Series History

Middle Tennessee and Louisiana-Monroe will meet for the sixth time Sunday afternoon with the Warhawks owning a 3-2 edge in the series that began in 1972; however, this year's first meeting will be the first between the teams since the 1989-90 season. The first contest of the season between the teams carries greater significance than any of the previous five meetings as Louisiana-Monroe is now a full-time member of the Sun Belt Conference. Sunday's contest is the SBC opener for each team. The Blue Raiders are 0-2 against Louisiana-Monroe in Murfreesboro, 2-0 in Monroe, La., and 0-1 on a neutral court.

Noteworthy

- Middle Tennessee is 3-1 in SBC openers under Head Coach Kermit Davis. The Blue Raiders are 3-3 overall in SBC openers.
- Of the nine players who have seen action this season, seven are either freshmen or sophomores.
- Kyle Young ranks second in the SBC in field goal percentage with a 63.5 mark (33-of-52). He is shooting 67 percent (29-43) from the field over the previous six games.
- Sophomore point guard Kevin Kanaskie has led the Blue Raiders in assists in all eight games and is averaging 5.5 for the season, which is second in the SBC. He had a career-high eight assists vs. Tennessee State.
- Middle Tennessee is 4-1 on the season when holding its opponents to 70 points or less. The only setback was a 64-56 setback against College of Charleston.
- Middle Tennessee is gunning for its fifth straight winning season in 2006-07, which would mark only the third time in program history a team has had five or more consecutive winning seasons. The last time the Blue Raiders had five straight winning seasons was 1984-89.

Closer look at Louisiana-Monroe

Louisiana-Monroe is in its first season as a full-time member of the Sun Belt Conference after previously competing in the Southland Conference. The school changed the mascot from Indians to Warhawks prior to the 2006-07 school year. The Warhawks are led by second-year coach Orlando Early. Prior to becoming head coach at Louisiana-Monroe, Early spent four seasons on the staff at Alabama, helping lead the Crimson Tide to three seasons of 20 or more wins. Lousiana-Monroe is 4-6 on the season and is led by Tony Hooper's 13.7 points per game. Four players are averaging double figures in all. The Warhawks average 64.7 points per game and are shooting 38 percent from the field. Early's squad has faced a tough non-conference slate with games against LSU, Alabama, Auburn, and Ole Miss, all on the road, included.

Blue Raiders playing 475th game in Murphy Center

Middle Tennessee will be playing its 475th game inside The Murphy Center in the SBC opener against Louisiana-Monroe Sunday and the Blue Raiders enjoyed tremendous success in the facility since it opened in 1972. The Blue Raiders are 353-121 for a 75 percent winning clip at Murphy Center. They are 43-15 (74 percent) at home under Head Coach Kermit Davis.

Youth movement in effect at Middle Tennessee

Of the nine players who have seen action for Middle Tennessee this season, seven are either freshmen or sophomores. Sophomores Calvin O'Neil and Kevin Kanaskie have started all eight games for the Blue Raiders, while the team is 4-1 in freshman Desmond Yates' five starts. Another sophomore, transfer Nigel Johnson, has started four games and is averaging 28 minutes per contest. Sophomore Theryn Hudson has been a strong reserve in the paint. Freshman guard Darren Avery has seen action in all eight games while Dino Hair, another freshmen, has seen action in five games.

Newcomers carrying their weight

Four first-year players are making significant contributions for Middle Tennessee and three are freshmen. The quartet of newcomers includes Desmond Yates, Darren Avery, and Dino Hair, all freshmen, as well as sophomore transfer Nigel Johnson. These four newcomers have been responsible for almost one-third of the Blue Raider offense and one-fourth of the team's rebounding through the first eight games. The group is averaging 18.3 points per game and scored 29 percent of the squad's 495 points. They are also averaging 7.4 rebounds and pulled 23 percent of the 260 caroms. Yates is third on the team in scoring at 9.5 ppg., while Johnson is averaging 7.6 ppg.

Five straight winning seasons would be rare feat

Middle Tennessee is looking to accomplish a rather feat as it seeks a fifth consecutive winning season under Head Coach Kermit Davis in 2006-07. The Blue Raiders' current streak of four consecutive winning seasons is tied for fourth longest in the program's 84 years of men's basketball. The longest stretch of consecutive winning seasons is six, which was turned in by Jimmy Earle's teams from 1973-79. The current Blue Raiders are attempting to match Bruce Stewart's teams from 1984-89 for the second longest streak of consecutive winning seasons with five. The only other stretch of at least four consecutive seasons with winning records was 1922-26, and the Blue Raiders only played four games during the 1924-25 season. The 2006-07 Blue Raiders are attempting to accomplish five straight winning seasons for the first time since 1984-89 – a span of 22 years. Davis, in his fifth season, is one of only two coaches in program history to begin his career with four straight winning seasons. The other was Bruce Stewart.

Blue Raiders enjoy SBC success under Davis

After struggling in their first two years as a member of the Sun Belt the Blue Raiders have found success in the league under fifth-year Head Coach Kermit Davis. In fact, Middle Tennessee has the third-best winning percentage (56 percent) and fourth-most wins among current SBC members since the 2002-03 season - Davis' first at Middle Tennessee. Prior to Davis' hiring the Blue Raiders had seven SBC wins in the two previous seasons combined.

Blue Raiders in SBC openers

The Blue Raiders are 3-3 in SBC openers since joining the league in 2000-01. They are 3-1 in SBC openers under Kermit Davis, including a 3-0 mark at Murphy Center.

Vogelsberg out 6-8 weeks

Middle Tennessee received bad news prior to the start of the season when it was determined Adam Vogelsberg had suffered a broken bone in his right foot during a practice (Nov. 4) and will miss six-to-eight weeks. Vogelsberg is a preseason All-Sun Belt Conference selection and the Blue Raiders' top returning scorer from last season when he averaged 12.4 points per game. The senior guard from Home, Kansas also was All-Sun Belt in 2005-06. He was recently released from wearing a protective boot he had sported since surgery; however, there remains no definite time frame as to when Vogelsberg will return. He still is unable to participate in team workouts.

Kermit Davis File

In his fifth season at Middle Tennessee, Kermit Davis has established himself as one of the most successful men's basketball coaches in program history, and he's done so while rebuilding a program that had fallen on hard times. Prior to Davis' hiring in April, 2002, Middle Tennessee had endured losing seasons in three of the four previous years - and was one season removed from a 5-22 campaign, the worst in school history. The Blue Raiders have registered four straight winning seasons under Davis, making him only one of two of the 19 Middle Tennessee men's basketball coaches to start his Blue Raider career with four straight winning campaigns. The other was Bruce Stewart. The Blue Raiders' game against Indiana State (11/30/06) was Davis' 125th at Middle Tennessee. Davis' record after 125 games at Middle Tennessee is 71-54, making him the second-winningest coach in program history after 125 games. Davis is fifth on the all-time Middle Tennessee wins list with 72.

Davis among leaders

Kermit Davis joined Bruce Stewart as the only head coaches in program history to begin their Blue Raider careers with four straight winning seasons in 2005-06. Davis moved into sixth on the all-time wins list at Middle Tennessee with 62 after the Blue Raiders beat Louisiana-Lafayette (01/28/06). He moved past Ed Diddle, Jr., (56) for seventh on the list with Middle Tennessee's 87-75 win at Belmont (12/10/05). Davis moved into fifth on the career wins list against Tennessee State (12/04/06) with 72 career victories. He is four wins shy of tying Charles Greer for fourth on the all-time Blue Raider list. Jimmy Earle is the program's all-time winningest coach with 164 wins. Davis also is third in winning percentage (.571) among Blue Raider men's basketball coaches with a minimum of 50 games coached, trailing only Jimmy Earle (.614), and Bruce Stewart (.648).

Davis produces second-best wins mark after 125 games

Kermit Davis earned a win in his 125th game leading the Blue Raider program to give him a 71-54 mark. That record is the second-most wins for a Blue Raider coach in his first 125 games. Bruce Stewart won 83 of the first 125 games he coached at Middle Tennessee to top the list, while Jimmy Earle's 69 wins after 125 games is third most.

Yates growing up quickly

Middle Tennessee freshman Desmond Yates is making nice transition into Division I basketball after sitting out the 2005-06 season. Yates is averaging 9.5 points per game and shooting 50 percent from the field; however, his progression early in the season is consistent with the Blue Raiders' current three-game win streak. Yates is averaging a team-best 17.3 points, 4.3 rebounds, shooting 54 percent (20-37) from the field, 40 percent (4-10) from 3-point range, and 73 percent (8-11) at the free-throw line. The Somerville, Tenn., native poured in 23 points against Belmont. Middle Tennessee is 4-1 this season with Yates in the starting lineup with the only setback taking place at Tennessee in the opener.

Defense, rebounding key during three-game win streak

Middle Tennessee fifth-year coach Kermit Davis has built the program on the strong principles of defense and rebounding and that formula has keyed the team's current three-game win streak. The Blue Raiders out-rebounding the opposition by eight during the win streak as opposed to plus-1.4 margin overall this season. Opponents also are finding quality shots difficult to come by against the Blue Raider defense, which is limiting opponents to 39 percent shooting from the field and 29.5 percent from 3-point range during the past three games. The combination of strong rebounding and rugged defense has enabled the Blue Raiders to limit opponents to an average of 57 points per game during the win streak, 6.9 points per game fewer than the season average. The Blue Raiders are 4-0 this season when they outrebound the opposition and they are 56-21 overall under Davis when winning the battle of the boards. Coincidentally, Middle Tennessee is 14-28 when being out-rebounded. Overall, the Blue Raiders are first in the Sun Belt in scoring defense (63.9 ppg), and third in field goal percentage defense (42.5 percent).

Outshooting foes has been key once again

Outshooting the opposition does not guarantee victory for Middle Tennessee but it is a trend that comes as close to perfection as any under fifth-year coach Kermit Davis. The Blue Raiders are 4-0 this season and 59-3 overall under Davis when the shooting percentage is higher. Middle Tennessee had won 29 straight when outshooting the opposition before suffering a 75-69 overtime setback to Toledo earlier this season despite shooting 58 percent from the field. Overall, Middle Tennessee has won 32 of the last 33 games played when it has a higher shooting percentage than the opposition.

Blue Raiders starting to find their mark

Middle Tennessee players have started to heat up from the field after a slow start to the season. The Blue Raiders are shooting 48 percent from the field, including 39 percent from 3-point range during their three-game winning streak, including back-to-back efforts of 50 percent or higher. The Blue Raiders shot 55 percent from the field in the opening half against Tennessee State and that 20-minute spurt game on the heels of a 68 percent outburst against Indiana State in the second half of preceeding game.

Coming out strong in the second half

Strong second-half play has sparked Middle Tennessee to victories in its last three games. The Blue Raiders trailed at the half against Belmont and Indiana State; however, they outscored the opposition by a combined nine points in each game and dominated on the defensive end to register consecutive wins. The Blue Raiders owned a one-point halftime lead against Tennessee State but outscored the Tigers by 10 in the final 20 minutes to pull away. The Blue Raiders are averaging 38.0 points in the second half in their last three games, while shooting 56 percent (39-70) from the field. They are also shooting 47 percent (9-19) from 3-point range in the second half of the previous three games. Not only has the offense been clicking on all cylinders during this stretch, but the defense has been solid. Opponents are shooting just 35 percent (26-75) from the field in the second half of the last three games, including 26 percent (10-39) from beyond the arc. Opponents are averaging 28.7 second-half points against the Blue Raiders in the final 20 minutes of the last three games.

Kanaskie emerging as team MVP in early going

Kevin Kanaskie has been solid running the point for Middle Tennessee through the eight seven games of the season; however, his all-around play has made the sophomore the team's most valuable player at the outset of the 2006-07 campaign. Kanaskie leads the Blue Raiders with 11.7 points per game and his nine steals are second most on the squad. Factor in his 5.5 assists per game and Kanaskie is responsible for 22.7 of Middle Tennessee's 65.3 points per game - which is 35 percent of the team's offense. His five double-figure scoring games this season are tied for most by a Blue Raider. He keyed Middle Tennessee's win against Indiana State by scoring 15 of his 17 points in the second half while establishing career highs for points (17), field goals made (6), and 3-point field goals made (3), and he tallied a career-high eight assists in the win against Tennessee State.

Kanaskie holding strong at point

Middle Tennessee sophomore point guard Kevin Kanaskie's play down the stretch last season was a key in the team's strong finish. The State College, Pa., native has picked up where he left off in terms of running the team. Kanaskie has led the team in assists in all eight games played and is averaging 5.5 helpers per game, which ranks second in the Sun Belt. He is also second in the SBC in assist/turnover ratio (1.83). Kanaskie dished out a career-high eight assists against Tennessee State.

Blue registers first double double of season

Senior forward Tim Blue became the first Blue Raider to record a double double this season with 14 points and a game-high 11 rebounds in Middle Tennessee's 65-58 win against Indiana State. It marked the first double double for a Blue Raider since Blue accomplished the feat with 20 points and 11 rebounds against South Dakota State (02/13/06). The 11 rebounds tie a career high.

Blue returning to form following surgery

Tim Blue showed signs of promise for the future with his strong play at the end of the 2005-06 season - his first as a Blue Raider; however, the senior forward suffered an off-season knee injury and required surgery. The lingering effects of the surgery slowed Blue at the outset of the 2006-07 season but the Palm Beach, Fla., native seems to be finding his rhythm and returning to form. In his last three games, Blue is averaging 13.7 points and a team-best 7.7 rebounds, while shooting 50 percent from the field. The greatest indicator of Blue getting closer to 100 percent is his minutes played. He is averaging 30 minutes in the last two contests - up almost eight minutes per game on his season average.

Playing from the inside out

Middle Tennessee has featured a balanced offensive attack under Head Coach Kermit Davis but with senior guard Adam Vogelsberg out with an injury and a young corps of perimeter players still becoming acclimated to Division I basketball the Blue Raiders have enjoyed their greatest success going inside at the start of the 2006-07 season. They are averaging 22.3 points per game inside the paint, which is 36 percent of the team's 495 points scored. The Blue Raiders have scored 22 points or more inside the paint in five of six games. They scored 42 of their 69 points in the paint against Toledo.. Coincidentally, the Blue Raiders are shooting less 3-pointers thus far in 2006 as they are averaging 12.5 attempts per game as a team. By comparison, the Blue Raiders averaged right at 20 treys per game in 2005-06. They have not hit more than five treys as a team in a game to this point. Vogelsberg's worth to the team is evidenced by the fact he hit five or more 3-pointers in a game seven times last season and had four or more in a game 13 times.

Shooting touch nothing new for Young

Kyle Young, who tied the Paradise Jam record for shooting percentage in three games (72.7 percent), is second in the Sun Belt in field goal percentage through eight games with a 63.5 percentage (33-of-52). The 6-foot-10 forward is shooting 67 percent (29-43) from the field over the previous six games. Young entered the 2006-07 season fifth on the career field goal percentage list at Middle Tennessee with a mark of 56.8 and has seen that rise to 57.6 percent (250-of-434), which is currently third on the career list at Middle Tennessee. Young shot 65.2 percent from the field in 2005-06, which was third on the single-season list at Middle Tennessee. The only player in school history ever to shoot higher than Young in a single season is Warren Kidd. The career mark for field goal percentage is held by Kidd, who shot 66.4 percent in his three seasons as a Blue Raider.

Young ties record in 'Paradise'

Middle Tennessee senior forward Kyle Young proved to be one of the most accurate shooters ever to play in the Paradise Jam Tournament during the team's stay at St. Thomas, Virgin Islands. Young was 16-of-22 from the field for a 72.7 field-goal percentage, which equaled the Paradise Jam Tournament record for best field-goal percentage by an individual in a minimum of three games. Young tied the mark set by Eastern Kentucky's Alonzo Hird (16-of-22) during the 2005 event. Young was 4-of-5 from the field against then No. 10 Alabama, 5-of-7 against Toledo, and 7-of-10 against College of Charleston.

Young closing in on Top 10 in starts, games played

Kyle Young has been a fixture in the Middle Tennessee lineup throughout his Blue Raider career and his consistency and durability have him on the verge of the program's career Top 10 list for games played and games started. Young has played in 95 career games, which is 12 shy of LeRoy Coleman (1976-80), who is 10th on the list with 107. Young has started 71 games and is five starts shy of tying former standout Ty Baynham (1985-88) for 10th on the career list in that category.

Young blocking opponents' path

With one block against Belmont, Kyle Young has three on the season and 47 for his career, which ties Buck Hailey for seventh on the career list. Mantia Callender is sixth with 49. Young is three blocked shots shy of becoming just the sixth player in the Blue Raiders' 84-year history to register 50 or more blocks in a career.

Starters carrying load for Blue Raiders

Players either out due to injury or nursing nagging injuries, coupled with a young bench, has made depth an issue for the Blue Raiders in the early going. As a result, the Blue Raider starters have carried the load. Middle Tennessee's starters have been responsible for 72 percent of the team's scoring, 77 percent of the rebounding, and 64 percent of the minutes played through the first eight games. Blue Raider starters are averaging 47.5 points per game while the bench has supplied 14.4. Starters are averaging 20.8 rebounds a game while the reserves have combined to average 11.8 caroms.

Yates provides offensive spark in comeback win

Blue Raider freshman Desmond Yates provided an offensive spark when he scored a career-high 23 points in Middle Tennessee's 64-57 comeback win against Belmont (11/27/06). The small forward proved to be an impact player when the team needed him most, scoring 18 of his 23 points in the final 27 minutes to help the Blue Raiders overcome a 27-11 deficit with 7:03 remaining. The 23 points were the most by a Blue Raiders since Adam Vogelsberg scored 25 against South Dakota State (02/13/06). Not only were the 23 points a career-high for Yates, but he also set personal bests for field goals made (9), field goals attempted (16), rebounds (6), and minutes (35).

Johnson ties Paradise Jam steals record

Middle Tennessee sophomore guard Nigel Johnson tied a Paradise Jam single-game record when he recorded five steals against Toledo (11/18/06). The five steals equals the mark shared by Jonathan Modica (Arkansas), Jason McLeish (Eastern Kentucky), and Michael Ross (Eastern Michigan). Johnson's five steals are the most in a game by a Blue Raider since Bryan Smithson swiped five against Austin Peay (12/23/03).

Holy Toledo!!! Blue Raiders light it up vs. Rockets

Middle Tennessee had one of the best shooting performances for a half in school history in its game against Toledo in the second game of the Paradise Jam Tournament. The Blue Raiders blistered the nets for a 72.7 percent shooting clip (16-22) in the first half. The mark is the third-best in school history for a half and it marked the best first-half shooting performance in school history. Middle Tennessee finished the game shooting 58.3 percent (28-48).

Blue Raiders show character in comeback win

Two games removed from a heart-breaking loss in which it squandered a double-digit lead, Middle Tennessee players showed tremendous will to win and demonstrated the young team is maturing during in earsing a double-figure deficit against Belmont. Middle Tennessee led Toledo by 19 with 12 minutes remaining in the Paradise Jam Tournament before falling in overtime. Two games later the young Blue Raiders did a role reversal when they found themselves trailing Belmont by 16, 27-11, with 7:03 remaining in the first half. Middle Tennessee closed the half with a 13-0 run to pull to within 27-24 at intermission and they outscored the Bruins 40-30 in the second half, while turning the ball over just once in 20 minutes, to secure the come-from-behind win.
