Series History

Middle Tennessee and Tennessee State will meet for the 49th time when the in-state rivals square off Monday at Murphy Center. The Blue Raiders own a 32-16 advantage in the series, including wins in four straight and nine of the last 10. The Blue Raiders are 2-0 against Tennessee State under Head Coach Kermit Davis. Middle Tennessee is 18-4 against the Tigers at Murphy Center. Nine of the previous 10 contests have been decided by 10 points or less. The average margin of victory during those 10 contests is 7.0 points with four games being decided by four points or less.

Noteworthy

● Kermit Davis is gunning for his 72nd win as Middle Tennessee's head coach against Tennessee State. A win would move the fifth-year Blue Raider coach into fifth place on the all-time wins list at Middle Tennessee.

● Kyle Young ranks third in the SBC in field goal percentage with a 60.5 mark (29-of-45). He is shooting 69 percent (25-36) from the field over the previous five games.

● Middle Tennessee is 24-4 in non-conference home games under Kermit Davis. The Blue Raiders are 42-15 overall at Murphy Center in Davis' fifth season, and they are 16-7 against in-state foes under Davis.

● Middle Tennessee is 3-1 on the season when holding its opponents to 70 points or less. The only setback was a 64-56 setback against College of Charleston.

● Middle Tennessee is gunning for its fifth straight winning season in 2006-07, which would mark only the third time in program history a team has had five or more consecutive winning seasons. The last time the Blue Raiders had five straight winning seasons was 1984-89.

Closer look at Tennessee State

Tennessee State enters Monday's game against Middle Tennessee 2-3 overall with losses against Kansas, Alabama, and Western Kentucky, while securing wins against Towson and Paririe View A&M. The Tigers are coached by Cy Alexander. Clarence Matthews and Ladarious led the Tigers in scoring at 15 points each per game. Matthews also tops the Tigers in rebounding with 7.8 caroms per outing. Tennessee State has struggled offensively in the early going, averaging 58 points per contest and shooting just 35 percent from the field. Despite the tough competition at the start of the season, Tennessee State has found a way to stay in the contests with a strong defensive effort. The Tigers are holding opponents to under 70 point per game.

Blue Raiders in Murphy Center

Middle Tennessee has compiled a 352-121 (.744) record in Murphy Center since the facility opened in 1972. The Blue Raiders are 42-15 (.737) at Murphy Center under Head Coach Kermit Davis, including a 24-4 (.857) mark in non-conference home games.

Winning in-state battles

Middle Tennessee has enjoyed tremendous success against in-state opponents under Head Coach Kermit Davis, and it will look to continue the trend against Tennessee State. The Blue Raiders are 16-7 (.700) overall against teams from the Volunteer State since Davis was hired in 2002, including winning eight of the last 10. Middle Tennessee is 13-2 at home against in-state foes during the same stretch.

Enjoying non-conference success

Middle Tennessee is 24-4 in non-conference home games under Head Coach Kermit Davis, including wins in 21 of the previous 22 meetings. Overall, Middle Tennessee is 35-26 against non-conference opponents since the start of the 2002-03 season. The Blue Raiders set a school-record for most consecutive home wins against non-conference opponents when it won its 19th straight such game - all under Davis - during the 2005-06 season.

Five straight winning seasons would be rare feat

Middle Tennessee is looking to accomplish a rather feat as it seeks a fifth consecutive winning season under Head Coach Kermit Davis in 2006-07. The Blue Raiders' current streak of four consecutive winning seasons is tied for fourth longest in the program's 84 years of men's basketball. The longest stretch of consecutive winning seasons is six, which was turned in by Jimmy Earle's teams from 1973-79. The current Blue Raiders are attempting to match Bruce Stewart's teams from 1984-89 for the second longest streak of consecutive winning seasons with five. The only other stretch of at least four consecutive seasons with winning records was 1922-26, and the Blue Raiders only played four games during the 1924-25 season. The 2006-07 Blue Raiders are attempting to accomplish five straight winning seasons for the first time since 1984-89 – a span of 22 years. Davis, in his fifth season, is one of only two coaches in program history to begin his career with four straight winning seasons. The other was Bruce Stewart.

Vogelsberg Out 6-8 Weeks

Middle Tennessee received bad news prior to the start of the season when it was determined Adam Vogelsberg had suffered a broken bone in his right foot during a practice (Nov. 4) and will miss six-to-eight weeks. Vogelsberg is a preseason All-Sun Belt Conference selection and the Blue Raiders' top returning scorer from last season when he averaged 12.4 points per game. The senior guard from Home, Kansas also was All-Sun Belt in 2005-06.

Defense, rebounding key for Blue Raiders

Middle Tennessee fifth-year coach Kermit Davis has built the program on the strong principles of defense and rebounding and the formula has been a successful. With the squad averaging 61.1 points and playing without its leading scorer those fundamentals are even more important to the team's success at the outset of the 2006-07 season. The Blue Raiders are 3-0 this season when they outrebound the opposition and they are 55-21 overall under Davis when winning the battle of the boards. Coincidentally, Middle Tennessee is 14-28 when being out-rebounded. Defensive field goal percentage and scoring defense are keys for Middle Tennessee and the Blue Raiders are second in the Sun Belt in scoring defense (65.0 ppg), and fifth in field goal percentage defense (42.8 percent). In its three wins this season, Middle Tennessee has outshot its opponent and held it to less than 60 points scoring and less than 40 percent shooting from the field. The Blue Raiders are 58-3 under Davis when they outshoot their opponent and they are 67-33 during the same stretch when holding the opposition under 50 percent from the field.

Coming out strong in the second half

Strong second-half play has sparked Middle Tennessee to victories in its last two games. The Blue Raiders trailed at the half against Belmont and Indiana State; however, they outscored the opposition by a combined nine points in each game and dominated on the defensive end to register consecutive wins. The Blue Raiders are averaging 41.5 points in the second half in their last two wins, while shooting a sizzling 61 percent (28-46) from the field. They are also shooting 50 percent (7-14) from 3-point range in the second half of the previous two games. Not only has the offense been clicking on all cylinders during this stretch, but the defense has been solid. Opponents are shooting just 37 percent (20-54) from the field in the second half of the last two games, including 24 percent (6-25) from beyond the arc. Opponents are averaging 32.5 second-half points against the Blue Raiders in the final 20 minutes of the last two games.

Kermit Davis File

In his fifth season at Middle Tennessee, Kermit Davis has established himself as one of the most successful men's basketball coaches in program history, and he's done so while rebuilding a program that had fallen on hard times. Prior to Davis' hiring in April, 2002, Middle Tennessee had endured losing seasons in three of the four previous years - and was one season removed from a 5-22 campaign, the worst in school history. The Blue Raiders have registered four straight winning seasons under Davis, making him only one of two of the 19 Middle Tennessee men's basketball coaches to start his Blue Raider career with four straight winning campaigns. The other was Bruce Stewart. The Blue Raiders' game against Indiana State (11/30/06) was Davis' 125th at Middle Tennessee. Davis' record after 125 games at Middle Tennessee is 71-54, making him the second-winningest coach in program history after 125 games. Davis is tied for fifth on the all-time Middle Tennessee wins list with 71.

Davis among leaders

Kermit Davis joined Bruce Stewart as the only head coaches in program history to begin their Blue Raider careers with four straight winning seasons in 2005-06. Davis moved into sixth on the all-time wins list at Middle Tennessee with 62 after the Blue Raiders beat Louisiana-Lafayette (01/28/06). He moved past Ed Diddle, Jr., (56) for seventh on the list with Middle Tennessee's 87-75 win at Belmont (12/10/05). Davis is currently tied for fifth with Stan Simpson on the all-time wins list with 71. Jimmy Earle is the program's all-time winningest coach with 164 wins. Davis also is third in winning percentage (.568) among Blue Raider men's basketball coaches with a minimum of 50 games coached, trailing only Jimmy Earle (.614), and Bruce Stewart (.648).

Davis produces second-best wins mark after 125 games

Kermit Davis earned a win in his 125th game leading the Blue Raider program to give him a 71-54 mark. That record is the second-most wins for a Blue Raider coach in his first 125 games. Bruce Stewart won 83 of the first 125 games he coached at Middle Tennessee to top the list, while Jimmy Earle's 69 wins after 125 games is third most.

Kanaskie holding strong at point

Middle Tennessee sophomore point guard Kevin Kanaskie's play down the stretch last season was a key in the team's strong finish. The State College, Pa., native has picked up where he left off in terms of running the team. Kanaskie has led the team in assists in all seven games played and is averaging 5.14 helpers per game, which ranks second in the Sun Belt. He is fourth in the SBC in assist/turnover ratio (1.50).

Kanaskie emerging as team MVP in early going

Kevin Kanaskie has been solid running the point for Middle Tennessee through the first seven games of the season; however, his all-around play has made the sophomore the team's most valuable player at the outset of the 2006-07 campaign. Kanaskie leads the Blue Raiders with 12.1 points per game and his eight steals are second most on the squad. Factor in his 5.1 assists per game and Kanaskie is responsible for 22.3 of Middle Tennessee's 61.1 points per game - right at one-third of the team's offense. His five double-figure scoring games this season are most by a Blue Raider. He keyed Middle Tennessee's win against Indiana State by scoring 15 of his 17 points in the second half while establishing career highs for points (17), field goals made (6), and 3-point field goals made (3).

Blue registers first double double of season

Senior forward Tim Blue became the first Blue Raider to record a double double this season with 14 points and a game-high 11 rebounds in Middle Tennessee's 65-58 win against Indiana State. It marked the first double double for a Blue Raider since Blue accomplished the feat with 20 points and 11 rebounds against South Dakota State (02/13/06). The 11 rebounds tie a career high.

Blue Raiders playing from the inside out

Middle Tennessee has featured a balanced offensive attack under Head Coach Kermit Davis but with senior guard Adam Vogelsberg out with an injury and a young corps of perimeter players still becoming acclimated to Division I basketball the Blue Raiders have enjoyed their greatest success going inside at the start of the 2006-07 season. More than one third of Middle Tennessee's 61.1 points per game have come inside the paint where the Blue Raiders are averaging 23.4 points per contest. The Blue Raiders scored 42 of their 69 points in the paint against Toledo and have scored 22 or more points in the paint in five consecutive games. Coincidentally, the Blue Raiders are shooting less 3-pointers thus far in 2006 as they are averaging 11 attempts per game as a team. By comparison, the Blue Raiders averaged right at 20 treys per game in 2005-06. They have not hit more than five treys as a team in a game to this point. Vogelsberg's worth to the team is evidenced by the fact he hit five or more 3-pointers in a game seven times last season and had four or more in a game 13 times. The Blue Raiders are coming off their most productive half of basketball this season against Indiana State, from a shooting standpoint. The Blue Raiders shot 45.5 percent from beyond the arc in the 65-58 win, and they are shooting 41.7 percent (10-of-24) in the last two games - both wins.

Shooting touch nothing new for Young

Kyle Young, who tied the Paradise Jam record for shooting percentage in three games (72.7 percent), is third in the Sun Belt in field goal percentage through seven games with a 64.4 percentage (29-of-45). Young entered the 2006-07 season fifth on the career field goal percentage list at Middle Tennessee with a mark of 56.8 and has seen that rise to 57.6 percent (246-of-427), which is currently third on the career list at Middle Tennessee. Young shot 65.2 percent from the field in 2005-06, which was third on the single-season list at Middle Tennessee. The only player in school history ever to shoot higher than Young in a single season is Warren Kidd. The career mark for field goal percentage is held by Kidd, who shot 66.4 percent in his three seasons as a Blue Raider.

Young ties record in 'Paradise'

Middle Tennessee senior forward Kyle Young proved to be one of the most accurate shooters ever to play in the Paradise Jam Tournament during the team's stay at St. Thomas, Virgin Islands. Young was 16-of-22 from the field for a 72.7 field-goal percentage, which equaled the Paradise Jam Tournament record for best field-goal percentage by an individual in a minimum of three games. Young tied the mark set by Eastern Kentucky's Alonzo Hird (16-of-22) during the 2005 event. Young was 4-of-5 from the field against then No. 10 Alabama, 5-of-7 against Toledo, and 7-of-10 against College of Charleston.

Young blocking opponents' path

With one block against Belmont, Kyle Young has three on the season and 47 for his career, which ties Buck Hailey for seventh on the career list. Mantia Callender is sixth with 49. Young is three blocked shots shy of becoming just the sixth player in the Blue Raiders' 84-year history to register 50 or more blocks in a career.

Starters carrying load for Blue Raiders

Players either out due to injury or nursing nagging injuries, coupled with a young bench, has made depth an issue for the Blue Raiders in the early going. As a result, the Blue Raider starters have carried the load. Middle Tennessee's starters have been responsible for 71 percent of the team's scoring, 76 percent of the rebounding, and 61 percent of the minutes played through the first seven games. Blue Raider starters are averaging 46.7 points per game while the bench has supplied 14.4. Starters are averaging 19.4 rebounds a game while the reserves have combined to average 12.3 caroms.

Yates provides offensive spark in comeback win

Blue Raider freshman Desmond Yates provided an offensive spark when he scored a career-high 23 points in Middle Tennessee's 64-57 comeback win against Belmont (11/27/06). The small forward proved to be an impact player when the team needed him most, scoring 18 of his 23 points in the final 27 minutes to help the Blue Raiders overcome a 27-11 deficit with 7:03 remaining. The 23 points were the most by a Blue Raiders since Adam Vogelsberg scored 25 against South Dakota State (02/13/06). Not only were the 23 points a career-high for Yates, but he also set personal bests for field goals made (9), field goals attempted (16), rebounds (6), and minutes (35). Yates appears to be coming into form after sitting out last season and starting his college career against a tough slate. He is averaging 15.5 points and shooting 59 percent (13-22) from the field over the past two games.

Johnson ties Paradise Jam steals record

Middle Tennessee sophomore guard Nigel Johnson tied a Paradise Jam single-game record when he recorded five steals against Toledo (11/18/06). The five steals equals the mark shared by Jonathan Modica (Arkansas), Jason McLeish (Eastern Kentucky), and Michael Ross (Eastern Michigan). Johnson's five steals are the most in a game by a Blue Raider since Bryan Smithson swiped five against Austin Peay (12/23/03).

Holy Toledo!!! Blue Raiders light it up vs. Rockets

Middle Tennessee had one of the best shooting performances for a half in school history in its game against Toledo in the second game of the Paradise Jam Tournament. The Blue Raiders blistered the nets for a 72.7 percent shooting clip (16-22) in the first half. The mark is the third-best in school history for a half and it marked the best first-half shooting performance in school history. Middle Tennessee finished the game shooting 58.3 percent (28-48).

Blue Raiders show character in comeback win

Two games removed from a heart-breaking loss in which it squandered a double-digit lead, Middle Tennessee players showed tremendous will to win and demonstrated the young team is maturing during in earsing a double-figure deficit against Belmont. Middle Tennessee led Toledo by 19 with 12 minutes remaining in the Paradise Jam Tournament before falling in overtime. Two games later the young Blue Raiders did a role reversal when they found themselves trailing Belmont by 16, 27-11, with 7:03 remaining in the first half. Middle Tennessee closed the half with a 13-0 run to pull to within 27-24 at intermission and they outscored the Bruins 40-30 in the second half, while turning the ball over just once in 20 minutes, to secure the come-from-behind win.

Blue Raiders proving to be competitive early

Despite a 3-4 record to start the 2006-07 season, Middle Tennessee has proven to be quite competitive despite facing a grueling non-conference schedule and playing without leading scorer Adam Vogelsberg. The Blue Raiders have faced two Top 25 teams (Tennessee and Alabama), while Toledo, College of Charleston and Belmont are all favorites to win their respective conferences. Each of the previous five games have been decided by single digits. Middle Tennessee trailed then No. 10 Alabama by five with five minutes remaining, lost in overtime to Toledo, and the College of Charleston contest was a one-possession game in the final four minutes. Even though the Blue Raiders suffered setbacks in each of those three games at the Paradise Jam Tournament, Head Coach Kermit Davis said he saw progress with the squad and believed the experience would make his team better. It was evidenced in the first game after

The Blue Raiders followed that contest with another single-digit win - a 65-58 conquest of Indiana State, which entered the game against Middle Tennessee with a 4-1 mark. Prior to losing at Middle Tennessee, Indiana State's only previous loss was a seven-point setback at Indiana.

Vogelsberg named preseason All-SBC

Blue Raider senior guard Adam Vogelsberg was named Preseason All-Sun Belt Conference in a preseason vote of coaches and media. The senior guard from Home, Kansas was Middle Tennessee's only selection to the squad. Vogelsberg led Middle Tennessee in scoring in 2005-06 with a 12.4 average. Vogelsberg led the Sun Belt in free-throw percentage and was fifth among league leaders for both 3-point field goals made and 3-point field goal percentage. He finished the 2005-06 season in the Top 10 of four single-season categories at Middle Tennessee, including No. 1 for free-throw percentage with a 90.8 clip (108-119). He also finished No. 3 on the single-season 3-point field goals made list (68), No. 5 for 3-point field goals attempted (163), and No. 8 for 3-point field goal percentage (.417). His 41.7 percentage from beyond the arc is No. 3 all-time.

Blue Raiders picked third in preseason poll

Middle Tennessee was picked to finish third in the SBC East Division in a preseason vote of the league's head coaches and media. The Blue Raiders received 55 points in the voting to finish third in the East behind Western Kentucky and South Alabama, the defending SBC Tournament champion. Troy, Florida International, and newcomer Florida Atlantic, were picked fourth through sixth, respectively, in the East. Coaches expect the West to be a balanced competitive race with three points separating the top three teams. UALR is the preseason favorite in the West with 73 total points, edging New Orleans and North Texas, which tied for second with 70 points. The Sun Belt Conference welcomes two new additions in 2006-07 as Florida Atlantic and Louisiana-Monroe join as full-time members.

Did you know?

Middle Tennessee has hit at least one 3-pointer in 312 consecutive games. The last time the Blue Raiders failed to hit a shot from beyond the arc was Jan. 20, 1996 at Morehead State.

80 Key Number

Middle Tennessee has been almost unbeatable when scoring 80 or more points under Head Coach Kermit Davis. Overall, the Blue Raiders are 17-1 when scoring 80 or more under Davis. The lone setback was an 85-83 overtime loss at Western Kentucky, Feb. 24, 2005.
