GIVENS POSTS FOUR STRAIGHT 20-POINT OUTINGS: Senior Chrissy Givens led Middle Tennessee in points, rebounds, assists and steals last season and currently ranks first in three of the four categories so far in 2006-07, ranking second only in rebounds. Givens tallied a season-high 29 points in last Friday's win over Chattanooga, grabbing seven rebounds with five assists and four steals. She was 11-for-23 from the field, a season-high in FG attempts, and was 5-of-6 from the foul line, both season-highs. The Ouachita HS product added 26 points on Sunday at fourth-ranked Tennessee, including 17 in the first half, hitting 10-of-21 shots and 4-of-5 from 3-point range. She has scored 20-plus points in four straight outings, averaging 25.8 points against Maine, Minnesota, Chattanooga and Tennessee with 7.0 rebounds, 5.3 assists and 2.5 steals in the four outings. For the season is hitting 44 percent of her shots from the field and 80 percent at the foul line. She leads the squad with 22.3 points, 5.2 assists and 2.7 steals per game while ranking second with 6.3 rebounds per contest. Her only issue has been from behind the 3-point line, where she was hitting just 18 percent before the 4-for-5 outing against Tennessee on Sunday. Givens sank 34 percent of her 3-point attempts last season and raised her shooting percentage to 30 percent with Sunday's efforts.

FRESHMAN SHOOTERS FINDING THEIR STROKE: Middle Tennessee has made three consecutive trips to the NCAA Tournament and won three straight Sun Belt Championships, but this year's squad relies heavily on newcomers, including three freshmen who see significant playing time – Chelsia Lymon, Brandi Brown and Jackie Pickel. Lymon made the biggest splash with back-to-back double-figure games in the first two contests of her career, netting 13 points against top-ranked Maryland on November 10 and 10 versus South Dakota State on November 13. She also contributed nine points in a win at Minnesota on November 19. Brown started the first two games of the season, versus Maryland and South Dakota State, but has just started to find a rhythm in the Blue Raider offense. Brown hit a pair of 3-pointers against Maine on November 18 and added two more versus Chattanooga on November 24, but her biggest offensive showing of the season came Sunday at No. 4 Tennessee, where the Jamestown, Tenn., native knocked down four 3-pointers for a career-high 12 points. Much like Brown, Pickel has begun to find her niche on the squad in the last two games. Pickel struggled mightily with her shot in the early-going, making just 2-of-13 (.154) heading into last Friday's contest versus Chattanooga. The former Bradley Central HS standout found her stroke during the week and found the open areas in the Chattanooga zone defense, knocking down 5-of-7 3-point attempts for a career-high 15 points. She hit one trifecta on Sunday at UT from well behind the arc and had another go halfway and come out. As a team the Blue Raiders are shooting 40 percent (44-for-111) from behind the 3-point line in the last four games, including two games with 12 and one contest with 13 trifectas in a contest.

SUCCESS AGAINST TENNESSEE TECH: Seniors Chrissy Givens and Krystle Horton have both played three career games against Tennessee Tech, with the Blue Raiders claiming a pair of home wins. In a 65-52 victory on November 21, 2003, Horton had six points and six rebounds while Givens did not score in just 10 minutes of action. The following year, a 52-50 TTU win in Cookeville on December 9, 2004, Horton netted 11 points while Givens scored seven points with five boards and four assists. Last season the Blue Raiders won again at home, 74-46, on December 21, 2005, with Givens scoring a game-high 23 points with eight rebounds and five assists. Horton had eight points and seven boards in the victory. Juniors Starr Orr and Lakira Boyd both played briefly in the 2005 contest and Orr, Boyd, junior Latoya Barclay and sophomores Johnna Abney and LaCondra Mason all played in last year's triumph.

TAKING ADVANTAGE OF FREE CHANCES: Middle Tennessee continues to excel at the foul line this season, hitting 78 percent as a team (69-for-88), led by junior Amber Holt, who is hitting 81 percent (34-for-42) from the charity stripe. Senior Chrissy Givens is also shooting 80 percent (16-for-20) at the free throw line. Last season the Blue Raiders made just 69 percent from the foul line as a team.

DEFENSIVE PRESSURE CAUSING TURNOVERS: Middle Tennessee's full-court press has caused havoc this season for Blue Raider opponents, forcing 134 turnovers in six games, or 22.3 per outing. In only one contest this season has Middle Tennessee committed more turnovers than its opponent, giving the ball away 20 times on Sunday at No. 4 Tennessee. Despite Sunday's effort, the Blue Raiders are committing 15.0 turnovers per outing this season, a few more than head coach Rick Insell would like, but still a respectable number, especially with three point guards seeing action in every game this season and four newcomers seeing significant playing time. Middle Tennessee is also averaging 10.2 steals per game this season, led by Chrissy Givens and Amber Holt, who average 2.7 and 2.3 per outing, respectively.

BLUE RAIDERS START KNOCKING DOWN SHOTS: Middle Tennessee shot the ball poorly from the field in the first two games of the season, versus top-ranked Maryland and South Dakota State, after ranking 23rd nationally last season in field goal percentage at .450. But the Blue Raiders have found the nets for 47 percent as a team the last four contests, including a pair of games shooting better than 50 percent. The squad hit 54 percent from the field versus Minnesota in the championship game of the Subway Classic on November 19 and 52 percent in last Friday's triumph over Chattanooga. Sophomore Johnna Abney is 12-for-22 (.545) during the four-game stretch, all 3-point shots, while junior Amber Holt is shooting 51 percent (22-for-43) in the four outings. Middle Tennessee has raised its team shooting percentage to 44 percent for the season.

SCOUTING THE GOLDEN EAGLES: Tennessee Tech enters Wednesday's contest 1-3 overall, including three straight defeats against the likes of Alabama, Pepperdine and Virginia Tech. The squad's only victory this season was a season-opening triumph over Lambuth. Meagan Lyons and Cara Reed lead the club in points per game with 13.8 and 13.5, respectively, while Kendall Cavin chips in 11.3 points per outing. Lyons leads the club in rebounding with 4.3 per contest, but TTU is being outrebounded as a team by more than eight boards per game. The one aspect the Golden Eagles do well – knocking down 3-pointers, where TTU is shooting 41 percent (27-for-66) so far this season.

SERIES HISTORY WITH TENNESSEE TECH: The two teams have met 68 times over the past 30 years, with Middle Tennessee holding a 39-29 advantage in the series. The Blue Raiders have won 3-of-4 overall in the series, including a 74-46 triumph last season in Murfreesboro. Middle Tennessee is just 9-22 all-time in Cookeville, with a 52-50 defeat two seasons ago on the road.

DEPTH NOT AN ISSUE: Middle Tennessee's full-court pressing style of play can sometimes become an issue for many teams. Last season the Blue Raiders played coach Rick Insell's preferred style of play despite using just eight players for most of the season. In all six regular season games thus far this season, the Blue Raiders have substituted freely, with at least 10 players seeing action in all six contests. Four newcomers are included in the 10 and four underclassmen as well. Eight of the 10 players are averaging double-figure minutes.

GIVENS MOVES UP CAREER SCORING LIST: Senior Chrissy Givens passed two players on the all-time scoring list with her 29 points versus Chattanooga, including current teammate Krystle Horton. Givens moved into 12th place all-time at Middle Tennessee and with her 26 points Sunday at No. 4 Tennessee, the Monroe, La., native now has 1,281 points. Against Chattanooga Givens passed Kay Willbanks (1984-86, 1,236 pts) as well as Horton, who has 1,245 points during her career after a six-point outing against UTC. Givens also moved into eighth place on the career steals list with four thefts against the Lady Mocs and has 204 all-time. She needs four more steals to pass Jennifer McFall (1982-85, 205) and Cortney Neeley (1996-99, 207) for sixth. Givens stands 10th on the career FG attempts chart at Middle Tennessee with 1,063, just ahead of former teammate Tia Stovall (2003-06, 1,011). A full listing of the career records appears on Page 13 of these notes.

GIVENS VOTED PLAYER OF THE WEEK: Middle Tennessee senior Chrissy Givens was voted the Sun Belt Women's Basketball Player of the Week on November 21 after helping the Blue Raiders to back-to-back victories and claiming the MVP award at the Subway Classic in Minneapolis, Minn. Givens was named to the Most Valuable Player at the Subway Classic after the Blue Raiders posted wins over Maine and host Minnesota to win the four-team tournament. Givens posted 23 points against Maine and 25 versus Minnesota. The Monroe, La., native also tallied 20 rebounds, 13 assists and six steals in the two contests. She was 9-of-14 from the field in the first half against Minnesota for 18 points, as Middle Tennessee built a 14-point halftime edge. The loss for Minnesota ended an 11-game nonconference winning streak at Williams Arena and was just the second nonconference loss for UM at home under fifth-year head coach Pam Borton. The other loss came in December 2004 to top-ranked LSU. Givens won the SBC POW award three times last season and joined teammate Amber Holt as the SBC Player of the Week after Holt garnered the accolade on November 14.

MEDIA INFORMATION

Blue Raiders on Radio

■ All Blue Raider basketball games can be heard on WMTS FM 88.3 in Rutherford County and 1400 AM WZNG in Shelbyville. David Reed is in his second season as the Blue Raiders' play-by-play announcer.

Interview Protocol

■ After a 10-minute cooling off period, requested players and head coach Rick Insell will be available for members of the media. The Blue Raider locker room is CLOSED both at home and on the road. RECEIVING VOTES: The ESPN/USA Today preseason women's college basketball poll was released on October 31 and Middle Tennessee received two votes. The Blue Raiders joined Western Kentucky as the only teams from the Sun Belt Conference to receive votes. In this week's ESPN/USA Today poll (November 28), Middle Tennessee received one vote but did not receive any votes in this week's AP poll (November 27) after receiving nine in the previous poll.

GIVENS, ORR MAKE ALL-TOURNAMENT: Senior Chrissy Givens and junior Starr Orr were both named to the All-Tournament team at the Subway Classic in Minneapolis, Minn., and Givens was awarded the Most Valuable Player trophy as well in the four-team tournament November 18-19. Givens posted games with 23 and 25 points in wins over Maine and host Minnesota, respectively, and tallied 20 rebounds, 13 assists and six steals in the two contests. Orr was all over the floor in both outings, netting 12 points versus Maine and a career-high 14 against Minnesota as well as grabbing 15 rebounds with 11 assists and four steals in the two games. It marks the first time Middle Tennessee has won two games in a tournament besides the conference championships since December 21-22, 2000, at the UCF Classic in Orlando, Fla., and just the 15th time in 52 in-season tournaments in the history of the program that the Blue Raiders won a pair games.

ORR NETS CAREER-HIGH: Junior Starr Orr had the best back-to-back games of her career at Minnesota on November 18-19 after head coach Rick Insell inserted her into the starting lineup. The Danville, Ala., native had never posted back-to-back double-figure scoring games until putting up 12 points versus Maine and then a career-high 14 against Minnesota. It was also just the 10th and 11th career starts for Orr, who came to Middle Tennessee with eye-popping statistics at the high school ranks that included more the 4,000 points. But Orr's biggest contribution in the team's two victories at the Subway Classic came in other areas, where she grabbed 15 rebounds, handed out 11 assists and made four steals in the two games. Twelve of her 15 rebounds came on the offensive glass, helping the Blue Raiders to 43 offensive boards in the two outings. In the last four games overall, all starts for Orr, she is averaging 8.3 points and 4.5 rebounds per contest, including 15 offensive boards. She also has 18 assists and seven steals in the four games.

HOLT WITH ANOTHER DOUBLE-DOUBLE: Junior Amber Holt recorded her second double-double of the season with 26 points and 10 rebounds versus Chattanooga on November 24, a workmanlike effort for the first-year Blue Raider. Holt finished 9-for-13 from the field and 8-of-10 at the foul line. It marked her third 20-plus point effort in five outings this season and tied her career-high in rebounds, set versus South Dakota State on November 13. For the season the Duluth, Ga., native is shooting 43 percent (38-for-88) from the field and an outstanding 81 percent (34-for-42) at the foul line. Holt is second on the club in scoring with 19.0 points per outing and first in rebounding with 7.7 boards per game.

DOUBLE-DOUBLE TWICE: Senior Chrissy Givens posted her sixth career double-double in the victory over Maine, posting 23 points and 13 rebounds. It marked the second straight game the Blue Raiders had a player with a double-double after Amber Holt's 19 points and 10 boards versus South Dakota State on November 13. Givens had three double-doubles last season and two more as a sophomore. In the last two seasons the Blue Raiders have posted seven double-doubles as a team in each campaign and had 14 in 2003-04.

NEWCOMER HOLT VOTED PLAYER OF THE WEEK: Middle Tennessee junior Amber Holt was voted the Sun Belt Women's Basketball Player of the Week on Tuesday, November 14, after leading the Blue Raiders in a pair of contests. Holt averaged 23.5 points and 9.0 rebounds in Middle Tennessee's two games, versus No. 1 Maryland and South Dakota State. She also added three assists, two blocks and five steals in the two outings. Against the defending national champions, Holt tallied 28 points on 11-of-24 shooting with eight rebounds. Her 15 first-half points kept the Blue Raiders in the contest when the Terrapins threatened to run away with the game. Against SDSU, Holt scored 19 points and added 10 boards for her first career double-double. She averaged 39.0 minutes of action in the two contests and was 14-of-16 at the line as well. The Duluth, Ga., native became the 15th Middle Tennessee player to earn POW honors since joining the Sun Belt and the sixth different Blue Raider to garner the honor.

GIVENS A JACK OF ALL TRADES: Senior Chrissy Givens led Middle Tennessee in points, rebounds, assists and steals as a junior and has continued her consistent and all-around play through the six games this season. In the season opener versus No. 1 Maryland, the Monroe, La., native totaled 14 points, four rebounds, seven assists and three steals, playing all 40 minutes. Givens hit double figures in scoring for the 50th time of her career and played all 40 minutes for the 17th time as a Blue Raider. On November 13 against South Dakota State, she netted 17 points with six boards, three assists and three steals, again playing all 40 minutes. Givens was at her best so far this season in two games at the Subway Classic in Minneapolis, Minn., November 18-19, scoring 48 points in two contests with 20 rebounds, 13 assists and six steals in the two outings. Included was a second game with seven assists (vs. Minnesota) and a 23-point, 13-rebound contest against Maine, the sixth double-double of her career. She backed that up with 29 points, seven boards, five assists and four steals versus Chattanooga last Friday added 26 points, including 17 in the first half, against No. 4 Tennessee on Sunday. She leads the team in points, assists and steals this season while ranking second in rebounds. Givens was named the Preseason Sun Belt Player of the Year by coaches and the media during the SBC Media Days in Lafayette, La., and was a Preseason Honorable Mention All-America selection by Street & Smith's magazine in October.

BLUE RAIDERS SET ATTENDANCE RECORD: Middle Tennessee set a new single-game record with a crowd of 10,010 for the season-opening contest versus No. 1-ranked Maryland at Murphy Center on Friday, November 10. The attendance shattered the old mark of 4,813 set March 7, 2006, versus Western Kentucky in the championship game of the Sun Belt Tournament. Middle Tennessee averaged 2,699 for 16 home dates during the 2005-06 season and led the nation in attendance increase last year with a more than 300 percent increase. The attendance mark of 10,010 is the 15th most to ever see a basketball game in the 11,500-seat Murphy Center and the third most to ever attend a women's basketball contest in Sun Belt Conference history (Western Kentucky holds the record with 12,951 on February 23, 1986, vs. Old Dominion; Arkansas State vs. Arkansas, March 24, 2005, 10,892).

WOMEN SIGN THREE TO LETTERS-OF-INTENT: Middle Tennessee women's basketball coach Rick Insell announced the signing of T'Qwana Pendergrast, Emily Queen and Anne Marie Lanning to national letters-of-intent on Thursday, November 9, during the fall signing period. Pendergrast (Nashville) and Lanning (Murfreesboro) both hail from the Midstate, while Queen resides in Ashland, Ky.

Pendergrast attended Maplewood High School in Nashville and will be a sophomore at Motlow State Community College in Tullahoma, Tenn., this season, where she is a First Team NJCAA Preseason All-American honoree. She averaged 20.1 points, 11.0 rebounds, 2.1 assists and 1.7 steals as a freshman at Motlow in helping the Lady Bucks to a 25-4 overall mark last season. Motlow finished 2005-06 ranked 18th nationally.

Queen has earned Second Team All-State honors as a sophomore and junior at Rose Hill Christian, helping her team to a state runner-up finish in 2006. She garnered Sweet Sixteen All-Tournament and All "A" State Tournament honors last season as well and was voted All-District, All-Region and All-Area each of the last two seasons. The 6-foot-2 all-everything has scored 2,311 points and grabbed 1,194 rebounds in her three seasons, including single-game school records of 46 points, 7-of-11 3-pointers and 26 rebounds. She even posted one game with a quadruple double of 26 points, 11 rebounds, 10 assists and 10 steals. One more accolade for Queen - her team was the first girls small school in history to make the finals of the Kentucky State Tournament, where they lost to Lexington Catholic.

Lanning was named the Daily News Journal and District 7-AAA Player of the Year in 2005 at Riverdale High School in Murfreesboro. She was garnered All-District, All-Region and All-State accolades the past two years as well as Honorable Mention All-America from Street & Smith's. Lanning averaged 18.5 points, 2.2 assists and 1.9 steals last season, shooting 63.8 percent from the field, 34.4 percent from 3-point range and 84.7 percent from the free throw line.

GIVENS PRESEASON PLAYER OF THE YEAR: Senior Chrissy Givens was voted the Sun Belt Preseason Player of the Year by the league coaches and media at the conference media days at the end of October. The Monroe, La., native was also voted to the Preseason All-Sun Belt First Team. The honor is in conjunction with the 5-11 guard being voted Sun Belt Player of the Year for the 2005-06 season. She was also voted Sun Belt Defensive Player of the Year and Sun Belt Tournament Most Outstanding Player. She is just the second player in Sun Belt Conference history to win all three awards in the same season. Givens' preseason honor is the second time in school history a Blue Raider women's basketball player was awarded the Preseason POY honor. In 2004 former Middle Tennessee standout Patrice Holmes was voted Sun Belt Preseason Player of the Year.

BLUE RAIDERS TOPS IN THE EAST: For the second time since joining the Sun Belt, Middle Tennessee has been tabbed to finish first in the Sun Belt preseason poll in the Eastern Division. The Blue Raiders received 74 points and nine first-place votes to take the top spot in the Eastern Division in a poll of the league's coaches prior to SBC Media Days. Middle Tennessee was also picked to finish first in 2004.

HORTON SECOND TEAM: Krystle Horton was voted to the Preseason All-Sun Belt Second Team in a poll of the league's coaches and media prior to the Sun Belt Media Days in October. It marks the third straight season Horton has been named to a Preseason All-SBC squad. The senior forward was a Third-Team selection to close out the season in 2005-06, averaging 11.9 points per game and ranking second in the Sun Belt in field goal percentage at 51.2 percent.

GIVENS NAMED PRESEASON ALL-AMERICAN: Senior Chrissy Givens was named a Preseason Honorable Mention All-America by Street & Smith's magazine in October after leading Middle Tennessee in points, rebounds, assists and steals in 2005-06. It is the second time in school history a Blue Raider player was named a Preseason All-American, with former standout Jonelda Buck garnering the accolade before the 1998-99 season.

INSELL'S SUCCESS: Head coach Rick Insell enjoyed unprecedented success at Shelbyville Central High School in Shelbyville, Tenn., before becoming the seventh head coach in Middle Tennessee history before the 2005-06 season. Insell posted a 20-11 mark last year and led the Blue Raiders to their third straight Sun Belt Tournament title and third consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance. The 20 wins in his first campaign mark only the second Blue Raider coach to win 20 contests in his rookie season (Lewis Bivens, 22-8, 1988) and just the 14th 20-win season in Blue Raider history.

LAST TIME OUT FOR MIDDLE TENNESSEE

Lady Raiders overwhelmed
Fourth-ranked Lady Vols too big, too athletic for MTSU
By MONTE HALE JR.
hale@dnj.com

KNOXVILLE — MTSU was its own worst enemy Sunday, but the No. 4-ranked Tennessee Lady Vols had a lot to do with it.

Tennessee's stifling, trapping defense and impressive offensive talent was simply too much for MTSU, which suffered an 88-64 whipping before a crowd of 12,363 at Thompson Boling Arena.

MTSU dropped to 3-3, while Tennessee improved to 5-0.

"Tennessee is outstanding," said MTSU coach Rick Insell. "We played hard, we didn't quit, but they just happen to be six inches taller than us at every position."

Leading just 16-15 with 11:57 remaining in the first half, Tennessee increased the intensity with its half-court trapping defense, which rendered MTSU helpless and helped the Lady Vols pull away for the easy victory.

"We came in averaging about 11 or 12 turnovers," said Insell, "but they've got great lateral quickness and we were intimidated by it."

Tennessee held MTSU scoreless for more than five minutes in the first half before Chrissy Givens hit two free throws at the 6:35 mark.

However, the Lady Raiders stayed within striking distance, trailing only 26-19 before Tennessee closed the final 5:45 of the first half with a 23-8 run to take a 49-27 lead at intermission.

"We knew going into the game that we wanted to dictate tempo," said Tennessee coach Pat Summitt. "We wanted to extend our defense and create offense.

"Our ball movement after we created turnovers was very good. It was really hard to know (if the trap would work) because nobody really had extended them defensively. We had a distinct size advantage and we can obviously cover a lot of ground."

Tennessee shot a sizzling 64 percent in the first half, made 6-of-9 form 3-point range and created too many mismatch problems for the Lady Raiders.

MTSU committed 15 first-half turnovers that led to 20 Lady Vol points. The Lady Raiders had just five turnovers in the second half.

"Like coach said, they had girls six inches taller than us and they were able to shoot right over us," Givens said. "But we missed a couple of screens, I didn't get around a couple of screens and they made their 3-point shots. We weren't counting on that. I think rebounding hurt us and we needed to cut those second-chance points in half."

Givens led MTSU with 26 points, but got little offensive support. Junior forward Amber Holt, the Lady Raiders' second-leading scorer, didn't get her first points until 15:33 left in the game. She finished with eight.

Lady Raider freshman Brandi Brown scored 12 points — all on 3-pointers — and MTSU hit a season-high 13 treys.

"We were concerned going into the game," Summitt said of Holt. "We knew exactly the numbers she was putting up. You challenge your players ... To me, we were not as committed to defending (Givens)."

MTSU shot 45 percent overall and hit 8-of-15 from 3-point range in the second half and 50 percent overall.

"We didn't quit," Insell said. "They're a great basketball team. We're a good basketball team, although it might not have looked like it tonight. But we'll get better because of this game."

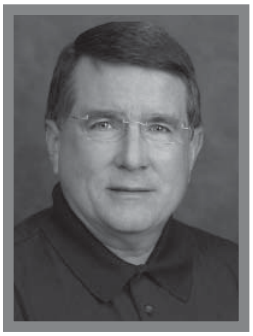
Tennessee was led by Sidney Spencer and Candace Parker with 16 points each. The Vols outrebounded MTSU 38-22 and were led by Parker's nine boards.

POSTGAME NOTES

GIVENS POSTS FOUR STRAIGHT 20-POINT OUTINGS: Senior Chrissy Givens led Middle Tennessee in points, rebounds, assists and steals last season and currently ranks first in three of the four categories so far in 2006-07, ranking second only in rebounds. Givens tallied a season-high 29 points in last Friday's win over Chattanooga, grabbing seven rebounds with five assists and four steals. She was 11-for-23 from the field, a season-high in FG attempts, and was 5-of-6 from the foul line, both season-highs. The Ouachita HS product added 26 points on Sunday at fourth-ranked Tennessee, including 17 in the first half, hitting 10-of-21 shots and 4-of-5 from 3-point range. She has scored 20-plus points in four straight outings, averaging 25.8 points against Maine, Minnesota, Chattanooga and Tennessee with 7.0 rebounds, 5.3 assists and 2.5 steals in the four outings. For the season is hitting 44 percent of her shots from the field and 80 percent at the foul line. She leads the squad with 22.3 points, 5.2 assists and 2.7 steals per game while ranking second with 6.3 rebounds per contest. Her only issue has been from behind the 3-point line, where she was hitting just 18 percent before the 4-for-5 outing against Tennessee on Sunday. Givens sank 34 percent of her 3-point attempts last season and raised her shooting percentage to 30 percent with Sunday's efforts.

FRESHMAN SHOOTERS FINDING THEIR STROKE: Middle Tennessee has made three consecutive trips to the NCAA Tournament and won three straight Sun Belt Championships, but this year's squad relies heavily on newcomers, including three freshmen who see significant playing time – Chelsia Lymon, Brandi Brown and Jackie Pickel. Lymon made the biggest splash with back-to-back double-figure games in the first two contests of her career, netting 13 points against top-ranked Maryland on November 10 and 10 versus South Dakota State on November 13. She also contributed nine points in a win at Minnesota on November 19. Brown started the first two games of the season, versus Maryland and South Dakota State, but has just started to find a rhythm in the Blue Raider offense. Brown hit a pair of 3-pointers against Maine on November 18 and added two more versus Chattanooga on November 24, but her biggest offensive showing of the season came Sunday at No. 4 Tennessee, where the Jamestown, Tenn., native knocked down four 3-pointers for a career-high 12 points. Much like Brown, Pickel has begun to find her niche on the squad in the last two games. Pickel struggled mightily with her shot in the early-going, making just 2-of-13 (.154) heading into last Friday's contest versus Chattanooga. The former Bradley Central HS standout found her stroke during the week and found the open areas in the Chattanooga zone defense, knocking down 5-of-7 3-point attempts for a career-high 15 points. She hit one trifecta on Sunday at UT from well behind the arc and had another go halfway and come out. As a team the Blue Raiders are shooting 40 percent (44-for-111) from behind the 3-point line in the last four games, including two games with 12 and one contest with 13 trifectas in a contest.

Head Coach Rick Insell



Rick Insell made a huge splash is first year at the helm of the Middle Tennessee women's basketball program, guiding the Middle Tennessee program to its third consecutive Sun Belt Championship and doing so in front of a record-setting home crowd in the finals of the SBC Tournament.

Insell can now drop the title former high school coach and add his name to the list of Middle Tennessee coaches with conference titles. He directed one of the most thrilling comebacks in Sun Belt Tournament history, leading Middle Tennessee to an 84-73 win over Western Kentucky after being down by as many as 14 points in the first half.

Insell's first season at the helm of his alma mater also included a Top 10 recruiting class for the 2006-07 season and an unprecedented third consecutive trip to the NCAA Tournament.

Insell also developed one of the most prolific scorers for a single-season in school history in Chrissy Givens, who registered 667 points, the second most in a season on the all-time scoring list. It also makes Givens one of just five players to score 600 or more points in a season as a Blue Raider.

The 2005-06 campaign also saw another first in program history as three players - Givens, Tia Stovall and Krystle Horton - all joined the 1,000-point club. This marks the first time in school history three current players all were represented on the prestigious list, and the Blue Raiders were one of only four teams in the 2006 NCAA Tournament to boast such an honor.

Insell's biggest influence may have come at the turnstiles, where the Blue Raiders averaged 2,699 fans per outing in 2005-06, a 300 percent increase over the previous season and the largest increase in the NCAA for 2005-06.

Middle Tennessee notched one of its biggest wins of the season when the Blue Raiders shocked Big 10 powerhouse Penn State, 79-65, in the UAB Blaze Tournament in December.

A 1977 graduate of Middle Tennessee, Insell built a high school girls basketball dynasty at nearby Shelbyville Central High School, where he guided the Golden Eaglettes to a record 10 TSSAA Class AAA state championships and two USA Today national championships (1989, 1991) as he compiled a sparkling 775-148 worksheet during his 28-year tenure. Insell was named USA Today National High School Coach of the Year in 1989 and 1991 and he also was been named Converse National High School Coach of the Year on two occasions (1990, 1992). Insell called the women's basketball position at Middle Tennessee his "dream job".

"Dreams do come true," Insell said after Director of Athletics Chris Massaro announced his hiring on May 18, 2005. "It's something you think about. I'm a coach and it's all I've ever done, from elementary to junior high to junior pro, AAU and high school. To be able to come on board at Middle Tennessee, a Division I school, that's a dream come true, not only for me, but for all of the high school coaches and junior high coaches across the country and it says if you stay in there long enough and dream big enough, one day it will eventually happen."

Insell said Middle Tennessee will be a pressing basketball team on defense and force the issue, and he added that the Blue Raiders would back down from no one on the recruiting trail.

"We are going after the best players in the state of Tennessee every year," Insell said. "If Tennessee or Vanderbilt is after them, then Middle Tennessee is going to be after them, too. We will recruit alongside of them. We are not going to be intimidated, nor will we back down because they are in the Southeastern Conference. We are Division I and they are Division I. We are going to use all of our contacts."

A name synonymous with high school girls basketball in Tennessee, Insell's teams hold the Tennessee state records for consecutive wins with 110, consecutive state titles with four (1989-1992), most state championships for a coach with 10 (1986, 1989, 1990, 1991, 1992, 1995, 2000, 2001, 2003 and 2004), and his 1990 Golden Eaglette squad was named the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame Team of the Year, the first high school team so honored.

Under Insell's guidance, Shelbyville Central High School won 23 district championships, 16 regional championships and appeared in the Class AAA state championship game a remarkable 15 times, winning 10. Insell developed six Tennessee Class AAA Miss Basketball Award recipients, 15 high school All-Americans and 57 of his players received either athletic or academic scholarships to continue their careers at the collegiate level.

While Insell built a basketball dynasty at Shelbyville during his time there, he also made sure his players got the job done in the classroom, as evidenced by his teams receiving the TSSAA Distinguished Award for Academic Success from 1989-2000, an award based on team GPA. The lowest cumulative GPA at Shelbyville from 1989-00 was 3.4 and the highest was 3.98.

Additionally, Insell's Shelbyville team received a special invitation to the Oval Office by President George Bush for academic and athletic achievement and his teams also have been honored in the United States Senate and House of Representatives, the Tennessee State House and Senate and by two Tennessee Governors.

Insell is married to Debbie and the couple have three sons, Tom, Kyle and Matt.

INSELL'S INS AND OUTS

- Appeared on Dateline on December 26, 2004. The program produced a one-hour segment on Insell, focusing on him and his Shelbyville Eaglettes. The program was shown internationally.
- March 22, 2003 - Rick Insell was inducted into the Tennessee Secondary School Athletic Association Hall of Fame.
- Insell and the Eaglettes received a special invitation to the Oval Office by President George H. Bush for academic and athletic achievement.
- In 1989, ESPN did a feature story on the Shelbyville Eaglettes that aired nationally several times. The story won the National Television Journalism Award later that year. It was the first of several stories ESPN did on Insell and his team.
- In 1992, Rick Insell was named Head Coach of the Girls High School All-American Game and from 1992-96 was a member of the All-American Selection Committee. He became the chairman of the All-American Selection Committee in 1996 and began serving as an advisor in 1999.
- Insell was named to the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) Board of Directors as High School Representative in 2001.

Women's college basketball has seen the gap narrow between the have's and have not's.

MTSU proved Friday night that it, too, has closed the gap in terms of competing with the top teams in the nation.

However, MTSU also found out why Maryland is the defending national champion as it overcame a five-point deficit with 5:14 remaining and stormed back to defeat the Blue Raiders 80-76 before a women's record crowd of 10,010 at Murphy Center.

"You can see why their national champions," said MTSU coach Rick Insell. "They did the same thing in the finals last year against Duke. They've got great players, but we've got great players. They didn't luck into winning the national championship."

MTSU led the Terrapins 72-67 with 5:14 left in the game after freshman guard Chelsia Lymon scored on a three-point play. However, after a Maryland timeout, it reeled off a 13-4 run to close the game and hold on to its preseason No. 1 national ranking.

"I want to thank Middle Tennessee," said Maryland coach Brenda Frese. "They made us a better basketball team tonight. It was tremendous, it was one of the better college basketball games I've ever been a part of. Middle Tennessee is going to be very, very good. They obviously showed it and they've got to be excited about what's ahead."

The Blue Raiders trailed 76-74 with less than a mintue left, but Amber Holt's jumper was off the mark. On Maryland's next possession, All-American Crystal Langhorne scored on an offensive putback to with 25 seconds left to seal the victory.

Holt made a sterling debut, scoring 28 points and pulling down eight rebounds, and freshman point guard Chelsia Lymon — the Gatorade player of the year in Kentucky last year — scored 13 points in only nine minutes of play.

Maryland was led by Coleman with 19 points and 14 rebounds, while Langhorne had 16 points and 11 rebounds.

While the Blue Raiders pushed Maryland to the limit, it didn't look like it that way early. Coming out of the final media timeout in the first half with 2:55 remaining, MTSU trailed 36-23. Maryland had hit 15 of its first 21 shots for a sizzling 71-percent clip, while MTSU had made only 9 of its first 27 attempts.

However, after Maryland took its biggest lead of the half at 38-23, MTSU scored the final 10 points to close within 38-33 at intermission. Holt scored six in a row and Givens drove in the length of the floor in just six seconds and hit a layup to pull the Blue Raiders within five.

Maryland shot 61 percent from the field and outrebounded MTSU 37-29. The Blue Raiders shot 42 percent and forced 23 Terrapin turnovers.

There was no sugarcoating MTSU's 72-61 home loss to South Dakota State Monday night at Murphy Center.

"They came out, it was their first game and they stuck it to us," said second-year MTSU coach Rick Insell.

After playing No. 1 ranked Maryland to within four points Friday night and garnering 12 votes in the Top 25 poll Monday, MTSU did indeed get a dose of reality.

"They came in here and kicked our butts," said MTSU senior guard Chrissy Givens. "We took Maryland to four points and maybe we thought we were too good, but they kicked our butts. They did it here two years ago."

MTSU struggled offensively throughout, but tied the score at 52-52 with 6:52 left when Givens scored and converted a 3-point play.

However, MTSU was outscored 20-9 down the stretch as it was unable to run its half-court offense.

MTSU shot only 32 percent from the field, while the Jackrabbits shot 56 percent and outrebounded the Blue Raiders 37-29.

MTSU was led by junior Amber Holt's 19 points, while Givens had 17. However, the duo combined to go just 12-of-41 from the field.

South Dakota State hit 17-of-20 free throws after getting into the 1-and-1 with 10:39 left in the game. The Jackrabbits also hit 8-of-14 from behind the 3-point arc.

"There was no pressure for us to win this game," said SDSU coach Aaron Johnston. "We tried a basic offense. We kept it simple and told the kids about being strong and trying to drive.

"We talked about trying to pick up some fouls in the second half. If they are going to put that much pressure on us we've got to turn that pressure on them and get to the free throw line."

MTSU led 12-7 with 14:01 left in the first half but went more than four minutes without a point and found itself trailing 19-12.

The Blue Raiders scored eight unanswered points during one stretch to take a 24-22 lead, but SDSU closed the final four minutes of the half with a 5-2 run to take a 27-26 halftime lead.

MTSU shot just 32 percent in the first half (10-of-31), while the Jackrabbits hit 11-of-24 (46 percent).

SDSU had 13 first-halt turnovers, but MTSU could only turn them into six points.

Foul problems at the post also hurt MTSU as senior Krystle Horton picked up her second personal in less than three minutes, while sophomore Lakira Boyd was whistled for her second with 13:48 remaining before halftime.

Subway Classic Game #1

Chrissy Givens and Amber Holt both scored 23 points and Starr Orr added 12 in only her 10th career start, leading Middle Tennessee to an 87-60 victory over Maine Saturday in the Subway Classic.

Givens recorded her sixth career double-double, grabbing 13 rebounds and adding six assists and three steals. Holt tallied 18 of her 23 points in the first half when the Blue Raiders opened the lead to as many as 26 points.

Orr did exactly what she was inserted in the lineup to do, score and rebound (seven), and the Danville, Ala., native also had five assists in 27 minutes of action.

The Blue Raiders started the game with a 12-3 run and never looked back in the first half, taking a 47-26 advantage at the break. Holt posted 18 points and Givens 13 in the opening half, but it was a staunch defense and improved rebounding that were the biggest differences, limiting Maine to just 38 percent shooting (6-for-16) and a 30-9 rebounding margin for Middle Tennessee.

The Blackbears (1-1) had just six field goals in the first period, including a stretch of more than 10 minutes without a bucket. Middle Tennessee worked through foul problems in the opening 20 minutes as well, with 17 fouls whistled on the Blue Raiders allowing Maine to shoot 22 free throws.

Middle Tennessee led 20-12 after a Maine 3-point play from Abby Greene with 10:48 to play in the first half. The Blue Raiders then scored 23 of the next 28 points in the contest over a six-minute stretch, with Holt contributing nine points and Givens six during the run.

In the second half the Blue Raiders led by as many as 23 and the lead was never less than 16. Middle Tennessee knocked down seven 3-pointers in the second half and 12 for the game, as well as outrebounding the Blackbears Maine, 48-24, for the game.

"We shot the ball better in the first half and really hit the boards hard, one of things we've been working on in practice," head coach Rick Insell said. "We came out with more focus, especially early. We turned up the heat in practice and these young ladies responded well.

"Our depth was really a factor as well. We got in some foul trouble in the first half, but this year we're able to bring Chelsia [Lymon], Jackie [Pickel], LaCondra [Mason] and LaToya [Brown] off the bench at the guard spots and even Brandi [Brown] if we need her."

Holt added seven rebounds in the win and was 6-of-12 from the floor and 9-for-12 from the foul line.

Subway Classic Championship Game

Chrissy Givens scored 18 first-half points and helped Middle Tennessee build a 25-point lead early in the second half en route to a 79-61 victory over host Minnesota in the championship game of the Subway Classic Sunday at Williams Arena.

Givens, voted the tournament's most valuable player, was almost unstoppable in the first half, going 9-of-14 from the field, leading the Blue Raiders to a 14-point halftime lead.

Givens and teammate Starr Orr were both selected to the Subway Classic All-Tournament team.

Freshman Chelsia Lymon came off the bench in the opening minutes of the second half and provided an offensive spark, knocking down a pair of 3-pointers and a lay-up to help extend the lead to 57-34. Orr followed with eight consecutive points of her own, including another pair of trifectas, stretching the Middle Tennessee advantage to 65-38.

Minnesota made a run during the half when Middle Tennessee went without a bucket for more than six minutes, but the Golden Gophers never got closer than 14 after the break.

Givens led all scorers with 25 points while adding seven rebounds and seven assists in 40 minutes of action. Orr, in one of her best games as a Blue Raider, added 14 points, eight rebounds, six assists, and three steals.

Senior Krystle Horton scored the first three baskets of the game for the Blue Raiders and Johnna Abney knocked down a pair of 3-pointers, as Middle Tennessee quieted the crowd of 5,639 en route to an early 12-6 lead. Givens scored the next eight on a host of short jumpers and lay-ups for a 20-12 MT advantage with 7:51 to go in the half.

All of this was in the midst of an 18-4 run over a seven-minute stretch that put the Blue Raiders ahead, 34-14. The Blue Raiders built the lead by out-hustling the Golden Gophers, with one series of plays seeing Amber Holt make a steal but miss a break-away lay-up.

Not to be discouraged, Holt came racing back down the floor, made another steal falling out of bounds, saved the ball to Orr, who executed a 2-on-1 with Givens for another lay-up. The Blue Raiders built a 32-14 advantage at that point and led 38-24 at the halftime break even after a cheap lay-up at the buzzer by Minnesota's Kelly Roysland.

Givens had 18 in the first half and the Blue Raiders forced 18 Minnesota turnovers in the first 20 minutes and also limited the Golden Gophers to just 35 percent shooting from the floor while shooting 58 percent themselves.

It was a pick your poison night for Chattanooga at Murphy Center Friday.

Whether the Lady Mocs employed a man-to-man defense or a zone, it didn't matter, as MTSU broke down both en route to a 98-69 victory before a crowd of 2,524.

MTSU (3-2) shot 52 percent and hit 12 3-pointers, equaling a season high, as it won its third straight game and snapped a two-game losing streak at Murphy Center.

The 98 points were the most scored by MTSU under second-year coach Rick Insell, whose team lost 76-66 at Chattanooga last season.

"We're playing a little better offensively," Insell said, "but I wasn't as pleased with our defense tonight. We did a better job as the game went on, but not good enough if we're going to get to where we want to be."

The duo of senior guard Chrissy Givens and junior forward Amber Holt were devastating, as they combined for 55 points and 17 rebounds. Givens finished with 29 points and seven rebounds, while Holt had 26 points and 10 boards.

The offensive onslaught was a welcomed sight after the Blue Raiders had hit 30 percent their first two home games against Maryland and South Dakota State.

Coming out of the eight-minute timeout trailing 24-21, Chattanooga went to a zone defense, which played right into MTSU's hands.

Freshman guard Jackie Pickel hit back-to-back 3-pointers, which spearheaded a 14-4 run that gave MTSU a 38-25 lead with 4:33 left before halftime.

Chattanooga pulled to within seven in less than a minute, but the Blue Raiders closed the half with a 12-7 run to take a 50-38 halftime lead at intermission.

Pickel finished with a season-high 15 points, hitting 5-of-7 from 3-point range. Five different MTSU players hit at least one 3-pointer.

Both teams were plagued with foul problems in the first half, with Chattanooga being whistled for 13 and MTSU with 12.

Chattanooga's leading scorer, Alex Anderson (18 ppg), played only four minutes after picking up her second foul, while starters Brooke Hand and Kristen Spann each had three fouls.

MTSU sophomore guard Johnna Abney picked up three fouls in the first half, while Givens, Holt and Starr Orr each had two.

Givens scored MTSU's first eight points of the second half, and Abney followed with a 3-pointer to give the Blue Raiders a 61-44 advantage with 17:09 left.

MTSU outrebounded the Lady Mocs 40-28 and forced 21 turnovers.

MTSU was its own worst enemy Sunday, but the No. 4-ranked Tennessee Lady Vols had a lot to do with it.

Tennessee's stifling, trapping defense and impressive offensive talent was simply too much for MTSU, which suffered an 88-64 whipping before a crowd of 12,363 at Thompson Boling Arena.

MTSU dropped to 3-3, while Tennessee improved to 5-0.

"Tennessee is outstanding," said MTSU coach Rick Insell. "We played hard, we didn't quit, but they just happen to be six inches taller than us at every position."

Leading just 16-15 with 11:57 remaining in the first half, Tennessee increased the intensity with its half-court trapping defense, which rendered MTSU helpless and helped the Lady Vols pull away for the easy victory.

Tennessee held MTSU scoreless for more than five minutes in the first half before Chrissy Givens hit two free throws at the 6:35 mark.

However, the Lady Raiders stayed within striking distance, trailing only 26-19 before Tennessee closed the final 5:45 of the first half with a 23-8 run to take a 49-27 lead at intermission.

Tennessee shot a sizzling 64 percent in the first half, made 6-of-9 form 3-point range and created too many mismatch problems for the Lady Raiders.

MTSU committed 15 first-half turnovers that led to 20 Lady Vol points. The Lady Raiders had just five turnovers in the second half.

"Like coach said, they had girls six inches taller than us and they were able to shoot right over us," Givens said. "But we missed a couple of screens, I didn't get around a couple of screens and they made their 3-point shots. We weren't counting on that. I think rebounding hurt us and we needed to cut those second-chance points in half."

Givens led MTSU with 26 points, but got little offensive support. Junior forward Amber Holt, the Lady Raiders' second-leading scorer, didn't get her first points until 15:33 left in the game. She finished with eight.

Lady Raider freshman Brandi Brown scored 12 points — all on 3-pointers — and MTSU hit a season-high 13 treys.

MTSU shot 45 percent overall and hit 8-of-15 from 3-point range in the second half and 50 percent overall.

"We didn't quit," Insell said. "They're a great basketball team. We're a good basketball team, although it might not have looked like it tonight. But we'll get better because of this game."

Tennessee was led by Sidney Spencer and Candace Parker with 16 points each. The Vols outrebounded MTSU 38-22 and were led by Parker's nine boards.
