HOLMES, THOMATIS LEAD LADY RAIDERS TO 68-60 WIN

A 15-4 run to start the second half gave Middle Tennessee the lead, and the Lady Raiders withstood a pair of runs from the home team in defeating Xavier, 68-60, Sunday afternoon at the Cintas Center.

Patrice Holmes hit a three-pointer in the corner with 11:11 remaining in the contest to give the Lady Raiders a 44-38 advantage, ending the 15-4 run to start the second half. Holmes tied a careerhigh with 23 points, added five assists and grabbed six rebounds in the contest, breaking a two-game losing slide for the Lady Raiders and pushing Middle Tennessee's road mark this season to 4-1.

Jamie Thomatis added 20 points and a gamehigh eight rebounds for the Lady Raiders, including hitting both ends of a pair of one-plus-one opportunities in the final minute of the game. Thomatis was 8-for-8 from the foul line in the contest.

The Lady Raiders committed just seven turnovers in the second half after having 11 in the opening 20 minutes. Jessica McClure had a great allaround game for Middle Tennessee, scoring seven points and grabbing six rebounds with three assists.

Amy Waugh led three Xavier players in double figures with 20 points, but just five in the second half. Alexis Henderson added 13 points and Reetta Piipari had 11 for the Musketeers. Kate Kreager, Shavon Bell and Henderson all grabbed seven rebounds for Xavier.

The Lady Raiders played a competitive but sloppy first half against the Musketeers, trailing 34-29 at the break. Holmes had nine points in the half for Middle Tennessee, with Thomatis adding eight.

The Lady Raiders trailed by just two in the final minute of the half until XU's Amy Waugh launched a 25-footer as the shot clock expired. The long three was good, giving the Musketeers the five-point halftime advantage.

Both teams committed 11 turnovers in the first 20 minutes, but Xavier made up for it with a 16-9 edge on the boards.

HOUSTON DEFEATS LADY RAIDERS, 75-63

Houston's Chandi Jones scored a game-high 22 points and the visiting Lady Cougars answered every challenge from the home team in taking a 75-63 victory over Middle Tennessee Thursday night at the Murphy Center.

Jones netted 14 points before halftime, as the Lady Cougars jumped out to a 40-31 advantage at the half after shooting 55 percent from the field in the opening 20 minutes. A 9-2 run in the middle of the period gave Houston a 26-16 lead with 6:25 remaining, and the Lady Raiders were never able to get closer than seven for the rest of the half.

Neither team shot the ball well in the second half, as the two squads combined for just 18 points in the first 10 minutes of the half. The Lady Cougars upped the lead to as many as 13 points at 50-37 and had a 10-point advantage with 3:47 remaining. The Lady Raiders cut it to seven after a Patrice Holmes three-pointer with 3:12 left, but that was as close as Middle Tennessee would get late in the contest.

Holmes and Jamie Thomatis each had 14 points to lead the Lady Raiders, and Keisha McClinic added 11. McClinic made three of the team's five three-pointers in the contest. Thomatis and Jennifer Justice each grabbed a team-high seven rebounds in the loss.

Jones had 22 for the Lady Cougars, while Shondra Bush scored 13 and Courtney Pastner had a dozen for Houston. Nicole Oliver added nine points and a game-high 10 rebounds.

BAILEY GOES UNDER KNIFE

Freshman guard Cartia Bailey had minor knee surgery December 18 performed by the Middle Tennessee team doctors. Rehabilitation will begin immediately but should take almost three months, meaning the Fayetteville, Tenn., native will redshirt this season.

Bailey played in the opening game of the season at Tennessee State, scoring four points in four minutes of action. The Lincoln County HS product did not seen action in any other games this year.

THOMATIS NAMED SBC PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Middle Tennessee senior Jamie Thomatis was named Sun Belt Conference Player of the Week after the Lady Raiders defeated Austin Peay and Ole Miss on November 27 and December 1, respectively.

The 5-11 forward averaged 22.0 points in the two victories, including scoring 31 points and grabbing 10 rebounds in a 74-64 win over Ole Miss. It was her first double-double of the season and the 10th of her career.

It marked the 18th straight double-figure game for the Destrehan, La., native, and the 12th 20-plus point game in her last 16 contests dating to last season. It was the seventh 30-plus point game of her career and the first since scoring 30 against Indiana on March 14, 2001, in the first round of the WNIT.

Thomatis went 9-of-18 from the field and made three of Middle Tennessee's five three-pointers in the contest, and was a perfect 10-for-10 from the foul line, including eight in the final four minutes of the game against the Lady Rebels.

Thomatis won the Player of the Week award three times last season in the Sun Belt, and was named POW twice during her sophomore campaign in the OVC.

THOMATIS EARNS PRESEASON ALL-CONFERENCE

Senior forward Jamie Thomatis was a unanimous selection to the Preseason All-Sun Belt team announced at the conference media days October 23-24 in New Orleans. The New Orleans area native, from Destrehan, La., finished second in the league and 12th in the nation in scoring last season and 10th in the conference in rebounding, leading the Lady Raiders to a 17-13 mark and a WNIT appearance. She enters her senior campaign eighth on the career points list at Middle Tennessee, just 21 points from fifth place. Thomatis is averaging 17.4 ppg in her career coming into the 2001-02 season, the fourth highest average in school history.

Thomatis has been named First Team All-Conference the past two seasons, earning All-Sun Belt honors last year after receiving All-OVC recognition after her sophomore season.

EIGHT NEWCOMERS HIGHLIGHT 2001-02 ROSTER

Eight newcomers joined six returnees for coach Stephany Smith in the season opener against Tennessee State on November 16 at the Gentry Center in Nashville.

After beginning last season with only nine scholarship players and one walk-on, Smith starts the 2001-02 campaign with 14 players on the roster, including seven true freshmen.

The roster additions give the Lady Raiders needed depth and will allow Smith to mix and match lineups throughout games and the entire season.

ALUKA JOINS MILLENNIUM CLUB

Senior forward Joanne Aluka scored 16 points and grabbed five rebounds in the 10-point victory over Ole Miss on December 1, becoming the 15th member of the Middle Tennessee Millennium Club in school history. Aluka joined teammate Jamie Thomatis in the club as 1,000-point scorers in Lady Raider history.

Aluka has led the squad in field goal percentage the past two seasons and enters her senior year with a career .513 field goal percentage.

MCCLURE MOVES INTO FIFTH ON CAREER ASSISTS LIST

Senior point guard Jessica McClure stands fifth on the all-time assists list and seventh on the career steals list at Middle Tennessee during this, her final season in the Blue and White.

McClure moved into fifth on the all-time assists list at Middle Tennessee with three assists against Houston on December 20. The Paris, Tenn., native had 103 assists last season and is only 54 assists from second place behind all-time leader Heather Prater (605). McClure's three assists against UH moved her past Julie Morrison (1990-93) and into fifth place. The senior stands at 375 career assists heading into Saturday's conference opener against New Orleans.

McClure has 192 steals in her career at Middle Tennessee after making two thefts at Xavier, and is now just 30 from second place on the all-time list behind leader Kim Webb (294). All-time listings are on page 6 of this notes package.

ALUKA CLIMBS REBOUNDING LIST

Senior Joanne Aluka grabbed four rebounds in the loss to Houston, giving her 600 rebounds in her three-plus seasons at Middle Tennessee, placing her 12th on the Lady Raider career rebounding list. Aluka's 195 rebounds last year were second on the squad behind Jamie Thomatis.

Aluka could easily end her career in the Top 5 with another good season, needing 192 to tie Holly Hoover (1982-84) for fifth on the all-time list.

THOMATIS NEAR TOP OF MANY CAREER CATEGORIES

Senior Jamie Thomatis stands in the Top 10 of 11 Lady Raider career records heading into her final season at Middle Tennessee.

Thomatis moved into fifth on the career scoring list with 24 points at Georgia and now has 1,650 points, 319 points behind second-place Priscilla Robinson (1991-94, 1,969 points). Thomatis netted 639 points last year for 21.3 ppg, second best in the Sun Belt and 12th nationally.

Her 17.6 ppg average for a career is fourth highest in school history behind Kim Webb (18.5 ppg), Robinson (18.2) and Robin Hendrix (17.7).

Thomatis heads into Saturday's conference opener against New Orleans in the Top 10 in steals (9th), FG made (6th), FG attempted (8th), FG percentage (1st), FT made (4th), FT attempted (5th), FT percentage (3rd), 3-pt. FG percentage (3rd) and double-figure scoring (5th).

LADY RAIDERS INK RIVERDALE STANDOUT

The Middle Tennessee Lady Raiders inked a national letter of intent from Riverdale (Murfreesboro) High School's Melissa Weiland during the early signing period in November.

Weiland, a 5-10 guard, averaged 13.1 points per game for the Lady Warriors last season, leading them to an 18-10 final record. The left-handed shooting Weiland made 25 three-pointers last season and shot 78.3 percent from the foul line.

"Melissa is a player we are very excited about adding to our program here at Middle Tennessee," Smith said. "She is a guard with great size and a tremendous outside shot. Where she really caught my eye was with her work ethic over the last 10 months. I really believe her best days are ahead of her."

LADY RAIDERS PICKED THIRD BY LEAGUE COACHES

The Lady Raiders were chosen third in the Eastern Division behind Florida International and Western Kentucky in the Sun Belt preseason coaches poll, announced during the conference media days October 23-24 in New Orleans.

Denver edged out league newcomer North Texas by two points in the West Division Preseason Poll with 61 points and six first-place votes. The Lady Eagles, a conference tourney semifinalist last season, picked up 59 points and five first-place votes. South Alabama was tabbed third in the West, followed by New Orleans, New Mexico State and Louisiana-Lafayette.

FIU received nine first-place votes in the East Division, with Western Kentucky receiving the other two. Middle Tennessee was voted third, followed by Arkansas State and Arkansas-Little Rock.

Western Kentucky's Natalie Powers was voted the Preseason Player of the Year. Powers finished last season sixth in the nation in scoring at 22.3 points per game, leading the Sun Belt in the process. She was also ninth in the country in three-point shooting at 44.2 percent. Powers is one of three unanimous picks to the 2001-02 Preseason All-Sun Belt Team, along with Middle Tennessee's Jamie Thomatis and Florida International's Gergana Slavtcheva.

Stephany Smith

Middle Tennessee Head Coach Fifth Season/Ninth at Middle Tennessee

Middle Tennessee head women's basket-ball coach Stephany Smith begins her fifth season at the helm of the Lady Raiders in 2001-02, and her ninth in the MT program. The Brookhaven, Miss., native has established herself as one of college basketball's brightest young coaches, compiling a 71-46 mark in her four seasons as the head coach in Murfreesboro.

As she prepares to begin her fifth campaign, Smith's record stands as a testament to her hard work, excellent recruiting skills and knowledge of the game.

During her tenure in Murfreesboro, Smith has both an OVC regular season title and an OVC Tournament title to her credit. Three of Smith's teams have competed in postseason play, with an NCAA berth in 1998 and WNIT bids in 1999 and 2001.

Smith did not enter into her first head coaching job blindly. She spent four years as an assistant at MT to former head coach Lewis Bivens, heading up the team's recruiting efforts during that time. Smith was promoted to associate head coach in her final season under Bivens.

The 1995-96 squad went 24-6, the second-most victories in school history, before falling to Kansas in the first round of the NCAA Tournament in Lawrence, Kan. The Lady Raiders were OVC Co-Champions in 1994-95 and 1995-96, compiling 64 wins in Smith's first three seasons on the MT staff. Fruits of her labors at Middle Tennessee were shown in 1996 when the Lady Raiders received votes in both collegiate polls, ranking as high as 26th. The school received its first at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament to further attest the program's growing stature.

Smith spent four years as an assistant at UAB coordinating recruiting for the Blazers before her arrival at Middle Tennessee. UAB went 76-45 during her four seasons on the staff, winning or tying for the Sun Belt Conference crown twice (1990, 91) and sharing the Great Midwest Conference title in 1992. The Lady Blazers made two WNIT trips (1991, 92) during Smith's association with the UAB program.

She spent one year as a graduate assistant at her alma mater, Harding University, in 1989.

Teams associated with Smith have a 221-133 record during her 12 years on the Division I level, including four 20-plus win seasons and two 19-win seasons.

Smith's claim to fame is recruiting, and she has established a reputation as one of the game's top young coaches and as a top-flight recruiter. Two of her former players at UAB have gone on to the professional ranks.

Jacque Nero played six years overseas before being selected fourth by Nashville in the 1998 ABL draft. Shyronda Mifflin has played four seasons overseas and was on the Atlanta Glory's practice squad for part of the 1998 season before returning to Spain.

Her coaching philosophy stresses establishing fundamental knowledge of the game in practice. The repetition of fundamentals in practice allows her players the freedom to use that knowledge coupled with their athletic skills over the course of a game. An intense conditioning regimen also lends Smith's squad the opportunity to play an up-tempo style predicated on defensive intensity.

Smith graduated from Harding University in Searcy, Ark. with a B.A. in Physical Education in May of 1988 before receiving an M.S.E. with an emphasis in Physical Education in August 1989.

Smith began her collegiate experience at the University of Mississippi before transferring to Copiah-Lincoln Community College in Wesson, Miss. She received an associate's degree from Co-Lin in May of 1986.

Smith competed in basketball at both Co-Lin and Harding, and also spent a year as the Head Girls Track Coach at Searcy High School in 1989 while completing her Master's degree at Harding.

The personable Smith is truly people-oriented. She has planned and directed numerous non-profit clinics at Middle Tennessee and UAB for girls to further promote the game of basketball. She now heads up one of the most successful summer camps in the country, the Middle Tennessee "Stars of Tomorrow."

She is the daughter of Ralph and Betsy Smith. She has three brothers (Ralph, Richard, Cameron) and one sister (Sydney).

Smith's father will be inducted into the Mississippi Sports Hall of Fame in 2002. Ralph "Catfish" Smith won two national championships as a member of the Ole Miss football team in 1959 and 1960, and played 10 years in the NFL.
