Series History

Middle Tennessee leads the brief series, 1-0, with the only previous game being an 89-82 overtime decision last year in Murfreesboro (02/13/06). Adam Vogelsberg, who is taking a redshirt season this year due to an offseason injury, led Middle Tennessee with 25 points in the win.

South Dakota State is playing its final season as a Division I Independent and will join the Mid-Continent Conference for the 2007-08 academic year. The Jackrabbits enter Monday's game against Middle Tennessee with a 5-15 overall record. They are coming off an 82-67 win against Texas Pan-American, which ended a five-game losing streak. Two of South Dakota State's five wins are against Sun Belt Conference opponents, having beat Arkansas State (84-78) at home and winning at Denver, 67-56. South Dakota State is led by Matt Cadwell (13.7 ppg) and Kai Williams (10.5) and it is averaging 62.5 points per game. South Dakota State is shooting 42 percent and averaging 33 rebounds per game.

Blue Raiders in midst of busy stretch

Middle Tennessee will be playing its third game in five days when it travels to Brookings, S.D., to face South Dakota State Monday. The Blue Raiders played at North Texas Thursday (01/25/07), at home against Louisiana-Lafayette Saturday (01/27/07), and continue the stretch against the Jackrabbits Monday. After returning home to face Denver Thursday and South Alabama Saturday the Blue Raiders will have played five games in a 10-day stretch.

Seeking winningest January since 1998

Middle Tennessee has won four of its last six and the Blue Raiders have been particularly hot since the start of the New Year. The Blue Raiders are 5-3 in the month of January this season and a win against South Dakota State would be Middle Tennessee's winningest January since 1998 when the Blue Raiders won nine. Middle Tennessee is 23-19 all-time in January under fifth-year Head Coach Kermit Davis.

Kanaskie joins elite company

Less than three weeks after producing one of the top assist games in school history with 12 at Florida Atlantic (01/10/07), sophomore point guard Kevin Kanaskie went one better with a career-best 13 in the win against Louisiana-Lafayette. Kanaskie, who entered the week ranked eighth nationally in assists, became just the fourth Blue Raider in school history to record two double-figure assist games in the same season and the first since Eric Parham in 2001-02. The other two were James Johnson (1985-86), and Duane Washington (1985-86, 1986-87). No Blue Raider has ever had three double figure assist games in the same season.

Middle Tennnessee players with multiple double figure assist games in same season

Name	Assist Total	Season
Kevin Kanaskie	12, 13	2006-07
Eric Parham	11, 11	2001-02
Duane Washington	15, 16	1986-87
Duane Washington	13, 16	1985-86
James Johnson	13, 20	1985-86

Kanaskie climbing career charts

Kevin Kanaskie's ability to get players involved and put them good scoring opportunities has him putting up record numbers on a team that doesn't produce gaudy offensive numbers. With a career-high 13 assists against Louisiana-Lafayette, Kanaskie has 134 for the season and 208 in his career. The 134 assists are currently 11th on the single-season list, six shy of 10th. His 208 career assists are one shy of 15th on the all-time list. Kanaskie's current 6.4 assists per game average is third on the single-season list. The 13 assists against the Ragin' Cajuns goes down tied for seventh all-time and the most by a Blue Raider since Greg Christian handed out 14 against Kennesaw State in 1990. Kanaskie assisted on 13 of Middle Tennessee's 25 field goals against Louisiana-Lafayette and he's assisted 28 percent of the team's field goals this season.

Blue Raiders enjoy SBC success under Davis

After struggling in their first two years as a member of the Sun Belt the Blue Raiders have found success in the league under fifth-year Head Coach Kermit Davis. In fact, Middle Tennessee has the third-best winning percentage (57 percent) and has the third-most wins among current SBC members since the start of the 2002-03 season - Davis' first leading the Blue Raiders. Western Kentucky (55) and Louisiana-Lafayette (52) are the only SBC members with more league wins than Middle Tennessee during this stretch. Middle Tennessee earned its 43rd SBC win under Davis against Louisiana-Lafayette (01/27/07). Prior to Davis' hiring, Middle Tennessee had seven SBC wins in the two previous seasons combined.

Blue Raiders among SBC's best winning away from home

One of the biggest reasons for Middle Tennessee's turn-around in the Sun Belt has been its ability to win on the road. Prior to Kermit Davis' hiring in 2002, Middle Tennessee was 2-17 on the road in SBC games but the Blue Raiders have 20 SBC road wins since - the most road wins of any SBC member during his four-plus seasons leading the program. The Blue Raiders are one of three league teams with winning road records since 2002-03 with South Alabama and Western Kentucky being the other two.

Kermit Davis File

In his fifth season at Middle Tennessee, Kermit Davis has established himself as one of the most successful men's basketball coaches in program history, and he's done so while rebuilding a program that had fallen on hard times. Prior to Davis' hiring in April, 2002, Middle Tennessee had endured losing seasons in three of the four previous years - and was one season removed from a 5-22 campaign, the worst in school history. The Blue Raiders have registered four straight winning seasons under Davis, making him only one of two of the 19 Middle Tennessee men's basketball coaches to start his Blue Raider career with four straight winning campaigns. The other was Bruce Stewart. The Blue Raiders' game against Indiana State (11/30/06) was Davis' 125th at Middle Tennessee. Davis' record after 125 games at Middle Tennessee was 71-54, making him the second-winningest coach in program history after 125 games. Davis is fourth on the all-time Middle Tennessee wins list with 78.

Davis among leaders

Kermit Davis joined Bruce Stewart as the only head coaches in program history to begin their Blue Raider careers with four straight winning seasons in 2005-06. Davis moved into fourth on the Blue Raider career wins list with his 77th victory at UALR (01/20/07). Davis moved into fifth on the career wins list against Tennessee State (12/04/06) with his 72nd career victory earlier this season. He is six wins shy of tying Randy Wiel for third on the all-time Blue Raider list. Jimmy Earle is the program's all-time winningest coach with 164 wins. Davis also is third in winning percentage (.561) among Blue Raider men's basketball coaches with a minimum of 50 games coached, trailing only Jimmy Earle (.614), and Bruce Stewart (.648).

Davis produces second-best wins mark after 125 games

Kermit Davis earned a win in his 125th game leading the Blue Raider program to give him a 71-54 mark. That record is the second-most wins for a Blue Raider coach in his first 125 games. Bruce Stewart won 83 of the first 125 games he coached at Middle Tennessee to top the list, while Jimmy Earle's 69 wins after 125 games is third most.

Davis notches 215th win

Kermit Davis secured his 215th win as a head coach against Louisiana-Lafayette (01/27/07). He owns 149 wins in nine years at the Division I level and 66 in three years in junior college.

Strength of schedule among toughest in nation

Middle Tennessee enters play this week with the nation's seventh-toughest strength of schedule, according to The RPI Report. The No. 7 ranking is best among SBC members, followed by Louisiana-Lafayette (26), and Western Kentucky (48). Middle Tennessee is second among SBC members in RPI with a 136, behind Western Kentucky's 76. The Blue Raiders have faced three Top 25 teams this season in Tennessee, Memphis, and Alabama. Middle Tennessee is one of four league members ranked in the top half of the country's Division I men's basketball teams in regard to RPI. The other three are Western Kentucky (76), South Alabama (145), and North Texas (162).

Winning with consistency

Middle Tennessee is one of only two current Sun Belt Conference members to enjoy winning seasons in each of the last four seasons. The only other school to do so is Western Kentucky. They are also the only current conference members to go .500 or better in SBC play in each of the last four years.

No cupcakes on this schedule

Middle Tennessee's No. 7 strength of schedule ranking is accentuated by the fact that eight of its nine Division I non-conference opponents have winning records and the only one that doesn't - Tennessee State - is 10-10 overall. Furthermore, three of the nine non-conference opponents currently lead their respective conference or division within the conference. The teams leading their conferences are Memphis (USA), Toledo (MAC-West), and Austin Peay (Ohio Valley). The combined overall record of Middle Tennessee's nine Division I non-conference opponents is 115-60 for a winning percentage of 65.7.

Outshooting foes has been key once again

Outshooting the opposition does not guarantee victory for Middle Tennessee but it is a trend that comes as close to perfection as any under fifth-year coach Kermit Davis. The Blue Raiders are 9-2 this season and 64-4 overall under Davis when the shooting percentage is higher. Middle Tennessee had won 29 straight when outshooting the opposition before suffering a 75-69 overtime setback to Toledo earlier this season despite shooting 58 percent from the field. Overall, Middle Tennessee has won 38 of the last 40 games played when it has a higher shooting percentage than the opposition.

Blue Raiders get defensive

Middle Tennessee has held eight of its 21 opponents to 59 points or less this season and the team is 7-1 in those games, and the Blue Raiders lead the SBC in scoring defense at 64.0 points per game. The Blue Raiders are also second in the SBC in field goal percentage defense (.426). Middle Tennessee put together one of its finest defensive displays of the season on its first SBC road trip of the season at Florida International and South Alabama. The Blue Raiders held FIU to 46 points which were the second fewest under Head Coach Kermit Davis against a SBC member and the fewest since a 60-42 win against the Golden Panthers, March 1, 2004 - a span of 75 games. FIU managed just 13 field goals and its 24.5 shooting percentage (13-53) was the lowest against the Blue Raiders in a SBC contest. Middle Tennessee followed that performance by limiting defending SBC champion South Alabama to 51 points - its second lowest scoring output of the season. South Alabama's talented guard tandem was a combined 5-of-21 for 10 points against the Blue Raider defense and no member of the trio tallied double figures. The Blue Raiders allowed an average of 48.5 points to the two opponents.

Blue Raiders getting it done on the road

Middle Tennessee set the school record for consecutive conference road wins with its sixth straight in a 61-60 win at UALR (01/20/07). Interestingly, the win streak began at UALR last February. The Blue Raiders, who have won nine of their last 10 SBC road games dating to last season, broke the previous school record of five consecutive road wins by the 1974-75 squad. The Blue Raiders saw their impressive SBC road streak end in a 66-53 loss at North Texas (01/25/07). The five conference road wins are tops among NCAA Division I men's basketball teams.

Did you know?

Middle Tennessee has hit at least one 3-pointer in 326 consecutive games. The last time the Blue Raiders failed to hit a shot from beyond the arc was Jan. 20, 1996 at Morehead State.

Frosh leading Blue Raiders

Middle Tennessee freshman guard/forward Desmond Yates has proven to be an impact player during his rookie year in the Sun Belt Conference. Yates, who is averaging 11.4 ppg., leads all SBC freshmen in scoring both in all games and SBC games only. He is averaging 13.3 points in league games. Yates has turned in 13 double figure scoring games this season and he has led the Blue Raiders in scoring a team-high seven times. He ranks fourth in the SBC in field goal percentage (94-180, 52.2). Yates has scored double figures in 13 of the team's last 16 games and he is averaging 15.0 points and 4.6 rebounds over the last five games. Yates has scored 21 or more in a game three times this season, including his career high of 23 twice (vs. Belmont and Arkansas State).

Yates turning up performances

Freshman standout Desmond Yates has been solid for the Blue Raiders all season but he's taken his game to an even higher level in recent weeks. The Somerville, Tenn., native is averaging 15 points, 4.6 rebounds, is shooting 53 percent (25-47) from the field, 60 percent from 3-point (6-10), and 91 percent (19-21) from the free-throw line during the last five games. Consistency is evident based on the numbers over a 10-game stretch. Yates is averaging 13 points, 4.1 rebounds, shooting 53 percent (49-92) from the field, 47 percent (8-17) from 3-point, and 80 percent (24-30) from the free-throw line during this stretch. For the season, Yates is averaging 11.4 points, 3.3 rebounds, shooting 52 percent from the field, 42 percent from 3-point range, and 74 percent from the charity stripe. Yates has scored double figures in four of the last five games, as well as eight of the last 10.

Youth being served at Middle Tennessee

Middle Tennessee's future is extremely bright considering seven of the nine players who have seen action are either freshmen or sophomores; however, the present is in good shape, as well, as the youthful Blue Raiders are 6-5 in SBC play (third in the SBC's East Division) and contending for a fifth-straight winning season. The Blue Raiders are the youngest team in the SBC with Louisiana-Lafayette next with five freshmen and one sophomore. The Ragin' Cajuns start two freshmen, two juniors, and one senior, while the Blue Raiders generally start one freshmen, three sophomores and bring two freshmen off the bench. Middle Tennessee's two leading scorers are a sophomore (Kevin Kanaskie, 12.4 ppg), and a freshman (Desmond Yates, 11.4). Additionally, sophomores Calvin O'Neil, Nigel Johnson and Theryn Hudson have seen action in every game, while freshman Darren Avery has played in 20 of 21, earning two starts. Another freshman, Dino Hair, has played in 16 of 21 games and he, too, has earned on start. The seven underclassmen are responsible for 71 percent of the scoring, 66 percent of the rebounding, and 73 percent of the team's minutes so far this season.

Kanaskie also scoring option for Blue Raiders

Sophomore point guard Kevin Kanaskie has been dishing out assists in large quantities this season; however, the State College, Pa., native also is demonstrating a good shooting touch and leads the Blue Raiders in scoring with 12.4 ppg., entering play this week. Kanaskie turned in his second double double of the season against Louisiana-Lafayette with a game-high 18 points and a career-high 13 assists against just two turnovers. The 13 assists are seventh on the single-game list and the fifth most overall in a single game. Kanaskie recorded his first career double double 17 days earlier when he scored 19 points and added 12 assists against Florida Atlantic (01/10/07). Kanaskie has scored double figures in 13 of 21 games this season and he has led the Blue Raiders in scoring nine times this season. Kanaskie has had eight assists or more in a game eight times this season and he has led the Blue Raiders in that category in 19 of the 21 games played. His current 6.4 per game average would rank third on the single-season list at Middle Tennessee if the season ended today.

Kanaskie worth 40 percent of team's scoring

Kevin Kanaskie may not be confused as a one-man wrecking crew; however, the sophomore's numbers indicate he is as valuable to Middle Tennessee as any single player is to his team in the Sun Belt. Kanaskie leads the team in scoring at 12.4 points per game and when you factor in his 6.4 assists per game (considering each assists is worth at least two points) he is generating 40 percent of the Blue Raiders' offense. All told Kanaskie has scored 254 points and his assists have led to a minimum of 268 points for a total of 522 of Middle Tennessee's 1,293 points this season or roughly 25 points per game. The Blue Raiders average 61.6 points per outing.

Blue Raiders taking advantage of charity

Middle Tennessee ranks sixth overall in the SBC in free-throw percentage with a 67.6 percent showing from the line; however, the Blue Raiders have been lights out from the charity stripe since league play began. Middle Tennessee is shooting 72.3 percent (136-188) from the line against SBC opponents which is tied with Western Kentucky for first among league members in SBC games only. Freshman standout Desmond Yates was 15-of-16 from the line against New Orleans. The 15 free throws made are the third-most in a single game by a Blue Raider. Sophomore Nigel Johnson leads the Sun Belt in free-throw percentage at 85.7 percent (42-49) and Kevin Kanaskie is ninth at 76.1 (70-92). In SBC games only, Johnson is first (87.1), Kanaskie is fourth (80.4), and Yates is ninth (78.8). The Blue Raiders shot 75.4 percent (43-57) from the line in its two-game road sweep at Florida Atlantic and New Orleans. Johnson's current percentage would rank fourth on the Middle Tennessee single-season list; however, he needs 17 more successful attempts from the line in order to qualify.

Blue Raiders sign four during early period

Kermit Davis announced the signing of four players during the NCAA Early Signing Period in November. The four signees include Antwaun Boyd, 6-2 guard at Anderson High School in Anderson, Ind.; Broderick Gilchrist, 6-0 guard at Hamilton High in Memphis, Tenn.; Keith Dodd, 6-9 foward at Bradley Central in Cleveland, Tenn.; and Uriah Hethington, a 6-8 foward at Okaloosa-Walton Junior College. The Blue Raiders also have guard Demetrius Green sitting out the 2006-07 season.

Offense comes to life vs. Ragin' Cajuns

Middle Tennessee enjoyed its best home offensive performance of the season in the 71-59 win against Louisiana-Lafayette (01/27/07). The 71 points were the third-highest scoring output of the season and the most scored at Murphy Center by the Blue Raiders this season. Middle Tennessee's 51 percent shooting clip (25-of-49) was the highest at home for the Blue Raiders this season and tied for the third-best shooting performance this season (also tops at home). The Blue Raiders, who are shooting 44 percent on the season, connected on 61 percent of their attempts in the second half (14-of-23). The season high for points is 76 at New Orleans.

Getting everyone involved

Middle Tennessee has shared the ball well all season; however, with point guard Kevin Kanaskie dishing a career-high 13 assists against Louisiana-Lafayette the Blue Raiders finished with a season-high 18 helpers on 25 field goals for a percentage of .720. Middle Tennessee's 11 first-half field goals were accompanied by 10 assists.

Shooting touch nothing new for Young

Kyle Young, who tied the Paradise Jam record for shooting percentage in three games (72.7 percent), is second in the Sun Belt in field goal percentage through 21 games with a 58.1 percentage (72-of-124). Young entered the 2006-07 season fifth on the career field goal percentage list at Middle Tennessee with a mark of 56.8 and has seen that rise to 57.1 percent (289-of-506), which is currently fourth on the career list at Middle Tennessee. Young shot 65.2 percent from the field in 2005-06, which was third on the single-season list at Middle Tennessee.

Young ties record in 'Paradise'

Middle Tennessee senior forward Kyle Young proved to be one of the most accurate shooters ever to play in the Paradise Jam Tournament during the team's stay at St. Thomas, Virgin Islands. Young was 16-of-22 from the field for a 72.7 field-goal percentage, which equaled the Paradise Jam Tournament record for best field-goal percentage by an individual in a minimum of three games. Young tied the mark set by Eastern Kentucky's Alonzo Hird (16-of-22) during the 2005 event. Young was 4-of-5 from the field against then No. 10 Alabama, 5-of-7 against Toledo, and 7-of-10 against College of Charleston.

Young has been constant for Blue Raiders

Kyle Young has been a fixture in the Middle Tennessee lineup throughout his Blue Raider career and his consistency and durability have placed him on the program's career Top 10 list for games played and games started. Young has played in 108 career games, which is 10th on the list. Young's 80 career starts are 10th on the career list and two shy of tying Robert Taylor for ninth on the all-time list with 82.

Young blocking opponents' path

With two blocks against Louisiana-Lafayette, Kyle Young has nine on the season and 54 for his career to tie former teammate Tommy Gunn for fourth on the career list. Young is just the sixth player in the Blue Raiders' 84-year history to register 50 or more blocks in a career.

Five straight winning seasons would be rare

Middle Tennessee is looking to accomplish a rather feat as it seeks a fifth consecutive winning season under Head Coach Kermit Davis in 2006-07. The Blue Raiders' current streak of four consecutive winning seasons is tied for fourth longest in the program's 84 years of men's basketball. The longest stretch of consecutive winning seasons is six, which was turned in by Jimmy Earle's teams from 1973-79. The current Blue Raiders are attempting to match Bruce Stewart's teams from 1984-89 for the second longest streak of consecutive winning seasons with five. The only other stretch of at least four consecutive seasons with winning records was 1922-26, and the Blue Raiders only played four games during the 1924-25 season. The 2006-07 Blue Raiders are attempting to accomplish five straight winning seasons for the first time since 1984-89 – a span of 22 years. Davis, in his fifth season, is one of only two coaches in program history to begin his career with four straight winning seasons. The other was Bruce Stewart.

Johnson ties Paradise Jam steals record

Middle Tennessee sophomore guard Nigel Johnson tied a Paradise Jam single-game record when he recorded five steals against Toledo (11/18/06). The five steals equals the mark shared by Jonathan Modica (Arkansas), Jason McLeish (Eastern Kentucky), and Michael Ross (Eastern Michigan). The five steals are the most in a game by a Blue Raider since Bryan Smithson swiped five against Austin Peay (12/23/03).

Blue Raiders enjoy best game beyond arc

Middle Tennessee entered its game against Troy ranked 11th in the SBC in 3-point shooting percentage (.311) and last in made attempts; however, the Blue Raiders were knocking down the long ball against Troy when they connected on a season-high 10 3-pointers to better its previous high of eight set against Louisiana-Monroe on Dec. 17. The 10 3-pointers were also the most by a Blue Raider team since hitting 10 against Louisiana-Lafayette Jan. 28, 2006 - a span of 25 games.

Coach speaks, players respond

Kermit Davis said he had been disappointed and "alarmed" at Middle Tennessee's rebounding following the Western Kentucky game and said the "problem" would be addressed. Seems the vetern coach was able to get his point across quickly as the Blue Raiders racked up a resounding 83 rebounds on their ensuing SBC road trip to Florida International and South Alabama. Middle Tennessee grabbed a season-high 40 rebounds at Florida International to win the battle of the boards and followed that performance with a 43-rebound effort at South Alabama. More impressive than the 43 rebounds is the manner in which the Blue Raiders dominated the boards - 43-22. Middle Tennessee allowed just six offensive rebounds in the South Alabama game, leading to a mere two second-chance points. Middle Tennessee is 6-2 this season when it outrebounds the opposition and it is 58-23 under Davis when controlling the boards.

Vogelsberg will redshirt in 2006-07

Senior guard Adam Vogelsberg will take a redshirt season in 2006-07 and return to the squad for the 2007-08 season, Head Coach Kermit Davis has announced. Vogelsberg has been out of action since suffering a broken bone in his right foot in preseason practice the week of the opener. He made his first appearance of the season against Western Kentucky Thursday (12/28/06) and played three minutes late in the second half before returning to the bench. After spending an additional three weeks in a cast, Vogelsberg has returned to practice. Vogelsberg was an All-SBC performer last season and was a preseason all-league pick this year. He was Middle Tennessee's leading scorer in 2005-06 and ended the season in the Top 10 of four Middle Tennessee single-season lists.
