Closer look at Western Kentucky

Western Kentucky is 9-4 overall and 1-1 in the Sun Belt's East Division. The Hilltoppers are coming off a 73-51 win against defending league champion South Alabama and they also have enjoyed non-conference wins at Georgia and against UAB. Western Kentucky is led by Preseason Player of the Year Courtney Lee, who is averaging 18.7 points per game, to go with 5.2 rebounds and 20 steals. Guard Tyrone Brazelton also averages double figures for the Hilltoppers with 11.1 per game. He also leads the team in assists with 46. Western Kentucky is coached by Darrin Horn, who is 69-34 in his fourth season with the Hilltoppers. Horn is 4-3 against Middle Tennessee.

Hilltoppers among oldest rivals

Middle Tennessee and Western Kentucky have a longstanding rivalry that began in 1914, making the Hilltoppers one of the Blue Raiders' oldest rivals. The 114 games played between the schools are fourth among Middle Tennessee rivals. The Blue Raiders have played 140 games against Tennessee Tech, 135 against Murray State, and 133 against Austin Peay.

Davis has rekindled rivalry with Western Kentucky

Prior to Kermit Davis' hiring for the 2002-03 season Middle Tennessee had not defeated Western Kentucky on the hardwood since Dec. 8, 1982, a stretch of eight contests, but Davis led the Blue Raiders to a 69-65 win against Western Kentucky in his first meeting against the rival. The fifth-year coach has breathed life back into the rivalry as he has guided the Blue Raiders to a 4-6 mark against the Hilltoppers since his arrival. In fact, Davis and former coach Jimmy Earle are the only Middle Tennessee coaches to lead the Blue Raiders to four wins against Western Kentucky in their first four seasons. Three of the last four meetings in Murfreesboro have been decided by six points or less. Of the six losses to Western Kentucky under Davis, three have been decided by five points or less.

Rivalry has become hit at ticket office

The Middle Tennessee - Western Kentucky men's basketball rivalry has been the Sun Belt's biggest draw over the last four years. The two teams played before a Murphy Center single-game record crowd of 11,807, Feb. 26, 2004. The average attendance between the teams for the last eight regular-season meetings is 6,734. Middle Tennessee is averaging 7,202 for its last four home dates against Western Kentucky and the Blue Raiders have drawn in excess of 6,100 for each of the last three home contests. The Hilltoppers averaged 6,265 for their last four regular-season home games against the Blue Raiders.

Kanaskie emerging as team MVP in early going

Kevin Kanaskie has been solid running the point for Middle Tennessee through the first 11 games of the season; however, his all-around play has made the sophomore the team's most valuable player and a serious all-league consieration at the outset of the 2006-07 campaign. Kanaskie leads the Blue Raiders with 11.7 points per game and his 15 steals are tied for the team lead. Factor in his 5.8 assists per game and Kanaskie is responsible for 256 of Middle Tennessee's 60.8 points per game - which is 38.3 percent of the team's offense. His seven double-figure scoring games this season are the most by a Blue Raider and he has scored 17 or more in three of the last five games. He keyed Middle Tennessee's win against Indiana State by scoring 15 of his 17 points in the second half while establishing career highs for points (17), field goals made (6), and 3-point field goals made (3), and he tallied a career-high eight assists in the win against Tennessee State. Kanaskie established a new career high for points with 20 against Louisiana-Monroe, and followed that with 17 against Austin Peay and established a new career high for 3-point field goals made with four.

Kanaskie holding strong at point

Middle Tennessee sophomore point guard Kevin Kanaskie's play down the stretch last season was a key in the team's strong finish. The State College, Pa., native has picked up where he left off in terms of running the team. Kanaskie has led the team in assists in all 11 games played and is averaging 5.8 helpers per game, which ranks second in the Sun Belt. He is second in the SBC in assist/turnover ratio (1.88). Kanaskie dished out a career-high eight assists against Tennessee State and against Memphis. He has tallied five or more assists in 10 of the team's first 11 games.

Kermit Davis File

In his fifth season at Middle Tennessee, Kermit Davis has established himself as one of the most successful men's basketball coaches in program history, and he's done so while rebuilding a program that had fallen on hard times. Prior to Davis' hiring in April, 2002, Middle Tennessee had endured losing seasons in three of the four previous years - and was one season removed from a 5-22 campaign, the worst in school history. The Blue Raiders have registered four straight winning seasons under Davis, making him only one of two of the 19 Middle Tennessee men's basketball coaches to start his Blue Raider career with four straight winning campaigns. The other was Bruce Stewart. The Blue Raiders' game against Indiana State (11/30/06) was Davis' 125th at Middle Tennessee. Davis' record after 125 games at Middle Tennessee is 71-54, making him the second-winningest coach in program history after 125 games. Davis is fifth on the all-time Middle Tennessee wins list with 72.

Davis among leaders

Kermit Davis joined Bruce Stewart as the only head coaches in program history to begin their Blue Raider careers with four straight winning seasons in 2005-06. Davis moved into sixth on the all-time wins list at Middle Tennessee with 62 after the Blue Raiders beat Louisiana-Lafayette (01/28/06). He moved past Ed Diddle, Jr., (56) for seventh on the list with Middle Tennessee's 87-75 win at Belmont (12/10/05). Davis moved into fifth on the career wins list against Tennessee State (12/04/06) with 72 career victories. He is four wins shy of tying Charles Greer for fourth on the all-time Blue Raider list. Jimmy Earle is the program's all-time winningest coach with 164 wins. Davis also is third in winning percentage (.558) among Blue Raider men's basketball coaches with a minimum of 50 games coached, trailing only Jimmy Earle (.614), and Bruce Stewart (.648).

Davis produces second-best wins mark after 125 games

Kermit Davis earned a win in his 125th game leading the Blue Raider program to give him a 71-54 mark. That record is the second-most wins for a Blue Raider coach in his first 125 games. Bruce Stewart won 83 of the first 125 games he coached at Middle Tennessee to top the list, while Jimmy Earle's 69 wins after 125 games is third most.

Vogelsberg may take redshirt season in 2006-07

Middle Tennessee received bad news prior to the start of the season when it was determined Adam Vogelsberg had suffered a broken bone in his right foot during a practice (Nov. 4) and would miss six-to-eight weeks. Vogelsberg is a preseason All-Sun Belt Conference selection and the Blue Raiders' top returning scorer from last season when he averaged 12.4 points per game. The senior guard from Home, Kansas also was All-Sun Belt in 2005-06. He was recently released from wearing a protective boot he had sported since surgery; however, the healing process has been slow and Vogelsberg may take his redshirt season in 2006-07 and have one year of eligibility remaining. His status for Thursday's game against Western Kentucky is a game-time decision.

Five straight winning seasons would be rare

Middle Tennessee is looking to accomplish a rather feat as it seeks a fifth consecutive winning season under Head Coach Kermit Davis in 2006-07. The Blue Raiders' current streak of four consecutive winning seasons is tied for fourth longest in the program's 84 years of men's basketball. The longest stretch of consecutive winning seasons is six, which was turned in by Jimmy Earle's teams from 1973-79. The current Blue Raiders are attempting to match Bruce Stewart's teams from 1984-89 for the second longest streak of consecutive winning seasons with five. The only other stretch of at least four consecutive seasons with winning records was 1922-26, and the Blue Raiders only played four games during the 1924-25 season. The 2006-07 Blue Raiders are attempting to accomplish five straight winning seasons for the first time since 1984-89 – a span of 22 years. Davis, in his fifth season, is one of only two coaches in program history to begin his career with four straight winning seasons. The other was Bruce Stewart.

Letting wins slip away

An inability to protect the lead in the second half of three games have cost the Blue Raiders an opportunity to be 7-3 to start the season with a 1-0 mark in Sun Belt play. In three of its six losses this season, Middle Tennessee has owned the lead late in the second half. Middle Tennessee squandered a 10-point lead with five minutes remaining against Toledo and lost in overtime when a free throw would have sealed the win at the end of regulation. The Blue Raiders were also beaten on a last-second shot by Louisiana-Monroe, and they owned a 12-point lead with seven minutes remaining against Austin Peay before losing in overtime after missing an open layup that would have won the game at the end of regulation. Turnovers have been the turning point in each setback. The team averaged 9.3 turnovers in the second half in the three losses.

Blue Raiders get defensive

Middle Tennessee has held six of its 11 opponents to 65 points or fewer this season and the Blue Raiders are 4-2 in those contests. The only setbacks came at Austin Peay (64-63 in OT), against College of Charleston (64-56).

Yates growing up quickly

Middle Tennessee freshman Desmond Yates is making a nice transition into Division I basketball after sitting out the 2005-06 season. Yates is averaging 10.0 points per game and shooting 51 percent from the field. Overal the last five games, Yates is averaging a team-best 12.6 points, three rebounds, shooting 53 percent (25-47) from the field, 42 percent (5-12) from 3-point range, and 80 percent (8-10) at the free-throw line. The Somerville, Tenn., native poured in a personal-best 23 points against Belmont.

Outshooting foes has been key once again

Outshooting the opposition does not guarantee victory for Middle Tennessee but it is a trend that comes as close to perfection as any under fifth-year coach Kermit Davis. The Blue Raiders are 4-1 this season and 59-4 overall under Davis when the shooting percentage is higher. Middle Tennessee had won 29 straight when outshooting the opposition before suffering a 75-69 overtime setback to Toledo earlier this season despite shooting 58 percent from the field. Overall, Middle Tennessee has won 32 of the last 34 games played when it has a higher shooting percentage than the opposition.

Blue Raiders starting to find their mark

Middle Tennessee players have started to heat up from the field after a slow start to the season. The Blue Raiders are shooting 47 percent from the field, including 39 percent from 3-point range during their last five games, including efforts of 50 percent or higher in three of the previous four games. The Blue Raiders shot 55 percent from the field in the opening half against Tennessee State That followed a 68-percent outburst against Indiana State in the second half of the preceeding game.

Coming out strong in the second half

Strong second-half play has sparked Middle Tennessee to victories in three o f its last six games. The Blue Raiders trailed at the half against Belmont and Indiana State; however, they outscored the opposition by a combined nine points in each game and dominated on the defensive end to register consecutive wins. The Blue Raiders owned a one-point halftime lead against Tennessee State but outscored the Tigers by 10 in the final 20 minutes to pull away. The Blue Raiders are averaging 38.5 points in the second half in their last four games, while shooting 54 percent (52-96) from the field. They are also shooting 43 percent (12-28) from 3-point range in the second half of the previous five games.

Blue registers first double double of season

Senior forward Tim Blue became the first Blue Raider to record a double double this season with 14 points and a game-high 11 rebounds in Middle Tennessee's 65-58 win against Indiana State. It marked the first double double for a Blue Raider since Blue accomplished the feat with 20 points and 11 rebounds against South Dakota State (02/13/06). The 11 rebounds tie a career high.

Blue returning to form following surgery

Tim Blue showed signs of promise for the future with his strong play at the end of the 2005-06 season - his first as a Blue Raider; however, the senior forward suffered an off-season knee injury and required surgery. The lingering effects of the surgery slowed Blue at the outset of the 2006-07 season but the Palm Beach, Fla., native seems to be finding his rhythm and returning to form. In his last five games, Blue is averaging 11.6 points and 6.6 rebounds, while shooting 44 percent from the field. The greatest indicator of Blue getting closer to 100 percent is his minutes played. He is averaging 30 minutes in the last five contests.

Playing from the inside out

Middle Tennessee has featured a balanced offensive attack under Head Coach Kermit Davis but with senior guard Adam Vogelsberg out with an injury and a young corps of perimeter players still becoming acclimated to Division I basketball the Blue Raiders have enjoyed their greatest success going inside at the start of the 2006-07 season. They are averaging 20.5 points per game inside the paint, which is 34 percent of the team's 669 points scored. The Blue Raiders have scored 22 points or more inside the paint in six games, including 42 against Toledo.. Coincidentally, the Blue Raiders are shooting less 3-pointers thus far in 2006 as they are averaging 13 attempts per game as a team. By comparison, the Blue Raiders averaged right at 20 treys per game in 2005-06. They have hit more than five treys as a team just once in a game to this point. Vogelsberg's worth to the team is evidenced by the fact he hit five or more 3-pointers in a game seven times last season and had four or more in a game 13 times.

Shooting touch nothing new for Young

Kyle Young, who tied the Paradise Jam record for shooting percentage in three games (72.7 percent), is second in the Sun Belt in field goal percentage through 11 games with a 60.3 percentage (38-of-63). Young entered the 2006-07 season fifth on the career field goal percentage list at Middle Tennessee with a mark of 56.8 and has seen that rise to 57.4 percent (255-of-444), which is currently third on the career list at Middle Tennessee. Young shot 65.2 percent from the field in 2005-06, which was third on the single-season list at Middle Tennessee. The only player in school history ever to shoot higher than Young in a single season is Warren Kidd. The career mark for field goal percentage is held by Kidd, who shot 66.4 percent.

Young ties record in 'Paradise'

Middle Tennessee senior forward Kyle Young proved to be one of the most accurate shooters ever to play in the Paradise Jam Tournament during the team's stay at St. Thomas, Virgin Islands. Young was 16-of-22 from the field for a 72.7 field-goal percentage, which equaled the Paradise Jam Tournament record for best field-goal percentage by an individual in a minimum of three games. Young tied the mark set by Eastern Kentucky's Alonzo Hird (16-of-22) during the 2005 event. Young was 4-of-5 from the field against then No. 10 Alabama, 5-of-7 against Toledo, and 7-of-10 against College of Charleston.

Young closing in on Top 10 in starts, games played

Kyle Young has been a fixture in the Middle Tennessee lineup throughout his Blue Raider career and his consistency and durability have him on the verge of the program's career Top 10 list for games played and games started. Young has played in 98 career games, which is nine shy of LeRoy Coleman (1976-80), who is 10th on the list with 107. Young has started 74 games and is two starts shy of tying former standout Ty Baynham (1985-88) for 10th on the career list in that category.

Young blocking opponents' path

With one block against Belmont, Kyle Young has three on the season and 47 for his career, which ties Buck Hailey for seventh on the career list. Mantia Callender is sixth with 49. Young is three blocked shots shy of becoming just the sixth player in the Blue Raiders' 84-year history to register 50 or more blocks in a career.

Starters carrying load for Blue Raiders

Players either out due to injury or nursing nagging injuries, coupled with a young bench, has made depth an issue for the Blue Raiders in the early going. As a result, the Blue Raider starters have carried the load. Middle Tennessee's starters have been responsible for 76 percent of the team's scoring, 63 percent of the rebounding, and 72 percent of the minutes played through the first 11 games. Blue Raider starters are averaging 46.5 points per game while the bench has supplied 14.4. Starters are averaging 20.4 rebounds a game while the reserves have combined to average 12.2 caroms.

Yates provides offensive spark in comeback win

Blue Raider freshman Desmond Yates provided an offensive spark when he scored a career-high 23 points in Middle Tennessee's 64-57 comeback win against Belmont (11/27/06). The small forward proved to be an impact player when the team needed him most, scoring 18 of his 23 points in the final 27 minutes to help the Blue Raiders overcome a 27-11 deficit with 7:03 remaining. The 23 points were the most by a Blue Raiders since Adam Vogelsberg scored 25 against South Dakota State (02/13/06). Not only were the 23 points a career-high for Yates, but he also set personal bests for field goals made (9), field goals attempted (16), rebounds (6), and minutes (35).

Johnson ties Paradise Jam steals record

Middle Tennessee sophomore guard Nigel Johnson tied a Paradise Jam single-game record when he recorded five steals against Toledo (11/18/06). The five steals equals the mark shared by Jonathan Modica (Arkansas), Jason McLeish (Eastern Kentucky), and Michael Ross (Eastern Michigan). Johnson's five steals are the most in a game by a Blue Raider since Bryan Smithson swiped five against Austin Peay (12/23/03).

Holy Toledo!!! Blue Raiders light it up vs. Rockets

Middle Tennessee had one of the best shooting performances for a half in school history in its game against Toledo in the second game of the Paradise Jam Tournament. The Blue Raiders blistered the nets for a 72.7 percent shooting clip (16-22) in the first half. The mark is the third-best in school history for a half and it marked the best first-half shooting performance in school history. Middle Tennessee finished the game shooting 58.3 percent (28-48).

Did you know?

Middle Tennessee has hit at least one 3-pointer in 316 consecutive games. The last time the Blue Raiders failed to hit a shot from beyond the arc was Jan. 20, 1996 at Morehead State.

80 Key Number

Middle Tennessee has been almost unbeatable when scoring 80 or more points under Head Coach Kermit Davis. Overall, the Blue Raiders are 17-1 when scoring 80 or more under Davis. The lone setback was an 85-83 overtime loss at Western Kentucky, Feb. 24, 2005.
