FIVE STRAIGHT FOR GIVENS: Middle Tennessee got off to a rough start this season, losing its first two games of the year, both at home, and Chrissy Givens had good but not great performances, netting 14 points against No. 1 Maryland and 17 points versus South Dakota State. But in the last five games, in which the Blue Raiders have posted a 4-1 record, Givens has scored more than 20 points in every contest and is averaging 25.0 points per contest along with 7.8 rebounds, 5.2 assists and 2.4 steals. She netted 23 points against Maine (also had 13 rebounds) and 25 at Minnesota, winning tournament MVP honors at the Subway Classic in Minneapolis, Minn., and Sun Belt Player of the Week accolades. The Monroe, La., native followed those two performances with a season-high 29 points against Chattanooga, then torched No. 4 Tennessee for 26 points. Givens then posted her second double-double of the season at Tennessee Tech this past Wednesday, scoring 22 points with 11 rebounds. For the season the Ouachita HS product leads the Blue Raiders with 22.3 points, 5.1 assists and 2.6 steals per game through seven outings and ranks second on the club with 7.0 rebounds per contest. (Full game-by-game stats on p. 27 of these notes).

Head Coaches:
MT - Rick Insell, 24-14 at MT (2nd season)
Austin Peay - Carrie Daniels, 2-5 (1st Season)

DEADLY FROM BEHIND THE ARC: Middle Tennessee shot the ball poorly from the field in its opening two losses of the season but has been especially deadly from behind the 3-point line in the past five contests. After shooting just 37 percent from the field and 32 percent from 3-point range in the first two outings, the Blue Raiders have raised their season totals to 43 percent overall and 38 percent from behind the arc. The squad is making an average of nine 3-pointers per game through seven contests, including a pair of outings with 12 makes and one with 13 trifectas as a team. In the last five games Middle Tennessee is 51-for-127 from 3-point range for 40 percent. For the season sophomore Johnna Abney leads the way from 3-point land, knocking down 16-of-32 shots for 50 percent, while freshman Chelsia Lymon is 10-for-21 (.476) and freshman Brandi Brown is 10-for-26 (.385).

ORR ACTIVE AGAIN: Junior Starr Orr was inserted into the starting lineup five games ago to improve the Blue Raider offense and defense with her quickness and rebounding skills. It is without surprise that Middle Tennessee has gone 4-1 in the five contests, with Orr contributing double-digit points in three of the contests. The Danville, Ala., native posted 12 points against Maine and then a career-high 14 at Minnesota on November 18-19, her first career back-to-back double-digit games. She garnered All-Tournament honors at the Subway Classic with her play, adding 15 rebounds with 11 assists and four steals in the two games as well. Last Wednesday Orr was back at her best, netting 12 points at Tennessee Tech. She is averaging 9.0 points per outing in her five starts with five rebounds and 3.8 assists as well.

THE DOUBLE-DOUBLE TWINS: Senior Chrissy Givens and junior Amber Holt have led Middle Tennessee in scoring and rebounding in all but one contest this season, and the duo has combined for four double-doubles already in 2006-07 in just seven contests. Holt was the first to accomplish the feat with 19 points and 10 rebounds against South Dakota State on November 13, Holt's second game as a Blue Raider. The Duluth, Ga., native then had 26 points and 10 boards versus Chattanooga on November 24. Givens posted 23 points and 13 rebounds in the November 18 victory over Maine and then had 22 points and 11 boards in last Wednesday's triumph at Tennessee Tech. Givens now has seven career double-doubles. In the last two seasons the Blue Raiders have posted seven double-doubles as a team in each campaign and had 14 in 2003-04.

TURNOVERS AGAIN A KEY FACTOR: Middle Tennessee forced 20 turnovers at Tennessee Tech last Wednesday and turned them into 19 points in the 68-50 victory. For the season the Blue Raiders have forced 154 turnovers in seven games, or 22.0 per game by the opposition, and turned them into 162 points. Middle Tennessee also has 72 steals in the seven outings, or 10.3 per contest, after posting 11 thefts in the win over Tennessee Tech. One other defensive note – the squad has drawn 17 charges in seven contests.

GIVENS MOVES UP STEALS LIST: Senior Chrissy Givens moved into seventh place on the career steals list with two thefts at Tennessee Tech last Wednesday. Givens moved past Jennifer McFall (205, 1982-85) and now has 206 career thefts. She needs two more steals to Cortney Neeley (1996-99, 207) for sixth all-time. The 205 figure for Givens also ranks 23rd in the history of the Sun Belt Conference. She needs three more steals to pass Ginger Bennett (208, 1985-89) of South Florida for 22nd all-time in conference history. (Full listing of Middle Tennessee career records on page 13 of these notes).

TIDBITS FROM TENNESSEE TECH: Middle Tennessee won for the third time away from home this season in four outings with last Wednesday's victory at Tennessee Tech after posting just five wins away from Murphy Center last season. The Blue Raiders have victories at Minnesota and Tennessee Tech and versus Maine, all away from the friendly confines of home, in the month of November ... Johnna Ab-ney took her first shot of the season from inside the 3-point line with a baseline jumper in the waning minutes of the contest. For the season Abney is shooting 50 percent from behind the arc (16-for-32) ... Freshman Brandi Brown hit two more 3-pointers in the game and has eight in the last three games. Brown tallied 10 points in the contest, her second straight double-figure outing. Brown tied her career-high with four rebounds, two assists, two steals and 21 minutes played … Amber Holt posted a career-high three assists in the contest and tied her career-high with four steals … Krystle Horton tied her season-high with five rebounds and two assists and tied her season-high with two steals ... Starr Orr tied her career-high with two made 3-pointers.

KNOCKING DOWN FOUL SHOTS: Middle Tennessee continues to excel at the foul line this season, hitting 78 percent as a team (80-for-102), led by senior Chrissy Givens, who is hitting 83 percent (20-for-24). Junior Amber Holt is hitting 79 percent of her foul shots as well (38-for-48). Last season the Blue Raiders made just 69 percent from the foul line as a team.

RECEIVING VOTES: The ESPN/USA Today preseason women's college basketball poll was released on October 31 and Middle Tennessee received two votes. The Blue Raiders joined Western Kentucky as the only teams from the Sun Belt Conference to receive votes. In this week's ESPN/USA Today poll (November 28), Middle Tennessee received one vote but did not receive any votes in this week's AP poll (November 27) after receiving nine in the previous poll. (A full listing of both polls appears on page 4 of these notes).

SCOUTING THE LADY GOVS: Austin Peay enters the contest 2-5 overall but defeated Tennessee Tech, 66-57, on Saturday in its first conference game of the year, ending a four-game losing streak. Saundra Hale leads the squad but averages just 8.0 points per contest, while three players average more than four rebounds per outing. The Lady Govs shoot just 39 percent from the field and 29 percent from 3-point range as a team, while nine players average double-figure minutes. APSU's only other win this season was a 74-72 triumph over Evansville, while the Lady Govs have losses to Chattanooga, Arkansas and Southern Illinois.

SERIES HISTORY WITH AUSTIN PEAY: Middle Tennessee leads the all-time series with Austin Peay, 50-9, including 41 consecutive victories from 1977-96. In the last 10 years the series is tied, 9-9, with the Lady Govs erasing 14- and 12-point deficits last season in Clarksville to post a 71-69 victory. The APSU victory ended a two-game Middle Tennessee winning streak overall in the series and a four-game Blue Raider win streak in Clarksville. At home against the Lady Govs, Middle Tennessee is 24-3 all-time, including a 57-55 triumph on December 21, 2004. (The last three box scores in the series are at the end of this notes package.)

ALL-TIME TIDBITS: Middle Tennessee stands 111-81 (.578) all-time in the month of December heading into Monday's tilt with Austin Peay, including 30-15 (.667) in this decade. The Blue Raiders were 4-3 in the month of December last season in coach Rick Insell's first year at the helm of the program.

ON THIS DATE: Middle Tennessee played its first-ever varsity women's basketball game on this date in 1975, with the Blue Raiders defeating Murray State, 66-50, at home. Middle Tennessee is 6-5 all-time on December 4, including a 65-58 defeat at North Dakota State last season.

SUBSTITUTING FREELY: Middle Tennessee's full-court pressing style of play can sometimes become an issue for many teams. Last season the Blue Raiders played coach Rick Insell's preferred style of play despite using just eight players for most of the season. In all seven regular season games thus far this season, the Blue Raiders have substituted freely, with at least 10 players seeing action in all seven contests. Four newcomers are included in the 10 and four underclassmen as well. Eight of the 10 players are averaging double-figure minutes.

GIVENS MOVES UP CAREER SCORING LIST: Senior Chrissy Givens passed two players on the all-time scoring list with her 29 points versus Chattanooga on November 24, including current teammate Krystle Horton. Givens moved into 12th place all-time at Middle Tennessee and the Monroe, La., native now has 1,303 points. Against Chattanooga, Givens passed Kay Willbanks (1984-86, 1,236 pts) as well as Horton, who has 1,247 points during her career. Givens also moved into eighth place on the career steals list with four thefts against the Lady Mocs and has 204 all-time. Givens stands 10th on the career FG attempts chart at Middle Tennessee with 1,081, just ahead of former teammate Tia Stovall (2003-06, 1,011). A full listing of the career records appears on Page 13 of these notes.

HOME COURT ADVANTAGE: Middle Tennessee ended the 2005-06 season 15-1 at home with its lone loss to 17th-ranked Georgia on November 30, 2005. The Blue Raiders had their 12-game home winning streak snapped in this year's season-opener against top-ranked Maryland, losing 80-76. But Middle Tennessee owns an overall mark of 303-89 at Murphy Center, a winning percentage of .773.

GIVENS VOTED PLAYER OF THE WEEK: Middle Tennessee senior Chrissy Givens was voted the Sun Belt Women's Basketball Player of the Week on November 21 after helping the Blue Raiders to back-to-back victories and claiming the MVP award at the Subway Classic in Minneapolis, Minn. Givens was named the Most Valuable Player after the Blue Raiders posted wins over Maine and host Minnesota to win the four-team tournament. Givens posted 23 points against Maine and 25 versus Minnesota. The Monroe, La., native also tallied 20 rebounds, 13 assists and six steals in the two contests. She was 9-of-14 from the field in the first half against Minnesota for 18 points, as Middle Tennessee built a 14-point halftime edge. The loss for Minnesota ended an 11-game nonconference winning streak at Williams Arena and was just the second nonconference home loss for UM under fifth-year head coach Pam Borton. The other loss came in December 2004 to top-ranked LSU. Givens won the SBC POW award three times last season and joined teammate Amber Holt as the SBC Player of the Week after Holt garnered the accolade on November 14.

GIVENS, ORR MAKE ALL-TOURNAMENT: Senior Chrissy Givens and junior Starr Orr were both named to the All-Tournament team at the Subway Classic in Minneapolis, Minn., and Givens was awarded the Most Valuable Player trophy as well in the four-team tournament November 18-19. Givens posted games with 23 and 25 points in wins over Maine and host Minnesota, respectively, and tallied 20 rebounds, 13 assists and six steals in the two contests. Orr was all over the floor in both outings, netting 12 points versus Maine and a career-high 14 against Minnesota as well as grabbing 15 rebounds with 11 assists and four steals in the two games. It marks the first time Middle Tennessee has won two games in a tournament besides the conference championships since December 21-22, 2000, at the UCF Classic in Orlando, Fla., and just the 15th time in 52 in-season tournaments in the history of the program that the Blue Raiders won a pair games.

was voted the Sun Belt Player of the Week on Tuesday, November 14, after leading the Blue Raiders in a pair of contests. Holt averaged 23.5 points and 9.0 rebounds in Middle Tennessee's two games, versus No. 1 Maryland and South Dakota State. She also added three assists, two blocks and five steals in the two outings. Against the defending national champion Terrapins, Holt tallied 28 points on 11-of-24 shooting with eight rebounds. Her 15 first-half points kept the Blue Raiders in the contest when the Terrapins threatened to run away with the game. Against SDSU, Holt scored 19 points and added 10 boards for her first career double-double. She was 14-of-16 at the foul line as well in the two games. The Duluth, Ga., native became the 15th Middle Tennessee player to earn POW honors since joining the Sun Belt and the sixth different Blue Raider to garner the accolade.

GIVENS A JACK OF ALL TRADES: Senior Chrissy Givens led Middle Tennessee in points, rebounds, assists and steals as a junior and has continued her consistent and all-around play through seven games this season. In the season opener versus No. 1 Maryland, the Monroe, La., native totaled 14 points, four rebounds, seven assists and three steals, and on November 13 against South Dakota State, she netted 17 points with six boards, three assists and three steals. Givens posted her sixth career double-double with 23 points and 13 boards against Maine and followed the next day with 25 points, seven boards and seven steals at Minnesota. She backed that up with 29 points, seven boards, five assists and four steals versus Chattanooga and tallied 26 points, including 17 in the first half, against No. 4 Tennessee. Last Wednesday at Tennessee Tech she posted her seventh career double-double and second of the season with 22 points and 11 rebounds against the Golden Eagles. This season Givens leads Middle Tennessee in points, assists and steals while ranking second in rebounds. Givens was named the Preseason Sun Belt Player of the Year by coaches and the media during the SBC Media Days in Lafayette, La., and was a Preseason Honorable Mention All-America selection by Street & Smith's magazine in October.

BLUE RAIDERS SET ATTENDANCE RECORD: Middle Tennessee set a new single-game record with a crowd of 10,010 for the season-opening contest versus No. 1-ranked Maryland at Murphy Center on Friday, November 10. The attendance shattered the old mark of 4,813 set March 7, 2006, versus Western Kentucky in the championship game of the Sun Belt Tournament. Middle Tennessee averaged 2,699 for 16 home dates during the 2005-06 season and led the nation in attendance increase last year with a more than 300 percent increase. The attendance mark of 10,010 is the 15th most to ever see a basketball game in the 11,500-seat Murphy Center and the third most to ever attend a women's basketball contest in Sun Belt Conference history (Western Kentucky holds the record with 12,951 on February 23, 1986, vs. Old Dominion; Arkansas State vs. Arkansas, March 24, 2005, 10,892).

WOMEN SIGN THREE TO LETTERS-OF-INTENT: Middle Tennessee women's basketball coach Rick Insell announced the signing of T'Qwana Pendergrast, Emily Queen and Anne Marie Lanning to national letters-of-intent on Thursday, November 9, during the fall signing period. Pendergrast (Nashville) and Lanning (Murfreesboro) both hail from the Midstate, while Queen resides in Ashland, Ky.

Pendergrast attended Maplewood High School in Nashville and will be a sophomore at Motlow State Community College in Tullahoma, Tenn., this season, where she is a First Team NJCAA Preseason All-American honoree. She averaged 20.1 points, 11.0 rebounds, 2.1 assists and 1.7 steals as a freshman at Motlow in helping the Lady Bucks to a 25-4 overall mark last season. Motlow finished 2005-06 ranked 18th nationally.

Queen has earned Second Team All-State honors as a sophomore and junior at Rose Hill Christian, helping her team to a state runner-up finish in 2006. She garnered Sweet Sixteen All-Tournament and All "A" State Tournament honors last season as well and was voted All-District, All-Region and All-Area each of the last two seasons. The 6-foot-2 all-everything has scored 2,311 points and grabbed 1,194 rebounds in her three seasons, including single-game school records of 46 points, 7-of-11 3-pointers and 26 rebounds. She even posted one game with a quadruple double of 26 points, 11 rebounds, 10 assists and 10 steals. One more accolade for Queen - her team was the first girls small school in history to make the finals of the Kentucky State Tournament, where they lost to Lexington Catholic.

Lanning was named the Daily News Journal

and District 7-AAA Player of the Year in 2005 at Riverdale High School in Murfreesboro. She was garnered All-District, All-Region and All-State accolades the past two years as well as Honorable Mention All-America from Street & Smith's. Lanning averaged 18.5 points, 2.2 assists and 1.9 steals last season, shooting 63.8 percent from the field, 34.4 percent from 3-point range and 84.7 percent from the free throw line.

GIVENS PRESEASON PLAYER OF THE YEAR: Senior Chrissy Givens was voted the Sun Belt Preseason Player of the Year by the league coaches and media at the conference media days at the end of October. The Monroe, La., native was also voted to the Preseason All-Sun Belt First Team. The honor is in conjunction with the 5-11 guard being voted Sun Belt Player of the Year for the 2005-06 season. She was also voted Sun Belt Defensive Player of the Year and Sun Belt Tournament Most Outstanding Player. She is just the second player in Sun Belt Conference history to win all three awards in the same season. Givens' preseason honor is the second time in school history a Blue Raider women's basketball player was awarded the Preseason POY honor. In 2004 former Middle Tennessee standout Patrice Holmes was voted Sun Belt Preseason Player of the Year.

BLUE RAIDERS TOPS IN THE EAST: For the second time since joining the Sun Belt, Middle Tennessee has been tabbed to finish first in the Sun Belt preseason poll in the Eastern Division. The Blue Raiders received 74 points and nine first-place votes to take the top spot in the Eastern Division in a poll of the league's coaches prior to SBC Media Days. Middle Tennessee was also picked to finish first in 2004.

HORTON SECOND TEAM: Krystle Horton was voted to the Preseason All-Sun Belt Second Team in a poll of the league's coaches and media prior to the Sun Belt Media Days in October. It marks the third straight season Horton has been named to a Preseason All-SBC squad. The senior forward was a Third-Team selection to close out the season in 2005-06, averaging 11.9 points per game and ranking second in the Sun Belt in field goal percentage at 51.2 percent.

GIVENS NAMED PRESEASON ALL-AMERICAN: Senior Chrissy Givens was named a Preseason Honorable Mention All-America by Street & Smith's magazine in October after leading Middle Tennessee in points, rebounds, assists and steals in 2005-06. It is the second time in school history a Blue Raider player was named a Preseason All-American, with former standout Jonelda Buck garnering the accolade before the 1998-99 season.

INSELL'S SUCCESS: Head coach Rick Insell enjoyed unprecedented success at Shelbyville Central High School in Shelbyville, Tenn., before becoming the seventh head coach in Middle Tennessee history before the 2005-06 season. Insell posted a 20-11 mark last year and led the Blue Raiders to their third straight Sun Belt Tournament title and third consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance. The 20 wins in his first campaign mark only the second Blue Raider coach to win 20 contests in his rookie season (Lewis Bivens, 22-8, 1988) and just the 14th 20-win season in Blue Raider history.

Lady Raiders finish strong
Overcome sluggish start to topple Tech
By MONTE HALE JR.
hale@dnj.com

COOKEVILLE — Tennessee Tech had the fight and grit, but athleticism and talent finally won out for MTSU's Lady Raiders Wednesday night.

Despite struggling for much of the first half, MTSU overcame the sloppy play and pulled away to defeat the Golden Eagles, 68-50, at Hooper Eblen Center.

"We didn't get off to a good start, but (Tennessee Tech) made some plays and that's a credit to them," said MTSU coach Rick Insell. "I thought we settled down, though, and did what we needed to do. They played hard and we played hard, and it was a good ballgame."

MTSU (4-3) was lethargic early and fell behind 16-10 to the pesky Golden Eagles, who didn't surrender the lead until 5:58 left before halftime.

The Lady Raiders used a 20-3 run to take a 30-19 lead and held a 32-23 halftime advantage.

MTSU senior guard Chrissy Givens missed three shots to open the game and was pulled from the lineup.

However, she responded upon her return by leading the Lady Raiders with 22 points, 11 rebounds and five assists.

"I'm a leader and I don't need to start a game like that," Givens said. "I know (Insell) was mad and I knew I was coming out.

"When I came back in, I just tried to deflect balls, play defense and we all kind of gravitated to each other."

MTSU junior guard Starr Orr, recently inserted into the starting lineup, helped spark the first-half run with seven straight points on a short jumper, a steal and a layup and a 3-pointer.

"I haven't been playing too good lately," Orr said, "and coach told me I needed to step it up.

"When I got those steals, it got me going and then we started playing better. Our problem was we just couldn't knock our shots down early in the game. Once we hit a few, we got on a good roll."

MTSU hit just 37 percent from the field in the first half, but got into a better rhythm offensively in the second when it hit 11 of its first 18 shots.

Tennessee Tech stayed within 10 points until the 10-minute mark when the Lady Raiders used a 14-5 spurt to go ahead 62-43 with 6:59 remaining.

"I think our defensive tenacity got to them," Insell said. "They weren't really able to get into their sets much. I thought we stayed after them and wore them down."

Tennessee Tech shot just 39 percent in the second half and finished with 20 turnovers. The Lady Raiders outrebounded the Golden Eagles, 38-27.

MTSU is off until Monday when it plays host to Austin Peay at 5 p.m.

POSTGAME NOTES

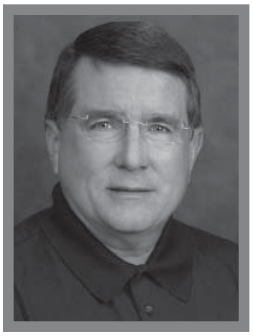
ANOTHER DOUBLE-DOUBLE: Senior Chrissy Givens recorded her second double-double of the season and the seventh of her career with 22 points and 11 rebounds in the victory. Givens was 9-for-18 from the field and pulled down nine defensive rebounds. The Monroe, La., native also posted five assists and two steals. It was her fifth 20-plus point game in a row and fifth this season. Givens' other double-double this season was a 23-point, 13-rebound effort against Maine on November 18 at the Subway Classic in Minneapolis, Minn.

GIVENS MOVES UP STEALS LIST: Senior Chrissy Givens moved into seventh place on the career steals list with two thefts in the contest. Givens moved past Jennifer McFall (205, 1982-85) and now has 206 career thefts. The figure also ranks 23rd in the history of the Sun Belt Conference. She needs three more steals to pass Ginger Bennett (208, 1985-89) of South Florida for 22nd all-time in conference history.

TURNOVERS AGAIN A KEY FACTOR: Middle Tennessee forced 20 turnovers in the contest and turned them into 19 points in the 68-50 victory. For the season the Blue Raiders have forced 154 turnovers in seven games, or 22 per game by the opposition, and turned them into 162 points. Middle Tennessee also has 72 steals in the seven outings, or just over 10 per contest, after posting 11 thefts in the win over Tennessee Tech.

TIDBITS: Middle Tennessee improved to 40-29 all-time against Tennessee Tech and 10-22 at the Eblen Center. The Blue Raiders have won four of the last five in the series and picked up their first victory in Cookeville since November 25, 2002 ... Middle Tennessee won for the third time away from home this season in four outings after posting just five wins away from Murphy Center last season. The Blue Raiders have victories at Minnesota and Tennessee Tech and versus Maine, all away from the friendly confines of home, in the month of November ... Johnna Abney took her first shot of the season from inside the 3-point line with a baseline jumper in the waning minutes of the contest. For the season Abney is shooting 50 percent from behind the arc (16-for-32) ... Freshman Brandi Brown hit two more 3-pointers in the game and has eight in the last three games. Brown tallied 10 points in the contest, his second straight double-figure outing.

Head Coach Rick Insell



Rick Insell made a huge splash is first year at the helm of the Middle Tennessee women's basketball program, guiding the Middle Tennessee program to its third consecutive Sun Belt Championship and doing so in front of a record-setting home crowd in the finals of the SBC Tournament.

Insell can now drop the title former high school coach and add his name to the list of Middle Tennessee coaches with conference titles. He directed one of the most thrilling comebacks in Sun Belt Tournament history, leading Middle Tennessee to an 84-73 win over Western Kentucky after being down by as many as 14 points in the first half.

Insell's first season at the helm of his alma mater also included a Top 10 recruiting class for the 2006-07 season and an unprecedented third consecutive trip to the NCAA Tournament.

Insell also developed one of the most prolific scorers for a single-season in school history in Chrissy Givens, who registered 667 points, the second most in a season on the all-time scoring list. It also makes Givens one of just five players to score 600 or more points in a season as a Blue Raider.

The 2005-06 campaign also saw another first in program history as three players - Givens, Tia Stovall and Krystle Horton - all joined the 1,000-point club. This marks the first time in school history three current players all were represented on the prestigious list, and the Blue Raiders were one of only four teams in the 2006 NCAA Tournament to boast such an honor.

Insell's biggest influence may have come at the turnstiles, where the Blue Raiders averaged 2,699 fans per outing in 2005-06, a 300 percent increase over the previous season and the largest increase in the NCAA for 2005-06.

Middle Tennessee notched one of its biggest wins of the season when the Blue Raiders shocked Big 10 powerhouse Penn State, 79-65, in the UAB Blaze Tournament in December.

A 1977 graduate of Middle Tennessee, Insell built a high school girls basketball dynasty at nearby Shelbyville Central High School, where he guided the Golden Eaglettes to a record 10 TSSAA Class AAA state championships and two USA Today national championships (1989, 1991) as he compiled a sparkling 775-148 worksheet during his 28-year tenure. Insell was named USA Today National High School Coach of the Year in 1989 and 1991 and he also was been named Converse National High School Coach of the Year on two occasions (1990, 1992). Insell called the women's basketball position at Middle Tennessee his "dream job".

"Dreams do come true," Insell said after Director of Athletics Chris Massaro announced his hiring on May 18, 2005. "It's something you think about. I'm a coach and it's all I've ever done, from elementary to junior high to junior pro, AAU and high school. To be able to come on board at Middle Tennessee, a Division I school, that's a dream come true, not only for me, but for all of the high school coaches and junior high coaches across the country and it says if you stay in there long enough and dream big enough, one day it will eventually happen."

Insell said Middle Tennessee will be a pressing basketball team on defense and force the issue, and he added that the Blue Raiders would back down from no one on the recruiting trail.

"We are going after the best players in the state of Tennessee every year," Insell said. "If Tennessee or Vanderbilt is after them, then Middle Tennessee is going to be after them, too. We will recruit alongside of them. We are not going to be intimidated, nor will we back down because they are in the Southeastern Conference. We are Division I and they are Division I. We are going to use all of our contacts."

A name synonymous with high school girls basketball in Tennessee, Insell's teams hold the Tennessee state records for consecutive wins with 110, consecutive state titles with four (1989-1992), most state championships for a coach with 10 (1986, 1989, 1990, 1991, 1992, 1995, 2000, 2001, 2003 and 2004), and his 1990 Golden Eaglette squad was named the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame Team of the Year, the first high school team so honored.

Under Insell's guidance, Shelbyville Central High School won 23 district championships, 16 regional championships and appeared in the Class AAA state championship game a remarkable 15 times, winning 10. Insell developed six Tennessee Class AAA Miss Basketball Award recipients, 15 high school All-Americans and 57 of his players received either athletic or academic scholarships to continue their careers at the collegiate level.

While Insell built a basketball dynasty at Shelbyville during his time there, he also made sure his players got the job done in the classroom, as evidenced by his teams receiving the TSSAA Distinguished Award for Academic Success from 1989-2000, an award based on team GPA. The lowest cumulative GPA at Shelbyville from 1989-00 was 3.4 and the highest was 3.98.

Additionally, Insell's Shelbyville team received a special invitation to the Oval Office by President George Bush for academic and athletic achievement and his teams also have been honored in the United States Senate and House of Representatives, the Tennessee State House and Senate and by two Tennessee Governors.

Insell is married to Debbie and the couple have three sons, Tom, Kyle and Matt.

INSELL'S INS AND OUTS

- Appeared on Dateline on December 26, 2004. The program produced a one-hour segment on Insell, focusing on him and his Shelbyville Eaglettes. The program was shown internationally.
- March 22, 2003 - Rick Insell was inducted into the Tennessee Secondary School Athletic Association Hall of Fame.
- Insell and the Eaglettes received a special invitation to the Oval Office by President George H. Bush for academic and athletic achievement.
- In 1989, ESPN did a feature story on the Shelbyville Eaglettes that aired nationally several times. The story won the National Television Journalism Award later that year. It was the first of several stories ESPN did on Insell and his team.
- In 1992, Rick Insell was named Head Coach of the Girls High School All-American Game and from 1992-96 was a member of the All-American Selection Committee. He became the chairman of the All-American Selection Committee in 1996 and began serving as an advisor in 1999.
- Insell was named to the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) Board of Directors as High School Representative in 2001.

Women's college basketball has seen the gap narrow between the have's and have not's.

MTSU proved Friday night that it, too, has closed the gap in terms of competing with the top teams in the nation.

However, MTSU also found out why Maryland is the defending national champion as it overcame a five-point deficit with 5:14 remaining and stormed back to defeat the Blue Raiders 80-76 before a women's record crowd of 10,010 at Murphy Center.

"You can see why their national champions," said MTSU coach Rick Insell. "They did the same thing in the finals last year against Duke. They've got great players, but we've got great players. They didn't luck into winning the national championship."

MTSU led the Terrapins 72-67 with 5:14 left in the game after freshman guard Chelsia Lymon scored on a three-point play. However, after a Maryland timeout, it reeled off a 13-4 run to close the game and hold on to its preseason No. 1 national ranking.

"I want to thank Middle Tennessee," said Maryland coach Brenda Frese. "They made us a better basketball team tonight. It was tremendous, it was one of the better college basketball games I've ever been a part of. Middle Tennessee is going to be very, very good. They obviously showed it and they've got to be excited about what's ahead."

The Blue Raiders trailed 76-74 with less than a mintue left, but Amber Holt's jumper was off the mark. On Maryland's next possession, All-American Crystal Langhorne scored on an offensive putback to with 25 seconds left to seal the victory.

Holt made a sterling debut, scoring 28 points and pulling down eight rebounds, and freshman point guard Chelsia Lymon — the Gatorade player of the year in Kentucky last year — scored 13 points in only nine minutes of play.

Maryland was led by Coleman with 19 points and 14 rebounds, while Langhorne had 16 points and 11 rebounds.

While the Blue Raiders pushed Maryland to the limit, it didn't look like it that way early. Coming out of the final media timeout in the first half with 2:55 remaining, MTSU trailed 36-23. Maryland had hit 15 of its first 21 shots for a sizzling 71-percent clip, while MTSU had made only 9 of its first 27 attempts.

However, after Maryland took its biggest lead of the half at 38-23, MTSU scored the final 10 points to close within 38-33 at intermission. Holt scored six in a row and Givens drove in the length of the floor in just six seconds and hit a layup to pull the Blue Raiders within five.

Maryland shot 61 percent from the field and outrebounded MTSU 37-29. The Blue Raiders shot 42 percent and forced 23 Terrapin turnovers.

There was no sugarcoating MTSU's 72-61 home loss to South Dakota State Monday night at Murphy Center.

"They came out, it was their first game and they stuck it to us," said second-year MTSU coach Rick Insell.

After playing No. 1 ranked Maryland to within four points Friday night and garnering 12 votes in the Top 25 poll Monday, MTSU did indeed get a dose of reality.

"They came in here and kicked our butts," said MTSU senior guard Chrissy Givens. "We took Maryland to four points and maybe we thought we were too good, but they kicked our butts. They did it here two years ago."

MTSU struggled offensively throughout, but tied the score at 52-52 with 6:52 left when Givens scored and converted a 3-point play.

However, MTSU was outscored 20-9 down the stretch as it was unable to run its half-court offense.

MTSU shot only 32 percent from the field, while the Jackrabbits shot 56 percent and outrebounded the Blue Raiders 37-29.

MTSU was led by junior Amber Holt's 19 points, while Givens had 17. However, the duo combined to go just 12-of-41 from the field.

South Dakota State hit 17-of-20 free throws after getting into the 1-and-1 with 10:39 left in the game. The Jackrabbits also hit 8-of-14 from behind the 3-point arc.

"There was no pressure for us to win this game," said SDSU coach Aaron Johnston. "We tried a basic offense. We kept it simple and told the kids about being strong and trying to drive.

"We talked about trying to pick up some fouls in the second half. If they are going to put that much pressure on us we've got to turn that pressure on them and get to the free throw line."

MTSU led 12-7 with 14:01 left in the first half but went more than four minutes without a point and found itself trailing 19-12.

The Blue Raiders scored eight unanswered points during one stretch to take a 24-22 lead, but SDSU closed the final four minutes of the half with a 5-2 run to take a 27-26 halftime lead.

MTSU shot just 32 percent in the first half (10-of-31), while the Jackrabbits hit 11-of-24 (46 percent).

SDSU had 13 first-halt turnovers, but MTSU could only turn them into six points.

Foul problems at the post also hurt MTSU as senior Krystle Horton picked up her second personal in less than three minutes, while sophomore Lakira Boyd was whistled for her second with 13:48 remaining before halftime.

Subway Classic Game #1

Chrissy Givens and Amber Holt both scored 23 points and Starr Orr added 12 in only her 10th career start, leading Middle Tennessee to an 87-60 victory over Maine Saturday in the Subway Classic.

Givens recorded her sixth career double-double, grabbing 13 rebounds and adding six assists and three steals. Holt tallied 18 of her 23 points in the first half when the Blue Raiders opened the lead to as many as 26 points.

Orr did exactly what she was inserted in the lineup to do, score and rebound (seven), and the Danville, Ala., native also had five assists in 27 minutes of action.

The Blue Raiders started the game with a 12-3 run and never looked back in the first half, taking a 47-26 advantage at the break. Holt posted 18 points and Givens 13 in the opening half, but it was a staunch defense and improved rebounding that were the biggest differences, limiting Maine to just 38 percent shooting (6-for-16) and a 30-9 rebounding margin for Middle Tennessee.

The Blackbears (1-1) had just six field goals in the first period, including a stretch of more than 10 minutes without a bucket. Middle Tennessee worked through foul problems in the opening 20 minutes as well, with 17 fouls whistled on the Blue Raiders allowing Maine to shoot 22 free throws.

Middle Tennessee led 20-12 after a Maine 3-point play from Abby Greene with 10:48 to play in the first half. The Blue Raiders then scored 23 of the next 28 points in the contest over a six-minute stretch, with Holt contributing nine points and Givens six during the run.

In the second half the Blue Raiders led by as many as 23 and the lead was never less than 16. Middle Tennessee knocked down seven 3-pointers in the second half and 12 for the game, as well as outrebounding the Blackbears Maine, 48-24, for the game.

"We shot the ball better in the first half and really hit the boards hard, one of things we've been working on in practice," head coach Rick Insell said. "We came out with more focus, especially early. We turned up the heat in practice and these young ladies responded well.

"Our depth was really a factor as well. We got in some foul trouble in the first half, but this year we're able to bring Chelsia [Lymon], Jackie [Pickel], LaCondra [Mason] and LaToya [Brown] off the bench at the guard spots and even Brandi [Brown] if we need her."

Holt added seven rebounds in the win and was 6-of-12 from the floor and 9-for-12 from the foul line.

Subway Classic Championship Game

Chrissy Givens scored 18 first-half points and helped Middle Tennessee build a 25-point lead early in the second half en route to a 79-61 victory over host Minnesota in the championship game of the Subway Classic Sunday at Williams Arena.

Givens, voted the tournament's most valuable player, was almost unstoppable in the first half, going 9-of-14 from the field, leading the Blue Raiders to a 14-point halftime lead.

Givens and teammate Starr Orr were both selected to the Subway Classic All-Tournament team.

Freshman Chelsia Lymon came off the bench in the opening minutes of the second half and provided an offensive spark, knocking down a pair of 3-pointers and a lay-up to help extend the lead to 57-34. Orr followed with eight consecutive points of her own, including another pair of trifectas, stretching the Middle Tennessee advantage to 65-38.

Minnesota made a run during the half when Middle Tennessee went without a bucket for more than six minutes, but the Golden Gophers never got closer than 14 after the break.

Givens led all scorers with 25 points while adding seven rebounds and seven assists in 40 minutes of action. Orr, in one of her best games as a Blue Raider, added 14 points, eight rebounds, six assists, and three steals.

Senior Krystle Horton scored the first three baskets of the game for the Blue Raiders and Johnna Abney knocked down a pair of 3-pointers, as Middle Tennessee quieted the crowd of 5,639 en route to an early 12-6 lead. Givens scored the next eight on a host of short jumpers and lay-ups for a 20-12 MT advantage with 7:51 to go in the half.

All of this was in the midst of an 18-4 run over a seven-minute stretch that put the Blue Raiders ahead, 34-14. The Blue Raiders built the lead by out-hustling the Golden Gophers, with one series of plays seeing Amber Holt make a steal but miss a break-away lay-up.

Not to be discouraged, Holt came racing back down the floor, made another steal falling out of bounds, saved the ball to Orr, who executed a 2-on-1 with Givens for another lay-up. The Blue Raiders built a 32-14 advantage at that point and led 38-24 at the halftime break even after a cheap lay-up at the buzzer by Minnesota's Kelly Roysland.

Givens had 18 in the first half and the Blue Raiders forced 18 Minnesota turnovers in the first 20 minutes and also limited the Golden Gophers to just 35 percent shooting from the floor while shooting 58 percent themselves.

It was a pick your poison night for Chattanooga at Murphy Center Friday.

Whether the Lady Mocs employed a man-to-man defense or a zone, it didn't matter, as MTSU broke down both en route to a 98-69 victory before a crowd of 2,524.

MTSU (3-2) shot 52 percent and hit 12 3-pointers, equaling a season high, as it won its third straight game and snapped a two-game losing streak at Murphy Center.

The 98 points were the most scored by MTSU under second-year coach Rick Insell, whose team lost 76-66 at Chattanooga last season.

"We're playing a little better offensively," Insell said, "but I wasn't as pleased with our defense tonight. We did a better job as the game went on, but not good enough if we're going to get to where we want to be."

The duo of senior guard Chrissy Givens and junior forward Amber Holt were devastating, as they combined for 55 points and 17 rebounds. Givens finished with 29 points and seven rebounds, while Holt had 26 points and 10 boards.

The offensive onslaught was a welcomed sight after the Blue Raiders had hit 30 percent their first two home games against Maryland and South Dakota State.

Coming out of the eight-minute timeout trailing 24-21, Chattanooga went to a zone defense, which played right into MTSU's hands.

Freshman guard Jackie Pickel hit back-to-back 3-pointers, which spearheaded a 14-4 run that gave MTSU a 38-25 lead with 4:33 left before halftime.

Chattanooga pulled to within seven in less than a minute, but the Blue Raiders closed the half with a 12-7 run to take a 50-38 halftime lead at intermission.

Pickel finished with a season-high 15 points, hitting 5-of-7 from 3-point range. Five different MTSU players hit at least one 3-pointer.

Both teams were plagued with foul problems in the first half, with Chattanooga being whistled for 13 and MTSU with 12.

Chattanooga's leading scorer, Alex Anderson (18 ppg), played only four minutes after picking up her second foul, while starters Brooke Hand and Kristen Spann each had three fouls.

MTSU sophomore guard Johnna Abney picked up three fouls in the first half, while Givens, Holt and Starr Orr each had two.

Givens scored MTSU's first eight points of the second half, and Abney followed with a 3-pointer to give the Blue Raiders a 61-44 advantage with 17:09 left.

MTSU outrebounded the Lady Mocs 40-28 and forced 21 turnovers.

MTSU was its own worst enemy Sunday, but the No. 4-ranked Tennessee Lady Vols had a lot to do with it.

Tennessee's stifling, trapping defense and impressive offensive talent was simply too much for MTSU, which suffered an 88-64 whipping before a crowd of 12,363 at Thompson Boling Arena.

MTSU dropped to 3-3, while Tennessee improved to 5-0.

"Tennessee is outstanding," said MTSU coach Rick Insell. "We played hard, we didn't quit, but they just happen to be six inches taller than us at every position."

Leading just 16-15 with 11:57 remaining in the first half, Tennessee increased the intensity with its half-court trapping defense, which rendered MTSU helpless and helped the Lady Vols pull away for the easy victory.

Tennessee held MTSU scoreless for more than five minutes in the first half before Chrissy Givens hit two free throws at the 6:35 mark.

However, the Lady Raiders stayed within striking distance, trailing only 26-19 before Tennessee closed the final 5:45 of the first half with a 23-8 run to take a 49-27 lead at intermission.

Tennessee shot a sizzling 64 percent in the first half, made 6-of-9 form 3-point range and created too many mismatch problems for the Lady Raiders.

MTSU committed 15 first-half turnovers that led to 20 Lady Vol points. The Lady Raiders had just five turnovers in the second half.

"Like coach said, they had girls six inches taller than us and they were able to shoot right over us," Givens said. "But we missed a couple of screens, I didn't get around a couple of screens and they made their 3-point shots. We weren't counting on that. I think rebounding hurt us and we needed to cut those second-chance points in half."

Givens led MTSU with 26 points, but got little offensive support. Junior forward Amber Holt, the Lady Raiders' second-leading scorer, didn't get her first points until 15:33 left in the game. She finished with eight.

Lady Raider freshman Brandi Brown scored 12 points — all on 3-pointers — and MTSU hit a season-high 13 treys.

MTSU shot 45 percent overall and hit 8-of-15 from 3-point range in the second half and 50 percent overall.

"We didn't quit," Insell said. "They're a great basketball team. We're a good basketball team, although it might not have looked like it tonight. But we'll get better because of this game."

Tennessee was led by Sidney Spencer and Candace Parker with 16 points each. The Vols outrebounded MTSU 38-22 and were led by Parker's nine boards.

Tennessee Tech had the fight and grit, but athleticism and talent finally won out for MTSU's Lady Raiders Wednesday night.

Despite struggling for much of the first half, MTSU overcame the sloppy play and pulled away to defeat the Golden Eagles, 68-50, at Hooper Eblen Center.

"We didn't get off to a good start, but (Tennessee Tech) made some plays and that's a credit to them," said MTSU coach Rick Insell. "I thought we settled down, though, and did what we needed to do. They played hard and we played hard, and it was a good ballgame."

MTSU (4-3) was lethargic early and fell behind 16-10 to the pesky Golden Eagles, who didn't surrender the lead until 5:58 left before halftime.

The Lady Raiders used a 20-3 run to take a 30-19 lead and held a 32-23 halftime advantage.

MTSU senior guard Chrissy Givens missed three shots to open the game and was pulled from the lineup. However, she responded upon her return by leading the Lady Raiders with 22 points, 11 rebounds and five assists.

"I'm a leader and I don't need to start a game like that," Givens said. "I know (Insell) was mad and I knew I was coming out. "When I came back in, I just tried to deflect balls, play defense and we all kind of gravitated to each other."

MTSU junior guard Starr Orr, recently inserted into the starting lineup, helped spark the first-half run with seven straight points on a short jumper, a steal and a layup and a 3-pointer.

"I haven't been playing too good lately," Orr said, "and coach told me I needed to step it up. When I got those steals, it got me going and then we started playing better. Our problem was we just couldn't knock our shots down early in the game. Once we hit a few, we got on a good roll."

MTSU hit just 37 percent from the field in the first half, but got into a better rhythm offensively in the second when it hit 11 of its first 18 shots.

Tennessee Tech stayed within 10 points until the 10-minute mark when the Lady Raiders used a 14-5 spurt to go ahead 62-43 with 6:59 remaining.

"I think our defensive tenacity got to them," Insell said. "They weren't really able to get into their sets much. I thought we stayed after them and wore them down."

Tennessee Tech shot just 39 percent in the second half and finished with 20 turnovers. The Lady Raiders outrebounded the Golden Eagles, 38-27.

Orr had 12 points, while junior Amber Holt and freshman Brandi Brown netted 10 apiece. MTSU hit 7-of-16 from 3-point range.

Tennessee Tech was led by Kendall Cavin with 15 points and Marissa Hensley with 11.
