the fourth inning of the contest, homered in the seventh and completed the cycle with the toughest part, a triple in the eighth. It was Warren's fourth triple of the year and also his fourth home run of the season. The Jackson, Tenn., native had just two three-hit outings in 46 games in 2005 and four more three-hit contests this season before his career-high four hits against the Bisons. In the Sun Belt before this season, South Alabama's Jansen Rayborn achieved the feat in 2004 and USA's Tyler Jones did it earlier this year against Grambling.

Baseball Inks Three;
Utility Player, Two Pitchers

Middle Tennessee head baseball coach Steve Peterson announced the signing of three players to national letters-of-intent on April 27, including Zach Barrett, Brad Robinson and Kenneth Roberts. Barrett is a 6-foot, 5-inch utility player at Olney Central Community College and was a teammate of current Blue Raider Brett Reilley last season at Olney. He also played with Middle Tennessee catcher Michael McKenry this past summer with the Fayetteville (NC) Swampdogs in the Coastal Plain League. He has been drafted twice by the Florida Marlins - in the 38th round out of high school as an outfielder and in the 43rd round last year as a third baseman. Robinson and Roberts are both from Murfreesboro, Robinson a former Oakland High School standout and Roberts a current Siegel High School hurler. Robinson, a righthander, currently attends Cleveland State Community College, compiling a 5-3 record with 75 strikeouts in 69.2 innings of work as of April 27. Roberts, a lefthander, was an All-District selection as a sophomore and junior and plays for former Blue Raider Craig Reavis at Siegel.

McKenry Named to Dick Howser Watch List

The National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association, working in conjunction with the St. Petersburg Area Chamber of Commerce, has released the watch list of 64 candidates for the Dick Howser Trophy, given to the top player in collegiate baseball. Middle Tennessee junior Michael McKenry is one of the 64 candidates, the second national player of the year watch list recognizing the Knoxville, Tenn., native. McKenry leads the Blue Raiders in batting average, home runs, RBIs, walks, slugging percentage and on-base percentage this season. New Orleans second baseman Jhonny Giovatella and Troy's Tom King are the only other players from the Sun Belt Conference on the watch list. The Dick Howser Trophy, given in memory of the former Florida State University All-America shortstop and major league player and manager who died of brain cancer in 1987, is regarded by many as college baseball's most prestigious award. Criteria for consideration for the trophy include performance on the field, leadership, moral character and courage, qualities that were exemplified by Dick Howser's life.

McKenry Named Player of the Week

Michael McKenry was voted the Sun Belt Conference Player of the Week on April 10 after homering in all three games over the weekend at New Orleans. McKenry went 9-for-15 (.600) in four games, doing most of his damage over the weekend at UNO. In Tuesday's win at Lipscomb, the junior doubled, walked twice, scored a run and drove in another in a 12-7 victory. Over the weekend at UNO, the Knoxville, Tenn., native was 8-for-13 (.615) with two doubles, three home runs, six RBIs and six runs scored, posting a 1.462 slugging percentage in the series. In Friday's victory the catcher doubled, homered and had three hits, driving in three runs and scoring twice. On Saturday McKenry tied his career-high with four hits, including another double and homer, driving in two runs and scoring twice. On Sunday he played rightfield for the first time since April 10-11, 2004, at Florida International, running into the rightcenter field wall to make a catch as well as going 1-for-3 with a walk and two runs scored.

Beachum Voted Player of the Week

Senior Jeff Beachum was named Sun Belt Player of the Week on March 28, Middle Tennessee's first POW honor this season. Beachum went 10-for-20 (.500) in four games, leading Middle Tennessee to a 3-1 mark and a series win over the weekend against Arkansas-Little Rock to start conference play. He had three doubles, a triple, scored four times and drove in four other runs as well as stealing a base. In Wednesday's win at Tennessee Tech the four-year starter was 2-for-5 with a run and one RBI. He was 8-for-15 (.533) in the three games against UALR, collecting multi-hits in all three outings. On Friday Beachum was 3-for-6 with a double and two RBIs and came back with a 2-for-4 effort on Saturday with a double, triple, run scored and one RBI. In Sunday's finale the shortstop had three hits, including a double, stole a base and scored twice, including the tying run in the bottom of the eighth. The honor was the third of Beachum's career (May 10, 2004; May 9, 2005) and the eighth Player of the Week honor since Middle Tennessee joined the Sun Belt in 2001.

Blue Raiders Ink Five in the Fall

Middle Tennessee signed five players to national letters-of-intent during the fall signing period in November, including four players from the state of Tennessee — Overton HS outfielder Zach Hudson, Ravenwood HS catcher Drew Robertson, Ooltewah HS first baseman Blake McDade, Motlow

State's Bobby Bratton and St. Louis, Mo., pitcher Tyler Hyde. Hudson's Overton team reached the state finals last season, with the 6-foot-2, 215-pounder batting .354 with 13 doubles and 38 RBIs along with 11 stolen bases. Robertson is not the prototypical Blue Raider catcher under Peterson, standing 6-foot-2 and 170 pounds. Every catcher under Peterson has been drafted at the end of their career, and Robertson should add to the program's success behind the plate. McDade was an All-District and All-Region selection last season after batting .400 with three home runs, 42 RBIs and 15 doubles at OHS. Hyde struck out 33 in 43 innings of work last season at Chaminade Prepatory School, posting a 2.93 ERA with opponents batting .195. Bratton earned National Junior College Athletic Association Third Team All-America honors last season as a freshman at Motlow State Community College after batting .388 with 13 doubles, 20 home runs and 57 RBIs for the 38-18 Bucks. He tied for the national lead in home runs and led and Tennessee Junior and Community College Athletic Association in runs scored with 70 while ranking fifth in RBIs. He also tied for third in the TJCCAA in triples, was first in slugging percentage (.831) and ranked seventh in on-base percentage (.463). For his efforts the 6-foot-1, 190-pound infielder was voted TJCCAA Freshman and Player of the Year as well as First Team All-TJCCAA.

McKenry Named to Bench Award Watch List

Junior catcher Michael McKenry was one of 26 players named to the Coleman Company – Johnny Bench Award Watch List announced March 14. The Johnny Bench Award is given annually to the nation's top catcher, with the award sponsored by the Coleman Company and the Greater Wichita (KS) Area Sports Commission. McKenry was a First Team All-Sun Belt selection last season in his first year as the team's starter behind the plate. The 2006 Johnny Bench Award Watch List includes: Michael Ambort, Jr., Lamar; J.P. Arencibia, So., Tennessee; Brian Baisley, Sr., South Florida; Ryan Bono, Sr., Central Florida; Justin Brashear, Jr., Ole Miss; Donald Cheney, Jr., Morehead State; John Curtis, Jr., Cal-State Fullerton; Ed Easley, So., Mississippi State; Sean Gaston, Jr., Notre Dame; Brian Hernandez, Sr., Vanderbilt; Robby Jacobsen, Sr., George Mason; Brian Jeroloman, Jr., Florida; Jeff Kunkel, Sr., Michigan; Matt Liuzza, Sr., LSU; Jonathan Lucroy, So., Louisiana-Lafayette; Nick Maragas, Jr., Cincinnati; Matt McBride, Jr., Lehigh; Jordan Newton, Jr., Western Kentucky; Preston Paramore, Fr., Arizona State; Kris Rochelle, Jr., Charlotte; Konrad Schmidt, Jr., Arizona; Bryan Towler, Sr., Marist; Chad Tracy, Jr., Pepperdine; Andrew Walker, So., TCU; Andy Wendle, Jr., Villanova. Because the award is given annually to the top Division I collegiate catcher, the list will be updated to include other candidates until May 1. The watch list will be narrowed to 10 semifinalists, who will be announced May 11. A comprehensive biography will be created on each of the semifinalists and sent to the national voting panel at the end of May for a vote to determine the three finalists. The finalists will be announced May 31 prior to the NCAA Regionals and Major League Baseball Draft. A final vote among the national committee will occur during the College World Series. All finalists will be brought to Wichita and the winner will be announced at the 9th Annual Greater Wichita Sports Banquet on June 28.

Former Blue Raiders in the Minors

Three former Blue Raiders began their minor league seasons in April, including Jeremy Owens (Tampa Bay Devil Rays), Chris Mobley (Florida Marlins) and Brett Carroll (Florida Marlins). Owens is playing in AA for the Montgomery (AL) Biscuits in the Southern League, while Mobley will also be in the Southern League with the AA Carolina (NC) Mudcats. Carroll will begin the 2006 season with the Jupiter (FL) Marlins in the Florida State League. Chad Cooper, another former Blue Raider, went to spring training with the Colorado Rockies but was cut. Three other former Middle Tennessee players will participate in independent leagues. Adam Larson signed with the Somerset (NJ) Patriots for a second season in the Atlantic League, Josh Renick will play again for the St. Paul (MN) Saints in the American Association, and Eric McNamee will be with the Gary (IN) Southshore Railcats in the Northern League.

McKenry on Wallace Watch List

Junior Michael McKenry was named to the Preseason Wallace Watch List by the College Baseball Foundation in November, an award presented annually to the national college baseball player of the year. McKenry, a 5-foot-10, 195-pound catcher, showed tremendous power during last season, becoming the first Blue Raider to belt a home run into the football stadium during a game since Floyd Stadium's renovation in 1998. His most impressive statistic may have been throwing out 38 percent of attempted base stealers. The Farragut High School product is one of only six catchers among the 130 nominees for the Brooks Wallace Award, while McKenry joins P.J. Walters (P, South Alabama), Taylor Fowler (P, Arkansas State) and Elih Villanueva (P, Florida International) as the only nominees from the Sun Belt Conference. The Wallace Watch will be trimmed to 12 semifinalists by late May. Then the selection committee will narrow the list to three finalists following the NCAA Super Regionals at a press conference in Omaha, Neb, at the College World Series. The finalists, their head coaches and their parents will be invited to Lubbock, Texas, for a schedule of special events tied to the award banquet, which will again be nationally televised by Fox Sports Network. The selection committee for the Wallace Award is comprised of a national panel of preeminent coaches, sports information directors, former winners and beat media who most closely follow the sport. Screening Committee members will evaluate the candidates and will continue their review throughout the entire baseball season. The list will expand and contract during the regular season and additional Wallace Watch candidates may be added as the season progresses. Voting for the three finalists and the Wallace Award winner will be conducted by confidential balloting, with totals tabulated by the J.W.Anderson & Associates accounting firm in Lubbock, Texas. A full list of the Wallace Watch Preseason List may be found at www.collegebaseballfoundation.org.

McKenry Named NSCA All-American

Junior Michael McKenry was honored on March 17 by the National Strength and Conditioning Association with its annual All-American Strength and Conditioning Athlete of the Year award, recognizing student-athletes' dedication to strength training and conditioning. This year the NSCA awarded 242 collegiate athletes from 160 schools with the esteemed award. McKenry was nominated by Assistant AD for Strength & Conditioning and baseball strength coach Matt Riley. McKenry is one of only 12 Division I baseball players in the country honored by the NSCA, including: Jon Polston - Air Force, Justin Smucker - Binghamton, Michael Cowgill - James Madison, Anthony Gressick - Ohio, Dallas Buck - Oregon State, Justin Cassel - UC-Irvine, Chase Christianson - South Alabama, Aaron George - South Alabama, Marc Maddox - Southern Miss, Anthony Jackson - Pacific, and Charles Schultz - Youngstown State. The All-American Athlete of the Year Award program is in its 27th year and is made possible by a grant from Power Systems, Inc., a Knoxville, Tenn., fitness product leader.

Steve Peterson

Head Coach ● Jacksonville State/1973 ● 19th Season ● 600-467-2 (.561), 753-561-2 (.572) overall

There are many adjectives to describe the job Steve Peterson has done as Middle Tennessee's highly successful baseball coach since 1988. Coach, fundraiser, teacher, recruiter and architect are just a few, but if you are looking for one word to sum his contributions as the Blue Raiders' longtime skipper, try winner.

Peterson begins his 19th season heading the Blue Raider program as the school's all-time winningest coach with 574 victories and a stockpile of conference championships and NCAA Tournament berths to his credit, demonstrating the consistency with which the driven skipper has guided the club.

Middle Tennessee has been a model program on Peterson's watch and the proof is in the success the Blue Raiders have achieved. The veteran coach has led Middle Tennessee to 10 regular-season conference championships, eight conference tournament titles and seven NCAA Regional berths, including two at-large selections in the past five years. Peterson guided the Blue Raiders to seven consecutive championships – either regular-season or tournament – during one stretch, proving Middle Tennessee doesn't rebuild, it reloads.

Peterson, who enters the 2006 season with a sterling 574-449-2 mark, has produced 11 seasons with 30 or more wins, including a school-record 42 victories in 1990. He also has three campaigns of at least 40 wins, including 2004's 40-22 club.

The constant manner in which Middle Tennessee has enjoyed success during Peterson's tenure is a direct reflection on recruiting and developing talent, and the proof was never more evident than in 2001 – the Blue Raiders' first season as a member of the Sun Belt Conference after years of success in the Ohio Valley.

Asked how the move into the Sun Belt, rated one of the nation's Top 5 baseball leagues at the time and consistently a Top 10 conference, would change his recruiting philosophy, Peterson quickly responded, "none at all." The 2001 Blue Raiders then went out and shared the Sun Belt championship with South Alabama during their first year in the high-profile league and the majority of the chief contributors were the same performers who led Middle Tennessee to the 2000 Ohio Valley Conference championship.

The move to a higher-rated conference has not hurt Middle Tennessee's status. If anything, it has helped. In their first five years in the Sun Belt, Peterson's teams have won two regular-season championships, a tournament championship and earned three NCAA Regional berths, including two at-large selections for the first time in school history. The 2001 squad earned national acclaim for its pitching and hitting and the season concluded with pitcher Dewon Brazelton being selected as the No. 3 overall pick of the Tampa Bay Devil Rays in the Major League Baseball First-Year Amateur Player Draft. Brazelton was one of six players from the team to earn a spot on a professional baseball roster that season.

A program cannot enjoy consistent success without quality players and Peterson, a three-time Coach of the Year, has not only made a habit of making sure Middle Tennessee has its share of quality performers, but he's won by constantly signing prep players and developing them at the college level. The proof is in the fact Peterson has coached a Sun Belt Player of the Year and six OVC Players of the Year, a Sun Belt Pitcher of the Year and an OVC Pitcher of the Year, a First-Team All-American, five Third-Team All-Americans, four Freshman All-Americans, and 38 first-team All-Conference performers.

Players who have honed their skills under Peterson also have had an outstanding rate of continuing their careers at the professional level. Professional baseball has seen 47 former Peterson performers earning the chance to play at the game's highest level, with four making their way to the Major Leagues.

If that's not enough, Peterson's recruits have established most of the offensive records held at Middle Tennessee and four players he has developed have hit .400 or better in a season, along with the school's single-season and career home run record holders. His 1997 squad established the all-time record for batting average with a .323 clip.

Peterson's players not only have been solid on the field at the collegiate level and continued their careers professionally, but a large majority have taken the skills and fundamentals learned at Middle Tennessee and are earning a living as coaches at various levels. Thirty-four former Blue Raiders are currently coaching at the high school, college or professional levels.

Peterson's peers have recognized his achievements and contributions to the game by bestowing several honors on him. He was named the Tennessee Baseball Coaches Association College Coach of the Year in 1992 and again in 2000. He was also inducted into the Rutherford County Old Timers Baseball Hall of Fame in 2003. Fellow coaches have named Peterson Coach of the Year on three occasions – twice in the Ohio Valley and again in 2004, his first such honor in the Sun Belt.

Peterson's outgoing and personable style has made him a hit with fans, boosters, players and recruits, alike. Baseball enthusiasts throughout the Middle Tennessee community clearly appreciate his hard-nosed and aggressive style of play, as fans continue to flock to Reese Smith Field at a record pace. The Blue Raiders established a single-game attendance record in 2001 at Reese Smith Field with a crowd of 2,733 against South Alabama. The team went on to set the single-season attendance mark with 26,218 coming through the gates at Reese Smith Field. The 2001 squad saw 15 crowds of 1,000 or more during the season. Those numbers were surpassed in 2004 when the team set a single-game attendance record of 3,020 against Vanderbilt, as well as setting a new single-season attendance mark of 30,319, ranking 46th nationally in attendance for the season. Fifteen contests drew more than 1,000 patrons during the record-setting campaign.

Not only has Peterson been a winner on the field, but he's been a successful fundraiser during his career as well. Events such as the annual Chuck Taylor Golf Tournament, the Groundhog Day Luncheon and the Grand Slam Fish Fry in the fall have become mainstays on calendars of Blue Raider baseball supporters across middle Tennessee and have served to raise thousands of dollars for the improvement of Blue Raider baseball.

Peterson spearheaded the efforts to pay for the construction of the Stephen B. Smith Clubhouse and Indoor Training Facility, which opened its doors in 1998. One look inside the facility shows the time and effort spent toward this endeavor. It has become known as one of the finest collegiate clubhouses and training facilities in the country.

Reese Smith Field also has benefited from Peterson's fundraising abilities. He has helped transform the park into a fan-friendly area by expanding the seating area, putting up a new information center just inside the gate, and expanding the restroom and concession facilities.

Peterson guided efforts during the summer of 2001 to expand the dugouts at Reese Smith Field. He also is currently spearheading an effort that would totally renovate the stadium. The plans would call for a significant remodeling of the concession stand, improved and expanded restroom facilities and a modern press box that would accommodate radio and television, along with print media.

While Peterson has spent 18 seasons leading the Middle Tennessee baseball program, his tenure with the program is much longer. He took two separate tours with the Blue Raiders as an assistant coach under John Stanford prior to becoming the team's head coach. During his runs between 1976-78 and 1985-87, the Blue Raiders won two OVC titles and four southern division crowns.

During the interim, Peterson served as the head coach at Roane State Community College in Harriman, Tenn. During his tenure from 1979-84, Peterson's teams won a Tennessee state title in 1981 and he was twice named TJCAA Coach of the Year (1981, '84). While at Roane State, Peterson put together a sparkling record of 153-96, a .614 winning percentage.

A native of Huntsville, Ala., Peterson stood out as a catcher under the legendary Rudy Abbott at Jacksonville State. He earned his bachelor's from Jacksonville State in 1983 and later earned a master's from Middle Tennessee in 1977.

Peterson is married to the former Rita Albert and the couple has three children, Jill, Jenny and John, and one grandchild, Hayden Wright. Away from the diamond, Peterson enjoys fishing for smallmouth bass.

+If both bracket winners are undefeated, the championship game will be played on Saturday at 12 p.m. If both "if necessary games" are played, the championship game will start 45 minutes after the second game.

Western Kentucky reserves the right to choose the start time of its first game on Wednesday.

Media Credentials

Credentials for the 2006 Sun Belt Conference Tournament may be obtained by contacting Rob Broussard, Director of Media Relations (504-299-9066 x218).

Determination of Tournament Seeds

The final conference standings will determine seeded positions for the first round of the tournament. In the event of a two-way tie in the standings, the following tiebreaker system will be used — in order — until the tie is broken:

1. Results of each team in head-to-head competition.
2. Results of each team vs. the first-place team, or their composite records against any team tying for first place.
3. Records of each team vs. the second-place team, or their composite records against any team tying for second place.
4. This process continues with records vs. the third-place team, fourth-place team, etc., if necessary, until the tie is broken and seeding is complete.
5. If a tie still exists, a coin flip shall be conducted by the Conference office.

In the event of a three-way tie in the standings, the following tiebreaker system will be used — in order — until one team demonstrates a clearsuperiority or inferiority over the other two. When this occurs, that team will be seeded highest of the three teams, and the remaining tie between the other two will be broken by following the steps listed above.

1. Composite records of each team in competition vs. the other two teams involved in the three-way tie.
2. Records of each team vs. the first-place team, or their composite records against any teams tying for first place.
3. Records of each team vs. the second-place team, or their composite records against any teams tying for second place.
4. This process continues with the records vs. the third-place and fourth-place teams, etc., if necessary, until the tie is broken and seeding is complete.
5. If a tie still exists, a coin flip will be conducted by the Conference office.
